¶ A Preface into the Byble following.

OF al the ſentences pronounced by our ſauiour Chriſte in his whole doctrine, none is more ſerious, or more worthie to be borne in remembraunce, than that which he ſpake openly in his Goſpell, ſaying, Scrutamini ſcripturas, quia vos putatis in ipſis vitam æternam habere, & ille ſunt quæ teſtimonium perhibent de me. Search ye the ſcriptures, for in them ye thynke to haue eternall lyfe, and thoſe they be which beare witneſſe of me. Theſe wordes were firſt ſpoken vnto the Iewes by our ſauiour, but by hym in his doctrine ment to all: for they concerne all, of what nation, of what tongue, of what profeſſion ſoeuer any man be. For to all belongeth it to be called vnto eternall lyfe, ſo many as by the witneſſe of the ſcriptures deſire to finde eternall lyfe. No man, woman, or chylde, is excluded from this ſaluation, and therefore to euery of them is this ſpoken propoſitionally yet, and in their degrees and ages, and as the reaſon and congruitie of their vocation may aſke. For not ſo lyeth in charge to the worldly artificer to ſearche, or to any other priuate man ſo exquiſitely to ſtudie, as it lieth to the charge of the publike teacher to ſearch in the ſcriptures, to be the more able to walke in the houſe of God (whiche is the Churche of the liuyng God, the piller and ground of trueth) to the eſtabliſhyng of the true doctrine of the ſame, and to the impugnyng of the falſe. And though whatſoeuer difference there may be betwixt the preacher in office, and the auditour in his vocatiõ, yet to both is it ſayd, Search ye the ſcriptures, whereby ye may finde eternal life, and gather witneſſes of that ſaluation which is in Chriſt Ieſus our Lorde. For although the prophete of God Moſes, biddeth the kyng when he is once ſet in the throne of his kyngdome, to deſcribe before his eyes the volume of Gods lawe, accordyng to the example which he ſhould receiue of the prieſts of the Leuitical tribe, to haue it with him, and to reade in it all the dayes of his life, to the ende that he might learne to feare the Lord his God, & to obſerue his lawes, that his hart be not aduaunced in pryde ouer his brethren, not to ſwarue eyther on the right hande, or on the left: yet the reaſon of this precept, for that it concerneth all men, may reaſonably be thought to be commaunded to all men, and all men may take it to be ſpoken to themſelfe in their degree. Though almightie God himſelf ſpake to his captayne Ioſue in preciſe wordes, Non recedat volumen legis huius ab ore tuo, ſed meditaberis in eo diebus ac noctibus. &c. Let not the volume of this booke depart from thy mouth, but muſe therin both dayes and nights, that thou mayeſt keepe and performe all things which be written in it, that thou mayeſt direct wel thy way, and vnderſtand the ſame: yet alwel ſpake almightie God this precept to all his people in the directions of theyr wayes to himwarde, as he ment it to Ioſue: For that he hath care of all, be accepteth no mans perſon, his will is that all men ſhould be ſaued, his wyl is that al men ſhould come to the way of truth. How could this be more conueniently declared by God to man, than when Chriſt his welbeloued ſonne our moſt louing ſauiour, the way, the trueth, & the life of vs al, did byd vs openly Search the ſcriptures, aſſuryng vs herein to finde eternal life, to finde ful teſtification of al his graces & benefites towards vs in the treaſure therof? Therefore it is moſt conuenient that we ſhould al ſuppoſe that Chriſte ſpake to vs al in this his precept of ſearching the ſcriptures. If this celeſtial doctour (ſo authorized by the father of heauen, and commaunded as his onely ſonne to be heard of vs all) biddeth vs buſily to Search the ſcriptures: of what ſpirite can it proceede to forbidde the readyng and ſtudying of the ſcriptures? If the groſſe Iewes vſed to reade them, as ſome men thinke that our ſauiour Chriſte did ſhew by ſuch kinde of ſpeaking, their vſage, with their opinion they had therein to finde eternal life, & were not of Chriſt rebuked or diſproued, eyther for their ſearchyng, or for the opinion they had, how ſuperſtitiouſly or ſuperficially ſoeuer ſome of them vſed to expend the ſcriptures: How much more vnaduiſedly do ſuche as boaſt them ſelfe to be eyther Chriſtes vicars, or be of his garde, to loth chriſten men from readyng, by their couert ſlaũderous reproches of the ſcriptures, or in theyr authoritie by lawe or ſtatute to contract this libertie of ſtudying the worde of eternal ſaluation? Chriſte calleth them not onely to the ſingle readyng of ſcriptures (ſayth Chryſoſtome) but ſendeth them to the exquiſite ſearchyng of them, for in them is eternall lyfe to be found, and they be (ſayth himſelf) the witneſſe of me: for they declare out his office, they commende his benevolence toward vs, they recorde his whole workes wrought for vs to our saluation. Antichrist therfore he must be, that vnder whatsoeuer colour would giue contrarie precept or counsayle, to that which Christe did giue vnto vs. Very litle do they resemble Christes louyng spirite mouing vs to search for our comfort, that will discourage vs from such searchyng, or that woulde wish ignorance and forgetfulnesse of his benefite to raygne in vs, so that they might by our ignorance raigne the more frankely in our consciences, to the daunger of our saluation. Who can take the light from vs in this miserable vale of blindnesse, and meane not to haue vs stumble in the pathes of perdition to the ruine of our soules? who will enuie vs this bread of lyfe prepared and set on the table for our eternal sustenance, and meane not to famishe vs, or in steede therefor, with their corrupt traditions and doctrines of man, to infect vs? Al the whole scripture, saith the holy Apostle saint Paul, inspired from God aboue, is profitable to teache, to reprowue, to reformne, to instruct in righteousnesse, that the man of God may be sound and perfect, instructed to euery good worke.

Search therfore good reader (on Gods name) as Christ biddeth thee, the holy scripture, wherin thou mayest finde thy saluation: Let not the volume of this booke (by Gods owne warrant) depart from thee, but occupie thy selfe therein, in the whole iourney of this thy worldly pylgrimage, to vnderstand the way how to walke rightly before him al the dayes of thy life. Remember that the prophete Dauid pronounceth him the blessed man whiche will muse in the lawe of God both day and night, remember that he calleth him blessed which walketh in the way of the Lord, which wil search diligently his testimonies, and will in theyr whole hart seeke the same. Let not the couert suspitious insinuations of the aduersaries driue thee from the search of the holy scripture, eyther for the obscuritie which they say is in them, or for the inscrutable hidden mysteries they talke to be comprysed in them, or for the strangenesse and homelynesse of the phrases they would charge Gods booke with. Christ exhorteth thee therefore the rather for the difficultie of the same, to searche them diligently. Saint Paul willeth thee to haue thy senses exercised in them, and not to be a chylde in thy senses, but in malice. Though many things may be difficule to thee to vnderstand, impute it rather to thy dull hearyng and readyng, than to thinke that the scriptures be insuperable, to them whiche with diligent searchyng labour to discerne the euill from the good. Onely search with an humble spirite, aske in continual prayer, seeke with puritie of life, knocke with perpetual perseuerance, and crye to that good spirite of Christ the comforter: and surely to euery such asker it will be giuen, suche searchers must needes finde, to them it wyl be opened. Christe himselfe wil open the sense of the scriptures, not to the proude, or to the wise of the world, but to the lowly and contrite in hart: for he hath the key of Dauid, who openeth, and no man shutteth, who shutteth, and no man openeth. For as this spirite is a benigne and a liberal spirite, and wil be easily founde of them whiche will early in carefulnesse ryse to seeke him, and as he promiseth he wil be the comforter from aboue to teach vs, and to leade vs into all the wayes of trueth, if that in humilitie we bowe vnto him, denying our owne natural senses, our carnal wittes and reasons: so is he the spirite of puritie and cleannesse, & will receede from him whose conscience is subiect to filthynesse of life. Into such a soule this heauenly wisedome will not enter, for al peruerse cogitations will separate vs from God: & then how busily soeuer we search this holy table of the scripture, yet wil it then be a table to such to theyr owne snare, a trap, a stumblyng stocke, and a recompence to themselfe. We ought therfore to search to finde out the trueth, not to oppresse it, we ought to seeke Christe, not as Herode did, vnder the pretence of worshippyng him to destroy hym, or as the Pharisees searched the scriptures to disprone Christe, and to discredite him, and not to folow him: but to embrace the saluation whiche we may learne by them. Nor yet is it inough so to acknowledge the scriptures as some of the Iewes did, of the holyest of them, who vsed such diligence, that they could number precisely, not onely euery verse, but euery worde and syllable, how oft euery letter of the alphabet was repeated in the whole scriptures: they had some of them such reuerence to that booke, that they would not suffer in a great heape of bookes, any other to lay ouer them, they would not suffer that booke to fall to the ground as nigh as they could, they would costly bind the bookes of holy scriptures, and cause them to be exquisitely and ornately written. Which deuotion yet though it was not to be discommended, yet was it not for that intent why Christe commended the scriptures, nor they therof alowed before God: For they dyd not call vpon God in a true fayth, they were not charitable to theyr neyghbours, but in the middest of all this deuotion, they dyd steale, they were adulterers, they were slaunderers and backbyters, euen muche lyke many of our Christian men and women now a dayes, who glory much that they reade the scriptures, that they search them and loue them, that they frequent the publique sermons in an outward shewe of al honestie and perfection, yea they can pyke out of the scriptures vertuous sentences and godly precepts to lay before other men. And though these maner of men do not much erre fro suche searchyng and studying, yet they see not the scope and the pryncipall state of the scriptures, whiche is, as Christ declareth it, to find Christ as theyr sauiour, to cleaue to his saluation and merites, to be brought to the lowe repentance of theyr liues, and to amende themselfe, to rayse vp their fayth to our sauiour Christe, so to thynke of hym as the scriptures dow testifie of hym. These be the principall caules why Christe dyd sende the Iewes to search the scriptures: for to this ende were they written, sayth S. John, Hæc scripta sunt vt credatis, & vt credentes vitam habeatis æternam. Iohn.20.

These were written to this intent, that ye should beleeue, & that through your beliefe ye shoulde haue euerlastyng lyfe.

And here good reader, great cause we haue to extol the wonderous wisedome of God, and with great thankes to prayse his prouidence, considering howe he hath preserued and renewed from age to age by special miracle, the incomparable treasure of his Church. For first he did inspire Moses, as John Chrysostome doth testifie, to wryte the stonie tables, and kepte him in the mountayne fourtie dayes to gyue him his lawe: after him he sent the prophetes, but they suffered many thousand aduersities, for battailes did folow, al were slayne, al were destroyed, bookes were brent vp. He then inspired agayne another man to repayre these miraculous scriptures, (I was I meane, who of their leauynges set them agayne together: after that, he prouided that the seuentie interpreters shoulde take them in hand: at the last came Christ himself, the Apostles dyd receyue them, and spread them throughout all nations. Christe wrought his miracles and wonders: and what folowed? after these great volumes the Apostles also did wryte, as S. Paul doth say, These be written to the instruction of vs that be come into the end of the worlde: and Christe doth say, Ye therefore erre, bycause ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God: and Paul dyd say, Let the worde of Christ be plentifull among you: and agayne sayth Dauid, Oh how sweete be thy wordes to my throte: he sayde not to my hearyng, but to my throte, aboue the hony or the hony combe to my mouth. Yea Moses sayth, Thou shalt meditate in them euermore, when thou ryselt, when thou sittest downe, when thou goest to sleepe, continue in them he sayth? and a thousande places more. And yet after so many testimonies thus spoken, there be some persons that do not yet so much as know what the scriptures be: whereupon nothing is in good state amongst vs, nothyng worthyly is done amongst vs. In this whiche pateyne to this life, we make very great hast, but of spiritual goodes we haue no regard. Thus farre Iohn Chrysostome. It must needes signifie some great thing to our vnderstāding, that almightie God hath had such care to prescribe these bookes thus vnto vs: I say, not prescribe them only, but to maintayne them, and defend them agaynst the malignitie of the deuyl and his ministers, who alway went about to destroy them: and yet coulde these neuer be so destroyed, but that he would haue them continue whole and perfect to this day, to our singular comfort and instruction, where other bookes of mortal wise men haue perished in great numbers. It is recorded that Ptolomeus Philadelphus kyng of Egypt, had gathered together in one librarie at Alexandria by his great cost and diligence, seuen hundred thousand bookes, whereof the principal were the bookes of Moses, whiche reserued not much more than by the space of two hundred yeeres, were all brent, and consumed in that battayle, when Cesar restored Cleopatra agayne after hyr expulsion. At Constantinople perished vnder Zenon by one common fire, a hundred and twentie thousand bookes. At Rome when Lucius Aurel. Antonius dyd raygne, his notable librarie by a lightnyng from heauen was quite consumed: yea it is recorded that Gregorie the first, dyd cause a librarie of Rome conteyning onely certaine Paynims workes to be burned, to thintent the scriptures of God shoulde be more read and studied. What other great libraries haue there bene consumed but of late dayes? And what libraries haue of old throughout this realme almost in euery Abbey of the same, bene destroyed at sundry ages, besides the losse of other mens priuate studies, it were to long to rehearse. Wherupon seyng almightie God by his deuine prouidence, hath preserued these bookes of the scriptures safe and sounde, and that in their native languages they were first written, in the great ignorance that raygned in these tongues, and contrary to all other casualties chanced vpon all other bookes, in maugre of all worldly wittes, who would so faine haue had them destroyed, and yet he by his mightie hand, would haue them extant as witnesses and interpreters of his will towarde mankynde: we may some see cause inough reuerently to embrace these deuine testimonies of hys will, to studie them, and to searche them, to instruct our blynde nature so sore corrupted and fallen from the knowledge in whiche firste wee were created. Yet hauyng occasion giuen somewhat to recouer our fall, and to returne againe to that deuine nature wherein we were once made, and at the last to be inheritours in the celestiall habitation with God almightie, after the ende of our mortalitie here brought to his vsse agayne: These bookes I say beyng of suche estimation and authoritie, so muche reuerenced

And here we may beholde the endeuour of ſome mens cauillations, who labour all they can to ſlaunder the tranſlatours, to finde faulte in ſome wordes of the tranſlation: but them ſelfe wyll neuer ſet penne to the

They can in theyr conſtitutions prouincial, vnder payne of excommunication, inhibite al other men to tranſlate them without the ordinaries or the prouincial counſayle agree therevnto: But they wyll be well ware neuer to agree or to gyue counſayle to ſet them out. Whiche their ſuttle compaſſe in effect, tendeth but to bewray what inwardly they meane, if they coulde bryng it about, that is, vtterly to ſuppreſſe them: beyng in this theyr iudgement farre vnlyke the olde fathers in the primatiue Churche, who hath exhorted indifferently all perſons, aſwell men as women, to exerciſe themſelues in the ſcriptures, whiche by S. Hieroms authoritie, be the ſcriptures of the people. Yea they be farre vnlyke theyr olde forefathers that haue ruled in this realme, who in theyr tymes, and in diuers ages, dyd their diligence to tranſlate the whole bookes of the ſcriptures, to the erudition of the laytie, as yet at this day be to be ſeene diuers bookes tranſlated into the vulgar tongue, ſome by kings of the realme, ſome by Biſhops, ſome by Abbots, ſome by other deuoute godly fathers: ſo deſirous they were of olde tyme to haue the lay ſorte edified in godlyneſſe by readyng in their vulgar tongue, that very many bookes be yet extant, though for the age of the ſpeach and ſtrangeneſſe of the charect of many of them almoſt worne out of knowledge. In whiche bookes may be ſeene euidently how it was vſed among the Saxons, to haue in theyr churches read the foure Goſpels, ſo diſtributed and pyked out in the body of the euangeliſtes bookes, that to euery ſunday and feſtiual day in the yeere, they were ſorted out to the common miniſters of the Churche in theyr common prayers to

Peter teſtifieth that theſe holy men of God had the impulſiõ of the holy ghoſt, to ſpeake out theſe diuine teſtimonies: ſo it is not to be doubted, but that theſe latter holy fathers of the engliſh church, had the impulſiõ

Some do affirme it to be a fooliſhe raſhe boldneſſe to beleeue him, who proueth not by the ſcriptures that whiche he affirmeth in his worde. Some dow accurſe al that is deliuered by tradition, not found in the legal and euangelical ſcriptures. Some

Wherefore let men extoll out the Churche practiſes as highly as they can, and let them ſet out their traditions and ruſtomes, theyr deciſions in Synodes and counſayles, with vaunting the preſence of the holy ghoſt among them really, as ſome dothe affirme it in theyr writyng, let theyr grounded and theyr demonſtrations, theyr fundations, be as ſtable and as ſtrong as they blaſe them out: Yet wyll we be bolde to ſay with ſayut Peter, Habemus nos firmiorem ſermonem propheticum. We haue for our part a more ſtable ground, the prophetical wordes (of the ſcriptures) and doubt not to be cõmended therfore of the ſame S. Peter with theſe wordes: Cui dum attenditis ſeu lucernæ apparenti in obſcuro loco, recte facitis donec dies illuceſcat, &c. Wherunto ſayth he, while ye do attend as to a light ſhining in a darke place, ye do wel, vntil the day light appeare, & til ỹ bright

ſtarre do ariſe into our heartes. For this we knowe, that all the prophetical ſcripture ſtandeth not in any priuate interpretation of vaine names, of ſeuerall Churches, of catholike and vniuerſall Seas, of ſingular and wilfull heades, whiche will chalenge by cuſtome all deciſion to perteyne to them onely, who by working ſo much for their vaine ſuperiority, that they be not aſhamed nowe to be of that number, Qui dixerunt, linguam noſtram magnificabimus, labia noſtra a nobis ſunt, quis noſter dominus eſt? Which haue ſayd, with our tongue wil we preuaile, we are they that ought to ſpeake, who is Lorde ouer vs? And while they ſhall thus contend for their ſtraunge claymed authoritie, we will proceede in the reformation begunne, and doubt no more, by the helpe of Chriſt his grace, of the true vnitie to Chriſtes catholike Church, and of the vprightneſſe of our fayth in this prouince, than the Spaniſh clergie once gathered togither in counſayle (onely by the commaundement of their king, before which time the Pope was not ſo acknowledged in his authoritie which he nowe claymeth) I ſay as ſurely dare we truſt, as they did truſt of their fayth and vnitie. Yea no leſſe confidence haue we to profeſſe that, which the fathers of the vniuerſall counſayle at Carthage in Affrike, as they wryte themſelfe, did profeſſe in their Epiſtle written to Pope Celeſtine, laying before his face the foule corruption of himſelfe (as two other of his predeceſſours did the like errour) in falſifying the canons of Nicene counſaile, for his wrong chalenge of his newe claymed authoritie: Thus wryting. Prudentiſsime enim iuſtiſsimeque prouiderunt (Nicena & Affricana decreta) quæcunque negotia in ſuis locis (vbi ſunt orta) finienda, nec vnicuique prouinciæ gratiam ſancti ſpiritus defuturam, qua æquitas a Chriſti ſacerdotibus & prudenter videatur, & conſtantiſsime teneatur, maxime, quia vnicuique conceſſum eſt, ſi iudicio offenſus fuerit cognitorum, ad conſilia ſuæ prouinciæ, vel etiam vniuerſale prouocare. That (the Nicene and Affricane decrees) haue moſt prudently and iuſtly prouided for all maner of matters to be ended in their territories, where they had their beginning, and they truſted, that not to any one prouince ſhould want the grace of the holy ghoſt, wherby both the truth or equitie might prudently be ſeene of the chriſtian prelates of Chriſt, and might be alſo by them moſt conſtantly defended, ſpecially for that it is graunted to euery man (if hee bee greeued) by the iudgement of the cauſe once knowne, to appeale to the counſayles of his owne prouince, or elſe to the vniuerſall. Except there be any man, which may beleeue that our Lorde God would inſpire the righteouſneſſe of examination to any one ſingular perſon, and to denie the ſame to prieſtes gathered togither into counſaile without number. &c. And there they do require the biſhop of Rome to ſende none of his clearkes to execute ſuch prouinciall cauſes, leaſt elſe, ſay they, mought be brought in the vaine pride of the worlde into the Church of Chriſt. In this antiquitie may we in this chriſtian catholike Church of Englande repoſe our ſelfe, knowing by our owne annales of auncient recorde, that king Lucius, whoſe conſcience was mucht troubled with the myracles which the ſeruants of Chriſt wrought in dyuers nations, therevpon being in great loue with the true fayth, ſent vnto Eleutherius then Biſhop of Rome, requyring of him the chriſtian religion. But Eleutherius did redily giue ouer that care to king Lucius in his Epiſtle, for that the king, as he wryteth, the vicar of God in his owne kingdome, and for that he had receyued the faith of Chriſt, and for that he had alſo both teſtaments in his realm, he wylled hym to draw out of them by the grace of God, and by the counſayle of his wiſe men, his lawes, and by that lawe of God to gouerne his Realme of Britaine, and not ſo much to deſire the Romaine and Emperours lawes, in the which ſome default might be founde, ſayth he, but in the lawes of God nothing at all. With which anſwere the Kings Legates, Eluanus, and Medwinus ſent as meſſengers by the king to the Pope, returned to Britayne againe, Eluanus being made a Byſhop, and Medwine allowed a publike teacher: who for the eloquence and knowledge they had in the holy ſcriptures, they repayred home againe to king Lucius, and by their holy preachings, Lucius and the noble men of the whole Britanie receyued their Baptiſme. &c. Thus farre in the ſtorie. Nowe therefore knowing and beleeuing wyth Saint Paul, Quod quæcunque præſcripta ſunt, ad noſtram doctrinam præſcripta ſunt, vt per patientiam & conſolationem ſcripturarum ſpem habeamus: Whatſoeuer is afore written, is written before for oure inſtruction, that wee throughe the patience and comfort of Scriptures might haue hope: the onely ſurety to our fayth and conſcience, is to ſticke to the Scriptures. Wherevpon while this eternall worde of God be our rocke and ancker to ſticke vnto, we will haue patience with all the vaine inuentions of men, who labour ſo highly to magnifie their tongues, to exalt themſelues aboue all that is God. We will take comfort by the holy ſcriptures againſt the maledictions of the aduerſaries, and doubt not to nouriſhe our hope continually therewith, ſo to liue and die in this comfortable hope, and doubt not to perteyne to the elect number of Chriſtes Church, how farre ſo euer we be excommunicated out of the ſinagogue of ſuch, who ſuppoſe themſelues to be the vniuerſal Lordes of all the worlde, Lordes of our fayth and conſciences, at pleaſure. Finally, to commende further vnto thee good reader the cauſe in part before intreated, it ſhall be the leſſe needfull, hauing ſo nigh followed that learned preface, which ſometime was ſet out by the diligence of that godly father Thomas Cranmer, late Biſhop in the ſea of Canterburie, which he cauſed to be prefixed before the tranſlation of that Bible that was then ſet out. And for that the copies thereof be ſo waſted, that very many Churches do want their conuenient Bybles, it was thought good to ſome well diſpoſed men, to recogniſe the ſame Byble againe into this fourme as it is now come out, with ſome further diligence in the printing, and with ſome more light added, partly in the tranſlation, and partly in the order of the text, not as condemning the former tranſlation, which was followed moſtly of any other tranſlation, excepting the originall text, from which as little variance was made as was thought meete to ſuch as toke paynes therein: deſyring thee good reader if ought be eſcaped, eyther by ſuch as had the expending of the bookes, or by the ouerſight of the Printer, to correct the ſame in the ſpirite of charitie, calling to remembrance what diuerſitie hath beene ſeene in mens iudgements in the tranſlation of theſe bookes before theſe dayes, though all directed their labours to the glorie of God, to the edification of the Churche, to the comfort of their chriſtian brethren, and alwayes as God did further open vnto them, ſo euermore deſirous they were to reforme their former humane ouerſights, rather than in a ſtubborne wilfulneſſe to reſiſt the gyft of the holy ghoſt, who from tyme to time is reſident as that heauenly teacher and leader into al truth, by whoſe direction the Church is ruled and gouerned. And let all men remember in them ſelfe howe errour and ignorance is created wyth oure nature: let frayle man confeſſe wyth that great wiſe man, that the cogitations and inuentions of mortall men be verie weake, and our opinions ſone deceyued: For the bodie ſo ſubiect to corruption doeth oppreſſe the ſoule, that it can not aſpire ſo high as of dutie it ought. Men we be all, and that which we know, is not the thouſande part of that we knowe not. Wherevpon ſayth ſaint Auſten, otherwiſe to iudge than the truth is, this temptation ryſeth of the frayltie of man. A man ſo to loue and ſticke to his owne indgement, or to enuie his brothers, to the perill of diſſoluing the chriſtian communion, or to the peril of ſchiſme, and of hereſie, this is diabolicall preſumption: but ſo to iudge in euery matter as the truth is, this belongeth onely to the angelicall perfection. Notwithſtanding good reader, thou mayeſt be well aſſured nothing to be done in this tranſlation eyther of malice or wilfull meaning, in altering the text, eyther by putting more or leſſe to the ſame, as of purpoſe to bring in any priuate iudgement by falſification of the words, as ſome certain men haue bene ouerbolde ſo to doe, little regarding the maieſtie of God his ſcripture: but ſo to make it ſerue to their corrupt errour, as in alledging the ſentence of ſaint Paul to the Romanes the ſixth, one certaine writer to proue his ſatiſfaction, was bolde to turne the worde of Sanctificationem, into the worde of Satisfactionem, Thus. Sicut exhibuimus antea membra noſtra ſeruire immunditiæ & iniquitati, ad iniquitatem: ita deinceps exhibeamus membra noſtra ſeruire iuſtitiæ in ſatisfactionem. That is, As we haue giuen our members to vncleanneſſe, from iniquitie to iniquitie: euen ſo from henceforth let vs giue our members to ſerue righteouſneſſe into ſatiſfaction: where the true worde is, into ſanctification. Euen ſo likewiſe for the aduantage of his cauſe, to proue that men maye haue in their prayer fayth vpon ſaints, corruptly alledgeth ſaint Paules text, ad Philemonem. Thus, Fidem quam habes in domino Ieſu & in omnes ſanctos, leauing out the worde, Charitatem, which woulde haue rightly bene diſtributed vnto Omnes ſanctos. As fidem vnto in domino Ieſu. Where the text is, Audiens charitatem tuam & fidem quã habes in domino Ieſu, & in omnes ſanctos. &c. It were to long to bring in many examples as may be openly found in ſome mens writings in theſe dayes, who would be counted the chiefe pillers of the catholike fayth, or to note how corruptly they of purpoſe abuſe the text to the commoditie of their cauſe. What maner of tranſlation may men thinke to looke for at their handes, if they ſhoulde tranſlate the ſcriptures to the comfort of Gods elect, which they neuer did, nor be not like to purpoſe it, but be rather ſtudious onely to ſeeke quarels in other mens wel doings, to picke fault where none is: and where any is eſcaped through humane negligence, there to crie out wyth theyr tragicall exclamations, but in no wiſe to amende by the ſpirite of charitie and lenitie that which might be more apily ſet. Wherevpon for frayle man (compaſſed him ſelfe wyth infirmitie) it is moſt reaſonable not to be to ſeuere in condemning his brothers knowledge or diligence, where he doth erre, not of malice, but of ſimplicitie, and ſpecially in handling of theſe ſo diuine bookes, ſo profounde in ſenſe, ſo farre paſſing our naturall vnderſtanding. And with charitie it ſtandeth, the Reader not to be offended with the diuerſitie of tranſlatours, nor with the ambiguitie of tranſlations: For as ſaint Auſten doth witneſſe, by Gods prouidence it is brought about, that the holy ſcriptures whiche bee the ſalues for euery mans ſore, though at the firſt they came from one language, and therby might haue bene ſpread to the whole worlde:

nowe by diuerſitie of many languages, the tranſlatours ſhould ſpread the ſaluation (that is conteyned in them) to al nations by ſuch wordes of vtterance, as the reader might perceiue the mind of the tranſlatour, and ſo conſequently to come to the knowledge of God his wil and pleaſure. And though many raſh readers be deceyued in the obſcurities and ambiguities of their tranſlations, while they take one thing for another, and while they vſe much labour to extricate themſelues out of the obſcurities of the ſame: yet I thinke (ſayeth he) this is not wrought without the prouidence of God, both to tame the proude arrogancie of man by his ſuch labour of ſearching, as alſo to keepe his minde from lothſomneſſe and contempt, where if the ſcriptures vniuerſally were to eaſie, he woulde leſſe regarde them. And though (ſayeth he) in the primitiue Church the late interpreters which did tranſlate the ſcriptures, be innumerable, yet wrought this rather an helpe, than an impediment to the readers, if they be not too negligent. For, ſayeth he, diuerſe tranſlations haue made many tymes the harder and darker ſentences, the more open and plaine: So that of congruence, no offence can iuſtly be taken for this new labour, nothing preiudicing any other mans iudgement by this doing, nor yet hereby profeſſing this to be ſo abſolute a tranſlation, as that hereafter might follow none other that might ſee that which as yet was not vnderſtanded. In this poynt it is conuenient to conſider the iudgement that Iohn once Biſhop of Rocheſter was in, who thus wrote: It is not vnknowne, but that many things Articulo.17. cont. Luth. hath bene more diligētly diſcuſſed, and more clearely vnderſtanded by the wittes of theſe latter dayes, aſwell concerning the Goſpels as other ſcriptures, than in olde time they were. The cauſe whereof is (ſayth he) for that to the olde men the yce was not broken, or for that theyr age was not ſufficient exquiſitely to expende the whole mayne ſea of the ſcriptures, or elſe for that in this large fielde of the ſcriptures, a man may gather ſome eares vntouched after the harueſt men, howe diligent ſoeuer they were. For there be yet (ſayth he) in the Goſpels verie many darke places, whiche without all doubt to the poſteritie ſhall bee made muche more open. For why ſhoulde we diſpayre herein, ſeeing the Goſpel (wryteth hee) was deliuered to this intent, that it might be vtterly vnderſtanded of vs, yea to the very ynche. Wherefore, foraſmuche as Chriſt ſheweth no leſſe loue to his Church nowe, than hytherto he hath done, the auctoritie whereof is as yet no whit diminiſhed, and foraſmuch as that holy ſpirit, the perpetuall keeper and gardian of the ſame Church, whoſe gyftes and graces doe flow as continually and as abundantly as from the beginning: who can doubt, but that ſuche things as remayne yet vnknowne in the Goſpel, ſhall be hereafter made open to the latter wittes of our poſteritie, to their cleare vnderſtanding: (Thus farre this wryter.) Onely good readers let vs oft call vpon the holy ſpirite of God our heauenly father, by the mediation of our Lorde and Sauiour, with the wordes of Pſal.119. the octonarie Pſalme of Dauid, who did ſo importunately craue of God to haue the vnderſtanding of his lawes and teſtament: let vs humbly on our knees pray to almightie God, with that wiſe king Solomon in his verie wordes, ſaying thus.

O God of my fathers, and Lord of mercies (thou that haſt made al things with thy word, and diddeſt ordaine man through thy wiſedome, that he ſhould haue dominion ouer thy creatures which thou haſt made, and that he ſhoulde order the worlde according to holineſſe and righteouſneſſe, and that he ſhould execute iudgement with a true heart) giue me wiſedome, which is euer about thy ſeate, and put mee not oute from among thy children: For I thy ſeruant and ſonne of thy handmayden am a feeble perſon, of a ſhort time, and too weake to the vnderſtanding of thy iudgements and lawes. And though a man be neuer ſo perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wiſdome be not with him, he ſhall be of no value. O ſende hir out therefore from thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maieſtie, that ſhee may bee with me, and labour with me, that I may knowe what is acceptable in thy ſight: for ſhe knoweth and vnderſtandeth al things, and ſhe ſhal lead me ſoberly in my workes, and preſerue me in hir power. So ſhall my workes be acceptable by Chriſt our Lorde, To whome with the father and the holye ghoſt, be all honour and glorie worlde without ende. Amen. Sap.9.

Oncerning tvvo ſundrie ſorts of people, it ſeemeth much neceſſarie that ſomething be ſayde in the entrie of thys booke by the way of a Preface or Prologue, whereby hereafter it may be both the better accepted of them which hitherto could not wel beare it, and alſo the better vſed of them which heretofore haue miſuſed it. For truly ſome there are that bee too ſlowe, and neede the ſpurre, ſome other ſeeme too quick, and neede more of the brydle: ſome looſe their game by ſhort ſhooting, ſome by ouer ſhooting, ſome walke too much on the left hande, ſome too muche on the right. In the former ſort be all they that refuſe to reade, or to heare read the ſcripture in the vulgar tongue, much worſe they that let alſo or diſcourage the other from the reading or hearing thereof. In the latter ſort be they which by their inordinate reading, vndiſcrete ſpeaking, contencious diſputing, or otherwiſe by their licencious liuing, ſlaunder and hinder the woorde of God moſte of all other, wherof they would ſeeme to be greateſt furtherers. Theſe two ſorts, albeit they be moſt farre vnlike the one to the other, yet they both deſerue in effect like reproch: neither can I wel tell whether of them I may iudge the more offender, him that doth obſtinately refuſe ſo godly and goodly knowledge: or him that ſo vngodly and ſo vngoodly doth abuſe the ſame. And as touching the former, I woulde maruell much that any man ſhould be ſo madde, as to refuſe in darkeneſſe, light: in hunger, foode: in colde, fire: for the worde of God is light: Lucerna pedibus meis verbum tuum. Thy word is a lanterne vnto my feete. It is food: Non in ſolo pane viuit homo, ſed in omni verbo Dei. Man ſhall not liue by bread onely, but by euery worde of God. It is fire: Ignem veni mittere in terram; & quid volo, niſi vt ardeat? I am to come to ſende fire on the earth, and what is my deſire, but that it bee kindled? I woulde maruell (I ſay at this) ſaue that I conſider how much cuſtome and vſage may do. So that if there were a people as ſome write, de Cymerijs, which neuer ſawe the Sunne, by reaſon that they be ſituated farre toward the North pole, and be incloſed and ouerſhadowed with high mountaynes: it is credible and like ynoughe, that if by the power and will of God, the mountaynes ſhould ſinke downe, and giue place, that the light of the ſun might haue entrance to them, at the firſt ſome of them woulde be offended therwith. And the olde prouerbe affirmeth, that after tillage of corne was firſt founde, many delighted more to feede of maſt and acornes, wherewith they had bene accuſtomed, than to eate bread made of good corne. Such is the nature of cuſtome, that it cauſeth vs to beare all things well and eaſily wherewith we haue bene accuſtomed, and to be offended with all things therevnto contrary. And therefore I can wel think them worthie pardon, which at the comming abrode of ſcripture doubted and drew backe. But ſuch as will perſiſt ſtill in their wilfulneſſe, I muſt needes iudge not onely fooliſh, frowarde, and obſtinate: but alſo peeuiſh, peruerſe, and indurate. And yet, if the matter ſhoulde be tried by cuſtome, wee might alſo alledge cuſtome for the reading of the ſcripture in the vulgar tongue, and preſcribe the more auncient cuſtome. For it is not much aboue one hundred yeare ago, ſince ſcripture hath not bene accuſtomed to be read in the vulgar tongue within this realme, and many hundred yeares before that, it was tranſlated and read in the Saxons tongue, whiche at that tyme was our mother tongue, whereof there remayne yet diuerſe copies found lately in olde Abbeyes, of ſuch antique maner of wryting and ſpeaking, that fewe men nowe be able to reade and vnderſtande them. And when this language waxed olde and out of common vſage, bycauſe folke ſhould not lacke the fruit of reading, it was againe tranſlated into the newer language, whereof yet alſo many copies remayne, and be dayly founde. But now to let paſſe cuſtome, and to way as wyſe men euer ſhoulde the thing in his owne nature: let vs here diſcuſſe what it auayleth ſcripture to be had and read of the lay and vulgar people. And to this queſtion I intende here to ſay nothing, but that was ſpoken and written by the noble doctour and moſt morall diuine, ſaint Iohn Chryſoſtome, in his thirde ſermon de Lazaro, albeit I will be ſomething ſhorter, and gather the matter into fewer wordes and leſſe roome than he doth there, bycauſe I woulde not be tedious. He exhorteth there his audience, that euerie man ſhoulde reade by himſelfe at home in the meane dayes and tyme, betweene ſermon and ſermon, to the intent they might both more profoundly fixe in their their mindes and memories that he had ſayd before vpon ſuch textes, wherevpon he had already preached: and alſo that they might haue their myndes the more readie and better prepared to receyue and perceyue that which he ſhoulde ſay from thenceforth in his Sermons, vpon ſuch texts as he had not yet declared and preached vpon: therefore ſayth he there, My common vſage is to gyue you warning before what matter I entende after to entreate vpon, that you your ſelues in the meane dayes, may take the boke in hād, reade, way, and perceyue the ſumme and effect of the matter, and marke what hath bene declared, & what remayneth yet to be declared, ſo that therby your minde may be the more furniſhed to heare the reſt that ſhall bee ſayde. And that I exhort you (ſayth he) and euer haue and will exhort you, that you (not onely here in the Church) giue eare to that that is ſayde by the Preacher: but that alſo when you be at home in your houſes, ye applie your ſelues from time to time to the reading of holy Scriptures: which thing alſo I neuer lin to beate into the eares of them that be my familiars, and with whom I haue priuate acquaintance and cōuerſation. Let no man make excuſe and ſay (ſayth he) I am buſied about matters of the common wealth, I beare this office, or that, I am a craftes man, I muſt applie mine occupation, I haue a wife, my children muſt be fed, my houſholde muſt I prouide for, briefly I am a man of the worlde, it is not for me to reade the Scriptures, that belongeth to them that haue bidden the worlde farewell, which liue in ſolitarineſſe, and contemplation, and haue bene brought vp and cōtinually nouſelled in lerning and religion. To this anſwering, VVhat ſayeſt thou man (ſaith he) is it not for thee to ſtudy and to reade the ſcripture, bycauſe thou art encumbered and diſtract with cares and buſineſſe? So much the more it is behoueful for thee to haue defence of ſcriptures, how much thou art the more diſtreſſed in worldly dangers. They that be free and far from trouble and intermedling of worldly things, liue in ſafegard, and tranquilitie, and in the calme, or within a ſure hauen. Thou art in the middeſt of the ſea of worldly wickednesſe, and therefore thou needeſt the more of ghoſtly ſuccour and comfort: They ſit farre from the ſtrokes of battaile, and farre out of gunne ſhotte, and therefore they be but ſeldome wounded. Thou that ſtandeſt in the forefront of the hoſt, and nigheſt to thine enimies, muſt needes take now and then many ſtrokes, and be greeuouſly wounded, and therefore thou haſt moſt neede to haue thy remedies and medicines at hande. Thy wife prouoketh thee to anger, thy childe giueth thee occaſion to take ſorowe and penſiueneſſe, thine enimyes lye in wayte for thee, thy friende (as thou takeſt hym) ſometyme enuieth thee, thy neighbour miſreporteth thee, or pyketh quarelles agaynſt thee, thy mate or partner vndermyneth thee, thy Lorde, Iudge, or iuſtice, threatneth thee, pouertye is painefull vnto thee, the loſſe of thy deare and welbeloued cauſeth thee to mourne, proſperitie exalteth thee, aduerſitie bringeth thee lowe: briefly, ſo diuerſe and ſo manyfold occaſions of cares, tribulations, and temptations, beſet thee, and beſiege thee rounde aboute. VVhere canſt thou haue armour or fortreſſe agaynſt thine aſſaultes? VVhere canſt thou haue ſalues for thy ſoares, but of holy Scripture? Thy fleſhe muſt needes bee prone and ſubiect to fleſhly luſtes, which dayly walkeſt and art conuerſant among women, ſeeſt their beauties ſet forth to the eye, heareſt their nice and wanton wordes, ſmelleſt their balme, ciuet, and muske, with many other like prouocations and ſtyrrings: except thou haſt in a readineſſe wherewith to ſuppreſſe and auoyde them, which cannot elſewhere be had, but onely out of the holy ſcriptures. Let vs reade and ſeeke all remedies that wee can, and all ſhall bee little ynough. Howe ſhall we then doe, if we ſuffer and take dayly woundes, and when we haue done, will ſit ſtill and ſearch for no medicines? Doeſt thou not marke and conſider howe the Smyth, Maſon, or Carpenter, or any other handicraftes man, what neede ſoeuer he be in, what other ſhift ſoeuer he make, he will not ſell nor lay to pledge the tooles of his occupation: for then howe ſhoulde he worke his feate, or get his liuing thereby? Of like mind and affection ought we to be towards holy Scripture. For as mallets, hammers, ſawes, cheſils, axes, and hatchets, be the tooles of theyr occupation: ſo be the bookes of the Prophets, and Apoſtles, and all holy wryters inſpyred by the holy ghoſt, the inſtruments of our ſaluation. VVherefore let vs not ſticke to buy and prouide vs the Byble, that is to ſay, the bookes of holy ſcripture, and let vs thinke that to be a better iewel in our houſe, than eyther gold or ſiluer. For like as theeues bee loth to aſſaulte an houſe where they knowe to be good armour and artillerie: ſo whereſoeuer theſe holy and ghoſtly bookes be occupied, there neither the diuel nor none of his angels dare come neare. And they that occupie them be in much ſafegarde, and haue a great conſolation, and be the readier vnto all goodneſſe, the ſlower vnto all euil: and if they haue done any thing amiſſe, anon euen by the ſight of the bookes their cōſciences be admoniſhed, and they wax ſory & aſhamed of the fact. Peraduenture they will ſay vnto me, How and if we vnderſtand not that we read, that is conteined in the bookes? VVhat then: Suppoſe thou vnderſtand not the deepe and profound miſteries of ſcriptures, yet can it not be but that much fruit and holyneſſe muſt come and grow vnto thee by the reading: for it cannot be that thou ſhouldeſt be ignorant in al things alike. For the holy ghoſt hath ſo ordered & attempred the ſcriptures, that in them aſwel publicans, fiſhers, and ſhepheards, may find their edification, as great doctors theyr erudition. For thoſe bookes were not made to vaineglorie, like as were the wrytings of the gentile Philoſophers and Rhethoritians, to the intent the makers ſhoulde be had in admiration for their hie ſtiles and obſcure maner and wryting, whereof nothing can be vnderſtanded wythout a maiſter or an expoſitour: But the Apoſtles and Propheters wrote their bookes ſo, that their ſpeciall entent and purpoſe might be vnderſtanded and perceyued of euery reader, which was nothing but the edification of amendment of the life of them that reade or heare it. VVho is it that reading or hearing read in the Goſpel, Bleſſed are they that be meke, Bleſſed are they that be mercifull, Bleſſed are they that be of cleane heart, and ſuche other lyke places, can perceyue nothing except hee haue a maiſter to teache him what it meaneth? Likewiſe the ſignes and myracles, with all other hyſtories of the doings of Chriſt or his Apoſtles, who is there of ſo ſimple witte and capacitie, but he may be able to perceyue and vnderſtand them? There be but excuſes and clokes for the raine, and couerings of their owne ſlouthfulneſſe. But ſtill ye will ſay, I cannot vnderſtand it. VVhat maruell? How ſhouldeſt thou vnderſtande, if thou wilt not reade nor looke vpon it? Take the bookes into thine handes, reade the whole ſtorie, and that thou vnderſtandeſt keepe it well in memorie: that thou vnderſtandeſt not reade it againe, and againe: if thou can neither ſo come by it, counſaile with ſome other that is better learned. Go to thy curate and preacher, ſhewe thy ſelfe to be deſirous to know and learne: and I doubt not but God ſeeing thy diligence and redineſſe (if no man elſe teach thee) will himſelfe vouchſafe with his holy ſpirite to illuminate thee, and to open vnto thee that which was locked from thee. Remember the Eunuch of Candace Queen of Ethiopia, which albeit he was a man of a wilde and barbarous countrey, and one occupied with worldly cares and buſineſſe, yet riding in his charet, he was reading the ſcripture. Nowe conſider, if this man paſsing in his iourney was ſo diligent as to read the ſcripture: what thinkeſt thou of like was he wont to do ſitting at home? Againe, he that letted not to reade, albeit he did not vnderſtand: what did he then troweſt thou, after that when he had learned and gotten vnderſtanding? For that thou mayeſt wel know that he vnderſtood not what he read, hearken what Philip ſayth there vnto him, Vnderſtandeſt thou what thou readeſt? And he nothing aſhamed to confeſſe hys ignorance, anſwered, How ſhould I vnderſtand hauing no bodie to ſhew me the way? Lo when he lacked one to ſhewe him the way, and to expounde to him the ſcriptures, yet did he reade: and therefore God the rather prouided for him a guide of the way, that taught him to vnderſtand it. God perceyued his willing and towarde minde, and therefore hee ſent him a teacher by and by. Therfore let no man be negligent about his owne health and ſaluation. Though thou haue not Philip alwayes when thou wouldeſt, the holy ghoſt which then moued and ſtirred vp Philip, will be redie and not faile thee, if thou do thy diligence accordingly. Al theſe things be written vnto vs for our edification and amendment, which be borne towards the latter end of the world. The reading of the ſcriptures is a great and ſtrong bulwarke or fortreſſe agaynſt ſin: the ignorance of the ſame is a greater ruine & deſtruction of them that wil not know it. That is the thing that bringeth in heriſie, that is it that cauſeth al corrupt and peruerſe liuing, that is it that bringeth al things out of good order Hitherto al that I haue ſaid, I haue taken and gathered out of the foreſaid ſermon of this holy doctor S. Iohn Chryſoſtome. Nowe if I ſhoulde in like maner bring forth what the ſelfe ſame doctor ſpeaketh in other places, and what other doctors and writers ſay concerning the ſame purpoſe, I might ſeeme to you to write an other Bible, rather than to make a preface to the Bible. VVherfore in few words to comprehend the largeneſſe and vtilitie of the ſcriptures, how it conteyneth fruitful inſtruction and erudition for euery man, if any thing be neceſſarie to be lerned, of the holy ſcripture we may learne it. If falſhood ſhal be reproued, therof we may gather wherwithal. If any thing be to be corrected and amended, if there neede any exhortation or conſolation, of the ſcripture we may wel learne. In the ſcriptures be the fat paſtures of the ſoule, therein is no venemous meate, no vnwholſome thing, they be the very daintie & pure feeding. He that is ignorant ſhal find there what he ſhould learne. He that is a peruerſe ſinner, ſhal there find his damnation, to make him to tremble for feare. He that laboreth to ſerue god, ſhal find there his glory, & the promiſsions of eternal life, exhorting him more diligently to labor. Herein may princes learn how to gouerne their ſubiects: ſubiects obedience, loue, and dread to their princes: husbandes how they ſhould behaue them vnto their wiues, how to educate their children and ſeruants: And contrarie, the wiues, children and ſeruants, may knowe their dutie to their husbandes, parents, and maiſters. Here may all maner of perſons, men, women, yong, olde, learned, vnlearned, rich, poore, prieſtes, lay men, lordes, ladyes, officers, tenantes, and meane men, virgins, wiues, widowes, lawyers, marchantes, artificers, husbandmen, and al maner of perſons, of what eſtate or condition ſoeuer they be, may in this booke learne all things what they ought to beleue, what they ought to doe, and what they ſhoulde not do, aſwel concerning almightie God, as alſo concerning themſelues and all other. Briefly, to the reading of the Scripture none can bee enimie, but that eyther be ſo ſicke

that they loue not to heare of any medicin, or elſe that be ſo ignorant that they know not ſcripture to be the moſt healthfull medicine. Therfore as touching this former part, I will here conclude, and take it for a concluſion, ſufficiently determined and appoynted, that it is conuenient and good the ſcriptures to be read of all ſorts and kinds of people, and in the vulgar tongue, without further allegations or probations for the ſame, which ſhal not need, ſince that this one place of Iohn Chryſoſtome is ynough, and ſufficient to perſwade all them that be not frowardly and peruerſly ſet in their owne wilful opinion, ſpecially now that the kings highneſſe being ſupreme head next vnder Chriſt of this Church of Englande, hath approued with his royall aſſent the ſetting forth hereof, whiche only to al true & obedient ſubiects ought to be a ſufficient reaſon for the allowance of the ſame, without further delay, reclamation, or reſiſtance, although there were no Preface, or other reaſon herein expreſſed. Therefore now to come to the ſecond or latter part of my purpoſe: here is nothing ſo good in this worlde, but it may be abvſed, and turned from vnhurtful and wholſome, to hurtful and noyſome. VVhat is there aboue better than the Sunne, the Moone, and the Starres? Yet was there that tooke occaſion by the great beautie and vertue of them, to diſhonour God, and to defile themſelues with ydolatrie, giuing the honour of the liuing God and creator of all things, to ſuch things as he had created. VVhat is there here beneath better than fire, water, meates, drinks, mettals of golde, ſiluer, iron, and ſteele? Yet we ſee dayly great harme and much miſchief done by euery one of theſe, aſwell for lacke of wiſdom and prouidence of them that ſuffer euill, as by the malice of them that worke the euil. Thus to them that be euil of themſelues, euery thing ſetteth forwarde and encreaſeth their euil, be it of his owne nature a thing neuer ſo good: lyke as contrarily, to them that ſtudie and endeuor themſelues to goodneſſe, euery thing preuayleth them, and profiteth vnto good, be it of his owne nature a thing neuer ſo bad, as S. Paul ſayth, Hijs qui diligunt Deum, omnia cooperantur in bonum, All things doe bring good ſucceſſe, too ſuche as doe loue God, euen as out of moſt venemous wormes is made triacle, the moſt ſoueraine medicine for the preſeruation of mans health in time of daunger. VVherefore I would aduiſe you all that come to the reading or hearing of this booke, which is the word of God, the moſt precious iewel, and moſt holy relike that remayneth vpon earth, that yee bring wyth you the feare of GOD, and that yee doe it wyth all due reuerence, and vſe your knowledge thereof, not too vayne glorye of fryuolous diſputation: but to the honour of GOD, encreaſe of vertue, and edifycation both of youre ſelues and others. And to the intent that my woordes maye bee the more regarded, I will vſe in this part the authoritie of Saint Gregorie Nazianzene, like as in the other I did of Saint Iohn Chryſoſtome. It appeareth that in his time there were ſome (as I feare mee there bee alſo now at theſe dayes a great number) which were idle brablers, and talkers of the ſcripture out of ſeaſon & al good order, and without any increaſe of vertue, or example of good liuing: to them he writeth all his firſt booke, de Theologia. VVherefore I ſhal briefly gather the whole effect, and recite it here vnto you. There be ſome (ſayth he) whoſe not onely eares and tongues, but alſo their fiſts be whetted and redie bent al to contention and vnprofitable diſputation, whom I would wiſh as they be vehement and earneſt to reaſon the matter with tongue, ſo they were all redie and practiue to do good deedes. But foraſmuch as they ſubuerting the order of all godlineſſe, haue reſpect only to this thing how they may binde and looſe ſubtil queſtions, ſo that now euery market place, euery alehouſe and tauerne, euery feaſt houſe, briefly euery companie of men, euery aſſembly of women, is filled with ſuch talke: Since the matter is ſo (ſayth he) and that our fayth and holy religion of Chriſt beginneth to waxe nothing elſe but as it were a ſophiſtrie or a talking craft, I can no leſſe doe but ſay ſome thing thereonto. It is not fit (ſayth he) for euery man to diſpute the high queſtions of diuinitie, neither is it to be done at al times, neither in euery audience muſt we diſcuſſe euery doubt: but we muſt know when, to whom, and how farre we ought to enter into ſuch matters. Firſt, it is not for euery man, but it is for ſuch as be of exact, and exquiſit iudgements, & ſuch as haue ſpent their time before in ſtudie and contemplation, and ſuch as before haue clenſed themſelues aſwel in ſoule as body, or at the leaſt endeuored theſelues to be made cleane. For it is dangerous (ſayth he) for the vncleane to touch that thing which is moſt cleane, like as the ſore eie taketh harme by looking vpon the Sun. Secondarily, not at al times, but when we be repoſed, and at reſt from al outward dregs and trouble, & when that our heads be not encombered with other worldly and wandring imaginations: as if a man ſhould mingle balme and dirt togyther. For he that ſhall iudge and determin ſuch matters and doubts of ſcriptures, muſt take his time when he may apply his wittes therevnto, that he may thereby the better ſee and diſcerne what is truth. Thirdely, where, and in what audience. There and among thoſe that haue bene ſtudious to learne: And not among ſuch as haue pleaſure to trifle with ſuch matters, as with other things of paſtime, which repute for their chiefe delicates, the diſputation of high queſtions, to ſhew their wittes, learning, and eloquence in reaſoning of high matters. Fourthly, it is to be conſidered how farre to wade in ſuch matters of difficultie. No further (ſayth he) but as euery mans owne capacitie will ſerue him, and againe no further than the weakneſſe or intelligence of the other audience may beare. For like as too great noyſe hurteth the eare, too much meate hurteth the mans body, heauy burdens hurt the beaters of them, too much raine doth more hurt than good to the ground: briefly in al things too much is noyous: euen ſo weake wittes, and weake conſciences, may ſoone be oppreſſed with ouer hard queſtions. I ſay not this to diſſuade men from the knowledge of God, and reading or ſtudying of the ſcripture: For I ſay that it is as neceſſarie for the life of mans ſoule, as for the body to breath. And if it were poſſible ſo to liue, I would thinke it good for a man to ſpende all his life in that, and to do none other thing. I commend the law which bidden to meditate & ſtudie the Scriptures alwayes both night and day, and Sermons and preachings to be made both morning, noone, and euen-tide, and God to be lauded and bleſſed in al times, to bedward, from bed, in our iourneyes, and in al other work: I forbid not to read, but I forbid to reaſon. Neither forbid I to reaſon ſo farre as is good and godly: but I alow no that is done out of ſeaſon, and out of meaſure and good order. A man may eate too much of honie be it neuer ſo ſweete, and there is time for euery thing, and that thing that is good is not good if it be vngodly done. Euen as a flower in winter is out of ſeaſon, and as a womans apparel becommeth not a man, neither contrarily the mans the woman, neither is weeping conuenient at a brideale, neither laughing at a burial. Now if we can obſerue & keep that is comly and timely in all other things: ſhal not we then the rather do the ſame in the holy ſcriptures: Let us not run forth as it were wild horſes, that can ſuffer neither bridle in their mouthes, nor ſitter on their backs. Let vs kepe vs in our bounds, and neither let vs go to farre on the one ſide, leaſt we returne into Egypt, neither to far ouer the other, leaſt we be caried away to Babilon. Let vs not ſing the ſong of our lord in a ſtrange land, that is to ſay, let vs not diſpute the word of god at al aduentures, aſwel where it is not to be reaſoned, as where it is, & aſwel in the eares of them that be not fit therfore, as of thē that be. If we can in no wiſe forbeare, but that we muſt needs diſpute, let vs forbeare thus much at the leaſt, to do it out of time and place conuenient: And let vs entreate of thoſe things which be holy, holily: and vpon thoſe things that be myſtical, myſtically: and not to vtter the diuine myſteries in the eares vnworthy to heare them, but let vs know what is comly, aſwel in our ſilence and talking, as in our garments wearing, in our feeding, in our geſture, in our goings, in al our other behauing. This cōtention & debates about ſcriptures and doubts therof (ſpecially when ſuch as do pretend to be the fauourers and ſtudents therof, cānot agree within themſelues) doth moſt hurt to our ſelues, and to the furthering of the cauſe & quarel that we ſhould haue furthered aboue all other things. And we in this (ſayth he) be not vnlike to them that being mad, ſet their owne houſes on fire, and that ſlay their owne children, or beat their own parents. I maruell much (ſaithe he) to recount whereof cōmeth al this deſire of vainglory, wherof commeth al this tong itch, that we haue ſo much delight to talke and clatter? And wherin is our cōmunication? Not in the commendation of vertuous & good deedes, of hoſpitalitie, of loue betwene chriſtian brother and brother, of loue betwene man and wife, of virginitie and chaſtitie, and of almes toward the pore: not in Pſalmes & godly ſongs, not in lamenting for our ſinns, not in repreſsing the affections of the body, not in prayers to God. VVe talke of ſcripture, but in the meane time we ſubdue not our fleſh by faſting, watching and weeping, we make ~~not~~ not this life a meditation of death, we do not ſtriue to be lords ouer our appetites and affections, we go not about to pul downe our proud & high minds, to abate our fumiſh and rancorous ſtomacks, to reſtraine our luſt and bodily delectations, our vndiſcret ſorowes, our laſciuious mirth, our inordinat looking, our inſatiable hearing of vanities, our ſpeaking without meaſure, our inconuenient thoughts, and briefly, to reforme our life and maners: but all our holineſſe cōſiſteth in talking. And we pardon ech other from al good liuing, ſo that we may ſtick faſt togither in argumentation, as though ther were no mo wayes to heauen but this alone, the way of ſpeculation and knowledge (as they take it) but in very deede it is rather the way of ſuperfluous cōtention & ſophiſtication. Hitherto haue I recited the minde of Gregory Nazianzene in that boke which I ſpake of before. The ſame author ſaith alſo in another place, that the lerning of a chriſtian man ought to begin of the feare of God, to end in matters of high ſpeculation: and not contrarily to begin with ſpeculation, & to end in feare. For ſpeculation (ſaith he) either high cunning or knowledge, if it be not ſtayed with the bridle of feare to offend God, is dangerous, and ynough to tumble a man hedlong downe the hil. Therfore, ſaith he, the feare of God muſt be the firſt beginning, and as it were an A.B.C. or an introduction to al them that ſhal enter into the very true and moſt fruitful knowledge of holy ſcriptures. VVhere as is the feare of God, there is (ſayth he) the keping of the cōmaundements: and where as is the keping of the commaundements, there is the cleanſing of the fleſh: which fleſh is a cloude before the ſoules eie, and ſuffereth it not purely to ſee the beame of the heauenly light. VVhere as is the cleanſing of the fleſh, there is the illumination of the holy ghoſt, the end of all our deſires, and the very light wherby the veritie of ſcriptures is ſeene and perceiued. This is the minde, and almoſt the words of Gregorie Nazianzene, doctor of the Greeke Church, of whom Saint Ierom ſayth, that vnto his time the latin Church had nō writer able to be compared, and to make an euen match with him. Therfore to conclude this latter part, euery man that commeth to the reading of this holy boke, ought to bring with him firſt and formoſt this feare of almightie God, and then next, a firme and ſtable purpoſe to reforme his own ſelf according thervnto, and ſo to continue, proceede, and proſper from time to time, ſhewing himſelf to be a ſober and fruitful hearer and learner: which if he do, he ſhal proue at length wel able to teach, though not with his mouth, yet with his liuing and good example, which is ſure the moſt liuely and effectuous forme and maner of teaching. He that otherwiſe intermedleth with this booke, let him be aſſured that once he ſhal make account therfore, when he ſhal

God.

The bookes of the olde Teſtament, do teach vs that the ſame God, whom Adam, Noe, Abraham, Iſaac, Iacob, Dauid, and the other fathers did worſhip, is the onely true God, and that he the ſame is almighty and euerlaſting: Who of his meere goodneſſe hath created by his worde heauen and earth, and all that is in them: From whome all things doe come: without whom there is nothing at all. And that he is iuſt and mercifull: who alſo worketh al in al after his owne wil: To whō it is not lawful to ſay, wherfore he doth thus or thus.

Creation of man. Sinne.

Moreouer, theſe bookes teach vs, that this verie God almightie, after hee created al things, ſhope alſo Adam the firſt man, to the Image and ſpirituall ſimilitude of him ſelfe, and that he did conſtitute him Lorde ouer all things that he had created in earth. Which Adam, by the enuie and fraude of the deuil, tranſgreſſing the precept of his creator, by this his ſinne brought in ſuch and ſo great ſinne into the worlde, that we which be ſprong from him by the fleſhe, be in nature the children of wrath, and therepon we be made ſubiect and thraule to death, to damnation, to the yoke, and tyrannie of the diuil.

Chriſt promiſed

Furthermore, we are taught by theſe excellent bookes, that God promiſed to Adam, Abraham, Iſaac, Iacob, Dauid, and to other fathers of the olde time, that he would ſende that bleſſed ſeede, his ſonne Ieſus Chriſt our Sauiour, whiche ſhoulde deliuer all thoſe from ſinne, and from the tyrannie of the diuell, which by a liuely and working fayth ſhould beleeue this promiſe, and put their truſt in Ieſus Chriſt, hoping that of him and by him they ſhould obteyne this deliuerance.

The lawe.

Alſo they giue vs to vnderſtand, that in the meane ſeaſon, while thoſe fathers the Iſraelites loked for the ſaluation and deliuerance promiſed (for that the nature of man is ſuch, ſo proude and ſo corrupt, that thoſe would not willingly acknowledge themſelues to be ſinners, which had need of the ſauiour promiſed) God the creator gaue by Moſes his law written in two tables of ſtone: that by it, ſinne and the malice of mans heart being knowne, men mought more vehemently thyrſte for the comming of Ieſus Chriſt, who ſhould redeeme and deliuer them from ſinne: which thing, neither the lawe, nor yet the ſacrifices and oblations of the lawe did perfourme. For they were ſhadowes and figures of the true oblation of the bodie of Chriſt: by which oblation all ſinne ſhould be blotted out, and quite put away.

Chriſt cleane our ſauiour.

By the bookes of the newe Teſtament we bee taught, that Chriſt ſo afore promiſed (which is God aboue all things moſt bleſſed for euer) euen he, I ſay, was ſhadowed in the bookes of the olde Teſtament, and in ſacrifices figured, that he was ſent at the laſt from the father the ſelfe ſame time which the father did conſtitute within himſelfe: I ſay, at that time, when all wickednelle abounded in the world, then he was ſent: And this Ieſus our ſauiour, being borne in the fleſh, ſuffered death, and roſe againe from the dead. Which actes of his were not done by him in reſpect of the good workes of any man (for we were al ſinners) but that this god our father ſhould appeare true, in exhibiting the abundant riches of his grace which he promiſed, and that through his mercie he mought bring vs to ſaluation.

A lambe. A ſacrifice. Peace. Adoption.

Wherepon it is euidently ſhewed in the new Teſtament, that Ieſus Chriſt, being the true lambe, the true ſacrifice of the worlde, putting away the ſinnes of men, came into this worlde to purchaſe grace and peace for vs with the father, waſhing vs from our ſinnes in his owne bloud, and ſhould deliuer vs from the bondage of the diuel, whom by ſinne we did ſerue: And ſo wee ſhoulde be adopted by him to bee the ſonnes of God, made heyres with him of that moſt excellent and euerlaſting kingdome.

The holy ghoſt Fayth.

Nowe, that we ſhoulde acknowledge this ſingular and excellent benefite of God towardes vs, almighty God giueth vs his holy ſpirite: the fruite and effect of the which is fayth in God, and in his Chriſt. For, without the holy ghoſt, by which we are inſtructed and ſealed, neyther can wee beleeue that God the father ſent Meſſias, nor yet that Ieſus is Chryſt: For no man (ſayth Paul) can ſay that Ieſus is the Lorde, but by the holy ghoſt. The ſame ſpirit witneſſeth to our ſpirite, that we are the children of of God, and poureth into our bowels that charitie which Paul deſcribeth to the Corinthians. Furthermore, that holy ſpirite doth giue vs hope, which is a sure loking for eternall life, whereof he himselfe is the certaine token and pledge. Also begi-neth vs other spiritual gyftes, of the which Paul writeth to the Galathians. Therfore the benefit of fayth is not yet to be despised, or little to be set by. For by the meanes of this trust and faith in Christ, whiche worketh by charitie, and sheweth it selfe forth by the workes of charitie, moving Iustification and sanctification. man thereto, we are iustified and sanctified: that is to say, God and the father of our Lord Iesus Christ (whiche is made our father also by him, beeing our brother) doth accompt vs to be iust and holy through his grace, and through the merite of his sonne Iesus Christ, not imputing our sinnes to vs, so farre forth, that we should suffer the paynes of hel for them.

Good workes. Finally, Christ himselfe came into the worlde, to the intent that wee through him beeing sanctified and clensed from our sinnes, folowing his wil in good workes, should denie the things parteyning to the flesh, and freely serue him in righteousnesse and holinesse all the dayes of our life: and that by good workes (which God hath prepared for vs to walke in) we should shewe our selves to be called to his grace and gyft of fayth: which good workes who so hath not, doth shew himselfe not to haue such a fayth in Christ as is requyred in vs.

Christ our maister and teacher. To Christ must we come, and follow him with a cheerefull mynde, that he may teache vs:
For he is our maister, lowly and humble of heart: he is to vs an example, whereby wee must learne the rule to live well.

Bishop. Moreover, he is our Bishop and our high priest, which did himselfe offer vp for vs his owne Mediatour. blond, beeing the onely mediatour betweene God and men: Who nowe sitteth at the ryght Aduocate. hande of God the father, being made our aduocate, making prayer and intercession for vs: who doubtlesse shal obteyne for vs whatsoeuer we shal desire, either of him or else of his father in his name, if so be that we thus desiring, shall beleeue that he will so do: for thus hath he promised.
Therefore let vs not doubt, if we sinne at any time, to come with repentance (to the whiche hee doth inuite and styre vs at the very beginning of his preaching) & with sure trust to the throne of his grace, with this beleefe, that we shall obteine mercy: For therfore came he into the world, that he mought saue sinners by his grace.

Iudgement. This is verily Christ Iesus, which shal come at a certain time appointed by his father, and shal sit in great maiestie to iudge all men, and to render to euery man the workes of his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euill. And he shal say to them which shal be on the right side, which in this world did loke for the good things to come (that is Eternal life. to say, life euerlasting:) Come ye blessed of my father, enioy the kingdome that hath bene prepa-

then shal the ende be, when Christ, hauing vtterly banquished al maner of enimies, shal deliuer vp the kingdome to God the father.

To what intent the scriptures were written. To the intent that we mought vnderstande these things, the sacred bookes of the Bible were deliuered to vs by the goodnesse of God through his holy spirite, with the preaching of that doctrine which is conteyned in them, and with his Sacraments by which the truth of this doctrine is sealed vp to vs: that we mought vnderstand, I say, and beleue that there is one onely true God, and one sauiour Iesus Christ, whom (as he had promised) he hath sent:
and that we beleeuing, mought haue in his name life euerlasting.

Christ the onely foundation. Beside this foundation, no man can lay any other in the Church of Christ: and vpon this foundation the Church doth stande sure and stedfast. And Paul willeth him to be accursed which shall preach any other faith and saluation, than by Iesus Christ, yea although he were an angel from heauen.

For of him, through him, and for him, are all things: To whom with the father and the holy ghost, be all honour and glory, worlde without ende. Amen.

¶ The whole Scripture of the Bible is diuided into two testa- ments, the olde testament and the newe, which booke is of diuerse natures, some legall, some historicall, some sapientiall, and some prophetical. The olde teacheth by figures and ceremonies, that the law was giuen terribly in lightning and thundering, to induce the people to the obseruance thereof by feare. The newe Testament came in more gloriously with the gentle name of the Gospel, and good tydings, to induce men to obserue it by loue.

HEre is to be noted, that suche partes and chapters whiche he marked and noted with suche semycircles at the head of the verse or lyne, with suche other textes, may be left vnread in the publique readyng to the people, that thereby other chapters and places of the scripture, makyng more to their edification and capacitie, may come in their roomes. And here let the minister of Christe and dispenser of the mysteries of God, haue a due and weyghtie consideration, to reade this hygh treasure of Gods worde with al reuerence and grauitie, truely, distinctly, and sensibly: for it is the mightie power of God to saluation to euery one that beleeueth: So let the hearers also with al meekenesse and lowlynesse, receyue this woorde that is thus grafted and grounded amongst them by the great mercies of God, whiche worde is able to saue theyr soules, sayth the Apostle saint Iames. For as both the reader and hearer be pronounced blessed by Christes owne mouth, who heare the woorde of God, and do fulfill it: So be they pronounced both reader and hearer by the holy prophete Ieremie accursed, which do the worke of God fraudulently, and negligently: From the whiche he defend vs who bought vs with his moste pretious bloud, to whom with the father and the holy ghest be al honour and glorie, Amen.

A descriptiõ of the yeeres from the creation of the worlde, vntil this present yeere of 1575. drawen for the most part out of the holy scripture, with declaration of certayne places, wherein is certayne difference of the reckonyng of the yeeres.

The yeres from the creation of the world.
1948.	WE recken from Adam vntyl the floud, a thousand, sixe hundred fiftie and sixe yeeres. Gen.5.and.6. and from the floud vntil Abraham.292. yeeres. Gen.11.
2308.	* From Abraham vntil Isahac, a hundred yeeres.Gen.17. From Isahac vntil Iacob.60. Gen.25. And from Iacob to Ioseph.90.yeeres. Ioseph lyued afterwarde.110.yeeres.Gen.50.
2448.	Frõ the death of Ioseph vntil Moses, there is(according to Philo)60.yeeres. And from Moses til the departure of the chyldren of Israel out of Egypt. 80.yeeres.Actes.7.
2520.	* The people remayned in the wildernesse.40.yeeres.Deut.29. And then were brought into the lande of Chanaan by Iosuah, who was gouernour ouer the sayde people after Moses.32.yeeres.
2688.	After Iosuah, Othoniel gouerned eyght yeeres.Iudg.9.then Aod.80.Iudg.3. After Aod, Debora fourtie,Iudg.4.Then Gedeon other.40.yeeres.Iudg.8.

2755	Iephte deliuered the people from the handes of the Ammonites,and gouerned sixe yeeres.Iudg.12. After Iephte Abessan gouerned seuen yeeres. Iudg. 12.Then Elon ten yeeres.Iudg.12.
2833.	Abdon gouerned after Elon eyght yeeres. Iudg.12. Then Sampson twentie yeeres.Iudg.13. Then Eli fourtie yeeres.1.Samuel.4.
2863.	After Eli, Samuel and Saul gouerned fourtie yeeres: but the scripture, bycause of Sauls royal dignitie,attributeth al this gouernment to him.Actes.7.
2943.	Dauid raigned after Saul fourtie yeeres.2.Sam.5. Solomõ his sonne raigned three yeeres before the buyldyng of the temple, whiche is foure hundred and fourescore yeeres after the departure out of Egypt. 3.Kings.6. and raygned in al fourtie yeeres.3.Kyng.11.
3041.	Iosaphat raygned after Asa.25. yeeres. 3.Kings. 15. And Ioram his sonne raygned three yeeres with his father,and fiue yeeres alone. 4.King.8. Ochozias raigned after Ioram seuen yeeres.2.Chro.22.

3180.	* After Amasias the people were without kyng eleuen yeeres, as we may gather by the.14.and.15.Chapter of the,4.Reg. Then Azarias raigned fiftie and two yeeres,4.Reg.14.
3241.	Ioathan raygned after Azarias sixtene yeeres.4.Reg.15.After Ahaz his sonne raigned.16.yeeres.4.Reg.16.And after him Ezechias,29 yeeres 4.Reg.18.
3323 and.3 moneths.	Manasses the sonne of Ezechias raygned fiftie and fiue yeeres. 4.Reg.21. Amon his sonne two yeeres, 4.Reg.21.Then Iosia.31.yeeres.4.Reg.22. And Iehoaz three moneths.4.Reg.23.
3340.& 6. moneths.	Eliachim, otherwise called Ioachin raygned eleuen yeeres. 4.Reg.23. And after him Iechonias three monethes, after whiche tyme he was led captiue into Babylon.4.Reg.23.
3421. & 6. moneths.	Sedechias raygned eleuen yeeres,and then was slayne, the citie of Hierusalem with the temple rased downe, and the people led captiue into Babylon,where they remayned seuentie yeeres.4.Reg.25.

* Abraham was taken from Hur, in Chaldei the place of hys birth, the.70. yeere of hys age, and came to dwell in Charran where hys father dyed: then beyng.75. yeeres, came to the lande of Chanaan. Gene.12. Fyue and twentie yeeres after, he begat Isaac. Gene.21. So he that reckeneth the yeeres of the peregrination of Abraham and his successours, til the deliuerance of Egypt, beginnyng at that time that he departed out of his countrey, he shal finde.430. yeeres mẽtioned. Exod.14. but beginning their reckening at the birth of Isaac, they shal find only.400. yeeres. And thus ought. Gen.15. and Act.7. treatyng thereon, to be vnderstanded.

* The yeeres that the people were gouerned by those that the scriptures called Iudges, includyng from Iosua to Samuel(excepting the time of the oppressiõ vnder the Ammonites) amounteth to 357. yeeres. Now this sayde. Actes.13. that this tyme amounteth to about.450. yeares. Where is to be noted, that this place hath bene corrupted, and in steede of three hundred, they haue set foure hundred, whiche reading of three hundred agreeth very wel with that which is conteyned in the scriptures touching the sayd yeeres.

Or, Ihaziahu.

* Amasias raygned.29.yeeres, the fiftienth yeere of the sayde Ieroboam, and began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria 4.Reg.14. Some.29. yeeres of the raigne of Amasias, finished the fiftienth yeere of the sayde Ieroboam: nowe it is manifest that Azarias the sonne of Amasias began to raigne but the.27. yeere of the sayde Ieroboam. 4.Reg.15. then it foloweth, that betwene the ende of the raygne of Amasias, and the beginnyng of Azarias, there falleth out eleuen yeeres, that are left out.

3975. & 6 monethes.	* After the ſeuentie yeeres of captiuitie, Cyrus the firſt Monarke of the Perſians, ſet the people at libertie agayn, and ſuffered them to returne into their owne lande. It was reuealed to Daniel the prophete, that there ſhoulde be ſeuentie weekes of yeeres, (whiche is foure hundred and nientie yeeres) reckenyng from the commaundement giuen to buylde the citie, vntil Ieſus Chriſte. Daniel. 9. And this commaundement was gyuen by Darius Longimanus, the twentieth yeere of his empire. Nehem. 2. whiche was threeſcore and foure yeeres after the aforeſayde deliuerance. VVherefore reckenyng the ſayde threeſcore and foure yeeres after the deliuerance, and addyng thereto the ſeuentie weekes afore ſayde reuealed vnto Daniel, we ſhal finde that from the ſayde deliuerance vntil the death of Chriſte, there is fiue hundred, fiftie, and foure yeeres.	* There is difference betweene authours touchyng the beginnyng of the ſeuentie weekes of Daniel: ſome begin the ſayde weekes from the firſt yeere of Cyrus: other from the tenth yeere of Darius Longimanus, and ſome other from the ſixth yeere of the ſame: but is likelyeſt that it ſhould be the twentieth yeere, bycauſe that that whiche is written Daniel. 9. hath relation to Nehemias the ſecond.
5512. & 6. monethes.	From the natiuitie of Chriſt to this preſent yeere, we recken a thouſand, fiue hundred, ſeuentie and fiue: from whiche number if we ſubtract the yeeres from his byrth vntil his death (whiche is three and thirtie) we ſhal finde that frō the end of the ſayd ſeuentie weekes of Daniel, vntil this preſent yeere, it is a thouſande, fiue hundred, fourtie and two yeeres.
	Al whiche aforeſayde beyng wel examined and reckened, ye ſhall finde that ſince the creation of the worlde to this preſent yeere of a thouſande, fiue hundred ſeuentie and fiue, the yeeres amount to fiue thouſand, fiue hundred, and ten yeeres, and ſixe monethes.

The order howe the reſt of holy ſcripture beſide the Pſalter, is appointed to be read.

THe old Teſtament is appointed for the firſt leſſons at morning and euening prayer, and ſhall bee read through euerie yeare once, exceptе certaine bookes and Chapters which be leaſt edifying, and might beſt be ſpared, and therefore be left vnread.

¶ The newe Teſtament is appointed for the ſeconde Leſſons at Morning and Euening prayer, and ſhal be read ouer orderly euery yeare thryſe, beſide the Epiſtles and Goſpels: exceptе the Apocalips, out of the which there be only certaine Leſſons appointed vpon diuerſe proper feaſtes.

¶ And to knowe what Leſſons ſhall bee read euery day: find the day of the moneth in the kalender following, and there ye ſhal perceyue the bookes and Chapters that ſhall bee read for the Leſſons both at Morning and Euening prayer.

¶ And here is to be noted, that whenſoeuer there be any proper Pſalmes or Leſſons appoynted for the Sundayes, or for any feaſt mouable or vnmoueable: then the Pſalmes and Leſſons appoynted in the Kalender, ſhal be omitted for that time.

¶ Ye muſt note alſo, that the Collect, Epiſtle, and Goſpel appointed for the Sunday, ſhall ſerue all the weeke after, exceptе there fal ſome feaſt that hath his proper.

¶ When the yeares of our Lorde may be diuided into foure euen partes, which is euery fourth yeare, then the Sunday letter leaueth, & that yeare the Pſalmes & leſſons which ſerue for the xxiii. day of Februarie, ſhalbe read againe the day folowing, exceptе the Sunday, which hath proper leſſons of the olde teſtament appointed in ỹ table ſeruing to that purpoſe.

¶ And, whereſoeuer is not expreſſed how farre ſhal be read: there ſhall you read to the ende of the Chapter.

¶ Item, ſo often as the firſt Chapter of Saint Matthew, is read either for Leſſon or Goſpel, ye ſhall begin the ſame at: The birth of Ieſus Chriſt was on this wiſe. &c. And the thirde Chapter of Saint Lukes Goſpel ſhall be read vnto: So that he was ſuppoſed to be the ſonne of Ioſeph.

¶ A briefe declaration when euery Terme beginneth and endeth.

BE it knowne that Eaſter Tearme beginneth alwayes the. xviii. daye after Eaſter, reckening Eaſter day for one: and endeth the Munday next after the Aſcention day.

¶ Michaelmas Terme beginneth the. ix. or. x. day of Octobre, and endeth the. xviii. or. xxix. day of Nouember.

¶ Hyllarie Terme beginneth the. xvii or xviii. day of Januarie, and endeth the xii. or xiii. day of Februarie.

¶ In Eaſter Terme, on the Aſcention day. In Trinitie Terme, on the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt. In Michaelmas Terme, on the feaſt of al Saints. In Hillary Terme, on the feaſt of the Purification of our Lady, the Queenes Iudges of Weſtminſter do not vſe to ſit in iudgement, nor vpõ any Sundayes.

The order where Morning and Euening prayer ſhalbe vſed and ſayde.

The Morning and Euening prayer, ſhal be vſed in the accuſtomed place of the Church, Chappel, or Chauncell, except it ſhall be otherwyſe determined by the Ordinarie of the place, and the Chauncels ſhal remayne as they haue done in tymes paſt.

And here is to be noted, that the Miniſter at the tyme of the Communion, and at all other times in his miniſtration, ſhall vſe ſuch ornamentes in the Church, as were in vſe by authoritie of Parliament in the ſeconde yeere of the raigne of king Edwarde the ſixth, according to the acte of Parliament ſet in the beginning of the booke of Common prayer.

At the beginning both of Mornyng prayer, and lykewyſe of Euenyng prayer, the Miniſter ſhall reade with a loude voyce, ſome one of theſe ſentences of the Scriptures that folow. And then he ſhal ſay that which is written after the ſayde ſentences.

Ezech. 18. At what tyme ſo euer a ſinner doeth repent him of his ſinne from the bottome of his hart, I will put out his wickedneſſe out of my remembraunce, ſaith the Lorde.

Pſal. 51. I do knowe my ſinne, and my ſinne is alway agaynſt me.

Pſal. 51. Turne thy face away from our ſinnes (O Lorde) and blotte out all our offences.

Pſal. 51. A ſorowful ſpirit is a ſacrifice to God, deſpiſe not (O Lorde) humble and contrite hartes.

Ioel. 2. Rent your hartes, and not your garmentes, and turne to the Lorde your God, becauſe he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of muche mercie, and ſuche a one that is ſorie for your afflictions.

Daniel. 9. To thee (O Lorde our God) belongeth mercie and forgeueneſſe, for we haue gone away from thee, & haue not hearkened to thy voyce, whereby we myght walke in thy lawes whiche thou haſt appoynted for vs.

Ierem. 2. Correcte vs (O Lorde) and yet in thy iudgement: not in thy furie, leſt we ſhoulde be conſumed and brought to nothyng.

Matth. 3. Amend your lyues, for the kingdome of God is at hande.

Luke. 15. I will goe to my father, and ſay to hym, Father, I haue ſinned agaynſt heauen, and agaynſt thee, I am no more worthy to be called Pſal. 142. Enter not into iudgement with thy ſeruaunt (O Lorde) for in thy ſight ſhall no man liuing be iuſtified.

1. Iohn. 1. If we ſay that we haue no ſinne in our ſelues, and there is no truth

Dearely beloued brethren, the ſcripture moueth us in all places, that acknowledging our ſinnes before God, we ſhould not diſſemble nor cloke them before the face of almyghtie God our heauenly father, but confeſſe them humbly, knowledge and bewayle them before the diuine maieſtie, with full purpoſe of amendement of lyfe, that we may obteyne forgeueneſſe of the ſame, by his infinite goodneſſe and mercy. And although we ought at all tymes humbly to acknowledge our ſinnes before God, yet ought we moſt chiefly ſo to do, when we aſſemble and meete together, to render thankes for the great benefites that we haue receiued at his handes, to ſet forth his moſt worthy prayſe, to here his moſt holy worde, and to aſke thinges requiſite and neceſſary, as well for the body as the ſoule. Wherefore I pray and beſeech you as many as are here preſent, to accompanye me with a pure hart and humble voyce, unto the throne of the heauenly grace,

A generall confeſsion, to be ſayde of the whole congregation after the Miniſter, kneeling.

ALmightie and moſt mercifull father, we haue erred and ſtraied from thy waies lyke lost sheepe. We haue followed to much the deuiſes and deſires of our owne hartes, we haue offended agaynſt thy holy lawes. We haue left vndone thoſe thinges which we ought to haue done, and we haue done thoſe thinges which we ought not to haue done, and there is no healthy in vs, but thou, O Lorde, haue mercy vpon vs miſerable offendours. Spare thou them, O God, which confeſſe their faultes. Reſtore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promiſes declared vnto mankinde in Chriſte Jeſu our Lorde: and graunt, O moſt mercyfull father, for his ſake, that we may hereafter lyue a godly, ryghteous, and ſober lyfe, to the glorie of thy holy name, Amen.

The abſolution to be pronounced by the Miniſter alone.

ALmighty God, the father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, which delyteth not in the death of a ſinner, but rather that he may turne from his wickednes and lyue, and hath geuen power & commaundement to his miniſters, to declare & pronounce to his people, being penitent, the abſolution and remiſſion of their ſinnes: he pardoneth and abſolueth all them which truely repent and vnfaynedly beleeue his holy Goſpell. Wherefore we beſeeche him to graunt vs true repentaunce, and his holy ſpirite, that thoſe thynges may pleaſe hym which we do at this preſent, and that the reſt of our lyfe hereafter may be pure and holy, ſo that at the laſt we may come to his eternall ioy, through Jeſus Chriſte our Lord.

The people ſhall aunſwere. Amen.

Then ſhal the Miniſter begin the Lordes prayer, with a loude voyce.

OUr father whiche art in heauen, halowed be thy name. Thy kyngdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Geue vs this day our dayly breade. And forgeue vs our treſpaſſes, as we forgeue them that treſpaſſe agaynſt vs. And leade vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euyll, Amen.

Then lyke wyſe he ſhal ſay.

O Lorde open thou our lyppes.

Aunſwere.

And our mouth ſhall ſhewe forth thy prayſe.

Prieſt.

O God make ſpeede to ſaue vs.

Aunſwere.

O Lord make haſte to helpe vs.

Prieſt.

Glory be to the father, and to the ſonne. &c.

As it was in the beginning, is nowe. &c.

¶ Prayſe ye the Lorde.

Then ſhalbe ſayde or ſong this Pſalme folowing.

COme, let vs ſing vnto the Lorde: let vs hartyly reioyce in the ſtrength of our ſaluation. Venite ulterius Pſal. 95.

Let vs come before his preſence with thankeſgeuing: and ſhewe our ſelues glad in him with Pſalmes.

For the Lorde is a great God: and a great kyng aboue all Gods.

In his hande are all the corners of the earth: and the ſtrength of the hyls is his alſo.

The ſea is his, and he made it: & his handes prepared the dry lande.

O come, let vs worſhip and fall downe: and kneele before the Lorde our maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his paſture, & the sheepe of his hande.

To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hartes: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wyldernelle.

When your fathers tempted me: proued me, and ſawe my workes.

Fourtie yeeres long was I grieued with this generation, and ſayde: It is a people that do erre in their hartes, for they haue not knowen my wayes.

Vnto whom I ſware in my wrathe that they ſhoulde not enter into my reſt.

Glory be to the father, and to the ſonne: and to the holy ghoſt.

As it was in the beggynnyng, is nowe, and euer ſhalbe: worlde without ende, Amen.

Then ſhall folowe certayne Pſalmes in order, as they be appointed in a table made for that purpoſe, except there be proper Pſalmes appoynted for that day.

Then ſhalbe read two Leſſons diſtinctly with a loude voyce, that the people may heare, heare, the first of the olde Testament, the seconde of the newe. &c.

After the first lesson shall folowe, Te Deum laudamus, in Englishe, dayly through the whole yeere.

And after the second Lesson, shalbe vsed and sayd, Benedictus dominus Israel, in Englishe, as foloweth.

Benedictus.

BLessed be the Lorde God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

And hath raysed vp a mynghtie saluation for vs: in the house of his seruaunt Dauid.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophetes: which hath ben sence the worlde began.

That we shoulde be saued from our enimies: and from the handes of all that hate vs.

To perfourme the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy couenaunt.

To perfourme the othe whiche he sware to our forefather Abraham: that he woulde geue vs.

That we beyng delyuered out of the handes of our enimies: myghte serue him without feare.

In holynesse and ryghteousnesse before him: all the dayes of our lyfe.

And thou chylde shalt be called the Prophete of the hyghest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lorde, to prepare his wayes.

To geue knowledge of saluation vnto his people: for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercy of our God: whereby the day spryng from an hygh hath visited vs.

To geue lyght to them that sit in darkenesse, and in the shadowe of death: and to guyde our feete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne: and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe: worlde without ende, Amen.

Or the. C. Psalme. Iubilate.

Iubilate deo.

BE ioyfull in the Lorde all ye landes: serue the Lorde with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and not we our selues, we are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.

O go your wayes into his gates with thanks geuyng, and into his courtes with prayse: be thankeful vnto hym, & speake good of his name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is euerlastyng: and his trueth endureth from generation to generation.

Glorie be to the father, and to the sonne. &c.

As it was in the begynning, is nowe. &c.

Then shalbe sayd the Creede by the Minister and the people, standyng.

IBeleeue in God the father almyghtie, maker of heauen and earth, and in Iesus Christ his onely sonne our Lord, which was conceiued by the holy ghost, borne of the virgin Mary, suffered vnder Pontce Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hell, the third day he rose agayne from the dead, he ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hand of god the father almyghtie, from thence shall he come to iudge the quicke and the dead. I beleeue in the holy ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the communion of Saintes, the forgeuenesse of sinnes, the resurrection of the body, and the lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

And after that, these prayers folowing, as well at Euening prayer, as at Morning prayer, all deuoutly kneelyng.

Then ſhall folowe three Collectes. The firſt of the day, which ſhalbe the ſame that is appoynted at the Communion. The ſeconde, for peace. The thirde, for grace to lyue well. And the two laſt Collectes ſhall neuer aulter, but dayly be ſayde at Mornyng prayer throughout all the yeere, as foloweth.

The ſeconde Collect for peace.

O God, whiche art aucthour of peace, and louer of concorde, in knowledge of whō ſtandeth our eternall lyfe, whoſe ſeruice is perfect freedome: defend vs thy humble ſeruaūtes in all aſſaultes of our enimies, that we ſurely truſting in thy defence, may not feare the power of any aduerſaries, through the myght of Jeſus Chriſte our Lorde, Amen.

The thirde Collect for grace.

O Lorde our heauenly father, almightie and euerlaſting God, which haſt ſafely brought vs to ẏ beginning of this day, defend vs in the ſame with thy myghtie power, and graunt that this day we fall into no ſinne, neyther run into any kinde of daunger, but that all our doynges may be ordered by thy gouernaunce, to doo alwayes that is ryghteous in thy ſight: through Jeſus Chriſt our lord, Amen.

An order for Euenyng prayer throughout the yeere.

The Prieſt ſhall ſay.

Our father which art in heauen. &c.

Then likewiſe he ſhal ſay.

Then a Leſſon of the olde Teſtament, as is appoynted lykewyſe in the Kalender, except there be proper Leſſons appoynted for that day. After that Magnificat in Engliſh, as foloweth.

Magnificat. Luke. 1

My ſoule doeth magnifie the Lord: & my ſpirite hath reioyced in God my ſauiour.

For he hath regarded the lowlineſſe of his handmayden.

For beholde from henceforth all generations ſhall call me bleſſed.

For he that is myghty hath magnified me: and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that feare hym throughout all generations.

He hath ſhewed ſtrength with his arme: he hath ſcattered the proude in the imagination of their hartes.

He hath put downe the mightie from their ſeate: and hath exalted the humble and meeke.

He hath filled the hungry with good thynges: and the riche he hath ſent emptie away.

He remembryng his mercy, hath holpen his ſeruaunt Iſrael: as he promiſed to our forefathers, Abraham, and his ſeede for euer.

Glorie be to the father, and to the ſonne: and to the holy ghoſt.

As it was in the beginning, is nowe, &c.

Or the.98.Pſalme.

Cantate domino.

SYng vnto the Lorde a new ſong: for he hath done marueylous thynges.

With his owne ryght hande, and with his holy arme: hath he gotten him ſelfe the victorie.

The Lord declared his ſaluation: his ryghteouſneſſe hath he openly ſhewed in the ſight of the Heathen.

He hath remembred his mercy and trueth towarde the houſe of Iſrael: and all the endes of the worlde haue ſeene the ſaluation of our God.

Shewe your ſelues ioyfull vnto the Lorde, all ye landes: ſing, reioyce, and geue thankes.

Prayſe the Lord vpon the Harpe: ſing to the Harpe with a Pſalme of thankeſgeuyng.

With trumpets alſo and ſhawmes: O ſhewe your ſelues ioyfull before the Lorde the kyng.

Let the ſea make a noyſe, and all that therein is: the round worlde, and they that dwel therin.

Let the flooddes clap their handes, and let the hylles be ioyfull togeather before the Lorde: for he is come to iudge the earth.

With righteouſneſſe ſhal he iudge the world: and the people with equitie.

Glorie be to the father, and to the ſonne. &c.
As it was in the begynning, is nowe. &c.

Then a Leſſon of the new Teſtament. And after that, Nunc dimittis in Engliſhe, as foloweth.

Nunc dimittis. Luke.2.

LOrde now letteſt thou thy ſeruaunt depart in peace: accordyng to thy woorde.

For myne eyes haue ſeene: thy ſaluation.

Which thou haſt prepared: before the face of all people.

To be a lyght to lyghten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Iſrael.

Glorie be to the father, and to the ſonne. &c.
As it was in the begynning, is nowe. &c.

Or this Pſalme.

Deus miſereatur. Pſal.47.

GOD be mercyful vnto vs, and bleſſe vs: and ſhewe vs the lyght of his countenance, and be mercyful vnto vs.

That thy way may be knowen vpon the earth: thy ſauing health among all nations.

Let the people prayſe thee, O God: yea let all the people prayſe thee.

O let the nations reioyce and be glad, for thou ſhalt iudge the folke ryghteouſly: and gouerne the nations vpon earth.

Let the people prayſe thee, O God: let all the people prayſe thee.

Then ſhal the earth bring foorth her encreaſe: and God, euen our owne God, ſhall geue vs his bleſſing.

God ſhall bleſſe vs: and all the endes of the worlde ſhall feare hym.

Glory be to the father, and to the ſonne. &c.
As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe. &c.

Then ſhall folowe the Creede, with other prayers, as is before appoynted at Mornyng prayer after Benedictus, and with three Collectes. Firſt, of the day. Second, of peace. Thirde, for ayde agaynſt all peryls, as hereafter foloweth, whiche two laſt Collectes ſhalbe dayly ſayde at Euening prayer without alteration.

The ſeconde Collect at Euening prayer.

O God, from whom all holy deſyres, all good counſayles, and all iuſt workes do proceede: geue vnto thy ſeruantes that peace which the worlde can not geue, that both our hartes may be ſet to obey thy commaundementes, and alſo that by thee, we beyng defended from the feare of our enimies, may paſſe our time in reſt and quietneſſe, through the merites of Ieſus Chriſte our ſauiour, Amen.

The third Collect, for ayde agaynſt all perils.

LIghten our darkneſſe we beſeech thee, O Lorde, and by thy great mercy defende vs from all perils and dangers of this night, for the loue of thy only ſonne our Sauiour Ieſus Chriſte, Amen.

In the feaſtes of Chriſtmas, the Epiphanie, Saint Matthias, Eaſter, the Aſſention, Pentecoſt, Saint Iohn Baptiſt, S. Iames, Saint Bartholomewe, Saint Matthewe, Saint Simon and Iude, Saint Andrewe, & Trinitie Sunday, ſhalbe ſong or ſaide immediatly after Benedictus, this confeſſion of our Chriſtian fayth.

WHoſeuer wylbe ſaued: before all thinges it is neceſſarie that he holde the Catholique fayth.

Which fayth except euery one doo keepe holy and vndefyled: without doubt he ſhall peryſhe euerlaſtyngly.

And

And the Catholique fayth is this: that we worship one God in trinitie, & trinitie in vnitie.

Neyther confoundyng the persons: nor deuidyng the substaunce.

For there is one person of the father, another of the sonne: and another of the holy ghost.

But the godhead of the father, of the sonne, and of the holy ghost is all one: the glory equal, the maiestie coeternall.

Such as the father is, such is the sonne: and such is the holy ghost.

The father vncreate, the sonne vncreate: and the holy ghost vncreate.

The father incomprehensible, the sonne incomprehensible: and the holy ghost incomprehensible.

The father eternall, the sonne eternall: and the holy ghost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternall.

So there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three vncreated: but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the father is almighty, the sonne almyghty: and the holy ghost almyghty.

And yet are they not three almyghties: but one almightie.

So the father is God, the sonne is God: and the holy ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So lykewyse the father is Lorde, the sonne Lorde: and the holy ghost Lorde.

And yet not three Lordes: but one Lorde.

For lyke as we be compelled by the Christian veritie: to acknowledge euery person by hym selfe to be God and Lorde.

So are we forbidden by the Catholique religiō: to say there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The father is made of none: neyther created, nor begotten.

The sonne is of the father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.

The holy ghost is of the father, and of the sonne: neyther made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceedyng.

So there is one father, not three fathers, one sonne, not three sonnes: one holy ghost, not three holy ghostes.

And in this trinitie, none is afore or after other: none is greater or lesse then another.

But the whole three persons, be coeternall togeather: and coequall.

So that in all thinges, as is aforesayde: the vnitie in trinitie, and the trinitie in vnitie is to be worshipped.

He therefore that wyll be saued: must thus thinke of the trinitie.

Furthermore, it is necessarie to euerlastyng saluation: that he also beleeue ryghtly in the incarnation of our Lorde Jesu Christe.

For the ryght fayth is, that we beleeue and confesse: that our Lord Jesus Christ, the sonne of God, is God and man.

God, of the substance of the father, begotten before the worldes: and man, of the substaunce of his mother, borne in the worlde.

Perfite God and perfite man: of a reasonable soule, and humane flesh subsistyng.

Equal to the father as touching his godhead: and inferiour to the father touchyng his manhood.

Who although he be God and man: yet he is not two, but one Christe.

One, not by conuertion of the godhead into flesh: but by takyng of the manhood into God.

One altogether, not by confusion of substance: but by vnitie of person.

For as the reasonable soule, and flesh is one man: so God and man is one Christe.

Who suffered for our saluation, descended into hell: rose agayne the thirde day from the dead.

He assended into heauen, he sitteth on the ryght hande of the father, GOD almyghtie: from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and the dead.

At whose comming al men shall ryse agayne with their bodyes: and shall geue account for their owne workes.

And they that haue done good, shall goe into lyfe euerlastyng: and they that haue done euyll, into euerlastyng fyre.

This is the Catholique fayth: which except a man beleeue faythfully, he can not be saued.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne: and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe: worlde without ende, Amen.

¶ Thus endeth the order of Mornyng and Euening prayer, though the whole yeere.

¶ Here foloweth the Letanie,

The first booke of Moses, called in Hebrewe, of the first worde of the booke, (a) Bereschith, and in Greeke (b) Genesis.

(b) That is, generation or creation.

¶ The first Chapter.

1. How heauen and earth, 3. the lyght, 6. the firmament, 16. the sunne, the moone, the starres, 21. and fishes in the sea, 24. and all beastes, and foules, were made by the worde of God, 26. and how man also was created.

IN the beginning GOD created ẏ heauen and the earth.

And ẏ earth was(a) without fourme, & was voyde: and darkenesse (was) vpon the face of the deepe, and the (b) spirite of God moued vpon the face of the waters.

And God sayde, Let there be light: and there was light.

And God sawe the light that it was good: and God deuided the light from the darkenesse.

And God called the light, Day, and the darkenesse, Night: and the euening and the morning were the first day.

And God sayde, Let there be a "firmament betweene the waters, and let it make a diuision betweene waters and waters.

And God made the firmament, and set a diuisiō betweene the waters which (were) vnder (c) the firmament, & the waters that (were) aboue the firmament: & it was so.

And God called the firmament, the Heauen: and the euening and the morning were the second day.

And God sayde, Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered togither into one place, and let the dry lande appeare: and it was so.

And God called the dry land the earth, and the gatheryng togither of waters called he the Seas: and God sawe that it was good.

And God sayd, Let the earth bring forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede, and fruitefull trees, yeeldyng fruyte after his kinde, which hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

And the earth brought forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede after his kinde, and tree yeeldyng fruite, whiche had seede in it selfe, after his kinde.

And God sawe that it was good. And the euenyng and the mornyng were the thirde day.

And God sayde, Let there be lightes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may diuide the day and the night, and let them be for (d) signes, and seasons, and for dayes, and yeares. (The.4.day. Psalm.136.b Deut.4.b.)

And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the Heauen, that they may giue light vpon the earth: and it was so.

And God made two great lightes: a greater light to rule the day, & a lesse light to rule the night, & (he made) starres also.

And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth.

And to rule the day and the night, and to make difference betweene the light and the darkenesse: and God sawe that was good.

And the euening and the morning were the fourth day.

And God sayde, Let the waters bring forth (e) mouyng creature that hath lyfe, and foule that may flee vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen. (The.5.day. Iere.31.d.)

And God created great Whales, and euery liuing and mouing creature, whiche the waters brought forth after their kinde, and euery feathered foule after their kinde: and God sawe that it was good.

And God (f) blessed them, saying, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and fill the waters of the sea, and let foule multiplie in the earth.

And the euening and mornyng were the fifth day.

And God sayd, Let the earth bring forth liuing creature after his kinde, cattell, worme, and beastes of the earth after his kinde: and it was so. (The.6.day.)

God made the beast of the earth after his kinde, and cattell after his kinde, and euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth after his kinde: and God sawe that it was good.

God sayde, Let vs (g) make man in our image, after our likenesse, & let them haue rule of the fyshe of the sea, and of the foule of the ayre, and of cattel, and of al the earth,

(a) Although the works of God, both in the creation, & his spiritual 1 creation in vs, seem rude and imperfect at the first: yet God by the working of his 2 holy spirite, bringeth all things to a perfection at the last.

(b) The confused heape of heauē & earth is imperfect, and darke, and not vtterly bad, but was indued with the power and 3 strength of Gods spirite, and so made ready, to cōtinue vnto the worldes ende. The.2.day. Heb. 1 Street ing out, or ching abyde Isal.33.b.

(c) As the sea riuers from those waters that are in the clouds, which vpholden Gods power, least they should ouerwhelme the world. The.3.day.

(d) These lights were not made to serue Astronomers phantasies, but for signes in naturall things, and tokens of Gods mercy or wrath.

(e) As fish and wormes, which slide, swimme, or creepe.

(f) Blessing in Scripture signifyeth abundance: that is, he gaue them fruitfulnesse by his worde.

(g) Moses speketh in the plurall nūber, signifying mo persons to be in God, & that the father in the creation of man, consulted with his wisedome & spirit.

A. and

and of euery creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth.

27 So God created man in his (h) owne image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them.

(h) This Image & likenesse of God in man is expouded, where it is written that man was created after God, in righteousnesse and true holinesse, meaning by these two wordes, all perfection, as immortalitie, wisdom, truth, innocencie, power. &c.

28 And God blessed them, and God sayde vnto them, Be fruitfull, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and haue dominion of the fishe of the Sea, and foule of the ayre, and of euery liuing thing that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God sayde, Beholde, I haue gyuen you euery hearbe bearyng seede, whiche is in the vpper face of all the earth, and euery tree, in the whiche is the fruite of a tree, bearyng seede, (that) they may be meate vnto you:

30 To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery byrde of the ayre, and to euery suche thing that creepeth vpon the earth, whiche "dothe liue, I haue giuen euery greene hearbe for meate: and it was so.

"Heb. hath a liuing soule.

31 And God sawe euery thing that he had made: and behold, it was exceeding good. And the euenyng and the mornyng were the sixth day.

The. ij. Chapter.

2. The day of rest is blessed. 4. A repeating of things foretolde in the first. 6. The cloude from the earth, is a well to water it. 7. He rehearseth agayne the fashionyng of man. 8. Man in the paradise of pleasure. 10. The wood of lyfe, the wood of knowledge. 11. 13. 14. The riuers name. 16. God forbiddeth man the tree of knowledge of good & euill. 19. Adá giueth names vnto all liuing things. 22. VVoman is created. 23. The institution of holy mariage.

1 THe heauens also and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

(a) No more new creations of creatures are to be loked for: yet God still cõtinually gouerneth and preserueth all things. Ioh. 18. Exod. 20. b. Hebr. 4. a.

2 And in the seuenth day God (a) ended his worke whiche he had made. And the seuenth day he rested frõ all his worke which he had made.

3 And God (b) blessed the seuenth day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his worke whiche God ordeyned to make.

(b) The seuenth day cõsecrated to the seruice of God, for man in his perfect state.

4 These are the generations of the Heauens, and of the earth, when they were created, in the day when the Lord God made the earth and the heauens,

5 And euery plant of the fielde, before it was in the earth, and euery hearbe of the fielde before it grewe. For the Lorde God had not (yet) caused it to rayne vpon the earth, neyther (was there) a man to till the grounde.

6 But there went vp a mist from the earth, & watered the whole face of the grounde.

7 The Lord God also did shape man, (euẽ) (c) dust from of the grounde, and breathed into his nolethrilles the breath of life, and man was a liuyng soule.

8 And the Lord God (d) planted a " garden eastwarde in * Eden, and there he put the man whom he had shapte.

9 Moreouer, out of the grounde made the Lord God to grow (e) euery tree that was fayre to sight, and pleasant to eate: The tree (f) of life in the middest of the garden, and the tree of (g) knowledge of good & euill.

10 And out of Eden there wente forth a flood to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, & became into foure heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison, the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of (h) Hauilah, where there is golde:

12 And the golde of the lande is very good. There is also Bdelliũ, & the Onixe stone.

13 The name of the second riuer is Gyhon: the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of (i) Ethiopia.

14 The name of the thirde riuer is " Hidekel, and it goeth towarde the East side of Assyria: & the fourth riuer is Euphrates.

15 And the Lorde God toke the man, and put him in the garden of Eden, that he might (k) worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lorde God (l) commaunded the man, saying, Eating, thou shalt eate of euery tree of the garden:

17 But as touchyng the tree of knowledge of good and euill: thou shalt not eate of it: For in what day so euer thou eatest therof, thou shalt dye the (m) death.

18 And the Lord God sayde, It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make him an (n) helpe "like vnto him.

19 And so out of the grounde the Lord God had shaped euery beast of the fielde, and euery foule of the ayre, and brought it vnto man, that he might see how he would call it. For lykewise as man him selfe named euery liuing thing, euen so was the name thereof.

20 And the man (o) gaue names to al cattel, and foule of the ayre, and euery beast of the fielde: but for man founde he not an helpe lyke vnto him.

21 The Lorde God caused a deepe sleepe to fall vpon Adam, and he slept, and he toke one of his ribbes, and closed vp the place with flesshe, in steede thereof.

22 And the ribbe which the Lorde God had taken

23 And man sayd, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh, she shalbe called (q) woman, bycause she was taken out of man.

24 For this cause shall man leaue his father and his mother, and shalbe ioyned with his wife: and they shall become one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were (r) not ashamed.

The. iij. Chapter.

1 NOw the Serpent was suttiller than euery beast of the field whiche the Lord God had made, and he sayde vnto the woman, Yea, hath (a) God sayde, ye shall not eate of euery tree of the garden?

2 And the woman sayde vnto the Serpent, We eate of the fruite of the trees of the garden.

3 But as for the fruite of the tree, which is in the middes of the garde, God hath sayd, Ye shall not eate of it, neyther shall ye touche of it, (b) least peraduenture ye die.

4 And the serpent sayde vnto the woman, Ye shall (c) not die the death.

5 For God doth knowe, that the same day that ye eate thereof, your eyes shalbe opened, & (d) ye shalbe euen as goddes, knowyng good and euill.

6 And so the woman, seyng that the same tree was good to eate of, and pleasaunt to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, toke of the fruyte thereof, and did (e) eate, and gaue also vnto hir husband beyng with hyr, and he did eate.

7 (f) Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they sewed (g) figge leaues together, and made themselues apernes.

8 And they hearde the voyce of the Lorde God, walkyng in the garden in the cole of the day: and Adam and his wife (h) hid themselues from the presence of the Lorde God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the Lord called Adam, and sayd vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Whiche sayde, I hearde thy voyce in the garden, and was afrayd, (i) bicause I was naked, and hid myselfe.

11 And he sayde, Who tolde thee, that thou waste naked? Haste thou not eaten of the same tree, concernyng the whiche I commaunded thee that thou shouldest not eate of it?

12 And Adam sayde, The woman whome thou gauest (to be) with me, (k) she gaue me of the tree, and I did eate.

13 And the Lorde God sayde vnto the woman, "Why hast thou done this? And the woman sayde, The Serpent beguyled mee and I did eate.

14 And the Lord God sayde vnto the (l) serpent, Bycause thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattell, and aboue euery beast of the fielde: vpon thy belly shalte thou goe, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life.

15 I will also put (m) enmitie betweene thee and the woman, betweene thy seede and hir seede: & (n) * it shal treade downe thy head, and thou shalt treade vpon his heele.

16 But vnto the woman he sayde, (o) I will very muche multiply thy sorowe, and thy greefes of chylde bearyng, In sorowe shalt thou bryng forth chyldren: thy desire (shal be) to thy husbande, and he shall haue the rule of thee.

17 Unto Adam he sayde, Bicause thou hast hearkened vnto (p) the voyce of thy wyfe, and haste eaten of the tree concernyng the which I commaunded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eate of it, cursed is the grounde for thy sake, in sorow shalt thou eate of it al the dayes of thy life.

18 Thorne also and thistle shal it bring forth (q) to thee, and thou shalt eate the hearbe of the fielde.

19 In the sweate of thy face shalt thou eate thy bread, till thou be turned agayne into the grounde, for out of it wast thou taken: For dust thou art, and into dust shalte thou be turned againe.

20 And Adam called his wifes (r) name Heua, bicause she was the mother of al liuing.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wyfe did the Lorde God (s) make garments of skinnes, and he put them on.

22 And the Lorde God sayde, Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, (t) in knowing good and euill: And now least peraduenture he put forth his hande, and take also of the tree of lyfe, and eate, and lyue for euer. (v)

23 Therefore the Lorde God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to worke the grounde whence he was taken.

6 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Cain, Why art thou wroth, and why is thy countenãce abated?

7 If thou do well, ſhalt "thou not (f) receyue? and if thou do not wel, lieth not thy ſinne at the dores? Alſo vnto (g) thee ſhall his deſire be, and thou ſhalt haue dominion ouer him.

15 And the Lorde ſayde vnto him, (p) Verily whoſoeuer ſlayeth Cain, he ſhalbe puniſhed ſeuen folde. And the Lorde ſet a marke vpon Cain, leaſt any man findyng him ſhould kill him.

16 (q) And Cain went out from the preſence of the Lorde, & dwelt in the lande of Nod, eaſtwarde from Eden.

17 (r) Cain alſo knew his wife, which conceiued and bare Henoch, and building a citie, he called the name of the ſame citie, after the name of his ſonne Henoch.

1 AND it came to passe, that when men (a) beganne to be multiplied in the vpper face of the earth, there were daughters borne vnto them:

2 And the (b) sonnes of God also sawe the daughters of men that they were fayre, and they toke them wyues, suche as they lyked, from among them all.

3 And the Lorde sayde, (c) My spirite shall not alwayes striue with man, bycause he is fleshe: yet his dayes shalbe (d) an hundred and twentie yeeres.

4 But there were Giaunts in those dayes in the earth: (e) yea and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and had begotten children of them, the same became mightie men of the worlde, and mē of renowme.

5 (f) But God sawe that the malice of man was greate in the earth, and all the imagination of the thoughtes of his hart (was) onely euill euery day:

6 And it repented the Lorde that he had made man vpon the earth, (g) and he was touched with sorowe in his hart.

7 And the Lorde sayd, I wil frō the vpper face of the earth, destroy mā, whom I haue created, frō man vnto cattell, vnto worme, and vnto foules of the ayre: For it (h) repenteth me that I haue made them.

8 But Noah (i) founde grace in the eyes of the Lorde.

(a) This corruption began long before Noahs time.

(b) The sonnes of the godly ioined them selues with the daughters of the wicked, without all feare of God.

(c) God had gone about diuers waies to cal the worlde to repentance, but mans obstinacie was such as would not obey, but waxed beastly.

(i) That is, God fauoured hym, and was mercyfull vnto him.

9 These are the generations of Noah: Noah (was) a iust man, & perfect in his (k) generations: and Noah walked with God.

(k) In those most corrupt times, Noah continued iust and vpright.

10 Noah begate three sonnes, Sem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt (l) before god, & the same earth was filled with crueltie.

(l) To the eies of the worlde, the wicked seemed as pure as Noah.

12 And God loked vpon the earth, and beholde it was corrupt: for all (m) flesshe had corrupt his way vpon earth.

(m) Bycause all the inhabitantes had corrupted bothe religiō & life.

13 And God sayde vnto Noah, The (n) ende of al flesshe is come before me, for the earth is filled with crueltie through them, and beholde I will destroy them with the earth.

(n) God by his threatnings, sturreth Noah to great care and feare.

14 Make thee an Arke of (o) Pine trees: Habitations shalt thou make in the Arke, and shalt pitche it within and without with pitche.

(o) Gopher, a very light kind of wood.

¶ 15 And of this fashion shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke (shalbe) three hundred cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, and the height of it thirtie cubites.

16 A windowe shalt thou make in the Arke, & (p) in a cubite shalt thou finisshe it aboue: but the doore of the Arke shalte thou set in the side therof. With three lofres one aboue another shalt thou make it.

(p) The legth of the window was a cubite.

17 And beholde (q) I, euen I do bryng a flood of waters vpon the earth, to destroy al flesshe wherein is the breath of lyfe vnder heauen, and euery thing that is in the earth shall perisshe.

(q) God doth repeate I, for the certaintie of the floud, whiche the world thought vnpossible.

18 With thee also will I make my couenaunt: and thou shalt come into the Arke, thou and thy Sonnes, thy wyfe, and thy sonnes wines with thee.

19 And of euery lyuyng thing of all flesshe, a payre of euery one shalt thou bryng into the Arke, to keepe them aliue with thee: they shalbe male and female.

20 Of feathered foules also after their kind, and of all cattell after their kinde: of euery wormе of the earth after his kinde, two of euery sorte shall come vnto thee, to keepe (them) alyue.

D 21 And take thou with thee of all meate that is eaten, and thou shalt lay it vp with thee, that it may be meate for thee and them.

22 Noah therfore did according vnto al that God commaunded him, (euen) so did he.

The. vij. Chapter.

1. Noah with them that were with him, entreth into the arke. 20. The floud destroyeth all the rest vpon the earth.

A 1 AND the Lord sayd vnto Noah, Come thou and (a) al thy house into the arke: for thee haue I seene righteous before me in this generation.

(a) Temporall benefites God bestoweth

2 Of euery cleane beast thou shalte take with thee seuen (b) and seuen, the male and his female: but of vncleane cattel, two, the male and his female.

(b) Not for payre, but three, and for sacrifice.

3 Of foules also of the ayre seuen & seuen, the male and the female, to keepe seede aliue vpon the face of all the whole earth.

4 For after (c) seuen dayes, I will rayne vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nights: and al substance that I haue made, will I destroy from the vpper face of the earth.

(c) God will not haue him to be in doubt of any circumstance.

5 Noah therefore did accordyng vnto all that God commaunded hym.

6 And Noah was (d) fyre hundred yeeres olde, when the floudes of water came vpō the earth.

(d) Age doth not make Noah the floud to obey God will.

B 7 And Noah came, and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him, to the arke, bycause of the waters of the floud.

8 Of cleane beastes, & of vncleane beastes, and of foules, and of euery such as creepeth vpon the earth, 9 There (e) came two and two vnto Noah into the arke, the male and the female, as God had commaunded Noah.

(e) As vnto Adam, so vnto Noah he caused all things to come.

10 And so it came to passe after seuen dayes, that the waters of the floud were vpon the earth.

11 In the fyre hundred yeere of Noahs lyfe, in the (f) seconde moneth, the seuentenly day of the moneth, in the same day were al the (g) fountaynes of the great deepe broken vp, and the windowes of heauen were opened.

¶ 13 In the selfe same day entred Noah, and Sem, & Ham, and Japheth, the sonnes of Noah, & Noahs wife, and the three wyues of his sonnes with them, into the arke.

14 They, (h) and euery beast after his kinde, and all the cattell after theyr kinde, yea and euery wormе that creepeth vpon the grounde after his kinde, and euery byrde after his kinde, and euery fleyng and feathered foule.

(h) This times required, for it seemeth incredible to the sense of 15 And they came vnto Noah into the arke, two and two, of all flesshe wherein is the breath of lyfe.

16 And they entring in, came, male and female of all flesshe, as God had cōmaunded him: and God shut him in rounde about.

17 And the floud came fourtie dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increased, & bare vp the arke, whiche was lift vp aboue the earth.

18 The waters also wared strong, & were encreased exceedingly vpō the earth: & so the arke went vpō the vpper face of ỹ waters.
19 And the waters preuayled exceedingly vpon the earth, & all the high hilles, that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered.
20 Fiftene cubites vpwarde did the waters preuayle, so that the mountaynes were couered.
21 And (i) al flesh perished that moued vpon the earth, in foule, in cattell, in beast, and in euery worme that creepeth vpon the earth, yea, and euery man also.
22 So that (k) al that had the breath of life in his nosethrilles, throughout all that was on the (l) drie lande, died.
23 And euery substance was destroyed that remayned, and that was in the vpper parte of the groundr, bothe man, and cattell, and worme, and the foule of heauen, they were destroyed from of the earth, and (m) Noah onely remayned alyue, and they that were with him in the arke.
24 But the waters preuayled vpō the earth, an hundred and fiftie dayes.

The. viij. Chapter.

3. The waters of the floud being diminished, Noah sendeth forth the Rauen & the Doue.
16. Noah goeth out of the Arke, and offreth sacrifice vnto God.

1 AND God (a) remembred Noah, and euery beast, and all the cattell that were with him in the Arke: and God made (b) a winde to passe vpon the earth, and the waters ceassed.
2 The fountaines also of the deepe, and the windowes of heauen were stopped, and the rayne from heauen was restraigned.
3 And the waters from the earth returned, goyng and commyng agayne: and after the ende of the hundred and fiftie dayes, the waters were abated.
4 And in the (c) seuenth moneth, in the seuententh day of the moneth, the Arke rested vpon the mountaynes of "Armenia.
5 And the waters were goyng and decreasing vntill the tenth moneth: In the tenth moneth, & in the first day of the same moneth, were the toppes of the mountaynes seene.
6 And after the ende of the fourtie dayes, it came to passe (that) Noah opened the windowe of the Arke, which he had made.
7 And he sent forth a Rauen, whiche went out, goyng forth, and returning, vntill the waters were dried vp vpon the earth.
8 And agayne he sent forth a Doue from him, that he might see if the waters were abated from the vpper face of the ground.
9 And the Doue founde no rest for the sole of hir foote, and she returned vnto him into the Arke: for the waters (were) in the vpper face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his (d) hande, and toke hir, and pulled hir to him into the arke.
10 And he abode yet other seuen dayes, and agayne he sent forth the Doue out of the Arke:
11 And the Doue came to hym in the euentide, and loe, in hyr mouth was an Olyue leafe that she had pluckt, whereby Noah dyd know that the waters were abated vpon the earth.
12 And he abode yet other seuen dayes, and sent forth the Doue, whiche returned not vnto him any more.
13 And it came to passe in the sixe hundred & one yeare, in the first moneth, the firste (day) of the moneth, the waters were dried vp frō the earth, and Noah remoued the couering of the Arke, and loked, and behold, the vpper face of the grounde was dryed vp.
14 And in the (e) second moneth, in the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth, was the earth dryed.
15 And God spake vnto Noah, saying,
16 (f) Goe forth of the Arke, thou, and thy wife, thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wyues with thee.
17 And bring forth with thee euery beast that is with thee, of all fleashe, bothe foule and cattell, and euery worme that creepeth vpon the earth, that they may breede in the earth, and bring forth fruite, and multiplie vpon the earth.
18 And so Noah came forth, and his sonnes, & his wife, and his sonnes wines with him:
19 Euery beast also, and euery worme, euery foule, and whatsoeuer creepeth vpon the earth, after their kindes, went out of the Arke.
20 And Noah buylded an aulter vnto the Lorde, and toke of euery cleane beast, and of euery cleane foule, (g) and offred a whole burnt offering on the aulter.
21 And the Lord smelled a sweete (or quiet) sauour, and the Lorde sayde in his harte, I will not henceforth curse the grounde any more for mans sake, for the imagination of mans hart is euill from his youth: neither will I smyte any more euery thing liuing, as I haue done.
22 Yet therefore shall not (h) sowyng time, and harueste, colde and heate, sommer and winter, day and night, ceasse all the dayes of the earth.

(d) It seemeth that the Raue being a wylde & an vncleane foule, fed of the dead carkases, & therfore refused to turne agayne into the arke, but rested thereon: But the Doue beyng of nature a tamer foule, and vsed to cleaner foode, and finding no place to rest on, suffered hir self to be receyued in agayne.
(e) Noah was in the arke one yeere and ten dayes.
(f) Noah goeth neither in nor out, without Gods commaundement.
(g) It is called a whole burnt offring, because the whole sacrifice was consumed with fire, by the whiche is signified, that the person which did offer the same, shuld haue his hart & mind wholly vpon God, as it is written, Loue thy God with all thy hart, and with all thy soule. &c.
(h) The order of nature destroyed by the floud, is restored by Gods promise.

The.ix.Chapter.

1. God blesseth Noah and his sonnes. 3. God giueth libertie of meates, & forbiddeth the eatyng of bloud. 9. He promiseth no more to destroye the worlde with water, 13. and giueth the raynebow for a token thereof.

I 1 AND God blessed Noah & his sonnes, and sayde vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiplie, and replenisshe the earth.

(a) By the vertue of this cõmaundement, beasts rage not not so much agaynst man, as otherwise they woulde, but are appoynted to serue mans necessary vses.

2 The (a) feare of you, and the dread of you, shalbe vpon euery beast of the earth, & vpon euery foule of the ayre, vpon all that moueth vpon the earth, and vpon all the fishes of ỹ sea: into your hãds are they deliuered.

(b) By this graũt of God, man may with a good conscience vse all the creatures of God for his foode.

3 Euery thing that moueth it selfe, and that liueth, shalbe (b) meate for you, euen as the greene hearbe haue I gyuen you all things.

(c) That is, liuing creatures, and the flesh of beastes whiche are stragled, wher by all crueltie is forbidden.

B 4 But (c) flesh in the lyfe thereof (which is) the bloud therof, shall ye not eate.

(d) Punishment for murder.

5 And surely your bloud of your lines will (d) I require: at the hande of euery beaste will I require it, and at the hande of man, at the hande of mans " brother will I require the lyfe of man.

" or, neyghbour.

6 Who so sheddeth mans bloud, by man shall his bloud be shed, for in the image of God made he man.

7 But be fruitefull, & multiplie you, breede in the earth, and increase therein.

8 God spake also vnto Noah, and to his sonnes with him, saying,

9 Behold I, euen I establish my couenant with you, & with (e) your seede after you:

(e) The children whiche are not yet borne, are comprehended in Gods couenãt made with their fathers.

10 And with euery liuyng creature that is with you, in foule, in cattell, in euery beast of the earth, whiche is with you, of all that goe out of the Arke, whatsoeuer liuing thing of the earth it be.

11 And my couenaunt I make with you, that from henceforth euery flesshe be not rooted out with the waters of a floud, neyther shall there be a floudde to destroy the earth any more.

12 And God sayde, This is the token of the couenaunt whiche I make betweene me and you, and euery liuyng creature that is with you for euer.

(f) The rainebowe is nowe firste made a signe of Gods couenant.

C 13 I do set my (f) bowe in the cloude, and it shalbe for a token betweene me & the earth, 14 And it shall come to passe, that when I bryng a cloude vpon the earth, the bowe also shalbe seene in the same cloude.

15 And I will thinke vpon my couenaunt whiche is betweene me and you, and euery liuyng creature in all flesshe, and it shall no more come to passe that waters make a floud to destroy all flesshe.

16 And the bowe shalbe in the cloude, and I will loke vpon it, that I may thynke vpon the euerlasting couenaunt, betweene God and euery liuing creature in all flesshe that is vpon the earth.

17 And God sayde vnto Noah, This is the token of the couenaunt which I haue made betweene me and all flesshe that is vpon earth.

18 The sonnes of Noah goyng forth of the Arke, were Sem, Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of " Chanaan.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knewe what his younger sonne had done vnto him.

23 The childre of Aram: Us, and Hul, Gether, and Mas.
24 Arpharad, begat Selah, and Selah (k) begat Heber.
25 Unto Heber also were borne two sonnes: the name of the one was (l) Peleg, for in his dayes was the earth diuided, and his brothers name was Jaktan.

A 1 When Abram was ninetie yeeres olde and nine, the Lorde appeared to him, and ſayde vnto him, I am the almyghtie God, walke before me, and be thou perfect.

2 And I wyll make my couenaunte betweene mee and thee, and will multiplie thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, ſaying,

4 It is I, beholde my couenaunt (is) with thee, and thou ſhalt be a father of many (a) nations.

5 Neyther ſhall thy name any more be called (b) Abram, but thy name ſhalbe called Abraham: for a father of many natiõs haue I made thee.

6 (c) I wyll make thee exceeding frutefull, and wyll make nations of thee, yea and kings ſhall ſpring out of thee.

7 Moreouer "I will make my couenaunte betweene mee and thee, and thy ſeede after thee, in their generations, by an euerlaſting couenaunt, that I maye be God vnto thee, and to thy ſeede after thee.

8 And I will gyue vnto thee, & to thy ſeede after thee, the lande wherein thou arte a ſtranger (euen) all the lande of Chanaan, for an euerlaſting poſſeſſion, and wyll bee their (d) God.

9 And God ſayde agayne vnto Abraham, Thou ſhalt keepe my couenaunt therefore, both thou, and thy ſeede after thee, in their generations.

10 This is my couenaunt, whiche yee ſhall keepe betweene mee and you, and thy ſeede after thee: euery man chylde among you ſhalbe (e) circumciſed.

11 Ye ſhall circumciſe (f) the fleſhe of your foreſkinne, and it ſhalbe a token of the couenaunt betwixt mee and you.

12 And euery manchild of eyght dayes olde, ſhall be circumciſed amongſt you, in your generations: both hee that is borne in thy houſe, and hee that is bought with money of any ſtranger, which is not of thy ſeede.

13 He that is borne in thy houſe, and he alſo that is bought with money, muſt needes bee circumciſed: and my couenaunt ſhall be in your fleſh for an euerlaſting couenãt.

14 And the vncircũciſed manchild, in whoſe fleſhe the foreſkinne is not circumciſed, (g) that ſoule ſhalbe cut of from his people, bicauſe he hath broken my couenaunt.

15 And God ſayde vnto Abraham, Sarai thy wyfe ſhalt thou not call Sarai, but Sara (ſhall) hir name be.

16 And I wyll bleſſe hir, and gyue thee a ſonne of hir: yea, I will bleſſe hir, and ſhe ſhalbe (a mother) of nations, yea and kings of people ſhall ſpring of hir.

17 But Abraham fell vpon his face, (h) and laughed, and ſayde in his heart, Shall (a childe) be borne vnto him that is an hundred yeeres olde? and ſhall Sara that is ninetie yeeres olde beare?

18 And Abraham ſayde vnto God, O that Iſmael myght lyue in thy ſight.

19 Vnto whom God ſayde, Sara thy wife ſhall beare thee a ſonne in deede, and thou ſhalt cal his name Iſahac: and I wil eſtabliſhe my couenaunt with him for an (i) euerlaſting couenant, (and) with his ſeede after him.

20 And as concerning Iſmael alſo I haue hearde thee: for I haue bleſſed him, and will make him frutefull, and wyll multiplie him exceedingly: Twelue Princes ſhall he begette, and I will make a greate nation of him.

21 But my couenaunt wil I make with Iſahac, whiche Sara ſhall beare vnto thee, (euen) this time twelue moneth.

22 And he left of talking with him, & God departed vp from Abraham.

23 Abraham toke Iſmaell his ſonne, and ſuche as were borne in his houſe, & all that was bought with mony, as many as were men childzen, whiche were amongſt the men of Abrahams houſe, and (k) circumciſed the fleſhe of their foreſkinne in the ſelfe ſame day, as God had ſayde vnto him.

24 Abraham alſo him ſelfe was nynetie yeeres olde and nine, when the fleſhe of his foreſkinne was circumciſed.

25 Iſmael his ſonne was thirteene yeeres olde, when he was circumciſed in the fleſhe of his foreſkinne.

26 The ſelfe ſame daye was Abraham circumciſed, and Iſmael his ſonne.

1 AND the Lorde appeared vnto him in the playne of Mamre: and he ſate in his tent dore in the heate of the day.

Heb.13.b.

2 And he lifte vp his eyes and loked, and loe, (a)three men ſtode by him: and when he ſawe them, he ranne to meete them from the tent dore, and bowed him ſelfe toward the grounde,

(a) Though they were Angels, yet in outward ſhewe they were but men.

3 And ſayd, (b)Lorde, if I haue now found fauour in thy ſight, paſſe not away, I praye thee, from thy ſeruant.

(b) He ſawe three, but directed his ſpeach to one, whereby the miſterie of the Trinitie is declared.

5 And I will fet a morſell of breade to cõfort your hearts withall, and then ſhall you goe your wayes: for therefore are you come to your ſeruant. And they ſayde, Do as thou haſt ſayde.

5 And Abraham went apace into the tente, vnto Sara, and ſayde, Make ready at once three "meaſures of fine meale, kneade (it) and make cakes vpon the hearth.

Heb. Seim.

7 And Abraham running vnto his beaſtes, fette a Calfe tender and good, and gaue it vnto a yong man: and he haſted to make it readie at once.

8 And he toke butter, and milke, and the Calfe which he had prepared, and ſet it before them, and ſtode him ſelfe by them vnder the tree: (c) and they did eate.

(c) For as God gaue them bodies for a time gaue he thẽ vſe thereof, that is, to eate, drinke, and ſuch like. That is, I- ſhoulde leade life, and ſuſteine as o- ther children.

9 And they ſayde vnto him, Where is Sara thy wyfe? He anſwered. Behold in the tent.

10 And he ſayde, I will certaynely returne vnto thee (d) according to the terme of life: and loe, Sara thy wife ſhall haue a ſonne. That heard Sara in the tent dore, which was behinde him.

11 Abraham and Sara were both olde, and well ſtricken in age: and it ceaſſed to be with Sara, after the manner as it is with women.

12 Therefore Sara laughed within hir ſelf, ſaying, Nowe I am waxed olde ſhall I giue my ſelf to luſt, and my lord old alſo?

Pet.3.b.

15 Then Sara denyed it, ſaying, I laughed not: for ſhe was afrayde. And he ſayde, It is not ſo, but thou laugheddſt.

16 And the men, ryſing vp from thence, loked toward Sodome: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord ſayd, ſhall I (e)hyde from Abraham that thing which I doe?

(e) A token of loue, to open his ſecrets to his freende. Amos.3. Ioel.13. 1.Cor.2. Gen.12.c.

18 Seeing that Abraham ſhall ſurely be a great and mightie nation, and all the nations of the earth ſhall be bleſſed in him.

19 I know this alſo, that he will commaũd (f) his children and his houſhold after him, that they keepe the waye of the Lorde, and to do iuſtice and iudgement, that the Lord may bring vpon Abraham that he hath ſpoken vnto him.

(f) Fathers ought to teach their children the iudgemẽts of God.

20 And the Lorde ſayd, (g)Becauſe the cry of Sodome and Gomorrhe is great, and becauſe their ſinne is exceeding grieuous:

(g) God had before by warre and deſtructiõ of their enimies, called them to repentance, but they contemned Gods calling.

21 I will go downe nowe, and ſee whether they (h) haue done altogether according to that crye, whiche is come vnto me: and if not, I will knowe.

(h) God forbeareth puniſhment, vntil the ripenes of our ſinnes compell him to vengeance.

22 And the men departed thence, and went to Sodome warde: but Abraham ſtode yet before the Lorde.

23 And Abraham drue neare, and ſaid, Wilt thou alſo deſtroye the righteous with the wicked?

24 "If there be (i) fyftie ryghteous within the citie, wilte thou deſtroye and not ſpare the place for the ſake of fiftie righteous that are therein?

(i) Abraham wiſheth not the wicked to be vnpuniſhed but the godly to be deliuered out of this vter deſtructiõ.

25 That be farre from thee, that thou ſhouldeſt do after this maner, and ſlay the righteous with the wicked, and that the ryghteous ſhould be as the wicked, that be farre from thee: Shall not the iudge of all the world do according to right?

26 And the Lord ſayde, If I finde in Sodome fiftie righteous within the citie, I wil (k) ſpare all the place for their ſakes.

(k) God bindeth not him ſelfe here, alwayes to ſpare the wicked for the godly mẽs ſake: as, Ezechiel.18.

27 And Abraham anſwering, ſayd, (l) Behold, I haue taken vpon me to ſpeake vnto the Lord, which am but duſt and aſhes.

(l) What care and regard the godly haue of their neybors.

28 If there ſhal lacke fiue of fiftie righteous, wilt thou deſtroye all the citie for (lacke) of fiue? And he ſayde, If I finde there fourtie and fiue, I will not deſtroy them.

29 And he proceeded to ſpeake vnto him agayne, and ſayde, What and if there ſhall be foртie founde there? He anſwered, I will not do it for foртie ſake.

30 He ſayde vnto him againe, O let not my Lorde be angrie, that I ſpeake: What if there ſhall thirtie be founde there? And he ſayde, I will do nothing if I fynde thirtie there?

31 He sayde againe, O see, I haue taken vpō me to speake nowe also vnto my Lorde: What if there shalbe twentie found there? He answered, I will not destroy (them) for twenties sake.

32 And he sayde, O let not my Lord be angry, and I will speake yet but this once: What if (m) tenne shalbe found there? He answered, I will not destroy (them) for tennes sake.

(m) The godly man would not contemne all the citie, though he knewe it to be very corrupt.

33 And the Lorde went his way assoone as he had left communing with Abraham, & Abraham (also) turned vnto his place.

2 And Abraham ſayde of Sara his wife, (b) She is my ſyſter: And Abimelech king of Gerar ſent, and fet Sara away.

3 But God came to Abimelech by nighte in a dreame, and ſayd to him, See, (c) thou art but a dead man for the womãs ſake which thou haſt take away: for ſhe is a mãs wife.

4 But Abimelech had not yet touched hir: and he ſayd, Lord wilt thou ſlay righteous people?

5 Sayde not he vnto me, She is my ſiſter? yea and ſhee hir ſelfe ſayde, He is my brother: with (d) a ſingle harte, and innocente hands haue I done this.

9 Sara sawe also the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne vnto Abraham, (to be) a (e) mocker.

10 Wherefore she sayde vnto Abraham, (f) Cast out this bondewoman, and hir sonne: for the sonne of this bonde woman, shall not be heire with my sonne Isahac.

11 And this saying was very greeuous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 And God sayd vnto Abraham, Let it not be greeuous in thy sight, because of the lad, and of thy bonde woman: In all that Sara hath sayde vnto thee, heare hir voyce: for (g) in Isahac shall thy seede be called.

13 Moreouer, of the sonne of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seede.

14 And so (h) Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and toke bread, and a bottell of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on hir shoulder, and the lad also, and sente hir away: who departing, wandered vp & downe in the wildernesse of " Beer-seba.

15 And the water was spente in the bottell, (i) and she cast the ladde vnder some one of the trees:

16 And wente and sate on the other side a great way, as it were a bowe shote off: for she sayde, I will not see the deathe of the childe. And she sitting downe on the other side, lift vp hir voyce and wepte.

17 And God (k) heard the voyce of the lad, and the Angel of God called to Hagar out of heauen, and sayde vnto hir, What ayleth thee Hagar? feare not: for God hath hearde the voyce of the ladde where he lyeth.

18 Arise, and lifte vp the ladde, (l) and take hym in thyne hande, for I will make of him a great people.

19 And (m) God opened hir eyes, & she sawe a well of water, and she wente and filled the bottell with water, & gaue the lad drinke.

20 And (n) God was with the ladde, and he grewe and dwelt in the wildernesse, and became a principall archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wildernesse of Paran, ran, (o) and his mother gote him a wife, out of the land of Egypt.

22 And at the same season, Abimelech and Phicol his chiefe captayne, (p) spake vnto Abraham, saying, God (is) with thee in all that thou doest:

23 And now therefore, sweare vnto me euen here by God, that thou wilte not "hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: but that thou shalte deale with me, and the countrey where thou hast bene a straunger, according vnto the kindnesse that I haue shewed thee.

24 And Abraham sayde, I will sweare.

25 And Abraham (q) rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, whiche Abimelechs seruantes had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech sayde, I wote not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, neyther heard I (of it,) but this day.

27 And Abraham toke Sheepe and Oxen, and gaue them vnto Abimelech: and they made both of them a league together.

28 And Abraham set seauen ewe lambes by themselues.

29 And Abimelech sayde vnto Abraham, what meane these seuē ewe lambes which thou hast set by themselues?

30 He answered, For these seuen ewe lambes shalt thou take of my hād, (r) that they may be a witnesse vnto me, that I haue digged this well.

31 Wherefore the place is called Beer-seba, because that there they sware both of them.

32 Thus made they a league together at Beer-seba: and Abimelech and Phicol his chiefe captayne rose vp, and turned againe into the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a wood in Beer-seba, and (s) called there on the name of the Lord the euerlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines lande a long season.

10 But in ramming time, I lifted vp mine eyes, and sawe in a dreame, and behold, the "Rammes leaped vppon the sheepe that were ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

11 And the angel of God spake vnto me in a dreame, saying, Jacob? and I aunswered, Here am I.

12 And he sayde, Lift vp nowe thyne eyes, and see all the Rammes leapyng vpon the sheepe that are ryngstraked, spotted, and partie: for I haue (e) seene all that Laban doth vnto thee.

13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou annoyntedst the stone, set vp on an ende, and where thou vowedst a vowe vnto me: now therefore aryse, and get thee out of this countrey, and returne into the lande where thou wast borne.

14 Then answered Rachel, and Lea, & sayd vnto him, Haue we had as yet any portion or inheritaunce in our fathers house?

27 Wherefore wentest thou away secretely "vnknowen to me, (m) and diddest not tell me, that I might haue let thee goe thy way with myrth and songs, with tymbrell and harpe?

5 And haue Oxen, Asses, and Sheepe, men seruauntes, and women seruauntes: and haue sent to shewe (it) my Lorde, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers came agayne to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and he commeth to meete thee, and hath foure hundred men with him.

B 7 But Jacob was greatly afraid, and wist not whiche way to turne him selfe: and diuided the people that was with him, and the Sheepe, and Oxen, and Cammelles, into two companies, 8 And sayde, If Esau come to the one part and smyte it, the other shall saue it selfe.

9 And Jacob sayde againe, (d) O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isahac, Lord whiche saydest vnto me, Returne

16 And deliuered them into the handes of his seruauntes, euery droaue by themselues, and sayde vnto his seruauntes, Go forth before me, and put a space betwixte droaue and droaue.

17 And he cõmaunded the formost, saying, If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these (that goe) before thee?

18 Thou shalt say, they be thy seruaunt Iacobs, and it is a present sent vnto my Lord Esau, and beholde, he him selfe commeth after vs.

19 And so commaunded he the seconde, and the thirde, & all that folowed the droaues, saying, On this maner see that you speake vnto Esau, when ye meete him.

27 And he sayde vnto him, What is thy name? He answered, Iacob.

28 He said, Thy name shalbe called no more Iacob, but "Israell: for as a Prince hast thou wrastled with God, and with men, and hast preuayled.

9 And Esau sayd, I haue ynough, my brother, keepe that thou hast vnto thy selfe.

10 And Iacob answeared, Nay, I pray thee, but if I haue found grace in thy sight, receiue I pray thee, my present of my hand: for I haue seene thy face, as though I had seene the face of God, and so thou hast receyued me to grace.

11 Oh take my blessing that is brought thee: (e) for God hath had mercy on me, and I haue ynough. And so he compelled him, and he toke it, 12 And he sayde, Let vs take our iourney, and go, I will go before thee.

13 (f) Iacob answered him, My Lorde, thou knowest that the children are tender, and the smal and great cattell with young vnder my hãds, which if men should ouerdriue but eũ one day, al the flocke wil die.

14 Oh let my Lord go before his seruaunt: and I will driue fayre and softly, according as the cattell that go before me, & the children be able to endure, vntill I come vnto my Lorde vnto Seir.

15 And Esau sayd, I will leaue some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needeth it? I shall finde grace in the sight of my Lorde.

16 So Esau wẽt his way againe that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iacob toke his iourney towarde Sucoth, and built him an house, and made bowthes for his cattell: and therfore is it, that the name of the place is called (g) Sucoth.

The. xxxiiij. Chapter.

Here is set foorth a very precious temptation, wherewith Iacob is proued.

1. The rauishing of Dina. 8. Hemor requireth Dina for a wyfe for his sonne. 11. The sonnes of Iacob do guylefully require the Sichemites to be circumcised. 20. The oration of Hemor to the people. 25. Simeon and Leui do murder the circumcised Sichemites. 30. They be blamed of Iacob theyr father.

1 DInathe daughter of Lea, whiche she bare vnto Iacob, went out (a) to see the daughters of the lande.

2 Whom when Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Heuite, Lord of the countrey, saw, he toke hyr, and lay with hyr, and "forced hyr.

3 And his hart lay vnto Dina the daughter of Iacob, and he loued that damsell, and spake "kindly vnto hyr.

4 And Sichem spake vnto his father Hemor, saying, Get me this mayde vnto my wyfe.

5 And Iacob heard that he had defiled Dina his daughter, (his sonnes being with their cattell in the fielde) and Iacob (b) held his peace, vntill they were come.

6 And Hemor the father of Sichem (c) wẽt out vnto Iacob, to commune with him.

7 And when the sonnes of Iacob (cõming out of the fielde) heard it, it greeued them, and they were not (d) a litle wroth, because he had wrought follie in Israel, in that he had layne with Iacobs daughter, whiche thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hemor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Sichem, longeth for your daughter, I pray you (e) giue hir him to wife.

9 And make mariages with vs, and gyue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you.

10 And ye shall dwel with vs, and the lande shalbe before you: dwell, and do your businesse therein, and haue possessions therein.

11 And Sichem sayde vnto hyr father, and vnto hyr brethren, Let mee finde grace in your eyes, and whatsoeuer ye appoynt me, that will I giue.

12 Aske freely of me both (f) dowrie & giftes, and I will giue accordyng as ye say vnto me, so that ye giue me the damsell to wife.

13 But the sonnes of Iacob answered to Sichem and Hemor his father, talking amongst themselues deceytfully, bycause he had defiled Dina their sister.

14 And they sayde vnto them, We can not do this thing, that we shoulde giue our sister to one that is (g) vncircumcised, for that were an abomination vnto vs.

15 But in this wil we consent vnto you: if ye will be as we be, and all the "males amongst you be (h) circumcised.

16 Then will we giue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, and wil dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But and if ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then wyll we take our daughter, and go our wayes.

19 And the young man deferred not for to do the thyng, bycause he had a lust to Jacobs daughter: he was also most set by, of al that were in his fathers house.

20 Then Hemor, and Sichem his sonne, went vnto the (i) gate of their citie, and cōmuned with the men of theyr citie, saying, 21 These men (k) lyue peaceably among vs, and dwell in the lande, and do theyr occupation therein: and beholde, the lande is large ynough for them, we will take their daughters to wyues, and giue them our daughters.

22 Onely herein will they consent vnto vs, for to dwell with vs, and to be one people: if all the males that are among vs be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not theyr goodes and theyr substaunce, and all theyr cattel (l) be ours? let vs onely consent vnto them, and they will dwell with vs.

24 And vnto Hemor & Sichem his sonne, (m) hearkened all that went out at the gate of the citie: and all the males were circumcised, whatsoeuer went out at the gate of the citie.

25 And the thirde day, whyles they were sore, two of the sonnes of Jacob, Simeon, and Leui, Dinaes (n) brethren, toke eyther of them his swoorde, and went into the citie boldly, and slue al that was male, 26 And slue also Hemor, and (o) Sichem his sonne, with the edge of the swoorde, and toke Dina out of Sichems house, & went their way.

28 And toke theyr Sheepe, Oxen, and Asses, and whatsoeuer was in the citie, and also in the fieldes.

29 And (q) all theyr goodes, and al their children, and theyr wyues, toke they captiue, and made hauocke of all that was in the house.

30 But Jacob sayde to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, and made me " to be abhorred of the inhabitours of the lande of the Chanaanite, and the Pherezite: and I beyng fewe in number, they shall gather themselues together agaynst me, and slay me, and so shall I and my house be destroyed.

31 And they aunswered, Should (r) he deale with our sister, as with an harlot?

2 And God was with Ioseph, and he became a (a) luckie man, continuyng in the house of his mayster the Egyptian.

3 And his maister sawe that (b) God was with him, and that God made all that he did to prosper in his hande.

4 And Ioseph found grace in his maisters sight, and serued him: And he made him ouerseer of his house, and put all that he had in his hande.

5 And it came to passe, from the tyme that he had made him ouerseer of his house, and ouer all that he had, the (c) Lorde blessed the Egyptians house for Iosephes sake: and the blessyng of the Lord was vpon all that he had in the house, and in the fielde.

11 And on a certayne conuenient day, Ioseph entred into the house to do his businesse, and there was none of the housholde by, in the house.

13 And when she sawe that he had left his garment in hyr hande, and was fledde out:

14 (l) She called vnto the men of hyr house, and told them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrue vnto vs, to do vs shame, for he came in to me to haue lien with me, and I began to crie with a loude voyce:

15 And when he hearde that I lifte vp my voyce and cried, he left his garment with me, and fledde away, and gote him out.

16 And she layde vp his garment by hyr, vntill hyr Lorde came home.

17 And she told him with these wordes, saying, This Hebrue seruaunt whiche thou haste brought vnto vs, came vnto me to do me shame.

18 But as sone as I lift vp my voyce and cried, he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 When his maister (m) hearde the wordes of his wyfe, whiche she tolde him, saying, After this maner did thy seruaunt to me: he waxed wroth.

20 And Iosephs maister (n) toke him, and put hym in prysone, euen into the place where the kynges prysoners lay bounde: & there continued he in (o) prysone.

21 But the Lorde was with Ioseph, and shewed him (p) mercy, and gote him fauour in the sight of the Lord of the prysone.

22 And the (q) keeper of the prysone committed to Iosephs hande all the prysoners that were in the prysone house, and whatsoeuer was done there, that did he.

16 When the chiefe Baker sawe that the interpretation was (i) good, he sayd vnto Ioseph, Me thought also in my dreame, that I had three "white wycker baskets on my head.

17 And in the vppermost basket there was of all manner bake meates for Pharao, and the birdes did eate them out of the basket, that was vpon my head.

18 And (k) Ioseph aunswered and said, This is the interpretation thereof. The three baskets, are three dayes: For within three dayes shal Pharao take thy head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree, and the birdes shall eate thy flesh from off thee.

19 And it came to passe the third day, which was Pharaos byrth day, that he made a feast vnto all his seruauntes: and he "lifted vp the head of the chiefe Butler, and of the chiefe Baker among his seruauntes:

15 Hereby yee shall be proued: (by) the lyfe (h) of Pharao ye shall not goe hence, except your youngest brother come hyther.

16 Sende out one of you, whiche maye fet your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your wordes maye be proued whether there be any truthe in you: or else (by) the (i) lyfe of Pharao, ye are but spyes.

17 And he putte them altogether in warde three dayes.

18 And Joseph sayde vnto them the thirde day, This do, and liue, (for) I (k) feare god.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethrē be bound in the house of your prison: and goe ye, cary corne, to put away the famine from your housholde.

20 But bring youre youngest brother vnto me, and so shall your wordes be tryed true, and ye shall not dye: and they did so.

21 And one sayd to another, We haue verely (l) sinned against our brother, in that we sawe the anguishe of hys soule, when he besought vs, and wee woulde not heare hym: and therefore is this (m) trouble come vpon vs.

22 And Ruben aunswered them, saying, Sayde I not vnto you, that you shoulde not sinne against the lad, and ye would not heare? and see, now his bloud is required.

23 They were not aware that Joseph vnderstode them: for he spake vnto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned from them, and wepte: and turned to them agayne, and communed with them, and toke out Simeon from amongst them, and (n) bound him before their eyes.

25 And Joseph commaunded to fyll theyr sackes with corne, and to put euery mans money in his sacke, and to gyue them victual to spende by the way: and thus did he vnto them.

26 And they laded theyr Asses with the corne, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sacke, for to gyue his Asse prouender in the (o) Inne, he espied his money, for it was in his sacks mouth.

28 And he sayde vnto his brethren, My money is restored me againe, for loe, it is euen in my sacke, and their harte "fayled them, and they were astonyed, and sayde one to another, Why hath (p) God dealte thus with vs?

29 And they came vnto Jacob their father, vnto the land of Chanaan, and told him all that befell vnto them, saying, 30 The man, euen the Lorde of the lande, spake roughly vnto vs, & toke vs for spyes of the countrey.

31 And (q) we sayde vnto him, We meane truely, we neuer were spyes.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is away, and the youngest is thys day with our father in the lande of Chanaan.

33 And the Lorde of the countrey sayde agayne vnto vs, Hereby shall I know, that ye meane truely: leaue one of your brethrē here with me, and take (foode) to put away the famine from youre housholds, and get you away, 34 And bring youre youngest brother vnto me, that I maye knowe that you are no spyes, but meane truely: so will I deliuer you your brother, and yee shall occupie in the lande.

35 And as they emptied their sackes, behold, euery mans bundell of money was in hys sacke: And when bothe they and their (r) father sawe the bundels of money, they were afrayde.

36 And Jacob their father sayde vnto them, (s) Ye haue robbed me of my children, Joseph is away, and Simeon is away, and yee will take Beniamin away: all these things are against me.

37 Ruben sayd vnto his father, (t) Slay my two sonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to my hand, and I wil bring him to thee agayne.

38 And he sayde, My sonne shall (v) not goe downe with you, for his brother is dead, and hee is left alone: if destruction come vpon him by the way, which ye goe, ye shal bring my gray head with sorowe vnto the graue.

6 And Israell sayde, Wherefore dealt ye so cruelly with (c) me, as to tell the man that ye had yet a brother?

7 They aunswered, The manne asked vs straytely "of our (state) and of oure kinred, saying, Is youre father yet aliue? haue yee (not another) brother? And we tolde hym accoyding to the "tenour of these wordes: Coulde we by anye meane knowe, that he woulde saye, Bring youre brother downe with you?

3 And in the morning, as sone as it was light, the men were let goe, they and theyr Asses.
4 And when they were out of the citie, and not yet farre away, Ioseph sayde vnto the ruler of his house: Up, and folow after the men, and when thou doest ouertake them, thou shalt say vnto them, Wherfore haue ye rewarded euill for good?

8 Beholde, the money which we founde in our sackes mouthes we brought again vnto thee out of the lande of Chanaan: how then shoulde wee steale out of thy Lordes house eyther siluer or golde?
d. Men should be discrete and wyse in defending their innocencie.
9 With whomsoeuer of thy seruantes it be founde, (d) let him die, and we also wyl be my lordes bondmen.
10 And he sayd, Now also let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whome it is founde, shall be my seruant, and ye shal be blameles.
11 And at once euery man toke downe his sacke to the grounde, and euery man opened his sacke.
12 And he (e) searched, and began at the eldest, and least at the youngest: and the cup was founde in Beniamins sacke.
13 Then they rent theyr cloathes, and laded euery man his Asse, and went agayn vnto the citie.
14 And Juda and his brethren came to Josephs house (for he (was) yet there) and they fell before him on the grounde.
15 And Joseph sayd vnto them, What deede is this, that ye haue done? Wote yee not that such a man as I, "doe consulte with (f) prophesiers?
16 Then sayde Juda, What shall we saye vnto my Lorde? What shall we speake? or howe shall we "cleare our selues? (g) God hathe found out the wickednesse of thy seruauntes: beholde, we are my Lords seruauntes, both we, yea, and he also with whome the cup is founde.
17 And he aunswered, God forbidde that I should do so: but the man, with whome the cup is found, he shalbe my seruaunt, and get ye hence vp in peace vnto your father.
18 Then Juda wente vnto him, and sayde, (h) Oh my Lorde, let thy seruaunt, (I pray thee) speake a word in my Lords eares, and be not inflamed with wrath againste thy seruaunt: for (i) thou art euen as Pharao.
19 My Lorde asked his seruauntes, saying, Haue ye a father, or a brother?

21 And thou saydest vnto thy seruauntes, Bring hym vnto me, that I maye set my eyes vpon him.
22 And we aunswered my Lorde, that the lad could not goe from his father, for if he shoulde leaue his father, he were but dead.
23 Then saydest (k) thou vnto thy seruaunts, Excepte your youngest brother come with you, loke that ye see my face no more.
24 And when we came vnto thy seruaunte our father, we shewed him the wordes of my Lorde.

28 And the one went from me, and I sayde, (l) Of a suretie he is torne in pieces, and I sawe him not since.

29 And if ye take this also away from me, & destruction come vnto him, ye shall bring my gray head with sorowe vnto the graue.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy seruaunte my father, and the lad be not with vs (seeing that his (m) lyfe "hangeth by the ladds life,)

31 Then shall it come to passe, that as soone as he seeth that the lad is not come, he wyll dye: So shall we thy seruauntes bring the gray head of thy seruaunte our father with sorowe vnto the graue.

32 For I thy seruaunt became suretie for the lad before my father, and sayde, If I bring him not vnto thee agayne, "I shall beare the blame vnto my father all my life long.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, lette me thy seruaunt byde here for the ladde, and be my Lords (n) bondman, and lette the lad goe vp with his brethren.

34 For how can I goe vp to my father, if the lad be not with me? Unlesse I woulde see (o) the wretchednesse that shall come on my father.

a. God communicateth his authoritie & power with his ministers.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commaund thee, and Aaron thy brother shal speake vnto Pharao, that he send the children of Israel out of his lande.

3 And (b) I wil harden Pharaos hart, and multiplie my myracles, and my wonders in the lande of Egypt.

b. God was no cause of Pharaos sinne, though he executed this iust iudgement vpon him.

4 But Pharao shal not hearken vnto you, that I may set my hande vpon Egypt, and bryng out mine armies, and my people, the children of Israell, out of the lande of Egypt in great iudgements.

5 And the Egyptians shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I stretche forth my hande vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 (c) Moses and Aaron did as the Lorde commaunded them, (euen) so did they.

c. True obedience to do onely that which God willeth to be done.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharao speake vnto you, saying, Shewe a myracle for you: thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, and cast it before Pharao, that it may be a serpent.

10 Then went Moses and Aaron in vnto Pharao, and did euen as the Lorde had cõmaunded: and Aaron cast forth his rodde before Pharao, and before his seruants, and it (turned) to a Serpent.

17 Thus sayth the Lorde, In this thou shalt know, that I am the Lord: behold, (f) with the rodde that is in my hande, I will smite the waters whiche are in the riuers, and they shalbe turned to bloud.

f. The wicked that are not moued with Gods threates, are inexcusable.

9 And it shalbe dusse in all the lande of Egypt, and shalbe swellyng soares with blaynes, both on man and beast throughout all the lande of Egypt.

24 So there was hayle, and fyre mingled with the hayle, so grieuous, and suche as there was none throughout all the lande of Egypt since people inhabited it.

25 And the hayle smote throughout all the lande of Egypt all that was in the fielde, both man and beast: and the hayle smote al the herbes of the fielde, and broke all the trees of the fielde.

34 And when Pharao (o) sawe, that the raine, and the hayle, and thunder were ceassed, he sinned yet more, and hardened his hart, he and his seruaunts.

35 And the harte of Pharao was hardened, neyther would he let the children of Israel goe, as the Lorde had sayde by the hande of Moses.

1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, goe in vnto Pharao: for I haue hardened his hart, and the hart of his seruauntes, that I might shewe these my signes before him,

2 And that thou tell in the audience of thy sonne, and of thy sonnes sonne, what things I haue done in Egypt, and the myracles which I haue done amōgst them: that they may know, how that I am the Lorde.

3 And so Moses and Aaron came vnto Pharao, and sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde God of the Hebrues, howe long wilt thou refuse to submit thy selfe vnto me? Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

4 Or els if thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morow will I bring Grashoppers into thy coastes,

5 And they shal couer the face of the earth, that it can not be seene: and they shall eate, the residue, which remayneth vnto you, and is escaped from the hayle, and they shal eate euery greene tree, that beareth you fruite in the fielde.

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and all thy seruaunts houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, after suche a maner, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue seene, since the time they were vpō the earth vnto this day. And he turned himselfe about, and went out from Pharao.

7 And Pharaos seruauntes sayde vnto him, How long shall he be " hurtfull vnto vs? Let the men goe, that they may serue the Lorde theyr God: knowest thou not yet, that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought agayne vnto Pharao, & he sayde vnto them, (a) Goe and serue the Lorde your God: but who are they, that shall goe?

9 And Moses aunswered, We wyll goe, with our young, and with our olde, yea, and with our sonnes, and with our daughters, and with our sheepe, and with our oxen we must goe: for we must hold a feast vnto the Lorde.

10 And he sayde vnto them, Let the Lorde be so with you, as I will let you goe, and your your children: take heede, for ye haue some mischiefe in hande.

11 Nay not so, but goe they that are men, and serue the Lorde: for that was your desire. (b) And they were thrust out of Pharaos presence.

12 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hande ouer the lande of Egypt for Grashoppers, that they may come vpon the lande of Egypt, and eate all the hearbes of the lande, and all that the hayle left behinde.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod ouer the land of Egypt, and the Lorde brought an (c) East wynde vpon the lande all that day, and all that night: and in the morning the Easte winde brought the Grashoppers.

14 And the grashoppers went vp ouer al the lande of Egypt, and remayned in all quarters of Egypt very grieuously: before them were there no such grashoppers, neither after shalbe.

15 For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the lande was darke, and they did eate all the hearbes of the lande, and all the fruites of the trees, whatsoeuer the hayle had left: there was no greene thing left in the trees, and hearbes of the fielde, thorow all the lande of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharao called for Moses and Aaron in hast, & sayd, I haue sinned against the Lorde your God, and against you:

17 And now forgiue me my sinne only this once, and pray vnto the Lorde your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 And (Moses) went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lorde.

19 And the Lorde turned a mightie strong West winde, and it toke away the grashoppers, and caste them into the red sea: so that there was not one grashopper in all the coastes of Egypt.

20 And the Lorde hardened Pharaos hart, so that he would not let the children of Israell goe.

21 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Stretch out thine hande vnto heauen, that there may be vpon the land of Egypt darknesse, which may be felt.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hande vnto heauen: and there was a "thycke darknesse vpon all the land of Egypt three dayes long.

23 No man sawe another, neyther rose vp from the place where he was by the space of three dayes: But all the children of Israel had light, where they dwelled.

24 And Pharao called for Moses, and sayd, Goe, & serue the Lord, only let your sheepe and your oxen abide, and let your children goe with you.

25 (d) And Moses said, Thou must giue vs also offerings, and burnt offerings, for to make sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

26 Our cattell also shall goe with vs, and there shall not one hoofe be left behinde, for thereof must we take to serue the Lord our God: neither do we know, with what we must make sacrifice vnto the Lorde, vntill we come thyther.

27 But the Lorde hardened Pharaos hart, and he would not let them goe.

28 (e) And Pharao sayde vnto him, Get thee from me, and take heede vnto thy selfe, that thou see my face no more: for whensoeuer thou commest in my sight, thou shalt die.

29 And Moses sayde, Let it be as thou hast sayde, I will see thy face no more.

1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more vpon Pharao, and vpon Egypt, and after that, he will let you goe hence: when he shall let you goe quite, he shall vtterly driue you hence.

2 (a) Speake thou therefore in the eares of the people, that euery man borrowe of his neighbour, and euery woman of hir neighbour, iewelles of siluer, and iewels of golde.

3 And the lord shall giue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: Moreouer, Moses was a very great man in the lande of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaos seruants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses sayd, Thus sayth the Lorde, At midnight will I goe out into the middest of Egypt,

5 And al the firste borne in all the lande of Egypt shall die, euen from the firste borne of Pharao, (b) that sitteth on his seate, vnto the firste borne of the mayde seruaunt, that is behind the mylle, and al the first gendred of the cattell.

6 And there shalbe a great crie throughout all the lande of Egypt, suche as there was neuer none lyke, nor shalbe.

7 But amongst the children of Israel, shal not a dogge moue his tongue, from a man vnto a beast: that ye may knowe, howe that Moses is carefull to haue all cõmaundement in al things duely serued, chose rather to be hated for Gods sake, than consent to a thing vnlawfull.

The eyght plague.

Hereby we learne that dispayre and welcome weather is chiefly to be ascribed to the iuste iudgement of God, and not to any naturall cause.

The ninth plague. Palpable darknesse.

d. Moses woulde not yeelde an inch for any thing that Pharao coulde do, in such things as God commaunded.

e. The wicked the nygher they be to their destruction, the more furious commonly they be. Therefore the godly in suche cases ought to be of good hope.

8 (c) And these thy seruauntes shal al come downe vnto me, and fal before me, and say, Get thee out, and all the people that are vnder thee, and then wyll I departe. And he went out from Pharao "with an angry countenaunce.

9 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Pharao shall not heare you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the lande of Egypt.

10 And Moses & Aaron did al these wōders before Pharao: And the Lorde hardened Pharaos hart, so that he would not let the children of Israel goe out of his lande.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This moneth shalbe vnto you the beginning of monethes, and the firste moneth of the yeere shal it be vnto you.

3 Speake ye vnto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this moneth, let euery man take vnto hym a(a) lābe, according to the house of the fathers, a lābe throughout euery house.

a. God ordeined this sacrifice as a token and pledge of their deliuerance.

4 If the household be too litle for the lamb, let hym take his neyghbour, whiche is next vnto his house, according to the number of the soules, euery one of you according vnto his eating shal make your count for a lābe.

5 And let the lambe of yours be without blemishe, a male of a yeere olde (whiche) ye shall take out from among the sheepe, and from among the Goates.

6 And ye shal keepe him in vntill the fourteenth day of the same moneth: and euery assemblie of the congregation of Israel shall kill him about the "euen tide.

7 (b) And they shall take of the bloud, and strike it on the two (side) postes, and on the vpper doore post, euen in the houses, where they shall eate him:

b. The church is distinguished from the synagogue of the vnfaithful, by the worde of God, and by the sacraments.

8 And they shall eate the flesh the same night rosted with fyre, and with vnleauened bread: and with sowre herbes they shall eate it.

9 See that ye eate not therof raw, nor sodden with water, but rosted with fire: the head, feete, and purtenaunce therof.

10 And ye shal let nothing of it remaine vnto ỹ morning: That whiche remayneth of it vntil the morow, ye shal burne with fire.

11 Of this manner shal ye eate it: with your loynes girded, & your shoes on your feete, & your staffe in your hāde, (c) & ye shall eate it in hast: for it is the Lordes Passouer.

12 For I wil passe through the lande of Egypt this same night, and wil smite all the firste borne of Egypt, from man to beast, and vpon all the goddes of Egypt I will execute iudgement: I (am) the Lorde.

13 And the bloud shalbe vnto you a token in the houses wherein you are: and when I see the bloud, I will passe ouer you, and the plague shall not be vpon you to destroy you, when I smite the lande of Egypt.

14 And this day shalbe vnto you a remembrance: & you shal kepe it an holy feast vnto the Lord throughout your generations, ye shal kepe it holy for an ordināce for (d) euer.

15 Seuen dayes shall ye eate vnleauened bread, so that euen the first day ye shall put away leaue out of your house: For who so euer eateth leauened bread from the firste day, vntill the seuenth day, that soule shalbe rooted out of Israel.

16 The first day shalbe an holy cōuocation, & the seuenth day shalbe an holy conuocatiō vnto you: there shalbe no manner of worke done in them, saue about that onely which euery man must eate, that only may ye do.

17 And ye shall obserue the feast of vnleauened breade: for this same daye haue I brought your armies out of the lande of Egypt, therefore ye shall obserue this day, and all your children after you, by an euerlasting decree.

18 The first moneth, and the fourtenth day of the moneth, at euentide, ye shall eate vnleauened bread, vnto the twentie and one day of the same moneth at euen agayne.

19 Seuen dayes shall there be no leauened bread founde in your houses: and who so euer eateth leauened bread, that soule shall be rooted out from the congregation of Israell, whether he be straunger or borne in the lande.

20 (e) Ye shal eate nothing leauened: but in all your habitations shall ye eate vnleauened bread.

21 Moses called for the elders of Israell, and sayde vnto them, Chose out, and take you to euery houshold of you a lambe, and kill the Passeouer.

22 And

22 And take a bunch of Hyſope, and dippe it in the bloud, that is in the baſon, & ſtryke the vpper poaſt of the doꝛe, & the two ſide poaſtes, with the bloud that is in the baſon: and none of you goe out at the doꝛe of his houſe vntill the moꝛning.

23 Foꝛ the Loꝛde will paſſe ouer to ſmyte the Egyptiãs: and when he ſeeth the bloud vpon the vpper doꝛe poaſt, and the two ſide poaſtes, he will paſſe ouer the doꝛe, & wyll not ſuffer the deſtroyer to come into youre houſe to plague you.

24 Therefoꝛe ſhall ye obſerue this thing foꝛ an ordinance to thee, & thy ſonnes foꝛ euer.

25 And when ye be come to the land which the Loꝛde will giue you, accoꝛding as hee hath promiſed, ye ſhall kepe this ſeruice.

26 And when your childꝛen aſke you, What maner of ſeruice is this ye do?

27 Ye ſhal ſay, It is the ſacrifice of the loꝛds Paſſeouer, which paſſed ouer the houſes of the childꝛen of Iſrael in Egypt, & he ſmote the Egyptians, & ſaued our houſes. And the people bowed themſelues, and woꝛſhipped.

28 And the childꝛen of Iſrael went, and did as the Loꝛde had commaunded Moſes and Aaron, euen ſo did they.

The tenth plague.

29 And at midnighte the Loꝛde ſmote the firſt bozne in the lande of Egypt, from the firſte bozne of Pharao, that ſat on his ſeate, vntil the firſt bozne of the captiue, that was in pꝛiſon, and all the firſt gendꝛed of cattell.

30 And Pharao roſe in the night, he and his ſeruantes, and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cꝛye in Egypte: foꝛ there was not a houſe, where there was not one dead.

31 And he called vnto Moſes and Aaron by night, ſaying: Ryſe vp, and get you oute from amongſt my people, both you, and alſo the childꝛen of Iſrael: and go, and ſerue the Loꝛd, as ye haue ſayd.

32 And take your ſheepe, & your dꝛoaues with you, as ye haue ſaid: and depart, & bleſſe me.

33 And the Egyptians were fierce vpon the people, that they might ſende them out of the lande in haſt: foꝛ they ſayde, We be all (but) dead men.

34 And the people toke their doꝛwgh beꝛoꝛe it was ſoured, which they had in ſtoꝛe, being bound in clothes, vpon their ſhoulders.

35 And the childꝛen of Iſraell did accoꝛdyng to the ſaying of Moſes: and they boꝛowed of the Egyptians iewels of ſiluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment.

36 And the Loꝛde gaue the people fauour in the ſight of the Egyptiãs, ſo that they graũted ſuch things as they required: And they robbed the Egyptians.

37 (f) And the childꝛen of Iſraell toke theyꝛ iouꝛney from Rameſes to Sucoth, ſixe hundꝛed thouſande men of foote, beſide childꝛen.

38 And a great multitude of ſundꝛy other nations wente alſo with them, and ſheepe and oxen, and exceeding much cattell.

39 And they baked vnleauened cakes of the dough whiche they bꝛought out of Egypte, foꝛ it was not ſoured: foꝛ they were thꝛuſt out of Egypt, and coulde not tarrie, neyther had they pꝛepared foꝛ them ſelues any pꝛouiſion of meate.

40 The dwelling of the childꝛen of Iſraell whiche they dwelled in Egypte was foure hundꝛed and thirtie yeares.

41 And when the foure hundꝛed and thirtie yeares were expired, euen the ſelfe ſame day departed all the hoſtes of the Loꝛde oute of the lande of Egypt.

42 It is a nighte to bee obſerued vnto the Loꝛde, in the which he bꝛought them out of the lande of Egypte: This is that nighte of the Loꝛd, which all the childꝛen of Iſrael muſt kepe thꝛoughout their generations. G

43 And the Loꝛd ſayd vnto Moſes and Aaron, This is the law of Paſſouer: there ſhal no ſtraunger eate thereof.

44 But euery ſeruaunte, that is bought foꝛ money, after that thou haſt circumciſed him, ſhall eate thereof.

45 A ſtraunger and an hyꝛed ſeruaunt ſhall not eate thereof, 46 In one houſe ſhall it be eaten, thou ſhalte carrie none of the fleſhe out of the houſe, neither ſhall ye bꝛeake a bone therof.

47 Al ỹ cõgregatiõ of Iſrael ſhal obſerue it.

48 If a ſtranger alſo dwell among you, and will hold Paſſouer vnto the Loꝛd, let hym circumciſe al that be males, and then let him come and obſerue it, and he ſhall be as one that is bozne in the land: foꝛ no vncircumciſed perſon ſhall eate thereof.

49 One maner of law ſhal be vnto him that is bozne in the lande, and vnto the ſtranger that dwelleth among you.

50 And all the childꝛen of Iſraell did as the Loꝛd commaunded Moſes and Aaron, euen ſo did they.

51 And the ſelf ſame day, did the Loꝛd bꝛing the childꝛen of Iſraell oute of the lande of Egypt, with their armies.

f. If they grew ſo amongeſt their enimies, being ſo ſmall a number at their firſte cõming to Egipt let vs alſo bee of good hope, that God will encreaſe his churche nowe likewyſe, be it neuer ſo much oppreſſed.

A 1 AND the Lorde (a) spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 (b) Sanctifie vnto me all the first borne, whatsoeuer openeth the wombe among the thyldren of Israell, aswell of man as of beast, for it is mine.

3 (c) And Moses sayde vnto the people, Ye ought to remember this day, in whiche ye came out of Egypt, out of the house of "bondage: for through a mightie hand the Lord brought you from thence: there shall no leauened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out, in the moneth (d) Abib.

5 When the Lorde hath brought thee into the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites, and Iebusites, whiche he sware vnto thy fathers, that he would giue thee, a land wherein milke and hony floweth: thou shalte keepe this seruice in this same moneth.

6 Seuen dayes thou shalt eate vnleauened bread, and in the seuenth day it is the feast of the Lorde.

7 Unleauened bread shalbe eaten seuen days, & there shal no leauened bread be seen, nor yet eaten with thee in all thy quarters.

8 (e) And thou shalt shew thy sonne in that day, saying, This is done, because of that which the Lord did vnto me, when I came out of Egypt.

9 (f) And it shalbe as a signe vnto thee vpō thine hande, and as a remembraunce betweene thine eyes, that ỳ Lordes law may be in thy mouth: for in a strong hande the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Keepe therefore this ordinaunce in his season from yeere to yeere.

11 And it wyll come to passe, that the Lorde shall bryng the lande of the Chanaanites, whiche he sware vnto thee, and to thy fathers, and shall giue it thee.

12 And then thou shalte appoynt vnto the Lorde all that openeth the matrice, & euery firstling, that cōmeth of a beast, which thou hast: if it be a male, it shalbe the Lordes.

13 And euery firstlyng of an Asse, thou shalt redeeme with a lambe: if thou redeeme him not, thou shalt breake his necke: All the first borne amongst thy children also shalte thou buye out.

C 14 And when thy sonne shall aske thee "in tyme to come, saying, What is this? Thou shalt say vnto him, With a mightie hande the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15 And when Pharao was very lothe to let vs goe, the Lorde slue all the firste borne in the land of Egypt, aswell the first borne of man, as the firstlyng of beast: Therefore I sacrifice vnto the Lorde all the males, that open the matrice: but all the firste borne of my children, I redeeme.

16 This shalbe as a token vpon thine hand, and as a remembraunce betweene thyne eyes, that the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt through a mightie hande.

17 It came to passe, that when Pharao had let the people goe, GOD caryed them not through the way of the lande of the Philistines, which was the more nigh way. But God sayde, Least peraduenture the people (g) repent, whē they see warre, and so turne agayne to Egypt.

18 But God led the people aboute through the way of the wildernesse of the red sea, & the thyldren of Israell went vp "harnessed out of the lande of Egypt.

19 And Moses toke the bones of Ioseph with him: for he made the children of Israel sweare, saying, God will surely visite you, & ye shall take my bones away hence with you.

20 And they toke theyr iourney from Sucoth, and abode in Etham, in the edge of the wildernesse.

21 And the Lord went before them by day in a piller of a cloude to leade them the way, & by night in a piller of fire to giue thē light, that they might go both by day and night.

22 (h) The piller of the cloude departed not by day, nor the piller of fire by night, out of the sight of the people.

1. God commaundeth the Israelites, to pytche theyr pauilions in a daungerous place, that he may be the more glorified. 4. God hardeneth the hart of Pharao. 5. Pharao pursueth Israel. 10. 2 Speake to the children of Israel, that they turne and pitch theyr tentes before Pihahiroth, betweene Migdol and the sea, ouer agaynst Baal-zephon, and before that shal they pitche by the sea.

3 For Pharao will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land, the wildernesse hath shut them in.

4 And I wil harden Pharaos hart, that he shall folowe after you, and I wyll get me honour honour vpon Pharao, and vpon al his hoſt: The Egyptians alſo ſhal know that I am the Lorde. And they did euen ſo.

5 And it was tolde the king of Egypt, that the people fledde. And the hart of Pharao & of his ſeruaunts turned agaynſt the people, & they ſayde, Why haue we done this, that we haue let Iſrael go out of our ſeruice?

6 And he made ready his charet, and toke his people with him.

7 And toke fyre hundred choſen charets, and al the charets of Egypt, and captaynes vpon euery one of them.

8 And the Lord hardened the hart of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and he folowed after the childzen of Iſrael: but the childzē of Iſrael went out with an high hande.

9 And the Egyptians folowed after them, and all the hozſes and charets of Pharao, and his hozſemen, and his hoſte, ouertoke them pitchyng of their tent by the ſea, beſide Pi-habiroth befoze Baal-ſephon.

10 And when Pharao drew nigh, the chyldzen of Iſrael lift vp theyr eyes, and behold, the Egyptians folowed after them, and they were ſoze afrayde: and the childzen of Iſrael cryed out vnto the Lorde.

a. See the inconſtancie and vnkynd dealing of the people: They burden Moſes their guyde, not cōſidering the power of God, but the commō courſe of things natural.

11 But they ſayde vnto Moſes, (a) Bycauſe there were no graues in Egypt, haſt thou therefoze brought vs away foz to die in the wyldernelle? Wherfoze haſt thou ſerued vs thus, foz to carrie vs out of Egypt?

12 Did not we tell thee this in Egypt, ſaying, Let vs be in reſt, that we may ſerue the Egyptians? Foz it had bene better foz vs to haue ſerued the Egyptians, than foz to dye in the wildernelle.

b. Moſes nothing diſcouraged, goeth forward manfully in his calling, a worthy paterne for the godly alwayes to beholde.

13 (b) And Moſes ſaid vnto the people, Feare ye not, ſtande ſtill, & behold the ſaluation of the Lord, whiche he will ſhewe to you this day: Foz ye that haue ſeene the Egyptians this day, ſhall ſee them no moze foz euer.

14 (c) The Lorde ſhall fight foz you, and ye ſhall holde your peace.

c. When we be hardeſt beſtead, our ſtrength ſhall ſtande in hope and quiet ſcilence, God mightily fighteyng for vs.

15 And ỳ Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Wherfoze (d) crieſt thou vnto me? ſpeake vnto the childzen of Iſrael, that they goe fozewarde.

d. This crie is to be vnderſtād not of the ſoūd of his voyce, but of the earneſt affection of his hart.

16 But lift thou vp thy rod, and ſtretch out thy hande ouer the ſea, and diuide it a ſunder, & let the childzen of Iſraell go on drie groumde through the middes of the ſea.

17 And behold I (euen) I will harden the hart of the Egyptians, and they ſhal folow after them: and I wyll get me honour vpō Pharao, and vpon all his hoſt, and vpon his charets, and vpon his hozſemen.

Gods dreadful iudgement executed a-gainſt them for his ſake.

18 (e) And the Egyptians ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharao, vpon his charets, and vpon his hozſemen.

19 (f) And the angel of God, which went befoze the hoſt of Iſrael, remoued & went behynd thē: & the piller of the cloude went frō befoze theyr face, and ſtode behinde them, 20 And came betweene the tentes of the Egyptians, and the tentes of Iſraell, and it was a cloude and darkneſſe, and gaue light by night: & all the night long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moſes ſtretched out his hande ouer the ſea, and the Lorde cauſed the ſea to go backe by a very ſtrong eaſt winde all that night, and made the ſea drie (lande) and the waters were diuided.

22 (g) And the childzen of Iſraell went into the midſt of the ſea vpon the dry (ground,) and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hande, and on theyr left hande.

23 And the Egyptians folowed, and went in after them (h) to the myddeſt of the ſea, euen all Pharaos hozſes, his charets, and his hozſemen.

24 (i) And in the morning watche, the Lord loked vnto the hoſt of the Egyptians out of the piller of the fire, and of the cloude, and troubled the hoſt of the Egyptians, 25 (k) And toke off his charet wheeles, and caryed them away violently: So that the Egyptians ſayde, (l) Let vs flee from the face of Iſraell, foz the Lorde fighteth foz thē agaynſt the Egyptians.

26 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Stretch out thy hande ouer the ſea, that the waters may come agayne vpon the Egyptians, vpon theyr charets, and vpon theyr hozſemen.

27 And Moſes ſtretched forth his hand ouer the ſea, & it came agayne to his courſe early in the morning, and the Egyptians fledde agaynſt it: and the Lorde ouerthrewe the Egyptians in the middeſt of the ſea.

28 And the water returned, and couered the charettes, and the hozſemen, and all the hoſt of Pharao that came into the ſea after thē, ſo that there remayned not one of them.

The laſte plague.

29 But the childzen of Iſraell walked vpon drye (lande) through the middeſt of the ſea, and the waters were a wal vnto them on the right hande of them, and on the left.

30 Thus the Lorde deliuered Iſrael the ſelf ſame day out of the hande of the Egyptians: and Iſraell ſawe the Egyptians dead vpon the ſea ſide.

31 (m) And Iſrael ſawe that myghtie power whiche the Lorde ſhewed vpon the Egyptians: And the people feared the Lorde, and beleeued the Lorde, and his ſeruaunt Moſes.

f. A notable example of Gods prouidence.

a. Moſes appoynted this ſong to all the people, that they might be ſtyrred vp one by anothers example. For that ſticketh better in mind that is ſong in the maner of a dittie, thā that that is pronoūced in proſe.

c. Vnder diuers fourmes of ſpeache, the more liuely to ſet out Gods power, he declareth this miracle of the waters, that diuided by the blaſt of winds, made a way open for the Iſraelites.

d. He ſheweth how this profe of Gods mightie power, not onely for the time preſent, but alſo hereafter ſhalbe of great efficacie and force, as Deut. 2.

1 Then Moſes and the chyldren of Iſrael ſang this ſong vnto the Lorde, and ſayde (a) on this maner, I wyll ſing vnto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriouſly: the horſe and him that rode vpon him, hath he ouerthrowen in the ſea.

2 The Lord is my ſtrength and praiſe, and he is become my ſaluation: he is my God, and I will glorifie him, my fathers God, and I will exalt him.

3 (b) The Lord is a man of warre, the lord is his name.

4 Pharaos charets, and his hoſte hath he caſt into the ſea: his choſen captaynes alſo are drowned in the red ſea.

5 The deepe waters haue couered them: they ſunke to the bottome as a ſtone.

6 Thy right hande Lorde is become glorious in power, thy right hande Lord hath all to daſhed the enimie.

7 And in thy great glory thou haſte ouerthrowen them that roſe vp agaynſt thee: thou ſenteſt forth thy wrath, which conſumed them euen as ſtubble.

8 Through the winde of thy noſethrilles the water gathered together, the flouddes ſtode ſtill as an heape, and the deepe water congeled together in the hart of the ſea.

9 (c) The enimie ſayd, I wil folow (on thē) I wil ouertake (thē) I wil diuide ẏ ſpoyle, & my luſt ſhalbe ſatiſfied vpon them: I wil draw my ſword, mine hād ſhal deſtroy thē.

10 Thou diddeſt blow with thy winde, the ſea couered them, they ſanke as leade in the mightie waters.

11 Who is like vnto thee, O Lord, amōgſt ẏ gods? Who is like thee, ſo glorious in holineſſe, fearful in praiſes, ſhewing wōders?

12 Thou ſtretcheddſt out thy right hand, the earth ſwalowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy haſt caried this people which thou haſt redeemed, and haſt brought thē in thy ſtrength vnto thy holy habitatiō.

14 (d) The nations ſhall heare, & be afrayde, ſorow ſhal come vpon Paleſtina.

15 Then the dukes of the Edomites ſhalbe amazed, and the mightieſt of the Moabites trembling ſhal come vpō them, al the inhabiters of Chanaan ſhal ware faint harted.

16 Feare and dread ſhall fall vpon them, in the greatneſſe of thyne arme they ſhalbe as ſtill as a ſtone, till thy people paſſe through, O Lorde, till this people paſſe through, which thou haſt gotten.

17 Thou ſhalt bryng them in, & plant them in the mountayne of thyne inheritaunce, the place Lorde whiche thou haſt made for to dwell in, the ſanctuarie, O Lord, whiche thy handes haue prepared.

18 (e) The Lord ſhal raigne for euer & euer.

19 For Pharao on horſebacke went in with his charettes and horſemen into the ſea, and the Lorde brought the waters of the ſea vpō them: But the chyldren of Iſraell went on drie (land) in the midſt of the ſea.

20 And Miriam a prophetiſſe, the ſiſter of Aaron, toke a tymbrel in hyr hande, and all the women came out after hyr, with timbrels and daunces.

21 And Miriam ſang before them: Sing ye vnto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriouſly: the horſe and his rider hath he ouerthrowen in the ſea.

22 And ſo Moſes brought Iſraell from the red ſea, and they went out into the wilderneſſe of Sur: and they went three daies lōg in the wilderneſſe, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drinke of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter, therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

24 (f) And the people murmured agaynſt Moſes, ſaying, What ſhal we drinke?

25 And he cried vnto the Lord, & the Lorde "ſhewed him a tree, (g) which when he had caſt into the waters, the waters were made ſweete: There he made them an ordinance and a law, and there (h) he proued him,

26 And ſaide, If thou (i) wilt hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, & wilt do ẏ which is right in his ſight, & wilt giue eare vnto his cōmandemēts, & keepe al his ordinances: then will I put none of theſe diſeaſes vpō thee, which I haue brought vpon ẏ Egyptiās: For I am ẏ lord ẏ healeth thee.

27 And the chyldrē of Iſrael came to Elim, where were twelue welles of water, and threeſcore and ten palme trees: and they pitched theyr tents there, by the waters.

1 And

A 1 AND they toke theyr iourney from Elim: and all the congregation of the childzen of Israel came to the wildernesse of Sin, which is betweene Elim and Sinai, the fiftenth day of the second moneth after theyr departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the childzen of Israell murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron in the wildernesse.

3 And the chyldzen of Israell sayde vnto them, Would God we had died by the hãd of the Lozde in the lande of Egypt, when we sate by the flesshe pottes, and when we dyd eate bread our bellyes full: for ye haue brought vs out into this wildernesse, to kil this whole multitude with hunger.

a, An example of Gods especiall prouidẽce toward his people:

4 Then sayde the Lozde vnto Moses, Beholde, I (a) wyll rayne bread from heauen to you, and the people shall go out and gather a certayne rate euery day, that I may proue them, whether they will walke in my lawe, or no.

b. We neede not to feare, least we shuld eyther hunger or lacke whilst we feare God.

5 (b) The sixth day they shall prepare for themselues, that whiche they wil bryng in, and let it be twyse as much as they gather dayly.

6 And Moses and Aaron sayde vnto the childzẽ of Israel, At euentide ye shal know that it is the Lozde, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

B 7 And in the morning ye shal see the glory of the Lozde, because he hath heard your grudgings agaynst ỹ Lozd: And what are we, that ye haue murmured agaynst vs?

8 And Moses sayde, At euentide shall the Lozde giue you flesshe to eate, and in the morning bread ynough: for the Lozd hath heard your murmurings, whiche ye murmure agaynst him: for what are we? Your murmurings are not agaynst vs, but agaynst the Lozde.

9 And Moses spake vnto Aaron, Say vnto all the congregation of the childzen of Israell, Come forth before the Lozde: for he hath heard your grudgings.

10 And as Aaron spake vnto the whole congregatiõ of the childzẽ of Israel, they loked toward the wildernesse, & behold, the glozie of the Lozd appeared in the cloude.

11 And the Lozde spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 I haue heard the murmurings of the childzen of Israel: tell them therefore, & say, At euentide ye shall eate flesh, and in the morning ye shalbe filled with bread, (c) and ye shal know that I am the Lozd your God.

c. God worketh al that he doeth for this ende, that the knowledge of him may stick more deepely in our minde.

13 And at euen the quayles came vp, and couered the tentes, and in the morning the deawe lay rounde about them.

14 And when the deawe was gone, behold, vpon the ground in the wildernesse, there lay a small rounde thyng, as small as the hoare frost on the grounde. C

15 And when the childzen of Israell saw it, they sayd euery one to his neighbour, It is "Manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses sayd vnto thẽ, This is ỹ bread, which the Lozd hath giuen you to eate. "Man, which signifieth, gift.

16 This is the wozde whiche the Lozd hath commaunded: (d) gather of it euery man for himselfe for to eate, a gomer ful for euery man, according to the number of your soules, and take euery man for them which are in his tentes. d. Hauing receyued giftes at Gods hand, we haue neede of lawes for the due vse of the same, els should we abuse them to our destructiõ

17 And the childzen of Israell dyd euen so, and gathered some more, some lesse.

18 And when they did meate it with a gomer, vnto him that gathered much, remayned nothing ouer, & vnto him that had gathered litle, was there no lacke: euery man gathered sufficient for his eatyng.

19 And Moses sayd vnto thẽ, (e) See that no man let ought remayne to the morning. e. This doctrine also perteyneth to vs, who are bidden to aske but our dayly foode, and forbidden to be carefull for to morowe.

20 Notwithstãding, (f) they hearkened not to Moses: but some of them left of it vntill the morning, & it ware (g) ful of wormes and corrupted: & Moses was angry with them. D f. The faythlesse disobedience of the people. g. So God punisheth them that greedyly gather goods, trusting rather to their owne riches, and diligence, than to his goodnesse & prouidẽce.

21 And they gathered euery morning, euery man as much as suffised for his eating: and assone as the heate of the sunne came, it melted away.

22 And the sixth day they gathered twyse as much bread, two gomers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and tolde Moses.

23 And he sayd vnto thẽ, This is that which the Lozd hath sayde, To morow is the rest of the holy Sabboth vnto the Lozde, bake that whiche ye will bake to day, and seeth that ye will seethe, and that whiche remayneth, lay vp till the morning.

24 (h) And they layde it vp till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not corrupt, neyther bred there any wozme therein. h. That good that is gathered accordyng to gods will, is kept safe for them that vse it with a good cõsciẽce: That is gathered otherwise commeth to nought.

25 And Moses sayd, Eate that to day, for it is the Sabboth vnto the Lozde, to day ye shal not finde it in the fielde.

26 Sixe dayes ye shall gather it, and in the seuenth day, whiche is the Sabboth, in it there shal be none.

27 (i) Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in the seuenth day for to gather, and they founde none. i. Vnlawfull couetyng is frustrate. E

28 And the Lozde sayde vnto Moses, How (k) long refuse ye to keepe my commaundements, and my lawes? k. The obstinate frowardnesse of the people reprehended.

29 See, the Lozde hath giuen you a Sabboth: therefore he gyueth you the sixth day, bread for two dayes, abyde therefore euery man at home, and let no man goe out of his place the seuenth day.

30 And the people rested the seuenth day.

31 And the house of Israell called the name therof (l) Manna: and it was like Coriander seede, but yet whyte, and the tast of it was lyke wafers made with hony.

l. Manna was a figure of Christe, the heauēly foode of our soules.

32 And Moses sayde, This is that which the Lord cōmaundeth, fill a gomer of it, which may be kept for your childrē after you, that they may see the bread wherewith I haue fedde you in the wildernesse, when I brought you out of the lande of Egypt.

m. So God, if we solow his calling, not for a space onely, but al the time of our pylgrimage, ministreth things necessarie for the life present & to come, vntil we come to our inhetitāce, that is to say, his kingdome.

33 And Moses spake vnto Aaron, Take a pot, and put a gomer full of Manna therein, and lay it vp before the Lord, to be kept for your children after you.

34 As the Lord cōmaunded Moses, so Aarō laide it vp before the testimonie, to be kept.

35 And the childrē of Israel did eate Manna (m) fourtie yeares, vntill they came to a land inhabited, and so they did eate Manna, euen vntill they came vnto the borders of the lande of Chanaan.

36 A gomer, is the tenth part of an epha.

3 There the people thirsted for water, and the people murmured agaynst Moses, and sayd, Wherefore hast thou thus brought vs vp out of Egypt, to kyll me, and my children, and my cattell with thirst?

4 And Moses cried vnto the Lorde, saying, What shall I do vnto this people, they be almost ready to stone me?

5 And ỳ Lord said vnto Moses, Go before the people, & take with thee of the elders of Israel, and thy rodde, wherwith thou smotest the riuer, take in thine hand and goe.

6 Beholde, I stande before thee vpon the rocke that is in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rocke, and there shall come water out therof, that the people may drinke. And Moses did euen so, before the eyes of the elders of Israel.

The.xviij.Chapter.

1. Iethro commeth to see Moses, and the wyfe and chyldren of Moses. 8. Moses declareth the deliueraunce of the children of Israel to his father in lawe. 10. Iethro confessing the God of Israel, offereth sacrifice. 15. To seeke God. 16. Moses appoynteth other iudges with him, and what maner ones they be.

I 1 IEthro the priest of Madian, Moses father in lawe, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the Lorde had brought Israell out of Egypt.

2 Therefore he toke Sephora, Moses wyfe, after he had sent hyr backe,

3 And

3 And hir two sonnes, of whiche the one was called Gershom: for he sayde, I haue bene an aliaunt in a straunge lande:

4 The name of ỹ other was Eliezer: for ỹ God of my father (sayd he) was mine help, & deliuered me from the swoord of Pharao.

5 And Iethro Moses father in lawe came, with his two sonnes, and his wyfe, vnto Moses into the wildernesse, where he abode by the mount of God.

6 And he sayd vnto Moses, I, thy father in lawe Iethro, am come to thee, & thy wyfe also, and hyr two sonnes with hyr.

B 7 And Moses went out to meete his father in lawe, and dyd obeysaunce, & kyssed him: and eche asked other of his "healthy, and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses tolde his father in lawe, all that the Lorde had done vnto Pharao, & to the Egyptians for Israels sake, & al the trauayle that had "come vpon them by the way, and how the Lord deliuered them.

9 And Iethro reioyced ouer all the godnesse whiche the Lorde had done to Israel, and bycause he had deliuered them out of the handes of the Egyptians.

10 And Iethro sayde, Blessed be the Lorde, which hath deliuered you out of the hande of the Egyptians, and out of the hande of Pharao, whiche hath also deliuered his people from the captiuitie of the Egyptians.

11 Now I knowe, that the Lorde is greater than al gods: for in the thyng whereby they dealt cruelly with them, were they destroyed themselues.

12 And Iethro, Moses father in lawe, toke burnt offerings, and sacrifices, to offer to God: And Aaron and all the elders of Israel came, to eate bread with Moses father in lawe, before God.

13 And on the morowe Moses sate to iudge the people: and the people stode about Moses from morning vnto euen.

C 14 And when Moses father in lawe saw all that he did vnto the people, he said, What is this, ỹ thou doest vnto the people? Why sittest thou thy self alone, & al the people stand aboute thee from morning vnto euen?

15 And Moses sayd vnto his father in lawe, Bycause the people come vnto me, to seeke the counsell of God.

16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betweene euery man and his neyghbour, and shewe them the ordinaunces of God, and his lawes.

17 And Moses father in lawe sayde vnto hym, It is not well that thou doest.

18 Thou bothe weeriest thy selfe, and this people that is with thee: For this thing is of more weight, than thou art able to perfourme thy selfe alone.

19 Heare therfore now my voyce, and I wil giue thee counsel, & God shalbe with thee: Be thou vnto the people to Godwarde, that thou mayest bring the causes vnto God.

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and lawes, & shewe them the way wherein they must walke, & the worke that they must do.

21 Moreouer, thou shalt seeke out among al the people, men of actiuitie (and) suche as feare God, true men, hating couetousnesse, and place (of these) ouer the (people) rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tennes. D

22 (a) And let them iudge the people at all seasons: and euery great matter that cometh, let them bring vnto thee, but let them iudge all small causes themselues, and so shall it be easier for thy selfe, and they shall beare a (burden) with thee.

23 If thou shalt doe thys thing, and God charge thee withall, thou shalt be able to indure, and yet the people shall come to theyr place in peace.

24 (b) And so Moses obeyed the voyce of hys father in law, and did all that he had sayde.

25 And Moses chose actiue men out of all Israell, and made them as heades ouer the people, namely, rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fiftyes, and rulers of tennes.

26 And they iudged the people at al seasons: but brought the harde causes vnto Moses, and iudged all small matters themselues.

27 And Moses let his father in lawe depart: and he went into his owne lande.

" Peace.

" Had founde them.

a. Iethroes modestie of the godly is to be embraced. For true wisedome teacheth vs, not to ascribe to much to our selues, but to submit all our wisedome, forecast, & prouidéce, vnto God.

b. Though Iethro were not to be compared, yet Moses foloweth his counsel. So we also must folowe wholsome instructions, who so euer putteth them in our minde.

* The maner & place of the law published is set forth, that so great a benefite might be receyued with due reuerence.

a. That they departed out of Raphidim, whiche was a great way frō Sinai.

and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 But Moses went vp vnto God, and the Lord called vnto him out of ỹ mountaine, saying, Thus shalt ỹ (b) say vnto the house of Iacob, and tell the chyldren of Israell, 4 Ye haue (c) seene, what I did vnto the Egyptiãs, & toke you vpõ (d) Eagles wings, and haue brought you vnto my selfe.

5 Now therfore if ye wyll heare my voice in deede, and keepe my couenaunt, ye shall be (as) a deare "treasure vnto me aboue all nations: (e) for all the earth is myne.

6 Ye shalbe vnto me also a (f) kyngdome of priestes, & an holy people: And these are the wordes whiche thou shalt say vnto the chyldren of Israel.

7 Moses came & called for the Elders of ỹ people, and layde before theyr faces all these wordes, which the Lord commaũded him.

8 And the people aunswered altogether, and sayde, (g) All that the Lorde hath sayde, we wil do. And Moses brought the words of the people vnto the Lorde.

9 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moses, Loe, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, (h) that the people may heare me talking with thee, & beleeue thee for euer. Moses shewed the wordes of the people vnto the Lorde.

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Goe vnto the people, and (i) sanctifie them to day and to morowe, and let them (k) washe theyr clothes.

11 And be ready againſt the thirde day, for the third day "the Lord wil come downe in the sight of all people, vpon mount Sinai.

12 (l) And thou shalt set boundes vnto the people rounde about, and say, Take heede to your selues, that ye goe not vp into the mount, or touche the border of it: whosoeuer toucheth the mount, shal surely die.

13 There shall not an hande touche it, els he shalbe stoned, or shot through: whether it be beast, or man, it shal not lyue: when the " trumpet bloweth long, then may they come vp into the mountayne.

14 And Moses went downe frõ the mount vnto the people, and sanctified them, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he sayde vnto the people, Be ready against the thyrde day, and come not at (your) wiues.

16 And the thirde day in the morning, there was (m) thunder and lightning, & a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loude, so that al the people that was in the host was afrayde.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the tentes, to meete with God, and they stode at the neather part of the hill.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, bycause the Lorde descended downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascended vp as the smoke of a furnace, and al the mount quaked exceedingly.

19 And when the voyce of the trumpet blew long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God aunswered him by a voyce.

20 And the lord (n) came down vpon mount Sinai, euen in the top of the hill: and when the Lorde called Moses vp into the top of the hyll, Moses went vp.

21 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moses, (o) Goe downe, charge the people, least they breake out from theyr boundes to see the Lorde, and so (p) many of them perishe.

22 And let the priestes also whiche come to the Lord, sanctifie themselues, least the lord destroy them.

23 And Moses sayde vnto the Lorde, The people cã not come vp into the mount Sinai, for thou chargest vs, saying, Set bounds about the hill, and sanctifie it.

24 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Away, and get thee downe, and thou shalt come vp, thou and Aaron with thee: but let not the (q) priestes & the people presume for to come vp vnto the Lord, least he destroy thẽ.

25 And so Moses went down vnto the people, and tolde them.

b. Albeit God made this law for defence of libertie, yet so would he haue it kept, that the maister might not be endammaged: for we must not doe good to one, with anothers harme.

4 (b) And if his maister haue giuen him a wyfe, and shee haue borne him sonnes or daughters: then the wife & hir children shall be hir maisters, and he shall goe out alone.

6 (c) His maister shall bring him vnto the iudges, and set him to the doore, or the doore post, and his mayster shall bore hys eare through with a naule, and he shal be his seruaunt (d) for euer.

c. This might be done for two causes: first, least the masters should reteyne the seruants at their owne pleasure, and that all men might knowe that they continued bondmen of their owne accorde. Secondly, that many taking bondage in good parte, might fear the like reproch, & the more set by their libertie.

11 And if he do not (f) these three things vnto hir, thē shal she go out free, & pay no money.

29 Nevertheless I will not cast them out before thee in one yeare, least the land grow to a wildernesse, and the beasts of the fielde multiplie agaynst thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out before thee, untill thou be increased, and inherite the lande.

The.xxix. Chapter.

1. The maner to consecrate Priests vnto God, and the rite to offer for them. 38 The continuall dayly sacrifice.

1 THis thing also shalt thou doe vnto them, when thou halowest them to be my Priestes. Thou shalt take one young Calfe, and two rammes that are without blemish,

2 And vnleauened bread, and cakes vnleauened tempered with oyle, and wafers vnleauened annoynted with oyle: of wheaten flower shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them in a maund, and bring them in the maunde with the Calfe and the two Rammes.

4 And bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and washe them with water.

5 And take the garments, and put vppon Aaron the coate, the tunicle of the Ephod, and the Ephod it selfe, and the brestlap, and gyrd them to him with the broidered gyrdle which is in the Ephod.

6 And put the mytre vpon his head: and put the holy crowne vpon the mytre.

7 Then shalt thou take the annointing oyle, and poure it vpon his heade, and annoynt him,

8 And bring his sonnes, and put coates vpon them:

9 And gird them with girdles, aswel Aaron, as his sonnes, and put the bonettes on them, and the priests office shalbe theirs for a perpetuall law, and thou shalt fil the handes of Aaron, and the handes of his sonnes.

10 And thou shalt cause a calfe to be brought before the tabernacle of witnesse: and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their handes vpon the heade of the calfe.

11 And thou shalt kill him before the Lord, by the dore of the tabernacle of witnesse.

13 And take all the fat that coureth the inwardes, and the kall (that is) on the lyuer, and the two kidneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and burne them vpon the aultar.

14 But the flesh of the calfe, and his skinne, and his doung, shalt thou burne with fire without the host: it is a sinne offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one Ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme.

and sprinckle it vpon Aaron and his vestigarments with him, and he shal be halowed and his clothes, and his sonnes and theyr clothes, with him.

22 And thou shalt take the fat of the ramme, and his rumpe, and the fat that coureth the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and the right shoulder, for that ramme is a
(a) full offering,
23 And a cimnell of bread, and a cake of oyvnleauened bread, that is before the Lorde.

24 And put all vpon the hands of Aaron, and on the hands of his sonnes, and "waue them for a (b) waue offering before the Lorde.
25 And againe thou shalt take it from off their handes, and burne it vpon the aulter for a burnt offering, to be a sauour of sweet-fire vnto the Lorde.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aarons consecration, and waue it for a be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the breast of the 21 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, What did D this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them?

22 And Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my Lorde warre fierce: thou knowest the people, that they are (euen) set on mischiefe.

23 For they sayde vnto me, Make vs goddes to goe before vs, for we wote not what is become of Moses, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

22 And he made the tunicle vnto the Ephod, of wouen worke, altogether of blewe ſilke.

23 And there was an hole in the myddeſt of the tunicle, as the coller of a partlet, with a bande round about the coller, that it ſhould not rent.

24 And in the tunicle they made hemmes with pomegranates, of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and whyte twined ſilke.

25 And they made litle belles of pure golde, and put them amongſt the pomegranates rounde about vpon the edge of the tunicle.

26 A bel and a pomegranate, a bel, and a pomegranate rounde about the hemmes of the tunicle to miniſter in, as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

27 And they made coates of fine white ſilke of wouen worke, for Aarō and his ſonnes.

E 28 And a mitre of fine white ſilke, and goodly bonnets of fyne white ſilke, and linnen ſloppes of twyned white ſilke.

29 And a girdle of twyned white ſilke, blue, purple, and ſcarlet, euen of needle worke, as the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it with grauen worke, as ſignettes are grauen, The holyneſſe of the Lorde.

31 And tied vnto it a laſe of blue ſilke, to faſten it on hygh vpō the mitre, as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

32 Thus was all the worke of the tabernacle, (euen) of the tabernacle of the congregation finiſhed: and the chyldren of Iſrael did accordyng to all, that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euen ſo did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle vnto Moſes, (euen) the tabernacle, and all the furniture thereof, the taches, the bordes, the barres, the pyllers, and the ſockets:

34 The couering of rammes ſkins, redde, and the couerynge of Taxus ſkinnes, and the hangyng vayle,

35 The arke of the teſtimonie, and the barres thereof, and the mercy ſeate. f

36 The table, and all the veſſels thereof, and the ſhewe bread,

37 The pure candelſticke with the lampes thereof, euen with the lampes to be prepared, and all the veſſels thereof, and the oyle for lyght,

38 The golden aulter, and the annoyntyng oyle, and the ſweete incenſe, and the hangyng of the tabernacle dore,

39 And the braſen aulter, with his grediron of braſſe, the barres, and all the veſſels, the lauer and his foote, 40 The curtaynes of the court with the pillers, and ſockets: the hangyng of the court gate, and the pinnes, and cordes, and all the veſſels of the ſeruice of the tabernacle, euen of the tabernacle of the congregation.

41 The miniſtryng veſtimentes to ſerue in the holy place, and the holy veſtimentes for Aaron the prieſt, and his ſonnes rayments to miniſter in, in the prieſtes office.

42 Accordyng to all, that the Lorde commaunded Moſes, euen ſo the chyldren of Iſrael made al the worke.

43 And Moſes did loke vpon al the worke: and beholde, they had done it as the Lorde had commaunded, euen ſo had they done it: and Moſes bleſſed them.

The.xl. Chapter.

2. The tabernacle is erected. 34. A cloude, the ſigne of the preſence of the Lord couereth the tabernacle.

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, layeng, I

2 In the firſte day of the firſte (a) moneth, ſhalt thou ſet vp the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation.

3 And put thereon the arke of the teſtimonie, and couer the arke with the vayle: and thou ſhalt bryng in the table, and order it accordyng to the appoyntment thereof:

4 And

4 And thou shalt bryng in the candlesticke, and light his lampes,
5 And set the incense aulter of golde before the arke of the testimonie, and put the hangyng at the doore of the tabernacle.
6 And set the burnt offeryng aulter before the doore of the tabernacle (euen) of the tabernacle of the congregation.
B 7 And set the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the aulter, and put water therein.
8 And make the court rounde aboute, and hang vp the hangyng at the court gate.
9 And thou shalt take the annointing oyle, and annoynt the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it with all the vessels thereof: and it shalbe holy.
10 And thou shalte annoynt the aulter of burnt offeryng and all his vesselles, and sanctifie the aulter: and it shalbe an aulter most holy.
11 And thou shalt also annoynt the lauer, and his foote, and sanctifie it.
12 And thou shalte bryng Aaron and his sonnes, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and washe them with water.
13 And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holy vestimentes, and annoynt hym, and sanctifie him, that he may minister vnto me in the priestes office.
C 14 And thou shalt bryng his sonnes, & clothe them with garments:
15 And annoynt them, as thou diddest annoynt theyr father, that they may minister vnto me in the Priestes office: For theyr annoyntyng shalbe an euerlastyng priesthod vnto them throughout all theyr generations.
16 And Moses did accordyng to al that the Lord commaunded hym, euen so dyd he.
17 Thus was the tabernacle reared vp the fyrst day in the first moneth, in the (b) second yeare.
18 And Moses reared vp the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set vp the bordes thereof, and put in the barres of it, and reared vp the pyllers:
19 And spread abroade the tent ouer the tabernacle, and put the couerynge of the tent on hygh aboue it, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
20 And he toke the (c) testimonie, and put it in the arke, and set the barres to the arke, and put the mercy seate on hygh vpon the arke.
21 And he brought the arke into the tabernacle, and hanged vp the vayle, and couered the arke of the testimonie, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
22 And he put the table in the tabernacle of the congregation, in the north side of the tabernacle, without the vayle,
23 And set the bread in order before the lord, (euen) as the Lord had cõmaunded Moses. E
24 And he put the candelsticke in the tabernacle of the congregation, ouer agaynst the table towarde the south side of the tabernacle, 25 And set vp the lampes before the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
26 And he put the golde aulter in the tabernacle of the congregation before the vayle, 27 And burnt sweete incense thereon, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
28 And he hanged vp the hangyng at the doore of the tabernacle,
29 And set the burnt offeryng aulter by the entryng in of the tabernacle (that is) the tabernacle of the congregation, and offred burnt offrings, and meate offrings theron, as the Lord commaunded Moses.
30 And he set the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation & the aulter, and powred water therein, to washe withal. Exod. 30. c.
31 And Moses, Aaron, & his sonnes, washed theyr handes, and theyr feete thereat, 32 When they went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and when they went to the aulter, they washed themselues, as the Lord commaunded Moses.
33 And he reared vp the court rounde about the tabernacle, and the aulter, and set vp an hangyng at the court gate: and so Moses finished the worke.
34 And the cloude couered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glory of the lord filled the tabernacle. Num. 9. c.
35 And Moses coulde not enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, because the cloude abode thereon, and the glory of the Lorde filled the tabernacle.
36 And when the cloude was taken vp from of the tabernacle, the chyldren of Israel toke theyr iourneys throughout theyr armies:
37 And when the cloude was not taken vp, they iourneyed not till it was taken vp.
38 For the (d) cloude of the Lorde was vpon the tabernacle by day, and fyre by nyght, in the sight of all the house of Israell throwout al theyr armies.

(b) Of the cõming of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
(c) That is, tables of lawe.
d. Thus the presence of God preserued and guyded them both day and night, till they came to the lande of promise.

The ende of the seconde booke of Moses, called in the Hebrue Velleschemoth, and in the Latine, Exodus.

¶ The thirde booke of Moſes, called in the Hebrue (a) Vaicrah, and in the Latine, Leuiticus.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

2. The order of burnt offerings. 10. Of Sheepe or Goates. 14. Of Byrdes.

a. This booke is ſo named, becauſe that in the ſame is chiefly entreated of the Leuiticall ſacrifices, & other ceremonies of the lawe: vpon the whiche the Leuites were cõmitted, and ordeyned by the Lorde.

b. Moſes doth euidently declare, that theſe ſacrifices were inſtituted of God, and not of man.

c. When any priuate man wil offer for himſelf a priuate ſacrifice.

d. That the Leuitical ſacrifices were preachings of the paſsion and death of Chriſt & his Goſpell, whiche ſhould afterwarde be publiſhed through al the worlde. Men haue not dreamed it, but the holy ghoſt hath taught it, and hath cõfirmed it by many teſtimonies, aſwel of the olde teſtament, as of the newe: as Pſa.49. Eſa.41. Iohn.1.1. Pet.1. Heb.10. &c.

e. The Hebrue worde ſignifieth ſheepe, or ſhee goates. Exod.29.b.

f. Declaryng that he dyd it voluntarily, and al that he hath in his handes, he receiued of God.

g. It was to ſignifie, that the ſacrifice ought to be pure & cleane.

1 AND the Lord (b) called vnto Moſes, & ſpake vnto him out of the tabernacle of the congregatiõ, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraell, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, If a (c) man of you bryng a (d) ſacrifice vnto the Lorde, ye ſhall bryng your ſacrifice frõ among theſe cattell, euen from among the beeſes, and the (e) ſheepe.

3 If his ſacrifice be a burnt offeryng of beeſes, let him offer a male without blemiſhe, and bryng him of his owne voluntarie will, vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lorde.

4 And he ſhall put his (f) hande vpon the head of the burnt ſacrifice, and it ſhalbe accepted for him to be his attonement.

5 And he ſhall kyll the buſſocke before the Lorde: and the prieſts, Iarons ſonnes, ſhal bryng the bloud, and ſprinkle it rounde about vpon the aulter, that is by the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And then ſhal he flay the burnt offering, and hewe it in peeces.

7 And the ſonnes of Iaron the prieſt, ſhall put fire vpon the aulter, and put wood vpon the fire.

8 And the prieſts, Iarons ſonnes, ſhal lay the partes, euen the head, & the fat, vpon the wood, that is on the fyre in the aulter.

9 But the inwardes, and the legges thereof, ſhal he (g) waſhe in water, and the prieſt ſhall burne al on the aulter, that they may be a burnt ſacrifice, an offering made by fyre for a ſweete odour vnto the Lord.

10 And if his ſacrifice be of flockes, namely of ſheepe or goates, let him bryng a male without blemiſh for a burnt offeryng:

11 And let him kill it on the northſide of the aulter before the Lorde: And the prieſtes, Iarons ſonnes, ſhall ſprynckle the bloud rounde about vpon the aulter.

12 And he ſhal cut it into his peeces, euẽ with his head and his fatte: and the prieſt ſhall put them vpon the wood, that lyeth vpon the fire in the aulter.

13 But he ſhal waſhe the inwardes, and the legges with water, and the prieſt ſhal bryng altogether, and burne it vpon the aulter for a burnt offring, an oblation made by fyre, for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

14 If the burnt offring for the ſacrifice of the Lorde be of foules, he ſhal bryng his ſacrifice of turtle doues, or of young pigeons.

15 And the prieſt ſhal bryng it vnto the aulter, & (h) wring the necke of it a ſunder, and burne it on the aulter: but the bloud thereof ſhalbe wrong out vpõ the ſide of the aulter.

16 And he ſhal plucke away his croppe with his feathers, and caſt them beſide the aulter on the eaſt part, in the place of aſſhes.

17 And he ſhall breake the wyngs of it, but not plucke them a ſunder: And the prieſte ſhal burne it vpon the aulter, euen vpon the wood, that is vpon the fyre, that it may be a burnt offeryng, an oblation made by fyre, for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord.

h. That is, al manner of beaſt, as ſweete thonie: as egges, dates, and ſuch lyke. Of theſe nothyng might be burned, but only to be offered before God.

The.ij. Chapter.

1. The order of meate offerings. 4. Of bread baken. 11. There ſhalbe no leauen in any offering. 13. All meate offerings muſt be ſeaſoned with ſalt.

1 WHen any ſoule wyll offer a meate offering vnto the Lorde, his offeryng ſhalbe of fyne floure: & he ſhal powre oyle vpon it, and put frankincenſe thereon:

2 And ſhall bryng it vnto Iarons ſonnes, the prieſtes: And he ſhall take thereout his handfull of the floure, and of the oyle, with all the frankincenſe, & the prieſt ſhall burne it for a memoriall of hym vpon the aulter, to be an offeryng made by fyre, for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

3 And the remnaunt of the meate offring, ſhalbe Iarons and his ſonnes, a thing moſt (a) holy, of the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fire.

4 If thou bring alſo a meate offering, that is baken in the ouen, let it be an vnleauened cake of fine floure mingled with oyle, or an vnleavnleauened waker annoynted with oyle.

5 If thy meate offring be baken in the fryeing panne, it shalbe of vnleauened floure, myngled with oyle.
6 And thou shalt parte it in peeces, & powre oyle theron, that it may be a meate offring.
B 7 And if thy meate offring be a thing broyled vpō the grediron, let it be of floure mingled with oyle.
8 And thou shalt bring the meate offering, that is made of these things, vnto the Lord, and shalte deliuer it vnto the priest, that he may offer it vpon the aulter.
9 And the priest shall take frō the meate offering a memoriall therof, and shal burne it vpon the aulter: that it may be a burnt offeryng for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.
10 And that whiche is lefte of the meate offeryng, shalbe Aarons and his sonnes: it is a thyng moste holy, of the offeryngs of the Lorde made by fire.
11 All the meate offerynge whiche ye shall bryng vnto the Lord, shalbe made without leauen: For ye shall neyther burne leauen, nor (b) hony in any offeryng of the Lorde made by fyre.
12 In the oblation of the first fruites, ye shal offer thē vnto the Lord, but they shal not be burnt vpon the aulter for a sweete sauour.
13 All the meate offerynge also shalt thou season with salt, neyther shalte thou suffer the salt of the couenaunt of thy God to be lackyng from thy meate offring: but vpon al thyne offerynge thou shalt bryng (c) salt.
14 And if thou offer a meate offeryng of the first fruytes vnto the Lorde, thou shalt offer for the meate offeryng of thy first fruites, eares of corne dryed by the fire, (euen) beaten wheate of ful eares.
15 And thou shalt put oyle vpon it, and lay frankincense theron: that it may be a meate offeryng.
16 And the priest shal burne part of the beaten corne, and part of that oyle, with all the frankincense, for a remēbraunce: & it shalbe a sacrifice vnto the Lorde made by fire.

(b) That is, all maner of hit, as sweete honie: as figes, dates, & such lyke. Of these nothyng might be burned, but kept only to be offered before God. Math. 5. b. Mar. 9. g.

(c) By this ceremonie is the nature of Christ set forth which is figured in al sacrifices. For Christ is the true and heauenly salt, by whom all that beleue in him, are made saourie and pleasaunt vnto God the father, so that they shal neuer corrupt that they shall perishe.

2 And put his hande vpon the head of his offeryng, and kill it at the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation: And Aarons sonnes, the priestes, shall sprinckle the blood vpon the aulter rounde about.
3 And he shall offer somewhat of the peace offeryng, to be a sacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde: euen the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes: Exod. 29. c.
4 And the two kidneys, & the fat that is on them, & vpon the flankes, & the kall with the liuer, shal he take away with the kydneys.
5 And Aarons sonnes shall burne them on the aulter, with the burnt sacrifice, which is vpon the wood, that is on the fyre, to be a burnt sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde.
6 If he bryng a peace offeryng vnto the Lord from of the flock, let him offer male, or female, but without blemishe.
7 (And) yf he offer a lambe for his sacrifice, B he shal bryng it before the Lorde,
8 And put his hande vpon his offeryngs head, and kyll it before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aarons sonnes shall sprinckle the bloud thereof rounde about the aulter.
9 And of the peace offering let him bryng a sacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lord, the fat thereof, and the rūpe altogether, which they shal take off harde by the back bone: and the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.
10 And the two kydneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kal, that is vpō the lyuer, shal he take away with the kydneyes.
11 And the priest shall burne them vpon the aulter, to be the fode of a sacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde.
12 If his offeryng be a goate, he shall bryng it before the Lorde, 13 And put his hande vpō the head of it, & kil it before the tabernacle of the congregation, and the sonnes of Aaron shall sprinckle the bloud thereof vpon the aulter round about:
14 And he shall bryng thereof his offeryng, C euen a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes:
15 And the two kydneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall vpon the lyuer shal he take away with the kydneyes.
16 And the priestes shall burne them vpon the aulter, & the fode of the sacrifice made by fyre, for a sweete sauour: All the fatte is the Lordes.
17 Let it be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout your (a) dwellyngs, that ye eate neyther fat nor bloud.

The.iiij. Chapter.

1. The offeryng made for sinnes done of ignorance. 13. For the whole congregation. 22. For the ruler.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say, If a soule shall sinne through ignorance in any of the commaundements of the Lorde, which ought not to be done, but shal do contrary to any of them:

3 Is if the priest that is annointed do sinne, accordyng to the (a) sinne of the people, let hym bryng for his sinne, which he hath sinned, a young bullocke without blemyshe, vnto the Lorde, for a sinne offeryng.

a. By conuersation or doctrine to do any thing, whereby the people sinne, or els if the people sinne through the priests faulte, theyr sinne is required at his handes.

4 And he shall bryng the young bullocke vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord, and shal put his hande vpon the young bullockes head, and kill the young bullocke before the Lorde.

5 And the priest that is annointed, shal take of the young bullockes bloud, and bryng it into the tabernacle of the congregation.

Leuit.9.c.

6 And the priest shal dippe his finger in the bloud, and sprinckle thereof seuen times before the Lorde, euen before the vayle of the sanctuarie.

7 And the priest shal put some of the bloud before the Lorde, vpon the hornes of the aulter of sweete incense, whiche is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall powre all the bloud of the young bullocke vnto the bottome of the aulter of burnt offeryng, whiche is at the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offeryng, the fat that coureth the inwardes, and all the fat, that is about the inwardes,

9 And the two kydneyes, and the fat that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall vpon the liuer, shal he take away with the kydneyes,

10 As it was taken away in the bullocke of the peace offerynges: and let the priest burne them vpon the aulter of burnt offeryng.

Exod.29.c.

11 But the skynne of the young bullocke, and all his flesshe, with his head, and his legges, with his inwardes, and his dounge, (shall he beare out.)

12 And shall carie the whole bullocke altogether out of the host, vnto a cleane place, euen where the asshes are powred out, and shall burne hym there on wod in the fyre, euen by the place where the asshes are cast out shal he be burnt.

13 If the whole congregatiō of Israel sinne through ignorance, and the thyng be hid from the eyes of the multitude, and haue done somewhat agaynst any of the commaundements of the Lorde, whiche should not be done, and haue offended, 14 Whē the sinne which they haue sinned is knowen, the congregatiō shal bryng a yong bullocke for the sinne, and bryng him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the multitude shall put theyr hands vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lorde: And the bullocke shalbe slayne before the Lorde.

16 And the priestle that is annoynted, shall bryng of the bullockes bloud into the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in the bloud, & sprinckle it seuen times before the Lorde, euen before the vayle, 18 And shal put of the bloud vpō the hornes of the aulter, which is before the Lord in ỹ tabernacle of the cōgregation, & shal powre al the bloud vnto the bottome of the aulter of burnt offeryng, which is before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take his fat from hym, and burne it vpon the aulter, 20 And shal do with this bullocke, as he did with the bullocke for sinne, euē so shal he do with this: And the priest shall make an attonement for thē, & it shalbe forgiuen thē.

21 And he shal bryng this bullocke without the hoste, and burne him, as he burned the first bullocke: for it is an oblation for the sinne of the congregation.

22 When a Lorde sinneth, and committeth through ignorance any of these things, whiche the Lorde his God hath forbydden to be done in his commaundementes, and hath offended,

23 If his sin be (b) shewed vnto him, which he hath donne, he shall bryng his offeryng (euen) an he goate without blemish,

b. Other knowledge hymselfe haue sinned confessing fault, or other hath ueled it hym.

24 And shall lay his hande vpon the head of the he goate, and kyll it in the place, where the burnt offeryng is vsed to be killed before the Lorde: for it is a sinne offeryng.

25 And let the priest take of the bloud of the sinne offeryng with hys synger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offeryng aulter, and powre his bloud vnto the bottome of the burnt offeryng aulter, 26 And burne all his fat vpon the aulter, as the fatte of the peace offerynges: And the priest shall make an attonement for him, as concernyng his sinne, and it shalbe forgyuen him.

27 If one of the common people of the land sinne through ignorance, and commit any any of the thyngs which the Lord hath forbidden in his commaundements to be done, and so haue trespassed:

E 28 If his sinne, whiche he hath sinned, come to his knowledge, he shal bryng for his offeryng a she goate from among the flockes, without blemishe, for his sinne whiche he hath sinned, 29 And shall lay his hande vpon the head of the sinne offeryng, and slay the sinne offeryng in the place of burnt offerynges.

Leuit.3.d. 30 And the priest shal take of the bloud therof with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnt offeryng aulter, and powre all the bloud vnto the bottome of the aulter, 31 And shall take away all his fat, as the fat of the peace offeryng is taken away: And the priest shall burne it vpon the aulter, that it may be a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde, and the priest shall make an attonement for him, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

32 And if he bring a sheepe for a sin offering, he shall bryng a female without blemyshe, 33 And lay his hande vpon the head of the sinne offering, & slea it for a sinne offeryng, in the place where they kyll the burnt offeryng.

F 34 And the priest shall take of the bloud of the sinne offeryng with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the burnte offeryng aulter, and shall powre the bloud thereof vnto the bottome of the aulter.

Leuit.3.d. 35 And he shal take away al the fat therof, as the fat of the sheepe of the peace offeryng is wont to be taken away: And the priest shal burne it vpon the aulter, that it may be the Lordes burnt sacrifice, & the priest shall make an attonement for his sinne, that he hath committed, and it shalbe forgiuen hym.

The.v. Chapter.

1. Of othes. 2. The clensing of him that toucheth vncleane things. 6. The purgation of an othe. 15. And of sinne done by ignorance.

A 1 If a soule sinne, and heare the voyce of (a) swearyng, & be a witnesse, whether he haue seene, or knowen of it, if he do not vtter it, he shall beare his sinne.

This is diuersly expoũded, bicause the Hebrue worde hath a double signification: This is the sense some think. a Iudge do minister an

2 Or if a soule touche any vncleane thyng, whether it be the carion of an vncleane beaste, or a carion of vncleane cattell, or a carion of vncleane creepyng things, and is not ware of it, beholde, he is vncleane, and hath offended.

3 Or if he touch any vncleanesse of man, whatsoeuer vncleanesse it be, that a man is wont to be defiled withall, and be not ware of it, and come to the knowledge of it, he hath trespassed.

4 Or if a soule sweare, and pronoũce with his lippes to do euil, or to do good, whatsoeuer it be, that a man shall pronounce with an othe, and the thyng be hid frõ him, and he commeth to the knowledge of it, & haue offended in one of these,

5 When he hath sinned in one of these thyngs, he shall confesse, that he hath sinned in that thing.

6 Therefore shal he bryng his trespasse offeryng vnto the Lorde, for his sinne, whiche he hath sinned, a female from the flocke, a lambe, or a she goate, for a sinne offeryng: And the priest shall make an attonement for him concernyng his sinne.

7 And if he be not able to bring a sheepe, he shall bryng for his trespasse, whiche he hath sinned, two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons vnto the Lorde: one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offeryng. B Leuit.12. Luke.2.

8 And he shall bryng them vnto the priest, whiche shall offer the sinne offeryng fyrst, and wring the necke of it asunder, but not plucke it cleane of.

9 And he shall sprinckle of the bloud of the sinne offeryng vpon the side of the aulter, & the rest of the bloud shal be powre by ỹ bottome of the aulter: for it is a sinne offering.

10 And he shall offer the seconde for a burnt offeryng, as the maner is: and so shall the priest make an attonement for him for the sinne, whiche he hath sinned, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

11 And if he be not able to bryng two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bryng for his offering the tenth part of an Epha of fine floure, for a sinne offeryng: but shal put none oyle therto, nor put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sinne offeryng.

12 Then shall he bryng it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handfull of it for a remembrance thereof, and burne it vpon the aulter, to be a sacrifice for the Lorde made by fyre: for it is a sinne offeryng.

13 And the priest shall make an attonement for hym, as touchyng his sinne, that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shalbe forgiuen hym: And the remnaunt shalbe the priestes, as a meate offeryng.

14 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, C

15 If a soule trespasse & sinne thorow igno-

be to any priuate man, to declare the truth of any thyng that he hath seene, and doth it not, he sinneth: Or this, If any man see his neighbour commit any sinne, whiche is by the lawe of God execrable, or detestable, and do conceale, and not open it, as muche as in him doth lye, he doth sinne: some others take it thus. All such as hyd heare any man curse, banne, and abuse the name of God, and doth not open it vnto the magistrate, doth sinne: the firste sense is best lyked.

raunce in things, that are consecrated vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng for his trespasse vnto the Lorde, a ramme without blemish out of the flockes, valued in money at two sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie, that it may be for a trespasse offeryng. Exod.30.

16 And he shal make amendes for the harme that he hath done in the holy thyng, and let him put the fifth parte more thereto, and giue it vnto the priest: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym, with the ramme, that is for the trespasse, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

17 If a soule sinne, and commit any of these things, whiche are forbydden to be done by the commaundements of the Lorde, and (b) wist it not, and haue offended, and beare his sinne:

b. And doth afterwarde knowledge himselfe to haue offended, and thinketh himselfe to be guiltie of that sinne.

18 Then shall he bryng a ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, that is esteemed to be worthe a trespasse offeryng, vnto the priest: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym, concernyng his ignorance, wherein he erred, and was not ware, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

19 This is a trespasse offeryng, for the trespasse committed agaynst the Lorde.

The.vi. Chapter.

6. The offeryng for sinnes, whiche are done wyllyngly. 9. The lawe of the burnt offerynges. 13. The fyre must abyde euermore vpon the aulter. 20. The offeryng of Aaron and his sonnes.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 If a soule sinne and trespasse agaynst the Lorde, and denie vnto his neighbour that which was taken him to keepe, or that was put into his handes, or doth violent robberie or wrong vnto his neyghbour,

3 Or if he haue found that, which was lost, and denie it, and sweareth falsely, vpon whatsoeuer thyng it be that a man dothe, and sinneth therein:

4 If he haue so sinned, and trespassed, he shall restore agayne that he toke violently away, or the wrong whiche he dyd, or that whiche was deliuered hym to keepe, or the lost thyng whiche he founde:

5 And all that, about which he hath sworne falsly, he shal restore it againe in the whole summe, and shall adde the fifth parte more thereto, and giue it vnto hym to whome it apperteyneth, the same day that he offereth for his trespasse.

6 And let hym bryng for his trespasse vnto the Lorde, a ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, that is esteemed worthy a trespasse offeryng, vnto the priest.

7 And the priest shall make an attonement for hym before the Lorde, and it shalbe forgiuen him, what soeuer thing it be, that he hath done and trespassed therein.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

9 Commaund Aaron & his sonnes, saying, (This is ỹ law of the burnt offering. The burnt offeryng shalbe vpon the harth of the aulter all night, vnto the morning, and the fyre shalbe kindeled on the aulter.)

10 And the priestes shall put on his lynnen garment, and his lynnen breeches vpon his flesche, and take away the asshes vpon the whiche the fyre consumed the burnt sacrifice in the aulter, and he shall put them beside the aulter.

11 And put of his rayment, and put on other, and carie the asshes out without the hoste vnto a cleane place.

12 The fire vpon the aulter shall burne still, & neuer be put out: But the priest shall ley wood on it euery day in the morning, & put the burnt sacrifice vpon it, and he shal burne thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13 (a) The fyre shal euer burne vpon the aulter, and neuer goe out.

14 This is the lawe of the meate offeryng, whiche Aarons sonnes shall bryng before the Lorde, euen before the aulter:

15 And one of them shal take his handful of the floure of the meate offeryng, and of the oyle, & al the frankincense, which is vpō the meate offeryng, & shall burne it vnto a remēbraunce vpon the aulter for a sweete sauour, euen a memorial of it vnto the Lord.

16 And of the rest thereof, shall Aaron and his sonnes eate: vnleauened shall it be eaten in the holy place, euen in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eate it.

17 It shal not be baken with leauen: I haue giuen it vnto thē for their portion of my sacrifices made by fire: It is most holy, as is the sinne offering, & the trespasse offeryng.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eate of it: It shalbe a statute for euer in your generations, concernyng the sacrifice of the Lord made by fyre: let euery one that toucheth it, be holy.

19 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and of his sonnes, which they shal offer vnto the Lord in the day when he is annoynted: The tenth part of an Epha of floure for a meate offeryng perpetuall, halfe of it in the morning, and halfe thereof at night.

21 In the frying panne it shalbe made with oyle oyle, and when it is fryed, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken peeces of the meate offerings shalt thou offer for a sweete sauour, vnto the Lorde.

22 And he of his sonnes that is a priest, that is annoynted in his steede, shall offer it: It is the Lordes ordinaunce for euer, it shalbe burnt altogether.

23 For euery meate offeryng, that is made for the priest, shalbe burnt altogether, and shall not be eaten.

24 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

25 Speake vnto Aaron & vnto his sonnes, and say, This is the lawe of the sinne offeryng: In the place where the burnt offeryng is kylled, shall the sinne offeryng be killed before the Lorde, for it is moste holy.

Ostē.4.b. 26 The priest that offereth it, shal eate of it: In the holy place shal it be eaten, euē in the court of the tabernacle of the congregatiō.

27 Whatsoeuer shall touche the flesshe thereof, shalbe holy: and when there droppeth of the bloud thereof vpon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it droppeth, in the holy place.

Leuit.15.d. 28 But the earthen pot, that it is sodden in, shalbe broken: And if it be soddē in a brasen pot, it shalbe scoured, and rensed in water.

29 All the males among the priests shal eate thereof, for it is most holy.

30 And no sinne offeryng, whose bloud is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation, to recōcile withal in the holy place, shalbe eaten: but shalbe burnt in the fire.

The.vij.Chapter.

1. Trespasse offerings. Sinne offerings. 11. Peace offeryngs. 23. The fat and the bloud may not be eaten.

A 1 Likewyse this is the lawe (a) of the trespasse offeryng: it is most holy.

(a) Because it was altog-ther burnt with fire & that the priestes onely did eate it.

2 In the place, where they kill the burnt offeryng, shall they kill the trespasse offeryng also, and the bloud thereof shalbe sprinckled rounde about vpon the aulter.

3 All the fat thereof shal he offer, the rumpe, and the fat that couereth the inwardes,

4 And the two kydneyes, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall that is on the lyuer, shalt thou take away with the kydneyes.

5 And the priest shall burne them vpon the aulter, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde: for it is a trespasse offeryng.

6 All the males among the priests shal eate thereof: it shalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is most holy.

B 7 As the sinne offering is, so is the trespasse offeryng, one lawe serueth for bothe, that wherewith the priest shall make attonement, shalbe his.

8 And the priest that offereth any mans burnt offeryng, shall haue the skinne of the burnt offeryng, which he hath offered.

9 And al the meate offeryng, that is baken in the ouen, and that is dressed in the panne, and in the frying panne, shalbe the priestes, that offereth it.

10 And euery meate offeryng that is mingled with oyle, & that is dry, shall perteyne vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, and one shall haue as muche as another.

11 This is the lawe of the peace offeryng, which he shall offer vnto the Lorde.

b. The Hebrue word signifieth to prayse & giue thankes: this sacrifice they vsed, when any man knowledged himself to be a sinner, and confessed his sinnes vnto the Lorde, will ng to recōcile himselfe vnto him.

12 If he offer it to giue thanks, he shal bring vnto his (b) thanke offeryng vnleauened cakes myngled with oyle, and vnleauened wafers annoynted with oyle, & cakes mingled with oyle of fine floure fryed.

13 He shal bryng his offeryng with cakes of vnleauened bread for his peace offeryngs, to giue thankes:

14 And of al the sacrifice he shal offer one for an heaue offeryng vnto the Lorde, and it shalbe the priestes, that sprinckled the bloud of the peace offerings.

15 And the flesshe of his peace offerings for thankes giuyng, shalbe eaten the same day that it is offered: And let him leaue nothing of it vntyl the morowe.

16 But if the offeryng of his sacrifice be a vowe, or of his owne free will, it shalbe eaten the same day, that he offereth his sacrifice: and if ought remayne vntill the morowe, it may be eaten.

17 But as muche of the offered flesshe, as remayneth vnto the thyrde day, shalbe burnt with fyre.

18 And if any of the flesshe of his peace offerings be eaten in the thirde day, then shall he that offereth it, obteyne no fauour, neyther shal it be reckened vnto him, but shalbe an abomination: therefore the soule that eateth of it, shal beare his sinne.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any vncleane thyng, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: and of this flesshe al that be cleane, shall eate thereof.

20 But if any soule eate of the flesshe of the peace offering, ẏ perteyneth vnto the Lord, hauing his vncleannesse vpō him: the same soule shalbe cut off from amōg his people.

D 21 Moreouer, the soule that dothe touche any vncleane thyng, that is of the vncleannesse of mā, or of any vncleane beast, or any abomination, that is vncleane, and then eate of the flesshe of the peace offeryng, which perteyneth teyneth vnto the Lorde, that soule shalbe cut off from his people.

22 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

Leuit.3.c. 23 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israell, and say, Ye shal eate no maner of fat of beeues, of sheepe, and of goates.

24 Neuerthelater, the fat of the beast, that dieth alone, & the fat of that which is torne with wilde beastes, shalbe occupied in any maner of vse: but ye shall in no wise eate of it.

25 For whosoeuer eateth the fat of the beast, of which mē vse to bring an offering made by fyre vnto the Lorde: that soule that eateth it, shalbe cut off from his people.

Gen.9.a. Leuit.6.c. and.19.f. Deut.12.b. 1.Reg.14.a. 26 Moreouer, ye shall eate no maner of bloud, whether it be of foule, or of beast, in any your dwellings.

27 Whatsoeuer soule it be that eateth any maner of bloud, the same soule shalbe cut off from his people.

E 28 And ỳ Lord talked with Moses, saying,

29 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israell, and say, He that bryngeth his peace offeryng vnto the Lorde, let him bring his gift vnto the Lorde of his peace offeryng:

30 Let his owne hands bring the offerings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fat with the brest shal he bring, that the brest may be waued for a waue offering before the lord.

31 And the priest shall burne the fat vpon the aulter, and the breast shalbe Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye giue vnto the priest for an heaue offeryng, of your peace offerynges.

33 The same that offereth the bloud of the peace offerings, & the fat among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his part:

Num.16.c. 34 For the waue breast, and the heaue shoulder, haue I taken of the chyldren of Israel, euen of theyr peace offerings, and haue gyuen them vnto Aaron the priest, and vnto his sonnes, by a statute for euer from amōg the chyldren of Israel.

35 This is the annoynting of Aaron, and the annoynting of his sonnes, concernyng the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre, in the day, when he offered them to be priestes vnto the Lorde.

36 And these be the (portions) whiche the Lorde commaunded to be gyuen them in the day of theyr annoyntyng from among the chyldren of Israell, by a statute for euer in their generations.

37 This is the lawe of the burnt offeryng, and of the meate offeryng, and of the sacrifice for sinne & trespasse, for consecrations, and for the peace offeryng:

38 Which the Lord commaunded Moses in the mount Sinai, when he cōmaunded the childrē of Israel to offer theyr sacrifices vnto the Lorde, in the wildernesse of Sinai.

The.viij.Chapter.

6. The annoyntyng of Aaron and his sonnes.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, & the vestures, and the annoyntyng oyle, and a bullocke for a sinne offeryng, and two rammes, and a basket of vnleauened bread:

3 And gather thou all the congregation together vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the Lord commaunded him: and the people were gathered together vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses sayd vnto the congregation, This is the thyng whiche the Lorde commaunded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron & his sonnes, and washed them with water:

7 And put vpō him the coate, & gyrded him with a girdle, and put vpon him the robe, & put the Ephod thereon, which he gyrded with the brodered garde that was in the Ephod, and bound it vnto him therewith.

8 And he put the breastplate thereon, and put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.

9 And he put the tappe of estate vpon his head, and put vpon the cap, euen vpon the forefront, the golde plate, the holy crowne, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.

10 And Moses toke the annoyntyng oyle, and annoynted the tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them:

11 And sprinckled thereof vpon the aulter seuen tymes, and annoynted the aulter and al the vessels thereof, the lauer and his foote, to sanctifie them.

12 And he powred of the annoyntyng oyle vpon Aarons head, and annoynted hym, to sanctifie him.

13 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, & gyrded them with gyrdles, and put bonets vpon theyr heades, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.

14 And he brought the bullocke for the sinne offeryng: and Aaron and his sonnes put theyr handes vpon the head of the bullocke, for the sinne offeryng.

15 And Moses slue him, and toke the bloud, whiche he put vpon the hornes of the aulter ter rounde about with his finger, and purified the aulter, and powred the bloud at the bottome of the aulter, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 And he toke al the fat, that was vpon the inwardes, and the kal of the liuer, and the two kydneyes, and theyr fat, and Moses burned it vpon the aulter.
17 But the bullocke, and his hyde, his flesh, & his doung, he burnt with fyre without the host, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
18 And he brought the ramme for the burnt offeryng, and Aaron and his sonnes put theyr hands vpon the head of the ramme, 19 Whiche Moses killed, and sprinckled the bloud vpon the aulter rounde about.
20 And Moses cut the rãme into his peeces, and burnt the head, the peeces, and the fat:
D 21 And washed the inwards, and the legges in water: and Moses burnt the ramme everywhit vpon the aulter: for it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweete sauour, and an offeryng made by fyre vnto the Lorde, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
Exod. 29. k. 22 And he brought the other ramme, namely the ramme of consecrations: and Aaron and his sonnes put theyr handes vpon the head of the ramme,
23 Whiche Moses slue, & toke of the bloud of it, & put it vpon the tip of Aarons right eare, & vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.
24 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the bloud on the typpe of the right eare of them, and vpon the thumbes of their right handes, & vpon the great toes of theyr right feete: and Moses sprinckled the bloud vpon the aulter rounde about.
Exod. 29. d. 25 And he toke the fat, and the rumpe, and al the fat, that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kydneyes with theyr fat, and the right shoulder.
26 And out of the basket of vnleauened bread, that was before the Lorde, he toke one vnleauened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder:
27 And put altogether vpon Aarons hands, and vpon his sonnes hands, and waued it a waue offeryng before the Lorde.
E 28 And Moses toke them from off their handes, and burnt them vpon the aulter, for a burnt offering: These were consecrations for a sweete sauour, and sacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lorde.
Exod. 29. e. 29 And Moses toke the breast, and waued it for a waue offeryng before the Lorde: for of the rãme of consecrations, it was Moses part, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
30 And Moses toke of the annoynting oyle, and of the bloud whiche was vpon the aulter, & sprinckled it vpon Aaron, and vpõ his garments, and vpon his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him: and sanctified Aaron and his vestures, and his sonnes, and his sonnes vestures with hym.
31 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron and his sonnes, Boyle the flesh at the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and there eate it with the bread, that is in the basket Exod. 29. k.
of consecration, and as I commaunded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eate it.
32 And that whiche remayneth of the flesh, and of the bread, shall ye burne with fyre.
33 And ye shall not depart from the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation seuen dayes, vntill the dayes of your consecratiõs be at an ende: for seuen dayes shall he fill your hande.
34 As he did this day: euen so the Lord hath commaunded to do, to make an attonemẽt for you.
35 Therfore shall ye abide at the dore of the F tabernacle of the congregation day and night, seuen dayes long, & keepe the watche of the Lorde, and ye shall not die: for so I am commaunded.
36 And so Aaron & his sonnes, did al things, whiche the Lorde cõmaunded by the hande of Moses.

The.ix. Chapter.

8. The first offerings of Aaron. 22. Aaron blesseth the people. 23. The glorie of the Lorde is shewed.

1 AND in the eight day, Moses called Aa- I ron & his sonnes, & the elders of Israel:
2 And he sayde vnto Aaron, Take thee a young calfe for a sinne offering, & a ramme for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and bryng them before the Lorde.
3 And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take ye an hee goate for a sinne offeryng, and a calfe, and a lambe, both of a yeare olde, without blemyshe, for a burnt sacrifice.
4 Also a bullocke and a ramme for peace offerynges, to offer before the Lorde, and a meate offeryng mingled with oyle: for to day the Lorde wil appeare vnto you.
5 And they brought that, which Moses cõmaunded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation came, and stode before the Lorde.
6 And Moses sayd, This is ẏ thing, which the Lorde cõmaunded, that ye should do, & the glory of ẏ Lord shal appeare vnto you.

B 7 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, Goe vnto
Hebr.5.a. the aulter, and offer the sacrifice for thy C.7.d. sinne, and thy burnt offeryng, and make an attonement for thee and for the people: and thou shalt offer the offeryng of the people, and make an attonement for them, as the Lorde commaunded.
8 Aaron therfore went vnto the aulter, and slue the calfe of the sinne offeryng, whiche was for himselfe.
9 And the sonnes of Aaron brought the bloud vnto hym, and he dipt his finger in the bloud, and put it vpon the hornes of the aulter, & powred the bloud at the bottome of the aulter.
10 But the fat and the two kydneyes, and the kal of the liuer of the sinne offeryng he burnt vpon the aulter, as the Lorde commaunded Moses,
11 The flesshe, and the hide he burnt with fire without the host.
Leuit.2.a. 12 And he slue the burnt offeryng, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the bloud, whiche he sprinckled rounde about vpon
the aulter.
13 And they brought the burnt offeryng vn-and he burnt (them) vpon the aulter.

C 14 And he dyd washe the inwardes, and the 15 And then he brought the peoples offering, takyng the goate, which was the sinne offeryng for the people, and slue it, and offered it for sinne, as he did the first.

16 And brought the burnt offeryng, and offered it as the maner was.
Leuit.4.a. 17 And he brought the meate offering, & filled his hād therof, & burnt it vpō the aulter, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morneyng.
18 He slue also the bullocke, and the ramme for the peace offeryng, whiche was for the people: and Aarons sonnes brought vnto hym the bloud, whiche he sprynckled vpon the aulter rounde about:
19 And the fat of the bullocke, and of the ramme, the rumpe, and that couereth the inwardes, and the kydneyes, and the kall of the lyuer.
20 And they put the fat vpon the breasts, and he burnt the fat vpon the aulter:
D 21 But the breastes and the ryght shoulder, Aaron waued for a waue offeryng, before the Lord, as the Lord cōmaunded Moses.
22 And Aaron lifted vp his hande ouer the people, and blessed them, and came downe from offeryng of the sinne offeryng, burnt offeryng, and peace offerings.
23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: & the glory of the Lorde appeared vnto al the people.
24 And there came a fire out from before the Lorde, and consumed vpon the aulter the burnt offeryng and the fat: Whiche, when al the people sawe, they gaue thākes and fel on theyr faces.

Aaron, toke eyther of them his censer, and put fire therein, & put incense therupon, and offered (a) straunge fire before the Lord, which he commaunded them not.
2 And there went a fire from the Lorde, & cōsumed them, & they died before the Lord.

Aaron held his peace.

Of this reade the.21. Chapter, the tenth verse.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, saying,
9 Thou shalt not drinke wine nor strong drinke, neither thou, nor thy sonnes, that are with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, least ye die: Let it be a law for euer throughout your generations.
10 And that ye may put difference betweene holy, & vnholy, betweene vncleane & cleane:
11 And that ye may teach the children of Israell all the statutes, whiche the Lorde hath spoken vnto them by the handes of Moses.
12 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes, that were left, Take the meate offering that remayneth of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre, and eate it without leauen beside the aulter: for it is most holy.
13 Ye shall eate it in the holy place, because it is thy duetie, and thy sonnes duetie, of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire: for so I am commaunded.
¶ 14 And the waue breast, and heaue shoulder shall ye eate in a cleane place, thou, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee: For they be thy dutie, & thy sonnes dutie giuē out of the peace offrings of the childrē of Israel.
15 The heaue shoulder and the waue breast shall they bring in with the sacrifices made by fire, of the fat, to waue it for a waue offering before the Lorde: and it shal be thine, and thy sonnes with thee, by a law for euer, as the Lorde hath commaunded.
16 And Moses sought the goate, that was offered for sinne, and see, it was burnt. And he was angrie with Eleazar, and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron, which were left aliue, saying,
17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath giuen it you, to beare the sinne of the congregation, to make agreement for them before the Lorde.
18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within ỹ holy place: Ye should haue eatē it in the holy place, as I commaunded.
19 And Aaron sayde vnto Moses, Beholde, this day haue they offered their sinne offering, and their burnt offering before the Lorde: (d) and suche things are come vnto me. If I had eaten the sinne offering to day, shoulde it haue beene accepted in the sight of the Lorde?
20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

(d) I haue not eat this vndon for any cōtempt or negligence, but both my children be dead: and how shulde I be merry in such wofull & lamentable case for my childrē.

The.xi.Chapter.

1. Of beastes, fishes, and birdes: whiche bee cleane, and which be vncleane.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, and sayd vnto them, ¶ A
2 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say, These are the beasts, which ye shall eate among all the beastes, that are on the earth. (Gen.7.a. Deut.14.a. Act.10.e.)
3 Whatsoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and cheweth the cudde among the beastes, that shall ye eate.
4 Neuertheless, these shall ye not eate, of them that chewe the cudde, and diuide the hoofe: (onely) as is the Camel, which cheweth the cudde, but diuideth not the hoofe: therefore he is vncleane vnto you.
5 Euen so the Connie, which cheweth the cud, but diuideth not the hoofe, is vncleane to you.
6 And the Hare, though he chewe the cudde, yet because he diuideth not the hoofe, hee is therefore vncleane to you.
7 And againe the Swine, though he diuide the hoofe, and is clouen footed, yet he cheweth not the cud: he is vncleane to you. ¶ B
8 Of their flesche shall ye not eate, and their carkasses shall ye not touch: but let them be vncleane to you.
9 These shal ye eate, of al that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath finnes and scales in the waters, seas, and ryuers, that shall ye eate.
10 And all that haue not finnes, nor scales in the sea & riuers, of al that moue & liue in the waters, let thē be abhomination vnto you.
11 They, I say, shall be abhomination vnto you: ye shall not eate of their flesh, but abhorre their carkasses.
12 Let all that haue no finnes nor scales in the waters, be abhominable vnto you.
13 These are they, which ye shall abhorre among the foules, and that ought not to bee eaten, for they are an abhomination: The Eagle, the Gossehauke, and the Osprey,
14 The Vulture, & the Kite, after his kinde. ¶ C
15 And all Rauens after their kinde,
16 The Estrich, the night Crowe, the Cuckow, and the Hauke after his kinde, 17 The Falcō, the Cormorant ỹ great Oule,
18 The Backe, the Pellicane, the Pie,
19 The Storke, the Jay after his kinde, the Lapwing, and the Swallow.
20 Let all foules, that creepe, and goe vpon all foure, be an abhomination vnto you.
21 Yet these may ye eate, of euerie creeping thing that hath wings, and goeth vppon foure (feete:) euen those, that haue not bowings aboue vpon their feete, to leape withall vpon the earth.
22 Euen these of them may ye eate: the Arbe after his kinde, the Selaam after his kinde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kinde.

D 23 All (other) foules, that creepe, and haue foure feete, shal be abomination vnto you.
24 In such ye be vncleane: and whosoeuer toucheth the carkasse of them, shall be vncleane vntill the euentide.
25 And whosoeuer beareth the carkasse of them, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
26 And euery beast, that hath howfe, and is not clouen foted, nor cheweth the cud, such are vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shall be vncleane.
27 And whatsoeuer goeth vpon his pawes, among al maner beasts, that go on al foure (feete,) such are vncleane vnto you: and who so doth touch their carkasse, shalbe vncleane
Leuit.5.e. vntill the euentyde.
28 And he that beareth the carkasse of them, shal wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntil the euen: for such are vncleane vnto you.
E 29 And let these also be vncleane vnto you, among the things that creepe vpon the earth: The Weasel, and the Mouse, and the Toad after their kinde:
30 The Hedgehogge, the Stellio, the Lacert, the Snayle, and the Molle.
31 These are vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoeuer doth touch the, when they be dead, shalbe vncleane vntil the euentide.
32 And whatsoeuer any of the dead carkasses of them doth fal vpon, shalbe vnclean, whether it be vessel of wood, or rayment, or skin, or sacke, or whatsoeuer vessel it be, that any worke is wrought in: and it must be plunged in the water, and it shalbe vncleane vntill the euen, and so shall it be cleansed.
33 All maner of earthen vessell, whereinto any of them falleth, shalbe vncleane, with all that therein is, and it shalbe broken.
Leuit.6.d. 34 All maner meate also, that is vsed to bee eaten, if any such water come vpon it, shall be vncleane: And all maner drinke, that is vsed to be drunke in all maner such vessels, shalbe vncleane.
F 35 And euery thing, that their carkasse falleth vpon, shal be vnclean: whether it be ouen, or kettle, let it be broken: For they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.
36 Neuerthelater, the fountayns, and welles, and collections of waters, shalbe cleane stil: but that whiche toucheth their carkasses, shall be vncleane.
37 If the dead carkasse of any such fall vpon any seede vsed to be sowne, it shall yet bee cleane still:
38 But if anye water bee poured vpon the seede, and a dead carkasse fall thereon, it shal be vncleane vnto you.
39 If any beast, of which yee may eate, die, and any man touch the dead carkasse therof, he shalbe vncleane vntill the euentyde.
40 He that eateth of the dead carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euen: And he also, that beareth the carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the euentyde.
41 Let euery creeping thing, that creepeth vpon the earth, be an abhomination, and not be eaten.
42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the breast, and G whatsoeuer goeth vppon foure, or that hath mo feete among all creeping things, that creepe vpon the earth, of that see ye eate not, for they are abhominable.
43 Ye shal not make your soules abhominable with anye thing that creepeth, neyther make your selues vncleane with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.
44 For I am the Lord your God: Be sanctified therefore, and ye shalbe holy, for I am holy: and yee shall not defile your soules with any maner of creeping thing, that creepeth vpon the earth:
45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall be holy therefore, for I am holy.
46 This is the lawe of beastes and foules, and of euery liuing creature, that moueth in the waters, and of euery creature, that creepeth vpon the earth, 47 That there may be a difference betweene the vncleane, and cleane, and betwene the beast, that may be eaten, and the beast, that ought not to be eaten.

The.xij. Chapter.

2. A lawe, howe women should be purged after their deliuerance.

1 AND the lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say, If a woman haue conceyued seede, and borne a man childe, shee shall bee vncleane seuen dayes: euen according to the dayes of the separation of hir infirmitie, shal she be vncleane.
3 And in the eight day the flesh of the childes foreskinne shalbe cut away.
4 And she shall then continue in the bloud of hir purifying, three and thirtie dayes: She shall touche no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuarie, vntill the tyme of hir purifying be out.
5 If she beare a mayde child, she shalbe vncleane two weekes, according as in hir separation: and she shal continue in the bloud of hir purifying threescore and sixe dayes.
6 And when the dayes of hir purifying are out out, whether it be for a ſon, or for a daughter, ſhe ſhal bring a lambe of one yeare olde for a burnt offering, and a yong Pigeon, or a turtle doue, for a ſinne offering, vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, vnto the prieſt:

B 7 Which ſhall offer them before the Lorde, and make an attonement for hir, and ſhee ſhal be purged of the iſſue of hir bloud. And this is the lawe for hir, that hath borne a male, or female.

Leuit.5.b. Luke.2.d. 8 But if ſhe be not able to bring a lambe, ſhee ſhall bring two turtles, or two yong pigeons, the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a ſinne offering: And the prieſt ſhall make an attonement for hir, and ſhee ſhalbe cleane.

The.xiij.Chapter.

1. The Prieſtes muſt haue a conſideration, and iudge who are lepres. 47. Of the leprous garments.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſaying,

2 The man that ſhall haue in the ſkinne of his fleſh, a ſwelling, eyther a ſcabbe, or a glyſtering whyte, and the plague of leproſie be in the ſkinne of his fleſhe, he ſhall bee brought vnto Aaron the Prieſt, or vnto one of his ſonnes the Prieſtes.

3 And the Prieſt ſhall looke on the ſoare in the ſkin of his fleſh: and when the heare in the ſoare is turned to white, & the ſoare alſo ſeemeth to be lower than the ſkin of his fleſh, it is a plague of leproſie: and the prieſt ſhal looke on him, and iudge him vncleane.

4 If there bee a white plecke in the ſkinne of his fleſh, and ſeeme not to be lower than the ſkinne, nor the heare thereof is turned vnto white, the prieſt ſhall ſhut vp (him that hath) the plague, ſeuen dayes.

5 And the prieſt ſhal looke vpon him againe the ſeuenth day: and if the plague ſeeme to him to abide ſtill, and the plague grow not in the ſkinne, the prieſt ſhall ſhut vp (hym that hath) the plague, ſeuen dayes mo.

6 And the prieſt ſhal looke on him againe the ſeuenth day: Then if the plague be darker, and not growne in the ſkinne, the prieſt ſhal iudge him cleane, for it is but a ſcabbe: And he ſhall waſhe his clothes, and be cleane.

B 7 But if the ſcabbe growe in the ſkinne, after that he is ſeene of the prieſte, and iudged cleane, he ſhalbe ſeene of the prieſt againe.

8 If the prieſt ſee, that the ſcabbe be growne abrode in the ſkinne, the prieſt ſhall make him vncleane: (for) it is a leproſie.

9 When the plague of the leproſie is in a man, he ſhalbe brought vnto the prieſt,

10 And the prieſt ſhall ſee him: And if the ſwelling bee whyte in the ſkinne, and haue made the heare white, and there bee rawe fleſhe in the ſwelling, 11 It is an olde leproſie in the ſkinne of hys fleſh, and the prieſt ſhal make him vncleane, & ſhal not ſhut him vp, ſeing he is vncleane.

12 If a leproſie breake out abrode in the ſkin, and couer all the ſkin from his heade to hys foote, where ſoeuer the prieſt looketh, 13 Then the prieſt ſhall conſider: & if the leproſie haue couered al his fleſh, he ſhal iudge the plague to be cleane, bycauſe it is al turned into whiteneſſe, and he ſhalbe cleane.

14 But if there be raw fleſh on him, when he C is ſeene, he ſhalbe vncleane.

15 And the prieſt ſhall ſee the raw fleſhe, and declare him to bee vncleane: for the rawe fleſh is vncleane, ſeeing it is a leproſie.

16 Or if the rawe fleſhe turne againe, and chaunge vnto whyte, he ſhall come to the Prieſt, 17 And the prieſt ſhall ſee him: and beholde, if the ſoare bee chaunged vnto whyte, the Prieſt ſhall iudge the plague cleane, and he ſhalbe cleane.

18 The fleſh alſo in the ſkinne whereof there is a byle, and is healed, 19 And in the place of the byle there appeareth a white ryſing, or a ſhining white, and ſomwhat reddiſh, it ſhalbe ſeene of ỹ prieſt.

20 And if, when the prieſt ſeeth it, it appeare lower than the ſkinne, and the heare thereof be chaunged vnto white, the prieſt ſhall iudge him vncleane: for it is a plague of leproſie, broken out of the byle.

21 But if the prieſt looke on it, and there be no D white heares therein, and if it be not lower than the ſkinne, but be darker, the prieſt ſhall ſhut him vp ſeuen dayes.

22 And if it ſpreade abrode in the ſkinne, the prieſt ſhall make him vncleane, ſeeing it is a ſoare.

23 But if the ſpot ſtand ſtill, and growe not, it is a ſcarre of a byle, and therfore the prieſt ſhall declare him to be cleane.

24 If there be any fleſh, in the ſkinne whereof there is a whote burning, and the quicke fleſh, that burneth, haue a white ſpot, ſomewhat reddiſh, or white,

25 The prieſt ſhall looke vpon it: and if the heare in that bright ſpotte bee chaunged to white, and it appeare lower than the ſkinne, it is a leproſie broken out of the burning, and therfore the Prieſt ſhall iudge him vncleane, ſeeing it is the plague of leproſie.

26 But if the Prieſt looke on it, and there be no white heare in the bright ſpot, and the place be no lower than the other skinne, but be darker, the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

27 And the priest shall loke on him the seuenth day: and if it be growne abrode in the skin, the priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing it is the plague of leprosie.

E 28 And if the spot stand still in it, and growe not in the skinne, but be darke, it is a rysing of the burning, and the Priest shall therefore declare him cleane, seeing it is a scarre of the burning.

29 If man or woman haue a soare vpon the head, or the beарde,

30 The Priest shal see the soare: and if it appeare lower than the skinne, and there be in it a yellow heare, and thinne, the Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing that the same fretting is a token of leprosie, vpon the head or beарde.

31 And if the Priest loke on the soare of the fret, and it seemeth not lower than the skin, and that the heare is not blacke, the Priest shall shut vp the fretting soare seuen dayes.

32 And in the seuenth day the priest shal loke on the soare: and if the freat be not growne, and there be in it no yellow heare, and the fret seeme not lower than the skinne,

33 He shall be shauen, but the fret shal he not shaue: and the Priest shall shut vp the fret seuen dayes moe.

34 And in the seuenth day the priest shal loke on the fret: and if the freat be not grown in the skinne, nor seeme lower than the other skinne, the Priest shall cleanse him: and hee shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

F 35 But if the fret growe in the skinne after his clensing, 36 The Priest shall loke on him: and if the fret be growne in the skinne, the Priest shal not seke for yellow heare: for he is vncleane.

37 But if he see the freat stande still, and that there is blacke heare growne vp therein, the fret is healed, and he shall be cleane, and the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

38 If there bee many white spottes in the skinne of the flesh of man or woman, 39 The Priest shall loke vpon it: and if the spottes in the skin of their flesh be somwhat dark and white withal, it is a frekle growing in the skinne: therefore he is cleane.

40 And the man, whose heare is fallen off his head, is balde, yet cleane notwithstanding:

41 And he that hath his heare fallen off on the part of his head toward his face, is forehead balde, yet cleane notwithstanding.

42 If there be in the bald head, or balde forehead a whyte reddish soare, there is leprosie sprong vp in his bald head, or bald forehead.

43 And the priest shall loke vpon him: and if the rysing of the soare be white reddishe in his balde heade, or balde forehead, after the maner of leprosie, which is in the skinne of the flesh, 44 Then he is a leprous man and vncleane: And the Priest shall make him vncleane, for the plague thereof is in his heade.

45 The lepre in whome the plague is, shall haue his clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a couering vpon his lippes, and shall crie, vncleane, vncleane.

46 And as long as the disease lasteth vpon him, he shall be defiled and vncleane: he shal dwell alone, euen without the campe shall his habitation be.

47 The garment also, that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a lynnen garment.

48 Whether it be in the warpe, or woofe, of lynnen, or of woollen, eyther in a skinne, or in any thing made of skinne:

49 If the disease be light greene or somwhat reddish in the garment or skin, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or any thing, that is made of skin, then it is a plague of leprosie, and shalbe shewed vnto the Priest.

50 The Priest therefore shall see the plague, and shut it vp seuen dayes.

G 51 And he shall loke on the plague the seuenth day, which, if it bee increased in the garmẽt, whether it be in ỹ warpe or woofe, or in a skin, or in any thing that is made of skin, it is the leprosie of a fretting soare: it is vncleane.

52 And he shall burne that garment, eyther warp or woofe, whether it be woollen or linnen, or any thing that is made of skinne, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie, it shalbe burnt in the fire.

53 If the Priest see that the plague is not growne in the garment, either in the warpe or woof, or in whatsoeuer thing of skin it be,

54 The Priest shall commaunde them to wash the thing, wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it vp seuen dayes moe.

55 And the priest shal loke on the plague againe after that it is washed: & if the plague haue not chaunged his colour, and be spread no further abroade, it is vncleane, thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is freat inwarde, whether it be balde behinde (in the heade) or balde before.

56 And if the priest see, that the plague is darker, after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.

57 And if it appeare still in the garment, eyther in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing thing made of skin, it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burne that wherein the plague is, with fire.

58 Moreouer, the garment, eyther warpe or woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be, which thou hast washed, if the plague be departed therefrom, it shall be washed once againe, and then it shal be cleane.

59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment, whether it be woollen or linnen, eyther in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing of skinnes, to make it cleane, or vncleane.

The.xiiij. Chapter.

3. The clensing of the lepre. 34. and of the house that he is in.

1 AND the lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 This is the law of the lepre in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought vnto the priest.
3 And the Priest shall goe out without the campe, and the Priest shall looke vpon him, and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the lepre,
4 Then shall the Priest commaund him that is cleansed, to take for him, two liue sparowes and cleane, and Cedar wood, and a scarlet (lase) and hysope.
5 And the priest shall commaunde, that one of the sparrowes be killed in an earthen vessel, and vpon running water.
6 And hee shall take the liuing birde, with the Cedar wood, the scarlet (lase) and the hysope, and shal dyp them, and the liuing bird, in the bloud of the slaine byrde, vpon the running water:
7 And he shall sprinckle vpon him that must be cleansed of his leprosie seuen tymes, and cleanse him, and shall let the liuing byrde go free into the field.
8 And he that is cleansed, shal wash his clothes, and shaue off all his heare, & wash him selfe in water, that he may be cleane: and after that shal he come into the host, and shall tarie without his tent seuen dayes:
9 But in the seuenth day he shal shaue off al his heare, (namely) his heade, his beарde, and his browes, euen all his heare shall bee shauen off: and he shall washe his clothes, and also washe his flesh in water, and hee shalbe cleane.
10 In the eight daye hee shal take two hee lambes without blemish, and an ewe lamb of a yeare olde without blemishe, and three tenth deales of fine flowre, for a meat offring mingled with oyle, and a (a) logge of oyle,
11 And the Priest that maketh him cleane, shal bring the mā that is to be made cleane, and those things, before the Lord at ỹ dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
12 And the priest shall take one lambe, and offer him for a trespasse offering, and the logge of Oyle, and waue them for a waue offering before the Lorde.
13 And he shall slay the lambe in the place, where the sinne offering, and the burnt offring are slaine, euen in the holy place: for as the sinne offering is the priests, euen so is the trespasse offering, seeing it is most holy.
14 And the priest shal take of the bloud of the trespasse offering, and put it vpon the tip of the right eare of him that is to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.
15 The Priest shal take of the logge of oyle, and poure it into the palme of his leaft hande:
16 And he shall dippe his right finger in the oyle, that is in his left hande, and sprinckle of the oyle with his finger, seuen tymes before the Lorde:
17 And of the rest of the oyle, ỹ is in his hand, shall the priest put vpon the tip of the right eare of hym that is for to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote, euen vpon the bloud of the trespasse offering.
18 And the remnant of the oyle, that is in the priestes hande, he shall poure vpon the heade of him, that is for to be clensed, and the priest shall make an attonement for him before the Lorde.
19 And the priest shal offer the sinne offering, and make an attonement for him that is to be cleansed from his vncleanneſſe, and then shall he kill the burnt offering.
20 And the priest shal offer the burnt offring, and the meate offering vpon the aultar: and the priest shall make an attonement for him, and he shalbe cleane.
21 If he be poore, and can not get so much, he shal take one lambe for a trespasse offering, to waue it for his attonement, and a tenth deale of fine flowre mingled with oyle, for a meate offering, and a logge of oyle,
22 And two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, such as he is able to get: whereof the one shalbe for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering.
23 And he shal bring them the eight day for his cleansing, vnto the priest before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lorde.
24 And the priest shal take the lambe that is for the trespasse offering, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offering

before

(a) This measure in Hebrue called logge, is the quantitie of two egges full.

before the Lorde.
25 And he shal kill the lambe for the trespasse offering, and the priest shal take of the bloud of the trespasse offering, and put it vpon the tip of his right eare, that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.
26 And the priest shall poure of the oyle into the palme of his owne left hande:
27 And the priest shall with his right finger, sprinckle of the oyle, that is in his left hande, seuen tymes before the Lorde.
28 And the priest shall put of the oyle, that is in his hande, vpon the tippe of the right eare of him that is to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote, euen in the place, where the bloude of the trespasse offering was put.
29 And the rest of the oyle, that is in the priests hande, hee shall put vpon the heade of him, that is to be clēsed, that he may make an attonement for him before the Lorde.
30 And he shall offer one of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons, such as he can get.
31 Such (I say) as he is able to get: the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meate offering: And the priest shall make an attonement for him, that is to be cleansed, before the Lorde.
32 This is the lawe of him, in whom is the plague of leprosie, and whose hande is not able to get that, whiche pertayneth to his cleansing.
33 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,
34 When ye be come into the lande of Chanaan, which I giue you in possession, if I put the plague of leprosie in a house of the lande of your possession:
35 He that oweth the house shall come, and tell the priest, saying, Me thinketh that there is as it were a plague in the house.
36 Then the priest shall commaund them to emptie the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made vncleane: and then must the priest go in to see the house.
37 And he shall see the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the house, and that there be hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which seeme to bee lower than the wall it selfe:
38 Then the priest shall go out of the house, to the doore of the house, and shutte vp the house seuen dayes.
39 And the priest shall come againe the seuenth day, and if he see that the plague be encreased in the walles of the house, 40 Then the priest shall commaund them to take away the stones in which the plague is, and let them cast them into a fowle place without the Citie.
41 And he shall commaunde the house to be scraped within rounde about, and poure out the dust that they scrape off, without the Citie into a fowle place.
42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones, and other morter to plaster the house withall.
43 And if the plague come again, and breake out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and scraped the house, and after that he hath plastered the house,
44 Then the priest shal come and see it: and if that the plague haue growne further in the house, it is a fretting leprosie in the house, it is therefore vncleane.
45 And he shall breake downe the house, and the stones of it, and the tymber thereof, and all the morter of the house: and he shall carie them out of the citie into a fowle place.
46 Moreouer, he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut vp, shalbe vncleane vntill the euentide.
47 Hee also that sleepeth in the house, shall wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shal wash his clothes.
48 And if the Priest come and see, that the plague hath spread no further in the house, after that it is newe plastered: the priest shal iudge that house cleane, bycause the plague is healed.
49 And let him take to clense the house withall two byrdes, Cedar wood, and a scarlet (lase) and hysope.
50 And he shall kill one of the byrdes in an earthen vessell, and vpon running water:
51 And take the Cedar wood, and the Hysope, and the scarlet (lase) with the liuing byrde, and dippe them in the bloud of the slaine byrde, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seuen tymes.
52 And he shal clense the house with the bloud of the byrde, and with the running water, with the liuing byrd, with the Cedar wood, and the hysope, and the scarlet (lase.)
53 But he shal let ỹ liuing bird flee out of the towne into the byrde fields, and so make an attonement for the house, & it shalbe cleane.

The.xv.Chapter.

2. 19. The maner of purging the vncleanneſſe both of men and women. 31. The children of Iſraell muſte ſeparate themſelues from vncleanneſſe.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraell, and ſay vnto them, Whoſoeuer hath a running iſſue out of his fleſhe, is vncleane by reaſon of that iſſue.
3 And this ſhalbe his vncleanneſſe in his iſſue: If his fleſh runne, or if his fleſh be ſtopped from his iſſue, then it is vncleanneſſe.
4 Euery bed whereon he lyeth, that hath the iſſue, is vncleane: and euery thing whereon he ſitteth, is vncleane
5 Whoſoeuer toucheth his bed, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
6 And he that ſitteth on any thing, whereon he ſate that hath the iſſue, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
B 7 He that toucheth the fleſh of him, that hath the iſſue, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and bee vncleane vntyll the euen.
8 If hee alſo, that hath the iſſue, ſpit vpon him that is cleane, he ſhall waſh his clothes, and bath himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
9 And what ſaddle ſoeuer he rydeth vpon that hath the iſſue, ſhalbe vncleane.
10 And whoſoeuer toucheth any thing that was vnder him, ſhal be vncleane vntill the euen: And he that beareth any ſuch things, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen:
11 And whom ſo euer he toucheth that hath the iſſue, and hath not waſhed his handes in water, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in water, and bee vncleane vntill the euen.
12 The veſſel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the iſſue, ſhalbe broken: And all veſſels of wood ſhalbe renſed in water. Ma.6.d.
13 When he alſo, that hath any iſſue, is cleanſed of his iſſue, hee ſhall number him ſeuen dayes for his cleanſing, and waſhe his clothes, and bathe himſelfe in running water, and ſo ſhall he be cleane.
C 14 And the eight day hee ſhall take to him two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lorde, vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and gyue them vnto the prieſt.
15 And the prieſt ſhall offer them, the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and the prieſt ſhall make an attonement for him before the Lorde, as concerning his iſſue.
16 If any mans ſeede depart from him in his ſleepe, he ſhall waſh all his fleſhe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
17 And euerye garment, and euery ſkinne, wherein is ſuch ſeede of ſleepe, ſhall be waſhed with water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
18 And if he that hath ſuch an iſſue of ſeede, do lye with a woman, they ſhal both waſhe themſelues with water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
19 Alſo if a woman ſhal haue an iſſue, (and) hir iſſue in hir fleſhe ſhalbe bloud, ſhe ſhalbe put apart ſeuen dayes: whoſoeuer toucheth hir, ſhalbe vncleane vntil the euen.
20 And all that ſhe lyeth vpon in the time of hir ſeparation, ſhalbe vncleane: like as euery thing alſo, that ſhe ſitteth vpon, is vncleane.
21 Whoſoeuer toucheth hir bed, ſhal waſh his clothes, and bath himſelfe with water, and D be vncleane vntil the euen.
22 And whoſoeuer toucheth anye thing that ſhe ſate vpon, ſhall waſhe his clothes, and bath himſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
23 So that whether he touche hir bed, or any veſſel, whereon ſhe hath ſitten, he ſhalbe vncleane vntill the euen.
24 And if a man lye with hir, and hir ſeparation come vpon him, he ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes: and all the bedde whereon hee lyeth, ſhalbe vncleane. Leuit.18.c.
25 Alſo if a womã haue an iſſue of hir bloud many dayes, out of the tyme of hir ſeparation, or if it runne beyonde hir ſeparation, let al the dayes of the iſſue of hir vncleanneſſe, be euen as the dayes of hir ſeparation, (for) ſhe is vncleane.
26 Euery bed whereon ſhe lyeth, as long as hir iſſue laſteth, ſhalbe vnto hir as the bed of hir ſeparation, and whatſoeuer ſhee ſitteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, as the vncleanneſſe of hir ſeparation.
27 And whoſoeuer toucheth anye of theſe, ſhalbe vncleane, and ſhal waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelf in water, and be vncleane vntil the euen.
28 But if ſhe be cleanſed of hir iſſue, ſhe ſhal E count hir ſeuen dayes, and after that ſhe ſhal be cleane.
29 And in the eight day ſhe ſhal take vnto hir two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, and bring them vnto the prieſt, before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And

30 And the priest shal offer the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt offring, & make an attonement for hir before the lord, as concerning the issue of hir vncleannesse.

31 Thus shall ye syft the children of Israell from their vncleannesse, that they die not in their vncleannesse: if they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the lawe of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seede runneth from him in his sleepe, and is defiled therein:

33 Also for hir, that for hir separation is put a part: and of whosoeuer hath a running issue, whether it be man or woman: and of him, that lieth with hir which is vncleane.

The.xvi.Chapter.

2. VVhat Aaron must doe. 8. Of the scape goate. 14 The cleansing of the sanctuarie. 17. Of the feast of the cleansing. 21. Aaron confesseth the sinnes of the children of Israell.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, after Leuit.10.a. the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when they offred before the Lord and dyed.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at al times into ỹ holy place within the vayle, before the mercie seate, which is vpon the arke, that he die not: For I will appeare in 2.Reg.8.b. the cloude vpon the mercie seate.

3 But with this thing shall Aaron come into the holy place, euen with a yong bullocke for a sinne offering, and with a ramme for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put the holy lynnen coate vpon him, and shall haue lynnen breeches vpon his flesh, and shall be gyrded with a lynnen gyrdle, and with a lynnen cappe shall he bee attyred. These are holy garments: therefore shall he wash his flesh in water when he doth put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel, two hee Goates for a sinne offering, and a Ramme for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullocke for his Heb.9.b. sinne offering, and make an attonement for him and for his house.

B 7 And he shall take the two hee Goates, and present them before the Lorde, at the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lottes ouer the two Goates: one lot shall be for the Lord, and the other for the scape Goate.

9 And Aaron shall bring the Goate, vpon which the Lordes lot fell, and offer him for a sinne offering.

10 But the Goate on which the lot fell to be the scape Goate, shall be set aliue before the Lorde, to reconcile with, and to let him goe as a scape Goate into the wildernesse.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullocke for his sinne offering, and reconcile for him selfe and for his house, and shall kill the bullock for his sinne offering.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coales from off the aulter before the Lorde, and shall fill his hand full of sweete incense beaten smal, & bring them within the vayle.

13 And put the incense vpon the fire before the Lord, that the cloude of the incense may couer the mercie seate, that is vpon the witnesse, and he shall not die.

14 And he shall take of the bloud of the bullocke, and sprinckle it with his finger vpon C the mercie seate Eastwarde, and before the mercie seate shal he sprinckle of the bloud with his finger, seuen tymes.

15 Then shall hee kill the Goate that is the peoples sinne offering, and bring his bloud within the vayle, and do with that bloud, as he did with the bloud of the bullock, sprinkling it vpon the mercie seate, and before the mercie seate.

16 And he shal reconcile the holy place from the vncleannesse of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses in all their sinnes: And ly shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that is set among them, euen among their vncleannesse.

17 And let there be no bodie in the tabernacle of the congregation, when hee goeth in to make an attonement in the holy place, vntil he come out, and haue made an attonement for him selfe, and for his houshold, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shal go out vnto the aultar, that is before the Lorde, and reconcile vpon it, and shal take of the bloud of the bullocke, and of the bloud of the Goate, and put it vpon the hornes of the aultar round about.

19 So shall he sprinckle of the bloud vpon it with his finger seuen tymes, and cleanse it, and halowe it from the vncleannesse of the children of Israel.

20 And when hee hath made an ende of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the aultar, he shall bring the line Goate.

21 And Aaron shall put both his handes vp- D
Exod.30.b on the heade of the line Goate, and confesse ouer him all the misdeedes of the children of Israell, and all their trespasses in all their sinnes, putting them vpon the heade of the Goate, and sende him away by the hande of a conuenient man, into the wildernesse.

22 And

22 And the goate ſhall beare vpon him all their miſdeedes, vnto the land of (a) ſepara-tion, and hee ſhall let the goate go into the wildernesse.

(a) That is, a land where no man dwelleth.

23 After, Aaron ſhall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and put off the lynnen clothes, whiche hee put on when he went in into the holye place, and leaue them there.

24 And let him waſhe his fleſhe with water in the holy place, and put on his owne ray-ment, and then come out, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an attonement for himſelfe, and for the people.

25 And the fat of the ſinne offering ſhall bee burne vpon the aulter.

26 And hee that caryeth forth the Goate for the ſcape Goate, ſhal waſh his clothes, and bathe his fleſh in water, and then come into the hoſt.

27 And the bullocke for the ſinne offering, and the goate for the ſinne offering, whoſe bloud was brought in to cleanſe the holye place, ſhall one carie out without the hoſt to be burnt in the fire, with their ſkinnes, theyr fleſh, and their dung.

28 And he that burneth them, ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe his fleſhe in water, and then come into the hoſt.

29 And this ſhall be an ordinaunce for euer vnto you: that in the tenth day of the ſeuenth moneth, ye humble your ſoules, and doe no worke at al, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a ſtraunger that ſoiourneth among you.

30 For that day ſhall the prieſt make an attonement for you, to cleanſe you, and that ye may be cleane from al your ſinnes, before the Lorde.

31 Let it be a Sabboth of reſt vnto you, and ye ſhal humble your ſoules by an ordinance for euer.

32 And the Prieſt whome he ſhall annoynt, and whom he ſhall conſecrate to miniſter in his fathers ſteed, ſhal make the attonement, and ſhall put on the linnen clothes, and holy veſtiments,

33 And ſhall reconcile the holye ſanctuarie, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and ſhall cleanſe the aulter, and make an attonement for the prieſts, and for all the people of the congregation.

Exod. 30. b. 34 And this ſhall bee an euerlaſting ordi-naunce vnto you, to make an attonement for the children of Iſraell, for al their ſinnes once a yeare. And he did as the Lord commaunded Moſes.

The. xvij. Chapter.

4. All ſacrifice muſt bee brought to the doore of the tabernacle. 7. To diuels may they not offer. 10. They may not eate bloud.

1 AND the lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto hys ſonnes, and vnto all the children of Iſraell, and ſay vnto them, This is the thing, which the Lorde hath charged, ſaying,

3 What man ſo euer of the houſe of Iſraell killeth an oxe, or lambe, or goate in the hoſt, or that killeth it out of the hoſt,

4 And bringeth it not vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering vnto the Lord before the dwelling place of the Lorde, (a) bloud ſhall be imputed vnto that man, he hath ſhed bloud, & that man ſhalbe cut off from among his people.

a. That man ſhalbe charged with as muche as if he had killed a man.

5 Wherefore, when the children of Iſraell bring their offerings, that they offer in the wilde fielde, they ſhall bring them vnto the Lorde, euen vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation by the prieſt, to offer them for peace offerings vnto the Lorde.

6 And the prieſt ſhall ſprinckle the bloud vpon the aulter of the Lorde, which is before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burne the fatte for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.

7 And let them no more offer their offrings vnto diuels, after (b) whom they haue gone a whoring: This ſhal be an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generations.

b. Being giuen and redy to the worſhipping of them, and to commit Idolatrie.

8 And thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Whatſo-euer man it be of the houſe of Iſraell, or of the ſtraungers, which ſoiourne among you, that offereth a burnt offering, or ſacrifice, 9 And bringeth it not vnto the (c) dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it vnto the Lord, that man ſhal be cut off from among his people.

c. That they might haue no occaſion to commit idolatrie, or to ſwarue frō the law of God.

10 And whatſoeuer man it be of the houſe of Iſraell, or of the ſtraungers that ſoiourne among you, that eateth any maner of bloud, I will ſet my face againſt that ſoule, that eateth bloud, and will cut him off from among his people:

11 For the life of the fleſh is in the bloud, and I haue giuen it vnto you vpon the aulter, to make an attonement for your ſoules: for this bloud ſhal make an attonement for the ſoule.

12 Therefore I ſayde vnto the children of Iſraell, let no ſoule of you eate bloud, neyther let any ſtraunger, that ſoiourneth among you, eate bloud.

13 And whatſoeuer man it be of the children of Israel, or of the straungers that soiourne among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or foule, that may be eaten, let him poure out the bloud thereof, and couer it with dust.

14 For the life of the flesh is the bloud of it (ioyned) with his lyfe: therefore I sayde vnto the children of Israell, Ye shall eate the bloud of no maner of flesh, for the life of all flesh is the bloud thereof: whosoeuer eateth it, shalbe cut off.

Gen.9.a. Leuit.4.d. and.18.d.

15 And euerie soule that eateth it, whiche dyed alone, or that which was torne wyth wilde beastes, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a straunger, he shal wash his clothes, and bathe himselfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen: and then shall he be cleane.

16 If he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh, he shall beare his sinne.

The.xviij.Chapter.

3. The Israelites may not walke after the maner of the Egyptians, nor Chanaanites.
6. VVhat degrees of kinred may marrie together.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israell, & say vnto them, I am the Lord your God.
3 After the doings of the lande of Egypt wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not doe: and after the doings of the land of Chanaan, whither I will bring you, shall ye not do: neyther walke in their ordinances.
4 But do after my iudgements, and keepe mine ordinaunces, to walke therein: I am the Lorde your God.

Rom.10.a. Galat.3.b. Ezec.20.b.

5 Ye shall keepe therefore mine ordinaunces, and my iudgements: which if a man do, he shal liue in them: I am the Lorde.
6 None shall approch to any kynred of hys flesh, for to vncouer their nakednesse: I am the Lorde.
7 The nakednesse of thy father, and the nakednesse of thy mother, shalt thou not vncouer, for she is thy mother, therfore shalt thou not discouer hir nakednesse.

Gen.19.g. Ezec.22.c.

8 The nakednesse of thy fathers wife shalt thou not discouer: for it is thy fathers nakednesse.

Deut.22.d. and.27.c.

9 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at (a) home, or without.

1.Cor.5.a.

a. That is, it is not lawfull for any mā to vncouer the nakednesse of his sister borne by one father and mother, nor his sister the daughter of his father, nor his sister the daughter of his mother, in matrimonie, or otherwise.

10 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy sons daughter, or thy daughters daughter, for that is thine owne nakednesse.
11 The nakednesse of thy fathers wyues daughter begotten of the father, whiche is thy syster: thou shalt not discouer hir nakednesse.
12 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy fathers sister: for shee is thy fathers kinswoman.
13 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy mothers sister: for shee is thy mothers kinswoman.
14 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy fathers brother, that is, thou shalt not go in vnto his wife, which is thine aunt.
15 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy daughter in lawe, for she is thy sonnes wyfe: therefore shalt thou not vncouer hir nakednesse.
16 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy brothers wife, for that is thy brothers nakednesse.
17 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of the wife and hir daughter, neither shalt thou take hir sonnes daughter, or hir daughters daughter, to vncouer theyr nakednesse: For they are hir kinswomen, and it were wickednesse.
18 Thou shalt not take a wife & hir sister also, to vexe hir, that thou wouldst vncouer hir nakednesse, vpon hir in hir life (time.)
19 Thou shalt not go vnto a woman to vncouer hir nakednesse, as long as she is put apart for hir vncleannesse.
20 Moreouer, thou shalt not lye with thy neighbours wife, to defile hir with seede.
21 Thou shalt not giue of thy (b) seede, to offer it vnto Moloch, neyther shalt thou defile the name of thy God: I am the Lorde.
22 Thou shalt not lye with mankynde, as with womankinde, for it is abhomination.
23 Thou shalt lye with no maner of beast, to defyle thy selfe therewith: neyther shal any woman stande before a beast to lye downe thereto, for it is vnnaturall confusion.
24 Ye shall not defile your selues in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled, which I cast out before you.
25 Wherethrough the lande is defiled, and I will visite the wickednesse thereof vpon it: yea and the lande it selfe hath vomited out hir inhabitants.
26 Ye shall keepe therefore mine ordinances and my iudgements, and commit none of these abhominations, neyther any of your owne nation, nor any stranger that soiourneth among you:
27 (For al these abhominations haue the men of the lande done, whiche were before you, and the lande is defiled.)
28 Shal not the lande spew you out also, if ye ye defile it, as it spewed out the Nations that were before you?

29 For whosoeuer shall cõmit any of these abhominations, the soules that commit the same, shalbe cut off frõ amõg their people.
30 Therefore shall ye keepe mine ordinances, that ye commit not one of these abhominable customes, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not your sel-ues therein: I am the Lord your God.

b. That is, winketh and neglecteth to kill him.

4 And though that the people of the lande (b) hyde theyr eyes from the man, that gyueth his children vnto Moloch, and kyll him not:

5 Yet I wil put my face against that man, and against his kynred, and will cut him off, and all that goe a whoring after him to cõmit whordome with Moloch, from among their people.

6 If a soule turne him selfe after such as worke with spirits, and after soothsayers, to go a whoring after them, I will put my face agaynst that soule, and will cut hym off from among his people.

7 Sanctifie your selues therefore, and be holy: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 Keepe ye mine ordinances, and do them: I am the Lorde which sanctifie you.

9 Whosoeuer he bee that dispiseth hys father, or his mother, let him die: for he hath diminished the estimation of his father and mother: his blood be vpon him.

10 And the man that breaketh wedlock with another mans wyfe, which breaketh wedlocke (I say) wyth his neighbours wyfe, let both the adulterer, and the adultresse bee slaine.

11 And the man, that lieth with his fathers wyfe, and vncouereth his fathers nakednesse: let them both die, their bloud bee vpon them.

12 If a man lie with his daughter in lawe, let thē die both of them: they haue wrought abhomination, their bloud be vpon them.

13 If a man also lie with mankinde, after the maner as with womankinde, they haue both committed an abhomination: let them die, their bloud be vpon them.

14 And if a man take a wyfe, and hir mother also, it is wickednesse: they shall burne with fire both him and them, that there be no wickednesse among you.

15 And if a man lie with a beast, let him die: and ye shall slea the beast also.

16 If a woman goe vnto any beast, and lye downe thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast also: let them dye, theyr bloud be vpon them.

17 If a man take his sister, hys fathers daughter or his mothers daughter, and see hir nakednesse, and she his nakednesse, it is a wicked thing, they shalbe cut off in the sight of their people: he hath vncouered his sisters nakednesse, he shall beare his sinne.

18 If a man lie with a woman hauing hir naturall disease, and vncouer hir nakednesse, and open hir fountayne, and shee also open the fountayne of hir bloud, they shall both be cut off from among their people.

19 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy mothers sister, nor of thy fathers sister: for he that doth so, hath vncouered his next kinne, they shall beare theyr misdoing.

20 If a man lye with his vncles wyfe, and vncouer his vncles nakednesse, they shall beare their sinne, and shall die childlesse.

21 If a man take his brothers wife, it is an vncleane thing: he hath vncouered his brothers nakednesse, they shall be childlesse.

22 Yee shall keepe therefore all myne ordinances, and al my iudgemēts, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwel therein, spew you not out.

23 Ye shall not walke in the maners of this nation, nation, which I cast out before you: For they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

Deut.9.a.

24 But I haue sayde vnto you, Ye shall inherite their lande, and I will giue it vnto you to possesse it, euen a lande that floweth with milke and honie. I am the Lord your God, which haue separated you from other nations.

25 And therefore shall ye put difference betweene cleane beastes, and vncleane, betweene vncleane foules and cleane: Ye shall not defile your soules in beastes and foules, and in all maner creeping things, that the grounde bringeth forth, which I haue separated from you as vncleane.

26 Therefore shall ye be holy vnto me, for I the Lord am holy, & haue severed you from other nations, that ye should be mine.

Deut.18.b. 1.Re.28.a. 27 If there be a man or woman, that worketh with a spirit, or that is a soothsayer, let them die: Men shall overwhelme them with stones, their bloud be vpon them.

The.xxi.Chapter.

A law for the Priestes.

1 AND the Lord said vnto Moses, Speake vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron, and say vnto them, Let none be defiled by a corse among his people:

2 But by his kinsman, that is nighe vnto him, (that is) by his mother, and his father, by his sonne, and his daughter, and his brother,

3 And by his sister, a mayde, that is nighe (a) vnto him, whom no man hath knowne: for her shall he be defiled.

(a) Both of one father and mother.

4 But he shall not be defiled vpon him, that hath authoritie among his people, to pollute himselfe.

Leuit.19.f. 5 Let them not make baldnesse vpon their head, nor shaue off the lockes of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy vnto their God, and not pollute the name of their God, for the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fyre, (and) the bread of their God they doe offer: therefore they shall be holy.

B 7 Let them not take a wyfe, that is an whore, or polluted, nor put from her husbande: for such a one is holy vnto his God.

1.Tim.2.b. 8 Thou shalt sanctifie him therefore, for he offereth vp the bread of thy God: he shall therefore be holy vnto thee: for I the Lord, which sanctifie you, am holy.

9 If a priests daughter fal to play the whore, she polluteth her father, therefore must she be burnt with fire.

10 He that is the high Priest among his brethren, vpon whose head the annointing oyle was poured, and that consecrated his hande to put on the vestimentes, shall not vncouer his head, nor rent his clothes:

11 Neyther go to any deade bodie, nor make hym selfe vncleane by his father or his mother. Luke.9.g.

12 Neyther shall he go out of the sanctuarie, nor pollute the holy place of his God, for the crowne of the annoynting oyle of his God, is vpon him: I am the Lorde.

13 He shall take a mayde vnto his wyfe. Ezec.44.f.

14 But a widowe, a deuorced woman, or a polluted, or a harlot, these shall he not marrie: but shal take a mayde of his owne people to wife. C

15 Neyther shall he defile his seede among his people: for I am the Lorde, whiche sanctifie him.

16 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

17 Speake vnto Aaron, and say, Whosoeuer of thy seede in their generations hath anye deformitie, let hym not presse for to offer bread vnto his God:

18 For whosoeuer hath any blemish, shal not come neare: as if he be blinde, or lame, or that hath a "bruised nose, or that hath anye misshapen member. 2.Reg.5.b. "or, flat.

19 Or is broken foted, or broken handed,

20 Or croke backt, or bleare eyed, or haue a web, or other blemish in his eies, or be skurfie, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken.

21 No man that hath a blemish, and is of the seede of Aaron the priest, shall come nigh to offer the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire: When hee hath a deformitie, let hym not presse to offer the breade of his God. D

22 Let him eate the breade of his God, euen of the most holy, and of the holy:

23 Onely let him not go in vnto the vayle, nor come nigh the aultar, because hee is deformed, that he pollute not my sanctuarie: for I am the Lorde that sanctifie them.

24 And Moses told it vnto Aaron and to his sonnes, and to all the children of Israel.

The.xxii.Chapter.

3. WHo ought to absteyne from eating the things, that were offered. 19. How, what, and when they should be offered.

1 AND the lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto Aaron, and his sonnes, that they be separated from the holy things of the children of Israell, and that they pollute not my holye name in those things, whiche they halowe vnto mee: I am the Lorde.

3 Say vnto them, Whosoeuer he bee of all your seede among your generations after you, that goeth vnto the holy things, which the children of Israel halow vnto the Lord, hauing his vncleannesse vppon him, that soule shall be cut off from out of my sight: I am the Lorde.

Leuit.15.a. 4 What mansoeuer of the seede of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue, hee shall not eate of the holy things, vntill hee bee cleane: And who so toucheth anye man, that is vncleane (by reason) of a dead bodie, or a man, whose seede runneth from him in his sleepe,

5 Or whosoeuer toucheth anye creeping thing, whereby he may be made vncleane: or a man, of whom he may take vncleannesse, whatsoeuer vncleannesse he haue,

6 The same soule that hath touched anye such, shalbe vncleane vntill euen, and shall not eate of the holy things, vntill hee haue washed his flesh with water.

B 7 And when the sunne is downe, he shal be cleane, and shall afterwarde eate of the holy things, forasmuch as it is his foode.

Exod.22.c. 8 Of a beast that dyeth alone, or is rent with wilde beastes, whereby he may be defiled, he shall not eate: I am the Lorde.

9 Let them keepe therefore mine ordinance, least they for the same lade sinne vpon them, and die for it, if they defile it: I the Lorde sanctifie them.

10 There shall no straunger eate of the holy thing, neyther a ghest of the Priestes, nor shall an hyred seruaunt eate of the holye thing.

11 But if the Priest buy any soule with money, hee shall eate of it, lyke as he that is borne in his house: they shall eate of his meate.

12 If the Priestes daughter also be married vnto a straunger, shee may not eate of the halowed heaue offerings:

13 Notwithstanding, if the Priestes daughter be a widowe, or diuorced, and haue no childe, but bee returned vnto his fathers house agayne, shee shall eate of his fathers meate, aswell as she did it in his youth: but there shall no straunger eate thereof.

C 14 If a man eate of the holye thing vnwittingly, he shall put the fifth part thereunto, and giue it vnto the priest, with the halowed thing.

14 And the priestes shall not defile the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer vnto the Lorde:

16 To lade themselues with misdoing and trespasse, while they eate their holy things: for I the Lorde do halow them.

17 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, and vnto all the children of Israell, and say vnto them, Whatsoeuer he be of the house of Israell, or straunger in Israell, that wil offer his sacrifice for all his vowes, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer vnto the Lorde for a burnt offering:

19 Ye shall offer at your pleasure, a male without blemish, of the beeues, of the sheepe, or of the goates.

20 But whatsoeuer hath a blemish, that shall yee not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoeuer bringeth a peaceoffering D vnto the Lorde, to accomplish his vowe, or a freewill offering in beeues or sheepe, it shall be perfite to be accepted: there shall be also no blemish therein.

22 Blinde, or broken, or lame, or hauing a wen, or skuruie, or scabbed: ye shall not offer such vnto the Lorde, nor put a burnt offering of any such vpon the aultar vnto the Lorde.

23 A bullock, or a sheepe, that hath any member superfluous, or lacking, mayest thou offer for a freewill offering: but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Yee shall not offer vnto the Lorde that which is bruised or crushed, or broken, or cut away, neyther shall you make any offering thereof in your lande.

25 Nor of a straungers hande shall ye offer the bread of your God of any such, bycause their corruption is in them, and they haue deformitie in themselues: and therefore shall they not be accepted for you.

26 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

27 When a bullocke, or a sheepe, or a goate, is brought forth, it shall be seuen dayes vnder the damme: and from the eight day and thenceforth, it shall bee accepted for a burnt sacrifice vnto the Lorde.

28 And whether it be cowe, or ewe, ye shall E not kill it, and hir yong, both in one day.

29 When ye wil offer a thanke offering vnto the Lorde, offer it willingly:

30 And the same day it must be eaten vp, so that ye leaue none of it vntill the morowe: I am the Lorde.

31 Therefore shal ye keepe my commaundements, and do them: I am the Lorde.

32 Neyther shall ye pollute my holy name, but I will be halowed among the children of Israell: I am the Lorde which halowe you, 33 And that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lorde.

1 AND the lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, The feastes of the Lord which ye shall call holy conuocations, euen these are my feastes.
3 Syxe dayes ye shall worke: but the seuenth day is the Sabboth of rest, an holy conuocation, so that ye do no worke therein: it is the Sabboth of the Lord in al your dwellings.
4 These are the feastes of the Lorde, euen holy conuocations, which ye shal proclaime in their seasons.
5 In the fourtenth day of the first moneth at euen, is the Lordes Passeouer.
6 And on the fiftenth day of the same moneth, is the feast of vnleauened breade vnto the Lorde: seuen dayes ye must eate vnleauened bread.
7 In the first day ye shal haue an holy cõuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke therein.
8 But ye shal offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lorde throughout these seuen dayes: and in the seuenth day is an holy conuocation, ye shall do no seruile worke therein.
9 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
10 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say vnto them, When ye be come into the lande whiche I giue vnto you, and reape downe the harueste thereof, ye shal bring a sheafe of the first fruites of your harueste vnto the priest:
11 Whiche shall waue the sheafe before the Lorde to be accepted for you: and euen the morrowe after the Sabboth, the priest shall waue it.
12 And ye shall offer that day, when ye waue the sheafe, an hee lambe without blemishe of a yeare olde, for a burnt offering vnto the Lorde:
13 And the meate offering thereof, shall bee made of two tenth deales of fine floure mingled with oyle, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde for a sweete sauour: and the drinke offering thereof shall be of wine, euen the fourth deale of an hin.
14 And ye shall eate neyther bread, nor parched corne, nor greene eares, vntill the selfe same day that ye haue brought an offering vnto your God: Let this be a law for euer in your generatiõs, in al your dwellings.
15 And ye shal count vnto you from the morowe after the Sabboth, euen from the day, that ye brought the sheafe of the waue offering, seuen Sabbothes they shall bee complet:
16 Euen vnto the Morowe after the seuenth Sabboth shall ye number fiftie dayes, and ye shall bring a newe meate offering vnto the Lorde.
17 And ye shal bring out of your habitations two waue loues made of two tenth deales of fine floure, and that are made with leauen, for first fruites vnto the Lorde.
18 And ye shall bring with the breade seuen lambes without defourmitie, of one yeare of age, and one young bullocke, and two rammes, which shall serue for a burnt offering vnto the Lorde, with their meate offerings, and their drinke offerings, to be a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde. Num.28.d.
19 Then ye shall prepare an hee Goate for a sinne offering, and two lambes of one yeare olde for peace offerings.
20 And the priest shall waue them with the breade of the first fruites for a waue offering before the Lorde, and with the two lambes: they shall be holy to the Lorde for the priests.
21 And ye shall proclaime the same day, that it may be an holy conuocation vnto you: ye shall do no seruile worke therein, let it be a law for euer in al your dwellings throughout your generations. D
22 And when ye reape downe the harueste of your lande, thou shalt not make cleane riddance of the corners of thy fielde, when thou reapest, neyther shalt thou make any after gathering of thy harueste, but shalt leaue them vnto the poore, and the straunger: I am the Lorde your God. Leuit.19.b. Deut.24.d.
23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
24 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say, in the seuenth moneth, in the first day of the moneth, shall ye haue Sabboth, euen the remembrance of blowing of trumpets, an holy conuocation. Num.19.a.
25 Ye shall do no seruile worke therein, but offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde.
26 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
27 The tenth day of the selfe seuenth moneth also, is a day of reconciling, therefore shall it be an holy conuocation vnto you, and yee shall "humble your soules, and offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde. Leuit.15.k.
28 Ye shall do no worke the same day, for it is a day of reconciling, to make an attonement for you before the Lord your God. "That is, you shall fast.
29 For whatsoeuer soule it bee, that hum-bleth not it selfe that day, it shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoeuer soule do any worke that day, the same soule will I destroy from among his people.
31 Ye shall do no maner worke therefore: let it be a lawe for euer in your generations, and in all your dwellings.
32 Let it be vnto you a Sabboth of rest, and ye shall humble your soules in the ninth day of the moneth at euen: from euen to euen shall ye celebrate your Sabboth.
Num.29.b. 33 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2.Esdr.5.c. 2.Mac.1.c. 34 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say, The fiftenth day of the same seuenth moneth, is the feast of tabernacles seuen dayes vnto the Lorde.
F 35 The first day is an holy conuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke.
36 Seuen dayes ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, and in the eight day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lorde: It is the solemne assemblie: and ye shall do no seruile worke therein.
37 These are the feastes of the Lorde, which ye shall call holy conuocations, for to offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, Burnt offering, meate offering, sacrifices, and drinke offerings, euerie thing vpon his day:
38 Beside the Sabbothes of the Lorde, and beside your gyftes, beside all your vowes, and all your free offerings, which you giue vnto the Lorde.
39 Moreouer, in the fiftenth day of the seuenth moneth, when ye haue gathered in the fruite of the lande, ye shall keepe holy day vnto the Lorde, seuen dayes: The first day shalbe a Sabboth, lykewise in the eight day shalbe a Sabboth.
40 And ye shall take you in the first day the fruites of goodly trees, braunches of palme trees, and the bowes of thicke trees, and willowes of the broke, and shal reioyce before the Lorde your God seuen dayes.
G 41 And ye shall keepe this feast vnto the lord seuen dayes in the yeare: it shall be a lawe for euer in your generations, that yee keepe it in the seuenth moneth.
42 Ye shall dwell in bothes seuen dayes: euen all that are Israelites borne, shal dwel in bothes:
43 That your children after you may know, howe that I made the children of Israell to dwell in bothes, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.
44 And Moses declared vnto the children of Israell the feastes of the Lorde.

The.xxiiij. Chapter.

1. The oyle for the lampes. 15. He that blasphemeth must he stoned. 17. He that killeth shalbe killed, &c.

1 AND the lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Commaunde the children of Israell, that they bring vnto thee pure oyle Oliue beaten, for the light, to cause the lampes to burne continually.
3 Without the vayle of witnesse in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron dresse them both euening and morning before the Lorde alwayes: let it be a law for euer in your generations.
4 He shall dresse the lampes vpon the pure candlesticke before the Lorde perpetually.
5 And thou shalt take fine floure, and bake twelue cakes thereof, two tenth deales shalbe in one cake.
6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes, six on a row, vpon the pure table before ỹ lord.
7 And put pure frankincense vpon ỹ rowes, that they may be bread of remembrance, and an offering made by fire vnto the Lorde.
8 Euery Sabboth hee shall put them in rowes before the Lorde euermore, of the children of Israell shall they be offered for an euerlasting couenant.
9 And they shalbe Aarons, and his sonnes, which shall eate them in the holy place: For they are most holy vnto him of the offrings of the Lorde made by fire, by a perpetuall statute.
10 And the sonne of an Israelitish wife, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israell: and this sonne of the Israelitishe wife, and a man of Israell stroue togither in the host.
11 And the Israelitishe womans sonne (a) blasphemed the name of the Lorde, and cursed, and they brought him vnto Moses: His mothers name was Selomith, which was the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.
12 And they put him in warde, that the mynde of the Lorde might bee shewed them.
13 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
14 Bring the cursed speaker without the host, and let all that heard him, put their handes vpon his heade, and let all the multitude stone him.
15 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israell, saying, Whosoeuer curseth hys God, shal beare his sinne.
16 And who so blasphemeth the name of the Lord, let him be slaine, and all the multitude shal stone him to death: Whether he be be borne in the lande or a straunger, when he blaspheneth the name of the Lorde, let hym be slayne.

Exod. 21. b. 17 And who so killeth any man, let him dye the death.

18 And who so killeth a beast, let him make him good, beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemishe in hys neyghbour: as he hath done, so shall it be done to hym.

Mat. 5. f. Exod. 21. c. 20 Breache for breache, eye for eye, and toth for toth: euen as he hath blemished a man, so shall he be blemished agayne.

D 21 And who so killeth a beast, let him restore it: and who so killeth a man, let him dye.

22 Ye shal haue one manner of law, euē for the straūger aswel, as for one of your owne countrey: for I am the Lorde your God.

23 And Moses tolde the chyldren of Israel, and they brought him, that had cursed, out of the host, and stoned hym with stones: And the chyldren of Israel did as the Lord commaunded Moses.

The. xxv. Chapter.

2. The Sabboth of the seuen yeeres, 8. and of the yeare of Iubilee, otherwyse called the fiftieth yeare. 23. The sale, and redeeming of landes, houses, and persons.

I 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israell, and say vnto them, When ye be come into the lande whiche I giue you, the land shal rest and keepe Sabboth vnto the Lorde.

3 Sixe yeares thou shalte sowe thy fielde, and sixe yeares thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather in the fruyte thereof.

Deut. 15. a. 4 But the seuenth yeare shalbe a Sabboth of rest vnto the land, the Lordes Sabboth it shalbe: thou shalt neyther sowe thy field, nor cut thy vineyarde.

5 That, which groweth of the owne accord of thy harueste, thou shalt not reape, neyther gather the grapes that thou haste left behinde: for it is a yeare of rest vnto the land.

6 And the rest of the lande shalbe meate for you, euen for thee, for thy seruaunt, and for thy mayde, for thy hyred seruaunt, and for the straunger that soiourneth with thee:

B 7 And for thy cattell, and for the beasts, that are in thy lande, shall all the encrease therof be meate:

8 And thou shalte number seuen Sabbothes of yeares vnto thee, euen seuen times seuen yeares, and the space of the seuē Sabbothes of yeares will be vnto thee nine and fourtie yeares.

9 And then thou shalt cause to blowe the trumpet of the Jubile in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth, euen in the day of attonement shall yee make the trumpe blowe throughout all your lande.

10 And ye shall halowe that yeare, euen the fiftieth yeare, and proclayme libertie throwout all the land, vnto all the inhabiters thereof: for it shalbe a Jubilee vnto you, & ye shal returne euery man vnto his possession, & euery man vnto his kinred agayne.

11 A yeare of Jubilee shall that fiftieth yeare be vnto you: Ye shal not sow, neither reape that whiche groweth of it selfe, nor gather the grapes that are left:

12 For that yeare of Jubilee shalbe holy vnto you: but ye shal eate of the encrease therof out of the fielde.

13 In ỹ yeare of this Jubilee ye shal returne euery man vnto his possession agayne.

14 If thou sell ought vnto thy neyghbour, C or buye ought of thy neyghbours hande, ye shal not oppresse one another.

15 But accordyng to the number of yeares after the Jubilee yeare, thou shalte buye of thy neyghbour: and accordyng vnto the number of yeares of the fruytes he shall sel vnto thee.

16 Accordyng vnto the multitude of yeares he shal encrease the pryce thereof, and accordyng to the fewnesse of yeares, he shall minishe the price of it: for the (a) number of fruytes doth he sel vnto thee.

17 Oppresse not ye therefore euery man his neyghbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: For I am the Lorde your God.

18 Wherefore, ye shall do after myne ordinaunces, and keepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shall dwell in the lande in safetie.

19 And the lād shal giue hir fruite, & ye shall eate your fil, and dwel therein in safetie.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eate the seuenth yeare? for we shal not sowe, nor gather in our encrease:

21 I will sende my blessyng vpon you in D the sixth yeare, and it shal bring forth fruite for three yeares.

22 And ye shall sowe the eighth yeare, and eate yet of old fruyte vntil the ninth yeare: euen vntill hir fruytes come, ye shal eate of olde stoare.

23 The lande shal not be solde to (b) waste: for the lande is mine, and ye be but straungers, and soiourners with me, 24 In al the land of your possession, ye shal (c) graunt a redemption for the lande.

26 And if he haue no man to redeeme it, & his hande haue gotten, & founde as much, as may be sufficient to buye it out agayne:
27 Then let him count, howe long it hath bene sold, and deliuer the rest vnto the mā, to whom he solde it, that he may returne to his possession agayne.
28 But if his hande can not get sufficient to restore to the other agayne, then that whiche is solde, shall remayne in the hande of him that hath bought it, vntill the yeare of Iubilee: & in the Iubilee it shall come out, and he shall returne vnto his possession agayne.
29 And if a man sell a dwellyng house in a walled citie, he may buye it out agayne within a whole yeare after it is solde: within a yeare may he redeeme it.
30 But if he buye it not out agayne within the space of a full yeare, then the house, that is in the walled citie, shalbe stablished, as translated to hym that bought it, and to his successours after hym: and shall not goe out in the Iubilee.
31 But the houses of villages, which haue no walles rounde about them, are counted as the fielde of the countrey: and therfore they may be bought out againe, and shall goe out in the Iubilee.

34 But the fielde of the suburbes of their cities may not be solde: for it is their perpetual possession.
35 If thy brother be waren powre, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalte relieue him as a straunger, or soiourner, that he may liue with thee.
36 And thou shalt take none vsurie of him, or vauntage: but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may liue with thee.
37 Thou shalt not giue him thy money vpon vsurie, nor lende him thy victuals for encrease.
38 I am ỳ Lord your God, which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to giue you the land of Chanaan, and to be your God.
39 If thy brother that dwelleth by thee, be waxē powre, & be solde vnto thee, thou shalt not cōpell him to serue, as a bondseruaunt.
40 But as an hyred seruaunt, and as a soiourner he shalbe with thee, and shall serue thee vnto the yeare of Iubilee.
41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he & his children with him, and shal returne vnto his owne kynred againe, and vnto the possession of his fathers shal he returne.
42 For they are my seruauntes whiche I brought out of the land of Egypt, and shal not therefore be solde as bondmen.
43 Thou shalt not rule ouer hym cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.
44 Thy bondseruant, and thy bondmayde, whiche thou shalt haue, shalbe of the heathen, that are rounde about you: of them shall ye purchase seruauntes, and maydes.
45 Moreouer, of the children of the straungers, that are soiourners among you, of them shall ye buye, & of their families, that are with you, whiche they begate in your lande: these shalbe your possession.
46 And ye shall take them as inheritaunce for your children after you, to possesse them for an inheritance, they shalbe your bondmen for euer: but ouer your brethren, the children of Israel, ye shal not rule one ouer an other cruelly.
47 If a soiourner or straunger ware riche by thee, & thy brother that dwelleth by him ware powre, and sel himself vnto the straunger or soiourner by thee, or to the stocke of the straungers kinne:
48 After that he is sold, he may be redeemed agayn, one of his brethrē may redeeme him:
49 Either his vncle, or his vncles sonne may buye him out, or any that is nighe of kinne vnto him of his kinrede, may redeeme him, or if his hande can get so muche, he may be bought out.
50 And he shall recken with hym, that bought him, frō the yeare, that he was solde in, vnto the yeare of Iubilee: and the price of his being, shalbe according vnto the nūber of yeares, according to the time of an hired seruaunt shal he be with hym.
51 If there be yet many yeares behinde, according vnto them, let him giue againe for his deliueraunce, of the money, that he was bought for.
52 If there remaine but few yeares vnto the yeare of Iubilee, let him count with him againe, & according vnto his yeares, let him giue him againe for his redemption.
53 And he shalbe with him yeare by yeare as an hyred seruant: and the other shal not raigne cruelly ouer him in thy sight.
54 If he be not redeemed thus, he shall goe out in the yeare of Iubilee, both he, and his children with him.
55 For vnto me the children of Israell are seruaunts seruaunts, they are my seruaunts, whiche I brought out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

The xxvi. Chapter.

1. They are blessed that keepe those things, whiche God biddeth. 14. A curse to them that breake them.

1 YE shall make you no idols, nor grauen image, neither reare you vp any piller, nor ye shall set vp any image of stone in your lande, to bowe downe vnto it: for I am the Lorde your God.

Deut.5.a.

2 Ye shal keepe my Sabboths, & reuerence my sanctuarie: for I am the Lorde.

3 If ye walke in my ordinaunces, and kepe my commaundements, and do them:

4 I wil sende you rayne in due season, and the lande shall yeelde hyr encrease, and the trees of the fielde shal giue theyr fruite:

5 And your threshyng shall reache vnto the vintage, & the vintage shal reach vnto sowing time: & ye shal eate your bread in plentousnesse, and dwel in your lande safely.

6 And I will sende peace in the lande, and ye shall lie downe without any man to make you afrayde: And I will ridde euill beastes out of the lande, and there shall no swoorde goe throughout your lande.

B 7 And ye shal chase your enimies, and they shall fall before you vpon the swoorde.

Leuit.23.

8 And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you, shall put ten thousande to flight: and your enimies shal fall before you vpon the swoorde.

9 For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you encrease, and multiplie you, and set vp my couenaunt with you.

10 And ye shal eate olde stoare, and cary out olde, bycause of the newe.

Leuit.6.a.

11 And I will make my dwelling place among you, & my soule shall not lothe you.

12 I wyll walke among you, and wyll be your God, and ye shalbe my people.

13 I am the Lord your God which brought you out of the lād of Egypt, that ye should not be theyr bondmen, and I haue broken the chaynes of your yoke, and made you go vpright.

C 14 But if ye will not hearken vnto me, nor will not do after these cōmaundements:

Deut.28.b.

15 And if ye shal despise myne ordinaunces, or if your soule abhorre my lawes, so that ye will not do all my commaundementes, but breake my couenaunt,

Esa.11.a.

16 I also will do this vnto you: For I wil bryng vpon you fearefulnesse, consumption, and the burnyng ague, to consume your eyes, and gender sorow of hart: And ye shal sowe your seede in vayne, for your enimies shal eate it.

17 And I wil set my face agaynst you, and ye shall fall before your enimies: they that hate you, shal raigne ouer you, and ye shall flee, when no man followeth you.

18 And if ye wil not yet for all this hearken vnto me, then will I punishe you seuen times more for your sinnes, Prou.28.a.

19 And wil breake the pryde of your power, and I will make your heauen as iron, and your earth as brasse.

20 And your labour shalbe spent in vain: for your lande shal not giue hyr encrease, nor ẏ trees of the lande shall giue theyr fruites.

21 And if ye walke contrary vnto me, and will not hearken vnto me, I wil bryng seuen times more plagues vpon you, according to your sinnes.

D

22 I will also sende in wilde beastes vpon you, whiche shall robbe you of your children, and destroy your cattell, and make you few in number, and cause your high wayes to be desolate.

23 And if ye may not be reformed by these things, but shall walke contrary vnto me:

24 Then will I also walke contrary vnto you, and will punishe you yet seuen times for your sinnes.

25 And I wil send a swoorde vpon you, that shal auenge my couenaunt: And when ye are gathered together within your cities, I wil send the pestilence amōg you, & ye shalbe deliuered into the hande of the enimie.

26 And when I haue broken the (a) staffe of your bread, (b) tenne wiues shall bake your bread in one ouen, and they shall deliuer you your bread againe by weight, ye shall eate, and not be satisfied.

a. He speaketh thus, bycause that man is susteyned and strengthened by the bread that he eateth, lyke as a person is susteyned by the staffe that he leaneth vpon.

b. The scarsitie shalbe so great, that one litle ouen shal serue for tenne housholdes.

4. Reg. 6. g.

27 And if ye will not yet for al this hearken vnto me, but walke againſt me:

28 I will walke contrary vnto you also in indignation, and will chastise you seuen times more for your sinnes.

29 And ye shal eate the flesh of your sonnes, & the flesh of your daughters shal ye deuour

30 I wil destroy your highe places, and cut away your images, and cast your carkasses vpon the bodies of your idols, and my soule shal abhorre you.

31 And I wil make your cities desolate, and bring your sanctuarie vnto nought, and will not smell the sauour of your sweete odours.

32 I will bring the lande vnto a wildernesse, and your enimies whiche dwell therin, shal wonder at it.

33 And I will strowe you among the heathen,

then, and wil draw out a swoorde after you: and your lande shalbe waste, and your cities desolate.

34 Then shall the lande enioy hyr Sabbothes, as long as it lyeth voyde, and ye shalbe in your enimies land: euen then shal the lande rest, and enioy hyr Sabbothes.

F 35 As long as it lyeth voyde, it shal rest, because it did not rest in your Sabbothes, when ye dwelt vpon it.

36 And vpō them that are left aliue of you, I will sende a fayntnesse into theyr hartes in the landes of theyr enimies: & the sounde of a shakyng leafe shall chase them, and they shall flee, as fleyng from a swoord, they shal fall, no man folowyng vpon them.

37 They shall fall one vpon another, as it were before a swoorde, euen no man folowing vpon them, and ye shal haue no power to stande before your enimies.

38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, & the land of your enimies shall eate you vp.

39 And they that are left of you, shall pyne away in their vnrighteousnesse, (euen) in your enimies landes, and in the misdeedes of their fathers shall they consume with them.

40 And they shall confesse their misdeedes, and the misdeedes of their fathers,, for their trespasse, which they haue trespassed against me, and for that also that they haue walked contrary vnto me.

G 41 Therfore I also wil walke contrary vnto them, and wil bryng them into the lande of their enimies: And then at the least way their vncircumcised harts shalbe tamed, and they shall willingly accept their "sinne.

" That is, the punishment for their sinne

42 Then I will remember my couenaunt with Jacob, & my couenaunt with Isahac, and my couenaunt with Abraham will I remember, and will thinke on the lande.

43 The lande also shalbe left of them, and shall enioy hir Sabbothes, while she lieth waste without them: And they shall willingly accept their sinne, bicause they despised my lawes, and bicause their soule abhorred my ordinaunces.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the lande of their enimies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhorre thē to destroy them vtterly, and to breake my couenaunt with them: for I am the Lord their God. Deut. 4. c.

45 I will for their sakes remember the couenaunt of olde, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lorde.

46 These are the ordinaunces and iudgements, and lawes, whiche the Lorde made betweene him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai, by the hande of Moses.

The. xxvij. Chapter.

1. Of diuers vowes, and of tithes. 28. A thing separate from the vse of man, can not be solde, nor redeemed: but remayneth to the Lorde.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any man wil make a (a) singular vowe of a person vnto the Lorde, by thy estimation,

(a) Or, horrible.

3 Then thy estimation shalbe (thus,) Of the male from twentie yeares olde vnto sixtie, shal be by thy estimation fiftie sicles of siluer, after the sicle of the sanctuary:

4 And if it be a female, then thy valuation shalbe thirtie sicles.

5 And from fiue yeares to twentie, thy valuation shalbe of the male, twentie sicles, and of the female, ten sicles.

6 And from a moneth vnto fiue yeares, thy estimation shalbe of the male at fiue sicles of siluer, and of the female, at three sicles of siluer.

7 And from sixtie yeares olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price shalbe fiftene sicles, and for the female, ten sicles.

8 But if he be poorer thā thou hast esteemed him, he shal present himself before the priest, and the priest shal value him: according as the hande of him that vowed, is able to get, euen so shal the priest value him.

9 If it be a beast, of whiche men bring an offering vnto the Lorde, all that any man giueth of such vnto the Lorde, shalbe holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor chaunge it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: And if he chaūge beast for beast, then both the same beast, & it also wherewith it was chaunged, shalbe holy.

11 If it be any manner of vncleane beast, of whiche men do not offer a sacrifice vnto the Lorde, he shal set the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shal value it, whether it be good or bad, and as the priestes setteth it, so shal it be.

13 But if he wil bye it agayne, he shal giue the fifth part more aboue that it was set at.

14 If any man dedicate his house to be holy vnto the Lord, the priest shal set it, whether it be good or badde: and as the priest hath set it, so shal it stande.

15 And when he that sanctified it, will redeeme his house, let him gyue the fifth part of the money that it was iudged at, thereto, to, and it shalbe his.

16 If a man halowe a peece of his inherited lande vnto the Lorde, thou shalte value it accordyng to the seede thereof: In Homer of barley seede shalbe set at fiftie sicles of siluer.
17 If he halow his fielde immediatly from the yeere of Jubilee, it shalbe worthy accordyng as thou doest esteeme it.
18 But if he halow his fielde after the Jubilee, the priest shall reckon vnto him the money, according to the number of the yeares that remaine vnto the yeares of Jubilee following, and it shalbe abated by thy estimation.
19 If he, that consecrated the fielde, will redeeme it againe, let him put the fifth part of the price, that thou didst value it at, thereunto, and it shalbe his.
20 And if he will not redeeme the field, but will sel the fielde to another man: he (that vowed) may redeeme it no more.
D 21 But when the field goeth out in the yeare of Jubilee, then it shalbe holy vnto the Lord, euen as a field separate from cõmon vses, and it shalbe the priests possession.
22 If a man sanctifie vnto the Lord a field, whiche he hath bought, and is not of the grounde of his inheritaunce:
23 The priest shall reckon vnto him what it is worth vntil the yeare of Jubilee, & he shal giue the price, that it is set at the same day, as a thing consecrate vnto the Lorde.
24 And in the yeare of Jubilee, the field shal returne vnto him, of whom it was bought, to him, whose inheritance of lande it was.
25 And all thy valuation shalbe accordyng to the sicle of the sanctuarie: One sicle conteyneth twentie Gerahs. Exod. 30. b.
26 But the first borne of the beastes, that is the Lordes first borne, may no man sanctifie, whether it be oxe, or sheepe, for it is the Lordes already. Deut. 15. d.
27 If it be an vncleane beast, he shal redeeme it, as thou shalt set it at, & giue the fifth part more thereto: Or if it be not redeemed, it shalbe solde accordyng to thy estimation.
28 Notwithstanding, nothing separate frõ the common vse, that a man dothe separate vnto the Lord of all that he hath, whether it be man or beast, or lande of his inheritance, may be solde nor redeemed: for euery thing separate from the common vse, is most holy vnto the Lorde. E
29 Nothing separate from the common vse, which shalbe separate from man, shalbe redeemed, but die the death.
30 Euery tithe of the lande also, bothe of the seede of the land, & of the fruite of the trees, is the Lordes, & is sanctified vnto the Lord.
31 And if a man wyll redeeme ought of his tithes, let him adde the fifth part thereto.
32 And euery tithe of oxe, & of sheepe, & of euery beast that goeth vnder the (a) rod, euen euery tenth shalbe holy vnto the Lorde.
33 He shall not loke if it be good or bad, nor chaunge it: els if he chaunge it, both it, and that it was chaunged withall, shalbe halowed, and may not be redeemed.
34 These are the commaundementes which the Lord commaunded by Moses, vnto the children of Israel in mount Sinai.

a. That is, euery tenth as it ryseth by tale, whether it be male or female, without acception, or respect.

¶ The ende of the thirde booke of Moses.

This fourth booke of Moses is called the booke of Numbers: bicause in the beginning of Moses and Aaron did number the children of Israel, & that by their tribes.

48 For the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commaunded Moses, euen so did they.

32 These are the summes of the children of Israell throughout the houses of their fathers, euen all the numbers, that pitched throughout their hostes, fiue hundred thousand, three thousand, fiue hundred and fiftie.
33 But the Leuites were not numbred among the children of Israell, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.
F 34 And the children of Israel did accordyng to all that the Lorde commaunded Moses, so they pitched with theyr standerdes, and so they iourneyed euery one throughout their kinreds, accordyng to the housholdes of their fathers.

The. iij. Chapter.

5. The Leuites goe not to battel, but minister in the sanctuarie. 21. They pitche their tents next to the habitation.

1 These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the Lorde spake with Moses in mount Sinai,
2 And these are the names of the sonnes of Aaron: Nadab the eldest sonne, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
3 These are the names of the sonnes of Aaron, whiche were priestes annoynted, and whose hand was consecrated to minister.
4 And Nadab and Abihu dyed before the Lorde, when they offered straunge fire before the Lorde in the wildernesse of Sinai, and had no children: And Eleazar and Ithamar ministred in the sight of Aarõ their father.
5 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
6 Bring the tribe of Leui, and set them before Aaron the priest, ỹ they may serue him:
7 And take the charge with him, euen the charge of the whole congregation, before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the seruice of the tabernacle.
8 They shall keepe all the instrumentes of the tabernacle of the congregation, & haue the charge of the children of Israell, to do the seruice of the tabernacle.
9 And thou shalt giue the Leuites vnto Aaron and to his sonnes, for they are gyuen and deliuered vnto him of the children of Israell.
10 And thou shalt appoynt Aaron and his sonnes to wayte on their priests office: and the straunger that commeth nighe, shalbe slayne.
11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
12 Beholde, I haue taken the Leuites from among the children of Israel, for al the first borne, that openeth the matrice among the children of Israell, and the Leuites shalbe mine.
13 Because all the first borne are myne: for the same day that I smote al the first borne in the land of Egypt, I halowed vnto me, al the first borne of Israell, bothe man and beast, and myne they shall be: I am the Lorde.
14 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, in the wildernesse of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Leui, after the houses houses of theyr fathers in theyr kynredes:

Al that are males from a moneth olde and aboue, shalt thou number.
16 And Moses numbred them, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde, as he was commaunded.
17 And these were ỳ childrẽ of Leui in their names, Gerson, and Caath, and Merari.
18 And these are the names of the children of Gerson in their kinredes: Libni, & Semei.
19 The sonnes of Caath in theyr kinredes:
Amram, Iesaar, Hebron, and Oziel.
20 And the sonnes of Merari in their kyn-redes: Mahli, and Musi. These are the kynredes of the Leuites, accordyng to the houses of their fathers.
D 21 Of Gerson came the kynrede of the Libnites, and the kynrede of the Semeites.
These are the kynredes of the Gersonites.
22 And the summe of them, after the number of all the males, from a moneth olde and aboue, was counted seuen thousande, & fiue hundred.
23 And the kynredes of the Gersonites shall pitche behind the tabernacle Westwarde.
24 The captayne and moste auncient of the house of the Gersonites, shalbe Eliasaph, the sonne of Lael.
25 And the charge of the children of Gerson in the tabernacle of the congregation, couering thereof, and the vayle of the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation:

26 And the hangyngs of the court, and the curtayne of the dore of the court, whiche is round about the tabernacle, and the aulter, and the cordes of it, for al the seruice therof.
27 And of Caath came the kynrede of the Amramites, and the kinrede of the Izecharites, the kynred of the Hebronites, and the kynred of the Ozielites: these are the kin-redes of the Caathites.
E 28 And the number of all the males from a moneth olde and aboue, was eyght thousande, and fiue hundred, hauyng the charge of the sanctuarie.
29 And the kinred of the children of Caath, shall pitche on the South side of the tabernacle.
30 The captayne, and most auncient of the house of the kynred of the Caathites, shalbe Elisaphan, the sonne of Oziel.
31 And their charge shalbe the arke, the table, the candelsticke, and the aulters, and the vessels of the sanctuarie, that they minister in, and the vayle, and whatsoeuer belõgeth to the ministration thereof.
32 And Eleazar the sonne of Aaron ỳ priest, shalbe captayne ouer all the captaynes of the Leuites, and haue the ouersight of them that wayte vpon the sanctuarie.
33 And of Merari came the kynrede of the Mahelites, and the kinred of the Musites:
these are the kynredes of Merari.
34 And the summe of them, accordyng to the number of al the males, from a moneth old and aboue, was sixe thousande, and two hundred.
35 The captayne, and the moste auncient of F their house, that were of the kynred of Merari, was Zuriel, the sonne of Abihael: and these shall pitche on the North side of the tabernacle.
36 And vnder the custodie and charge of the sonnes of Merari, shalbe the bordes of the tabernacle, and the barres, pyllers, and sockets thereof, and all the vesselles thereof, and al that serueth thereto, 37 And the pillers of the court round about, with theyr sockettes, their pinnes, and theyr cordes.
38 But on the forefront of the tabernacle to-warde the East, before the tabernacle of the congregation eastwarde, shall Moses and Aaron and his sonnes pitche, and wayte to keepe the sanctuary, and to keepe the children of Israel: And the stranger that commeth nigh, shalbe slayne.
39 And the whole summe of the Leuites, whiche Moses and Aaron numbred at the commaundement of the Lord, throughout theyr kinredes, euen all the males from a moneth olde and aboue, was twentie and Num. 26. g.

40 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Nũber al the fyrst borne that are males among the children of Israel, from a moneth olde and aboue, & take the number of theyr names.
41 And thou shalt appoynt the Leuites to me (for I am the Lord) for al the first borne of the children of Israel, and the cattell of the Leuites, for all the first gendered of the cattell of the children of Israel.
42 And Moses numbred, as the Lord com- G maunded him, al the first borne of the children of Israel.
43 And all the firste borne males, rehearsed by theyr names, from a moneth olde and aboue, accordyng to theyr number, were twentie and two thousand, two hundred, and threescore and thirtene.
44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
45 Take the Leuites for al the first borne of the children of Israel, and the cattell of the Leuites for theyr cattell, and the Leuites shalbe myne: I am the Lorde.
46 And for the redeemyng of the two hun-

a. Sicles were of two sortes: the one cõmon the other belongyng to the sanctuarie, and that of the sanctuarie was double the weyght of the common. The common sicle weyghed two grotes, and the sanctuarie sicle foure. The scripture in this place, and in the.30. of Exodus, and Ezechiel.45. sayeth, that the sanctuarie sicle doth weigh twentie Gerahs, which the Greciãs do call Obolus, & we in Englishe, an halfe pennie. When eyght grotes of our money was an ounce: and the Hebrues do thinke that Obolus doth weygh the weyght of sixtene barly cornes.

more than the Leuites, in the fyrst borne of the chyldren of Israel, 47 (a) Take fiue sicles of euery head, after the weyght of the sanctuarie, The sicle conteynyng twentie Gerahs.

48 And giue the money wherwith the odde number of them is redeemed, vnto Aaron and his sonnes.

49 And Moses toke the redemption money of them that were redeemed, beyng more than the Leuites:

50 Of the first borne of the chyldren of Israel toke he this money: (euen) a thousande three hundred and threescore and fiue sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie.

51 And Moses gaue the money of them that were redeemed, vnto Aaron and his sonnes, according to the worde of the Lorde, euen as the Lord commaunded Moses.

The.iiij. Chapter.

5. The offices of the Leuites.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 Take the summe of the chyldrẽ of Caath from among the sonnes of Leui, after their kinredes and houses of their fathers:

3 From thyrtie yeares and aboue, vntil fiftie, that enter into the hoste for to do the worke in the tabernacle of the cõgregatiõ.

4 This shalbe the office of the chyldren of Caath, in the tabernacle of the congregation, (about) the most holy.

5 And when the hoste remoueth, Aaron and his sonnes shall come, and take downe the couerynge vayle, and wrappe the arke of witnesse in it:

6 And shal put theron a couering of Badgers skinnes, and shall spreade vpon it a cloth that is altogether of blewe silke, and put in the barres thereof.

B 7 And vpon the shewe table, they shall spread abroade a clothe of blewe silke, and put thereon the dishes, (incense) cuppes and goblets, and pots to powre with: and there shalbe bread thereon continually.

8 And they shal spreade vpon them a couering of skarlet, and couer the same with a couerynge of Badgers skinnes, and put in the barres thereof.

9 And they shal take a cloth of blewe silke, and couer the candelsticke of light, with his lampes, snuffers, and censers, and al the oile vessels, whiche they occupie about it.

10 And they shal put both it, and all the vessels thereof, within a couerynge of Badgers skinnes, and put it vpon a barre.

11 And vpon the golden aulter, they shall spreade a clothe of blewe silke, and couer it with a couerynge of Badgers skinnes, and put to the barres thereof.

12 And they shall take all the instruments, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put a cloth of blewe silke vpon them, and couer them with a couerynge of Badgers skinnes, and put them on a barre.

13 And they shal take away the ashes frõ the aulter, and spreade a purple clothe thereon.

14 And put vpon it, all the vessels thereof, that they minister withall, euen the cole pannes, the flesh hookes, the fire shouels, the basens, & the other vessels of the aulter: and they shal spread vpõ it a couerynge of Badgers skinnes, and put to the barres of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sonnes haue made an ende of couering the sanctuarie, & all the vessels of the sanctuary, against that the hoste remoue, then the sonnes of Caath shal come in for to beare: but they shall not touche any holy thyng, least they die. And this is the charge of the sonnes of Caath, in the tabernacle of the congregation.

16 And to the office of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, perteyneth the oyle for the light, the sweete incense, the dayly meate offeryng, and the annoynting oyle, and the ouerlight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, both in the sanctuarie, and in all the vessels thereof.

17 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, and Aaron, saying,

18 Ye shall not cut off the tribe of the kinred of the Caathites, from among the Leuites:

19 But thus do vnto them, that they may lyue, and not die: when they goe vnto the most holy things, let Aaron and his sonnes go in, and appoynt them euery one to his office, and to his charge.

20 But let them not goe in, to see when the holy things are folden vp, least they die.

21 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, D

22 Take also the summe of the chyldren of Gerson, throughout the houses of theyr fathers, and throughout theyr kinredes.

23 From thirtie yeares olde, and aboue, vntill fiftie yeares shalte thou number them, al that enter into the assembly for to do seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 And this is the seruice of the kynrede of the Gersonites, to serue, and to beare.

25 They shall beare the curtaynes of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, the couering thereof, and the couerynge of Badgers skinnes, that is on highe vpon it, and the vayle of the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation:

26 And the curtaynes of the court, and the vayle vayle that is in the entring in of the gate of the courte, whiche is neare the tabernacle, and neare the aulter rounde about, with the cordes, and all the instruments that serue vnto them, and all that is made for them, and so shall they serue.

27 At the mouth of Aaron and his sonnes, shall all the seruice of the chyldren of the Gersonites be done, in al their charges, and in all theyr seruice: and ye shall appoynt vnto them all theyr burdens to keepe.

28 And this is the seruice of the kynrede of the chyldren of Gerson in the tabernacle of the congregation, and theyr watche shalbe vnder the hande of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the priest.

29 And thou shalte number the sonnes of Merari after theyr kinredes, and after the houses of theyr fathers:

30 From thirtie yeares old and aboue, vnto fiftie yeares shalt thou number them, euery one that entreth into the assembly, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the cõgregatiõ.

31 And this is their office & charge, according to all their seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation: the borders of the tabernacle, with the barres, pillers, and sockets thereof.

32 And the pillers that are rounde aboute the court, with theyr sockettes, pinnes, & cordes, & with all the instruments of it, for al their seruice: and by name ye shall recken the instruments of theyr office and charge.

33 This is the seruice of the kynredes of the sonnes of Merari, according to al their office in the tabernacle of the congregation, vnder the hande of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the priest.

34 And Moses, and Aaron, and the prynces of the multitude, numbred the sonnes of the Caathites, after theyr kynredes and houses of theyr fathers, 35 Frõ thirtie yeares old, & aboue, vnto fiftie yeares, al that enter into the assemblie, to do seruice in the tabernacle of the cõgregatiõ.

36 And the numbers of them throughout theyr kynredes, were two thousande, seuen hundred, and fiftie.

37 This is the number of the kynredes of Caath, (namely) al that might do seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, whiche Moses and Aaron dyd number, according to the commaundement of the Lord, by the hande of Moses.

38 Also the numbers of the sonnes of Gerson throughout theyr kinredes and houses of theyr fathers:

39 From thirtie yeares olde, and aboue, vnto fiftie yeares, all that enter into the assemblie for to do seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

40 And the nũbers of thẽ throughout their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, were two thousande, fyre hundred, and thirtie.

41 This is the number of the kinredes of the sonnes of Gerson, of all that dyd seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, whiche Moses and Aaron dyd number, according to the commaundement of the Lorde.

42 And the numbers of the kynredes of the sonnes of Merari throughout theyr kynredes and houses of their fathers:

43 From thirtie yeares olde, and vpwarde, vnto fiftie yeares, all that enter into the assembly, for the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the nũbers of them after theyr kinredes, were three thousande, & two hundred.

45 These be the summes of the kynredes of the sonnes of Merari, whiche Moses, and Aaron numbred, according to the worde of the Lorde, by the hande of Moses.

46 And so all the numbers of the Leuites, whiche Moses, Aaron, and the Lordes of Israell numbred after theyr kynredes and housholdes of their fathers.

47 From thyrtie yeares olde and vpwarde, vnto fiftie yeares, euery one that came to do his duetie, office, seruice, and charge in the tabernacle of the congregation. So the numbers of them were seuen thousand, fiue hundred, and fourescore.

48 Accordyng to the worde of the Lord did (Aaron) nũber them by the hande of Moses, euery one according to their seruice and charge: Thus (were) they of that tribe numbred, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.

The.v. Chapter.

1. The knowledge of sinne. 8. The cleansing of sinne. 12. The lawe of ielousie.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commaunde the chyldren of Israel, that they put out of the host euery lepre, and euery one, that hath an issue, and whosoeuer is defiled by the dead:

3 Bothe male and female shall ye put out, euen out of the host shall ye put them, that they defile not theyr (a) tentes, among whiche ye dwell.

4 And the chyldren of Israel did so, and put thẽ out of the host: euen as the Lorde spake vnto Moses, so did the chyldren of Israell.

5 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

6 Speake vnto the children of Israel, Whẽ a man or woman shall commit any sinne that men commit, and trespasse agaynst the

a. There were three sortes of tentes among the Hebrues. The tent of the Lord, that is the tabernacle: the tent of the Leuites: & the tent of Israell. The lepres were excluded from them al: the impure by an issue, from the two first: and the defiled by the dead, only frõ the tabernacle of the congregation.

Lorde: when that person shall trespasse,
7 Then they shall knowledge theyr sinne whiche they haue done, and let hym restore agayne the hurt, that he hath done, with his principall, and put the fifth parte of it more thereto, and gyue it vnto hym, whom he hath trespassed agaynst.
8 But if the man haue no (b) kinsmã to restore the hurt vnto, let the trespasse be made good vnto the Lorde, & it shalbe the priests, beside the ramme of the attonement, wherby an attonement shalbe made for him.
9 And euery heaue offering, that is made of the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring vnto the priest, shalbe his.
10 And euery mans halowed things shalbe his: whatsoeuer any man giueth the priest, it shalbe his.
11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
12 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say vnto them, If any mans wife goe aside, and trespasse agaynst hym,
13 So that another man lye with hir fleshly, and it be hyd from the eyes of hir husband, and be kept close, that she is defiled, & there be no witnesse agaynst hir, neyther shee taken with the maner,
14 And the spirite of iealousie come vpon him, so that he is ielous ouer his wife, which is defiled: or if the spirite of iealousie come vpon him, so that he is ielous ouer his wife, whiche is yet vndefiled:
15 Then let the man bryng his wyfe vnto the priest, and bring hir offering with hir, the tenth part of an (c) Epha of barly meale: but let him put no oyle vpon it, nor put frankincense thereon, for it is an offering of iealousie, an offering for a remembraunce, causing the sinne to be thought vpon.
16 And the priest shall bryng hyr, and set hyr before the Lorde.
17 And the priest shal take holy water in an earthen vessell, and of the dust, that is in the floore of the tabernacle, the priest shall take it, and put it into the water.
18 And let the priest set the womã before the Lord, & vncouer the womans head, and put the offeryng of memoriall in hyr handes, whiche is the iealousie offering: & the priest shal haue bitter & cursed water in his hand.
19 And the priest shal charge hir by an othe, and say vnto the woman, If no man haue layne with thee, and if thou haue not gone aside to vncleannesse without thy husband, then haue thou no harme of these bitter and cursed waters.
20 But if thou haue gone aside from thyne husband, and be defiled, and some man hath layne with thee beside thyne husbande:
21 (Then the priest shall charge the woman with an othe of cursing, & the priest shal say vnto the woman) The Lorde make thee accursed, and detestable for the othe among the people, when the Lorde dothe make thy thygh to rotte, and thy belly to swell.
22 These cursed waters go into the bowels of thee, that they may make thy belly swel, and thy thigh to rotte. And let the woman say. Amen, amen.
23 And let the priest wryte these curses in a booke, and he shall blot them out with the bitter waters:
24 And shall giue the woman those bitter & cursed waters to drynke: that those cursed and bitter waters may enter into hyr.
25 And then the priest shall take the iealousie offeryng out of the womans hande, and waue it before the Lorde, and bryng it vnto the aulter.
26 And the priest shal take an handful of the offeryng for a memoriall, and burne it vpon the aulter, and then make the woman drinke the waters:
27 And when he hath made the woman drynke the waters, if she be defiled, & haue trespassed agaynst hyr husband, then shal the cursed & bitter waters goe into hyr, and hir belly shal swell, and hyr thigh shall rotte: & the womã shalbe a curse amõg hir people.
28 And if the woman be not defiled, but cleane, shee shall haue no harme, but shall conceyue and beare.
29 This is the law of iealousie, when a wife gooth aside frõ hir husbande, and is defiled:
30 Or when the spirite of iealousie commeth vpon a man, and he beyng ielous ouer hys wife, doth bryng hyr before the Lord: And the priest shall do to hir accordyng vnto all this lawe, 31 And the man shalbe giltlesse, and this woman shal beare hir sinne.

The.vi. Chapter.

2. The lawe of the consecration of the Nazarites. 24. The blessing of the people.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say vnto them, When eyther man, or woman dothe separate themselues to vowe a vowe of (a) Nazarite, to separate theselues vnto the Lord:

4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shal he eate nothing, that is made of the vine tree, or of the cornels, or of the huske of the grape.

5 And as long as he voweth, and is separated, there shal no rasor come vpon his head, vntil his dayes be out, in the which he separateth himself vnto the Lord, he shalbe holy, & shal let the lockes of his heare growe.

6 As long as he separateth himselfe vnto the Lorde, he shal come at no dead body.

7 He shall not make hymselfe vncleane at the death of his father, mother, brother, or sister: because that the consecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his separation he is holy vnto the Lorde.

9 And if any man die suddaynely before him, yet he be ware, the head of his consecration shalbe defiled: and he shall shaue his head the day of his clensing, euen the seuenth day shall he shaue it.

10 And the eyght day, he shall bryng two turtles, or two young pigeons to the priest, before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11 And the priest shal offer the one for a sinne offeryng, & the other for a burnt offeryng: and make an attonement for hym as concerning that he sinned by the dead, and shal halowe his head the same day.

12 And he shall consecrate vnto the Lord the tyme of his separation, and shall bryng a lambe of a yeare olde for a trespasse offering: but the dayes that were before are lost, because his consecration was defiled.

13 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, when the time of his consecration is out, he shalbe brought vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

14 And he shall bryng his offeryng vnto the Lorde, an he lambe of a yeare old without blemish for a burnt offeryng, & a she lambe of a yeare olde without blemish for a sinne offeryng, and a ramme without blemishe also for peace offerings:

15 And a basket of vnleauened bread, euen cakes of fine floure mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread annoynted with oyle, with theyr meate offerynges, and drinke offerings.

16 And the priest shall bryng them before the Lorde, and offer his sinne offeryng, and his burnt offeryng.

17 And shal prepare the rām for a peace offering vnto the Lord, with the basket of vnleauened bread: & the priest shal make also his meate offering, and his drinke offering.

18 And the Nazarite shall shaue the head of his consecration at the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, & shal take the heare of the head of his consecration, & put it in the fyre, which is vnder the peace offeryng.

19 And the priest shal take the sodden shoulder of the ramme, and one vnleauened cake out of the basket, and one vnleauened waker also, and put them vpon the handes of the Nazarite, after he hath shauen his consecration.

20 And the priest shall waue them before the Lord: & these holy things shalbe the priests, with the waue breast, & the heaue shoulder: and then the Nazarite may drynke wyne.

21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, which hath vowed his offering vnto the Lord for his consecration, besides those thyngs, that his hande can get, accordyng to the vowe which he vowed, euen so he muste do after the lawe of his consecration.

22 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, saying, On this wise ye shal blesse the children of Israel, and say vnto them,

24 The Lorde blesse thee, and keepe thee:

25 The Lorde make his face to shyne vpon thee, and be mercyfull vnto thee:

26 The Lorde lift vp his countenaunce vpon thee, and giue thee peace.

27 And they shall put my name vpon the children of Israel, and I will blesse them.

The.vij. Chapter.

2. The offeryng of the lordes and heades of Israell. 89. God speaketh from the mercy seate to Moses.

1 AND when Moses had ful set vp the tabernacle, and annoynted and sanctified it, and all the instrumentes thereof, the aulter also, and all the vessels thereof, and had annoynted them, and sanctified them: Exod.40.b.

4 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto Aaron, and ſay vnto hym, When thou ſtteſt vp the lampes, the ſeuen lamps ſhal giue light toward the forefront of the candelſticke. Exod.25. d.
3 And Aaron did euen ſo, and lighted the lãpes therof toward the forefront of the cãdelſticke, as the Lorde cõmaunded Moſes.
4 And this was the worke of the candelſticke, euen of gold beaten out with the hãmer, both the ſhafte and the floures therof were beaten out with the hãmer: according vnto the paterne which the Lord had ſhewed Moſes, euen ſo he made the candelſticke.
5 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Iſrael, and cleanſe them.
7 And thus ſhalt thou do vnto them, when thou cleanſeſt them: Sprinckle water of purifying vpon them, and let them ſhaue al theyr fleſhe, and let them waſhe theyr clothes, and ſo make themſelues cleane.
8 Then lette them take a young bullocke with his meate offeryng (euen) fine floure mingled with oyle, and another yong bullocke ſhalt thou take for a ſinne offeryng.
9 And thou ſhalt bryng the Leuites before the tabernacle of the congregation, thou ſhalt gather the whole multitude of the children of Iſrael together, 10 And bryng the Leuites before the Lord, and the children of Iſraell ſhall put theyr handes vpon the Leuites.
11 And Aaron ſhal waue the Leuites before the Lorde for a waue offeryng of the chyldre of Iſrael, that they may execute the miniſtration of the ſeruice of the Lord.
12 And the Leuites ſhall put theyr handes vpon the heades of the bullockes: and thou ſhalt offer the one for a ſinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde, that thou mayeſt make an attonement for the Leuites:
13 And thou ſhalt ſet the Leuites before Aaron and his ſonnes, and waue them for a waue offeryng vnto the Lorde.
14 And thus thou ſhalt ſeparate the Leuites from among the chyldren of Iſrael, and the Leuites ſhalbe mine.
15 After that, ſhall the Leuites goe in, to do the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the congregation: And thou ſhalt cleanſe them, and waue them for a waue offeryng: Exod.12.a. Leuit.23.a. Num.28 c. Deut.6.a.
16 For they are gyuen and deliuered vnto me from among the chyldren of Iſrael, for ſuch as open euery wombe, euen for the firſt borne of al the children of Iſrael haue I taken them vnto me.
17 For all the firſte borne of the chyldren of Iſrael are mine, both man & beaſt: ſince the day that I ſmote euery firſte borne in the lãd of Egipt, I ſanctified them for my ſelf. Exod. Leuit.
18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the firſt borne of the chyldren of Iſrael.
19 And haue giuen the Leuites as a gifte to Aaron and his ſonnes from amõg the children of Iſraell, to do the ſeruice of the children of Iſraell in the tabernacle of the congregation, & to make an attonement for the children of Iſrael: that there be no plague among the children of Iſrael, if the children of Iſrael come nigh vnto the ſanctuarie.
20 And Moſes, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the chyldre of Iſrael, did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lord commaunded Moſes concernyng the Leuites: euen ſo did the children of Iſraell vnto them.
21 And the Leuites were purified, & waſhed their clothes: And Aaron waued them as a waue offeryng before the Lorde, and made an attonement for them, to cleanſe them.
22 After that, wẽt the Leuites in, to do their ſeruice in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and his ſonnes: as the Lord had cõmaunded Moſes, concernyng the Leuites, euen ſo they dyd vnto them.
23 And the Lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, Exod.12.g. Num.19.k.
24 This is it, ỹ belongeth vnto the Leuites: From twentie & fiue yeares old, & vpward, they ſhall goe in to wayte vpon the ſeruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

25 And

25 And from the age of fiftie yeares, they shal ceasse wayting vpon the seruice thereof, and shall serue no more:
26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keepe things committed to their charge: but shall doe no more seruice. Thus therefore shalt thou doe vnto the Leuites, touching their charge.

The. ix. Chapter.

2. The Passeouer. 13. Punishment for such as keepe it not. 15. Of the cloude.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses in the wildernesse of Sinai, in the firste moneth of the seconde yeare, after they were come out of the lande of Egypt, saying.
Exod.12.a. Leuit.23.a. Num.28 c. Deut.6.a.
2 Let the children of Israell celebrate the Passeouer at the time appoynted therevnto:
3 Euen the fourteenth day of this moneth at euen: ye shall keepe it in his season according to all the ceremonies of it, & according to all the manners thereof, shall ye keepe it.
4 And Moses spake vnto the children of Israell, that they shoulde celebrate the Passeouer.
5 And they kept the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the first moneth at euen in the wildernesse of Sinai: according to all that the Lorde commaunded Moses, euen so did the children of Israell.
6 And certaine men were defiled by a dead man, that they might not keepe the Passeouer the same day, and they came before Moses and Aaron the same day.
B 7 And they sayde vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherfore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offering vnto the Lorde in due season, among the children of Israel?
8 And Moses sayde vnto them, Stand still, and I will heare, what the Lord will commaunde, concerning you.
9 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
10 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and say, If any man be vncleane by the reason of a corse, or bee in a way farre distant from you, and from your generations, he shall keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lorde.
11 The fourteenth day of the seconde moneth at euen let them keepe it: and eate it with vnleauened bread, and sowre herbes.
Exod.12.g. Num.19.f.
12 Let them leaue none of it vntil the morning, nor breake any bone of it: but according to all the ordinances of the Passeouer, let them keepe it.
13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and yet was negligent to keepe the Passeouer, the same soule shall be cut off from his people, because he brought not the offering of the Lorde in his due season: that man shall beare his sinne.
14 And if a straunger dwel among you, and C will keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord: according to the ordinaunce of the Passeouer and maner thereof, so shall he doe. Ye shall haue one law, both for the straunger, and for him, that was borne in the same lande.
15 And the same day that the tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the tabernacle, (namely) the tabernacle of the testimonie: & at euen, there was vpon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, vntill the morning.
Exod.40.c. 3.Reg.8.b.
16 So it was alway: the cloud couered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.
17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the tabernacle, then the children of Israell iourneyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israell pitched their tents.
18 At the mouth of the Lorde the children of Israell iourneyed, and at the mouth of the Lord they pitched: and as long as the cloud abode vpon the tabernacle, they lay still:
19 And when the cloude taryed still vpon the tabernacle long time, the children of Israell kept the watch of the Lord, & iourneyed not.
20 And when the cloude abode a few dayes vpon the tabernacle, they abode in their tentes, according to the commaundement of the Lorde: and they iourneyed also at the commaundement of the Lorde.
21 And when the cloude abode vpon the ta- D bernacle from euen vnto the morning, and was taken vp in the morning, then they iourneyed: Whether it were by day, or by night, that the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.
22 Or if the cloude taryed two dayes, or a moneth, or a yeare vpon the tabernacle, and remayned thereon, the children of Israell remayned still, and iourneyed not: and as soone as the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.
23 At the mouth of the Lorde they rested in the tentes, and at the commaundement of the Lord they iourneyed, keeping the watch of the Lorde, at the commaundement of the Lorde, by the hande of Moses.

The. x. Chapter.

2. The trumpets of siluer and their vse. 11. The Israelites depart from Sinai. 14. The captaynes of the hoste are numbered. 30. Obab refuseth to go with Moses.

1 And the lord ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Make thee two trumpets of ſyluer: of an whole peece ſhalt thou make them, that thou mayeſt vſe them to call the congregation togither, and when the campe ſhall iourney.
3 And when they ſhall blowe wyth them, all the multitude ſhall reſort to thee before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
4 And if they blowe but one trumpet, then the Princes, whiche are heades ouer the thouſands of Iſrael, ſhal come vnto thee.
5 But if ye blow an alarme, the hoſtes, that lye on the eaſt partes, ſhal go forward.
6 And if ye blowe the alarme the ſeconde time, the hoſt that lieth on the ſouth ſide, ſhal take their iourney: for they ſhal blow an alarme when they take their iourneyes.
7 But when the congregation is to be gathered togither, they ſhall blow without an alarme.
8 And the Prieſtes that are Aarons ſonnes, ſhall blowe with their trumpettes, and yee ſhall haue them as a lawe for euer in your generations.
9 And if ye goe to warre in your lande agaynſt your enimies, that vexe you, ye ſhall blowe an alarme with the trumpets, and ye ſhall be remembred before the Lord your God, to be ſaued from your enimies.
10 Alſo in the day of your gladneſſe, and in your feaſt dayes, and in the beginning of your monethes, ye ſhal blow the trumpets ouer your burnt ſacrifices, and peace offerings, that they may bee a remembraunce for you before your God: I am the Lorde your God.
11 And it came to paſſe the twentieth day of the ſeconde moneth, in the ſeconde yeare that the cloude was taken vp from of the tabernacle of the teſtimonie.
12 And the children of Iſraell toke their iourney out of the deſart of Sinai, and the cloud reſted in the wilderneſſe of Pharan.
13 And they firſt toke theyr iourney at the mouth of the Lorde, by the hande of Moſes.
14 In the firſt place went the ſtanderd of the hoſt of the children of Iuda, according to their armyes: whoſe captaine was Nahaſſon, the ſonne of Aminadab.
15 And ouer the hoſt of the tribe of the children of Iſachar, was Nathanael the ſonne of Zuar.
16 And ouer the hoſt of the tribe of the children of Zabulon, was Eliab, the ſonne of Helon.
17 And the tabernacle was taken downe, and the ſonnes of Gerſon and Merari went forth, bearing the tabernacle.
18 And the hoſt of Ruben went forth wyth theyr ſtandarde and armyes, whoſe captaine was Elizur the ſonne of Sedeur.
19 And ouer the hoſt of the tribe of the children of Simeon, was Salamiel, the ſonne of Suri Saddai.
20 And ouer the hoſt of the tribe of the children of Gad, was Eliaſaph, the ſonne of Duel.
21 The Caathites alſo went forwarde, and bare the ſanctuarie, and the other did ſet vp the tabernacle agaynſt they came.
22 And the ſtanderde of the hoſt of the children of Ephraim, went forth according to their armies, whoſe captaine was Eliſama, the ſonne of Ammiud.
23 And ouer the hoſte of the trybe of the ſonnes of Manaſſe, was Gamaliel, the ſonne of Pedazur.
24 And ouer the hoſte of the trybe of the ſonnes of Beniamin, was Abidan, the ſonne of Gedeon.
25 And the ſtanderde of the hoſt of the children of Dan came forth (gathering all the hoſtes togyther) throughout theyr armyes, whoſe captayne was Ahiezer, the ſonne of Ammi Saddai.
26 And ouer the hoſt of the tribe of the children of Aſer, was Pagiel, the ſonne of Ochran.
27 And ouer the hoſt of the tribe of the children of Nephthali, was Ahira, the ſonne of Enan.
28 Theſe are the iourneyes of the children of Iſraell throughout theyr armies, and thus the hoſtes remoued.
29 And Moſes ſayde vnto Hobab the ſonne of Raguel the Madianite, which was Moſes father in lawe, We go vnto the place, of which the Lorde ſayde, I will giue it you. Come thou therefore with vs, and we will doe the good: for the Lorde hath promiſed good vnto Iſraell.
30 And he anſwered him, I will not go, but will depart to mine owne lande, and to my kynred.
31 He ſayde, Oh nay, leaue vs not, for thou knoweſt our manſions in the wilderneſſe, and thou mayeſt be to vs in ſtede of eyes.
32 And if thou go with vs, loke what goodneſſe the Lorde ſheweth vnto vs, the ſame will we ſhewe vnto thee.
33 And they departed from the mount of the Lorde three dayes iourney, and the arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes iourney, to ſearche out a reſting place for them.
34 And the cloude of the Lorde was vppon them

'35 And when the arke went forth, Moses

'36 And when the arke rested, he sayde, Re-

The.xi. Chapter.

1. The people murmureth. 4. They desire fleshe. 6. They loth Manna. 11. The wauering fayth of Moses. 16. The Lorde diuideth the burden of Moses to seuentie of the auncientes, and they prophecie. 31. It rayneth Quayles. 33. The fleshe raueners are punished.

A 1 AND when the people did wickedly, it
Exod.16.a. was a displeasure in the eares of the Lorde: And when the Lorde heard it, his countenaunce was prouoked to wrath, and the fire of the Lorde burnte among them, and consumed them, that were the vttermost of the host.

2 And the people cryed vnto Moses: And when Moses made intercession vnto the Lorde, the fyre quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place Taberah, bycause the fyre of the Lorde burnt among them.

4 And a number of people, that was among them, fell a lusting, and turned themselues, and wept (euen as did also the children of Israell) and sayde, Who shall giue vs flesh to eate?

5 We remember the fishe, whiche we did eate in Egypt for naught, and the Cucumbers, Melons, Leekes, Onyons, and Garleeke.

6 But nowe our soule is dryed away: for we can see nothing else, saue Manna.

B 7 The Manna was as Coriander seede,
Exod.16.g. and to see to, like (a) Bedellion.

Some call it white precious stone, and some a white pearle.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mylles, or beate it in morters, and baked it in pannes, and made cakes of it: And the taste of it, was like vnto the taste of fresh oyle.

9 And when the deawe fell downe vpon the host in the night, the Manna fell vpon it.

10 And when Moses heard the people weepe throughout theyr householdes, euerie man in the dore of his tent, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled exceedingly, and it grieued Moses also.

11 And Moses sayd vnto the Lorde, Wherefore hast thou delt cruelly with thy seruant? And wherefore haue I not found fauour in thy sight, seeing that thou puttest the weight of all this people vpon me?

12 Haue I conceyued all this people? Or haue I begotten them? that thou shouldest say vnto me, Carie them in thy bosome, as a Nurse beareth a sucking childe, vnto the lande whiche thou swarest vnto theyr fathers?

13 Where should I haue fleshe to giue vnto al this people which weepe before mee, saying, Giue vs flesh, that we may eate.

14 I am not able to beare all this people a- C lone, seeing it is to heauie for me.

15 If thou deale thus with mee, kyll me, I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, that I see not my wretchednesse.

16 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Gather Exec.8.d.
vnto me three score and ten men, of the elders of Israel, which thou knowest, that they are the elders of the people, and officers ouer them: and thou shalt bring them vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stande there with thee:

17 And I will come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the spirite whiche is vpon thee, and put it vppon them, and they shall beare the burthen of the people wyth thee, least thou bee constreyned to beare it alone.

18 And say thou vnto the people, Be halowed against to morow, and ye shal eate flesh: Exod.16.c.

20 But euen a moneth long, vntill it come out at the nostrelles of you, and it shall be lothesome vnto you, bycause that yee haue cast the Lorde aside, which is among you, and haue wept before him, saying, Why came we thus out of Egypt?

22 Shall the sheepe and the oxen bee slayne for them, to finde them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered togither for them, to suffice them.

23 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Shall Esai.50.a.

24 And Moses went out, and told the people the the saying of the Lorde: and gathered the threescore and ten elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the Lorde came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto him, and toke of the spirite that was vpon him, and gaue it vnto the threescore and ten elders: And when the spirite rested vpon them, they prophecied, and did not ceasse.

26 But there remayned two of the men in the host, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: And the spirite rested vpon them, (and they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the tabernacle) and they prophecied in the host.

27 And there ranne a young man, and tolde Moses, and sayde, Eldad and Medad doe prophecie in the host.

28 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun, the seruaunt of Moses, one of his yong men answered, and sayde, My Lorde Moses, forbyd them.

Exod.16.a.

32 And the people stode vp all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered Quayles: and hee that gathered little gathered ten Gomers full: And they spread them abroade for their vse, rounde about the host.

33 And while the flesche was yet betweene theyr teeth, and yer it was chewed vp, the wrath of the Lorde was kyndled agaynst the people, and the Lorde smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

1. Aaron and Miriam grudge agaynst Moses. 10. Miriam is striken with leprosie, and is healed at the prayer of Moses.

1 AND Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses, bycause of the woman of Ethiopia, which he had taken: for he had taken to wife one of Ethiopia.

2 And they sayde, Hath the Lorde in deede spoken onely through Moses? Hath hee not spoken also by vs? And the Lorde heard it.

3 (But Moses was a very meeke man, aboue all the men of the earth.)

4 And the Lord spake at once vnto Moses, vnto Aaron, and to Miriam, Come out ye three vnto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they came out all three.

5 And the Lorde came downe in the pyller of the cloude, and stode in the dore of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they went out both of them.

6 And he sayde heare my wordes: If there be a Prophete of the Lordes among you, I will be knowne of him in a vision, and will speake vnto him in a dreame.

7 My seruaunt Moses is not so, which is faythfull in all mine house.

8 Vnto him wil I speake mouth to mouth in a vision, not in darke speaches and similitudes of the Lorde shall he see: Wherefore then were ye not afrayde to speake agaynst my seruant Moses?

9 And the Lorde was moued vnto wrath agaynst them, and he went his way.

10 And the cloude departed from the tabernacle: and beholde, Miriam was become leprous, as it were snowe: And Aaron loked vpon Miriam, and beholde, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron sayde vnto Moses, Alas my Lorde, I beseech thee, put not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue folishly committed, and sinned.

12 Oh, let hir not be as one dead, of whome the flesche is halfe consumed, when he commeth out of his mothers wombe.

13 And Moses cryed vnto the Lorde, saying, Heale hir nowe, O God, I beseeche thee.

14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, If hir father had (a) spitte in hir face, shoulde shee not be ashamed seuen dayes? Let hir bee shut out of the host seuen dayes, and after that, let hir be receyued in againe.

15 And Miriam was shut out of the host seuen dayes: and the people remoued not, till she was brought in againe.

16 And afterwarde the people remoued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wildernesse of Pharan.

C 16 These are the names of the men whiche Moses sent to spie out the land: And Moses called the name of Osea, the sonne of Nun, Josuah.
17 And Moses sent them forth to spie out the lande of Chanaan, and sayd vnto them, Get you vp this way southward, that ye may go vp into the hie countrie, 18 And see the land, what maner thing it is, and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong, or weake, eyther few, or many:
19 And what the lande is, that they dwell in, whether it be good, or badde, and what manner of Cities they bee that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tentes, or walled townes:
20 And what maner of lande that is, whether it be fat, or leane, or whether there be trees therein, or not. Be of good courage, and bring of the fruite of the lande: And it was about the tyme that Grapes are first ripe.
21 And so they went vp, and searched out the D lande, from the wildernesse of Zin, vnto Rehob, as men come to Hemath.
22 And they ascended vnto the South, and came vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was, and Sesai, and Thalmai, the sonnes of Anac, Hebron was built seuen yeares before Zoan in Egypt.
23 And they came vnto the ryuer of Escoll, and cut downe there a braunche with one cluster of Grapes, and two men bare it vpon a staffe: and (they brought) also of the Pomegranates, and of the Figges.
24 And the place was called the ryuer of Escol, bycause of the cluster of Grapes, whiche the children of Israell cut downe thence.
25 And they turned backe againe from searching of the lande, after fortie dayes.
26 And they went, and came to Moses and Aaron, and vnto all the multitude of the children of Israell in the wildernesse of Pharan, to Cades, and brought them word, and also vnto all the Congregation, and shewed them the fruite of the lande.
27 And they tolde him, and sayde, We came vnto the lande whither thou sentest vs, and surely it floweth with milke and honie, and here is of the fruite of it.
28 Neuertheless, the people be strong, that E dwell in the lande, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreouer wee saw the children of Anac there.
29 The Amalechites dwel in the south countrey: and the Hethites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwel in the mountaynes: and the Chanaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordane.
30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, saying, Let vs go vp at once, and possesse it, for we be able to ouercome it.
31 But the men that went vp with him sayd, We be not able to go vp against the people, for they are stronger than we.
32 And they brought vp an euil report of the lande, which they had searched, saying vnto the children of Israell, The lande, whiche we haue gone through to searche it out, is a lande that eateth vp the inhabitours thereof, and the people that we saw in it, are men of a great stature.
33 And there wee sawe also Gyauntes, the children of Anac, (which come) of the Gyauntes: And wee seemed in our sight, as it

it were Grashoppers, and so we did in their sight.

The.xiiij. Chapter.

2. The people murmure agaynst God. 10. And would haue stoned Caleb & Iosuah. 37. The searchers of the lande die. 45. Amalech killeth the Israelites.

1 AND all the multitude of the people cryed oute, and wept throughout that night.

2 And all the children of Israell murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron, and the whole Congregation sayde vnto them, Would God that we had dyed in the lande of Egypt, or elles that we had dyed in thys wildernesse,

3 Wherefore hath the Lord brought vs vnto this lande, to fall vpon the sworde, and that our wyues, and our children should be a pray? Were it not better that we returne vnto Egypt againe?

4 And they sayde one to another, Let vs make a captayne, and returne vnto Egypt againe.

a. Lamenting the people, and praying for them.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell (a) on theyr faces before all the assemblie of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephune (which were) of them that searched the lande, rent theyr clothes:

B 7 And spake vnto all the companie of the children of Israell, saying, The land which we walked through to searche it, is a verie good lande.

8 If the Lorde haue a loue to vs, he will bring vs into this land, and giue it vs, which is suche a lande, as floweth wyth mylke and honie.

Deut.20.a. 9 But in any wise rebell not ye agaynst the Lorde, neither feare the people of the lande, for they are but (b) bread for vs: Their shield is departed from them, and the Lord is with vs, feare them not therefore.

b. We shall easily ouercome them.

10 But al the congregation bade stone them with stones: And the glory of the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation, before all the children of Israell.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Howe long doeth this people prouoke mee, and howe long will it be yer they beleue me, for all the signes which I haue shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and destroy them, and will make of thee a greater nation, and mightier than they.

13 And Moses sayde vnto the Lorde, Then the Egyptians shall heare it, (for thou broughtest this people in thy might from among them.)

14 And it will bee tolde to the inhabiters of C this lande also: for they haue hearde lykewise that thou Lorde art among this people, and that thou Lorde art seene face to face, and that thy cloude standeth ouer them, and that thou goest before them by daye time, in a pyller of a cloude, and in a pyller Exo. of fyre, by night.

15 If thou shalt kill all this people, as they were but one man, then the nations, whiche haue hearde the fame of thee, will say, 16 Bycause the Lorde is not able to bring in this people into the lande, whiche he sware vnto them, therefore he hath slaine them in the wildernesse.

17 And now I beseech thee, let the power of my Lorde be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, 18 It is long yer the Lorde be angrie: he is of great mercie, and suffereth iniquitie, and sinne, and leaueth no man innocent, and visiteth the vnrighteousnesse of the fathers, vpon the children, in the thirde and fourth generation. Exo.34.b.

19 Be mercifull, I beseeche thee, vnto the sinne of this people, according vnto thy great mercy, as thou hast forgiuen this people from Egypt, euen vntill now.

20 And the Lorde sayde, I haue forgiuen it, according to thy request.

21 But as truely as I liue, all the earth shal- D be filled with the glorie of the Lorde.

22 But all these men whiche haue seene my glory: and my myracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wildernesse, & haue tempted me, nowe these ten tymes, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce: Nom.10.d.

23 Shall not see the lande whiche I sware vnto theyr fathers, neither shall any of them that prouoked me, see it.

24 But my seruant Caleb, bycause he had an Iohn other maner of spirite, (and bycause hee hath followed me vnto the vtmost) him will I bring into the lande which hee hath walked in, and his seede shall inherite it.

25 And also the Amalekites, and Chanaanites, remaine in the valley: to morrowe turne you and get you into the wildernesse, euen by the way of the red sea. Nom.14.f.

26 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

27 How long doth this euil multitude murmure agaynst me? I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israell with the which they murmure agaynst mee.

28 Tell them therefore: As truely as I liue, C sayth ſayth the Lorde, I will do vnto you, euen as ye haue ſpoken in mine eares:

29 Your carkaſſes ſhall fall in the wildernesse: and all you that were told throughout your numbers, from twentie yeares, and aboue, which haue murmured agaynſt mee,

30 Shal not come into the land, ouer which I lifted vp my hande to make you dwell therein, ſaue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune, and Joſuah the ſonne of Nun.

31 But your children, whiche yee ſayde, ſhoulde bee a pray, them will I bring in, and they ſhall knowe the lande, whiche yee haue refuſed.

32 And your carkaſſes ſhall fall in this wildernesse.

33 And your children ſhal wander in the wildernesse fortie yeares, and ſuffer for your whoredome vntil your carkaſſes be waſted in the wildernesse.

34 After the number of the dayes, in whiche ye ſearched out the lande, euen fortie dayes, euery day for a yeare, ſhall yee beare your vnrighteouſneſſe, euen fortie yeares, and ye ſhall knowe my breach of promiſe. c.4.b.

F 35 I the Lorde haue ſayde, that I will do it vnto all this euill congregation, that are gathered togither agaynſt me: For in this wildernesse they ſhal be conſumed, and there they ſhall die.

36 And the menne whiche Moſes ſent to ſearch the land, and which (when they came againe) made all the people to murmure agaynſt him, and brought vp a ſlaunder vpon the lande:

37 Euen the ſame men that did bring vp that ſlaunder vpon it, as though it had bene euill, dyed in a great plague before the Lorde. Nr.10.d.

38 But Joſua the ſonne of Nun, and Caleb the ſonne of Iephune, which were of the men that went to ſearche the lande, lyued ſtill.

39 And Moſes tolde theſe ſayings vnto all the children of Iſraell, and the people toke great ſorowe.

G 40 And they roſe vp earely in the morning, and gate them vp into the top of the mountaine, ſaying, Loe, we be here, and will go vp vnto the place of which the Lorde ſayde, (c) For we haue ſinned. t.1.f.

41 And Moſes ſayde, Wherefore tranſgreſſe ye thus the worde of the Lorde? it will not come well to paſſe.

42 Go not vp therefore, for the Lorde is not among you: that ye be not ſlain before your enimies.

43 For the Amalekites, and the Chanaanites (d) are there before you, and ye wil fal vpon the ſworde, bycauſe yee are turned away from the Lord, and the Lord will not be with you.

d. Be readie to come againſt you.

44 But they preſumed obſtinately to go vp into the hill top: Neuerthelater, the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and Moſes departed not out of the hoſt.

45 Then the Amalekites, and the Chanaanites which dwelt in the hill, came downe, and ſmote them, and conſumed them, euen vnto Horma.

The.xv.Chapter.

2. The drinke offerings of them, that enter into the lande. 30. The puniſhment of him that ſinneth of arrogancie, or pride. 32. Of him that gathered ſtickes on the Sabboth day.

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, A

2 Speake vnto the children of Iſraell, and ſay vnto them, When ye bee come into the lande of your habitations, whiche I giue vnto you: Leuit.23.d.

3 And will make an offering by fyre vnto the Lorde, namely a burnt offering, or a ſacrifice to fulfill a vowe, or a free offering, or in your principall feaſtes, to make a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde, of the heard, or of the flocke:

4 Then let him that offereth his offering vnto the Lorde, bring alſo a meate offering of a tenth deale of flowre, mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of Oyle. Leuit.2.a. and.6.b.

lande, to the which I bꝛing you, ſauour vnto the Loꝛde, with the meate of-

The.xvi. Chapter.

1. The rebellion of Corah, Dathan, and Abi-ram. 31. They periſh with their companie.

1 And

16 Cor. 10. c.

1 NOw Corah the sonne of Isaar, the sonne of Caath, the sonne of Leui, went apart with Dathan and Abiram, the sonnes of Eliab, and On, the sonne of Peleth, the sonne of Ruben:

2 And they rose vp before Moses, with certaine of the children of Israel, two hundred and fiftie, which were captaynes of the multitude, famous in the congregation, and men of renowme.

3 And they gather themselues togither against Moses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them, Ye take much vpon you, seeing all the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lorde is among them: Why lyft you your selues vp aboue the congregation of the Lorde?

4 And when Moses hearde it, hee fell vpon his face,

5 And spake vnto Corah, and vnto all his companie, saying, To morrowe the Lorde will shewe, who are his, who (a) is holy, and who ought to approch nigh vnto him: and whom he hath chosen, he will cause to come neare vnto him.

(a) Who is the holy priest, that he may come nie him to offer vnto him.

6 This doe therefore: Take ye firepannes, both Corah and all his companie,

B 7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lorde to morrow: and the man, whom the Lorde doth chose, the same shall bee holy: yee take much vpon you, ye sonnes of Leui.

Num. 3. b. 8 And Moses sayde vnto Corah, Heare I pray you, ye sonnes of Leui, 9 Seemeth it but a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israell hath separated you from the multitude of Israel, and brought you to himselfe, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the Lorde, and to stande before the multitude, and to minister vnto them?

10 He hath taken thee to him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee: and seeke ye the office of the priest also?

11 For whiche cause both thou and all thy companie are gathered togither against the Lorde: and what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him?

12 And Moses sent, and called Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: which sayde, We will not come vp.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out of the lande that floweth with milke and honie, to kyll vs in the wildernesse, except thou make thy selfe Lorde and ruler ouer vs also?

C 14 Moreouer thou hast not brought vs into a lande that floweth with milke and honie, neither giuen vs inheritaunce of fieldes and vineyardes: Wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? We will not come vp.

15 And Moses warred verie angrie, and sayd vnto the Lorde, Turne not thou vnto their offering: I haue not taken so much as an Asse from them, neyther haue I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses sayde vnto Corah, Be thou and all thy companie before the Lorde, both thou, they, and Aaron to morow.

17 And take euery man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring yee before the Lorde euerie man his censer, euen two hundred and fiftie censers: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censer.

18 And they tooke euery man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense theron, and stoode in the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Corah gathered al the congregation agaynst them, vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glorie of the Lord appeared vnto al the congregation.

20 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

21 Separate your selues from among this congregation, that I maye consume them at once. D

22 And they fell vpon their faces, and sayde, O God, the God of the spirites of all flesh, hath not one man sinned? Wilt thou bee wroth with all the multitude? Num. 17. a.

23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the congregation, and say, Get you away from about the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram: and the elders of Israel folowed him.

26 And he spake vnto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tentes of these wicked men, and touche nothing of theirs, least ye perish in all their sinnes.

27 And so they gate them from the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, on euery side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stoode in the dore of their tentes, with their wyues, their sonnes, and their little children.

28 And Moses sayde, Hereby ye shall know, that the Lorde hath sent me to doe all these workes, for I haue not done them of myne owne minde. E

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they bee visited after the visitation of all men, then the Lord hath not sent me:

30 But if the Lorde make a (b) newe thing, and the earth open hir mouth, and swallow them vp, with all that they haue, and they goe downe quicke into the pit: then ye shal vnderstande that these men haue prouoked the Lorde.

31 And assone as hee had made an ende of speaking all these wordes, the ground cloue asunder, that was vnder them:

Deut.11.a. Num.26.b. Psal.21.c.

32 And the earth opened hir mouth, and swalowed them vp, and their houses and all the men that were with Corah, and all theyr goodes.

33 And they, and all that they had, went downe aliue vnto the pit, and the earth closed vpon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israell, that were about them, fledde at the crye of them: And they sayde, Least the earth swalow vs vp also.

F 35 And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offered incense.

36 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

37 Speake vnto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, that hee take vp the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire here and there, for they are halowed,

c. That haue destroied them selues by their owne sinnes, being the causers of their owne deathes.

38 The censers of these sinners (c) agaynst their owne soules: let them make of them brode plates for a couering of the aulter: For they offered them before the Lorde, and therefore they are halowed, and they shalbe a signe vnto the children of Israell.

39 And Eleazar the Priest toke the brasen censers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made brode plates for a (d) couering of the aulter,

d. To be a remembrance vnto the children of Israell, of Gods mighty hand against rebellion.

40 To be a remembrance vnto the children of Israell, that no straunger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neare to offer incense before the Lord, that he be not like vnto Corah, and his companie, as the Lorde sayde to him by the hande of Moses.

41 But on the morowe, all the multitude of the children of Israell murmured agaynst Moses and Aaron, saying, ye haue killed the people of the Lorde.

G 42 And when the multitude was gathered agaynst Moses and Aaron, they looked towarde the tabernacle of the congregation: and beholde, the cloude couered it, and the glorie of the Lorde appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

45 Get you from among this congregation, that I maye consume them quickly. And they fell vpon their faces.

46 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fyre therein out of the aulter, and poure on incense, and go quickly vnto the congregation, and make an attonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lorde, and there is a plague begun.

47 And Aaron toke as Moses commaunded hym, and ranne into the middes of the congregation: and beholde, the plague was begunne among the people, and hee put on incense, and made an attonement for the people.

48 And when he stoode betweene the deade and them that were alyue, the plague was stayed.

49 They that dyed in the plague, were fourtene thousande, and seuen hundred, beside them that dyed aboute the conspiracie of Corah.

50 And Aaron went againe vnto Moses before the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was stayed.

The.xvij.Chapter.

9. Aarons rodde buddeth, and beareth blossoms, wherby his priesthood is confyrmed.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying, Num.4.b.

2 Speake vnto the children of Israell, and take of euery one of them a rodde, after the houses of their fathers, of all their princes, according to the familie of their fathers, euen twelue roddes: and write euery mans name vpon his rodde.

3 And write Aarons name vppon the rodde of Leui: for euerie rod shalbe for the heade of the house of their fathers.

4 And put them in the tabernacle of the congregation, before (the arke) of the testimonie, where I will declare my selfe vnto you.

5 And the mannes rodde whom I chose, shall blossome: and I wil make ceasse from me the grudgings of the children of Israel, whereby they grudge agaynst you.

6 And Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, and all the princes gaue him a rod, one rod for euery prince, according to their fathers houses, euen twelue rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their roddes.

7 And Moses put the rods before the Lord, in the tabernacle of witnesse.

8 And on the morow, Moses went into the tabernacle of witnesse: and beholde, the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buddes, bare blossomes, and ripe Almondes.

9 And Moses brought out all the roddes from before the Lorde, vnto all the children of Israel: and they looked vpon them, and toke euery man his rodde.

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Bring Aarons rodde againe before the wytnesse, to be

To be kept for a token to the rebellious childzen, and that their murmuring may ceasse from me, and that they die not.

11 And Moses did as the Lorde commaunded him, euen so did he.

12 And the chyldzen of Israell spake vnto Moses, saying, Beholde, we are wasted away, and perished, we all come to nought.

13 Whosoeuer commeth nigh, or approcheth to the tabernacle of the Lorde, shall dye: Shall we vtterly consume away and die?

The.xviij. Chapter.

1. The office of the Leuites. 8. The tythes and first fruites must be giuen them. 20. Aarons heritage.

1 AND the Lorde sayd vnto Aaron, Thou and thy sonnes, and thy fathers house with thee, shall beare the iniquitie of the sanctuarie: and thou and thy sonnes wyth thee, shall beare the iniquitie of your priestes office.

Num.4.b. 2 And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui, and of thy fathers houshold thou shalt bring with thee, that they may bee ioyned vnto thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou and thy sonnes with thee (shall minister) before the tabernacle of witnesse.

3 They shall keepe thy charge, euen the charge of all the tabernacle: onely let them not come nigh the vesselles of the sanctuarie, and the aulter, that they and yee also die not.

4 And they shalbe ioyned with thee, & keepe the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the seruice of the tabernacle: and let no straunger come nigh vnto you.

5 Therefore shall ye keepe the charge of the sanctuarie, and the charge of the aulter, that there fall no more wrath vpon the chyldzen of Israel:

6 Beholde, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from among the chyldzen of Israel, which as a gift of yours, are giuen vnto the Lorde, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

B 7 Therefore shalt thou and thy sonnes with thee, keepe your priestes office for all things that parteyne vnto the aulter, and within the vayle, and ye shall serue: for I haue giuen your priestes office vnto you as a gyft: and therefore the straunger that commeth nigh, must be slaine.

8 And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, Beholde, I haue giuen thee the keeping of myne heaue offerings, of all the hallowed things of the chyldzen of Israel (euen) vnto thee I haue giuen them for the annointing, and to thy sonnes for an ordinance for euer.

9 This shalbe thine of the most holy things (reserued) frō the fyre (of the aulter.) All their sacrifices for all theyr meate offerings, sinne offerings, or trespasse offerings, which they bring vnto me, that shall bee most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eate it, and all that are males shall eate of it, let it be holy vnto thee.

11 And this also is thine: the heaue offerings of their giftes, throughout all the waue offerings of the chyldzen of Israel: I haue giuen them vnto thee, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: and all that are cleane in thy house, shall eate of it. Leuit.6.d.

12 All the (a) fat of the Oyle, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shal offer vnto the Lord for first fruites, the same haue I giuen vnto thee. a. That is the chiefest, and the best.

13 And whatsoeuer is first ripe in their lande, which they bring vnto the Lorde, shall bee thine, and all that are cleane in thine house, shall eate of it.

14 All things separate from the common vse in Israell, shall be thine. ℭ

15 All that breaketh the matrice in all flesh, that men bring vnto the Lorde, whether it be of men or beastes, shall be thine. Neuerthelater, the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, and the first borne of vncleane beastes shalt thou redeeme.

16 Those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeeme, from the age of a moneth, according to thine estimation, for the money of fiue sicles, after the siele of the sanctuarie, which is twentie Gerahs.

17 But the first borne of a cowe, sheepe, and goate, shalt thou not redeeme, for they are holy: therefore thou shalt sprinckle theyr bloud vpon the aulter, and shalt burne their fat, as a sacrifice made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde. og.

18 And the flesshe of them is thine, as the waue breast, and the right shoulder, these are thine. Leuit.7.d.

19 All the heaue offerings of holye things, which the chyldzen of Israel offer vnto the Lorde, haue I giuen thee, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: let it be a (b) salted couenant for euer before the Lorde, both vnto thee, and to thy seede with thee. b. That is, sure, stable, and incorruptible.

20 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue no inheritance in their lande, neither shalt thou haue any part among them: I am thy part, and thy inheritance among the chyldzen of Israel. Deut.18.a. Eccle.43.g.

D 21 Beholde, I haue giuen the children of Leui all the tenth in Israell to inherite, for the seruice which they serue in the tabernacle of the congregation.
22 Neither must the childrē of Israel hencefoorth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, least they beare sinne and die.
23 But the Leuites shal do the seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, and beare their sinne: it shall bee a lawe for euer in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possesse no inheritance.
24 But the tythes of the children of Israell, which they pay as an heaue offering vnto the Lorde, I haue giuen the Leuites to inherite: and therefore I haue sayde vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possesse no inheritance.
25 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
26 Speake vnto the Leuites, and saye vnto them, When ye take of the children of Israell the tithe, whiche I haue giuen you of them for your inheritance, ye shall take an heaue offering of the same for the Lorde, euen the tenth part of that tithe.
27 And this your heaue offering shalbe reckened vnto you, euen as though it were of the corne of the barne, or as the fulnesse of the winepresse.
E 28 Of this maner ye shall therefore offer an heaue offering vnto the Lorde, of all your tythes whiche ye receyue of the children of Israel, and ye shall giue therof the Lordes heaue offering to Aaron the priest.
29 Of all your giftes ye shal offer al the lords heaue offering, euen all the fat of the same, (to wit) the holy things therof.
30 Therfore thou shalt say vnto them, Whē ye haue taken away the fat of it from it, it shalbe counted vnto the Leuites, as if it were the increase of the corne flowre, or the increase of the winepresse.
31 And ye shall eate it in all places, both ye and your housholdes: for it is your rewarde for your seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.
32 And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when ye haue offered from it the fat of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, least ye die.

The xix. Chapter.

2. Of the redde Cowe. 14. The lawe of him, that dyeth in a tent. 16. And of him also, that toucheth any vncleane thing.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying.
2 This is the ordinaunce of the lawe whiche the lord hath commaunded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a redde Cow without spot, and wherein is no blemishe, and vpon whiche neuer came yoke.
3 And yee shall giue hir vnto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring hir without ỹ host, and cause hir to be slaine before his face:
4 And let Eleazar the priest take of hir bloud with his finger, and sprinckle it directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seuen tymes.
5 And cause the Cowe to bee burnt in hys sight, with hir skinne, flesh, and bloud: and the doung of hir shal be burne also.
6 And let the priest take Cedar wood, and hysope, and scarlet (lase) and cast it in the middes of the burning of the Cowe.
7 Then let the priest wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and then come into the host, and the priest shalbe vncleane vntill the euen.
8 And he that burneth hir, shall washe hys clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntill the euen.
9 And a man that is cleane, shall gather vp the asshes of the Cow, and lay them without the host in a cleane place, and it shalbe kept for the multitude of the children of Israell for a water of separation: it is a sinne offering.
10 Therefore hee that gathereth the asshes of the Cowe, shall washe hys clothes, and remaine vncleane vntyll the euen: and it shalbe vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the straunger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.
11 Hee that toucheth the dead bodie of anye man, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.
12 And he shall purifie hymselfe with thys water the thyrde day, and the seuenth day he shalbe cleane: But if he purifie not himselfe the thirde day, then the seuenth day hee shall not be cleane.
13 Whosoeuer toucheth the dead corse of any man that is dead, and purgeth not himselfe, defileth the tabernacle of the Lord, and that soule shalbe cut off from Israel, bycause the water of separation was not sprinckled vpon him: he shal be therefore vncleane, hys vncleannesse is yet vpon him.
14 This is the lawe of a man that dyeth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.
15 And all the vessels that be open, whiche haue no couering, bound vpon them, shalbe vncleane.
16 And who so euer toucheth one that is slaine with a sworde in the fieldes, or a dead person, person, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue,

shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.
17 Therefore for an vncleane persone they shall take of the burnt ashes of the sinne offering, and running water shalbe put thereto in a vessell.
Psal.51.b. 18 And let a cleane person take hyssope, and dip it in the water, and sprinckle it vpon the tent, and vppon all the vesselles, and on the persons that were therein, and vpon him that touched a bone, or a slaine person, or a dead bodie, or a graue.
19 And the cleane person shal sprinckle vpon the vncleane the thirde day, and the seuenth day: and the seuenth day he shal purifie him selfe, and wash his clothes, and bath himselfe in water, and shalbe cleane at euen.
20 But the man that is vncleane, and puri-fieth not himselfe, the same soule shalbe cut off from among the congregation: bycause he hath defiled the Sanctuarie of the Lorde, and the water of separation hath not beene sprinckled vpon him, therefore shall hee re-maine vncleane.
D 21 And it shalbe a perpetual law vnto them, that he that sprinckleth the water of separation, shall wash his clothes: and he that toucheth the water of separation, shall bee vncleane vntill the euen.
22 And whatsoeuer the vncleane person toucheth, shalbe vncleane: and the soule that toucheth (the thing that was touched of the vncleane person) shalbe vncleane vntill the euen.

The.xx. Chapter.

1. Miriam dyeth. 2. The people murmure. 8. They haue water euen out of the rocke. 12. Moses and Aaron shall not goe into the lande of promise. 14. Edom denyeth the Israelites passage through his Realme. 25. The death of Aaron, in whose roome Eleazar succeedeth.

I 1 AND the children of Israel came with the whole multitude into the desart of Num.33.d. Zin, in the first moneth, and the people abode at Cades: and there died Miriam, and was buried there.
2 But there was no water for the multitude: and they gathered themselues togy-ther against Moses and Aaron.
3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had perished, when our brethren died before the Lorde.
4 Why haue yee brought the congregation of the Lorde into this wildernesse, that both we, and our cattell should die in it?
5 Wherefore haue ye made vs to come vp out of Egypt, to bring vs into this euill place, which is no place of seede, nor of figges, nor of vines, nor of Pomgranates: neyther is there any water to drinke? Exod.17.a.
6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the congregation, vnto the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and fell vpon their faces, and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto them.
7 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying, B
8 Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the congregation togither, and speake vnto the Rocke before their eyes, and it shall giue forth his water: and thou shalt bring them water oute of the Rocke, to giue the companie drinke, and their beastes also.
9 And Moses toke the rodde from before the Lorde as he commaunded him. Exod.17.c.
10 And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation togither before the Rocke, and (Moses) sayde vnto them, Heare ye rebels:
must we fetch you water out of this rocke?
11 And Moses lift vp his hand, and with his rodde he smote the rocke two times, and the Psal.78.b.
water came out abundantly, and the multitude dranke, and their beastes also.
12 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, Bycause yee beleeued me not, to sanctifie me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shal not bring this congregation into the lande, which I haue giuen them.
13 This is the water of strife, bicause the children of Israel stroue with the Lorde, and he was sanctified in them.
14 And Moses sent messengers from Cades C vnto the king of Edom: thus sayth thy bro- Judg.11.c.
ther, Thou knowest all the trauaile that we haue had.
15 Our fathers went downe into Egypt and we haue dwelt in Egypt a long time: and the Egyptians vexed vs and our fathers.
16 And when we cryed vnto the Lorde, hee hearde our voyce, and sent an Angell, and hath fet vs vp out of Egypt: and beholde, we are in Cades, euen in the vttermost citie of thy border.
17 Let vs passe, I praye thee, through thy countrey: but we will not go through thy Num.21.c. fieldes, or vineyardes, nor wee wil drinke of the water of the fountaynes: we wil go by the kings high way, and neyther turne vnto the right hande, nor to the left, vntill we bee past thy borders.
18 And Edom answered him, Thou shalt not goe by mee, least I come out against thee with the sworde.

19 The childzen of Israell sayde vnto him, We will goe by the beaten way: and if I and my cattel drinke of thy water, I wyll pay for it: I will but onely (without any harme) go through on my feete.

20 He answered, Thou shalt not go thorow. And Edom came oute agaynst him wyth much people, and with a mightie power.

D 21 And thus Edom denyed to giue Israell passage through his countrey: wherefore Israell turned away from him.

22 And the childzen of Israell departed from Cades, and came vnto mount Hor, with all the congregation.

23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, harde by the coast of the lande of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shalbe gathered vnto his people: for he shall not come into the lande whiche I haue gyuen vnto the childzen of Israell, bycause ye disobeyed my mouth at the water of strife.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazer his sonne, and bring them vp into mount Hor, 26 And cause Aaron to put off his garments, and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: and Aaron shalbe gathered vnto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the Lorde commaunded: and they went vp into mount Hor, in the sight of all the multitude.

E 28 And Moses toke off Aarons clothes, and Deut.10.b. put them vpon Eleazar his sonne, and Aaron dyed there in the toppe of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came downe out of the mount.

29 When all the multitude saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirtie dayes, all the houshold of Israell.

The.xxi. Chapter.

1. Israel vanquisheth king Arad. 6. The firie serpentes sting them. 24. The kings, Sehon and Og, are ouercome in battaile.

I 1 AND when king Arad the Chanaanite,
Num.23.d. which dwelt towarde the south, hearde tell that Israell came by the way, that the spies had found out, he fought agaynst Israell, and toke some of them prisoners.

2 And Israel vowed a vow vnto the Lord, and sayde, If thou wilt delyuer this people into my hande, I will vtterly destroye theyr cities.

3 And the Lorde heard the voyce of Israel, and deliuered them the Chanaanites: and they destroied them and their cities, and called the name of the place, Horma.

Judg.1.d. 4 And they departed from mount Hor, by the way of the red sea, to compasse the lande Deu.
of Edom: and the soule of the people was sore grieued, bycause of the way.

5 And the people spake agaynst God, and Num.
agaynst Moses: Wherefore haue ye brought vs out of Egypt, for to die in the wyldernesse? for here is neither breade nor water, and our soule lotheth this light bread.

6 Wherefore the Lorde sent firie serpentes 1.Co.
among the people, which stong them: and Sap.
much people of Israel dyed.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and B sayde, We haue sinned, for we haue spoken agaynst the Lorde, and agaynst thee: make Exo.
intercession to the Lorde, that he take away 3.Re.
the serpents from vs. And Moses made in- Ioh.
tercession for the people:

8 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Make thee a firie serpent, and set it vp vpon a pole: that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and liue.

9 And Moses made a serpent of brasse, and Ioh.
set it vpon a pole: and when a serpent had 4.Re.
bitten any man, hee beheelde the serpent of brasse, and liued.

10 And the childzen of Israel departed thence, Num.
and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched at the heapes of Abarim, euen in the wildernesse, which is before Moab, on the east side.

12 And they remoued thence, and pitched vpon the ryuer of Zared.

13 And they departed thence, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wildernesse, and commeth out of the coastes of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, betwene Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore, it shalbe spoken in the booke C of the warres of the Lorde, what thing hee did in the redde Sea, and in the Ryuers of Arnon.

15 And at the streame of the ryuers, that goeth downe to the dwelling of Ar, and lyeth vpon the border of Moab.

16 From thence (they returned) vnto Beer: the same is the wel, whereof the Lorde spake vnto Moses, Gather the people togither, and I will giue them water.

17 Then Israell sang this song, Spring vp well: sing ye vnto it.

18 The Princes digged this well, the Captaynes of the people digged it with the lawgiuer, and with their staues. And from the wildernesse they went to Mathana:

19 And from Mathana to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, t.29.b. 23 But Sehon would giue Israel no licence to passe thorough his countrey: but gathered all his people together, & went out agaynst Israel into the wildernesse: and he came to Jaza, and fought agaynst Israell.

t.1.a. 24 And Israell smote him with the edge of e.4.a. the swoorde, and conquered his lande from Arnon vnto Jabok, vnto the childzen of Ammon: For the bozder of the childzen of Ammon was strong.

t.2.d. 25 And Israel toke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Hesbon, and in all the townes that belong thereto.

26 For Hesbon was the citie of Sehon the king of the Amorites whiche fought before agaynst the king of the Moabites, and toke all his lande out of his hande, euen vnto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speake in prouerbes, say, come to Hesbon, and let the citie of Sehon be built, and repayred.

E 28 For there is a fire gone out of Hesbon, and a flame from the citie of Sehon, and hath consumed Ar in Moab, and the Lordes of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 Wo to thee Moab: Oye people of Chamos, yee are vndone: hee hath suffered his sonnes to be pursued, and his daughters to be in captiuitie vnto Sehon the king of the Amorites.

30 Their Empire is lost from Hesbon vnto Dibon, and we are made a wildernesse euen vnto Nopha, which reacheth vnto Medeba.

31 And thus Israell dwelt in the lande of the Amorites.

t.3.a. 32 And Moses sent to search out Jaezer, and 9.b. they toke the townes belonging therto, and rooted out the Amorites, that were therein.

33 And they turned, and went vp towarde Basan: and Og the king of Basan came out agaynst them, hee and all his people, to fight at Edzai.

F 34 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue delyuered hym into thy hande, and all his people, and his lande: and thou shalt doe to hym, as thou dyddest vnto Sehō the king of the Amorites which dwelt at Hesbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, and al his people, vntill there was nothing left him: and they conquered his lande.

that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were sore afrayde of the people bycause they were manye, and they were stroken with feare of the childzen of Israel.

4 And Moab sayde vnto the elders of Madian, Nowe shall this companie "licke vp all that are rounde about vs, as an Oxe lycketh vp the grasse of the fielde. And Balac the sonne of Ziphor, was king of the Moabites at that tyme.

" Heb. with licking to escape away.

5 He sent Messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the ryuer of the lande of the childzen of hys folke, to call him, saying, Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and behold they couer the face of the earth, and dwell (a) ouer agaynst me.

Deut. 23. 2.Pet.2.c.

a. Not farre from me, euen harde by me.

6 Come nowe therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people: for they are to mightie for me, so peraduenture I might be able to smite them, and to dziue them out of the lande: for I wote, that hee, whom thou blessest, is blessed: and he, whom thou cursest, is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of B
Madian departed, hauing the (rewarde) of the sothsaying in theyr hande: and they came vnto Balaam, and tolde him the wordes of Balac.

8 He answered them, Tarry here this night, and I will bring you worde, euen as the Lorde shal say vnto me. And the Lordes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, and sayd, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam sayde vnto God, Balac the sonne of Ziphor, king of Moab, hath sent vnto me (saying,)

11 Beholde, there is a people come oute of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: Come nowe therefore, and curse them for my sake: if so peraduenture I may be able to ouercome them in battaile, and to dziue them out.

12 And God sayde vnto Balaam, Goe not thou with them, neyther curse the people:

for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and sayde vnto the Lordes of Balac, Get you vnto your land: for the Lorde wil not suffer me to go with you.

C 14 And the Lordes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balac, & sayde, Balaam would not come with vs.

15 And Balac sent againe a greater companie of Lordes, & more honorable than they,

16 Which came to Balaam, and tolde him, Thus sayeth Balac the sonne of Ziphor, Oh let nothing let thee, but come vnto me:

17 For I will greatly promote thee vnto great honour, and will do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come, I pray thee, curse this people for my sake.

Num. 23. e. 18 And Balaam answered, and sayde vnto the seruantes of Balac, If Balac woulde giue me his house full of siluer and golde, I can not go beyonde the worde of the Lorde my God, to do lesse, or more:

19 Nowe therefore I pray you, tarrie ye here this night, that I may wit what the Lorde will say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayd vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and goe with them: but looke, what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

D 21 And Balaam rose vp early, and sadled his Asse, and went with the Lordes of Moab.

b. He went more to hurt and damage the children of Israel, and for his hyre, and lucre sake, than for any affection he had to obey God, as after. 32. verse.

22 And the (b) wrath of God was kindled, because he went: and the Angell of the Lorde stode in the way to be agaynst him, as hee rode vpon his Asse, and his two seruantes were with him.

23 And when the Asse saw the Angell of the Lorde stande in the way, and hauing hys sworde drawne in his hande, the Asse turned aside out of the way, and went out into the fielde: and Balaam smote the Asse, to turne hir into the way.

24 But the Angell of the Lorde stode in a path betweene the vineyards, and there was a wall on the one side, and another on the other.

25 And when the Asse saw the Angell of the Lord, she thrust hir selfe vnto the wall, and rusht Balaams foote agaynst the wall: and he smote hir againe.

26 And the Angel of the Lord went further, and stode in a narrow place, where was no way to turne, eyther to the right hande, or to the left.

27 And when the Asse sawe the Angel of the Lorde, she fell downe vnder Balaam: and Balaam was wroth, and smote the Asse with a staffe.

E 28 And the Lorde opened the mouth of the Asse, and she sayd vnto Balaam, what haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me now three tymes?

29 And Balaam sayde vnto the Asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I woulde also there were a sworde in mine hande, for euen now would I kill thee.

30 And the Asse sayde vnto Balaam, Am not I thine Asse, whiche thou hast ridden vpon since the fyrste tyme vnto this day? Was I euer wont to doe so vnto thee? He sayde, Nay.

31 And the Lorde opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the Lord standing in the way, hauing his sworde drawen in his hande: He bowed himselfe therefore, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angell of the Lorde sayde vnto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine Asse these three tymes? Beholde, I came out to withstande thee, bycause (thine heart) hath declined out of the way before me.

33 And the Asse sawe mee, and turned from me nowe three tymes: or else if she had not turned fro me, I had surely slaine thee, and saued hir aliue.

34 Balaam sayde vnto the Angell of the Lorde, I haue sinned: for I wyst not, that thou stoodest in the way agaynst me: Now therefore if it displease thee, I will turne home againe.

35 The Angell of the Lorde sayde vnto Balaam, Goe with the men: but what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. And so Balaam went with the Lordes of Balac.

36 And when Balac hearde that Balaam was come, he went out to meete him, vnto a citie of Moab, whiche is in the border of Arnon, euen in the vtmost coast.

37 And Balac sayde vnto Balaam, Dyd I not sende for thee to call thee? And wherefore camest thou not vnto me? Am I not able in deede to promote thee vnto honour?

38 And Balaam made answere vnto Balac, Loe, I am come vnto thee, and can I nowe say anye thing at all? The worde that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speake.

39 And Balaam went with Balac, and they came into a citie of streetes.

40 And Balac offered oxen and sheepe, and sent (thereof) to Balaam, and to the Lords that were with him.

41 And on the morow Balac toke Balaam, and brought him vp into the high places of Baal, that thence hee might see the vtmost part of the people.

3 And Balaam sayde vnto Balac, Stande by thy sacrifice, and I will goe, if happily the Lorde will meete me: and whatsoeuer he sheweth me, I wil tel thee. And he went vp hygher:

4 But God mette Balaam, and (Balaam) sayde vnto him, I haue prepared seuen aulters, and haue offered vpon euery aulter, an oxe, and a ramme.

5 And the Lord put a saying in Balaams mouthe, and sayde, Goe agayne to Balac, and say on this wyse.

6 And when he went agayne vnto hym, loe, he stode by his burnt sacrifice, he and al the lordes of Moab.

B 7 And he toke vp his parable, and sayde, Balac the kyng of Moab hath brought me from Mesopotamia out of the mountaines of the east, (saying,) Come, curse Jacob for my sake, come and defie Israell.

8 How shal I curse him, whom God hath not cursed? or how shal I defie him, whom God hath not defied?

9 For frō the top of the rockes I see him, and from the hylles I beholde him: loe, the people shall dwell by themselues, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

That is, the multitude of chyldren of Israel.

10 Who can tel the (a) dust of Jacob, and the nūber of the fourth part of Israell? I pray God that my soule may die the death of the righteous, & that my end may be lyke his.

11 And Balac sayde vnto Balaam, What haste thou done vnto me? I toke thee to curse mine enimies, and beholde thou haste blessed them altogether.

12 He aunswered, and sayde, Muste I not take heede to speake that, which the Lorde hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balac sayde vnto hym, Come, I pray thee, with me vnto another place, whence thou mayest see them, & thou shalt see but the vtmost part of them, and shalt not see them al: curse them out of that place for my sake.

C 14 And he brought hym into a fielde, where men might see farre of, euen to the top of an hil, and builte seuen aulters, and offered an oxe and a ramme, on euery aulter.

15 And he sayde vnto Balac, Stande here by thy burnt sacrifice, whyle I meete (the Lorde) yonder.

16 And the Lorde met Balaam, and put a worde in his mouth, and sayd, Goe againe vnto Balac, and say thus. Num.22.g.

17 And when he came to hym, beholde he stode by his burnt sacrifice, and the Lordes of Moab with hym. And Balac sayde vnto hym, What hath the Lorde sayde?

18 And he toke vp his parable, and aunswered, Ryse vp Balac, and heare, & hearken vnto me thou sonne of Ziphor:

19 God is not a man, that he should lie, neither the sonne of a man, that he should repent: should he say, and not do? or should he speake, and not make it good? 1.Cor.1.b. and,10.c.

20 Behold, I haue taken vpon me to blesse: for he hath blessed, & it is not in my power to alter it.

21 He beheelde no banitie in Jacob, nor sawe transgressiō in Israel: The Lord his God is with him, and the ioyful shout of a kyng is among them. D

22 God brought them out of Egypt, they haue strength as an Unicorne. Num.24.b.

23 For there is no sorcerie in Jacob, nor soothsaying in Israell, (b) according to this tyme it shalbe sayde of Jacob, and Israel, What hath God wrought?

b. As it is spoken at this tyme what wonderous workes the Lorde hath done for Israel, so shall it be in time to come.

24 Beholde, the people shall rise vp as a Lion, and heaue vp him selfe as a young Lion: He shal not lie downe (c) vntil he eate of the pray, and drinke the bloud of them that are slayne.

c. Vntill he hath taken the spoyle frō his enimies, and ouercome the.

25 And Balac sayd vnto Balaam, Neither curse them, nor blesse them at all.

26 But Balaam aunswered, and sayd vnto Balac, Tolde not I thee, saying, All that the Lorde speaketh, that I must do.

27 And Balac sayde vnto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, and I will bryng thee yet vnto another place, if at al it wil please God, that thou mightest thence curse them for my sake.

28 And Balac brought Balaam vnto the toppe of Peor, that loketh towarde Jesimon.

29 And Balaam sayde vnto Balac, Make me here seuen aulters, and prepare me here seuen oxen, and seuen rammes.

XXIII

1 AND when Balaam sawe, that it pleased the Lorde, that he should blesse Israel, he went not, as he did twyse before, to meete a sothsaying, but set his face toward the wildernesse.

2 And Balaam lifted vp his eyes, and looked vpon Israel, as he lay accordyng to his tribes, and the spirite of God came vpon him.

Num. 24. d.

3 And he toke vp his parable, & sayde, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath sayde, and the man whose (a) eyes are open, hath sayde,

a. He meaneth not the corporal eye, but the eye of the minde.

4 He hath sayde, which heareth the wordes of God, & seeth the visions of the almightie and falleth downe with open eyes:

5 Howe goodly are thy tentes, O Jacob, and thy habitations, O Israell?

6 Euen as the valleys are they laid abrode, and as gardens by the ryuers syde, as the tentes which the Lord hath pitched, and as Cypres trees beside the waters.

b. They shal be very fruitefull, as trees and gardens that be watered.

7 The water droppeth out of his bucket, and (b) his seede shalbe in many waters, and his kyng shalbe higher than (c) Agag; and his kyngdome shalbe exalted.

c. Al the Romane Emperours tooke their names of Cæsar, as the most noblest Emperour: so the kings of the Amalekites tooke their names of Agag, as the most valiaunt and renowmed prince.

8 God brought him out of Egypt, his strength is as the Unicorne: he shall eate the nations his enimies, and gnaw their bones, and pearse them through with his arrowes.

Gen. 49. b.

9 He couched himselfe, and lay downe as a Lion, and as an elder Lion: who shall styre him vp? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

d. A token of anger.

10 And Balac was wroth with Balaam, and (d) smote his handes together, and Balac sayde vnto Balaam, I sent for thee to curse myne enimies, and beholde, thou hast blessed them these three tymes.

11 Therefore now get thee quickly vnto thy place: I thought, that I would promote thee vnto honour: but lo, the Lorde hath kept thee backe from worshyp.

12 Balaam answeared vnto Balac, Tolde I not thy messengers, whiche thou sentest vnto me, saying,

Num. 22. d.

13 If Balac would giue me his house ful of siluer and golde, I can not passe the worde of the Lorde, to do eyther good or bad, of myne owne minde: but what the Lorde sayth, that will I speake.

14 And nowe beholde, I goe vnto my people: Come therefore, and I will aduertise thee, what this people shall do to thy folke in the latter dayes.

15 And he toke vp his parable, and sayde, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath sayde, The man whose eyes are open, hath sayde,

16 He hath sayde that heareth the wordes of God, and hath the knowledge of the most high, and beholdeth the vision of the almightie, and that falleth, and his eyes are opened:

17 I shal (e) see him, but not now: I shal beholde him, but not nigh. There shall come a starre of Jacob, and rise a sceptre of Israel, and shall smyte the coastes of Moab, and vndermine the children of Seth.

e. By the coming of Christ.

18 And Edom shalbe possessed, and Seir shall fall to the possession of their enimies, and Israel shal do manfully.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he, that shall haue dominion, and shall destroy the remnaunt of the citie.

20 And when he loked on Amalek, he toke vp his parable, and sayde, Amalek is the first of the nations: but his latter ende shall perishe vtterly.

21 And he loked on the Kenites, and toke vp his parable, and sayde, Strong is thy dwellyng place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rocke.

22 Nuertheless, the Kenite shalbe roted out, vntill Assur take thee prysoner.

23 And he toke vp his parable, & sayd, Alas, who shall liue, when God doth this?

24 The shippes also shall come out of the coast of Chittim, & subdue Assur, & subdue Eber, and he himself shal perish at the last.

25 And Balaam rose vp, and went and returned to his place: and Balac also went his way.

moneth olde and aboue: For they were not numbred among the chyldren of Israel, bi-cause there was no inheritaunce giuen them among the children of Israell.
63 These are the numbers, when Moses and Eleazar the priest, numbred the chyldren of Israel in the playne of Moab, fast by Jordane (ouer agaynst) Jericho.
64 And among these, there was not a man of them, whom Moses and Aaron numb-bred, when they tolde the children of Israel in the wildernesse of Sinai.
65 For the Lord sayde of them, They shall die in the wildernesse, and there was not lefte a man of them, saue Caleb the sonne
☞ of Jephune, and Josuah the sonne of Nun.

The.xxvij. Chapter.

1. The lawe of the heritage of the daughters of Zalphaad. 12. The lande of promyse is shewed vnto Moses. 18. In whose steade is appoynted Iosuah.

1 THen came the daughters of Zalphaad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Ma-nasse, of the kynrede of Manasse the sonne of Joseph: whose names were Maala, Noha, Hagla, Melcha and Thirza,
2 And stode before Moses and Eleazar the priest, and before the Lordes, and all the multitude by the dore of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,
3 Our father dyed in the wildernesse, and was not in the company of them, that gathered themselues together against the Lorde in the congregation of Corah: but (a) dyed in his owne sinne, and had no sonnes.
4 Wherfore then is the name of our father taken away from among his kynrede, by-cause he hath no sonne? Giue vnto vs therefore a possession, among the (b) brethren of our father.
5 And Moses brought their (c) cause before
the Lorde.
6 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
7 The daughters of Zalphaad speake right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherite among theyr fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritaunce of theyr father, vnto them.
8 And thou shalt speake vnto the chyldren of Israell, saying, If a man dye, and haue no sonne, ye shal turne his inheritaunce vnto his daughter.
9 If he haue no daughter, ye shall giue his inheritaunce, vnto his brethren.
10 If he haue also no brethren, ye shall gyue his inheritaunce, vnto his fathers brethren.
11 And if his father haue no brethren, ye shall gyue his inheritaunce, vnto him, that is next to him of his kynrede, and he shall possesse it: And this shalbe vnto the children of Israel a lawe of iudgement, as the Lord hath commaunded Moses.
12 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Get thee vp into this mount Abarim, and be-holde the lande whiche I haue gyuen vnto
the chyldren of Israel:
13 And when thou "hast seene it, thou shalt be (d) gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.
14 For ye were disobedient vnto my mouth in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, neyther dyd ye sanctifie me in the (e) waters, before theyr eyes: that is, the water of stryfe in Cades, in the wildernesse of Zin.
15 And Moses spake vnto the Lord, saying,
16 Let the Lorde God of the spirites of all flesshe, set a man ouer the congregation,

The.xxviij. Chapter.

1. VVhat must be offered on euery feast day.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commaunde the children of Israel, and say vnto them, My offeryng and my bread for my sacrifices, whiche are made by fyre for a sweete sauour, shall ye obserue, to offer vnto me in theyr due season.

3 And thou shalt say vnto them, This is the offeryng made by fire, whiche ye shall offer vnto the Lorde: two (a) lambes of a yeare olde without spot, day by day, for a continual burnt offeryng.

4 One lambe shalte thou prepare in the morneyng, and the other at euen.

5 And thereto the tenth part of an Epha of flowre, for a meate offeryng, mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of beaten oyle.

6 It is a daily burnt offering, such as was ordeyned in the mount Sinai for a sweete sauour, a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde.

7 And let the drinke offeryng of the same be the fourth part of an Hin for one lambe, and in the holy place shalt thou commaund the wine to be powred vnto the Lorde:

8 And the other lambe thou shalt offer at euen, after the manner of the meate offering, and the drynke offeryng of the morneyng, a sacrifice made by fyre shalt thou offer, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

9 And on the Sabboth day, two lambes of a yeare olde without spot, and two tenth deales of floure for a meate offering mingled with oyle, & the drinke offering thereto.

10 This is the burnt offring of euery Sabboth, beside the dayly burnt offryng, and the drynke offeryng.

11 And in the beginnyng of your monethes, ye shal offer a burnt offering vnto ỹ Lord: two yong bullockes and a ramme, and seuen lambes of a yeare old without spot,

12 And three tenth deales of flowre for a meate offeryng myngled with oyle for one bullocke, and two tenth deales of flowre for a meate offeryng mingled with oyle for one ramme,

13 And a tenth deale of flowre myngled with oyle for a meate offeryng vnto one lambe, for a burnt offering of a sweete sauour, & a sacrifice made by fire vnto ỹ lord.

14 And theyr drinke offerings, shalbe half an Hin of wine vnto one bullocke, & the thirde parte of an Hin of wine vnto a ramme, and the fourth parte of an Hin vnto a lambe: This is the burnt offeryng of euery moneth, throughout the moneths of the yeare:

15 And one hee goate for a sinne offeryng vnto the Lorde, shalbe offered, besides the dayly burnt offering, & the drinke offering.

16 And the fourtienth day of the firste moneth, is the Passeouer of the Lorde.

17 And in the fiftienth day of the same moneth is the feast: seuen dayes long shall vnleauened bread be eaten.

18 In the first day shalbe an holy conuocation, ye shall do no maner of seruile worke therein.

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde, two young bullockes, one ramme, & seuen lambes of a yeare old: let them be without spot.

20 And let theyr meate offering be of flowre myngled with oyle: three tenth deales allo shall ye offer for a bullocke, and two tenth deales for a ramme.

21 One tenth deale shalt thou offer for euery lambe of the seuen lambes.

22 And an hee goate for a sinne offeryng, to make an attonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offeryng

a. The Iewes do say, that by the beast that is sacrificed, the sinner is vnderstoode. For when the beast is led to be killed, the trespasser ought (say they) to thinke as though he for his offence were led vnto the same: and thus to cōfesse: O Lorde I am giltie of death: I haue deserued to be stoned for this trespasse, and not this beast: or to be strangled for this transgression, or to be burnt for this crime. But these sacrifices do by shadowe signifie Christe the true lambe of God, who would afterwarde cleanse our sinnes, and pay the pryce for them. How greeuous therefore should wee acknowledge and confesse our sinnes to be, for the whiche no beast, but the innocent sonne of God hath dyed? For the father sparyng vs, hath yeelded his sonne vnto death.

ryng in the mozning, whiche is a continuall burnt sacrifice.

24 After this manner ye shal offer throughout the seuen dayes, the flesh of the sacrifice made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lozde: and it shalbe done beside the dayly burnt offeryng, and the drinke offeryng.

25 And in the seuenth day ye shall haue an holy conuocation, (wherein) ye shall do no seruile wozke.

26 Also in the day of your first fruites, when ye bryng a newe meate offeryng vnto the Lozde, accozdyng to your (b) weekes, ye shall haue an holy conuocation, and ye shal do no seruile wozke in it.

27 But offer a burnt offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lozd, two yong bullocks, a ramme, and seuen lambes of a yeare old,

28 With theyr meate offerings of flowre mingled with oyle, three tenth deales vnto a bullocke, two tenth deales vnto a ramme,

29 And one tenth deale vnto a lambe, throwout the seuen lambes,

30 And an hee goate to make an attonemẽt for you.

31 This ye shall do, besides the continuall burnt offeryng, and his meate offeryng, (& they shalbe vnto you without spot) with theyr drynke offerings.

The.xxix.Chapter.

1. VVhat must be offered the eight first dayes of the seuenth moneth.

1 AND in the first day of the (a) seuẽth moneth, ye shal haue an holy conuocation, ye shal do then no seruile wozke: For it is a day of blowyng the trumpettes vnto you.

2 And ye shall offer a burnt offeryng, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lozde, one young bullocke, one ramme, and seuen lambes of a yeare olde without blemishe:

3 And theyr meate offering shalbe made of flowre mingled with oyle, three (b) tenth deales vnto the bullocke, & two tenth deales vnto the ramme,

4 And one tenth deale vnto one lambe, throughout the seuen lambes:

5 And an hee goate for a sinne offeryng, to make an attonement for you:

6 Beside the burnt offeryng of the (c) moneth, and the meate offeryng, and beside the dayly burnt offeryng, & the meate offering, and the drynke offerings of the same, which muste be done accozdyng vnto the manner of them, for a sauour of sweetenesse, it is a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lozde.

22 And there shalbe offered an hee goate for a sinne offering, beside the dayly burnt offeryng, and the meate and drinke offeryng.

The.xxx.Chapter.

.2 Of vowes, when they shalbe kept, and when not.

1 AND Moses spake vnto the heades of the tribes, concernyng the children of Israell, saying. This is the thyng, whiche the Lorde hath commaunded.

2 If a man vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, or sweare an othe to binde his soule, he shal not goe backe with his worde, but shall fulfil all that is proceeded out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and binde hyr selfe, beyng in hir fathers house in the tyme of hir youth:

4 And hir father heare hir vow and bonde, whiche she hath made vpon hyr soule, and holde his peace thereto, then all hir vowes and bondes whiche she hath made vpon hir soule, shal stande in effect.

5 But if hyr father disallowe hyr the same day, that he heareth al hyr vowes & bondes, whiche she hath made vpon hyr soule, they shall not be of value, and the Lorde shall forgiue hyr, because hyr father (a) disallowed hyr.

6 If she had an husband, when she vowed or pronounced ought out of hyr lyppes, wherewith she bounde hir soule,

7 And hyr husbande heard it, and helde his peace thereat, the same day he hearde it: then hir vowes shall stande, and hyr bondes, wherewith she bound hir soule, shal stande in effect.

8 And if hir husband disallow hyr the same day, that he hearde it, then he shall make hir vowe, whiche she hath vpon hir, and the openyng of hir lippes, wherewith she bound hir soule, of none effect, and the Lorde shall forgiue hir.

9 But euery vowe of a widow, and of hir, that is diuorced, that they haue bounde their soule withal, shal stand in effect with them.

10 If she vowed in hyr (b) husbandes house, or bounde hyr soule with an othe, 11 And hyr husbande hearde it, and helde his peace, concernyng hyr, and disallowed hyr not, then all hir vowes shall stande, and euery bonde, wherwith she bounde hir soule, shall stande.

12 But if hir husbande disanulled them the same day, that he hearde them, then nothing that proceedeth out of hir lippes in vowes and bondes, wherwith she bound hir soule, shall stande in effect: for hir husbande hath disanulled them, and the Lorde shall forgiue hir.

13 All vowes and othes, that bynde to (c) humble the soule, may hyr husbande stablishe, or breake.

14 But if hir husbande holde his peace from (d) one day to another, then he stablisheth all hir vowes and bondes, whiche she had vpon vpon hyr: he confirmeth them, bycause he helde his peace, concernyng hyr the same day, that he hearde them.

15 But (e) if he breake them, after that he hath hearde them, he shall beare hyr sinne himselfe.

16 These are the ordinaunces, whiche the Lord cõmaunded Moses, betweene a man and his wyfe, and betweene the father and his daughter, beyng yet a damsel in hyr fathers house.

The.xxxi.Chapter.

8. The Madianites are slayne and theyr cities burnt, Balaã is slayne. 27. The pray is equally diuided. 49. A present giuen of Israel.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Auenge the children of Israel of the Madianites, and afterwarde shalt thou be gathered vnto thy people.

3 And Moses spake vnto the folke, saying, Harnesse some of you vnto warre, and let them go vpon the Madianites, and auenge the Lorde of the Madianites.

4 Of euery tribe a thousande, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye sende to the warre.

5 And there were deliuered out of ỹ thousandes of Israell, twelue thousande, prepared vnto warre, of euery tribe a thousand.

6 And Moses sent them to the warre, euen a thousande of euery tribe, and with them Phinees the sonne of Eleazar the priest to the warre, & the holy vessels, and the trumpets to blowe, were in his hande.

7 And they warred agaynst the Madianites, as the Lorde commaunded Moses, and slue all the males.

9 And the children of Israell toke all the women of Madian prysoners, and theyr children, and spoyled al theyr cattel, and all theyr flockes, and all theyr goodes.

10 And they burnt all theyr cities wherein they dwelt, and all theyr goodly dwellings with fire.

11 And they toke all the spoyle, and all the bootie, both of men and beastes.

14 And Moses was angry with the officers of the host, with the captaynes ouer thousandes, and ouer hundredes, whiche came from the warre, and battayle.

15 And Moses sayd vnto them, Haue ye saued al the (b) women aliue?

16 Beholde, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to cõmit trespasse agaynst the Lorde in the businesse of (c) Peor, and there followed a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

17 Nowe therfore, slay al the men children, and kill the women, that haue layne with men fleshly.

18 But all the women children, that haue not layne with men fleshly, keepe alyue for your selues.

19 And ye shall remayne without the host seuen dayes, all that haue killed any person, and all that haue touched any dead body, and purifie both your selues and your prysoners the thyrde day, and the seuenth.

20 And purifie all your rayments, and that is made of skinnes, and al worke of goates heare, and al things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the priest sayd vnto the men of warre, which went to the battaile, This is the ordinaunce of the lawe, whiche the Lorde commaunded Moses:

22 As for gold, siluer, braste, and iron, tinne, and leade,

23 And al ỹ may abide the fire, ye shal make it go through the fire, and it shalbe cleane: Neuertheles, it shalbe purified with water of separation: & al that suffereth not the fire, ye shal make go thorowe the water:

24 And washe your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane, and afterwarde come into the host.

25 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Take the summe of the pray, that was taken, both of the persons, and of the cattel, thou and Eleazar the priest, and the chefe fathers of the congregation:

27 And diuide the pray into two partes, betweene them, that toke the warre vpon them, and went out to battayle, and all the congregation.

28 And take a tribute vnto the Lorde of the men of warre, which went out to battayle: one soule of fiue hundred, bothe of the persons, and of the kine, and of the asses, and of the sheepe.

2 The chyldren of Ruben, and the chyldren of Gad came, and spake vnto Moses and Eleazar the priest, and vnto the Lordes of the congregation, saying,

3 The land of Ataroth, and Dibon, Jazer, and Nemrah, Hesbon, and Elealeh, Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Whiche countrey the Lord smote before the congregatiō of Israell, is a lande meete for cattel, & we thy seruaunts haue cattell.

5 Wherefore, sayde they, if we haue founde grace in thy sight, let this lande be gyuen vnto thy seruaunts to possesse, and bring vs not ouer Iordane.

6 And Moses sayde vnto the chyldren of Gad and Ruben, Shall your brethren go to warre, and shall ye sit here?

B 7 Wherefore discourage ye the harte of the chyldren of Israel, that they should not go ouer into the lande, which the Lorde hath gyuen them?

8 Thus dyd your fathers, when I sent the from

from Cades Barnea to ſee the lande.
9 For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eſchol, and ſawe the lande, they diſcouraged the hart of the chyldren of Iſrael, that they ſhould not go into the lād, which the Lorde hath giuen them.
10 And the Lordes wrath was kindled the ſame tyme, and he ſware, ſaying, 11 None of the men that came out of Egypt, from twentie yeares olde and aboue, ſhall ſee the lande, whiche I ſware vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, bycauſe they haue not wholy folowed me, 12 Saue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune the Kenezite, and Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun: for they haue conſtantly folowed the lord.
13 And the Lord was very angry with Iſrael, and made them wander in the wyldernelle fourtie yeares, vntill all the generation, that had done euill in the ſight of the Lorde, were conſumed.
C 14 And beholde, Ye are ryſen vp in your fathers ſteede, as an increaſe of ſinfull men, to augment the fierce wrath of the Lorde towarde Iſrael:
15 For if ye turne away from after him, he will yet againe leaue the people in the wildernelle, (b) & ye ſhall deſtroy all this folke.
16 And they wēt neare him, & ſayd, We wil build ſheepefoldes here for our ſheepe, & for our cattel, & (walled) cities for our children:
17 But we our ſelues wil goe ready armed before the chyldren of Iſrael, vntil we haue brought them vnto (c) their place: and our chyldren ſhal dwell in the fenſed cities, bycauſe of the inhabiters of the lande.
18 We will not returne vnto our houſes, vntill the chyldren of Iſrael haue inherited, euery man his inheritaunce:
19 Neyther wil we inherite with them on yonder ſide Iordane forewarde, bycauſe our inheritance is fallen to vs on this ſide Iordane, eaſtwarde.
20 And Moſes ſayde vnto them, If ye will do this thing, and goe harneſſed (d) before the Lorde to warre,
D 21 And will goe all of you in harneſſe ouer Iordane before the Lorde, vntill he haue caſt out his (e) enimies from his ſight, 22 And vntill the lande be ſubdued before the Lorde: then ye ſhall returne, & be without ſinne (f) before the Lord, and before Iſrael, and this lande ſhalbe your poſſeſſion before the Lorde.
23 But if ye wil not do ſo, beholde, ye haue ſinned againſt the Lorde: and be ſure (g) your ſinne will finde you out.
24 Make therefore, buylde cities for your chyldren, and foldes for your ſheepe, and do that ye haue ſpoken.
25 The childrē of Gad, & the childrē of Ruben ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying, Thy ſeruāts will do as my Lorde commaundeth.
26 Our children, our wiues, our ſheepe, and our cattel, ſhall remayne here in the cities of Gilead:
27 But thy ſeruauntes will go al harneſſed for the warre, and vnto battayle before the Lorde, as my Lorde ſayth.
28 And for theyr ſakes, Moſes commaunded E Eleazār the prieſt, and Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Iſrael,
29 And Moſes ſayd vnto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Ruben will go with you ouer Iordane, al armed, to fight before the Lorde, then when the lande is ſubdued before you, ye ſhall gyue them the lande of Gilead to poſſeſſe:
30 But (h) if they wil not go ouer with you in harneſſe, they ſhall haue theyr poſſeſſions among you, in the lande of Chanaan.
31 And the children of Gad, & the children of Ruben, anſweared, ſaying, As (i) the Lorde hath ſayd vnto thy ſeruaunts, ſo wil we do:
32 We will goe harneſſed before the Lorde into the land of Chanaan, that the poſſeſſion of our inheritaunce may be giuen vs on this ſide Iordane.
33 And Moſes gaue vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Ruben, and vnto halfe the tribe of Manaſſe the ſonne of Ioſeph, the kyngdome of Sehon king of the (k) Amorites, and the kingdome of Og kyng of Baſan, the lande with the cities thereof, in the coaſtes and cities of the cōtrey rounde about.
34 And the children of Gad buylt Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Aroth, Sophan, Iaaſer, & Iogbea,
36 Bethnimra, and Betharan, fenſed cities: and they buylded foldes for the ſheepe.
37 And the chyldren of Ruben buylt Hebon, Eleale, Kiriathaim, 38 Nebo, Baalmeon, & turned their names, and Sibama alſo: and gaue other names, vnto the cities, which they buylded.
39 And the chyldren of Machir, the ſonne of Manaſſe went to Gilead, and toke it, and put out the Amorites, that dwelt therein.
40 And Moſes gaue Gilead vnto Machir, the ſonne of Manaſſe, & he dwelt therein.
41 And Iair the ſonne of Manaſſe went and toke the ſmall townes thereof, and called them (l) Hauoth Iair. Deut. 3. b.
42 And Nobah went and toke Kenath, & the townes belonging thereto, and called it Nobah, after his owne name.

h. Ouer Iordane.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, say-

2 Commaunde the children of Israell, and say vnto them, When ye come into the lande of Chanaan, (a) this is the lande that shall fall vnto your inheritaunce, (euen) the 5 And set a compasse againe from Azmon, vnto the (c) riuer of Egypt, and shal go out maūded to giue vnto nine tribes & an halfe.

16 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
17 These are the names of the men whiche shall diuide the lande vnto you: Eleazar

The.xxxv. Chapter.

2. Vnto the Leuites are giuen cities and suburbes. 11. The cities of refuge. 16. The law of manquelling. 30. For one mans witnesse shall no man be condemned.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses in the fieldes of Moab by Iordane ouer agaynst Iericho, saying,
2 Commaund the chyldren of Israell, that they giue vnto the Leuites of the (a) inheritaunce of theyr possession, cities to dwel in: and ye shall giue also vnto the cities of the Leuites, suburbes harde by theyr cities rounde about them.
3 The cities shal they haue to dwell in, and the suburbes for theyr cattell, and for theyr possession, and al maner of beasts of theyrs.
4 And the suburbes of the cities, whiche ye shall gyue vnto the Leuites, shall reache from the wall of the citie outward, a thousande cubites rounde about.
5 And ye shall measure without the citie of the East side, two thousand cubites, & of the South side, two thousand cubites, & of the West side, two thousand cubites, and of the North side, two thousande cubites also, and the citie shal be in the middes: and these shalbe the suburbes of theyr cities.
6 And from among the cities, whiche ye shall gyue vnto the Leuites, there shall be sixe cities for refuge, whiche ye shall appoynt (to that intent) that he, which killeth, may flee thyther: and to them ye shall adde fourtie and two cities moe.
7 So that al the cities, which ye shal gyue the Leuites, may be fourtie and eyght: them (shal ye giue) with theyr suburbes.
8 And these cities, which ye shal giue, shalbe out of the possession of the chyldren of Israell. They that haue many, shall gyue many: but of them, that haue fewe, ye shall take fewe. Euery one shal giue of his cities vnto the Leuites, accordyng to the inheritaunce, whiche he inheriteth.
9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
10 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israell, and say vnto them, Whē ye be come ouer Iordane into the lande of Chanaan:
11 Ye shall appoynt you cities, to be cities of refuge for you: that he, whiche sleeth a person vnwares, may flee thyther.
12 And these cities shalbe vnto you a refuge from the (b) auenger of blood: that he, which kylleth, die not, vntill he stande before the (c) congregation in iudgement.
13 And of these cities, whiche ye shall giue, sixe cities shal ye haue for refuge.
14 Ye shall giue three (d) on this side Iordane, and three in the lande of Chanaan, which shalbe cities of refuge.
15 And these sixe cities shalbe a refuge, both for the children of Israell, & for the straunger, and for him that dwelleth among you: that al they, which kil any person vnwares, may flee thyther.
16 And if any man smyte another with an instrument of yron, that he die, then is he a murderer: & the murderer shall die for it.
17 If he smyte him with throwyng a (e) stone, that a man may die with, and if he dye, he that smote hym is a murderer: let the same murderer be slayne therefore.
18 Or if he smyte hym with a hand weapon of wood, that a man may dye with, then if he dye, he is a murderer: let the same murderer be slayne therefore.
19 (f) The reuenger of blood hymselfe shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.
20 But if he thrust hym of hate, or hurle at hym by laying of wayte, that he dye,
21 Or smyte hym with his hande of enmitie, that he dye, he that smote hym shall dye the death, for he is a murderer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth hym.
22 But if he pushed hym vnaduisedly, and not of hate, or cast vpon him any thing, and not in laying of wayte, 23 Or any maner of stone that a man may die with, & saw him not, and he caused it to fall vpon him, and he dye, and was not his enimie, neyther sought him any harme:

without the borders of the citie of his re-towne of his refuge vntyll the death of the high priest: and after the death of the high priest, the slayer shoulde returne vnto the lande of his possession.

29 So these things shalbe (h) a law of iudge-ment vnto you, throughout your genera-shal put ỹ murderer to death thorow wit-

32 And ye shall take no recompence for hym that is fledde to the citie of his refuge, that he shoulde come agayne, and dwell in the lande, before the death of the hygh priest.
33 So ye shall not pollute the lande whiche ye shal dwel in, for bloud defileth the land:
& the lande can not be cleansed of the bloud that is shed therin, but by the bloud of him, that shed bloud.
34 Defile not therefore the lande, whiche ye shall inhabite, for I am in the middes ther-of: (euen) I the Lorde dwell among the chyldren of Israel.

The.xxxvi. Chapter.

1. An order for the mariage of the daughters of Zelaphead. 7. The inheritaunce coulde not be giuen from one tribe to another.

AND the chiefe fathers of the families of the childre of Gilead, the sonne of Ma-chir, the sonne of Manasse, of the kynrede of the sonnes of Joseph, came fowth and spake before Moses, and before the princes the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel, 2 And sayde, The Lorde commaunded (a) my Lorde to giue the lande to inherite by lot to the chyldren of Israel: and my Lord was commaunded by the Lorde, to gyue the inheritaunce of Zelaphead our brother, vnto his daughters.
3 If they be maried to any of the sonnes of (b) the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall theyr inheritaunce be taken from the inheritaunce of our fathers, and shalbe put to the inheritaunce of the tribe whiche they are receyued into, and so shal it be ta-ken from the lot of our inheritaunce.
4 And when the Jubilee of the chyldren of Israel commeth, then shall theyr inheri-taunce be put vnto the inheritaunce of the tribe whereinto they are receyued, and so shall theyr inheritaunce be taken away frō the inheritaunce of the tribe of our fathers.
5 And Moses commaunded the children of Israel, according to the worde of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph haue (c) sayde well.
6 This therfore doth the Lord commaund the daughters of Zelaphead, saying, Lette them be wiues, to whome they themselues thinke best: only to the familie of the tribe of theyr fathers shall they marie.
7 So shal not the inheritaunce of the chyl-dren of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe: for euery one of the chyldren of Israel shal ioyne hymselfe to the inheritaunce of the tribe of his fathers.
8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritaunce (d) in any tribe of the chyldren of Israel, shalbe wyfe vnto one of the kyn-red of the tribe of hyr father, that the chyl-dren of Israell may enioy euery man the inheritaunce of his father.
9 Neyther ought the inheritaunce to goe from one tribe to another: but euery one of the tribes of the chyldren of Israell, shalbe ioyned to his owne inheritaunce.
10 And as the Lorde commaunded Moses, euen so dyd the daughters of Zelaphead:
11 For Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha, & Noa, the daughters of Zelaphead, were maryed vnto theyr fathers brothers sonnes.
12 They were wyues vnto the families of the sonnes of Manasse, the sonne of Jo-seph, and so theyr inheritaunce remayned in the tribe of the kynrede of theyr father.
13 These are the (e) commaundementes and lawes, whiche the Lorde commaunded by the hande of Moses vnto the chyldren of Israel, in the fieldes of Moab, by Jordane (towarde) Jericho.

(a) He meaneth Moses.
(b) To any of another tribe then of Manasses.
(c) For the tribe could not haue cōtinued if their inheri-taunce had ben taken frō thē.
(d) Whiche shalbe when there is no male childe to inherite.

A 1 THeſe be ỹ wordes whiche Moſes ſpake vnto al Iſrael on (a) the other ſide of Iordane in the wilderneſſe, in the playne ouer agaynſt ỹ red ſea, betweene Pharan and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Diſahad.

a. In the coũtrey of Moab: and this wilderneſſe was betweene the playne of Moab and the ſea.

b. Moſes repeteth agayne the law which was gyuen fourtie yeares before, ſo that the youth of his people, were eyther vnborne, or to yong to iudge: for whiche ſeconde repetition, this boke is called in greeke Deuteronomium, that is, the ſecond law.

2 There are eleuen dayes iourney from (b) Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, vnto Cades Barnea.

3 And it came to paſſe in the firſt day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtieth yeare, that Moſes ſpake vnto the chyldren of Iſraell, accordyng vnto al that the Lord had giuen him in commaundement vnto them:

4 After he had ſlayne Sehon the kyng of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heſbon, and Og kyng of Baſan, whiche dwelt at Aſtaroth in Edrai,

5 On the other ſide of Iordane in the land of Moab, began Moſes, to declare this law ſaying,

c. In the ſecond yeare, & ſecõd moneth.

6 The Lorde our God ſpake vnto vs in (c) Horeb, ſaying, Ye haue dwelt long inough in this mount.

B 7 Turne you, and take your iourney, and goe to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto al the places nighe therevnto, bothe vnto the playne, and hilles, & dales, to the South, to the ſeas ſide, to the land of Chanaan, and vnto Libanon, euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer of Euphrates.

8 Beholde, I haue ſet the lande before you: Goe in, and poſſeſſe the lande whiche the Lorde ſware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, to gyue vnto them, and to theyr ſeede after them.

Gen. 15. d. and. 17. b.

d. By the counſel of Iethro my father in lawe.

9 And (d) I ſpake vnto you in the ſame tyme, ſaying, I am not able to beare you my ſelfe alone.

10 For the Lord your God hath multiplied you: ſo that you be this day as the ſtarres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lorde God of your fathers make you a thouſande times ſo many moe as ye are, & bleſſe you, as he hath promiſed you.)

Exod. d.

12 How can I my ſelfe alone, (e) beare your cumbraunce, your charge, and your ſtryfe, that is among you?

e. Meanyng that Moſes an harde burdeuous matter among them.

13 Bring you men of wyſdome, and of vnderſtanding, and expert, according to your tribes, & I will make the rulers ouer you.

C 14 And ye aunſwered me, and ſayde, That which thou haſt ſpoke, is good for vs to do.

15 And ſo out of your tribes (f) I toke the chiefe men of wyſedome, and that were expert, and made them rulers ouer you, captaynes ouer thouſandes, and captaynes ouer hundredes, captaynes ouer fiftie, and captaynes ouer tenne, and officers among your tribes.

f. To ſignifie that expert knowen in godlyneſſe ought to be taken to gouerne.

16 And I charged your iudges that ſame tyme, ſaying, Heare the cauſe of your brethren, and iudge ryghteouſly betweene euery man and his brother, and the ſtranger, that is with him.

Iohn. 7. d.

17 Ye ſhall haue no reſpect of any perſon in iudgement, but you ſhal heare the ſmal aſwell as the great: You ſhall not feare the face of any man: for the iudgement (g) is Gods. And the cauſe that is to harde for you, referre it vnto me, and I wil heare it.

Leuit. 19. Prou. 24.

g. And man is but Gods miniſter.

18 And I commaunded you the ſame ſeaſon, al the things which ye ſhould do.

19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that greate and terrible wylderneſſe, as ye haue ſeene by the way of the mountayne of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commaunded vs: and we came to Cades Barnea.

20 And (h) I ſaid vnto you, Ye are come vnto the mountayne of the Amorites, whiche the Lorde our God doth gyue vnto vs.

h. So that is to be ſuppoſed to them ſelues, that they enioyed not the inheritaunce.

21 Beholde, the Lorde thy God hath ſet the lande before thee: goe vp, and poſſeſſe it, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath ſayd vnto thee: feare not, neither be diſcouraged.

Deut. 20. D

out the lande, and to bring vs worde againe, what way wee muſt goe vp by, and vnto what cities we ſhall come.

23 And the ſaying pleaſed me well: and I toke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one, 24 Which departed, and went vp into that mountaine, and came into the (i) valley Eſcol, and ſearched it out.

25 And toke of the land in their handes, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs worde againe, and (k) ſayd, It is a good land, which the Lord our God doth giue vs.

26 Notwithſtanding, ye would not go vp, but were diſobedient vnto the worde of the Lorde your God, 27 And murmured in your tentes, and ſaide, Becauſe the Lorde (l) hateth vs, therefore hath he brought vs out of the land of Egipt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to deſtroy vs.

28 Whither ſhall we goe vp? Our brethren haue diſcouraged our hart, ſaying, The people is greater and taller than we, the cities are great, and walked euen vp to heauen, and moreouer, we haue ſeene the ſonnes of the (m) Anakims there.

29 Then I ſayde vnto you, Dread not, nor be ye afrayde of them.

30 The (n) Lord your God which goeth before you, he ſhall fight for you, according to all that hee did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes:

31 And in the wildernelle, where thou haſt ſeene, how that the Lord thy God bare thee, euen as a man doth beare his ſonne, in al the way which ye haue gone by, vntill ye came vnto this place:

32 And yet in this thing ye did not beleeue the Lorde your God.

33 He went in the way before you, to ſearche you out a place to pitch our tentes in, in fire by night, that ye might ſee what way to go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the Lorde hearde the voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, and ſware, ſaying,

35 There ſhall not one of theſe men, and of this froward generation, ſee that good land, which I ſware to giue vnto your fathers:

36 Saue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune, he ſhal ſee it, and to him will I giue the lande, that he hath troden vpon, and to his children, becauſe he hath followed the Lorde.

37 Alſo the Lorde was angrie with mee for your ſakes, ſaying, Thou alſo ſhalt not goe in thither.

38 But Joſuah the ſonne of Nun, whiche (o) ſtandeth before thee, he ſhal go in thither. Encourage him therefore: for he ſhal cauſe Iſrael to inherite the lande.

39 Moreouer, (p) your children, which ye ſaid ſhould be a pray, and your ſonnes, which in that day had no knowledge betweene good and euill, they ſhall go in thither, and vnto them will I giue it, and they ſhall enioy it.

40 But as for you, turne your face, and take your iourney into the wildernelle, euen by the way of the red ſea.

41 Then ye anſwered, and ſayde vnto mee, We haue ſinned againſt the Lorde: (q) we will goe vp and fight, according to all that the Lorde our God commanded vs. And when ye had gyrt on euery man his weapons of warre, ye were readie to go vp into the hill.

42 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Say vnto them, Go not vp, neyther fight, for (r) I am not among you: leaſt ye fall before your enimies.

43 And I tolde you theſe things, and you would not heare, but diſobeyed the worde of the Lorde, and went preſumptuouſly vp into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, whiche dwelt in that mountayne, came out againſt you, and chaſed you, as bees vſe to doe, and deſtroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Horma.

45 And ye came againe, and wept before the Lorde: but the Lorde (s) would not heare your voyce, nor hearken vnto you.

46 And ſo ye abode in Cades a long ſeaſon, according vnto the time, that ye remayned (before.)

p. Which were vnder xx. yeares olde.

G Num. 14. g.

q. This doth declare, what is the nature of man, which will do that, which God forbiddeth, & wil not do that whiche God commaũdeth.

r. He ſheweth that our ſtrength ſtandeth in Gods aſsiſtance.

s. The cauſe was for that they lamented not their ſin, but the loſſe of their brethren, and ſo were hypocrites in their lamenting.

The. ij. Chapter.

The rehearſall of al that was done from the time they departed from Cades Barnea, vnto the battaile againſt the kings, Sehon, and Og.

1 Then we (a) turned out face, and toke our iourney into the (b) wildernelle, euen by the way of the red ſea, as the Lorde ſpake vnto me: And we compaſſed (c) mount Seir a long time.

2 And the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſaying,

3 Ye haue compaſſed this mountaine long ynough: turne you northwarde.

4 And warne thou the people, ſaying, Yee ſhall goe through the (d) coaſt of your brethren, the children of Eſau, which dwelt in Seir, and they ſhalbe afrayde of you.

5 Take ye good heede vnto your ſelues therfore: Ye ſhall not prouoke them, for I will not giue you of their lande, no not ſo much as a foote breadth, becauſe I haue gyuen mount Seir vnto Eſau to poſſeſſe.

6 Ye ſhall buy meate of them for money, to eate, and yee ſhall procure water of them

I a. They ſhewed their obedience after gods chaſtiſing.

b. The deſart of Zin.

c. This mountaine appertayneth to the Idumeans, which came of Eſau.

d. At their returne thither, for before they were repelled by the Idumeans. Nũ. 20. 21.

for money, to drinke.

B 7 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee in all the workes of thy hande, and (c) knoweth thy walking through this great wildernesse this fortie yeares, and the Lorde thy God hath bene with thee, so that thou hast lacked nothing.

c. Knowing is here taken for fauouring, as in many other places of scripture.

8 And when wee were departed from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the wildernesse from Elath, and from Ezion Gaber, wee turned and went by the way of the wildernesse of Moab.

9 And the Lorde sayd vnto me, Thou shalt not fight against the Moabites, neither prouoke them to battayle: for I will not giue thee of their lande to possesse, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Loth to possesse.

10 The (f) Emims dwelt therein in tymes past, a people great, many, and tall, as the (g) Anakims,

f. Giants, the worde signifieth, terrible men.

g. Giauntes which came of one Anak. Num. 13. 23.

11 Which also were taken for Giauntes, as the Anakims, whom the Moabites call Emims.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before tyme, whom the children of Esau chased out, and destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their steade, as Israel did vnto the lande of his possession, which the Lord gaue them.

13 Now ryse vp (sayd I) and get you ouer the riuer Zared: and we went ouer the riuer Zared.

C 14 The space in which we came from Cades Barnea, vntill we were come ouer the riuer Zared, was thirtie and eight yeares, vntill all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the host, as the Lorde sware vnto them.

15 For in deede the hande of the Lorde was against them, to destroy them from among the (h) host till they were consumed.

h. That were of the age of xx. yeares and vpwarde.

16 And so it came to passe, that all the men of warre were consumed and deade from among the people.

17 And the Lorde spake vnto me, saying,

18 Thou shalt goe through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

i. Called Zamzũmims, that is to say, wicked and abhominable. But they couered theyr wickednesse with a godly name, calling them selues Rephaims, that is, Phisitions, or preseruers, to cure and reformme vices.

19 And when thou commest nigh vnto the children of Ammon, thou shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: For I will not giue thee of the lande of the children of Ammon any possession, but I I haue giuen it vnto the children of Loth to possesse.

20 That also it was taken for a lande of giauntes, and giauntes dwelt therein in olde tyme, whom the Ammonites call (i) Zamzummims,

21 A people that was great, many, and tall, as the Anakims: But the Lord destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their steade:

22 As he did for the children of Esau, which dwell in Seer, for whom he destroyed the Horims before them, & they possessed them, and dwelt in their steade vnto this day.

23 And the Auims, which dwelt in Hazarim, euen vnto Azza, the (k) Caphthorims, whiche came out of Caphthor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their steade.

k. That men of Padocia some me Ioseph that this ple is w known. Num.

24 Ryse you vp therfore, and take your iourney ouer the riuer Arnon: Beholde, I haue giuen into thy hande Sehon the Amorite, king of Hesbon, and his land: begin to possesse it, and prouoke him to battaile.

25 This day will I begin to sende the feare and dread of thee vpon all nations that are vnder all the heauen, so that they whiche heare speake of thee, shal tremble and quake before thee.

26 And so I sent messengers out of the wildernesse of Kedemoth, vnto Sehon king of Hesbon, with wordes of peace, saying, 27 Let me passe through thy lande: I will goe along by the high way, I will neyther turne vnto the right hande, nor vnto the left. Num. Deut.

28 Thou shalt sell me meate for money, for to eate, and giue me water for money, for to drinke: Onely I will goe through on my feete, E

29 As the (l) children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did vnto me, vntil I be come ouer Iordane, into the lande, whiche the Lorde our God giueth vs.

l. By Sehon could mould ther with ample with re his defin was mad

30 But Sehon the king of Hesbon, would not let vs passe by him: for the Lorde thy God hardened his spirite, and made hys heart obstinate, because he would deliuer him into thy hande, as it is come to passe this day.

31 And the Lorde sayde vnto mee, Beholde, I haue begunne to giue Sehon and hys lande before thee: begyn to possesse and inherite his lande.

32 Then both Sehon and al his people came out agaynst vs to fight at Jaza. Num. Deut.

33 And the Lorde set him before vs, and wee smote him, & his sonnes, and all his people.

34 And we toke all his cities the same season, and slue the men, women, and children of all the cities, and let nothing remayne, 35 Saue the cattell onely wee caught vnto our selues, and the spoyle of the cities which we toke.

36 From

36 From Aroer, which is by the brinke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is in the riuer, vnto Gilead, there was not one citie to strong for vs: the Lorde our God deliuered all (m) vnto vs.

37 Onely vnto the lande of the childzen of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto euerie place of the (n) riuer Jabock, nor vnto the cities in the mountaynes, nor vnto whatsoeuer the Lorde our God forbad vs.

(m) Into our hande.

(n) Or Iaboc.

The.iij. Chapter.

The rehearsall of things, that chaunced from the victorie of the two kings, Sehon and Og, vnto the institution of Iosuah in Moses steade.

1 Then we turned and went vp the way to Basan: and Og the king of Basan came out agaynst vs, he, and all his people, to fight at Edzai.

Num.21.g. Deut.29.b.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, Feare him not: for I wil deliuer him, and all his people, and his lande, into thy hande, and thou shalt do vnto him, as thou diddest vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

3 And so the Lord our God delyuered into our handes, Og also the king of Basan, and all his folke: and we smote him, vntil none was left him aliue.

4 And we toke al his cities the same season, neither was there a citie which we toke not from them, euen threescore cities throughout the region of Argob, of the kingdome of Og in Basan.

5 All these cities were made strong with high walles, gates, and barres, beside vnwalled townes a great many.

6 And we vtterly destroyed them, as we did vnto Sehon king of Hesbon, and bringing to naught all the Cities, with men, women, and (a) childzen:

(a) As God commaunded them.

7 But all the cattel, and the spoyle of the cities, we toke for our selues.

8 And thus wee toke the same season out of the hande of two kings of the Amorites, the lande that was on the other side of Jordane, from the ryuer of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon:

9 (Which Hermon the Sidons call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.)

10 All the cities that lay in the plaine, and all Gilead, and all Basan, vnto Selcha and Edzai, Cities of the kingdome of Og in Basan:

11 For onely Og king of Basan, remayned of the remnant of the Giants, whose bed was a bed of (b) Iron: And is it not yet at Rabbath among the childzen of Ammon? Nine cubites doth the length thereof conteyne, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a (c) man.

(b) The greater the giant was, the more was Gods goodnes and power to be magnified for the conquest.

(c) Of the common stature. Num.32.f. Deut.29.b. Iosu.12.b.

12 And so we conquered this lande the same time, from Aroer, which is by the ryuer of Arnon, vnto halfe mount Gilead, and the cities thereof gaue I vnto the Rubenites, and Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gileed, and all Basan of the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the half tribe of Manasse: euen al the region of Argob, with all Basan, whiche is called the lande of Giants.

14 Jair the sonne of Manasse, toke all the countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Gessuri, and Maachati, and called them after his owne name, Basan Hauoth Jair, (d) vnto this day.

C

(d) Till the time when this story was written.

15 And I gaue Gilead vnto Machir.

16 And vnto the Rubenites and Gadites I gaue Gilead, vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the valley, and beyonde, euen vnto the riuer (e) Jabock, which is the border of the childzen of Ammon:

(e) Which diuideth the Ammonites from the Amorites.

17 The (f) plaine also, and Jordane, and the coast therof, frō (g) Cenereth, euen vnto the sea, which is in the plaine, euen the salt sea, vnder the springs of the hill eastwarde.

(f) The desart.

(g) Called also Gennezareth, of the sea of Galilee, or Tiberias.

18 And I commaunded you the same time, saying, the Lorde your God hath gyuen you this lande to enioy it: ye shall go harnessed before your brethren the childzen of Israel, all that are meete for the warre. Num.32.d.

19 Your wiues onely, your childzen, and your cattell (for I know, that ye haue much cattell) shall abyde in your cities which I haue giuen you, 20 Untill the Lorde haue giuen rest vnto your brethren, aswell as vnto you, and vntill they also possesse the lande whiche the Lorde your God hath giuen them beyonde Jordane: and then shall ye returne againe, euery man vnto his possessiō, which I haue giuen you.

21 And I commaunded Josuah himselfe the same time, saying, Thine eyes haue seene all that the Lorde your God hath done vnto these two kings: euen so shal * he do vnto all kingdomes whither thou goest.

D

Num.27.d.

* The Lorde.

22 Ye shall not feare them: for the Lorde your God shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lorde the same time, saying.

24 O Lorde God, thou hast begun to shewe thy seruant thy greatnesse, and thy mightie hande: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can do after thy workes, and lyke to thy power?

25 I pray

25 I pray thee let mee goe ouer, and see the good lande, that is beyonde Iordane, that goodly (h) mountaine, and Libanon.

h. Of Moriah, or Sion, where the temple was builded.

26 But the Lorde was angrie with me for your sakes, and woulde not heare me. And the Lorde sayd vnto me, Be content: speake no more vnto me of this matter.

Num. 27. c. 27 Get thee vp into the toppe of the hill, and lift vp thine eyes westwarde, northwarde, southwarde, and eastwarde, and beholde it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not goe ouer this Iordane.

Num. 34. d. 28 But charge Iosuah, and encourage him, and bolden him: For he shall go before this people, and hee shall diuide vnto them the lande which thou shalt see.

29 And so we abode in the valley ouer against the house of Peor.

The. iiij. Chapter.

1. An exhortation to obserue the law, without adding or diminishing. 6. Therein standeth our wisedome. 9. We must teach it to our children. 15. No image ought to be made to worship. 26. Threatnings against them that forsake the lawe of God. 37. God chose the seede, bicause he loued their fathers. 43. The three Cities of refuge.

I 1 NOwe therefore hearken, O Israell, vnto the ordinances and lawes whiche I teach you, for to (a) doe them, that ye may liue, and goe in, and possesse the land, whiche the Lorde God of your fathers giueth you.

a. He sheweth that this doctrine standeth in practise, and not in bare knowledge.

2 (b) Ye shall put nothing vnto the worde, whiche I commaund you, neither shall you take ought from it, that yee may keepe the commaundements of the Lord your God, which I commaunde you.

b. God will be serued according to his worde.

3 (c) Your eyes haue seene what the Lorde did against Baal Peor: for all the men that followed (d) Baal Peor, the Lorde thy God hath destroyed from among you.

c. He warneth them by Gods plagues, shewed on other Idolaters.

d. The god of the Moabites and Ammonites. This worde Baal doth signifie maister, or patrone.

4 But ye, that cleaue vnto the Lorde your God, are aliue euerie one of you this day.

5 Beholde, I haue taught you ordinances and lawes, such as the Lord my God commaunded me, that ye shoulde doe euen so in the lande, whither ye go to possesse it.

6 Keepe them therfore, and do them, for that is (e) your wisedome, and vnderstanding in the sight of the people, that they may heare all these ordinaunces, and say, Surely it is a wyse and vnderstanding people: it is a great nation.

e. He sheweth the true mean to get wisedome, which vertue men naturally doe most desire.

7 For what other nation is so great, that goddes come so nighe vnto it, as the Lorde our God, is nigh (f) vnto vs in all things as oft as we call vnto him?

f. Succouring vs, and deliuering vs from all trouble.

8 Yea, and what Nation is so great, that hath ordinaunces and lawes so righteous, as all this lawe which I set before you this day?

9 Take heede to thy selfe therefore, and kepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things, which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thy heart all the dayes of thy life: but teache them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes. Deut.

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lord thy God in Horeb, when the Lord sayde vnto me, Gather me the people together, & I will make them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare mee, all the dayes that they shal liue vpon the earth, and that they may teach their children. Exod. g. The 11 Ye came and stoode also vnder the mountaine, and the mountayne (g) burnt wyth fyre, euen vnto the middes of heauen, and there was darkenesse, cloudes, and myst.

12 And the Lorde spake vnto you out of the middes of the fyre, and ye heard the voyce of the wordes: but saw no similitude, but heard a voyce onely. 1. Ioh.

13 And he declared vnto you his couenaunt, which he commaunded you to do (euen) ten commaundementes, whiche he wrote vpon two tables of stone.

14 And the Lord commaunded me the same season, that I shoulde teach you ordinances and lawes, whiche ye ought to doe in the lande, whither ye go to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good heede vnto your selues, as pertayning vnto your soules, (h) (for ye saw no maner of Image in the day that the Lorde spake vnto you in Horeb, out of the middes of the fire,) h. Mee

16 Least ye marre your selues, and make you a grauen Image, and the picture of any maner of figure, whether it be the likenesse of man, or woman:

17 The likenesse of any maner of beast, that is on the earth: or the likenesse of any maner feathered foule, that flyeth in the ayre.

18 Or the likenesse of any maner worme that creepeth on the earth: or the likenesse of any maner fishe, that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 Yea, and least thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne, the moone, and the starres, with all the host of heauen, thou shouldest be driuen to worship them, and serue them, and shouldst worship and serue the things, whiche the Lorde thy God hath made to serue all nations vnder the whole heauen. Deut. Sapi. Iob. Gen.

20 But the Lord hathe taken you, & brought you

you out of the (i) iron fornace, euen out of Egypt, to be vnto him a people, and inheritance as ye be this day.

(i) Of most hard and cruell bondage.

21 Furthermore the Lorde was angry with me for your wordes, and sware, that I shoulde not go ouer Iordane, and that I shoulde not goe in vnto that good lande, whiche the Lorde thy God giueth thee for thine inheritance.

22 But I must die in this lande, and shall not go ouer Iordane: But yee shal goe ouer and possesse that good lande.

23 Take heede vnto your selues, that ye forget not the appoyntment of the Lorde your God, whiche he made with you, and that ye make you no grauen (k) Image or likenesse, that the Lorde thy God hath forbidden thee.

(k) To worship God, or to worship it, this is forbidden of Images declareth, why detestable they are in the sight: and that God foresee, the people shulde yeelde themselues to wicked-nesse.

24 For the Lord thy God is a (l) consuming fyre, and a (m) ielous God.

(l) To them that come not to him in repentance and faith, but continuewise, resist him.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and thy children beget children, and shalt haue remayned long in the lande, if ye doe wickedly, and make any maner of grauen Image, and worke euill in the sight of the Lorde thy God, to prouoke him to anger:

(m) So that he will not suffer his honour to be giuen to any other.

26 I cal heauen and earth to record agaynst you this day, that ye shall shortly perish frō off the lande whereunto you goe ouer Iordan, to possesse it: Ye shal not prolong your dayes therin, but shall vtterly be destroyed:

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shall be left fewe in number among the nations, whither the Lord shall bring you.

28 And there ye shall serue goddes, which are the worke of mans hande, wood, and stone, whiche neyther see, nor heare, nor eate, nor smell.

Deut.30.a.

29 If from thence thou shalt seeke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seeke him with all thy hart, and with al thy soule.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and when all these things, that be here spoken of, are come vpon thee, euen in the latter dayes, if thou turne to the Lorde thy God, and shalt be obedient vnto his voyce:

Deut.26.g.

31 (For the Lord thy God is a merciful God) he will not forsake thee, nor destroy thee, nor forget the appoyntment of thy fathers, which he (n) sware vnto them.

(n) God confirmeth his promises by an othe, to the end we may be the more certified of the hope of our saluation.

32 For aske of the dayes that are past, which were before, and since the day that God created man vpon the earth, & (aske) from the one side of heauen vnto the other, if euer there came to passe such a great thing, or whether any such lyke thing hath bin heard as this.

33 Dyd euer any people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the myddes of a fyre, as thou hast heard, and yet lyued?

34 Or, hath God assayed to goe and take him a people from among Nations, by temptations, by signes, by wonders, by warre, by a mightie hande, by a stretched out arme, and by great sightes, according vnto all that the Lorde your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes? Psal.136.b.

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest knowe that the Lorde is God, and that there is none other but he. F

36 Out of heauen hee made thee heare his voyce, that he might instruct thee: and vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou hearedst his worde out of the middes of the fyre. Exod.19.c.

37 And because hee (o) loued thy fathers, he chose their seede after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mightie power out of Egypt, Exod.13.c.

o. Of his mere mercie, not of their merits.

38 To thrust out nations greater and mightier than thou art, before thee, and to bring thee in, and to giue the their land to inheritance, as it is come to passe this day.

39 Understand therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lorde is God in heauen aboue, and vpon the earth beneath: neyther is there any other.

40 Thou shalt keepe therefore his ordinances, and his commaundements which I commaunde thee this day, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and (p) that thou mayest prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lorde thy God giueth thee for euer.

p. God promiseth reward to men, not for that they deserue it, but to make them chearefull in well doing, and to shew, that they shall not serue him in vayne.

41 Then Moses seuered three Cities on the other side of Iordane towarde the Sunne rysing:

42 That he should flee thither, which had killed his neighbour vnwares, and had not hated him in time past: and therefore should he flee vnto one of the same cities, and liue:

43 Namely Bezer in the wildernesse, euen in the plaine Countrey of the tribe of Ruben, and Ramoth in Gilead of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Basan, of the tribe of Manasse.

44 And so this is the lawe, which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the (q) witnesses, statutes, and ordinances, which Moses tolde the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt,

q. The articles of the couenant that God made with them.

46 On the other side of Iordane, in the valley ouer agaynst the house of Peor, in the lande of Sehon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come out of Egypt, Num.19.f.

47 And poſſeſſed his lande, and the lande of Og king of Baſan, two kings of the Amorites, whiche were on the other ſide of Iordane towarde the ſunne ryſing, 49 And all the plaine on the other ſyde of Iordane eaſtwarde, euen vnto the (r) Sea, which is in the playne vnder the ſpringes of the hill.

r. Namely the ſalt ſea, or dead ſea.

The.v. Chapter.

5. Moſes is the meane betweene God and the people. 6. The lawe is repeated. 25. The people are afrayde at Gods voyce. 29. The Lorde wiſheth that the people woulde feare him. 32. They muſt decline neyther to the right hande, nor to the left.

1 AND Moſes called all Iſrael, and ſayd vnto them, Heare, O Iſrael, the ordinances and lawes, whiche I ſpake in your eares this day, that ye may learne them, and (a) fulfill them in deede.

a. Gods doctrine conſiſteth in practiſe, and not in ſpeculation.

2 The Lorde our God made a couenaunt with vs in Horeb.

3 The Lorde (b) made not this couenaunt with our fathers, but with vs: euen with vs, which are all here aliue this day.

b. With ſuch ſtraunge wonders.

4 The Lorde talked with you (c) face to face in the mount, out of the middes of the fire:

c. So clearly, that you could not doubt, but that it was he.

5 And I ſtoode betweene the Lorde and you the ſame tyme, and ſhewed you the worde of the Lorde: For ye were afrayde at the ſight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount: and he ſayde,

d. Conferre this chapter with the.xx. of Exodus.

7 Thou ſhalt haue none other Goddes in my preſence.

8 Thou ſhalt (e) make thee no grauen Image, or any likeneſſe of that, whiche is in heauen aboue, and that is in earth beneath, and that is in the water beneath the earth.

e. Namely to worſhip it, or to repreſent me by it.

9 Thou ſhalt neyther bowe thy ſelfe vnto them, nor ſerue them: For I the Lorde thy God, am a iealous God, viſiting the wickedneſſe of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the thirde and fourth generation, among them that hate me:

Exod.19.c. 11 Thou ſhalt not take the name of the Lorde thy God in vayne. For the Lorde will not holde him giltleſſe that taketh his name in vaine.

13 Sixe dayes thou ſhalt labour, and doe all that thou haſt to do. Exod.

22 Theſe wordes the Lorde ſpake vnto all your multitude in the mount, out of the middes of the fire, of the cloude, and of the darkeneſſe, with a great voyce and (h) added nothing: and wrote them in two tables of ſtone, and deliuered them vnto me. h. That ſhould a the like.

25 Nowe therefore why ſhould we die, that this great fire ſhould conſume vs? If wee heare the voyce of the Lorde our God any more, we ſhall die: i. The ſ ture doth ten vn word to ſhew man to tle and thing.

27 Goe thou, and heare all that the Lorde our God

God sayth, and tell thou vnto vs all that the Lorde our God sayth vnto thee, and we will heare it, and do it.

28 And the Lorde hearde the voyce of your wordes when ye spake vnto me, and the Lorde sayde vnto mee, I haue heard the voyce of the wordes of this people, whiche they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue well sayde, all that they haue spoken.

29 Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would feare me, and keepe all my commaundementes alway, that it myght go well with them, and with their children for euer.

30 Goe, and saye vnto them, Get you into your tentes againe:

31 But stande thou here by mee, and I will tell thee all the commaundementes, ordinances, and lawes, which thou shalt teache them, that they may doe them in the lande, which I giue them to possesse.

32 Take heede therefore, that ye doe in deede as the Lorde your God hath commaunded you, and (k) turne not aside, eyther to the right hande, or to the left:

33 But walke in all the wayes, whiche the Lorde your God hath commaunded you, that ye may liue, and that it may goe well with you, and that yee may prolong your dayes in the lande, which ye shall possesse.

The.vi. Chapter.

1. An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commaundements. 5. Which is to loue him with all thine heart. 7. The same must bee taught to the posteritie. 16. Not to tempt God. 25. Righteousnesse is conteyned in the lawe.

1 These are the commaundementes, and ordinances, and lawes, whiche the Lord your God commaunded me to teach you, that ye might doe them, in the lande whither ye go to possesse it:

2 Namely, that thou mightest feare the Lorde thy God, and keepe all his ordinances, and his commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee, thou and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, all the dayes of thy life: that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Heare therefore O Israell, and take heede, that thou doe it, that it may goe well with thee, and that ye may encrease mightily, euen as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath promised thee, a lande that (a) floweth with milke and honie.

4 Heare, O Israell: the Lorde our God is Lorde onely.

5 And thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy might.

6 And these wordes which I commaunde thee this day, shal be in thine heart: Deut.11.b.

7 And thou shalt shewe them vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them, when thou art at home in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou lyest downe, and when thou rysest vp. B

8 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thy hande, and they shall be as frontlets betweene thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them vpon the (b) postes of thy house, and vpon thy gates.

b. By these kinds of speach he meneth nothing but continual meditation of the lawe.

10 And when the lord thy God hath brought thee into the lande which he sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and shall giue to thee great and goodly Cities, which thou buildedst not,

11 Houses full of all maner of goodes, whiche thou filledst not, and welles digged, which thou diggedst not, Vineyards, and Olyue trees, which thou plantedst not: and when thou hast eaten, and art full,

12 Then beware least thou forget the Lord, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt feare the Lorde thy God, and serue him, and shalt (c) sweare by his name. Deut.10.d.

c. By lawfull swearing, that the Lorde is our God. C

14 See that yee walke not after straunge goddes, the goddes of the Nations, which are about you:

15 (For the Lorde thy God is a ielous God among you) least the countenaunce of the Lorde thy God be moued to wrath agaynst thee, and destroy thee from the face of the earth.

16 Ye shall not tempt the Lorde your God, as ye did in the place of temptation. Math.4.b.

17 But you shall diligently keepe the commaundements of the Lorde your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances which he hath commaunded thee:

18 And thou shalt doe that, which is right and good in the (d) sight of the Lorde: that thou mayest prosper, and that thou mayest goe in, and possesse that good lande, whiche the Lorde sware vnto thy fathers,

d. Here God willeth vs to serue him according to his worde, not according to our owne inuentions.

19 To cast out all thine enimies before thee, as the Lorde hath sayde.

20 And (e) when thy sonne asketh thee in tyme to come, saying, What meane these testimonies, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lorde our GOD hath commaunded you?

e. We must not only serue God our selues during our life, but also endeuour that our children may doe the same after vs.

21 Then thou shalt say vnto thy sonne, We were Pharaos bondmen in Egypt, and the Lord brought vs oute of Egypt wyth a mightie hande.

22 And

D 22 And the Lord shewed signes & wonders, great, and euill vpon Egypt, vpon Pharao, and vpon all his housholde before our eyes:
23 And brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to giue vs the lande whiche hee sware vnto our fathers.
24 And he hath commaunded vs to doe all these ordinaunces, and to feare the Lorde our God for our wealth, al the dayes of our life, as it is come to passe this day.
f. No man can perfectly fulfil the law: therfore we must haue recourse to Christ by faith, in whom we are reputed for just.
25 Moreouer this shalbe our (f) righteousnesse before the Lorde our God, if we take heede, and keepe all these commaundements, as he hath commaunded vs.

The.vij.Chapter.

1. The Israelites may make no couenant with the Gentiles. 5. They muste destroy their Idols. 8. The election dependeth on the free loue of God. 19. The experience of the power of God ought to confyrme vs. 25. To auoyde all occasion of Idolatrie.

Exod.13.c.

a. God woulde haue his seruice pure without all superstition.
5 But thus ye shal deale with them: (a) Ye shall ouerthrowe their aulters, and breake downe their pyllers, and cut downe theyr groues, and burne their grauen Images with fyre.

Deut.13.a. Exod.19.a.

16 Thou shalt consume al the nations which the Lorde thy God shall delyuer thee: thine eye shall haue no pitie vpon them, nor shalt thou suffer theyr goddes, for that shalbe thy decay.

21 Thou shalt not feare them: for the Lorde thy God is among you, a mightie God, and a terrible.

22 For the Lorde thy God wil put out these nations before thee by a little and a little: thou mayst not consume them at once, least the (e) beasts of the field increase vpon thee.

23 But the Lorde thy God shall giue them ouer before thee, and shal destroy them with a mightie destruction, vntil he haue brought them to naught.

24 And he shal deliuer their kings into thine hande, and thou shalt destroy their name from vnder heauen: There shall no man be able to stande before thee, vntill thou haue destroyed them.

25 The grauen images of their goddes shalt thou burne with fire: and couet not the gold and siluer that is on them, nor take it vnto thee, least thou be snared (f) therein: for it is an abhomination before the Lorde thy God.

26 Bring not therefore abhomination into thine house, least thou be a cursed thing, as it is: but vtterly defie it, and abhorre it: for it is a cursed thing.

The.viij. Chapter.

2. God humbleth the Israelites, to trie what they haue in their heart. 5. God chastiseth them as his children. 14. The heart ought not to be proude for gods benefites. 19. The forgetfulnesse of Gods benefites causeth destruction.

1 ALL the commaundementes, whiche I commaunde thee this day, shall ye kepe for (a) to do them, that ye may liue, and multiplie, and goe in, and possesse the lande, whiche the Lorde sware vnto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the waye which the Lord thy God lead thee these fortie yeares in the wildernesse, for to humble thee, and to (b) proue thee, and to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keepe his commaundements or no.

3 He humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with Manna, whiche neither thou, nor thy fathers knewe of, to make thee knowe, that a man doth not liue by breade onely: but by euery (worde) that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lorde, doth a man liue.

4 Thy raiment wared not old vpō thee, neither did thy foote (c) swell these fortie yeares.

5 This also shalt thou consider in thine heart: that as a man chastiseth his sonne, euen so the Lorde thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore shalt thou keepe the commaundements of the Lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and feare him.

7 For the Lorde thy God bringeth thee into a good lande, a lande, in the which are riuers of water, and fountaynes, and deepes that spring out of valleyes, and hilles:

8 A lande, wherein is wheate and barlie, vineyardes, figtrees, and pomegranates: a lande, wherein is oyle oliue, and honie:

9 A lande, wherein thou shalt eate breade without scarcenesse, neyther shalt thou lack any thing: a land, the (d) stones whereof are iron, and out of the hilles whereof thou shalt digge brasse.

10 When thou hast eaten (e) therefore and filled thy selfe, thou shalt blesse the Lorde thy God for the good lande which he hath giuen thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not keepe his commaundements, his lawes, and his ordinaunces, whiche I commaunde thee this day:

12 Yea, and when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, and hast buylt goodly houses, and dwelt therein:

13 And when thy beastes and thy sheepe are waxen many, and thy siluer & gold is multiplied, and al that thou hast is increased:

14 Then beware least thine (f) hart arise, and thou forget the Lorde thy God, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage:

15 And whiche was thy guyde in the great and terrible wildernesse (wherein were) firy serpents, and scorpions, and drought without any water: but he brought out water for thee, euen out of the rocke of flint.

16 He fed thee in the wildernesse with Manna, whiche thy fathers knewe not, euen for to humble thee, and to proue thee, and that he might so do thee good at thy latter ende,

17 Least thou shouldest say in thine hart, My power, (g) and the might of mine owne hand hath prepared me this abundance:

18 But remember the Lorde thy God: for it is he, which giueth thee power to get (h) substaunce, for to make good the promise, which he sware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

19 And if thou forget the Lord thy God, and walke after straunge goddes, and serue them, and worship them: I (i) testifie vnto you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

I

1 HEare, O Israell, thou passest ouer Iordane (a) this day, to go in and possesse Nations greater and mightier than thy selfe, Cities great and walled vp to the heauen:

a. That is, yet it be long.

Num.13.c. 2 A people great and tall, euen the children of the Anakims, which thou knowest of, and of whome thou hast heard say, Who wyll stand before the children of Anac?

3 Understande therefore this day, that the Lord thy God is euen he, which goeth ouer before thee, as a consuming (b) fire, he shall destroy them, and he shal bring them down before thy face: so thou shalt cast them out, and bring them to naught quickly, as the Lorde hath sayde vnto thee.

b. To consume your enimies, as fire consumeth wood.

c. If we deserue not worldly things, much lesse deserue we spirituall things.

4 (c) Speake not thou in thine heart, after that the Lorde thy God hath cast them out before thee, saying, For my righteousnesse the Lorde hath brought me in, to possesse this lande: but for the wickednesse of these Nations the Lorde hath cast them out before thee.

5 It is not for thy righteousnesse sake, or for thy right heart, that thou goest to possesse their land: but for the wickednesse of these nations, the Lorde thy God doth cast them out before thee, euen to performe the worde, which the Lorde thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob.

e. This he sayeth, for that it is most necessarye to haue men brought to the acknowledging of their sinnes.

10 And the Lorde deliuered me two tables of stone, written with the (f) finger of God, and in them were conteyned al the wordes, which the Lord sayd vnto you in the mount out of the myddes of fire, in the day, when ye came togither.

f. After the maner and notation of deuine matters.

17 And I toke the two tables, and threwe them out of my two handes, and brake (i) them before your eyes.

Exod.32. i. Moses in this of a godly zeale, and not of any humane passion.

Exod.34. and.34.b

2 Ye shal destroy al places, wherein the na-giuen you to inherite, and when he hath gi-

11 Then vnto the place, which the Lord your God hath chosen, to put his name there, yee shall bring all that I commaunde you:
namely, your burnt sacrifices, your offrings, your tithes, the heaue offering of your hand, and all your speciall vowes, which ye vowe vnto the Lorde.
12 And ye shall reioyce before the Lord your god, you and your sonnes, and your daughters, your seruants, and your maydens, and the Leuite, that is within your gates, forasmuch as hee hath no part nor inheritaunce with you.
13 Take heede that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in euery place, that thou seest:
14 But in the place which the Lorde shall shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I commaunde thee.

15 Notwithstanding, thou mayest kill and eate flesh in all thy Cities, whatsoeuer thy

64 And the Lorde ſhall ſcatter thee among all nations, from the one ende of the world vnto the other: and there thou ſhalte ſerue ſtraunge goddes, whiche neyther thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, euen wood and ſtone.

65 And among theſe nations thou ſhalt find no eaſe, neyther ſhal the (q) ſole of thy foote haue reſt: but the Lorde ſhal giue thee there an vnquiet hart, and dasling eyes, and ſorow of mynde.

17 But if thine hart turne away, so that thou wilt not heare, but shalt go astray, and worship straunge goddes, and serue them:

18 I pronounce vnto you also this day, that ye shall surely perish, & that ye shal not prolong your dayes vpo the land whither thou passest ouer Iordane, to go and possesse it.

19 I cal heauen and earth to record this day against you, that I haue set before you, life and death, blessing and cursing: Therefore (h) chose lyfe, that both thou and thy seede may liue:

20 That thou mayst loue the Lord thy God, and be obedient to his voyce, and cleaue vnto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy dayes, that thou mayest dwel vpon the (i) earth, which the Lorde sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, to giue them.

The. xxxi. Chapter.

2.7. Moses preparing himselfe to die, appoynteth Iosuah to rule the people. 9. He gyueth the law to the Leuits, that they should reade it to the people. 19. God giueth them a song as a witnesse betwene him and them. 23. God confyrmeth Iosuah. 29. Moses sheweth them, that they will rebell after his death.

1 AND Moses went and spake these wordes vnto all Israel, A

2 And sayde vnto them, I am an hundred and twentie yeares olde this day, and can no more (a) go out and in: also the Lord hath sayde vnto me, Thou (b) shalt not goe ouer this Iordane.

a. Can no longer perfourme the charge committed vnto me.
b. That is, into the lande of Chanaan: for Iordane in the coast of Moab, is the bounde of the lande of Chanaan. Num. 20. f.

3 The Lorde thy God will goe ouer before thee, and he will destroy these nations before thee, & thou shalt possesse them: and Iosuah shall go before thee, as the Lord hath sayde.

4 And the Lorde shall do vnto them, as hee did to Sehon and Og, kings of the Amorites, and vnto the lande of them whom he destroyed.

5 And the Lord shall giue them ouer (c) before your face, that yee may doe vnto them according vnto all the commaundements, which I haue commaunded you.

c. Into your power.

6 Plucke vp your harts therfore, & be strong, dread not, nor be afrayde of them: for the Lorde thy God himselfe doth go with thee: he shall not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called vnto Iosuah, and sayd vnto hym in the syght of all Israel, Be strong, and of good courage, for thou must go with this people vnto the lande whiche the Lorde hath swoorne vnto theyr fathers to giue them: and thou shalt giue it them to inherite. B Iosue. 1. b. 3. Reg. 2. a.

8 And the Lorde doth goe before thee: hee shall bee with thee, hee shall not fayle thee, neyther forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor be discomfited.

d. Before Moses time the doctrine which conteyned the maner of seruing God, was not put in writing, but onely deliuered by woorde of mouth, by the fathers to the children, from one generatiō to another.

9 And (d) Moses wrote this law, and deliuered it vnto the priestes the sonnes of Leui, which bare the arke of the testament of the Lord, and vnto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commaunded them, saying, Euery (e) seuenth yeare, in the solemnitie of the free yeare, euen in ỹ feast of tabernacles,

e. Notwithstanding this solemne lecture of the lawe at the ende of euery seuē yeares, they had in the meane time ordinarie exercise in the same.

11 When all Israel is come to appeare before the Lorde thy God in the place whiche he hath chosen: thou shalt reade this lawe before all Israel, that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people togither, men, women, and children, and the straunger that is wythin thy Gates, that they maye heare, and learne, and feare the Lorde your God, and keepe and obſerue al the wordes of this lawe.

f. Whiche were vnborne at the giuing of the lawe.

13 And that their children, which know (f) nothing, maye heare, and learne to feare the lord your God, as long as ye liue in ẏ land whither ye go ouer Iordane to poſſeſſe it.

¶ 14 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Beholde, thy dayes are come that thou muſte die: Cal Ioſuah therefore, and ſtande ye in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may giue him a charge: and Moſes and Ioſuah went and ſtode in the tabernacle of the congregation.

Exod. 33. d.

15 And the Lord appeared in the tabernacle, euen in the piller of the cloude: and the piller of the cloude ſtode ouer the dore of the tabernacle.

g. Forſaking God, to whom they had plight their trouth, as to their ſpouſe.

16 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſleepe with thy fathers: and this people will riſe vp, and goe (g) a whoring after ſtraunge gods of the lande whither they goe, and will forſake mee, and breake the appoyntment, whiche I haue made with them.

h. I will turne my face from them: as it is ſayd, that God ſheweth vs his countenance, when he doth fauour vs.

17 And then my wrath will ware hote agaynſt them in that day, and I will forſake them, and will (h) hyde my face from them, and they ſhall be conſumed, and muche aduerſitie and tribulation ſhall come vpon them: ſo that then they wil ſay, Are not theſe troubles come vpon me, becauſe God is not with me?

18 And I alſo will ſurely hyde awaye my face in that day, for all the euils ſake whiche they ſhall haue wrought, in that they are turned vnto ſtraunge goddes.

19 Nowe therefore write yee this ſong for you, and teach it the children of Iſrael, and put it in theyr mouthes, that thys ſong may be my witneſſe agaynſt the children of Iſrael.

20 For I will bring them into the lande, whiche I ſware vnto theyr fathers, that floweth with mylke and honie: and they ſhall eate, and fill themſelues, and ware fat, and turne vnto ſtraunge goddes, and ſerue them, and blaſpheme me, and breake my couenant.

D 21 And when much miſchiefe and tribulation is come vpon them, this ſong ſhall (i) anſwer them as a witneſſe: For it ſhall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their ſeede: for I know their imagination, which they goe aboute euen nowe, before I haue brought them into the lande which I ſware.

i. Shal teſtifie to them that are thus plagued for departing from mee.

22 Moſes therefore wrote this ſong the ſame day, and taught it the children of Iſrael.

Ioſue. 1. a. 3. Reg. 2. b.

23 And he gaue Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun a charge, and ſayde, Be bolde, and ſtrong, for thou ſhalt bring the children of Iſrael into the lande, which I ſware vnto them: and I will be with thee.

24 And when Moſes had made an ende of writing the wordes of this lawe in a booke, vntill he had finiſhed them,

25 Moſes cõmaũded the Leuites, which bare the arke of the couenant of the Lord, ſaying, 26 Take ye the booke of this law, & put it in the (k) ſide of the arke of the couenant of the Lorde your God, that it may be there for a (l) witneſſe agaynſt thee.

Deut. k. To the ſide of the arke.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion, and thy ſtiffe necke: while I am yet aliue with you this day, ye haue bin diſobedient vnto the Lord: and how much more after my death?

28 Gather vnto mee all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may ſpeake theſe wordes in their eares, and call heauen and earth to recorde againſt them.

29 For I am ſure, that after my death, ye wil vtterly be corrupt, and turne from the way, which I haue cõmaunded you: and tribulation wil come vpõ you in the latter dayes, becauſe ye ſhall haue wrought wickednes in the ſight of the Lorde, to prouoke him through (m) the workes of your handes.

m. By ſhipping gods with your hands.

30 And Moſes ſpake in the eares of all the congregation of Iſrael the wordes of thys ſong, vntill he had ended them.

The. xxxij. Chapter.

7. The ſong of Moſes concerning Gods benefites toward the people. 15. And their ingratitude towarde him. 20. God menaceth them. 21. And ſpeaketh of the vocation of the Gentiles. 46. Moſes commaundeth to teache the lawe to the children. 48. God forewarneth Moſes of his death.

1 HEare ye, O ye (a) heauens, and I ſhall ſpeake: & let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.

a. As vers. 1. of the 1. chap. of Iſaie.

2 My doctrine ſhall drop as doth the raine: and my ſpeach ſhall flow as doth the deawe, as the ſhowre vpon the herbes, and as the droppes vpon the (b) graſſe.

b. Nor the ſhowre that ſtandeth vpõ the graſſe, but that falleth.

3 For I will publiſh the name of the Lord: Aſcribe ye honour vnto our God.

4 Perfect is the worke of the moſt mightie "God: for all his wayes are iudgement: He is a God of truth, without wickednes, righteous, and iuſt is he.

5 Frowardly haue (c) they done agaynſt him by their (d) vices, not being his owne children, but a wicked and frowarde generation.

c. Calleth Gods children, not honour the, to ſhewe from whom they were fallen.

6 Doe ye ſo reward the Lord, O thou fooliſhe Nation and vnwiſe? Is not hee thy father father that hath bought thee? Hath he not made thee, and ordeyned thee?

7 Remember the dayes of the worlde, that is past, consider the yeares of so many generations: aske thy father, and he will shewe thee, thy elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the highest diuided the Nations their inheritance, and when he separated the sonnes of Adam, he put the borders of the Nations according to the number of the children of Israel:

9 For the Lordes part is his people, and Jacob is the portion of his inheritance.

10 He found him in a desart lande, in a voyd ground, and in a roaring wildernesse: He ledde him aboute, he gaue him vnderstanding, and kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an Eagle, that styreth vp hir nest, and flitteth ouer hir yong, and spreadeth hir wings, taketh them, and beareth them on hir wings:

12 The Lord alone was his guide, and there was no straunge God with him.

13 He caryed him vp to the highe places of the earth, that he might eate the encrease of the fieldes, and he fedde him with honie out of the rocke, and with oyle out of the most hard stone.

14 With butter of kyne, and mylke of the sheepe, with fat of the lambes, and fatte of rammes, and bee goates, wyth the fat of the most plenteous wheate, & that thou mightest drinke the most pure bloud of the grape.

15 But he that shoulde haue beene vpright, when he waxed fat, spurned with his heele: thou art well fed, thou art growne thicke, thou art euen laden with fatnesse: and hee forsoke God his maker, and regarded not the God of his saluation.

16 They prouoked him to anger wyth straunge goddes, euen with abhominations prouoked they him.

17 They offred vnto diuels, and not to God: euen to goddes whom they knewe not, to newe goddes, that came newly vp, whome their fathers feared not.

18 Of God that begat thee, thou art vnmindful, and hast forgotten God that made thee.

19 The Lord therefore sawe it, and was angrie: bicause of the prouoking of his sonnes (e) and his daughters.

20 And he sayde, I will hyde my face from them, and will see what their ende shalbe: For they are a verye frowarde generation, children in whom is no fayth.

21 They haue angred me with that, which is no God, and prouoked me with their vanities: and I also will prouoke them with those, whiche are no people, I will anger them with a foolish nation.

22 For fyre is kindled in my wrath, and burneth vnto the bottome of hell, and hath consumed the earth with hir encrease, and set a fyre the bottomes of the mountaynes. Jere.20.c.

23 I will heape mischeefes vpon them, and will destroy them with mine arrowes.

24 They shall bee burnt with hunger, and consumed with heate, and with bytter destruction: I will also sende the teeth of beastes vpon them, with the furiousnesse of serpents in the dust. Jere.5.b. Joel.1.b.

25 Without[wyth] shall the swoorde robbe them of theyr chyldren, and wythin in the chamber feare: both yong men and yong women, and the sucklings, with the men of gray heades.

26 I haue sayde, I will scatter them abroade, and make the remembrance of them to cease from among men.

27 Were it not, that I feared the wrath of the enimie, least their aduersaryes shoulde (f) vtterly withdrawe themselues, and least they shoulde say, Our high hande hath done all this, and not the Lorde. f. Reioycing to see the godly afflicted, and attributing that to them selues, which is wrought by Gods hande.

28 For it is a nation voyde of counsell: neyther is there any vnderstanding in them. E

29 O that they were wyse and vnderstoode this, that they woulde consider theyr latter ende.

30 Howe shoulde one chase a thousande, and two put ten thousand to flight, except theyr maker had solde them, and except the Lorde had shut them vp?

31 For their god is not as our God: our enimies also themselues are iudges. 1.Reg.5.b.

32 For their vine is of the vineyarde of Sodome, and of the fieldes of Gomorra: their grapes are grapes of gall, and their clusters be bitter.

33 Their vine is the poyson of dragons, and the cruell gall of aspes.

34 Is not (g) this layde in store with me, and sealed vp among my treasures? g. As if he said, Thinke not that I forget mens sinnes: but reserue them to the time of punishment.

35 Vengeance is mine, and I will reward, their feete shall slyde in due tyme: for the daye of theyr destruction is at hande, and the things that shall come vppon them, make haste. Rom.12.d. F

36 For the Lord (h) shal iudge his people, and haue compassion on his seruants, when hee seeth, that theyr power is gone, and that they be in a maner shut vp, or brought to nought, and forsaken. 2.Mac.7.a. h. Gouerne them.

37 And he shall say, Where are theyr gods, their god in whom they trusted? Jere.2.d.

38 The fat of whose sacrifices they did eate, and dranke the wine of their drinke offerings:

rings: let them rise vp, and helpe you, and be your protection.

Deut.4.f. 1.Reg.2.t. Iob.15.b.

39 See nowe, howe that I, I am God, and there is none but I: I kill, and will make aliue: I wound, and will heale, neyther is there any that can deliuer out of my hande.

40 For I will lift vp my hande to heauen, and will say, I liue euer.

G 41 If I whet the edge of my swoorde, & mine hande take holde to doe iustice, I will recompence vengeance on mine enimies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrowes drunke with bloud, and my swoorde shall deuour flesh, and that for the blood of the slaine, and for their captiuitie, since the beginning of the wrath of the enimie.

i. That is, acknowledge gods goodnes towards them.

43 (i) Praise ye heathen his people, for he will auenge the blood of his seruaunts, and will auenge him of his aduersaryes, and will be mercifull vnto his land, and to his people.

44 And Moses came and spake all the woords of this song in the eares of the people, he, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun.

45 And Moses spake all these woordes vnto the ende, to all the people of Israell, Deut.6.b.

46 And sayd vnto them, Set your hears vnto all the woordes which I testifie vnto you this day, and ye shall commaunde them vnto your children, that they may obserue, and do all the woordes of this lawe

47 And let it not be a vaine word vnto you: for in it is your life, and through this woorde yee shall prolong your dayes in the lande, whither ye goe ouer Iordane to possesse it.

48 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses the same day, saying,

49 Get thee vp into this mountayne Abarim, vnto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, ouer agaynst Iericho, and behold the lande of Chanaan, whiche I giue vnto the children of Israel to possesse:

50 And die in the mount whiche thou goest vnto, and thou shalt bee gathered vnto thy people, as Aaron thy brother dyed in mount Hor, and was gathered vnto his people:

Num.20.a.

51 Bicause ye trespassed agaynst me among the children of Israel at the waters of strife at Cades in the wildernesse of Zin: for ye sanctified me not amõg ỹ childrẽ of Israel.

52 Thou shalt therefore see the lande before thee, and shalt not go thither vnto the land, which I giue the children of Israel.

The.xxxiij. Chapter.

1. Moses before his death blesseth al the tribes of Israell. 26. There is no God lyke to the God of Israel. 29. Nor any people like vnto this.

1 THis is the (a) blessing wherewith Moses (b) the man of God blessed the children of Israell, before his death, and sayd,

2 (c) The Lorde came from Sina, and rose vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared from mount Pharan, and he came with ten thousande of Saintes, and in his right hande a lawe of fyre for them.

3 And he loued the people, all (d) his saintes also are in thy handes: they were smitten to goe after thy feete, and to receyue of thy woordes.

4 Moses gaue vs a lawe for (e) an inheritance of the congregation of Iacob:

5 And hee was in Israell king, when the heades of the people, and the tribes of Israel were gathered togither.

6 Let Ruben liue, and not die, and be fewe in number.

7 The same also happen to Iuda: and hee sayde, Heare Lorde the voyce of Iuda, and bring him vnto his people: his handes shall be good ynough for him, if thou helpe him agaynst his enimies.

8 And vnto Leui he sayde, (f) Thummim and Urim shalbe with thee, and with euery one that is godly in thee: thou didst proue him also in the temptation, and stryuedst with him at the waters of stryfe.

9 He that hath sayd (g) vnto his father and to his mother (I haue not seene him) and he that knewe not his brethren, nor knewe his owne children, those are they that haue obserued thy woorde, and shall keepe thy couenant.

10 They shal teache Iacob thy iudgements, and Israel thy law: they shall put incense before thy nose, and the burnt sacrifice vpon thine aulter.

11 Blesse, Lorde, his substance, and accept the woorke of his handes: smite the loynes of them that rise agaynst him, and of them, that hate him, that they rise not againe.

12 And of Beniamin he sayde, The beloued of the Lord shal dwel in safetie vpon hym, and the lord shal couer him al the day long, and he shal dwel betweene his shoulders.

13 And of Ioseph hee sayde, Blessed of the Lorde is his lande for the " fruites of heauen, through the deawe and springs that lie beneath.

14 And for the sweete fruites of the increase of the sunne, and ripe fruites of the moone:

15 For the first fruits of the principal mountaynes, and for the fruites that the hylles bring forth for euer:

16 And for the fruites of the earth, and fulnesse thereof: and for the good wyll of (h) him, that dwelt in the bushe, shall the blessing

17 His first borne Ox hath beautie, and hys hornes are as the hornes of an Unicorne, and with them hee shall trouble the nations togither, euen vnto the endes of the world: these are also ten thousandes of Ephraim, and the thousands of Manasses.

18 And vnto Zabulon he sayd, Reioice Zabulon in thy going out, and thou Issachar in thy tentes.

19 They shal cal the people vnto the hill, and there they shall offer offerings of righteousnesse: for they shall sucke of the abundance of the sea, and of treasure hid in the sand.

20 And vnto Gad he sayd, Blessed be he that enlarged Gad: he dwelleth as (i) a Lion, that catcheth for a pray the arme with the heade.

21 He loked to him selfe at the beginning, because there was a portion of the (k) lawgiuer hid, and hee came with the heades of the people, and executed the righteousnesse of the Lord, and his iudgements with Israell.

22 And vnto Dan he sayde, Dan (l) is a Lions whelpe, he shall leape from Basan.

23 And vnto Nephthali he sayde, O Nephthali, satisfied with Gods fauour, and full with the blessing of the Lorde, possesse thou the west and the south.

24 And to Aser he sayde, Aser shalbe blessed with children, he shalbe acceptable vnto his brethren, and shall dippe his foote in oyle.

25 Thy shoes shalbe iron and brasse, and thy strength shal cõtinue as long as thou liuest.

26 There is none like vnto the God of Israell, which though he sit vpon the heauen (as vpon an horse) yet is her thine helper, whose glorie is in the celestiall places.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and vnder the armes of the euerlasting God shalt thou liue, he shall cast out the enimie before thee, and say, Destroy them.

28 Israell then shall dwell in safetie, and alone, and the fountayne of Jacob shall bee vpon a lande of corne and wine, and hys heauens shall droppe the dewe.

29 Happie art thou, O Israel: who is lyke vnto thee, O people, that art saued in the Lorde, which is the shield of thy helpe, and sworde of thy glorie? Thine enimies haue lost their strength to theeward, and thou shalt treade vpon their high places.

(i) Meaning that this tribe shalbe victorious.

(k) That is, which God the lawgiuer had reserued for Gadites.

(l) That is, he shall be strong enough to defend himselfe.

2 And all Nephthali, and the lande of Ephraim, and Manasse, and all the lande of Juda, euen vnto the vtmost (c) sea.

3 And the south, and the plaine of the valley of Jericho, the citie of Palme trees, (euen) vnto Zoar.

4 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, This is the lande, whiche I sware vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, saying, I will giue it vnto thy seede: I haue caused thee also to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go ouer thither.

5 So Moses the seruant of the Lorde dyed there in the land of Moab, according to the worde of the Lorde.

7 Moses was an hundred and twentie yeares olde, when he dyed: his eye was not dimme, nor his natural force abated.

8 And the children of Israell wept for Moses in the plaine of Moab thirtie dayes: And the dayes of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun was ful of the spirite of wisedome, for Moses had put his handes vpon him: and the children of Israel were obedient vnto him, and did as the Lorde commaunded Moses.

10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israell, like vnto Moses, whom the Lorde knew face (f) to face,

The booke of Iosuah, vvhome the Hebrues call Iehosuah.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 The Lorde incourageth Iosuah to inuade the land of promise. 5. The Lord promiseth to assist Iosuah if he obey his word. 11. Iosuah commaundeth the people to prepare themselues to passe ouer Iordane, 12. and exhorteth the Rubenites too execute their charge.

1 AFter the (a) death of Moses the seruaunt of the Lord, it came to passe, ỹ the Lorde spake vnto Iosuah, the son of Nun Moses (b) minister, saying,

2 Moses my seruaunt is dead: now therfore aryse, goe ouer this Iordane, thou and all this people, vnto the lande, the whiche I to them the children of Israell doe (c) giue.

3 All the places that the soales of your feete shall treade vpon, haue I giuen you, as I sayd vnto Moses.

4 From the (d) wildernesse and this Libanon, vnto the greate riuer Euphrates, all the lande of the (e) Hethites, euen vnto the (f) greate sea, towarde the going downe of the sunne, shall be your coast.

5 There shall not a man bee able to withstand thee all the dayes of thy lyfe: for as I was with Moses, so will I bee with thee, and will not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong therefore and bolde: for vnto this people shalte thou diuide the lande for inheritance, whiche I sware vnto their fathers to geue them.

7 Only be thou strong, and of a stout courage, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all the lawe, whiche Moses my seruaunt commaunded thee: turne not from the same, neither to the right hande, nor to the leafte, that thou mayst doe wysely in all that thou takest in hande.

8 Let not the booke of this lawe depart out of thy mouthe, (g) but occupie thy mynde therein day and night, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all that is writte therin: for then shalt thou make thy way (h) prosperous, and then thou shalte doe wysely.

9 Haue not I commaunded thee, that thou shouldest bee strong and hardie, and not feare nor be faynt hearted? For I the Lord thy God am wyth thee, whyther so euer thou goest.

10 Then Iosuah commaunded the officers of the people, saying:

11 Goe through the middes of the hoast, and commaund the people, saying, Prepare you vittayles: for after (i) three dayes ye shall passe ouer this Iordane, to go in, and enioye the lande whiche the Lorde your God giueth you, to possesse it.

12 And vnto the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses, spake Iosuah saying, 13 Remember the worde whiche Moses the seruaunte of the Lorde commaunded you, saying, The Lorde your God hathe giuen you rest, and hath giuen you this (k) lande.

14 Your wiues, your children, and your cattell, shall remayne in the land which Moses gaue you on (l) this side of Iordan: but ye shall goe before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, and helpe them:

15 Until the Lorde haue giuen your brethren rest, as he hath you, and vntil they also haue obteyned the land whiche the Lord your God giueth them: and then shall ye returne vnto the lande of your possession, and enioye it, whiche (lande) Moses the Lordes seruaunte gaue you on this syde of Iordane towarde the sunne rising.

16 And they answered Iosuah, saying, All that thou hast commaunded vs, we will doe: and whyther soeuer thou sendest vs, we will goe.

Israel the second time.

3 And Iosuah made him sharpe knyues, and circumcised the childzen of Israel in the (c) hill of the foreskinnes.

4 And this is the cause why Iosuah circumcame oute of Egypte: bicause that all the men of warre dyed in the wyldernesse by the way after they came out of Egypt.

5 Foz all the people that came oute, were circumcised: but all the people that were

6 Foz the childzen of Israell walked foztie their fathers, that he woulde giue vs, euen a land that floweth with milke and honie.

7 And their childzen whom he set vp in their steede, them Iosuah circumcised: foz they were vncircumcised: bicause they circumcised them not by the way.

8 And when they had circumcised al the peotill they were whole.

9 And the Lozde sayde vnto Iosuah, This day haue I taken away the (e) shame of E-

12 For the Manna ceased on the morow after they had begon to eate of the corne of the land: neyther hadde the children of Israell Manna any more, but dyd eate of the fruite of the lande of Chanaan that yeare.

13 And when Iosuah was nigh to Iericho, he lift vp his eyes, and loked: and beholde, there stode a man agaynste him, hauing a swoorde drawen in his hande: And Iosuah wente vnto him, and sayde vnto him, Art thou on our syde, or on our aduersaries.

14 And he sayde, Nay: but as a Captayne of the host of the Lord am I nowe come. And Iosuah fell on his face to the earth, and dyd (g) worshipe, and sayd vnto him, What sayth my Lord vnto his seruaunt?

15 And the captayne of the Lordes host sayd vnto Iosuah, Put thy shoe (h) off thy foote: for the place, whereon thou standest, is holy. And Iosuah did so.

3 And returned to Iosuah, and sayde vnto him, Let not all the people goe vp: but let as it were two or three thousande men goe vp, and smite Ai: and make not all the people to labour thither, for they are but fewe.

4 And so there went vp thither of the people about three thousand men, and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai, (c) smote of them about thirtie and sixe men: for they chased them from before the gate, euen vnto Sebarim, and smote them in the going downe: wherfore the harts of the people for feare melted away lyke water.

6 And Iosuah (d) rent his clothes, and fell to the earth vppon his face before the arke of the Lorde vntill the euentide, he and the elders of Israell, and put earthe vppon theyr heads.

7 And Iosuah sayde, Alas, O Lorde God, Wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Jordane, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to destroy vs? Woulde God we had bin content, and dwelt on the other (e) syde of Jordane.

8 Oh Lorde, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backes before their enimies?

9 Surely the Chanaanites, and all the inhabitantes of the land, shal heare of it, and shall conspire against vs, and destroy the name of vs out of the worlde: And what wilt thou do vnto thy mightie (f) name?

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Get thee vp: wherefore lyest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israel hathe sinned, and they haue transgressed mine appoyntment, whiche I commaunded them: for they haue taken of the excommunicate things, and haue also stolen, and dissembled also, and put them vnto their owne stuffe.

12 And therefore is it, that the children of Israel can not stand before their enimies, but shall turne their backs before their enimies, bycause they be excommunicate: Neyther will I be with you any more, except ye (g) destroy ỹ excommunicate from amōg you.

13 Up (therefore) and sanctifye the people, and say, Sanctifye your selues against to morowe, for so sayde the Lord God of Israel, There is a "dampned thing among you, O Israel: & therefore ye can not stande against your enimies, vntill ye haue put the dampned (h) thing from among you.

14 To morowe in the morning therefore ye shalbe brought according to youre tribes: And the tribe which the Lord (i) taketh shal come according to the kinreds thereof: And the kinred which the Lord shal finde giltie, shal come by housholdes: And the housholde whiche the Lorde shall finde faultie, shall come man by man.

15 And he that is founde with the accursed thyng thing, shalbe burnt with fire, he, and al that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenant of the Lorde, and wrought follie in Israell.

16 And so Iosuah rose vp early in the morning, and brought Israell by their tribes, and the tribe of Iuda was caught.

17 And he brought the kinredes of Iuda, & toke the kinrede of the Zarehites: And he brought the kinrede of the Zarehites, man by man, and Zabdi was caught.

18 And he brought his housholde man by man, and Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zared, of the tribe of Iuda, was caught.

19 And Iosuah said vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseech thee giue glory to the Lord God of Israell, and (k) make confession vnto him, and shewe me what thou hast done, hide it not from me.

(k) God is glorified whe the sin is confessed.

20 And Achan answered Iosuah, and sayd, Of a trueth I haue sinned against ỹ Lord God of Israell, & thus & thus haue I done.

21 I sawe among the spoyles a goodly babilonishe garment, and two hundred sicles of siluer, and a tongue of golde of fiftie sicles weight, & I coueted them, & toke thē, & behold, they lie hid in the earth in the middest of my tent, & the siluer is there vnder.

22 And so Iosuah sent messengers: whiche when they ranne vnto his tent, behold, they were hid in his tēt, & the siluer there vnder.

23 Therfore they toke them out of the middest of his tent, & brought them vnto Iosuah, and vnto al the children of Israel, and layde them out (l) before the Lorde.

(l) That is, before the arke of the Lorde.

24 And Iosuah toke Achan the sonne of Zareth, and the siluer, and the garment, and the (m) tongue of gold, and his sonnes, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheepe, and his tent, and all that he had: and all Israell with him brought them vnto the valley of Achor.

(m) Some reade, a wedge, others a plate, and some a rod.

25 And Iosuah sayde, In (n) as muche as thou hast troubled vs, the Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, & ouerwhelmed them with stones.

(n) What sharp iudgement & grieuous punishment they ought to haue, that by wickednelle draw Gods wrath vpon the multitude.

26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: And so the Lord turned from the wrath of his indignatiō. And the name of the place is called the (o) valley of Achor vnto this day.

(o) That is, the valley of trouble.

The.viii. Chapter.

3. The siege, 19. and winning of Ai. 29. The kyng thereof is hanged. 30. Iosuah setteth vp an aulter. 32. He wryteth the law vppon stones, 35. and readeth it to al people.

1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Feare not, neyther be thou fayntharted: Take all the men of warre with thee, and vp, and get thee to Ai. Behold, I haue gyuen into thy hande the king of Ai, and his people, his citie, and his lande: A Deut.7.c.

2 And thou shalt do to Ai, and hyr kyng, as thou diddest vnto Iericho, and hir king. Neuertheleſſe, the spoile and cattell thereof, shall ye take vnto your selues: Thou shalt lie in wayte against the citie, on the (a) backside thereof. Iosua.6.d. Deut.20.c.

a. Meanyng on the West side.

3 And so Iosuah arose, and all the men of warre, to goe vp against Ai: And Iosuah chose out thirtie thousand strong men, and valiant, and sent them away by night:

4 And he commaunded them, saying, Behold, ye shal lie in waite against the towne on the backside thereof: Goe not very farre from the citie, but be al ready,

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, wil approche vnto the citie: And when they come out agaynst vs, as they did at the first tyme, then will we flee before them:

6 For they will come out after vs, till we haue brought them out of the citie. For they will say, They flee before vs, as at the firste time: and we will flee before them. B

7 In the meane tyme shall ye ryse vp from lying in wayte, and destroy the citie: for the Lorde your God will deliuer it into your hande.

8 And when ye haue taken the citie, ye shal set it on fire: according to the commaundement of the Lord shall ye do. Behold, I haue charged you.

9 Iosuah therefore sent them forth, & they went to lie in wayte, and abode betweene Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the citie of Ai: But Iosuah lodged that night (b) among the people.

b. That is, with the rest of the armie.

10 And Iosuah rose vp early in the morning, and (c) numbred the people, and went vp, he & the elders of Israell before the people, against Ai.

c. That is, mustred them, and set thē in aray.

11 And al the men of warre that were with hym, went vp, and drewe nigh, and came against the citie, and pitched on the North side of Ai: and there was a valley betweene them and Ai.

12 And he toke aboute fiue thousande men, and (d) set them to lye in wayte betweene Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the citie.

d. He set these fewe, that the other whiche lay in ambush might not be discouered.

13 And the people set al the host, that was on the northside, against the citie, and them that lay in wayte on the west, against the citie: And Iosuah walked the same night in the middes of the valley.

14 And when the kyng of Ai sawe it, they hasted, and rose vp early, and the men of the citie went out against Israell to battayle, he and all his people at a time appointed, euen before the playne: and wist not that there were some that lay in wayte against him on the backside of the citie.

c. As they which fained themselues to flee for feare.

15 And Iosuah & al Israel, (c) as beaten before them, fled the byway of the wildernes.

16 And al the people of the towne were called together, to followe after them: And they followed after Iosuah, & were drawen away from the citie.

17 And there was not a man lefte in Ai and in Bethel, that went not out after Israell: And they left the citie open, and followed after Israel.

f. Or list vp the baner, to signifie when they shall inuade the citie.

18 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, (f) Stretche out ỹ speare that is in thine hand, toward Ai, for I will giue it into thy hãd. And Iosuah stretched out the speare that he had in his hande, toward the citie.

19 And they that lay in wayte, arose quickly out of theyr place, and ranne assone as Iosuah had stretched out his hande: and they entred into the citie, and toke it, and hasted, and set the citie on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked backe after them, they sawe the smoke of the citie ascend vp to heauen, and they had no "place to flee, eyther this way, or that way: and the people that fledde to the wildernes, turned backe vpon the followers.

"or, power.

21 And when Iosuah & all Israel saw, that they that lay in wayte had taken the citie, and that the smoke of it ascended, they turned agayne, and slue the men of Ai.

22 And the other issued out of the citie against them, and so were they in the myddest of Israell: for these were on the one side of them, and the rest on the other side. And they layd vpon them, so that they lette none of them escape nor remayne:

Deut. 7. a.

23 And the king of Ai they toke aliue, and brought hym to Iosuah.

24 And when Israell had made an ende of slaying all the inhabitantes of Ai, in the fielde of the wildernesse, where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the swoorde, vntil they were wasted, all the Israelites returned vnto Ai, and (g) smote it with the edge of the swoorde.

g. For the fyring of the citie was not to destroy it, for they should take the spoile thereof for a pray: but was to signifie to Iosuah, that they were entred.

25 And al that fel that day, both of men and women, were twelue thousand, euen all the men of Ai.

26 For Iosuah plucked not his hand backe agayne, whiche he stretched out vpon the speare, vntil he had vtterly destroyed all the inhabiters of Ai.

Num. 21. d. Deut. 20. f.

27 Onely the cattel, and the spoyle of the citie, Israel toke vnto themselues, accordyng vnto the woorde of the Lord, which he commaunded Iosuah.

28 And Iosuah set Ai on fire, and made it an heape for (h) euer, and a wildernesse (euẽ) vnto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree, vntill euẽ: And as sone as the Sunne was downe, Iosuah commaunded that (i) they should take the carkasse downe of the tree, and cast it at the entring of the gate of the citie, & lay thereon a great heape of stones, (that remayneth) vnto this day.

30 Then Iosuah buylte an aulter vnto the Lorde God of Israel in mount Ebal, 31 As Moses the seruaunt of the Lord commaunded the children of Israell, and as it is written in the booke of the lawe of Moses, an aulter of whole stones, ouer whiche no man hath lifte an iron: And they sacrificed thereon burnt sacrifices vnto the Lord, and offered peace offerings.

32 And he wrote there vpon the stones, a (k) rehearsal of the law of Moses, and wrote it in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And al Israell, and the elders thereof, and their officers, and iudges, stoode part on this side of the arke, and part on that side, before the priestes that were Leuites, whiche bare the arke of the couenant of the Lord, as wel the stranger, as they that were borne amõg them: halfe of them ouer against mount Garizim, and halfe of them ouer against mount Ebal, as Moses the seruaunt of the Lorde had commaunded before, that they should blesse the people of Israel.

34 Afterwarde he read all the woordes of the lawe, the blessings, and cursings, according to al that is written in the booke of the law.

35 And there was not one woorde of al that Moses commaunded, whiche Iosuah read not before all the congregation of Israell, as well the (l) women and children, as the straungers that were conuersant among them.

The. ix. Chapter.

1. Certayne kyngs are gathered against Iosuah. 2. The Gabaonites do guylefully requyre peace of Iosuah. 21. The Gabaonites are made ministers in cuttyng of wood, and bearyng of water.

1 AND when all the kings that dwell (a) beyonde Iordan in the hilles and valleys, and along by all the coastes of the (b) great sea, ouer against Libanon: (Namely) the Hethites, the Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the the Iebusites, heard thereof:

2 They gathered themselues together, to fight against Iosuah, and against Israell, with one accorde.
Gen. 21.a 3 And ỹ inhabiters of Gibeon heard what Iosuah had done vnto Iericho, and to Ai,
4 And they wrought wylily, and went & made themselues embassadours, and toke olde sackes vpon their Asses, and wine bottels olde, both rent and (c) bounde vp:
Because they were all one.
5 And old clowted shoes vpon their feete, & their rayment was olde: and al their prouision of bread was dryed vp, and hoared.
6 And they came vnto Iosuah into the host of Gilgal, & sayd vnto him, and vnto al the men of Israel, We be come frō a far countrey, & now make ye agreement with vs.
B 7 And the men of Israel sayd vnto the Heuite, It may be thou dwellest among vs, and then how cā I make peace with thee?
8 And they sayd vnto Iosuah, We are thy seruantes. And Iosuah sayde vnto them agayne, What are ye, and whence come ye?
Euen the iudges for the crime of death, presumed to swear the name of God, and to giue his reason.
9 They answered him, From a very farre countrey thy seruants are come, for ỹ name (d) of the Lord thy God: for we haue heard the fame of him, & al that he did in Egypt,
Num. 21.f.
10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iordane, Sehon kyng of Hesbon, and Og kyng of Basan, which were at Astaroth.
11 Wherefore our elders, and all the inhabiters of our countrey, spake vnto vs, saying, Take vittailes with you to serue by the way, & goe meete them, and say vnto them, We are your seruantes: And nowe make ye a couenaunt of peace with vs.
12 This our fode of bread we toke with vs out of our houses whote, the day we departed to come vnto you: But now beholde, it is dried vp, and hoared.
13 And these bottels of wine, whiche we filled, were newe, and see, they be rent: And these our garments, and shoes, are worne for oldnesse, by the reason of the exceedyng long iourney.
Some to trye the matter, and to taste it beyng so: some other say, it was rather the nature accordyng to the weather, that did eate their vitailes.
14 And the men toke of their (e) vittayles, & coūselled not with the mouth of the Lord.
Iosh. 22. a.
15 And Iosuah made peace with them, and made a couenaunt with them, that they should be suffered to liue: And the Princes of the congregation sware vnto them.
16 But at the ende of three dayes, after they had made a league with them, they heard, that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them,
From Gil. 17 And the children of Israell toke their (f) iourney, and came vnto their cities the thirde day: and their cities were Gibeon, and Caphira, Beroth, and Kiriathiarim.
18 And the children of Israell slewe them not, bycause the Princes of the congregatiō had sworne vnto them by the Lorde God of Israell: and all the multitude (g) murmured against the princes.
g. The multitude is commōly enclined to maligne their magistrates, and to construe theyr doings to the worst part.
19 But al the princes sayde vnto all the congregation, We haue sworne vnto them by the Lorde God of Israel, and therefore we may not hurt them.
20 But this we will do to them, We will let them liue, least wrath be vpō vs, bicause of the othe which we sware vnto them.
21 And the princes sayde vnto them againe, Let them liue, and hewe wood, and drawe water vnto al the congregation, (and they dyd) as the princes sayde vnto them.
22 And Iosuah called for them, and talked with them, and sayde, Wherefore haue ye beguyled vs, saying, We dwell farre from you: when ye dwell among vs?
23 And nowe are ye cursed, and there shall not ceasse to be of you bondmen, & hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the (h) house of my God.
h. Which was the tabernacle vnto the tyme of Solomon, & after that the temple at Hierusalem.
Deut. 7.a.
24 And they answered Iosuah, and sayde, It was tolde thy seruantes, howe that the Lorde thy God had commaunded his seruant Moses, to giue you all the lande, and to destroy all the inhabitours thereof out of your sight, and therfore we were exceeding sore afrayde for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing.
25 And beholde, we are in thine hande: as it seemeth good and right in thyne eyes to do vnto vs, so do.
26 And euen so dyd he vnto them, and ryd them out of the hande of the children of Israel, that they slue them not.
27 And Iosuah made them that same day hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the (i) aulter of God, vnto this day, in the place, whiche he should chose.
i. That is, the sacrifices.

The.x. Chapter.

1. Fiue kyngs make warre against Gibeon, whom Iosuah discomfiteth. 12. The sunne standeth styl at Iosuahs peayer. 26. The fiue kings are hanged.

1 NOw when Adonizedec king of Hierusalem had heard, howe Iosuah had taken Ai, and had destroyed it: (and howe that, as he had done to Iericho and hir kyng, euen so he had donne to Ai and hyr kyng) and howe the inhabitours of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,
A

2 They

2 They feared exceedingly, for Gibeō was was a greate citie, as any citie of the kingdome, and was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were very mightie.

3 Wherefore Adonizedec kyng of Hierusalem, sent vnto Hoham kyng of Hebron, and vnto Pira kyng of Iarmuth, and vnto Japhia kyng of Lachis, and vnto Dabir kyng of Eglon, saying,

4 Come vp vnto me, & help me, ỏ we may smite Gibeō: for they haue made peace with Iosuah, and with the children of Israell.

5 Therefore the fiue kinges of the Amorites, the kyng of Hierusalem, the kyng of Hebron, the kyng of Iarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the kyng of Eglon, gathered themselues together, & went vp, they with all theyr hostes, and besieged Gibeon, and made warre agaynst it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Iosuah to the host in Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thy hande from thy seruaunts, come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for al the kings of the Amorites, which dwell in the mountaynes, are gathered together (a) agaynst vs.

a. As soone as thou makest a league with the children of God, by regeneration: thou shalt be sure to haue the wicked children of the world in thy toppe.

7 And so Iosuah ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 And the Lorde sayd vnto Iosuah, Feare them not: for I haue deliuered them into thine hande, neyther shal any of them stand agaynst thee.

9 Iosuah therfore came vnto them sodainly, and went vp from Gilgal al night.

10 And the Lorde troubled them before Israel, and slue them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Bethoron, and smote them to Azeka, and Makeda.

11 And as they fled from before Israell, and were in the goyng downe to Bethoron, the Lorde caste downe great stones from heauen vpon them, vntill Azeka, and they died: There were moe dead with hayle (b) stones, than they were whom the children of Israel slue with the swoorde.

b. Al kinde of creatures shall destroy the wicked, when the Lorde of hoastes will haue it so.

Eccl. 46. a.
Esai. 28. d.

12 Then spake Iosuah to the Lorde, in the day when the Lorde deliuered the Amorites before the children of Israell, and he sayde in the sight of Israell, Sunne, stand thou still vpon Gibeon, and thou Mone in the valley of Ialon.

13 And the Sunne abode, and the Mone stode still, vntill the people had auenged themselues vpon their enimies. Is not this written in the booke of the (c) righteous? So the Sunne (I say) abode in the middest of heauen, and hasted not to goe downe by the space of a whole day.

c. The Hebrue word is Iasher, that is, righteous: therefore some iudge it meaneth Moses booke, and the Chaldee text readeth, the booke of the law: but others thinke Iasher to be the very name of the booke, which is lost, and now not extant.

14 And there was no day like that before it, or after it, that the Lorde heard the voyce of a man: for the Lord (d) fought for Israell.

d. By whom men are mightie and ouercome their enimies.

15 And Iosuah returned, & all Israell with him, vnto the campe to Gilgal.

16 But the fiue kings fled, and were hid in a caue at Makeda, 17 And it was tolde Iosuah (of one) saying, The fiue kings are founde hid in a caue, whiche is at Makeda.

18 And Iosuah sayd, Rol great stones vpon the mouth of the caue, and set men by it, for to keepe it.

19 And stande ye not still, but folowe after your enemies, and smyte all the hindmost, and suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lorde your God hath deliuered them into your hande.

20 And when Iosuah and the children of Israell had made an ende of slaying them with an exceedyng great slaughter, til they were wasted: the rest that remayned of thē, entred into walled cities.

21 And all the people returned to the host to Iosuah at Makeda in peace, neyther dyd any man moue his tongue agaynst the children of Israel.

22 Then sayde Iosuah, Open the mouth of the caue, and bryng out these fiue kings vnto me out of the caue.

23 And they dyd so, and brought those fiue kings vnto him out of the caue, (euen) the kyng of Hierusalem, the king of Hebron, the kyng of Iarmuth, the kyng of Lachis, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they had brought out those kings vnto Iosuah: Iosuah called for all the men of Israel, and sayde vnto the chiefe of the men of warre which went with him, Come neare, and put your feete vppon the (e) neckes of these kinges. And they came neare, and put their feete vpon the neckes of them.

e. By which ceremonie captayns signified them, that for ouercome.

25 And Iosuah said vnto them, Ye shal not feare, nor be faynt harted: but be strong, and plucke vp your harts, for thus shal the Lord do to all your enimies, agaynst whom ye fight.

26 And then Iosuah smote them, and slue them, and hanged them on fiue trees: And they hanged still vpon the trees vntil the euenyng.

27 And at the goyng downe of the Sunne, Iosuah gaue commaundement: And they toke them down of the trees, and cast them into the caue wherein they had bene hidde, and layde great stones in the caues mouth,

(which

(whiche remayne) vntill this day.

28 And that same day, Iosuah toke Makeda, & smote it with the edge of the swoorde, & the king therof also destroyed he vtterly, with all the soules that were therein, & let none remayne: and he did to the kyng of Makeda, as he did vnto the king of Iericho.

29 Then Iosuah went from Makeda, and al Israel with him vnto Libna, and fought agaynst Libna.

30 And the Lord deliuered it, and the king therof, into the hand of Israel: & he smote it with the edge of the swoord, & al the soules that were therein: He let none remayne in it, but did vnto the kyng therof, as he did vnto the kyng of Iericho.

31 And Iosuah departed from Libna, and al Israell with him, vnto Lachis, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lorde delyuered Lachis into the hande of Israell, whiche toke it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and all the soules that were therein, doyng accordyng to all, as he had done to the citie of Libna.

33 Then Horam king of Geser came vp to helpe Lachis: and Iosuah smote him and his people, vntill none remayned of him.

34 And from Lachis Iosuah departed vnto Eglon, and all Israell with him: and they besieged it, and assaulted it, 35 And toke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde: and all the soules that were therein, he vtterly destroyed the same day, accordyng to all that he had done to Lachis.

36 And Iosuah departed vp from Eglon, and al Israell with him, vnto Hebron: and they fought agaynst it.

37 And when they had take it, they smote it with the edge of the swoorde, and the kyng therof, & al the townes that perteyned to it, & al the soules that were therein, and he left none remayning: but did accordyng to all, as he had done to Eglon, and destroyed it vtterly, and al the soules that were therein.

38 And Iosuah returned, and al Israel with him, to Dabir, and fought agaynst it.

39 And when he had taken it, and the kyng therof, and all the townes that perteyned thereto, they smote them with the edge of the swoorde, and vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therein, neyther suffred he any to remaine: Euen as he did to Hebron, so he did to Dabir, and the kyng therof, as he had done also to Libna and hyr king.

40 Iosuah therefore smote all the hyl countreyes, and the South countreyes, and the valleys, and the downes, and al their kings, and let none remayne of them, but vtterly destroied al that breathed, as the Lord God of Israel had commaunded. Deut. 20. d.

41 And Iosuah smote them from Cadesbarnea, vnto Asah, and all the countrey of Gosan (euen) vnto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their lande dyd Iosuah take (f) at one tyme: because the Lorde God of Israell fought for Israel.

43 And Iosuah and al Israel, returned vnto the host that was in (g) Gilgal.

f. In one battayle.

g. Where the arke was, there to gyue thanks for their victorie.

The. xi. Chapter.

1. Certaine kings are gathered against Iosuah. 6. God deliuereth al the kings vnto Iosuah, which had conspired agaynst him.

1 AND when Jabin kyng of Hazor had heard those things, (a) he sent to Iobab king of Madon, and to the kyng of Simron, and to the kyng of Achsaph,

2 And vnto the kings that were by the North, in the mountaynes and playnes towarde the South side of (b) Cenereth, and in the low countreyes, and in the borders of Dor, westwarde.

3 And vnto the Chanaanites, both by East and West, & vnto the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, and Iebusites, in the mountaynes, and vnto the Hevites that were vnder (c) Hermon, in the land of Mizpah:

4 And they came out, & al their hostes with them, a multitude of folke, euen as the sand that is on the sea shore, in a great number, with horses and charettes exceedyng many.

5 And all these kings mette together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight agaynst Israel.

6 And the Lorde sayd vnto Iosuah, Be not afrayde at the presence of them, for to morow about this time wil I deliuer them al slayne before Israell: thou shalt (d) hough their horses, and burne their charettes with fire.

7 And so Iosuah came, & al the men of war with him, agaynst them by the waters of Merom, and sodaynely fell vpon them.

8 And the Lorde delyuered them into the hand of Israel, and they smote them, and chased them vnto great Sidon, & vnto (e) Misrephothmaim, & vnto the valley of Mizpah, which is Eastward: and smote them, vntill they had none remaynyng of them.

9 And Iosuah dyd vnto them, as the Lorde bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charettes with fire.

1. Reg. 30. f.

9 And the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Silo, which is in the lande of Chanaan, to go vnto the countrey of Gilead, to the land of their possession, which they had obteyned, according to the worde of the Lorde by the hande of Moses.

10 And when they came vnto the borders of Iordane, that are in the lande of Chanaan, there the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, buylt (f) them an aulter by Iordane, and that a great aulter to see to.

f. This is beyond Iordane: For sometime the whole cōtrey on both sides of Iordan is ment by Chanaan.

11 When the children of Israell heard say, Beholde the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, & the halfe tribe of Manasses, haue buylt an aulter in the forefront of the lande of Chanaan, in the borders of Iordane, at the passage of the children of Israel:

12 When the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered them togither at Silo, to make (g) battaile agaynst them.

Deut. 13. b.

13 And the children of Israel sent vnto the children of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manasses, into the lande of Gilead, Phinches the sonne of Eleazar the priest, 14 And with him ten Lordes, of euery cheefe house a Lorde, throughout all the trybes of Israel, whiche were heades of their fathers householdes among the " thousandes of Israel.

" or, multitude

15 And they went vnto the children of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of the halfe tribe of Manasses, vnto the lande of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus sayeth the whole congregation of the Lorde, What transgression is this, that ye haue transgressed against the god of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue builded you an aulter, for to rebell this day agaynst the Lorde?

17 Is the wicked deede of Peor tow little for vs, whereof we are not yet (h) clensed vnto this day? And there was a plague in the congregation of the Lorde.

18 Yee also are turned away this day from the Lorde: and seeing yee rebell to daye agaynst the Lorde, it will come to passe, that to morow he shalbe wroth with al the congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if yee thinke that the lande of your possession is (i) vncleane, then come ouer vnto the lād of ý possessiō of the Lord, wherin the Lordes tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among vs: But (k) rebell not agaynst the Lorde, nor rebell agaynst vs, to buylde you any other aulter, saue the aulter of the Lorde our God.

20 Did not Achan the sonne of Zareth trespasse greeuously in the accursed thing, and wrath fel on al the congregation of Israel? and this man (l) perished not alone in hys wickednesse.

21 Then the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, answered, and sayde vnto the heades ouer the thousandes of Israel, 22 The Lord God of goddes, the Lord God of goddes knoweth, and also Israell shall knowe, if it be to rebell, or to transgresse agaynst the Lorde, then thou Lorde saue vs not this day.

23 Or else, if we haue buylt vs an aulter to turne from folowing the Lorde, or to offer thereon burnt offering, or meate offering, or to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord himselfe (m) require it.

24 And if we haue not rather done it for feare of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might say vnto ours, What haue you to do with the Lord God of Israel?

25 The Lord hath made Iordan a border betweene vs and you, ye children of Ruben, & of Gad, ye haue no part therefore in ý lord: and so shall your children make our children (n) ceasse from fearing the Lorde.

26 Therfore we said, We wil make vs an aulter, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

25 But for a witnesse betweene vs and you, and oure generations after vs, that wee should serue the Lorde with our offerings, sacrifices, and peace offerings before hym, and that your chyldren shoulde not say to ours in tyme to come, Ye haue no (o) part in the Lorde.

28 Therfore sayde we, that if they should so say to vs, or to (p) our generations in time to come: that we woulde say agayne, Behold the fashion of the aulter of the Lorde, whiche our fathers made, neyther for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices, but for a witnesse betweene vs and you.

29 God forbid, that we should rebel against the Lorde, & turne this day from after him, and builde any other aulter for burnt offerings, oblations, or sacrifices, saue the aulter of the Lorde our God, that is before his tabernacle.

30 And when Phinehes the priest, and the Lordes of the congregation, and heads ouer the thousands of Israell, whiche were with hym, hearde these wordes, that the children of Ruben, and the chyldren of Gad and the chyldren of Manasses spake, they were wel content.

31 And Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the priest, sayde vnto the chyldren of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasses, This day we perceyue that the Lorde is (q) among vs, bycause ye haue not donne this trespasse against the Lorde: Nowe ye haue ryd the chyldren of Israel (r) out of the hande of the Lorde.

32 And Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the priest, with the Lordes, returned from the children of Ruben, and from the children of Gad, out of the lande of Gilead, vnto the land of Chanaan, to the chyldren of Israel, and brought them this worde agayne.

33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel, and they blessed God, and dyd not entende to goe agaynst them in battayle, and to destroy the lande, whiche the chyldren of Ruben and Gad dwelt in.

34 And the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, called the aulter (Ed) for it shal be a witnesse betweene vs, that the Lorde is God.

15 But whyther so euer they wente out, the (f) hand of the Lord was sore against them, euen as the Lord promised them, and as he sware vnto them: and he punnished them sore.

16 Neuertheless, the Lorde rayled vp iudges, which deliuered them out of the hands of their oppressours.

17 And yet for all that, they would not hearken vnto their iudges: but rather wente a whoring after strange goddes, and bowed them selues vnto them, and turned (g) quickly out of the way whiche their fathers walked in, obeying the commaundementes of the Lord: but they did not so.

18 And when the Lorde had rayled them vp iudges, he was with the iudge, and deliuered them out of the handes of their enimies all the dayes of the iudge: (for the Lord had compassion ouer their sorowings, whiche they had by the reason of them that oppressed them, and vexed them:)

19 Yet for all that, as soone as the iudge was dead, they returned, and did worse than their fathers, in following strange Goddes, to serue them, and worship them, and ceassed not from their owne inuentions, nor from their malitious way.

20 And the wrath of the Lorde was moued against Israell, and he sayde, Because thys people hath trangressed myne appoyntmẽt, whiche I commaunded their fathers, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce:

21 I will henceforth not cast out before D them one man of the nations, which Iosuah left when he dyed:

22 That through them I may (h) proue Israell, whether they will keepe the way of the Lord, and walke therein, as their fathers did, or not.

22 And so the Lorde left those nations, and droue them not out immediatly, nor deliuered them into the hand of Iosuah.

4 These remayned to proue Israell by, and to wyte whether they would hearken vnto the commaundements of the Lorde, which he commaunded theyr fathers by the hande of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites,

8 Therefore the Lorde was angry with Israel, and he solde them into the handes of Chusan Risathaim, kyng of Mesopotamia: and the childrē of Israel serued Chusan Risathaim eyght yeares.

9 And when the chyldren of Israell cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde styrred vp a sauiour to the chyldren of Israell, and saued them, euen Othoniel the sonne of Kenes, Calebs younger brother.

d. Enduyng him with the gift of prophecie, zeale of true religion, strength, policie, wisedome, and fortitude.

11 And the lande had rest fourtie yeares: and Othoniel the sonne of Kenes died.

12 And the chyldren of Israel agayne committed wickednesse in the sight of ỹ Lord: And the Lorde (e) strengthened Eglon the kyng of the Moabites, agaynst the chyldrē of Israel, bicause they had committed wickednesse before the Lorde.

14 And so the children of Israel serued Eglon the kyng of Moab. xviij. yeares.

15 But when they cryed vnto the Lord, the Lorde stirred them vp a sauiour, Ahud the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Gemini, a man lame of his "right hande: and by hym the chyldren of Israell sent a present vnto Eglon the kyng of Moab.

16 But Ahud made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he dyd gyrde it vnto his rayment vpon his right thygh,

17 And caryed the present vnto Eglon the kyng of Moab: (And Eglon was a very fat man.)

18 And when he had presented the present, he sent the people, that bare it, away.

19 But he hymselfe turned againe (from the place of grauen images, that was by Gilgal) & said, I haue a secret errand vnto thee, O kyng. Which saide, Keepe silēce. And al that stode before hym, went out from hym.

20 And Ahud came vnto him, and in a sommer parler, whiche he had, sate he hym selfe alone: and Ahud sayde, I haue a message vnto thee from God. And he arose out of his seate.

21 And Ahud put forth his leaft hande, and toke the dagger from his right thygh, and thrust it into his belly.

22 And the hafte went in after the blade: and the fatte closed the hafte, so that he might not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dyrt came out.

23 Then Ahud gate him out into the porch, and shut the dores of the parler vpon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his seruauntes came: and when they sawe that the dores of the parler were locked, they saide, Surely he (f) coucreth his feete in his sommer chamber.

27 And when he was come, he blewe a trūpet in mount Ephraim: And the chyldren of Israell went downe with him from the hyll, and he went before them.

28 And he sayde vnto them, Folow me: for the Lorde hath deliuered your enimies the Moabites into your hande. And they descended after hym, and toke the passages of Iordane toward Moab, and suffered not a man to passe ouer.

4. Debora iudgeth Israel, and exhorteth Barac to deliuer the people. 16. Sisara fleeth. 17. And is killed by Iael.

1 AND the childzen of Israel begaune a-gaine to do wickedly in the sight of the Lozde, when Ihud was dead.

2 And the Lozde solde them into the hande of (a) Jabin kyng of Chanaan, that raygned in (b) Hazor, whose captayne of warre was called Sisara, whiche dwelt in Haroseth, of the Gentiles.

3 And the childzen of Israell cryed vnto the Lozde (foz he had nine hundzed charettes of iron: and twentie yeares he troubled the chyldzen of Israel very soze.)

4 And Deboza a prophetisse, the wyfe of Lapidoth, iudged Israell the same time.

5 And the same Deboza dwelte vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramath and Bethel, in mount Ephzaim: and the childzen of Israel came vp to hir foz iudgement.

6 And she sent, and called Barac the sonne of Abinoam, out of Kedes Nepthalim, and sayde vnto him, Hath not the Lozd God of Israel (c) comaunded, saying, Goe, & drawe toward mount Thabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the chyldzen of Nepthalim, and of the childzen of Zabulon?

7 And I will bzyng vnto thee to the riuer Kison, Sisara the captayne of warre vnto Jabin, with his charets and his people, and will deliuer hym into thine handes.

8 And Barac sayde vnto hir, (d) If thou wilt goe with me, I will goe: But if thou wilt not come with me, I will not goe.

9 She sayde, I wyll surely goe with thee, but this iourney that thou takest shal not be foz thine honour: foz the Lozd shal sel Sisara into the hand of a woman. And Deboza arose, and went with Barac to Kedes.

10 And Barac called Zabulon & Nephthalim to Kedes, & ledde after him ten thousand men: and Deboza went vp with him.

11 (But Haber the Kenite, whiche was of the chyldzen of Hobab, the father in lawe of Moses, remoued from the Kenites, and pitched his tent (e) vnto the playne of Zaanaim, whiche is by Kedes.)

12 And they shewed Sisara, that Barac the sonne of Abinoam was gone vp to mount Thabor.

13 And Sisara gathered together al his charettes, euen nine hundzed charettes of iron, and all the people that were with him, from of Haroseth of the Gentiles, vnto the ryuer of Kison.

14 And Deboza sayde vnto Barac, Up, foz this is the day whiche the Lozde hath deliuered Sisara into thyne hande: Is not the Lozde gone out before thee? And so Barac went downe from mount Thabor, and ten thousand men after hym.

15 But the Lozde destroyed Sisara and all his charets, and al his host, with the edge of the swozde, before Barac: so that Sisara lighted downe of his charet, and fled away on his feete.

16 But Barac followed after the charettes, and after the host, euen vnto Haroseth of the gentiles: And al the host of Sisara fel vpon the edge of the swozde, and there was not a man left. Psalm.83.b.

17 Howbeit Sisara fled away on his feete, to the tent of Iael the wyfe of (f) Haber the Kenite (foz there was peace betweene Jabin the kyng of Hazor, and the houshold of Haber the Kenite.)

f. He was of the familie of Iethro, Moses father in lawe, and his auncestours ioyned themselues to Israel in the true worshippyng of God.

18 And Iael went out to meete Sisara, and sayde vnto him, Turne in my Lozde, turne into me, feare not. And when he had turned in vnto hyz into hir tent, she couered him with a mantell.

19 And he sayde vnto hyz, Giue me, I pzay thee, a litle water to dzynke, foz I am thirstie. And she opened a bottel of mylke, and gaue him dzynke, and couered hym. Judic.5.

20 And agayne he sayd vnto hyz, Stande in the dooze of the tent, and when any man doeth come and enquire of thee, whether there be any man here, thou shalt say, Nay.

21 Then Iael Habers wife, toke a nayle of the tent, and an hammer in hyz hande, and went softly vnto him, and smote the nayle into the temples of his head, and fastened it into the grounde (foz he slumbzed sozе, and was weary) and so he died. D

22 And behold, as Barac followed after Sisara, Iael came out to meete him, and sayd vnto hym, Come, and I will shew thee the man, whom thou seekest. And whē he came into hir tent, beholde, Sisara lay dead, and the nayle was in his temples.

23 And so God bzought Jabin the kyng of Chanaan into subiectiō that day before the chyldzen of Israell.

The.vi. Chapter.

1. Israell is oppressed of the Madianites for their wickednesse. 14. Gedeon is sent to be their deliuerer. 37. He asked a signe.

1 AND the chyldren of Israel committed (a) wickednesse in the sight of the Lord: And the Lorde deliuered them into (b) the handes of Madian seuen yeares.

2 And the hande of Madian preuayled agaynst Israell: and (c) bicause of the Madianites, the chyldren of Israel made them dennes in the mountaynes and caues, and strong holdes.

3 And when Israell had sowen, then came vp the Madianites, the Amalechites, & they of the east, and came vp agaynst them,

4 And pitched theyr tentes agaynst them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, euen till thou come vnto Azah, and left no sustenance for Israel, neyther Sheepe, nor Oxe, nor Asse.

5 For they went vp, they and theyr cattel, & came with theyr tentes, as a multitude of Grashoppers, so that both they & also theyr Cammelles were without number: And they entred into the lande, to destroy it.

6 And so was Israel exceedingly impouerished (d) in the sight of the Madianites, and cryed vnto the Lorde.

7 And when the (e) children of Israel cryed vnto the Lorde, bicause of the Madianites, 8 The Lorde sent vnto them a prophete, which sayd vnto thē, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, I fette you from Egypt, & brought you out of the house of bondage.

9 And I rid you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of al that oppressed you, and caste them out before you, and gaue you theyr lande:

10 And I sayde vnto you, I am the Lorde your God: feare not the gods of the Amorites, in whose lande you dwell. But you haue not obeyed my voyce.

11 And the angel of the Lord came, and sate vnder an Oke, whiche was in Ephrah, that perteyned vnto Joas, the father of the Ebrites: And his sonne Gedeon threashed wheate by the wineprese, to hide it frō the Madianites.

12 And the angel of the Lord appeared vnto him, and sayde vnto him, the Lorde is with thee, thou mightie man.

13 And Gedeon answeared him, (f) Oh my Lorde, if the Lorde be with vs, why is all this come vpon vs? Yea, and where be all his myracles, which our fathers tolde vs of, and sayde, Did not the Lorde bryng vs out of Egypt? But nowe the Lorde hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the handes of the Madianites.

14 And the (g) Lorde loked vpon hym, and sayde, Goe hence in this thy (h) might, and thou shalt deliuer Israell out of the handes of the Madianites: Haue not I sent thee?

15 And he answeared him, Oh Lord, wherwith shal I saue Israel? Behold, my kinred is poore in Manasses, and I am litle in my fathers house.

16 The Lorde sayde vnto hym, I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Madianites, as they were but one man.

17 And he answeared hym, Oh, if I haue found grace in thy sight, then shew me a (i) signe, that it is thou that talkest with me:

18 Departe not hence, I pray thee, vntill I come vnto thee, and tell I bryng mine offeryng, and haue set it before thee. And he sayd, I wil tarry vntill thou come againe.

19 And Gedeon went in, and made ready a kidde, and sweete cakes of an (k) Epha of floare, & put it with the flesh in a basket, & put the brothe in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the Oke, and presented it.

20 And the angell of God sayde vnto hym, Take the flesh and the sweete cakes, and lay them vpon this rocke, and powre out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the angell of the Lorde put forthe the ende of the staffe, that he helde in his hande, and touched the flesh and the sweete cakes, & there arose vp fyre out of the rocke, and consumed the flesh & the sweete cakes: But the angell of the Lorde departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gedeon perceiued, that it was an angell of the Lorde, he sayde, Alas, O Lorde God, haue I therfore seene an angel of the lord face to face, (that I should die?)

23 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Peace be vnto thee: feare not, thou shalt not dye.

24 Then Gedeon made an aulter there vnto the Lorde, and called it, The Lorde of peace. And vnto this day it is yet in Ephrah, that perteyneth vnto the father of the Ebrites.

25 And the same night the Lorde sayd vnto him, Take thy fathers young bullocke, & an other bullocke of seuen yeares olde, and (l) destroy the aulter of Baal, that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it:

26 And make an aulter vnto the Lorde thy God, vpon the top of this rocke, in a conuenient place: and take the second bullocke, 32 And from that day was Gedeon called Jerobaal: bycause his father had sayd, Let Baal pleade for himselfe, bycause he hath broken downe his aulter.

33 All the Madianites therefore, and the Amalekites, and they of the East, were gathered together, and went and pitched in the valley of Jesrael:

38 And it came so to passe: For he rose vp early on the morowe, and thrust the fleese together, and wrong the dewe thereout, and filled a bolle of water.

39 And Gedeon sayde agayne vnto God, Be not angry with me, that I speake once more: for I will proue once againe by the fleese. Let it be drie onely vpon the fleese, and dewe vpon al the grounde.

40 And God dyd so that same night: For it was drye vpon the fleese onely, and there was dewe on all the grounde.

6 And the number of them, that put their handes to their mouthes and lapped, were three hundred men: But al the remnant of the people kneeled downe vpon their knees to dryuke water.

7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Gedeon, By these three hundred men that (c) lapped, wil I saue you, and deliuer the Madianites into thyne hand: And let all the (d) other people goe, euery man vnto his place.

8 They therefore of the people toke victayles with them, and their trumpettes: And he sent al the rest of Israell, euery man vnto his tent, and reteyned those three hundred men: And the hoste of Madian was beneath him in a valley.

9 And the same night the Lorde sayd vnto him, Aryse, geat thee downe vnto the hoste: for for I haue deliuered it into thyne hande.

10 But if thou feare to goe downe, then go, thou & Phara thy ladde, downe to the hoſt.
11 And thou ſhalt hearken what they ſay, & ſo ſhal thine hands be ſtrong to go downe vnto the hoſte. Then went he downe, and Phara his ladde, vnto the outſide of the mē of armes, that were in the hoſte.
12 And the Madianites, & the Amalekites, and al they of the Eaſt, lay along in ỹ valley like a multitude of Graſſhoppers, & their Cammelles were without number, euen as the ſande by the ſea ſide in multitude.
13 And when Gedeon was come, beholde, there was a man, that tolde a dreame vnto hys neyghbour, and ſayde, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame: and me thought, that a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoſt of Madian, and came vnto a tent, & ſmote it that it fell, and ouerturned it, that the tent lay along.
14 And his felowe anſwered, and ſayde, This is nothing els but the ſworde of Gedeon, the ſonne of Joas, a man of Iſraell: for into his hande hath God deliuered Madian, and al the hoſte.
15 When Gedeon heard the telling of the dreame, & the interpretation of the ſame, he worſhipped, & returned vnto the hoſt of Iſrael, and ſayde, Up, for the Lord hath deliuered into your hand the hoſte of Madian.
16 And he diuided the three hundred men into three companies, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hande, with emptie pitchers, and (c) lampes therein,
17 And ſayde vnto them, Looke on me, and do likewiſe: that when I come to the ſide of the hoſt, euen as I do, do you the like.
18 When I blowe with a trumpet, and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets alſo on euery ſide of the hoſte, and ſay, For the Lorde, and for Gedeon.
19 So Gedeon, and the hundred men that were with him, came vnto the outſide of ỹ hoſt, in the beginning of the middle watch, and rayſed vp the watchemen: And they blewe with their trumpettes, and brake the pitchers that were in theyr handes.
20 And the three companyes blewe with trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and helde the lampes in their left handes, and the trūpets in theyr right, to blowe withall: And they cryed, The ſworde of the Lorde, and of Gedeon.
21 And they ſtode ſtill, euery man in his place, rounde aboute the hoſte: And all the hoſte ranne, and cryed, and fledde.
22 And the three hundred blew with trumpets: and the Lord ſet euery mans ſworde vpon his (f) neyghbour throughout all the hoſte: and the hoſte fledde to Beth-haſitah, to Zererah, and to the edge of the playne of Meholah, vnto Tabbath.
23 And the mē of Iſrael, being gathered together out of Nephthalim, of Aſer, and of al Manaſſes, folowed after the Madianites.
24 And Gedeon ſent meſſengers vnto all mount Ephraim, ſaying, Come downe againſt the Madianites, & take before them the (g) waters vnto Beth-barath, and vnto Jordane. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together, and toke the waters vnto Beth-barath, and vnto Jordane.
25 And they toke two princes of the Madianites, Oreb and Zeb: and ſlue Oreb vpō the rocke Oreb, and Zeb at the (h) wine-preſſe of Zeb, and folowed after Madian: and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon, on the other ſide of Jordane.

1 ABimelech the ſonne of Ierobaal, went vnto Sichem vnto his mothers brethren, and communed with them, and with al the kinrede of the houſe of his mothers father, ſaying,

2 Say, I pray you, in the eares of all the men of Sichem, Whether is better for you, that al the ſonnes of Ierobaal, (whiche are threeſcore & ten perſons) raygne ouer you: or that one raygne ouer you? Remember, that I am of your bone, and of your fleſh.

3 And his mothers brethren ſpake of hym, in the audience of the men of Sichem, all theſe wordes, and their hartes were moued to folowe Abimelech: For they ſayde, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him threeſcore and tenne peeces of ſiluer out of ỹ houſe of Baal Berith: wherwith Abimelech hyred vayne and light perſons, which went with him.

5 And he went vnto his fathers houſe at Ephrah, and ſlue his (a) brethren, the ſonnes of Ierobaal, beyng threeſcore and ten perſons, vpon one ſtone: Notwithſtandyng, yet Ioatham the yongeſt ſonne of Ierobaal eſcaped: for he hyd himſelfe.

6 And al the men of Sichem gathered together, and al the houſe of Mello, and came and made Abimelech kyng, in the playne where the ſtone was in Sichem.

7 And when they tolde it to Ioatham, he went and ſtode in the toppe of mount Garizim, and lifted vp his voyce, and cryed, and ſayd vnto them, Hearken vnto me you men of Sichem, that God may hearken vnto you.

8 (b) The trees went forth to annoynt a kyng ouer them, and ſayde vnto the Oliue tree, Raigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the Oliue tree ſayde vnto them, Should I leaue my fatneſſe, wherewith by me they honour (c) God and man, and be promoted ouer the trees?

10 And the trees ſayde to the Figge tree, Come thou, and be kyng ouer vs.

11 The Figge tree anſweared them, Should I forſake my ſweeteneſſe, & my good fruite, and goe to be promoted ouer the trees?

12 Then ſayde the trees vnto the Vine, Come thou, and be kyng ouer vs.

13 The Vine ſayde vnto them, Shoulde I leaue my wine, whereby I cheere bothe (d) God and man, and goe to be promoted ouer the trees?

14 Then ſayde all the trees vnto the Bryer, Come thou, and raygne ouer vs.

15 And the Bryer ſayde vnto the trees, If it be true that ye will annoynt me kyng ouer you, then come, & put your truſt vnder my ſhadow: If no, the (e) fire come out of the bryer, & waſt the Cedar trees of Libanon.

16 Nowe therefore, if ye do truely, and vncorruptly, to make Abimelech kyng, and yf ye haue dealt well with Ierobaal, and his houſe, and haue done vnto him accordyng to the deſeruyng of his handes:

17 (For euen my father fought for you, and aduentured his lyfe, and ridde you out of the hande of Madian:

18 And ye are ryſen vp agaynſt my fathers houſe this day, & haue ſlayne his chyldren, beyng threeſcore and ten perſons, vpon one ſtone, and haue made Abimelech, the ſonne of his mayde ſeruant, kyng ouer the men of Sichem, bycauſe he is your brother.)

19 If ye then haue dealt truely and purely with Ierobaal, & with his houſe this day, then reioyce ye with Abimelech, and lette him reioyce with you.

20 But if you haue not dealt truely, then let a fire come out of Abimelech, and conſume the men of Sichem, & the houſe of Mello: and let there come out a fire from among the men of Sichem, and out of the houſe of Mello, and conſume Abimelech.

21 And Ioatham ranne away, and fledde, and went to Beer, & dwelt there, for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 When Abimelech hadde raygned three yeares ouer Iſrael,

27 And they went out into the fieldes, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made merry, and went into the house of their God, and did eate and drynke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal, the sonne of Obed, sayde, What is Abimelech? and what is Sichem, that we shoulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierobaal? and is not Zebul his officer? Serue such as come of Hemor the father of Sichem: for what reason is it, that we should serue him?

29 Would God this people were vnder my hande: then would I take Abimelech out of the way. And he spake agaynst Abimelech, Make thine host greater, and goe out.

30 And when Zebul, the ruler of the citie, hearde the wordes of Gaal, the sonne of Obed, he was wroth:

31 And sent messengers vnto Abimelech priuily, saying, Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Obed, and his brethren, be come to Sichem, and beholde, they fortifie the citie agaynst thee.

32 Now therefore vp by nyght, thou and the people that is with thee, and lye in wayte in the fielde, 34 And Abimelech rose vp, and al the people that were with hym, by nyght, and they lay in wayte agaynst Sichem in foure companies.

35 And Gaal the sonne of Obed went out, and stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: And Abimelech rose vp, and the folke that were with him, from lying in wayte.

36 And when Gaal sawe the people, he sayd to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the toppe of the mountaynes. And Zebul sayde vnto him, (g) The shadowe of the hilles seeme men vnto thee.

g. By these wordes he mocked Gaal, for the bragge he made before agaynst Abimelech.

37 And Gaal answeared agayne, and sayd, See, there come folke downe by the middle of the lande, and an other company cõmeth along by the playne of the charmers.

38 Then sayde Zebul vnto hym, Where is now thy mouth, that sayde, What felow is Abimelech, that we shoulde serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Goe out now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the citizens of Sichem, and fought with Abimelech, 40 And Abimelech chased hym, that he fled before hym, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entryng of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Sichem.

42 And on the morow the people went out into the fielde: And they tolde Abimelech.

43 And he toke the people, and diuided the into three companies, and lay in wayte in the fielde, and loked, and beholde, the people were come out of the citie, and he ranne vpon them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the companies, that were with hym, rushed forwarde, and stode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other companies ranne vpon all the people, that were in the fieldes, and slue them.

49 And all the men that were among the people, cut downe bowes, and folowed Abimelech, and put them into the holde, and set the holde a fire by them: so that all the men of the towre of Sichem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and besieged it, and toke it.

9 And Iephthah sayde vnto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home agayne to fight agaynst the chyldren of Ammon, then if the Lorde deliuer them before me, shal I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead sayde to Iephthah, The Lord be witnesse betweene vs, if we do not accordyng to thy wordes.

11 Then Iephthah went with the elders of Gilead, & the people made hym head & captayne ouer them: And Iephthah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Mispah.

12 And Iephthah sent messengers vnto the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, saying, What halte thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my lande?

13 The kyng of the children of Ammon answeared vnto the messengers of Iephthah, Bicause Israel toke away my land, when they came out of Egypt, euen from Arnon vnto Iabok, and vnto Iordane: Now therefore restore those landes agayne "with fayre meanes.

"Heb. in peace

14 And Iephthah sent messengers agayne vnto the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon, 15 And said vnto him, Thus sayd Iephthah, Israel toke not away the lande of Moab, nor the lande of the chyldren of Ammon.

Deut. 2. d.

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernesse, euen vnto the redde sea, they came to Cades:

17 And Israell sent messengers vnto the kyng of Edom, saying, Lette me, I pray thee, goe through thy lande: But the kyng of Edom would not agree thereto. And in lyke maner they sent vnto the kyng of Moab: but he would not consent. And Israel abode still in Cades.

18 And then they went along through the wildernesse, and compassed the land of Edom, and the lande of Moab, & came along by the East side of the lande of Moab, and pitched on the otherside of Arnon, & would not come within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And then Israell sent messengers vnto Sehon kyng of the Amorites, and kyng of Hesbon, and sayde vnto hym, Let vs passe, we pray thee, through thy lande vnto our owne countrey.

Deut. 2. c.

20 But Sehon consented not to Israell, that he shoulde goe through his coast: but gathered al his people together, and pitched in Iasa, and fought with Israell.

21 And the Lorde God of Israell deliuered D Sehon, and all his folke, into the handes of Israel, & they smote them: So Israel smote them, and possessed al the land of the Amorites, the inhabitantes of that countrey.

22 And they possessed al the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon vnto Iabok, & from the wildernesse vnto Iordane.

23 So nowe, seeyng the Lorde God of Israell hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israell, shouldest thou possesse it?

24 Nay, but what people Camos thy God dryueth out, that land possesse thou: Euen so what soeuer nation the (e) Lorde our God expelleth before vs, that lande ought we to enioy.

25 And art thou better than Balac the sonne of Zephor kyng of Moab? Did he not striue with Israel, and fight agaynst them?

26 All the while Israell dwelt in Hesbon & hir townes, in Aroer & hir townes, and in al the cities, that be along by the coastes of Arnon, three hundred yeares? Why did ye not recouer them in all that space?

27 Wherefore I haue not sinned agaynst thee, but thou doest me wrong to warre against me: The Lorde therefore, which is a iudge, be iudge this day betweene ỹ children of Israel, and the chyldren of Ammon.

28 Howbeit, the king of the children of Ammon E hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iephthah, whiche he sent him.

29 Then the (f) spirite of the Lord came vpon Iephthah, and he passed ouer to Gilead, and to Manasses, and came to Mispah, that lieth in Gilead, and from thence vnto the chyldren of Ammon.

f. Endued him with strength, courage, wardes.

30 And Iephthah vowed a vowe vnto the Lorde, and sayde, If thou shalt deliuer the chyldren of Ammon into my handes, 31 Then that thyng, that commeth out of the dores of my house agaynst me, when I come home in peace from the chyldren of Ammon, shal be the Lordes, and I wil offer it vp for a burnt offeryng.

32 And so Iephthah went vnto the children of Ammon, to fight agaynst them, and the Lorde deliuered them into his handes.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, till thou come to Mennith, euen twentie cities, and so forth to the playne of the vineyardes, with an exceedyng greate slaughter: And thus the children of Ammon were brought vnder, before the children of Israel.

34 When Iephthah came to Mispah vnto his his house, beholde, his daughter came out agaynst him, with (g) timbrelles, and daunces, and she was his onely childe, so that besides hir, he had neither sonne nor daughter.

35 And when he saw hir, he (h) rent his clothes, and sayde, Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me lowe, and art one of them that trouble me: For I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lorde, and can not go backe.

36 And she sayd vnto him, My father, if thou haue opened thy mouth vnto the Lord, then doe with me according to it that proceeded out of thy mouth, for as much as the Lorde hath auenged thee of thine enimies the children of Ammon.

f 37 And she sayde vnto hir father, Doe thus much for me: Let me alone two monethes, that I may goe to the mountaynes, and (i) bewayle my virginitie, I and my fellowes.

38 And he sayde, Goe. And he sent hir away two monethes: And so shee went with hir companions, and lamented hir maydenhead vpon the mountaynes.

39 And after the end of two monethes she turned againe vnto hir father, which did with hir, according to his bowe which he bowed, and she had knowne no man: and it grewe to a custome in Israell, 40 The daughters of Israell came yeare by yeare, to lament the daughter of Iephthah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yeare.

1 AND the men of Ephraim gathered themselues togither, and went (a) northward, and sayde vnto Iephthah, Wherefore wentest thou to fight (b) agaynst the children of Ammon, and diddest not call vs to goe with thee? we will therefore burne thine house vpon thee with fire.

2 And Iephthah sayd vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon: and when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their handes.

3 And when I sawe that ye deliuered mee not, (c) I put my life in my handes, and went vpon the children of Ammon, and the lord deliuered them into my hands: Wherefore then are ye come vpon me now, to fight agaynst me?

4 Iephthah therefore gathered togither all the men of Gilead, and fought with the Ephraites. And the men of Gilead smote the Ephraites, because they sayd, Ye Gileadites are but vagabundes of Ephraim, among the Ephraits and the Manassites.

5 Moreouer the men of Gilead toke the passages of Iordane before the Ephraites: and when the same Ephraites that were escaped, sayde, let me goe ouer: then the men of Gilead sayde vnto him, Art thou an Ephraite? If he sayde, Nay:

6 Then sayde they vnto him, Then saye, (d) Scibboleth. And he sayde, Sibboleth: for he could not so pronounce. And then they toke him, and slue him at the passages of Iordane: and there were ouerthrowne at that time of the Ephraites, fortie and two thousande.

a. Meaning he shoulde haue a peculiar calling, to serue God in, separate from the common order of men.

6 Then the wife came and tolde hir husband, saying, A man of God came vnto me, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of an Angel of God, exceeding "fearefull: but I asked him not whence he was, neyther tolde he me his name:

8 Then Manoah made intercession to the Lorde, and sayde, I pray thee, my Lorde, let the man of God which thou sendedst, come againe vnto vs, and teach vs, what we shall doe vnto the lad, when he is borne.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manoah, and the Angell of God came againe vnto the woyfe, as she sate in the fielde: but Manoah hir husbande was not with hir.

e. And not vnto me, nor to idolles.

17 And Manoah sayde againe vnto the Angell of the Lorde, what is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may do thee worship?

18 And the Angell of the Lorde sayde vnto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secrete?

19 And so Manoah toke a kyd, with a meat offering, and offered it vpon a rocke vnto the Lord, and the Angel did "wonderously, Manoah and his wyfe loking vpon.

5 Then went Samson, and his father, and his mother downe to Thamnath, and came to the vineyardes of Thamnath: and behold, a yong Lion roared vpon him.

6 And the spirite of the Lorde(c) came vpon him, and he tare him, as he would haue rent a kidde, and yet had nothing in his hande, neyther tolde he his father and mother what he had done.

7 And he went downe and talked with the woman, which seemed well fauoured in the sight of Samson.

8 And within a short space after, as he went thither agayne to take hir to wyfe, he turned out of the waye, to see the carkasse of the Lion: and behold, there was a swarme of Bees, and honie in the carkasse of the Lion.

9 And he toke thereof in his handes, and went eating, and came to his father and mother, and gaue them also, and they dyd eate: But he tolde not them that he had taken the hony out of the carkasse of the Lion.

10 And so his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samson made there(d) a feast: for so vsed the yong men to do.

11 And when they sawe him, they brought thirtie companions to be with him.

12 And Samson sayde vnto them, I will now put forth a riddle vnto you, and if you can declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, and fynde it oute, I will giue you thirtie(e) sheetes, and thirtie chaunge of garments:

13 But if you can not declare it me, then shal ye giue me thirtie sheetes, and thirtie change of (f) garmentes. And they answered him, Put forth thy riddle, that wee maye heare it.

14 And he sayde vnto them, Out of the eater came meate, and out of the strong came sweetenesse. And they coulde not in three dayes expounde the riddle.

15 And when the (g) seuenth day was come, they sayd vnto Samsons wife, Flatter thine husbande, that he may declare vs the riddle, least we burne thee & thy fathers house with fire: Haue yee called vs hither to make vs beggers? is it not so?

16 And Samsons wife wept before him, and sayde, Surely thou hatest me, and louest me not, for thou hast put forth a ryddle vnto the children of my folke, and hast not tolde it me. And he sayde vnto hir, Beholde I haue not tolde it my father, and my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And Samsons wife wept before him seuen dayes, while the feast lasted: and the seuenth day he told hir, because she lay so sore vpon him. And she tolde the ryddle to the children of hir folke.

18 And the men of the citie sayde vnto him the seuenth day, before the Sunne wente downe, What is sweeter than honie? and what is stronger than a Lion? Then sayde he vnto them, If ye had not plowed wyth my (h) heifer, ye had not found out my ridle.

19 And the spirit of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to (i) Askalon, and slue thirtie men of them, and spoyled them, and gaue change of garments vnto them, which expounded the riddle: and hee was wroth, and went vp to his fathers house.

20 But Samsons wife was giuen to one of his companions, that hee had taken vnto hym.

2 And hir father sayde, I thought that thou hadst hated hir, and therefore gaue I hir to thy companion: Is not hir yonger sister fayrer than she? Take hir, I pray thee, in stede of the other.

3 Samson sayde vnto him, Nowe am I more(b) blameles than the Philistines, and therefore I will do them displeasure.

4 And Samson went out, and caught three hundred Foxes, and toke fyrebrandes, and turned them tayle to tayle, and put a fyrebrand in the middes betweene two tayles.

5 And when he had set the brandes on fyre, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistines, and burnt vp both the reaped corne, and also the standing, with the vineyardes and olines.

6 Then the Philistines sayde, Who hath done this? And they answered Samson the sonne in lawe of the Thamnite, because he had taken his wife, and giuen hir to his companion. And the Philistines came vppe, and (c) burnt hir, and hir father, with fyre.

7 And Samson sayde vnto them, Though ye haue done this, yet will I be auenged of you, and then will I ceasse.

9 Then the Philiſtines came vp, and pitched in Juda, and camped in Lehi.

10 And the men of Juda ſayde, Why are ye come vp vnto vs? They anſwered, To binde Samſon are we come vp, and to doe to him, as he hath done to vs.

11 Then three thouſande men of Juda went to the top of the rocke of Etam, and ſayde to Samſon, Wotteſt thou not that the Philiſtines are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then haſt thou done thus vnto vs? He anſwered them, As they haue done vnto me, ſo haue I done vnto them.

12 And they ſayde vnto him againe, We are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hande of the Philiſtines. And Samſon ſayde vnto them, Sweare vnto me, that ye will not fall vpon me your ſelues.

d. Whom God had appointed to be their deliuerer from the yoke of the Philiſtines.

13 They anſwered him, ſaying, No, but we will binde thee, and (d) deliuer thee vnto their handes, but we will not kill thee. And they bounde him with two newe cordes, and brought him from the rocke.

14 And when he came to Lehi, the Philiſtines ſhouted againſt him: and the ſpirite of the Lorde came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that is burnt with fire, for the bandes loſed from off his handes.

18 And he was ſore a thyrſt, and called on the Lord, and ſayd, Thou haſt giuen this great victorie in the hand of thy ſeruant: and now I muſt die for thyrſt, and fall into the hands of the vncircumciſed.

19 But God brake a great toth that was in the iawe, and there came water thereout, and when he had dronke, his ſpirite came againe, and hee was refreſhed: wherefore the name thereof was called vnto this day, The Well of the caller on, which came of the iawe.

20 And he iudged Iſrael in the dayes of the Philiſtines, twentie yeares.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1. Samſon caryeth away the gates of Azzah. 18. He was deceyued by Dalila. 30. He pulleth downe the houſe vpon the Philiſtines, and dyeth with them.

1 THen went Samſon to Azah, and ſawe there an harlot, and went in vnto hir.

2 And it was tolde the Azathites, ſaying, Samſon is come hither. And they went about, and layd wayte for him there al night in the gate of the citie, and were ſtill all the night, ſaying, In the morning when it is day, we ſhall kill him.

3 And Samſon tooke his reſt till midnight, and aroſe at midnight, and toke the dores of the gate of the citie, and the two poſtes, and rent them off with the barre and all, and put them vpon his ſhoulders, and caryed them vp to the top of an hil, that is before Hebron.

4 And after this, he loued a woman by the riuer of Sorek, whoſe name was Dalila.

5 Vnto whom came the Lords of the Philiſtines, and ſayd vnto hir, (a) Perſwade him, and ſee wherein his great ſtrength lieth, and by what meanes wee maye ouercome him, that we may binde him, and puniſh him: and euery one of vs ſhall giue thee eleuen hundred ſyluerlings.

a. Entiſe him by faire meanes to whom his ſtrength is knowen.

6 And Dalila ſayde to Samſon, Oh, tell me, where thy great ſtrength lyeth, and how thou mighteſt be bound, and brought vnder.

7 Samſon anſwered vnto hir, If they bynde mee with ſeuen greene withes, that were neuer dryed, I ſhall be weake, and be as an other man.

8 And then the Lords of the Philiſtines brought hir ſeuen Wythes that were yet greene and neuer dryed, and ſhe bound him therewith, 9 (Notwithſtanding ſhe had men lying in wayte with hir in the chamber:) and ſhee ſayde vnto him, The Philiſtines bee vpon thee, Samſon. And immediately hee brake the cordes, as a ſtring of tow breaketh when it feeleth the fire. And ſo his ſtrength was not knowne.

10 And Dalila ſayde vnto Samſon, See, thou haſt mocked me, & tolde me lies: Now therefore tell me, wherewith thou mighteſt be bounde.

11 He anſwered hir, If they binde me with newe ropes, that neuer were occupyed, I ſhal be weake, and be as an other man.

12 Dalila therefore tooke newe ropes, and bounde him therewith, and ſayde vnto him, The Philiſtines bee vpon thee Samſon. (And there were that lay in wayte in the chamber chamber.) And he brake them from off his armes, as they had bene but a threede.

13 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson, Hitherto thou hast beguyled mee, and tolde mee lyes: Yet tell mee howe thou mightest bee bound. He sayde vnto hir, If thou plat the seuen lockes of my heade with the threedes of the webbe.

14 And she fastened it with a pinne, and sayd vnto him, The Philistines bee vpon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleepe, and went away with the pin of the webbe and the webbe.

15 And shee sayde vnto him agayne, Howe canst thou say, (b) I loue thee, when thyne heart is not with mee? Thou hast mocked me these three tymes, and hast not tolde me wherein thy great strength lyeth.

16 And as she lay vpon him with hir wordes, continually (c) vexing of him, his soule was encumbred euen vnto the death.

17 And so he tolde hir all his heart, and sayde vnto hir, There neuer came rasor vpon mine heade, for I haue beene a Nazarite vnto God, euen from my mothers wombe: therfore when I am shauen, my strength will go from me, and I shall waxe weake, and be lyke all (other) men.

18 And when Dalila sawe that he had tolde hir all his heart, she sent and called for the Lordes of the Philistines, saying, Come vp yet this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the Lordes of the Philistines came vp vnto hir, and brought the money in their handes.

19 And she made him sleepe vpon hir knees, and she sent for a man, and he did shaue off the seuen lockes of his heade, and began to vexe him, and his strength (d) was gone from him.

20 And she sayde, The Philistines be vpon thee Samson. And he awoke out of hys sleepe, and sayde, I will go out nowe as at other tymes before, and shake my selfe. And hee wist not that the Lorde was departed from him.

21 But the Philistines toke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, and bound him with fetters of brasse, and he did grinde in the prison house.

22 Howbeit, the heare of his heade began to (e) growe againe, after that he was shauen.

23 Then the Lords of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a solemne offering vnto Dagon their God, and to reioyce. For they sayd, Our God hath deliuered Samson our enimie into our handes.

24 And when the people sawe hym, they praysed their God: for they sayde, Our God hath deliuered into our handes our enimie, and destroyer of our countrey, whiche slue many of vs.

25 And when their heartes were merry, they sayd, Sende for Samson, that he may make vs laugh. And they set Samson out of the prison house, and he played before them: and they set him betweene the pillers.

26 And Samson sayde vnto the lad that led him by the hande, Set me that I may touch the pillers, that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 And the house was full of men, and women, and there were all the Lordes of the Philistines: and there were vpon the roofe, about three thousande men and women, that beheld whyle Samson "played.

28 And Samson called vnto the Lorde, and sayd, O Lorde God, I pray thee thinke vpon me, and strengthen me, I beseech thee, at this time onely, O God, that I may bee "at once auenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson caught the two middle pillers on which the house stood, and on which it was borne vp, the one in his right hande, and the other in his left.

30 And Samson sayde, My soule shall dye with the Philistines: and he bowed them with all his might, and the house fell vpon the Lords, and vpon al the people that were therein: and so the dead, which he slue at his death, were mo, than they which he slue in his lyfe.

31 And then his brethren, and all the house of his father came downe, and toke him vp, and brought him, and buryed him betweene Zorah and Eshaol, in the burying place of Manoah his father: and he iudged Israell twentie yeares.

4 And when he restored the money vnto his mother, his mother toke two hundred syluerlings, and gaue them to the founder, whiche made thereof a grauen and molten Image, and it was in the house of Micah:

6 In those dayes there was no king in Israel, but euery man did that which was good in his owne eyes.

7 And there was a yong man out of Bethlehem Juda, of the kynred of Juda, whiche yong man was a Leuite, and soiourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the citie of Bethlehem Juda, to go to dwell where he coulde finde (a conuenient place:) and hee came to mounte Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he iourneyed.

9 And Micah sayde vnto him, Whence commest thou? The Leuite answered him, I am of Bethlehem Juda, and I goe to dwell where I may (e) finde (a place.)

e. In this, that the Leuite wādereth to seeke a liuing, it is manifest, that Gods lawe and true religion, which prouide for the Leuite, was vtterlye neglected and out of place.

10 And Micah sayde agayne vnto hym, Dwell with me, and bee vnto mee a father, and a priest, and I will giue thee ten siluerlings by the yeare, two garments, and thy meate and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

2. The children of Dan sende men to searche the land. 11. Then come the sixe hundred, and take the gods, and the priest of Micah away. 27. They destroy Lais. 28. They buyld it againe. 30. And set vp idolatrie.

a. So that it was no maruel that religion was corrupt, and all things out of order, seeing there was no magistrate to punish offences.

1 IN those dayes there was (a) no king in Israel: and in those dayes the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritaunce to dwell in: For vnto that time all their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their kinred fiue actiue men in feates of warre, out of their coastes, euen out of Sorah and Esthaol, to view the land, and search it out, and sayde vnto them, Goe and searche oute the lande. Who when they came to mount Ephraim, euen to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 And when they were in the house of Micah, they knewe (b) the voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and when they turned in thither, they sayde vnto him, Who brought thee hither? What makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

b. They knew his speech.

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hyred me, and I am become his priest.

5 And they sayde vnto hym agayne, Aske counsell nowe of God, that we may know, whether the way, which we go, shal be prosperous, or no.

6 And the priest sayde vnto them, (c) Goe in peace: for the Lorde guydeth your way, which ye go.

c. The will of God is taught and the things which are to be done.

7 Then the fiue men departed, and came to Lais, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careleslie, after the maner of the Sidons, still, and without casting of perils, and that no man "made any trouble in the lande, or vsurped any dominion: but were farre from the Sidons, and had no businesse with other men.

8 And they came againe vnto their brethren to Sorah and Esthaol, and their brethren sayd vnto them, What haue ye done?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we maye go vp agaynst them: for we haue seene the lande, surely a verie good lande. And doe ye sit still? Be not slouthfull to go and enter to possesse the lande.

10 If ye wil go, ye shall come vnto a people that calleth no perils: and it is a very large countrey, which God hath giuen into your handes: it is also a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the worlde.

11 And there departed thence of the kynred of the Danites, euen out of Sorah, and Esthaol, sixe hundred men, appoynted with instruments of warre.

12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath-iarim, whiche is in Juda: Wherefore they called the place, Mahaneh Dan, vnto this day, and it is on the backesyde of Kiriath-iarim.

13 And they went thence vnto mounte Ephraim, and came vnto the house of Micah.

14 Then answered the fiue men that went to espie out the countrey of Lais, and sayde vnto theyr brethren, Wote ye not, that there is in these houses an Ephod, Theraphim, and a grauen a grauen and a molten Image? Nowe therefore(d) consider what ye haue to do.

15 And they turned thitherwarde, and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Micah, and saluted him peaceably.

16 And the sixe hundred men gyrded wyth weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stode by the entring of the gate.

17 And the fiue men that went to spie out the lande, went in thither, and(e) toke the grauen Image, and the Ephod, and the Theraphim, and the molten Image: (And the priest stode in the entring of the gate, wyth the sixe hundred men that were appoynted with weapons of warre,)

18 While the other went into Micahs house, and fet the carued Image, the Ephod, the Theraphim, and the molten Image: Then sayde the priest vnto them, What do ye?

19 They answered him, Holde thy peace: lay thine hande vpon thy mouth, and come with vs, to bee our father and priest: Is it better for thee to be a priest vnto the house of one man, than to be a priest vnto a tribe or kynred in Israell?

20 And the priestes heart (f) was glad, and toke the Ephod, and Theraphim, and the grauen Image, and went(g) in the middest of the people.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the children, the cattell, and their other substance, before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses neare to Micahs house, gathered together, and followed after the children of Dan, 23 And called vnto them: and they turned their faces, and sayde vnto Micah, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an outcrie?

24 And he sayde, Ye haue taken awaye my goddes, which I made, and also the priest, and go your wayes: and (h) what haue I more? Howe then say ye vnto me, What ayleth thee?

25 And the children of Dan sayde vnto him, Let not thy voyce be heard among vs, least "angrie fellowes run vpon thee, and thou lose thy life, wyth the lyues of all thyne housholde.

26 And so the children of Dan went their wayes: and when Micah sawe, that they were too strong for him, he turned and went backe vnto his house, 27 And they toke the (i) things whiche Micah had made, and the priest, which he had, and came vnto Lais, euen vnto a people that were at rest, and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the swoorde, and burnt the citie with fire.

28 And there was no man to "helpe, because (k) Lais was farre from Sidon, and they had no medling wyth anye other man: And it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob.

29 And they buylt them there a Citie, and dwelt therein, and called it Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was borne vnto Israel: Howbeit the name of the Citie was Lais at the beginning.

30 And the children of Dan set them vp the grauen Image: and Jonathan the sonne of Gerfom, the sonne of Manasses, and hys sonnes, were the priests in the tribe of Dan, vntill the day of the (l) captiuitie of the land.

31 And they set them vp the carued Image, which Micah made, all the while that the house of God was in Silo.

The.xix. Chapter.

1. Of the Leuite, whose wyfe was villanously killed in Gibea.

1 ALso in those dayes, when there was no king in Israell, a certaine Leuite sojourning on the syde of mount Ephraim, toke to wyfe a concubine, oute of Bethlehem Juda.

2 And his concubine played the whoore by him, and went away from him vnto hir fathers house, to Bethlehem Juda, and there continued foure monethes.

3 And hir husband arose, and went after hir, to speake "friendly vnto hir, and to bring hir againe, having his lad with him, and a couple of Asses, and shee brought him vnto hir fathers house: and when the father of the Damsell sawe him, hee reioyced of his comming.

4 And his father in lawe, the damsels father, reteyned him, and he abode with him three dayes: and so they did eate and drinke, and lodged there.

5 The fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, the man stode vp, to depart. And the Damsels father sayd vnto his sonne in lawe, Comfort thine heart with a morsell of bread, and then go your way.

6 And they sate downe, and did eate and drinke both of them together. And the damsels father sayde vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarie all night, and let thine heart be merrie.

7 And when the man stood readie to depart, his father in lawe compelled him: therefore he returned, and taryed all night there.

11 And when they were fast by Iebus, the day was fore spent, and the yong man sayd vnto his maister, Come I pray thee and let vs turne in into this citie of the Iebusites, and lodge all night there.

12 His maister answered him, We will not turne into a (c) straunge citie, that are not of the children of Israel: we will goe forth to Gibea.

c. In the time of Iosuah, the children of Israel had won this citie: but sithence it was recouered and inhabited by the enimies.

13 And he sayde vnto his lad, Goe forwarde, and let vs drawe neare to one of these places to lodge all night, either in Gibea, or in Rama.

14 And they went forward vpon their way, and the Sunne went downe vpon them, when they were fast by Gibea, whiche belongeth to them of Beniamin.

15 And they returned thitherwarde to go in, and lodge all night in Gibea: and when he came, he sate him downe in a streete of the citie, for there was no man that "toke them into his house to lodging.

17 And when he had lifted vp his eyes, hee sawe a wayfaying man in the streete of the citie: and the olde man sayd, Whither goest thou? and whence commest thou?

1 Then all the children of Israell went out, and the congregation was gathered togither as (a) one man, euen from Dan to Beersheba, with the lande of Gilead, vnto the Lorde in Mispah.

2 And there assembled the chiefe men of all the people, (and) of all the trybes of Israel, in the congregation of the people of God, foure hundred thousande footemen that drew swordes.

3 (Nowe the children of Beniamin hearde that the children of Israel were gone vp to Mispah) Then (b) sayde the children of Israel, Tel vs, how this wickednesse is committed?

4 And the Leuite, the womans husbande that was slaine, answered, and sayd, I came into Gibea, that is in Beniamin, with my concubine to lodge all night:

5 And the men of Gibea rose against mee, and beset the house rounde about vpon mee by night, and thought to haue slaine mee: and my concubine haue they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I toke my concubine, and cut hir in peeces, and sent hir throughout all the countrey of the inheritance of Israell: for they haue committed abhomination and villanie in Israel.

7 Beholde, ye are all children of Israel: giue your aduice and counsell herein.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, There shall not a man of vs goe to his tent, nor turne into his (c) house.

9 But this shall be it that wee will doe to Gibea: (we will go vp) by lot against it,

10 And we will take tenne men of the hundred, throughout all the trybes of Israell, and an hundred of the thousande, and a thousande out of tenne thousande, to fetche vittaile for the people, that they maye doe, when they come to Gibea Beniamin, according to all the abhomination that they haue wrought in Israel.

11 And so all the men of Israell gathered togither against the citie, knit togither as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israell sent men throwe all the trybes of Beniamin, saying, What wickednesse is this that is committed among you?

13 Now therefore deliuer vs the men, those children of Belial, which are in Gibea, that we may slay them, and put (d) away euill from Israell.

14 Neuerthelater, the children of Beniamin woulde (e) not hearken vnto the voyce of their brethren the children of Israell: But the children of Beniamin gathered themselues togither out of the Cities, vnto Gibea, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Beniamin were numbred at that time out of the cities, twentie & fiue thousande men that drew swordes, beside the inhabitants of Gibea, whiche were numbred seuen hundred chosen men.

16 And among all these folke, were seuen hundred chosen mē, being left handed, which euerye one coulde sling stones at an heare breadth, and not misse.

17 And the children of Israel, beside Beniamin, were numbred foure hundred thousand men that drew swordes, and were all men of warre.

18 And the children of Israel rose, and went vp to (f) the house of God, and asked of god, saying, (g) Which of vs shal go vp first to ý battell against the children of Beniamin? And the Lord sayde, Juda shall begin.

19 And the children of Israel slewd vp early, and camped against Gibea.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battaile against Beniamin, and the men of Israell put themselues in aray to fight against them, beside Gibea.

21 And the children of Beniamin came out of Gibea, & destroyed downe to the ground, of the Israelites that day, twentie and two thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israell, plucked vp their heartes, and set their battell againe in aray, in the same place where they did the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went vp, and wept before the Lorde vntill euen, and asked of the Lorde, saying, Shall we goe againe to battaile against the children of Beniamin our brethren? And the Lorde sayde, Goe vp against them.)

24 And the children of Israell came neare against the children of Beniamin the seconde day.

25 And the children of Beniamin went against them out of Gibea the seconde day, and destroyed to the earth of the children of Israel once againe, eightene thousand men that drew swordes euery man of them.

13 And the whole congregation sent and (e) spake with the children of Beniamin, that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them.

14 And Beniamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wyues, which they had saued aliue of the women of Iabes Gilead: But they (f) sufficed them not.

15 And the people were sorie for Beniamin, bycause that the Lorde had made a breache in the trybes of Israel:

16 And then the elders of the congregation sayde, What shall we do to the remnant of them, to get them wines? seeing all the women of Beniamin are destroyed?

17 And they sayde, There must be (g) an inheritance for them that be escaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit, we may not giue them wiues of our daughters. For the children of Israel had swome, saying, Cursed be he, that gyueth a wife to Beniamin.

19 Then they sayde, Beholde, there is a feast of the Lorde yearely in Silo, which is on the North side of Bethel, and on the East side of the way, that goeth from Bethel to Sichem, and South from Libanon.

20 Therefore they commaunded the children of Beniamin, saying, Go, and lie in wayte in the vineyardes.

21 And when yee see, that the daughters of Silo come out to daunce in daunces, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catche you euery man a wife of the daughters of Silo, and go to the land of Beniamin.

22 And when their fathers or brethren come vnto vs to complayne, wee will say vnto them, Haue pitie on vs for their sakes: bycause wee reserued not to eche man hys wyfe in tyme of warre, neyther haue yee gyuen vnto them, that yee shoulde sinne at this tyme.

23 And the children of Beniamin did euen so, and toke them wyues accoyding to the number of them that daunced, whome they caught, and they went, and returned vnto their inheritance, and repayred the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that tyme, and went euerye man to his trybe, and to his kinred, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance.

25 In those dayes there was no king in Israel: but euery man did that, which seemed right in his owne eyes.

The ende of the Booke of Iudges, called in the Hebrue Sophtim.

¶ The booke of Ruth.

¶ The first Chapter.

1. Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the lande of Moab.
3. And his sonnes die. 19. Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

1 IT came to passe, that whē the iudges "ruled, there fell a dearth in the (a) lande, ¶ a certaine man of Bethlehem (b) Juda, went for to soiourne in the countrey of Moab, he and his wyfe, and his two sonnes.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sonnes were Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephraites, out of Bethlehem Juda. And when they came into the lande of Moab, they continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomies husband dyed, and she remayned with hir two sonnes, 4 Which toke them wiues, (c) Moabitesses, of the Moabites: the name of the one was Orpha, and the others name, Ruth: And they dwelled there about ten yeares.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also, euen both of them, and the womā was left (d) destitute of hir two sonnes, and of hir husband.

6 Then she arose with hir daughters in law, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the country of Moab, how that the Lorde had visited his people, and giuen them bread.

B 7 Wherefore she departed out of the place, where she was, and hir two daughters in law with hir: And they went on their way, to returne vnto the lande of Juda.

8 And Naomi sayde vnto hir two daughters in law, Go, and returne eche of you vnto your mothers house: and the Lord deale as kindly with you, as ye haue dealt wyth the (e) dead, and with me:

9 And the Lorde giue you, that you may finde rest, either of you in the house of hir (f) husband. And when she kissed them, they lift vp their voyces and wept,

10 And sayde vnto hir, Surely we wyll returne with thee, vnto thy folke.

11 And Naomi sayde, Turne agayne my daughters: for what cause wil you go with me? Are there any mo childrē in my womb, to be your husbands?

12 Turne againe my daughters, goe your way, for I am to olde to haue an husband: And if I sayde, I haue hope, if I toke a man also this night, yea and though I had alreadie borne sonnes, 13 Would ye tarrie for them, till they were of age? or would ye for them so long refraine from taking of husbands? Not so my daughters: for it greeueth mee "much for your sakes, that the hand of the Lord is gone out (g) agaynst me.

14 And they lifted vp their voyces, and wept againe: and Orpha (h) kyssed hir mother in lawe: but Ruth abode still by hir.

15 And Naomi sayd, See, thy sister in lawe is gone backe againe vnto hir people, and vnto hir goddes: returne thou after hir.

16 And Ruth answered, Entreate me not to leaue thee, and to returne from after thee: for whither thou goest I will goe also, and where thou dwellest, there I wyll dwell: Thy people, shalbe my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou dyest, there will I die, and there will I be buried: The Lorde do so to me and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me.

18 Whē she saw, that she was stedfastly minded to go with hir, she left speaking vnto hir.

19 And so they went both, vntill they came to Bethlehem: And when they were come to Bethlehem, it was (i) noysed of them throughout all the citie, and they sayde, Is not this Naomi?

20 And shee answered them, Call me not "Naomi: but call me "Mara: for the almightie hath made me verie bitter.

21 I went oute full, and the Lorde hath brought me home again emptie: Why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lorde hath humbled me, and the almighty hath brought me vnto aduersitie?

22 And so Naomi with Ruth the Moabitesse hir daughter in lawe, returned out of the country of Moab and came to Bethlehem, in the beginning of (k) Barlie haruest.

1 AND Naomies husbande had a (a) kinsman, a man of power & wealth, (which was) of the kynred of Elimelech, named Booz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitesse sayde vnto Naomi: Let me nowe go to the field, and gather eares of corne after anye man, in whose sight I finde grace. And shee sayde vnto hir, Go my daughter.

3 And she went, and came to the fielde, and gathered after the reapers: and so it was, that the same fielde perteyned vnto Booz, which was of the kynred of Elimelech.

4 And beholde, Booz came from Bethlehem, and sayde vnto the reapers, The Lorde be with you. And they answered him, The Lorde blesse thee.

5 Then sayde Booz vnto his yong "man "that stoode by the reapers, Whose damosell is this?

6 And the yong man that stoode by the reapers answered, and sayde, It is the Moabitish damosel, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab.

7 And she sayde vnto vs, I pray you let me gleane and gather after the reapers, amongst the sheaues: and so she came, and hath continued euen from the morning vntyll nowe, saue that she taryed a little in the house.

8 Then sayde Booz vnto Ruth, Hearest thou my daughter? Goe to no other fielde to gather, neither goe from hence, but abyde here by my maydens.

9 Let (b) thine eyes be on the field that they do reape, and goe thou after the (maydens:) Haue I not charged the yong men, that they shall doe thee no burte? Moreouer, when thou art athirste, goe vnto the vessels, and drinke of that, (c) which the laddes haue drawne.

10 Then she fell on hir face, and bowed hir selfe to the grounde, and sayde vnto hym, Howe is it that I haue founde grace in thine eyes, and that thou shouldest knowe me, seeing I am (d) a straunger?

11 And Booz answered and sayde vnto hir, All is tolde and shewed mee, that thou hast done vnto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, & the lande where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people, which thou knewest not in time passed.

12 The Lord quite thy worke, and a full rewarde be giuen thee of the Lorde God of Israell, vnder whose (e) wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she sayde, Let mee fynde fauour in thy sight my Lorde, thou that hast comforted me, and spoken "comfortably vnto thy mayd, which yet am not like vnto one of thy maydens.

14 Booz sayde vnto hir againe, At the meale time come thou hither, and eate of the bread, and dip thy morsell in the vineger. And she sate beside the reapers: and hee reached hir parched corne, and she did eate, and was sufficed, and left (f) part:

15 And when shee was risen vp, to gather, Booz commaunded his yong men, saying, Let hir gather euen among the sheaues, and (g) rebuke hir not.

16 And leaue hir some of the sheaues for the nonce, and let it lie, that shee may gather it vp, and rebuke hir not.

17 And so she gathered in the fielde vntyll euen, and threshed that shee had gathered: and it was in measure vppon an Epha of Barlie:

18 And shee tooke it vp, and went into the citie: and when hir mother in lawe had seene, what shee had gathered, shee plucked out also, and gaue to hir, that she had reserued, when she had eaten ynough.

19 And hir mother in lawe sayde vnto hir, Where hast thou gathered to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed bee he that knewe thee. And she shewed hir mother in lawe, howe she had wrought with him, and sayde, The mans name, with whome I wrought to day, is Booz.

20 And Naomi sayde vnto hir daughter in lawe, Blessed be he of the Lorde, for he ceaseth not to doe good to the lyuing and to the (h) dead. And Naomi sayde agayne vnto hir, The man is nigh vnto vs, and of our affinitie.

21 And Ruth the Moabitesse sayde, He sayde vnto me also, Thou shalt be with my yong men, vntill they haue ended all my haruest.

22 And Naomi answered vnto Ruth hir daughter in lawe, It is best my daughter, that thou go out with his maydens, that they come not agaynst thee in any other fielde.

23 And so shee kept hir by the maydens of Booz to gather, vnto the end of Barly haruest, and of wheate haruest also, and dwelt with hir mother in law.

17 And the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lorde: for men (n) abhorred the offeryng of the Lorde.

18 But the childe Samuel ministred before the Lorde, gyrded with a linnen Ephod.

19 Moreouer, his mother made him a litle coate, and brought it to hym from yeare to yeare, when she came vp with hyr husband to offer the yearely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkana and his wyfe, and sayde, The Lorde gyue thee seede of this woman, for the (o) petition that she asked of the Lorde. And they went vnto their owne home.

21 And the Lorde visited Hanna, so that she conceyued, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters: and the childe Samuel grewe (p) before the Lorde.

22 Eli was very olde, and hearde al that his sonnes did vnto Israel, and howe they lay with the women, that wayted at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he sayde vnto them, Why do ye such things? For of all these people I heare euill reportes of you.

24 Oh, nay my sonnes: for it is no good report, that I heare, howe that ye make the Lordes people to trespasse.

26 (The child Samuel profited, and grew, and was in fauour bothe with the Lorde, and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and sayde vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lord, Did not I plainely appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaos house?

28 And I chose (r) hym out of all the tribes of Israell, to be my priest, for to offer vpon myne aulter, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me: and I gaue vnto the house of thy father, al the offerings made by fire of the chyldren of Israel.

29 Wherefore (s) treade ye downe my sacrifice, and mine offeryngs whiche I (t) commaunded in the tabernacle, and honourest thy chyldren aboue me, to make your selues fat of the first fruytes of al the offerings of Israell my people?

31 Beholde, the dayes come, that I will cut off thyne (x) arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house.

6 And the Lorde called once againe, Samuel, And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and sayde, I am here, for thou diddest call me. And he answeared, I called thee not, my sonne, goe agayne and sleepe.

8 And the Lorde went, & called Samuel the thirde tyme. And he arose, & went to Eli, and sayde, I am here, for thou hast called me. And Eli perceyued that the Lorde had called the chylde.

9 Therefore Eli sayde vnto Samuel, Goe and sleepe, & if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth thee. So Samuel went and slept in his place.

10 And the Lorde came, and stode and called as before, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answeared, Speake, for thy seruant heareth.

13 I haue tolde hym, that I wyll iudge his house for euer, for the wickednesse, whiche he knoweth: for when (the people) cursed his sonnes for the same (wickednesse) he did not correct them.

14 And therefore I haue swoorne vnto the C house of Eli, that the wickednesse of Elies house shall not be purged with sacrifice, nor offeryng, for euer.

15 Samuel slept vntyll the mornyng and opened the dores of the house of the Lorde: and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and sayd, Samuel my sonne. And he answeared, Here am I.

6 And when the Philistines hearde the noyse of the showte, they sayd, What meaneth the sounde of this mightie showte in the hoste of the Hebrues? And they understoode how that the arke of the Lorde was come into the hoste.

15 Eli was ninetie & eight yeares olde, and his sight fayled him, that he could not see.

The.v.Chapter.

2. The Philistines bryng the arke into the house of Dagon. 6. The men of Asdod are plagued. 8. The arke is caryed into Gath, and after to Acaron.

1 AND the Philistines toke the arke of God, and caried it from the Eben-ezer vnto Asdod.

2 Yea the Philistines toke the arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by (a) Dagon.

3 And whē they of Asdod were vp the next day in the morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the earth before the arke of the Lorde: And they toke Dagon, and set him in his place agayne.

4 And when they were come early in the nexte morning, beholde Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground, before the arke of the Lorde, and his head, and his two hands were cut off vpon the threshold, that onely the stumpe of Dagon was leaft to him.

5 And therefore is it, that neyther the priestes of Dagon, nor any man that commeth into Dagons house, (b) treadeth on the threshold of Dagon in Asdod, vnto this day.

6 But the hande of the Lorde was heauie vpō them of Asdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with Emerodes, both Asdod, and all the coastes thereof.

c. This is a lamentable blindnesse: they cleaue stil to that idol whiche lieth vpō the groūd like a blocke, and is not able to helpe, neyther them, nor it selfe.

8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the lordes of the Philistines vnto them, and sayde, What shall we do with the arke of the God of Israell? They answeared, Let the arke of the God of Israel be carryed about vnto Gath. And they carried the arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had carryed it about, the hād of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, & they had Emerodes in their secrete partes.

10 Therefore they sent the arke of God to Acaron: & as sone as the arke of God came to Acaron, the Acaronites cried out, saying, They haue brought the arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slay vs and our people.

11 And so they sent, and gathered together all the lordes of the Philistines, and sayde, Sende (d) away the arke of the God of Israell, to goe agayne to his owne place, that it slay vs not, & our people. For there was a destruction and death throughout all the citie: and the hande of God was exceedyng sore there.

d. Affliction worketh not like effect, in the wicked & in the godly: In the one grudge and desperation, in the other repentance and reconciliatiō.

a. For that you haue presumed, to carie it away from Israel.

4 Then sayde they, And what shal be the sinne offeryng, whiche we shal reward him with? They answered, Fyue golden Emerodes, and fiue golden Myse, accordyng to the nūber of the princes of the Philistines: For one plague was on you all, & on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images like to your emerodes, & images like to your mise, that corrupt the lande, & ye shall giue glorie vnto the God of Israell, that he may take his hand from off you, & from off your (b) goddes, and from off your lande.

3 And the asses of this Cis Sauls father were lost: and Cis sayd to Saul his sonne, Take one of the laddes with thee, and arise, goe and seeke the asses.

4 And he went through mount Ephraim, and passed through the lande of Salisa: but they found them not. Then they went thorowe the lande of Salim, and there they were not. When they went also through the lande of Iemini, they founde them not.

10 Then sayde Saul to his ladde, Well sayd of thee: Come, let vs goe. And so they went vnto the citie, where the man of God was.

11 And as they went their way vp the hyll to the citie, they met with damosels, that came out to drawe water, and sayde vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And the maydens answeared them, and sayde, Yea, beholde, he is before you, make hast nowe, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an (f) offeryng of the people this day in the hill.

13 When ye be come into the citie, ye shall finde him streyght way, yer he goe vp to the hyl to eate: for the people will not eate vntil he come, bicause he doth (g) bielle the offeryng, and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: now therefore get you vp, for this day shal ye finde him.

14 And they went vp into the citie: & when they were come into the middes of the citie, beholde, Samuel came out agaynst them, for to goe vp to the hill.

15 But the Lorde had tolde Samuel in his eare (a day before Saul came) saying, 17 When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lorde answeared him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of: this same shall raygne ouer my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the middes of the gate, and sayde, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is?

19 Samuel answeared Saul, and sayde I am the Seer: Goe vp before me vnto the hill, for ye shal eate with me to day, and to morow I will let thee goe, and will tell thee al, that is in thine (k) hart.

20 And as for thine asses, that were lost three dayes agoe, care not for them, for they are found: and (l) whose shall the beautifull things of Israell be? Belong they not to thee, and vnto all thy fathers house?

21 But Saul answeared and sayde, Am not I the sonne of a Ieminite, of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my kinrede is the least of al the kynreds of the tribe of Beniamin? Wherfore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel toke Saul and his ladde, and brought them into the (m) parler, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, whiche were about thirtie persons.

23 And Samuel sayde vnto the Cooke, Bring forth the portiō, which I gaue thee, and of whiche I sayde vnto thee, Keepe it with thee.

24 And the Cooke toke vp the shoulder, and that whiche was (n) vpon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel sayde, Beholde, that whiche is left, put it before thee & eate: for hytherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I (o) called the people. And so Saul did eate with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come downe from the hygh place into the citie, Samuel communed with Saul vpon the (p) toppe of the house.

26 And when they arose early aboute the spryng of the day, Samuel called Saul vpon the top of the house, saying, Vp, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he and Samuel.

27 And when they were come almost out of the towne, Samuel sayd to Saul, Byd the ladde goe before vs (and he went before) but stande thou still a whyle, that I may shew thee the (q) worde of God.

7 And his harnesse bearer sayd vnto him, Do all that is in thyne heart: Goe where it pleaseth thee, beholde, I am with thee as thyne hart lusteth.

8 Then sayd Jonathan, Behold, we goe ouer vnto these men, and shall shew our selues vnto them.

9 If they say on this wyse to vs, Tarrie vntil we come to you: then we will stand stil in our place, and goe not vp vnto them.

10 But if they saye, Come vp vnto vs, then we will goe vp, for the Lord hath (c) deliuered them into our handes: And this shal be a signe vnto vs.

11 And they bothe shewed them selues vnto the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistins sayd, See, the Hebrues come out of the (d) holes, where they had hyd them selues in.

12 And the men of the Garrison aunswered Jonathan and his harnesse bearer, and sayd, Come vp to vs, and we will shewe you a thyng. And Jonathan sayde to his harnesse bearer, Come vp after me, for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibea Beniamin ſawe: and behold, the multitude was diſcomfited, and were ſmitten as they went.

17 Then ſayde Saule vnto the people that was with hym, Searche, and ſee who is gone awaye from vs. And when they had numbred, Beholde, Jonathan and his harneſſe bearer were not there.

18 And Saul ſayde vnto Ahia, Bring hither the (g) Arke of God. For the ark of God was at that tyme with the children of Iſrael.)

19 And whyle Saule talked vnto the Prieſt, the noyſe that was in the hoſte of the Philiſtines, ſpread farther abrode, and encreaſed. And Saul ſayd vnto the Prieſte, (h) Withdrawe thyne hande.

20 And Saule ioyned himſelfe vnto all the people that were with hym, and they came to the battayle, and beholde, euery mannes ſwoorde was againſt his fellowe, and there was a verie great diſcomfiture.

21 Moreouer, the Hebrues that were with the Philiſtines before that tyme, and were come with them into all partes of the hoſt, turned to bee with the Iſraelites, that were wyth Saul and Jonathan.

22 And all the men of Iſrael alſo, whiche had hidde themſelues in mount Ephraim, as ſoone as they hearde how that the Philiſtins were fledde, they followed after them in the battell.

23 ¶ And ſo the Lorde ſaued Iſrael that day: and the battayle continued vnto Bethauen.

24 And when the men of Iſrael were kepte downe with hunger that daye, Saul charged the people with an othe, ſaying, (i) Curſed be the man that eateth any foode vntill nyghte, till I be auenged of myne enimies. And ſo none of the people taſted any ſuſtenance.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood where hony lay vpon the grounde.

26 And the people came into the wood: And behold, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hande to his mouthe, for the people feared the (k) othe.

27 But Jonathan heard not, when his father charged the people with the othe, wherefore he put forth the ende of the rodde that was in his hande, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hande to his mouthe, and his (l) eyes receyued light.

28 Then aunſwered one of the people, and ſayd, Thy father made the people to ſweare, ſaying, Curſſed be the man that eateth anye ſuſtenãce this day: and the people wer faint.

29 Then ſayd Jonathan, My father hath (m) troubled the lande: See howe myne eyes hath receiued lyght, bycauſe I taſted a little of this honye.

30 Howe much more then to daye, if the people had eaten of the ſpoyle of their enimies, whiche they founde: And had there not bin then a muche greater ſlaughter among the Philiſtines.

31 And they ſmote the Philiſtines that daye from Michmas to Aialon: and the people were exceeding faint.

32 And the people gat them to the ſpoyle, and toke Sheepe, Oxen, and Calues, and ſlewe them on the ground, and the people dyd eate them with the bloud.

33 Then men told Saul, ſaying, Behold, the people ſin agaynſt the Lord, in that they eate with the bloud. And he ſayd, Ye haue treſpaſſed: Rol a (n) gret ſtone vnto me this day.

34 And Saule ſayde agayne: Go abrode among the people, and bid them bryng me euery man his Oxe, and euery man his Sheepe and ſlaye them heere, and eate, and ſynne not agaynſt the Lorde in eatyng with the bloud. And the people brought euery man hys Oxe in his hande that nyghte, and ſlue them there.

35 And Saul made an aultar vnto the Lord: and that was the "fyrſt aulter, that he made vnto the Lorde.

36 And Saul ſayde, Let vs goe downe after the Philiſtins by night, and ſpoyle them, vntill it be daye in the morning, and lette vs not leaue one man of them. And they ſayde, Doe whatſoeuer thou thynkeſt beſt. Then ſayd the Prieſt, Let vs (o) come hither vnto God.

37 And Saule aſked of God, Shall I goe downe after the Philiſtines? Wilt thou deliuer them into the handes of Iſrael? But he anſwered him not at that tyme.

38 And Saul ſayde, Let all the "chiefe of the people come hyther, and knowe, and ſee by whome this ſinne is done this day.

41 Therefore Saul saide vnto the Lord God of Israell, Giue a (p) perfite lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taught: but the people escaped free.

42 And Saul sayde, Cast lot betweene me & Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was caught.

46 And then Saul departed vp from folowyng the Philistines: And the Philistines went to theyr owne place.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, I remember that whiche Amalek dyd to Israel, howe they layde wayte for them in the way, as they came vp from Egypt.

3 Now therfore goe, and smite Amalek, and destroy ye all that parteyneth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, (b) slay bothe man and woman, infant, and sucklyng, oxe, and sheepe, cammell, and asse.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbred them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foote men, and tenne thousand men of Juda.

5 And Saul came vnto a citie of Amalek, and " set watche in the brooke.

6 And Saul sayd vnto the Kenites, (c) Goe, and depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with the: for ye shewed (d) mercie to all the chyldren of Israell, when they came out of Egypt. And so the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites, from Heuila, as thou commest to Sur that lyeth before Egypt:

9 But Saul, and the people, spared (e) Agag, the better sheepe, and the fatter oxen, and the lambes, and all that was good, and would not destroy them: But all, that was foule and nought worth, that they destroyed vtterly.

10 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Samuel, saying,

19 And wherefore hast thou not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde? but hast turned to the pray, and hast done that, which is wicked in the sight of the Lorde?

18 Then answered one of his seruantes, and sayde, Beholde, I haue seene a sonne of Jsai the Bethlehemite, that can playe vpon instrumentes, and is strong and valyant, and a manne of warre, and prudent in doing of feates, and well made, and the Lord is with hym.

19 Wherefore Saule sente messengers vnto Jsai, and sayd, Sende me Dauid thy sonne, which is with the sheepe.

32 And Dauid ſayde to Saule, Let no mans heart fayle him, becauſe of hym: Thy ſeruant wil go, & fight with yonder Philiſtine.

33 And Saule ſayd to Dauid agayne, Thou art (l) not able to goe againſt yonder Philiſtine, to fyght with him: for thou art but a chylde, but hee is a man of warre, euen from his youth.

34 Dauid anſwered vnto Saul, Thy ſeruaunt kepte his fathers ſheepe, and there came a Lyon, and lykewyſe a Beare, and toke a ſheepe out of the flocke:

35 And I wente oute after him, and ſmote him, and toke it oute of his mouthe: And when he aroſe againſt me, I caught him by the bearde, and ſmote him, and ſlew him.

36 And ſo thy ſeruaunt ſlewe both the Lyon, and the Beare: And truly, this vncircumciſed Philiſtine ſhal be as one of them, ſeing hee hathe rayled on the hoaſte of the lyuing God.

37 And Dauid ſpake moreouer, The Lorde that deliuered mee oute of the hande of the Lyon, and oute of the hande of the Beare, he ſhall delyuer mee alſo out of the hande of this Philiſtine. And Saule ſayd vnto Dauid (m) Go, and the Lord (ſhal) be with thee.

38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of braſſe vpon his heade, and put a coate of mayle vpon him,

39 And girded Dauid with his own ſword, vpon his raymente, and he aſſayed to go: and bycauſe hee had neuer proued it before, Dauid ſayd vnto Saul, I can not go with theſe thinges, for I haue not vſed my ſelfe thereto. And Dauid put them off him,

And

40 And toke his (n) staffe in his hande, and chose him fiue smothe stones out of a broke, and put them in a shepheards bagge, whiche he had, that is, in a scrippe, and his sling was in his hande, and he went to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came and drue neare against Dauid, and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine loked about, and sawe Dauid, he disdeyned him, for he was but yong, ruddy, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistine sayde vnto Dauid, Am I a dogge, that thou commest to me wyth staues? And the Philistine (o) cursed Dauid in the name of his goddes.

44 And the Philistine sayd to Dauid, Come to me, and I will gyue thy flesshe vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beastes of the fielde.

45 Then said Dauid to the Philistine, Thou commest to me with a sworde, a speare, and a shielde: but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the host of Israell, whome thou hast rayled vpon.

46 (p) This day shall the Lord close thee into my hande, and I shal smite thee, and take thyne head from thee, and will giue the carkasses of the host of the Philistines thys daye vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beasts of the earthe, that all they whiche be in the worlde may knowe, that there is a God in Israell:

47 And all this congregation shall knowe, that the Lorde saueth not with sworde, and speare, (for the battayle is the Lords) and he shall giue you into our handes.

48 And when the Philistine arose to come, and drawe nigh to Dauid, Dauid hasted and ranne to fight against the Philistine.

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bagge, and toke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that ẏ stone sonke into his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth.

50 And so Dauid ouercame the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slue him, euen when Dauid had no sword in his hande.

51 But Dauid ranne, and stode vppon the Philistine, and toke his sworde, and drue it out of his sheath, and slue him, and cut off his head therwith. And when the Philistines sawe that theyr champiõ was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israell, and of Iuda, arose, and shouted, and folowed after ẏ Philistines, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Acaron: and the Philistines fell downe wounded by the way to Saaraim, euen vnto Gath, and Acaron.

53 And the children of Israell returned from chasing after the Philistines, and spoyled their tents.

54 And Dauid toke the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Hierusalem, but hee put his armour in his " tent.

55 When Saule sawe Dauid goe forthe against the Philistine, he sayd vnto Abner the captayne of his host, Abner, (q) whose sonne is this yong man? Abner aunswered, As thy soule lyueth (O king) I cannot tell.

q. This he asketh, eyther for that he would nowe know further of his kin, than he did before: or for that he had forgot hi.

56 And the king sayde, Enquire thou whose sonne the yongling is.

57 And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner toke him, and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul sayd to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? Dauid aunswered, I am the sonne of thy seruaunt Isai the Bethlehemite.

3. The amitie of Ionathan and Dauid. 8. Saul enuieth Dauid for the prayses that the women gaue hym. 11. Saul woulde haue slayne Dauid. 17. He promiseth him Merab to wife, but giueth him Michol. 27. Dauid deliuereth to Saule two hundred foreskins of the Philistines. 29. Saul feareth Dauid, seeing that the Lord is with him.

1 AND when he had made an ende of speaking to Saul, the (a) soule of Jonathan was knitte with the soule of Dauid, and Jonathan loued him as his owne soule.

a. His affectiõ was fully bent toward him.

2 And Saul toke him that day, and woulde let hym goe no more home to his fathers house.

3 Then Jonathan and Dauid made a couenant, because he loued hym as his owne soule.

4 And Jonathan put off the robe that was vpon him selfe, and gaue it to Dauid, and thereto his garments, euen to his sword, and to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid wente out whyther so euer Saul sente hym, and behaued him selfe (b) wisely: and Saul set him ouer his men of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and in the sight of Sauls seruants.

b. That is, he prospered in all his doings.

6 And as they came agayne, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the (c) Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israell, synging and dauncing, to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with ioy, & wyth (instruments of) musicke.

ther in their play, and sayd, Saul hathe slaine hys thousande, and Dauid hys ten thousande.

8 And Saul was exceeding (e) wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayd, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, and to me, but one thousande: and what can he more haue, saue the kingdome?

9 Wherefore Saul had an eye ouer Dauid from that day forwarde.

10 And on the morowe the euill spirite sente of God came vppon Saul, and he (f) prophecied in the middes of the house: and Dauid played with hys hande lyke as at other tymes: and there was a iauelin in Saules hande.

11 And Saul toke the iauelin, and sayde, I will nayle Dauid to the wall with it. And Dauid auoyded out of his presence two times.

12 And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, bycause the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a (g) captayne ouer a thousande, and he went out and in before (h) the people.

14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his wayes, and the Lord was with hym.

15 Wherefore when Saul sawe, that hee was so exceeding wise, he was afrayde of him.

16 But all Israell and Juda loued Dauid, bycause he went out and in before them.

17 And Saul sayd to Dauid, Beholde, my eldest daughter Merob, hir I will giue thee to wife: only be a valiant sonne vnto mee, and fyght the Lordes battayles. For Saul thought: Myne hand shall not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistines shall be vpon him.

18 And Dauid aunswered Saul. What am I? and what is my lyfe, or the kinred of my father in Israell, that I shoulde be sonne in law to the king?

19 Howbeit, when the tyme was come that Merob Sauls daughter shoulde haue bene giuen to Dauid, she was giuen vnto (i) Adriel a Meholathite to wife.

20 Howbeit, Michol Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they shewed Saul, and ỹ thing pleased him.

21 And Saul sayde, I wyll gyue hym hir, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul sayde to Dauid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in law in the one of the twayne.

22 And Saul commaunded his seruauntes to commune with Dauid secretly, and to saye, Beholde, the kyng hathe a fauour towards thee, and all his seruantes loue thee, bee nowe therefore the kynges sonne in lawe.

23 And Saules seruantes spake those words in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid sayd, (k) Semeth it to you a light thing, to be a kings sonne in law? seeing that I am a poore man, and of small reputation?

24 And the seruantes brought Saul worde again, saying, Of this manner spake Dauid.

25 And Saul sayd, This wise shall ye say to Dauid, The king careth for no other dowrie, but for an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to bee auenged of the Kynges enimies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fall into the handes of the Philistines.

26 And when his seruauntes tolde Dauid these wordes, (l) it pleased Dauid well to be the kinges sonne in lawe: and the dayes were not expired.

27 Afterwarde Dauid arose with his men, and went and slue of the Philistines two hundred men, and Dauid brought their foreskins, and (m) they gaue them wholy to the king, that he might be the kinges sonne in law: wherefore Saul gaue him Michol his daughter to wife.

28 And Saul sawe, and vnderstoode, howe that the Lorde was with Dauid, and that Michol his daughter loued him:

29 And he was the more (n) afraid of Dauid, and Saul became alway Dauids enimie.

30 The Lords of the Philistines vsed to go forthe: and when they went forthe, Dauid behaued him selfe more wisely, than all the seruauntes of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

2. Ionathan declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saul. 11. Michol hys wyfe saueth hym. 18. Dauid commeth to Samuell. 23. The spirite of prophesie commeth on Saule.

1 SAul spake to Jonathan his sonne, and to all his seruaunts that they shoulde (a) kill Dauid.

2 But Jonathan Sauls sonne, had a greate fauour to Dauid, and Jonathan tolde Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: Nowe therefore, I pray thee, take heede to thy selfe vntill the morning, and abide in some secret place, and hide thy selfe.

3 And I will goe out, and stand by my father, in the fielde where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee, and whatsoeuer whatsoeuer I see, I will tell thee.

4 And Jonathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saule his father, and sayde vnto him, Let not the king sinne against his seruant, against Dauid: for he hath not sinned against thee, and his workes hathe bin to thee warde very good.

5 For he did put his life in " hys hand, and slue the Philistine, and the Lord brought to passe a greate health for all Israell: thou sawest it, and thou reioycedst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent bloud, and slay Dauid without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Jonathan, and Saul (b) sware, As the Lord lyueth, he shall not die.

7 And Jonathan called Dauid, and Jonathan shewed him all those wordes: and Jonathan brought Dauid to Saul, and he was in his (c) presence as in times past.

8 And the warre began againe, and Dauid went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slue them with a greate slaughter, and they fledde from him.

9 And the euill spirit of the Lord was vppon Saul, as he sate in his house, hauing a iauelin in his hand: and Dauid (d) played wyth his hande.

10 And Saul entended to smite Dauid to the wall with the iauelin: but he rid himselfe out of Saules presence, and he smote the speare into the wall: and Dauid fled, and was saued the same night.

11 Saul also sente messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michol Dauids wife tolde it hym, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe thys nyght, to morowe thou shalte bee slayne.

12 And so Michol (e) let Dauid downe thorowe a windowe, and he went and fled, and was saued.

13 And Michol toke an image, and layde it in the bedde, and put a pyllow stuffed with goates heare vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to fetche Dauid, she sayd, He is sicke.

15 And Saul sente the messengers agayne to see Dauid, saying, Bring him to me bed and all, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, beholde, there lay an image in the bed, with a pillowe of goates heare vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul sayde vnto Michol, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away myne enimie that he is escaped? Michol answeared Saul: For he sayd vnto me, Let me goe, or els I will kill thee.

18 And so Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Rama, and told hym all that Saule had done to him: and he and Samuel went, and dwelt in (f) Naioth, 19 And one told Saul, saying, Behold, Dauid is at Naioth in Rama.

20 And Saul sent messengers to fetche Dauid: and when they sawe a company of prophets prophecying, and Samuell standing as (g) appoynted ouer them, the spirite of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they (h) prophesied tw.

21 And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sente messengers yet agayne the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then wente he himselfe to Rama, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and sayd, Where are Samuell and Dauid? And one sayde, Beholde, they be at Naioth in Rama.

23 And he wente thyther, euen to Naioth in Rama, and the spirite of God (i) came vpon him also, and he went prophesying vntill he came to Naioth in Rama.

24 And he stript off his clothes, and prophesied before Samuel in like maner, and fell naked all that day, and all that nighte: and thereof it is, that they say, Is Saul also among the prophetes?

f. It was a schoole where Gods law was studied, and taught, neare to Rama.

2. Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 3. They renue their league. 33. Saul woulde haue killed Ionathan. 38. Ionathan aduertiseth Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathers furie.

1 AND Dauid fled from Naioth, which is in Rama, and came, and sayde, before Jonathan, What haue I done? wherein am I faultie? what is the sin that I haue committed before thy father, ỳ he seeketh my life?

2 He sayd vnto him, God forbid, thou shalte not dye: behold, my father will do nothyng eyther greate or small, but that hee will " shewe it me: and howe shoulde my father hyde thys thyng from me? he wyll not do it.

3 And Dauid sware againe, and sayde, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thyne eyes, and therefore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not know it, lest he be sory: and in very deede, euen as the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a (a) step betweene me and death.

4 Then sayd Jonathan vnto Dauid, Whatsoeuer thy soule " desyreth, that I will doe vnto thee.

5 And Dauid said vnto Ionathan, Behold, to morow is the (b) beginning of the moneth, and I should sit with the king at meate: but let me goe, that I maye hyde my selfe in the fieldes vntill the third day at euen.

b. And therefore a solemne feast, and solemne sacrifices, belonging thereto. Num.28.b.

6 If thy father speake of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of me, that he might goe to Bethlehem to his owne citie: for ther is holden a yeerely feast for all the kinred.

7 And if he say, It is well done, then thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be angry, then be sure that wickednesse is vtterly concluded of him.

8 And then thou shalte shewe mercy vnto thy seruant: for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a (c) couenant of the Lorde with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquitie, slay me thy selfe: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

c. Bycause it consisted in all godly and honest matters, and for that it was confirmed of both parties by an oth in the name of the Lorde.

9 And Ionathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knewe, that wickednesse were (d) concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee?

d. That he were fully determined to kill thee.

10 Then said Dauid to Ionathan, Who shal tell me? how (shall I know) if thy father answeare thee cruelly?

11 And Ionathan sayd vnto Dauid, Come, and let vs goe out into the fielde. And they went out both of them into the fielde.

12 And Ionathan said vnto Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers mind, as this time to morow, or within these three dayes, and if it be well wyth Dauid, and I then sende not vnto thee, and shew it thee:

e. That is, the Lord punishe me most graeuously.

13 The Lord do so, (e) and muche more vnto Ionathan. But if my father haue pleasure to do thee euill, I will shewe thee also, and sende thee away, that thou mayest goe in peace: and the Lord be with thee, as he hath bin with my father.

14 And (I require) not, whyles I lyue, (for I doubt not) but thou wilt shew me the mercy of the Lord, that I dye not:

15 But (I requyre) that thou cut not off thy mercy from my house for euer: no not when the Lord hath destroyed the enimies of Dauid, euery one from the face of the earth.

16 And so Ionathan made a bonde with the house of Dauid, (saying,) Let the Lorde require it at the hands of Dauids enimies.

17 And Ionathan sware againe vnto Dauid, bycause he loued him, (For he loued him as his owne soule.)

18 Then sayde Ionathan to Dauid, To morow is the firste daye of the moone, and thou shalt be "misled, bycause the place wher thou were wont to sit, shall be emptie.

"or, mistioned.

19 Therefore thou shalte hide thy selfe three dayes: (then) thou shalt goe downe quickly, and come to the place, where thou didst hide thy selfe, when the businesse was in hand, and shalt remayne by the stone "Esel.

20 And I will shoote three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot them at a marke,

21 And I will sende a lad, and bid him goe seeke the arrowes. And if I say vnto the lad, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them: then come thou, for it is peace, and no hurt, as the Lord lyueth:

22 But if I say vnto the lad, Behold, the arrowes are beyond thee: goe thy way, for the (f) Lord hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching this, whiche thou and I haue spoken, beholde, the Lorde be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 And so Dauid hid him selfe in the fielde: and when the newe moone was come, the king sate him downe to eate meate.

25 And the king sate as at other times vppon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wall: and Ionathan arose, and Abner sate By Saules syde, and Dauids place was emptie.

26 Neuertheless, Saul said nothing all that day: for he thought, some thing hath befallen him (g) though he were cleane.

27 But on the morow, which was the second day of the newe mone, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saul sayde vnto Ionathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not that sonne of (h) Isai to meate, neyther yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Ionathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid asked licence of me, to goe to Bethlehem.

29 For he sayd, Let me goe, I pray thee, for our kinred doth holde an offering in the Citie, and my brother hath sent for me: & therefore if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, and see my brethren. This is the cause, that he commeth not vnto the kings table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Ionathan, and sayd vnto him, Thou (i) son of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I know, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Isai vnto thine owne rebuke, and vnto the rebuke and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the sonne of Isai lyueth vpon the earthe, thou shalt not be stablished, nor yet thy kingdome: wherefore now send, and fetch him vnto me, for he is the childe of (k) death.

32 And Ionathan answered vnto Saul his father, and sayd to him, Wherefore should he dye? What hath he done?

33 And Saul lifted vp a speare to hit him: whereby whereby Jonathan wist well that it was vtterly determined of his father, to slay Dauid.

34 And so Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate the second day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, bycause his father had donne hym shame.

35 On the next morning, Jonathan went out into the field, at the (l) time appoynted wyth Dauid, and a little lad with him.

36 And he sayd vnto hys boy, Run, and seeke out myne arrowes, which I shote. And as the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond hym.

37 And when the ladde was come to the place, whyther Jonathan had shot the arrowe, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cryed after the lad againe: make (m) spreede, hast thee, and stand not still. And Jonathans lad gathered vp ỳ arrowes, and came to his master.

39 But the lad wist nothing of the matter: only Jonathan and Dauid wist it.

40 And Jonathan gaue his (n) instruments vnto the ladde, that was with him, and sayd vnto hym, Goe, and carrie them to the towne.

41 And as soone as the lad was gone, Dauid arose out of a place, that was towarde the South, and fell on his face to the grounde, and bowed him selfe three tymes: and they kissed eyther other, and wept together, so long till Dauid (o) exceeded.

42 And Jonathan sayde to Dauid, Goe in peace: and the things, which we haue sworne bothe of vs in the name of the Lorde, saying, The Lorde be betweene thee and me, and betweene thy seede and myne, lette them stande for euer. And he arose, and departed: and Jonathan wente into the towne.

2 And Dauid sayde to Ahimelech the Priest, The kyng hathe commaunded me a certayne thyng, and hath sayde vnto me, Let no man knowe where about I sende thee, and what I haue commaunded thee: and I haue appoynted my seruantes to suche and such places.

3 Nowe therefore, if thou haue ought vnder thine hand, giue me fyue loaues of bread, or what commeth to hand. 1.Reg.25.b.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, and sayd, Ther is no common bread vnder mine hand, but here is halowed bread: if the yong men haue kept them selues, specially from women.

5 Dauid aunswered the priest, and sayd vnto hym, Of a trueth, women haue bin separated from vs these two or three dayes, since I came out, and the (b) vesselles of the yong men were holy, howbeit this way is vnpure: and howe much more shall there be holynesse in the vessell?

6 And so the priest gaue him halowed bread: for there was none other bread there, saue the shew bread, that was taken from before the Lorde, to put fresshe bread there the daye, that it was taken away.

7 (And there was there the same day a certayne man, of the seruauntes of Saul, (c) abiding before the Lorde, named Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of Sauls heardmen.)

8 And Dauid sayd vnto Abimelech, Is not here vnder thine hãd eyther speare, or sword? for I haue neyther brought my sword, nor my harnesse with me: bycause the kings businesse required hast.

9 And the priest sayde, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whome thou slewest in the valley of Elah, beholde it is here wrapt in a cloth behinde the (d) Ephod: if thou wylte take that, take it: for there is no other, saue that here. And Dauid sayde, There is none, to that, giue it me.

10 And Dauid arose, and fledde the same day from the (e) presence of Saul, and wente to Achis the king of Gath.

11 And the seruants of Achis sayd vnto hym, Is not this Dauid the king of the lande? Did they not syng vnto him in daunces, saying, Saul hath slaine his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousande?

12 And Dauid (f) put those wordes into hys hart, and was sore afrayde of Achis the king of Gath.

13 And he chaunged his speach before them, and faigned him selfe mad in their handes, and (g) scrabled on the doores of the gate, and let his spittle fall downe vpon his beard.

14 Then sayd Achis vnto his seruantes, Loe, ye see, that this man is beside him self: wherfore then haue ye brought him to me?

d. That is, in Mispah, which was a strong holde.

5 And the prophet Gad said vnto Dauid, Abyde not in the hold, but depart, and goe into the land of Iuda. Then Dauid departed, and came into the forest Hareth.

6 And Saul heard that Dauid was discouered, and also the men that were with hym: and Saul sate in Gibea vnder a tree in Rama, hauing his speare in his hand, and al hys men stoode about him.

B 7 And Saul sayd vnto his seruants that stood about him, Heare I pray you, yee sonnes of (e) Jemini: will the sonne of Jsai giue euery one of you fieldes, and vineyardes, and make you all captaynes ouer thousands, and ouer hundreds.

e. Ye that are of my tribe and linnage.

8 That ye haue also conspyred againste me: and there is none that telleth me, that my sonne hath made a couenant with the sonne of Jsai: and there is none of you that is sory for me, or sheweth me, that my sonne hathe stirred vp my seruant to lie in waite agaynst me (as appeareth) this day?

9 Then aunswered Doeg the Edomite (whiche was appoynted by the seruantes of Saul,) and sayde, I sawe the sonne of Jsai, when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitob, 10 Which asked counsel of the Lord for him, and gaue him vittayles, and the swoorde of Goliath the Philistine also.

11 Then the king sent, and called for Ahimelech the priest, the sonne of Ahitob, and al hys fathers house (that is to say) the (f) Priestes that were in Nob: and they came all to the king.

12 And Saul sayde, Heare nowe thou sonne of Ahitob. He aunswered, Heare I am, my Lorde.

13 And Saul sayde vnto him, Why haue yee conspired against me, thou, and the sonne of Jsai, in that thou hast giuen him bitaile, and a swoorde, and hast asked counsell of God for him, that he should arise agaynste me, and lie in waite for mee (as appeareth) thys day?

14 Ahimelech answered the king, and sayde, Who is so faythfull among all thy seruants, as Dauid, and thereto the kinges sonne in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is had in honour in thyne house?

15 Haue I this day begunne firste (g) to aske counsell of God for him? That be farre from me: Let not the king impute any thyng vnto his seruant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy seruant knew nothing of all this, eyther lesse, or more.

16 The king said, Thou shalt surely die Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house.

17 And the king sayde vnto the footemen, that stoode about him, Turne, and slay the priests of the Lord: both bycause their hande is with Dauid, and bycause they knew when Dauid fled, and shewed it not to me. But the seruantes of the king (h) would not moue their handes, to fall vppon the Priestes of the Lorde.

18 And the king sayd to Doeg, Turne thou, and fall vppon the Priestes. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ranne vppon the Priestes, and slue that same day fourescore and fiue persons, that did weare a linnen Ephod.

19 And Nob the Citie of the priestes, smote he with the edge of the swoorde, both men and women, children and sucklynges, oxen and asses, and sheepe, with the edge of the swoorde.

20 And one of the sonnes of Ahimelech, the sonne of Ahitob, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled to Dauid.

21 And Abiathar shewed Dauid howe that Saul had slayne the Lords priests.

22 And Dauid sayd vnto Abiathar, I wist it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he woulde tell Saul: and I am cause of the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abyde thou with me, and feare not: for he also: with me thou shalt be in safegarde.

The.xxiij. Chapter.

5. Dauid chaceth the Philistines from Keila. 13. Dauid departeth from Keila, and remayneth in the wildernesse of Ziph. 16. Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 28. Sauls enterprise is broken in pursuing Dauid.

1 Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Behold, the Philistines fyght against (a) Keila, and spoyle the barnes.

2 Therefore Dauid asked counsell of the Lorde, saying, Shall I goe, and smite these Philistines? And the Lorde answered vnto Dauid, Goe, and smite the Philistines, and saue Keila.

3 And Dauids men sayd vnto him, See, we be afrayd here (b) in Juda: How much more then, if we come to Keila against the host of the Philistines?

4 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lorde agayne. And the Lord answered him, and sayd, Arise, and goe downe to Keila: for I wil deliuer the Philistines into thyne hand.

5 And so Dauid and his men went to Keila, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattell, and smote them wyth a great slaughter: and so Dauid saued the inhabitants of Keila.

6 And when Abiathar the sonne of Abimelech fled to Dauid to Keila, he brought an (c) Ephod with him in his hand.

7 And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was come to Keila: and Saul sayde, God hathe deliuered him into myne hande: for he is shutte in, now that he is come into a towne, that hath gates and barres.

8 And Saul called all the people together to warre, for to goe down to Keila, and to besiege Dauid, and his men.

9 And Dauid, hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischiefe against hym, sayde to Abiathar the priest, (d) Bring the Ephod.

10 Then sayd Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, thy seruante hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keila, to destroy the citie for my sake:

11 Will the Lordes of Keila deliuer me into his hand? And will Saul come downe, as thy seruant hath heard, O Lord God of Israell? I beseech thee tell thy seruant. And the Lord sayd, He will come downe.

12 Then sayde Dauid, Will the Lordes of Keila deliuer me, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lorde sayd, They will deliuer thee vp.

13 Then Dauid and his menne, whyche were vpon sixe hundred, arose, and departed out of Keila, and went (e) whyther they coulde: and it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was fledde from Keila, and he lette the iourney alone.

c. To, and fro, as hauing no certaine place to goe to.

14 Dauid abode in the wildernesse in strong holdes, and remayned in a mountayne in the wildernesse of Ziph: and Saul soughte him euery daye, but God (f) deliuered hym not into his hand. ℭ

f. No power nor policie can preuayle against Gods children, but when he appoynteth the tyme.

15 And Dauid sawe, that Saul was come out to seeke his life: and Dauid was in the wildernesse of Ziph in the wood.

16 And Jonathan Sauls sonne arose, and went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted his (g) hand in God,

g. Willed him to be of good courage and bolde, for God was on his side 17 And sayd vnto him, Feare not: for ỹ hand of Saul my father shall not find thee: and thou shalt be kyng ouer Israell, and I shall be next vnto thee, and that doeth Saul my father knowe.

18 And they made a bonde both of them together before the Lord: and Dauid tarried still in the wood, and Jonathan wente to his house.

19 Then came the Ziphites to Saul to Gibea, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide him selfe fast by vs in strong holdes, in the wood, in the hyll of Hachila, on the right side of "Jesimon?

" or, of the wildernesse.

20 Now therfore, O king, thou mayest come downe according to all the lust of thy soule, and our part shall be to deliuer him into the kings hande.

21 And Saul sayde, Blessed are yee in the Lord, for ye haue compassion on me: ℧

22 Goe I pray you, and prepare yet better: knowe and see, where his (h) foote hath bene, and who hath seene him there: for it is tolde me, that he is very subtile.

h. That is, the place where he haunteth.

23 See therefore, and knowe all the lurkyng places, where he hydeth him selfe, and come ye againe to me with the certaynetie, and I will goe with you: and if he bee in the (i) land, I will searche him out throughout all the thousands of Juda.

i. In youre countrey of Ziph.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but Dauid and his men were in the wildernesse of Maon, in the playne, that is on the right hand of Jesimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they tolde Dauid: Wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wildernesse of (k) Maon: and when Saul heard that, he followed after Dauid in the wildernesse of Maon.

k. Which was also in the tribe of Iuda. Iosu. 15.

26 And Saul and his men went on the one syde of the mountayne, and Dauid and his his men on the other syde of the mountaine: and Dauid made hast to get from the presence of Saul. For Saul and his men compassed Dauid and his men round about, to take them.

27 But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come, for the Philistines haue inuaded the lande.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from persecuting Dauid, and wente against the Philistines: and therefore they called that place, (l) Sela Hanmah-lekoth. And Dauid went thence, and dwelt in strong holdes at Engadi.

1. Dauid hidden in a caue, spareth Saul. 10. He sheweth to Saul his innocencie. 18. Saul acknowledgeth his fault. 22. He causeth Dauid to sweare vnto hym, to be fauourable to hys seede.

4 And the mē of Dauid sayd vnto him, See, the day is come, of which the Lord sayd vnto thee, Behold, I will deliuer thine enimie into thine hand, and thou shalte do to hym, as it shall seeme good in thy sight. Then Dauid arose, and cut off the lappe of Sauls garment priuily.

5 And afterwarde Dauids hart smote hym, bycause he hadde cut off the lappe of Sauls garment.

6 And he sayd vnto his men, The Lord keep me from doing that thing vnto my master, the Lordes annoynted, to lay myne hande vppon him, seeing he is (b) the annoynted of the Lorde.

b. He consydereth Gods ordinance, whiche whosoeuer resisteth, getteth to himselfe condemnation. Roma. 13. a.

7 And so Dauid kept off his seruauntes wyth these wordes, and suffered them not to ryse against Saul: but Saul rose vp out of the caue, and went away.

8 Dauid also arose afterwarde, and wente out of the caue, and cried after Saul, saying, My Lorde king. And when Saul lowked behynd him, Dauid stowped (with) hys face to the earth, and bowed him selfe.

9 And Dauid sayde to Saul, Wherefore giuest thou an eare to mens wordes, that say, Beholde, Dauid seeketh euill against thee?

10 Beholde, this day thyne eyes haue seene, how that the Lord hathe deliuered thee thys daye into myne hand in the caue, and some bade me kyll thee: but I had compassion of thee, and sayde, I will not laye myne handes on my master, for he is the Lordes annoynted.

11 And moreouer, my father, beholde and se yet the lap of thy garment in my hande: In so muche as I killed thee not, when I cut off the lappe of thy garmente, vnderstande therefore, and see, that there is neyther euill nor wickednesse in me, and that I haue not sinned against thee: and yet thou huntest after my soule to take it.

12 The Lord be iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lorde auenge me of thee: but myne hand be not vpon thee.

13 According as the " olde prouerbe sayeth, Wickednesse proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand be not vpon thee.

14 After whome is the king of Israell come out? After whome doest thou pursue? After a dead dog, and after a flea.

15 The Lorde therefore be iudge, and iudge betweene thee and me, and see and pleade my cause, and " auenge mee out of thyne hande.

16 When Dauid had made an ende of speking these wordes to Saul, Saul sayde, Is this thy voyce my sonne Dauid? And Saul lifted vp his voyce, and (c) wept, 17 And sayde to Dauid, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me with good, whereas I haue rewarded thee with euill.

18 And thou hast shewed this day, how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as, whē the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not.

19 For who shall fynde his enimie, and lette him depart into a (d) good way? Wherefore the lord reward thee with good, for that thou hast done vnto me this day.

20 And nowe beholde, I wote well, that thou shalte be king, and that the kingdome of Israell shall be stablished in thine hande:

21 Sweare nowe therefore vnto me by the Lorde, that thou wilt not destroy my seede after me, & that thou wilt not put my name out of my fathers house.

22 And Dauid sware vnto Saul, and Saul went home: but Dauid and his men gate them vp vnto the holde.

The.xxv. Chapter.

1. Samuel dyeth. 3. Nabal and Abigail. 38. The Lorde kylleth Nabal. 43. Abigail and Ahinoam Dauids wyues. 44. Michol is giuen to Phalti.

1 AND Samuel died, and al the Israelites gathered together, and lamented hym, and buried hym in his own (a) house at Rama. And Dauid arose, and went downe to the wildernesse of Pharan.

a. That is, beyng his owne kinred.

2 And there was a man in (b) Maon, whose possession was in Carmel, and the man was exceedyng mightie, & had three thousand sheepe, and a thousande goates: and he was shearyng his sheepe in Carmel.

b. Maon and Carmel, were twoo in the lande of Iuda. And the thirde was in Galilee.

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wyfe was Abigail, and she was a woman of a singular wisedome, and beautifull: but the man was churlishe, and of shrewd conditions, and was of the kynred of Caleb.

4 And Dauid hearde in the wildernesse, that Nabal did sheare his sheepe.

5 And Dauid sent out ten young men, and sayde vnto them, Get you vp to Carmel, & goe to Nabal, & "greete him in my name.

a. Hebr. aske of the peace.

6 And ye shal say, So mayst thou liue: peace be to thee, peace be to thyne house, and peace be vnto al that thou hast.

7 Behold, I haue hearde say, that thou hast shearers: nowe, thy shepeheardes (c) were with vs, and we did them no spite, neyther was there ought missyng vnto them, al the while they were in Carmel:

b. That is, we conuersed with vs in the wildernes.

8 Aske thy laddes, and they will shewe thee: Wherefore let these young men finde fauour in thyne eyes (for we come in a good "season) and giue, I pray thee, whatsoeuer (d) commeth to thyne hande, vnto thy seruants, and to thy sonne Dauid.

a. Hebr. In a good day, that is, the day when thou maiest a feast for thy shearers.

d. That is, whatsoeuer thou hast redy vs.

9 And when Dauids young men came, they tolde Nabal all those wordes in the name of Dauid: and belde their peace.

10 And Nabal answeared Dauids seruants, and sayde, (e) Who is Dauid? and who is the sonne of Isai? There is plentie of seruants now a dayes, that breake away euery man from his maister.

e. Nabal lacked no wealth nor richesse: yet by this answeare, it appeareth, that he lacked wisedome and discretie.

11 Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my flesshe, that I haue killed for my shearers, and giue it vnto men whom I wote not whence they be?

12 And so Dauids seruaunts turned their way, and went agayne, and came, and told him al those sayings.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto his men, Gyrde euery man his sworde aboute him. And they gyrded euery man his sworde aboute him: and Dauid was gyrded with his sworde: And there folowed Dauid vpon foure hundred men, and two hundred abode by the stuffe.

14 But one of the ladies told Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Behold, Dauid sent messengers vnto our maister out of the wildernesse, to salute him: and he rayled on them. ℭ

15 And yet the men were very good (f) vnto vs, and did vs no displeasure, neither missed we any thing as long as we were conuersant with them, whe we were in the fields.

f. When we kept our shepe in the wildernesse of Pharan.

16 They were (g) a wall vnto vs bothe by night and day, al the while we were with them keepyng sheepe.

g. That is, in steede of a wal.

17 Nowe therefore take heede, and see, what thou shalt do: for surely euill will come vpon our maister, and all his householde: for he is so wicked, that a mā can not speake to him.

18 Then Abigail made haste, and toke two hundred "loaues, & two bottels of wyne, and fiue sheepe ready dressed, and fiue measures of parched corne, and an hundred "frayles of reasines, and two hundred "cakes of figges, and laded them on asses,

a. Hebr. bread.

"Or, clusters, "Or, poundes, So many figges as cleaue together lyke a cake, are called a cake.

19 And sayde vnto his young men, Goe before me: behold, I come after you. But she tolde her husband Nabal nothing therof.

20 And as she rode on her asse, she came priuily downe the side of the hil: and behold, Dauid and his men came downe agaynst her, and she met them.

21 And Dauid sayde, Surely in vayne haue I kept al, that this fellowe hath in the wildernesse, so that nothyng was missed of all that pertayned vnto him: and he hath quited me euill for good. ℭ

22 So and more also do God vnto the enimies of Dauid, if I leaue of all that pertayne to him by the dawnyng of the day, any that (h) pisseth agaynst the wall.

h. This speach is vsed of the Hebrues, to signifie an vter destructiō, of great and smal.

23 And when Abigail sawe Dauid, she hasted and lighted off her asse, and fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the grounde, 24 And fell at his feete, and sayde, Let this iniquitie be counted myne, my lorde: and let thyne handmayde, I pray thee, speake in thyne "audience, and heare the wordes of thyne handmayde.

a. Hebr. in thyne eare.

25 Let not my Lorde, I pray thee, regarde this wicked "man Nabal: For as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and folly is with hym: But I thyne handmayd sawe not the yong men of my Lord, whom thou sendedst.

"Or, foole.

26 Nowe therefore my lorde, as the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, euen the Lorde that hath withholden thee from cõmyng to (shed) bloud, and saued thee thine (i) hande: So nowe, I pray God that thyne enimies, and they that intend to do my lorde euill, may be as Nabal.

i. Innocent, cleane from bloud.

27 And nowe this "blessyng, whiche thyne handmayde hath brought vnto my lorde, let it be giuen vnto the young men, that folow my lorde.

"Or, present.

ℇ 28 I pray thee forgiue the trespasse of thyne handmayde: for the Lord wil make my lord a (k) sure house, bicause my lord fighteth the battayles of the Lorde: & there could none euill be founde in thee all thy dayes.

k. That is, wil confyrme his kyngdome to his posteritie.

29 And yet a (l) man hath risen to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule: but the soule of my lorde shal be bounde (m) in the bundle of the liuing with the Lorde thy God, and the soules of thy enimies shal God cast out, euen as out of the middle of a slyng.

l. To wite, Saul.
m. Shal be preserued by Gods protectiõ from al dangers, that he may liue lõg.

30 And when the Lorde shall haue done to my lorde all the good that he hath promised thee, and shall haue made thee ruler ouer Israel:

31 Then shal it be no grieke vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lorde, that thou hasse not shedde bloud causelesse, & that my lord hath not auenged himselfe: But when the Lorde shall haue dealt well with my lorde, then thinke on thine handemayde.

32 And Dauid sayde to Abigail, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, whiche sent thee this day to meete me.

ℱ 33 Blessed is thy saying, & blessed art thou, whiche hasse kepte me this day from comming to shed bloud, and from auengyng my selfe with myne owne hande.

34 For in very deede, as the Lorde God of Israell liueth, whiche hath kepte me backe frõ hurtyng thee, except thou haddest hasted and mette me, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawnyng of the day any that pisseth agaynst the wal.

35 And so Dauid receyued of hyr hande that which she had brought him, and sayde vnto hyr, Goe vp in peace to thine house: behold, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue graunted thy petition.

36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he helde a feast in his house like the feast of a king: and Nabals hart was merry within him, for he was very dronken: Wherefore she tolde (n) him nothing, neyther lesse, nor more, vntill the morowe morning.

n. As a man that had no reason to cõsider the dãger.

37 But in the morning, when the wyne was gone out of Nabal, his wife tolde him these wordes, and his hart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And vpon tenne dayes after, the Lorde smote Nabal, that he died.

39 And when Dauid heard, that Nabal was dead, he sayd, Blessed be the Lord, that hath "iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hande of Nabal, and hath kept his seruaunt from euill: for the Lorde hath recompenced the wickednesse of Nabal vpon his owne head. And Dauid sent to commune with Abigail, to take hyr to his wyfe.

"Or, rewarded.

40 And when the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto hyr, saying, Dauid sent vs vnto thee, to take thee to his wyfe. And she arose, and bowed hyr selfe on hyr face to the earth, and sayde, Beholde, let thyne handmayde be a seruaunt, to washe the feete of the seruants of my lorde.

41 And Abigail hasted, and rose, and gate hyr vpon an Asse, with fiue damosels of hyrs, that (o) went at hyr feete, & she went after the messengers of Dauid, and became his wyfe.

o. As a phrase, is meant lowly.

42 Dauid also toke Ahinoam of Jezrell: and they were both his wiues.

43 But Saul had giuen Michol his daughter, Dauids wyfe, to Phalti the sonne of Lais, whiche was of (p) Gallim.

p. Which was a towne bordering vpon the coast of the Philistines.

The.xxvi. Chapter.

1. Dauid was discouered vnto Saul by the Ziphites. 12. Dauid taketh away Sauls speare, and a cruse of water that stoode at his head. 21. Saul confesseth his sinne.

1 THe Ziphites came agayne vnto Saul to Gibea, saying, Dothe not Dauid hyde himselfe in the "hill of Hachilah, which is before "Jesimon?

"Or, the hill. "Or, the wildernesse.

2 Saul arose, and went downe to the wildernesse of Ziph, hauyng three thousande (a) chosen men of Israell with him, for to seeke Dauid in the wildernesse of Ziph.

a. That is, the most valiant and souldiers.

3 And Saul pitched in the hil of Hachilah, whiche is before Jesimon by the way side: but Dauid dwelt in the wildernesse, and he sawe that Saul came after him into the wildernesse:

4 Dauid therefore sent out spies, & vnderstoode, that Saul was come in very deede.

5 And Dauid arose, and came to the place, where Saul had pitched: and Dauid beheld the place, where Saul lay, and Abner, the sonne of Ner, whiche was his chiefe captayne: for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answeared Dauid, and spake to Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abisai the sonne of Zaruia, and brother to Joab, saying, Who will goe downe with me to Saul Saul to the hoſt? And Abiſai ſayde, I will goe downe with thee.

B 7 And ſo Dauid, and Abiſai came downe to the people by night, and beholde, Saul lay ſleeping within the fort: and his ſpeare ſtacke in the grounde at his "head: but Abner and the people lay roũd about him.

8 Then ſayde Abiſai to Dauid, God hath cloſed thyne enimie into thyne hande this day: Nowe, I pray thee, let me ſmyte him once with my ſpeare to the earth, and I wil not (b) ſmite him the ſecond tyme.

9 And Dauid ſayd to Abiſai, Deſtroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lords annoynted, and be guiltleſſe?

10 And Dauid ſayde furthermore, As the Lorde liueth, the Lorde ſhall ſmite him, or his day ſhal come to die, or he ſhall deſcend into battell, and periſhe:

11 The Lorde keepe me from laying myne hande vpon the Lordes annoynted. But, I pray thee, take thou nowe the ſpeare that is at his head, and the cruſe of water, and let vs goe.

12 And ſo Dauid toke the ſpeare, and the cruſe of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man ſawe it, nor marked it, neyther awaked: for they were al a ſleepe, bicauſe the "Lorde had ſent a dead ſleepe vpon them.

13 Then Dauid went ouer to the other ſide, and ſtode on the toppe of an hill a farre off (a great ſpace beyng betweene them:)

C 14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner the ſonne of Ner, ſaying, "Heareſt thou not Abner? Abner anſwearcd & ſayde, Who art thou, that crieſt to the kyng?

15 And Dauid ſayde to Abner, Art not thou a (c) man? And who is lyke to thee in Iſrael? Wherefore then halſe thou not kepte thy lorde the kyng? For there came one of the folke in, to deſtroy the king thy lorde.

16 It is not wel done of thee: As the Lorde liueth, ye are "worthy to die, bycauſe ye haue not kept the Lordes annoynted: And now ſee where the kings ſpeare is, and the cruſe of water that was at his head.

17 And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, and ſayde, Is this thy voyce my ſonne Dauid? And Dauid ſayd, It is my voyce, my lord, O kyng.

18 And he ſayde, Wherefore doth my lorde thus perſecute his ſeruant? for what haue I donne? or what euill is in myne hande?

19 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the kyng heare the wordes of his ſeruaunt: If the Lorde haue ſtirred thee vp againſt me, (d) let him ſmell the ſauour of a ſacrifice: but if they be the (e) chyldren of men, curſed are they before the Lorde, for they haue caſt me out this day from abyding in the inheritance of the Lord, (f) ſaying, Goe, ſerue other goddes.

20 Now therefore, let not my bloud fall to the earthe before the face of the Lorde: for the kyng of Iſraell is come out to ſeeke a flea, as when one dothe hunt a partridge in the mountaynes.

21 Then ſayde Saul, I haue ſinned, Come D agayne, my ſonne Dauid: for I wyll do thee no more harme, bycauſe my ſoule was (g) pretious in thyne eyes this day: Beholde, I haue played the fole, and haue erred exceedingly.

22 And Dauid anſweared, and ſayde, Beholde the kyngs ſpeare, let one of the young men come ouer, and fetche it.

23 The Lord reward euery man accoꝛding to his righteouſneſſe, and faithfulneſſe: For the Lorde deliuered thee into my hand this day, but I would not lay mine hande vpõ the Lordes annoynted.

24 And beholde, like as thy lyfe was muche ſet by this day in myne eyes, ſo be my lyfe ſet by in the eyes of the Lorde, that he deliuer me out of all tribulation.

2 And Dauid sayde to Achis, Surely thou shalt knowe, what thy seruaunt can dw. And Achis sayde to Dauid, Then I wyll make thee keeper of my head for euer.

6 And when Saul asked counsell of the Lorde, the Lorde answeared hym not, neither by dreames, nor by Urim, nor yet by prophetes.

7 Then sayde Saul vnto his seruauntes, B Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirite, that I may goe to hyr, and aske of hyr. And his seruantes sayde to hym, Beholde, there is a woman, that hath a familiar spirite at Endor.

8 And Saul changed himselfe, and put on other rayment, and then went he and two men with him, and they came to the womã by night, and he sayde, I pray thee coniecture vnto me by thy familiar spirite, and bryng me him vp, whom I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman sayde vnto Saul, Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, howe he hath destroyed the Sorcerers, and the Swthsayers out of the lande: Wherefore then layest thou a snare for my soule, to cause me to dye?

10 And Saul sware to hyr by the Lorde, saying, As the Lorde liueth, there shall no harme come to thee for this thing.

11 Then sayde the woman, Whom shall I fetche vp vnto thee? He answeared, Bring me vp Samuel.

12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loude voyce, and spake to Saul, saying, Why halte thou deceyued me? for thou art Saul.

17 Truely the Lorde hath done to (d) him, euen as he spake by my "hande: For the lorde hath rent the kyngdome out of thine hande, & giuen it thy neyghbour Dauid.

18 Bycause thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lorde, nor executedst his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 And moreouer, the Lorde will deliuer Israell with thee into the handes of the Philistines: To morow shalt thou and thy sonnes be (e) with me, and the Lorde shall syue the host of Israell into the handes of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell strayght way all along on the earth, and was sore (f) afrayde, bycause of the wordes of Samuel. And there was no strength in hym: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 And the woman came vnto Saul, & saw that he was sore troubled, and sayde vnto him, See, thine handmayde hath obeyed thy voyce, and (g) haue put my soule in my hand, and haue hearkened vnto thy wordes, whiche thou saydest vnto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thyne handmayde, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate, and get thee strēgth, and then goe on thy iourney.

23 He refused, and sayde, I will not eate. But his seruaunts and the woman together compelled hym, and he hearkened vnto theyr voyce: And so he arose from the earth, and sate on a bed.

4. The princes of the Philistines cause Dauid to be sent backe from the battel agaynst Israel, bycause they mistrusted him.

1 SO the Philistines were gathered together with al their armies in Aphec, and the Israelites pitched by "Iin, whiche is in Izrael.

2 And the "princes of the Philistines went forth by (a) hundreds and thousandes: but Dauid and his men came behynde with Achis.

3 Then sayd the princes of the Philistines, What dow these Hebrues (here?) Achis sayde vnto the princes of the Philistines: Is not this Dauid, the seruaunt of Saul the kyng of Israell, whiche hath bene with me these dayes, or these yeares, and I haue founde no fault in him, since he fell vnto me, vnto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with hym, and the princes of the Philistines sayde vnto him, Make this fellowe returne, that he may goe agayne to his place, whiche thou hast appoynted him, and let hym not goe downe with vs to battell, least in the battel he be an aduersarie to vs: for wherewith shoulde he obteyne the fauour of his mayster? shoulde it not be with the (b) heades of these men?

5 Is not this Dauid, to whom they sang in daunces, saying, Saul slue his thousand, and Dauid his tenne thousande?

6 Then Achis called Dauid, and sayd vnto him, As the Lorde liueth, thou hast bene honest, and good in my sight, when thou (c) wentest out and in with me in the hoste: neyther haue I founde euil with thee since thou camest to me, vnto this day: neuertheless, the "princes fauour thee not.

7 Wherfore now returne, and goe in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistines.

8 And Dauid sayd vnto Achis, And what haue I done? what hast thou founde in thy seruant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may not goe and fight against the enimies of my lord the kyng?

9 Achis answeared and sayde to Dauid, I know, that thou art (d) good in my sight, as an angell of God: notwithstandyng, the princes of the Philistines haue sayde, Let hym not goe vp with vs to battell.

10 Wherfore now ryse vp early in the morning, with thy (e) maisters seruants that are come to thee: and when ye be vp early, as sone as ye haue light, depart your way.

2 And had taken the women, that were therein, prysoners, both small and great: but slue not a man, but caried them away, and went theyr wayes.

3 So Dauid and his men came to the citie, and beholde, it was burnt with fire: and their wiues, theyr sonnes, and theyr daughters, were taken prysoners.

4 Then Dauid and the people, that were with him, lifted vp their voyces, and wept, vntill they coulde weepe no more.

5 And Dauids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Jezrahelite, and Abigail the wyfe of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And Dauid was in great encumbrance: for the people (b) entended to stone him, bicause the hartes of all the people were vexed, euery man for his sonnes, and for hys daughters. But Dauid toke a good courage to him in the Lorde his God,

7 And sayde to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid.

8 And Dauid asked counsell of the Lorde, saying, Shal I folow after this company? shal I ouertake them? And he answeared hym, Folowe: for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and (c) recouer all.

9 So Dauid and the fire hundred men that were with him, went and came to the riuer Besor, where a part of them abode.

10 But Dauid and foure hundred men folowed: (for two hundred abode behind, being too weary to go ouer the riuer Besor.)

11 And they founde an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to Dauid, and gaue hym bread, and he did eate, and water to drynke, 12 And gaue him a fewe figges, and two clusters of reasins: And when he had eaten, his spirite came agayne to hym: for he had eaten no bread, nor dronke any water in three dayes, and three nightes.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto hym, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? He sayde, I am a young man of Egypt, & seruant to an Amalekite: and my mayster left me, bycause three dayes agoe I fell sicke.

14 We came a roauing vpon the South of Cretus, and vpon the (coast) belongyng to Juda, and towarde the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fyre.

15 And Dauid sayde to hym, Canst thou bring me to this company? And he sayde, (d) Sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt neyther kyll me, nor deliuer me into the handes of my maister: and I wil bring thee to this company.

16 And when he had brought him thyther, beholde, they lay scattered abroade vpon al the earth, (e) eatyng, and drinking, & daunsing: bycause of al the great pray, that they had carried away out of the lande of the Philistines, and out of the lande of Juda.

17 And Dauid layde vppon them from the twylight, euen vnto the euening of the next morowe: so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundred young menne, which rode vpon Cammels, and fledde.

18 And Dauid recouered all, that the Amalekites had carried away, and Dauid rescued his two wyues:

19 So that there was nothyng lackyng to them, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all.

20 And Dauid toke all the sheepe, and the oxen, and they draue them before his cattel, and sayde, This is Dauids (f) pray.

21 And Dauid came to the two hundred men, that were too weary for to folowe Dauid, whom they had made also to abide at the ryuer Besor: and they came to meete Dauid, and the people that were with him: And when Dauid came to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answeared all the wicked and the vnthryftes of the men, that went with Dauid, and sayd, Bycause they went not with vs, therfore wyll we gyue them none of the pray, that we haue recouered: But let euery man take his wife and his chyldren: those let him carrie away, and depart.

23 Then sayd Dauid, Ye shal not do so my brethren with that whiche the Lorde hath gyuen vs, who hath preserued vs, and deliuered the company, that came agaynst vs, into our handes.

24 For who will hearken vnto you in this matter? But as his part is that goeth down and fighteth, so shall his part be that tarieth by the stuffe: they shal part alike.

25 And so from that day forward, was that made a statute and lawe in Israell, vnto this day.

2 Behold, there came a man the thirde day out of the hoste from Saul, with his (a) clothes rent, & earth vpon his head: And when he came to Dauid, he fell to the earth, and did obeysance.
3 Dauid sayde vnto him, Whence commest thou? He sayde vnto him, Out of the host of Israel I am escaped.
4 And Dauid sayde vnto him, And what is done, I pray thee? tell me. He sayde, The people is fledde from the battell, and many of the people are ouerthrowen and 16 And euery one caught his fellowe by the head, and thrust his swoorde in hys fellowes (i) side, and so they fell downe togither. Wherefore the place was called "Helkathhazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was an exceeding cruel (k) battell that same day: For Abner and the men of Israel fell before the seruants of Dauid.

18 And there were three sonnes of Zaruia there, Ioab, Abisai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foote, as a wylde Roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going, he turned neither to the right hande, nor to the left, from Abner.

20 Then Abner loked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? He answered, Yea.

21 Abner sayd, Turne thee eyther to the right hande, or the left, and catche one of the yong men, and take his "weapons. But Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner sayde againe to Asahel, Depart from mee: (l) Wherefore shoulde I smite thee to the grounde, and not be able to holde vp my face to Ioab thy brother?

23 Howbeit, when he would in no wise depart, Abner with the hinder end of the speare smote him vnder the (m) fifth ribbe, that the speare came out behinde him, that hee fell downe in the same place, and dyed there: and as many as came to the place where Asahel fell downe and dyed, stode still.

24 Ioab also and Abisai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe when they were come to the hill Amma, that lyeth before Giah, by the way of the wildernesse of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Beniamin gathered themselues togyther after Abner, and were on a heape, and stode on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Ioab, and sayde, Shal the (n) swoorde deuoure for euer? Knowest thou not, that it will be bytternesse in the latter ende? How long then shall it be, yer thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?

27 And Ioab sayde, As God lyueth, if thou haddest spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed, euerye one from persecuting his brother.

28 And so Ioab blew a trumpet, and all the people stode still, and pursued after Israell no more, neyther fought they any more.

29 And Abner, and his men walked all that night through the "plaine, and went ouer Iordane, and paſt through all Bethhoron, till they came to Mahanaim.

30 And Ioab returned from persecuting Abner, and when he had gathered al the people togither, there lacked of Dauids seruantes nineteene men and Asahel.

31 But the seruantes of Dauid had smitten of Beniamin, and Abners men, (so that) three hundred and threescore men dyed.

32 And they toke vp Asahel, and buryed him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Ioab and his men went all night, and the daye arose to them at Hebron.

4 And Jonathan Sauls ſonne had a ſonne, that was lame on his feete, and was fiue yeares old, when the tydings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jeſrael: and his nurſe tooke him vp, and fledde away, and as ſhee made haſt to flee, the childe fell, and began to halte, and his name was Miphiboſeth.

8 And they brought the heade of Iſboſeth vnto Dauid to Hebron, & ſayde to the king, Behold, there is the head of Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne thine enimie, whiche ſought after thy lyfe: and the Lorde hathe auenged my Lorde the king thys day of Saul, and of his ſeede.

12 And Dauid commaunded his yong men, and they ſlue them, and cut off their handes and feete, and hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron: but they tooke the heade of Iſboſeth, and buryed it in the Sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

5 In Hebron hee raigned ouer Juda seuen yeares and sixe monethes: and in Hierusalem he raigned thirtie and three yeares ouer all Israel and Juda.

6 The king also and his men went to Hierusalem vnto the Iebusites, the inhabitantes of the lande, which spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take awaye the * blynde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: for they sayde, Thou art not able to come in hither.

9 And so Dauid dwelt in the towre, and called it the citie of Dauid, and buylt round about it, from Millo, and inwarde.

10 And Dauid prospered and grew, and the Lord God of hostes was with him.

11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to Dauid, and Ceder trees, and Carpenters, and Masons for walles: and they buylt Dauid an house.

12 And Dauid perceyued that the Lord had stablished him king ouer Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdome for his people Israels sake.

13 And Dauid toke him mo concubines and wiues out of Hierusalem, after hee was come from Hebron, & mo sonnes & daughters were yet borne to Dauid.

22 And the Philistines came yet agayne, and layde themselues in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when Dauid asked counsel of the Lorde, he answered, Thou shalt not go vp: but compasse them on the backe side, and come vpon them ouer agaynst the Mulberie trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noyse of a thing going in the top of the Mulbery trees, then remoue: for then shall the Lorde go out before thee, to smyte the host of the Philistines.

15 So Dauid and all the houſe of Iſraell brought the arke of the Lorde with ſhowting and trumpet blowing.

16 And as the arke of the Lorde came into the citie of Dauid, Michol Sauls daughter loked through a windowe, and ſaw king Dauid ſpring, and daunce before the Lord: and ſhe (g) deſpyſed him in hir heart.

The.x. Chapter.

4. The messengers of Dauid are villaynously entreated of the king of Ammon. 7. Ioab is sent agaynst the Ammonites.

A 1 AFter this the king of the children of Ammon dyed, and Hanon his sonne raigned in his stead.

2 Then sayde Dauid, I will shewe kindenesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, as his father shewed (a) kindenesse vnto me. And Dauid sent to comfort him by the (b) hande of his seruants, ouer his father: and Dauids seruants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

a. This kindnes is thought to be, by saluing one of his brethrē which fled to him from the king of Ammon, or for that Dauid in his trouble receyued at his handes relefe and comfort.
b. That is, by his seruants.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon sayde vnto Hanon their Lorde, "Thinkest thou, that Dauid doeth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? Hath not Dauid rather sent his seruāts vnto thee, to search the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrow it?

"Heb. in thine eyes doeth Dauid.

4 Wherefore Hanon toke Dauids seruants, and shaued off the one (c) halfe of their beardes, and cut off their garments in the middle, euen hard to the buttockes of them, and sent them away.

c. For a despite and a shame to Dauid, and the children of Israel.

5 When they tolde it vnto Dauid, he sent to meet them (for they were men exceedingly ashamed) and the king sayde, Tarie at Iericho, vntill your beardes bee growne, and then returne.

d. That they had deserued Dauids displeasure, for the iniurie done to his embassadors.

6 And when the children of Ammon sawe that they (d) stanke in the sight of Dauid, they sent and hyred the "Syrians of the house of Rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twentie thousand footemen, and of king Maacha a thousand men, and of Istob, twelue thousande men.

"or, Aramites

B 7 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the host of strong men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put their armie in aray at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, Rehob, Istob, and Maacha, were by themselues in the field.

9 When Ioab sawe, that the front of the battell was agaynst him before and behind, he chose of all the choyse of Israel, and put them in aray agaynst the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hande of Abisai his brother, that he might put them in aray agaynst the children of Ammon.

11 And he sayde, If the Syrians be stronger than I, thou shalt helpe me: but if the children of Ammon be to strong for thee, I wil come, and succour thee.

12 Therefore quite thee like a man, and let vs be valiant for our people, and for the citie of our God: and the Lord do that which is good in his owne eyes.

13 And Ioab proceeded forth, and the people that was with him, to fight against the Syrians: but they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon sawe, that the Syrians were fled, then fledde they also before Abisai, and entred into the citie: and so Ioab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Hierusalem.

15 And when the Syrians sawe, that they were smitten before Israell, they gathered them togither.

16 And Hadar-ezer sent, and brought out the Syrians, that were beyonde "the Ryuer, and they came to Helam: and Zoba the captaine of the host of Hadar-ezer went before them.

17 And when it was shewed Dauid, he gathered all (e) Israel togither, and passed ouer Iordane, and came to Helam: and the Syrians set themselues in aray agaynst Dauid, and fought with him:

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed (f) seuen hundred charets of the Syrians, and fortie thousande horsemen, and smote Zoba the captaine of their host, which also dyed there.

19 And when all the kings that were seruants to Hadar-ezer, saw, that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and serued them: and so the Syrians feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

The.xi. Chapter.

1. The citie Rabba is besieged. 4. Dauid committeth adulterie. 17. Vrias is slayne. 27. Dauid maryeth Bethsabe.

1 AND it came to passe, that after the yeare was expyred, in the tyme (a) when kings goe forth to battayle, Dauid sent Ioab and his seruants with him, and all Israel, which destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabba: but Dauid taryed still at Hierusalem.

2 And in an euening tyde, Dauid arose out of his (b) bed, and walked vpon the roofe of the kings palace, and from the roofe he sawe a woman washing hir selfe, and the woman was verie beautifull to looke vpon.

3 And Dauid sent to enquire, what woman it should be. And one sayde, Is not this Bethsabe the daughter of Eliam, and wife to Urias the Hethite?

4 And Dauid sent messengers, and toke hir away, and she came in vnto him: and he lay with with hir (and she was purified from hir vncleannesse) and returned vnto hir house.

5 And the woman conceyued, and sente and (c) tolde Dauid, and sayde, I am wyth childe.

6 And Dauid sent to Ioab, saying, Send me Urias the Hethite. And Ioab sent Urias to Dauid.

7 And when Urias was come vnto hym, Dauid demaunded of him, how Ioab dyd, and howe the people fared, and how the warre prospered.

8 And Dauid sayd to Urias, (d) Goe downe to the house, and wash thy feete. And Urias departed out of the kings pallace, and there folowed him a present from the king.

9 But Urias slept at the doore of the kinges palace, with all the seruauntes of his Lorde, and went not downe to his house.

10 Which when they had tolde Dauid, saying, Urias went not downe vnto his house: Dauid sayde vnto Urias, Camest thou not from thy iourney? Why didst not thou goe downe then vnto thine house?

11 Urias answered Dauid, The arke, and Israell, and Iuda, dwell in pauilions, and my Lord Ioab, and the seruants of my lord, abyde in the open fieldes: and shall I then goe into mine house, to eate, and drinke, and lye with my wife? By thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I will not do this thing.

12 And Dauid sayde vnto Urias, Tarie here this day also, and to morow I will let thee depart. And so Urias abode in Hierusalem that day, and the morowe.

13 And when Dauid had called him, he dyd eate and drinke before him, and he made him (e) drunke: and at euen he went out, to lye on his couch with the seruants of his Lord, but went not downe to his house.

14 On the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Ioab, and sent it by the hand of Urias.

15 And he wrote thus in the letter, (f) Put yee Urias in the forefront of the sharper battayle, and come yee backe from him, that hee may be smitten, and dye.

16 So when Ioab beseiged the citie, he assigned Urias vnto a place, where he wist that strong men were.

17 And the men of the citie came out, and fought with Ioab: and there were certayne ouerthrowen of the people of the seruantes of Dauid, and Urias the Hethite dyed also.

18 Then Ioab sent and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre:

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an ende of telling the matters of the warre vnto the king:

20 If the kings anger arise, and he saye vnto thee, Wherefore approched yee so nigh vnto the citie, when ye dyd fyght? wist yee not, that they would hurle, and shote from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech sonne of (h) Ierubesheth? Dyd not a woman cast a peece of a milstone vpon him from of the wall, and he dyed in Thebes? why wente ye nighe the wall? Then say thou, Thy seruaunte Urias the Hethite is dead also.

22 So the messenger wente, and came & shewed Dauid all, that Ioab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said vnto Dauid, The men preuayled against vs, and came out vnto vs into the fielde, and we "pursued them, euen vnto the entring of the gate:

24 And the shooters shot from the walles vpon thy seruauntes, and some of the kynges seruauntes be dead, and thy seruaunte Urias the Hethite is dead also.

25 And Dauid sayde vnto the messenger, Thus shalte thou saye vnto Ioab, Let not that thing trouble thee, for the swoord deuoureth "one as well as another: Make thy battell more strong against the citie to ouerthrowe it, and encourage thou him.

26 And when the wife of Urias heard, that hir husbande was dead, she mourned for him.

27 And when the mourning was past, Dauid sent, and fet hir to his house: and she became hys wife, and bare hym a sonne: but this thyng, that Dauid dyd "displeased the Lorde.

33 Now therefore, let not my Lorde the king "take the thing so greuously, to thinke that all the kinges sonnes are dead, "for Amnon only is dead.

37 But Absalom escaped, and wente to (k) Thalmai the sonne of Ammihur kyng of Gesur, and Dauid mourned for his sonne euery day.

38 And so Absalom escaped, and wente to Gesur, and was there three yeeres.

" Or, ceased.

39 And king Dauid "desyred to goe forthe vnto Absalom: for whereas Amnon was dead, he was comforted ouer him.

2 And he sente to Thekoa, and set thence a wise woman, and sayd vnto hir, I pray thee fayne thy selfe to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparell, and (b) annoynte not thy selfe wyth oyle, but bee as a woman that hadde long tyme mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the kyng, and speake on thys manner vnto him (And so Joab "taught hir what she should say.)

4 And when the woman of Thekoa spake with the king, shee fell on hir face to the grounde, and dyd obeysance, and sayde, "Helpe, O kyng.

5 The king sayde vnto hir, What ayleth thee? She answered, I am in deede a "wydowe and mine husband is dead.

6 And thine hand mayde had (c) two sonnes, and they two foughte together in the fielde, where was no man to goe betweene them, but the one smote the other, and slue him.

7 And beholde, the whole kinrede is risen againste thy handemayde, and they sayde, Deliuer him, that smote hys brother, that we may kill him, for the (d) soule of his brother, whome he slue, we will destroy the heir also: And so they shall quench my sparkle, whiche is left, and shall not leaue to my husbande, neyther name nor issue vpon the earthe.

8 And the king sayd vnto the woman, Goe home to thyne house, I will giue a charge for thee.

9 And the woman of Thekoa sayde vnto the king, My Lord, O king, this (e) trespasse be on me, and on my fathers house: and the king and his throne be "guiltlesse.

10 And the king sayd, If any man say ought vnto thee, bring him to me, and he shall "hurt thee no more.

11 Then sayde she, I pray thee, let the kyng remember the Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer manye reuengers of bloud to destroy, lest they slay my sonne. And he answeared, As the Lorde liueth, there shall not one heare of thy sonne fall to the earth.

12 The woman sayd, Let thyne handmayde speake one worde vnto my Lorde the kyng. And he sayd, Say on.

13 The woman sayde, Wherefore then hast thou (i) sought suche a thing against the people of God? For the king dothe speake thys thing as one which is faultie, that he should not fetche home agayne hys banished sonne.

14 For we must needes dye, and are as water spilt on the grounde, whiche can not be gathered vp agayne: Neyther doth GOD spare any person, yet dothe he appoynte (g) meanes that his banished be not vtterly expelled from him.

15 Nowe therefore I am come to speake of this thing vnto thee my Lord the king (because) they that be of the people, (h) haue made me afrayde: And thy handmaide sayd, Now will I speake vnto the king, it may be, that the king will performe the request of hys handmayde.

16 And the king shall heare his handmayd, to deliuer hir out of the hande of the man that would haue destroyed me, and also my son, out of the inheritance of God.

17 And thyne handmayde sayde, The worde of my Lord the king shall now be "comfortable: for my Lord the king is as (i) an angel of God, in hearing of good and bad: Therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

18 Then the king answered, and sayde vnto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thyng that I shall aske thee. And the woman sayde, Let my Lord the king nowe speake.

19 And the king sayd, Is not the (k) hande of Joab with thee in all this matter? The woman answered, and sayd, As thy soule liueth, my Lorde the king, I will not turne to the ryght hand, nor to the left, from ought that my Lorde the king hathe spoken: For euen thy seruaut Joab bade me, and he put all these wordes in the mouth of thine handmayde:

20 For to the intent, that I should (l) change the fourme of speache, hath thy seruant Joab done thys thyng: And my Lorde is wise, according to the wisedome of an angell of God, to vnderstand all thinges, that are in the earth.

21 And the king sayd vnto Joab, Beholde, I (m) haue done this thing: Goe and bring the yong man Absalom agayne.

22 And Joab fell to the grounde on his face, and bowed himselfe, and "thanked the king: And Joab sayd, Now thy seruāt knoweth, that I haue founde grace in thy sighte, my Lord, O King, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his seruant.

23 And so Joab arose, and went to Gesur, and brought Absalom to Hierusalem.

24 And the king sayd, Let him turne to hys owne house, and not see my face. And so Absalom returned to his owne house, and sawe not the kings face.

25 But in all Israell there was none to bee so much prayed as Absalom for beautie: frō the soale of his foote, to the toppe of his head, there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head (for at euery yeeres ende he polled it, because the heare was heauie on him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the heare of his head at two hundred (n) sicles, after the kings weight.

27 And Absalom had three sonnes borne him, and one daughter named Thamar, whiche was a fayre woman to looke vpon.

28 So Absalom dwelt two yeeres in Hierusalem, and sawe not the kings face.

29 Therefore Absalom sente for Joab, to haue sent him to the king, but he woulde not come to him: And when he sent agayne, he would not come.

30 Therefore he sayd vnto his seruants, Behold, Joab hath a fielde by my "place, and he hath barley therein: Goe, and (o) set it on fyre. And Absaloms seruants set it on fyre.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom vnto his house, and sayde vnto hym, Wherefore haue thy seruauntes burnt my fielde with fyre?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sente for thee, desiring thee to come, because I would haue sent thee to the king, for to say, Wherefore am I come from Gesur? It had bin better for me to haue bene there still: Now therefore woulde I see the kings face, and if there be any (p) treshalle in mee, let him kill me.

33 And so Joab came to the king, & told him: whiche when he hadde sent for Absalom, he came to the king, and fell to the ground on his face before him, and the king kissed Absalom.

to the king for iudgement, him did Absalom call vnto him, and sayde, Of what Citie art thou? He answered, Thy seruant is of one of the (a) tribes of Israell.

3 And Absalom sayde vnto hym, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is (b) no man (deputed) of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom sayde moreouer, Oh, that I were made iudge in the lande, that euery manne which hath any plea, and matter in the lawe, might come to me, and that I might doe him iustice.

5 And when any man came nigh vnto hym, and dyd hym obeysance, he put forth his hande, and toke hym to hym, and kyssed hym.

6 And on this maner did Absalom to al Israell, that came to the king for iudgement: so Absalom (c) stale the harts of the men of Israell.

7 And after (d) fortie yeeres, Absalom sayde vnto the king, I pray thee let me goe to Hebron, and pay my vowe whiche I haue vowed vnto the Lord:

8 For thy seruaunte vowed a vowe (when I was in Gesur in Syria) saying, If the Lord shall bring me againe in deede to Hierusalem, I (e) will serue the Lorde.

9 And the kyng said vnto him Goe in peace. And so he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout al the tribes of Israell saying, As sone as ye heare the voyce of the trumpet blowe, ye shall say, Absalon raigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom wente two hundred men out of Hierusalem, that were (f) called: And they wente with pure hartes, not knowing of (g) any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahitophel the Gilonite Dauids counseller, from his citie Gilo, whyle he offered sacrifices, and there was wrought strong treason: for the people went and increased with Absalom.

13 And there came a messenger to Dauid, and sayde, The hartes of the men of Israell are turned after Absalom.

14 And Dauid sayd vnto all his seruauntes, that were with him at Hierusalem, Up, that we maye flee, for we shall not els escape (h) from Absalom. Make speede to depart, least he come suddaynely, and catch vs, and bryng euill vpon vs and smite ỳ citie with the edge of the swoorde.

15 And the kings seruantes sayde vnto hym, Beholde, thy seruants are ready to do what soeuer my Lorde the king shall "appoynte.

16 And the king departed, and all his householde, (i) at his feete: And the King left tenne concubines to keepe the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people at his feete, and taried in a place, that was (k) farre off.

18 And all his seruants went about him: and all the Cherethites, and all the Pheletites, and all the Gethites, euen sixe hundred men, whiche were come "after him from Gath, went before the king.

19 Then sayd the king to Ithai the Gethite, Wherefore commest thou with vs? Returne, and abide with the king, for thou art a stranger, depart therefore to thy place.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and shoulde I vnquiet thee to day, to goe with vs? I wyl goe whyther I can: Therefore returne thou, and carrie againe thy (l) brethren: mercy and trueth be with thee.

21 And Ithai answered the king, and sayde, As the Lorde liueth, and as my Lorde the king liueth, in what place my Lorde the king shal be, whether in death, or in life, euen there also will thy seruant be.

22 And Dauid sayde to Ithai, Come then, and goe forwarde. And Ithai the Gethite went forth, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loude voyce, and all the people went ouer. The king also him selfe passed ouer the brooke Cedron, and all the people went ouer, toward the way that leadeth to ỳ wildernesse.

24 And loe, Sadoc also, and all the Leuites were with him, and (m) bare the arke of the appoyntment of G O D, and they set down the arke of God, and Abiathar (n) went vp, vntill the people were all come ouer out of the citie.

25 And the king sayde vnto Sadoc, Carrie the arke of God againe into the citie. If I shall fynde fauour in the eyes of the Lorde, he will bring me againe, and shewe me both it, and the tabernacle thereof.

26 But if ye thus saye, I haue no lust vnto thee, behold (o) heare am I: let him doe with me, what seemeth good in his eyes.

27 The king said also vnto Sadoc the priest, Art not thou a Seer? Returne into the Citie in peace, and take your two sonnes with you, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Ionathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Beholde, I will tarie in the fieldes of the wildernesse, vntill there come some worde from you to be told me.

32 When Dauid was come to the toppe of the mount, he worshipped God, and beholde, Husai the Arachite came against hym, with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon hys head.

33 Unto whome Dauid sayde, If thou goe with me, thou shalt be a burden vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and saye vnto Absalom, I will be thy seruaunte, O king, as I haue thus long bin thy fathers seruaunt, so am I nowe thy seruaunte, thou mayest "for my sake destroy the counsell of Ahithophel.

2 And the king said vnto Ziba, What meanest thou with these thynges? And Ziba sayde, They bee Asses for the kynges housholde to ryde on, and bread and fruite for the yong men to eate, and wine, that suche as be fainte in the wildernesse, maye drinke.

3 And the kyng sayde, Where is thy masters sonne? Ziba aunswered vnto the king, Beholde, he tarieth still at Hierusalem: for he sayde, Thys day shall the house of Israell restore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then sayde the king to Ziba, Beholde, thine are all that perteyned vnto Miphiboseth. And Ziba sayde, I humbly "beseeche thee, that I may fynde grace in thy sight, my Lord, O king.

5 And when king Dauid came to (b) Bahurim, beholde, thence came out a man of the kinrede of the house of Saul, named Semei, the sonne of Gera, and he came out cursing.

6 And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of Dauid: And all the people and all the menne of warre were on his (c) right hand, and on his left.

7 And thus sayde Semei, when he cursed, Come forthe, come forth thou "bloudshedder, and thou man of "Belial.

8 The Lorde hath brought vpon thee all the (d) bloud of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast raigned, and the Lord hath deliuered the kingdome into the hande of Absalom thy sonne: And beholde, thou art come to thy mischiefe, bycause thou art a bloudshedder.

9 Then sayde Abisai the sonne of Zaruia vnto the king, Why dothe this dead dogge curse my Lorde the king? let me goe nowe, and take off the head of him.

10 And the king sayde, What haue I to doe with you, ye sonnes of Zaruia? for he curseth, euen bycause the Lord hath bidden him (e) curse Dauid: Who dareth then saye, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And Dauid sayd to Abisai, and to all hys seruantes, Beholde, my sonne which came of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: Howe much more then may this sonne of Jemini do it? Suffer him to curse, for the Lorde hath bidden him.

12 It maye bee, that the Lorde will loke on mine "affliction, and (f) do me good for hys cursing this day.

13 And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Semei wente along on the hilles side ouer against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust.

14 And the King, and all that were with hym, came weery, and refreshed them selues (g) there.

15 And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel came to Hierusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

18 Husai answered vnto Absolom, Nay, not so: But whome the Lorde and this people, and all the men of Israell chose, his will I be, and with him will I dwell.

19 And "moreouer, vnto whome shall I doe seruice? not to his sonne? and as I was seruante before thy father, so will I be before thee.

20 Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsell what we shall do.

21 And (i) Ahitophel sayde vnto Absolom, Get thee in vnto thy fathers concubines, whych he hath left to keepe the house, and all Israell shall heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the handes of all that are with thee, be strong.

22 And so they spread Absalom a tent vppon the top of the house. And Absalom went in vnto his fathers concubines in the sight of al Israell.

23 And the counsell of Ahithophel, whych he counselled in those dayes, was as a man had asked counsell (k) at the oracle of God, euen so was all the counsell of Ahithophel, both with Dauid, and with Absalom.

2 And I will come vppon him, whyle he is weery and weake handed, and will feare him: And all the people that are with hym, shall flee, and so will I smite the king only,

4 And the saying " pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israell.

5 Then sayd Absalom, Call now Husai the Arachite also, and let vs heare likewise " what he sayth.

6 When Husai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Ahithophell hath giuen "such counsell: Shall we do after his saying, or no? tell thou.

B 7 Husai answered vnto Absalom, The counsell that Ahithophell hath giuen, is not good at this tyme.

8 For, sayd Husai, Thou knowest thy father and his men, howe that they be strong men, and they be chafed in their mindes, and are euen as a Beare robbed of hir whelpes in the fielde: Thy father is a man also practised in warre, and will not " lodge with the people.

9 Beholde, he is hidde now in some caue, or in some other place: And though some of hys men be ouerthrowen at the fyrst brunt, yet they that heare it, will saye, The people that foloweth Absalom, be " put to the worse.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose hart is as the hart of a Lion, shal "shrinke & faint: for all Israell knoweth, that thy father is a mighty man, and they whiche be with him, are "stout men.

11 Therefore my counsell is, that all Israell be gathered vnto thee, from Dan to Berseba, as the sande of the Sea in number, and that thou goe to battell in thine owne person.

12 For so shall we come vppon him in one place or other, where we shall fynde him, and we will fall vppon hym, euen as thicke as the deawe falleth on the ground: And of all the menne that are with him, we shall not leaue him one.

13 Moreouer, if he be gotten into a towne, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we will drawe it into the riuer, vntill there bee not one small stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israell sayd, The counsell of Husai the Arachite, is better than the counsell of Ahithophel. "For it was euen the Lords determination to destroy the (c) good counsell of Ahithophel, that the Lorde myght (d) bring euill vppon Absalom.

15 Then sayd Husai vnto Sadoc and Abiathar the Priestes, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel and the elders of Israel counsell Absalom, and thus and thus haue I counselled.

16 Now therefore sende quickly, and shewe Dauid, saying, Tarie not this night in the fieldes of the wildernesse, but get thee (e) ouer, least the king be deuoured, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by the well Rogel: (for they might not be seene to come into the citie) and a wench went, and (f) tolde them: And they went, and shewed king Dauid.

19 And the wife toke and spreade a coverlet ouer the welles mouth, and spread ground corne theron: and the thing was not spyed.

20 And when Absoloms seruauntes came to the wyfe to the house, they sayde, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? The woman answered them, They be gone ouer the brooke of water: And when they had sought them, and coulde not fynde them, they returned to Hierusalem, 21 And as sone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and wente and tolde kyng Dauid, and sayd vnto hym, Up and get you quickely ouer the water, for (g) suche counsayle hath Ahitophell gyuen agaynst you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they were come ouer Iordane (h) by that it was daye, so that there lacked not one of them, that was not come ouer Iordane.

23 And when Ahitophell sawe that his counsell was not followed, he saddled his asse, and arose, and gat him home to his owne house, and to his owne citie, & put his household in order, and (i) hanged himself, and died & was buryed in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, and Absalom passed ouer Iordane, he and al the men of Israell with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captayne of the hoste in steade of Joab: whiche Amasa was a mannes sonne named Jethra, an Israelite, that went into Abigail daughter of (k) Nahas, sister to Zauria, Joabs mother.

26 So Israell and Absalom pitched in the lande of Gilead.

27 And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Sobi the son of Nahas, out of Rabba of the chyldren of Ammon, and Machir the sonne of Ammiell out of Lodeber, and Barzellai the Gileadite out of Rogelim,

3 And the people answeared, Thou shalt not goe forth: for if we flee away, they wil not care for vs, neyther shall they regard vs, though halfe of vs were slayne, but thou (a) art now worth ten thousande of vs. Wherfore it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 And the kyng sayd vnto them, What seemeth you best, that will I do. And the king stode by the gate side, and al the people came out by hundredes, and by thousandes.

5 And the kyng commaunded Joab, and Abisai, and Ithai, saying, Intreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people heard, that the king gaue all the captaines charge, concerning Absalom.

12 The man sayde vnto Joab, Thoughe I should receyue a thousande sicles of siluer in myne hande, yet woulde I not stretche out myne hande agaynste the kinges sonne: For we heard with our eares, when the king charged thee and Abisai, and Ithai, saying, Beware that none touche the yong manne Absalom.

8 Then the kyng arose, and sate in the (c) gate: and they tolde vnto al the people, saying, Behold, the kyng dothe sit in the gate, and all the people came before the kyng: for Israel had fled, euery man to his tent.

14 And he bowed the hartes of all the men of Iuda, euen as the hart of one man, so that they sent (this worde) to the king, Returne thou with all thy seruantes.

16 And (g) Semei the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Iemini, whiche was of Bahurim, hasted, & came down with the men of Iuda, to meete kyng Dauid.

17 And there were a thousande men of Beniamin with him, and Siba the seruaunt of the house of Saul, and his fiftiene sonnes, & twentie seruaunts with hym: and they went ouer Iordane before the kyng.

18 And there went ouer a boate, to carrie ouer the kings houshold, and to do him pleasure: and Semei the sonne of Gera fell before the kyng, as he was come ouer Iordane, 21 But Abisai the sonne of Zaruia answeared, and sayd, Shall not Semei die for this, bicause he cursed the Lordes annoynted?

22 And Dauid sayde, What haue I to do with you, ye sonnes of Zaruia? For this day ye be aduersaries vnto me: shal there any mã dye this day in Israel? Do not I know, that I am this day kyng ouer Israel.

23 And therefore the king sayde vnto Semei, Thou shalt not die: and the kyng ware vnto hym.

2 And so euery man of Israell went from Dauid, and folowed Seba the sonne of Bichzi: but the men of Iuda claue fast vnto theyz kyng, from Iozdane to Hierusalem.

3 And Dauid came to his house to Hierusalem: and the kyng toke the ten women his concubines, that he had left behynde him to keepe the house, and put them in warde, and fedde them, but lay no moze with them: and so they were inclosed vnto the day of theyz death, liuyng in widdowhod.

4 Then sayde the kyng to (t) Amasa, Call me the men of Iuda together within thze dayes, and be thou here also.

5 And so Amasa went to gather the men of Iuda together, but tarryed longer than the time, whiche he had appoynted hym.

6 And Dauid sayde to Abisai, Nowe shall Seba the sonne of Bichzi do vs moze harme, than dyd Absalom: Take thou therefoze thy lozdes (u) seruants, and follow after hym, lest he geat him walled cities, and escape vs.

7 And there went out after him Ioabs me, and the Cherethites, and the Phelethites, and all the mightiest men: and they departed out of Hierusalem, to folowe after Seba the sonne of Bichzi.

8 And when they were at the great stone in Gibeon, Amasa went before them: and Ioabs (x) garment that he had aboute him, was gyzt vnto him: and he had gyzded theron a swozde, whiche was ioyned fast to his loynes in a sheath, that as he went, it fel somtyme out.

9 And Ioab sayde to Amasa, Art thou in "health my bzother? And Ioab toke Amasa by the beard with the ryght hande, to kisse him.

16 Then cryed a wyse woman out of the citie, Heare, heare: I pray you, say vnto Joab, Come hither, that I may speake with thee.

17 When Joab was come vnto hir, the women sayde, Art thou Joab? He answered, I am he. She sayd vnto him, Heare the wordes of thyne handmayd: and he answered, I do heare.

18 Then she spake thus, (e) They spake in the old time, saying, They should aske of Abel: and so haue they continued.

19 I am (f) one of them, that are peaceable and faythfull in Israell, and thou goest about to destroy a citie, and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou deuoure the inheritance of the Lorde?

20 And Joab answered, and sayd, God forbid, God forbid it me, that I should eyther deuoure or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim (Seba, the sonne of Bichri by name) hath lyfted vp hys hande agaynst the kyng, euen agaynste Dauid: Delyuer vs hym only, and I wil departe from the citie. And the woman sayde vnto Joab, Beholde, his heade shall bee throwen to thee ouer the wall.

22 And then the woman went vnto all the people with hir wisedome: and they smote of the head of Seba the sonne of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab: and hee blewe a trumpet, and they "retired from the Citie, euery man to his tent: and Joab returned to Hierusalem vnto the king.

23 Joab was ouer all the host of Israell, and Benaia the sonne of Jehoiada was ouer the Cerethites, and Phelethites.

And

1 AND againe the Lorde was wroth against Israel, and (a) he moued Dauid against them, in that he sayd, Go number Israel and Juda.

2 For the king sayde to Joab the captayne of the host, which was with him, Goe thou about nowe thorow out all the tribes of Israell, euen from Dan to Beersleba, and number ye the people, that I may know the (b) number of them.

3 And Joab sayde to the king, the Lorde thy God increase the people an hundred folde more than they be, and that the eyes of my Lorde the king may see it: and what is the cause that my Lorde the king hath a lust to this thing?

4 Notwithstanding, the kings worde preuayled against Joab, and against the captaynes of the host: and Joab and the captaynes of the host, went out from ỳ presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed ouer Jordane, and pytched in Aroer, on the right side of the Citie, that lyeth in the middest of the valley of Gad, and towarde Jazer.

6 And then they came to Gilead, and to the land Tahtim-hodshi, and from thence they came to Dan Jaan, and about to Sidon.

7 And came to the strong holde of Tyre, and to all the Cities of the Heuites, and of the Chanaanites: and then wente out of the south of Juda, euen to Beersleba.

8 And so, when they had vewe about thorowe out all the lande, they returned to Jerusalem, after the ende of nine Monethes and twentie dayes.

9 And Joab deliuered the number and summe of the people vnto the king: and there were in Israell eyght hundred thousande men of might, that drewe swordes: and the men of Juda were fiue hundred thousande men.

10 And Dauids heart smote him, after that hee had numbred the people: and Dauid sayde vnto the Lorde, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: and nowe I beseeche thee, O Lorde, take awaye the trespasse of thy seruant, for I haue done verie foolishly.

11 And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete Gad Dauids (c) Seer, saying, 12 Goe and say vnto Dauid, Thus sayth the Lorde, I offer thee three things: chose thee which of them I shall do vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed him, and sayde vnto him, Wilt thou haue (d) seuen yeares hunger to come vpon thy lande: or wilt thou flee three monethes before thine enimyes, they following thee, or that there bee three dayes pestilence in thy lande? Nowe therefore aduise thee, and see, what answere I shall giue to hym that sent me.

14 And Dauid sayde vnto Gad, I am in a C wonderfull strayte: Let vs fall nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for muche is hys mercie) and let me not fall into the hande of man.

15 And so the lord sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning vnto the time appointed: and there died of the people from (e) Dan to Beersleba seuentie thousande men.

16 And when the Angell stretched oute hys hande vpon Hierusalem to destroy it, the Lorde repented him of the euill, and sayde to the Angell that destroyed the people, It is nowe sufficient, holde thine hande. And the Angell of the Lorde was by the threshing place of Areuna the Jebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lorde, when he saw the Angel that smote the people, and sayde, Loe, it is I, that haue sinned, and that haue done wickedly: but these sheepe, what haue they done? Let thyne hande, I praye thee, bee against mee, and against my fathers house.

18 And Gad came the same day to Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Goe vp, and reare an aulter vnto the Lord in the threshing flore of (f) Areuna the Jebusite.

19 And Dauid according to the saying of Gad, went vp as the Lorde commaunded:

20 And Areuna loked, and sawe the King, and his seruaunts comming towarde hym: and Areuna went oute, and bowed hymselfe before the King on hys face vpon the grounde.

21 And Areuna sayde, Wherefore is my Lorde the king come to hys seruant? Dauid answered, To buye the threshing flore of thee, and to make an aulter vnto the Lorde, that the plague maye ceasse from the people.

22 And Areuna sayde vnto Dauid, Let D my Lorde the King take, and offer what seemeth him good in his eies: Beholde, here bee Oxen for burnt sacrifice, and Charettes, and the other instrumentes of the Oxen for wood.

23 All these things did Areuna, as a (g) King, gyue vnto the King, and sayd moreouer vnto the King, The Lorde thy God accept thee.

24 And the King sayde vnto Areuna, Not so, but I will buye it of thee at a price, and will not offer sacrifice vnto the Lorde my GOD of that whiche doeth cost mee noth- thing.

The.ij.Chapter.

1. Dauid exhorteth Solomon, and gyueth charge as concerning Ioab, Barzellai, and Semei. 10. The death of Dauid. 17. Adonia asketh Abisag to wife. 25. He is slaine. 35. Sadoc is placed in Abiathars roome.

A 1 THe dayes of Dauid drew nigh that he shoulde die, and he charged Solomon his sonne, saying, a. I am ready to die as all men must. 2 (a) I goe the waye of all the earth: bee thou strong therefore, and shewe thy selfe a man.

Iosue.1.b. and 23.b. Deut.31.f. 3 Keepe thou the watche of the Lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and keepe his statutes, and his preceptes, his iudgementes, and his testimonies, euen as it is written in the lawe of Moses: that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and in euery thing, that thou medlest withall.

4 That the Lorde also may make good his worde, which he spake vnto me, saying. If thy children take heede to their way, that
3.Reg.9.b. they walke before me in truth, with all their hearts, and with all their soules, thou shalt not (sayth he) be without a man on the seat of Israel.

2.Reg.2.c. and.20.c. 5 Moreouer, thou wotest, howe Ioab the sonne of Zaruia serued me, and what he did to the two captaynes of the hostes of Israel, vnto Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto Amasa the sonne of Iether, whom he slue, and shed bloud in time of peace, (euen as it had bene in warre) and put the bloud of warre vpon his gyrdle, that was about his loynes, and in his shoes that were on his feete.

6 Deale with him therefore according to thy wisedome, and bring not his hoare heade downe to the graue in peace.

7 But shewe kindnesse vnto the sonnes of B Barzellai the Gileadite, that they may eate 2.Re.
at thy table: for they came to me, when I fled from Absolom thy brother.

8 And beholde, thou hast with thee Semei 2.Re.
the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Iemini of Bahurim, which cursed me with an horrible curse, in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came to meete me at Iordane, and I sware to him by the Lorde, saying, I will not slay thee with the sworde.

9 But thou shalt not account him as vngiltie: for thou art a man of wisedome, and knowest what thou oughtest to doe vnto him: his hoare heade shalt thou bring to the graue with bloud.

10 And so Dauid slept with his fathers, and 1.Pa.
was buryed in the citie of Dauid.

11 And the dayes which Dauid raigned vpon Israel, were fortie yeares: seuen yeares raigned he in Hebron, and thirtie and three yeares raigned he in Hierusalem.

12 Then sate Solomon vpon the seat of Da- 1.Pa.
uid his father, and his kingdome was stablished mightily.

13 And Adonia the sonne of Haggith came to Bethsabe the mother of Solomon, and she 2.Re.
sayde, Commest thou peaceably? And he sayde, Peaceably.

14 He sayde moreouer, I haue somewhat to C say vnto thee. She sayde, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdome was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should raigne: howbeit, the kingdome is turned away, and giuen to my brother, for it is appoynted him of the Lorde.

16 And now I aske a petition of thee: denie me not. And she sayd vnto him, Say on.

17 And he sayde, Speake I pray thee, vnto Solomon the king (for he will not say thee nay) that he giue me Abisag, the Sunamite to wife.

18 And Bethsabe sayde, Well, I will speake for thee vnto the king.

19 Bethsabe therefore went vnto king Solomon, to speake vnto him for Adonia: And the King rose vp to meete hir, and bowed himselfe vnto hir, and sate him downe on his seate, and there was a seate set for the kings mother, and shee sate on his right side.

20 Then

20 Then ſhe ſayde, I deſire a little petition of thee, I pray thee, ſay me not nay. And the king ſayd vnto hir, Aſke on, my mother: for I will not ſay thee nay.

21 She ſayde, let Abiſag the Sunamite be giuen to Adonia thy brother to wife.

D 22 And king Solomon anſwered, and ſayd vnto his mother, Why doeſt thou aſke Abiſag the Sunamite for Adonia? (b) aſke for him the kingdome alſo: for he is mine elder brother, and hath for him Abiathar the prieſt, and Ioab the ſonne of Zaruia.

23 Then king Solomon ſware by the Lord, ſaying, God doe ſo and ſo to me, if Adonia haue not ſpoken thys worde againſt hys owne lyfe.

24 Nowe therefore, as the Lorde lyueth, whiche hath ordeyned mee, and ſet mee on the ſeate of Dauid my father, and made me an houſe, as he promiſed, Adonia ſhall die this day.

25 And king Solomon ſent by the hande of Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, and hee ſmote him, that he dyed.

26 And vnto Abiathar the prieſt ſayde the king, Get thee to Anatoth vnto thine owne fieldes: for thou art worthie of death, but I will not at thys tyme kyll thee, becauſe thou bareſt the arke of the Lorde God before Dauid my father, and becauſe thou haſt ſuffered with my father in all hys afflictions.

27 (c) And ſo Solomon put awaye Abiathar from being Prieſt vnto the Lorde, that he might fulfil the wordes of the Lord, whiche hee ſpake ouer the houſe of Eli in Silo.

E 28 Then tydings came alſo to Ioab, (for Ioab had turned after Adonia, though hee turned not after Abſalom) and Ioab fledde vnto the tabernacle of the Lord and caught holde on the hornes of the aulter.

29 And it was tolde king Solomon, howe that Ioab fledde vnto the Tabernacle of the Lorde: and beholde, he is by the aulter. Then Solomon ſent Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada, ſaying, Goe and fall vppon hym.

30 And Banaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lorde, and ſayd vnto him, Thus ſayth the king, Come out. And he ſayde, Nay, but I wil die euen here. And Banaiah brought the king worde againe ſaying, Thus ſayeth Ioab, and thus he anſwered me.

31 And the king ſayde vnto him, (d) Do euen as he hath ſayd: Smite him and bury him; that thou mayſt take away the bloud, which Ioab ſhed cauſeleſſe, from me, and from the houſe of my father.

32 And the Lord ſhall bring his bloud vpon his owne head: for he ſmote two men more righteous, and better than himſelfe, and ſlue them with the ſworde, my father Dauid not knowing thereof, euen Abner the ſonne of Ner, captaine of the hoſt of Iſrael, and Amaſa the ſonne of Iether captaine of the hoſt of Iuda.

33 Their bloud ſhall therefore returne vpon the heade of Ioab, and on the heade of hys ſeede for euer: But vpon Dauid, and vpon his ſeede, and vpon his houſe, and vpon hys ſeate, ſhall there be peace for euer of the Lorde.

34 So Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada F went vp, and he fell vpon him and ſlue him, and buryed hym in hys houſe in the Wilderneſſe.

35 And the king put Banaiah the ſonne of Iehoiada in hys rome ouer the hoſte, and put Sadoc the Prieſt in the rome of Abiathar.

36 And the king ſent and called Semei, and ſayde vnto him, Buylde thee an houſe in Hieruſalem, and dwell there, and ſee that thou go not forth thence any whither.

37 And bee thou ſure, that the day, that thou goeſt out, and paſſeſt ouer the riuer of Cedron, thou ſhalt die that day, and thy bloud ſhall be vpon thine owne head.

38 And Semei ſayde vnto the king, Thys ſaying is good: As my Lorde the king hath ſayde, ſo will thy ſeruant doe. And Semei dwelt in Hieruſalem many a day.

39 And it chanced after three yeares, that two of the ſeruantes of Semei ranne away vnto Achis ſonne of Macha, king of Gath: And they tolde Semei, ſaying, Behold, thy ſeruants be in Gath.

40 (e) And Semei ſtode vp, and ſadled hys Aſſe, and gat him to Gath to Achis, to ſeeke his ſeruants: and Semei went and brought his ſeruants againe from Gath.

41 And it was tolde Solomon, howe that Semei had gone from Ieruſalem to Gath, and was come againe.

42 And the king ſent, and called Semei, and ſayde vnto him, Did I not charge thee by the Lorde with an othe, and teſtifyed vnto thee, ſaying, Bee ſure, that when ſo euer thou goeſt out, and walkeſt abroade anye whither, thou ſhalt die the death? And thou ſaydeſt vnto me, It is good tydings that I haue hearde.

43 Why then haſt thou not kept the othe of the Lorde, and the commaundement that I charged thee withall?

44 The King ſayde moreouer to Semei, Thou remembreſt al the wickednelſe which 2.Re. 16. b.

1. Solomon taketh Pharaoes daughter to wyfe. 5. The Lorde appeareth to hym, and gyueth him wiſedome. 17. The pleading of the two harlottes, and Solomons ſentence therein.

A 1 SOlomon made affinitie with Pharao king of Egypt, and toke Pharaoes daughter, and brought hir into the citie of (a) Dauid, vntill he had made an ende of buylding hys owne houſe, and the houſe of the Lorde, and the wall of Hieruſalem rounde about.

3 And Solomon loued the Lorde, walking in the ordinances of Dauid his father: ſaue onely that he ſacrificed and offered incenſe vpon aulters in high places.

2.Par.1.a.

4 And the king went to Gibeon, to offer there, for that was the ſpeciall high place: And a thouſand burnt offerings did Solomon offer vpon that aulter.

5 And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Solomon in a dreame by night, and God ſayde, Aſke what thou wilt, that I maye giue it thee.

6 And Solomon ſayde, Thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruaunt Dauid my father great mercie, when he walked before thee in truth, in righteouſneſſe, and in plainneſſe of heart with thee: and thou haſt kept for him thys great mercye, that thou haſt gruen hym a ſonne to ſitte on his ſeate, as it is come to paſſe this day.

B 7 And nowe, O Lorde, my God, it is thou that haſt made thy ſeruant king in ſteade of Dauid my father: and I am but yong, and (c) wote not howe to goe out and in.

d. Gouernement perteyneth to men of wiſedome and vnderſtanding.

10 And this pleaſed the Lord well, that Solomon had deſired this thing:

11 And God ſayde vnto him, Thou haſt not aſked for thy ſelfe long lyfe, neyther haſt aſked rycheſſe for thy ſelfe, nor haſt aſked the life of thine enimies, but haſt aſked for thy ſelfe vnderſtanding and diſcretion in iudgement:

12 Beholde, I haue done accordyng to thy wordes: loe, I haue giuen thee a wiſe and vnderſtanding heart, ſo that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee ſhall any ariſe like vnto thee.

13 And I haue alſo giuen thee that, whiche thou haſt not aſked, euen richeſſe, and honour, ſo that there ſhall be no king like vnto thee all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to C keepe mine ordinances, and my commaundements, as thy father Dauid did walke, I will lengthen thy dayes.

15 When Solomon awoke, (e) beholde, it 3.Reg. e. He ſhewe ſo appeare him a dreame. was a dreame: And hee came to Hieruſalem, and ſtode before the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a feaſt to all his ſeruants. 1.Pe.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, vnto the king, and ſtood before him.

17 And the one woman ſayd, Oh my Lord, I and this woman dwel in one houſe: and I was deliuered of a childe, with hir in the houſe:

18 And the thirde day after that I was deliuered, ſhe was deliuered alſo: and we were togither, and no ſtraunger with vs in the houſe, ſaue we two.

19 And this wines childe died in the night: for ſhe ſmothered it.

20 And ſhe roſe at midnight, and toke my ſonne from my ſyde whyle thine handmayd ſlept, and layd it in hir boſome, and put hir deade childe in my boſome.

21 And when I roſe in the morning to giue D my childe ſucke, beholde, it was deade: but when I had loked vpon it in the morning, beholde, it was not my ſonne which I had borne.

22 And the other woman ſayde, It is not ſo, but my ſonne liueth, and thy ſonne is dead. And ſhe ſayde againe, No, but thy ſonne is dead, and my ſonne is aliue. And thus they pleaded before the king.

23 Then ſayde the King, The one ſayeth, This that is aliue, is my ſonne, and the dead is thyne: And the other ſayeth, Nay, but but thy ſonne is the dead, and the lyuing childe is mine.

24 And the king ſayd (f) Bring me a ſwoꝛd. And they bꝛought out a ſwoꝛde beꝛoꝛe the king.

25 And the king ſayde, Diuide the lyuing childe in two, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other halfe to the other.

26 Then ſpake the woman, whoſe the lyuing childe was, vnto the king (foꝛ hir bowels yerned vpon hir ſonne,) and ſayd, I beſeeche thee, my Loꝛde, giue hir the liuing childe, and in no wiſe ſlay it: But the other ſayde, Let it bee neyther myne noꝛ thine: but diuide it.

27 Then the king anſwered and ſayde, Giue hir the liuing childe, and ſlay it not: foꝛ ſhe is the mother thereof.

28 And all they of Iſrael heard of the iudgement, which the king had iudged, and feared the king: foꝛ they ſawe that the wiſedome of God was in him to do iuſtice.

The.v.Chapter.

1. Hiram sendeth to Solomon, and Solomon to him, purposing to buylde the house of God. 6. He prepareth stuffe for the buylding. 13. The number of the workmen.

A 1 AND Hiram king of Tyre, sent his seruants vnto Solomon (for he had heard 2.Reg.5.b. that they had annoynted him king in the rome of his father) for Hiram was euer a louer of Dauid.

2.Par.2.a. 2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

1.Par.26.a. 3 Thou knowest, howe that Dauid my father coulde not buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde his God, for the warres, whiche were aboute hym on euerye side, vntill the Lorde put them vnder the soles of his feete.

4 But now the Lorde my God hath giuen me rest on euery syde, so that there is neither aduersarie, nor euill to resist:

2.Reg.7.b. 5 And beholde, I am determined to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God, as the Lorde spake vnto Dauid my father, saying, Thy sonne, whom I will set vpon thy seate for thee, hee shall buylde an house vnto my name.

6 Nowe therefore commaunde thou, that they hewe me Cedar trees out of Libanon, and my seruants shall bee with thine, and vnto thee will I gyue the hyre for thy seruants, according to all such things as thou shalt appoynt, for thou knowest, that there are not among vs that can skill to hew timber like vnto the Sidonians.

7 (a) And it came to passe, when Hiram heard the wordes of Solomon, he reioyced greatly, and sayd, Blessed be the Lord this day, whiche hath giuen to Dauid a wyse sonne ouer this mightie people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I haue considered the things, whiche thou sentest to me for, and will accomplish al thy desire, concerning timber of Cedar trees, and Firre.

9 My seruants shall bring them from Libanon to the sea, and I wil conuey them by sea in flotes vnto the place, that thou shalt shew me, and wil cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receyue them: and thou shalt doe me a pleasure againe, if thou minister fode for mine house.

10 And so Hirã gaue Solomon Ceder trees, and Firre trees, according to all his delyre.

11 And Solomõ gaue Hiram twentie thousand quarters of wheat for fode to his household, and twentie buttes of pure Oyle: Thus much gaue Solomon to Hiram yere by yeare.

12 And the Lorde gaue Solomon wisdome as he promised him: and there was peace betweene Hiram and Solomon, and they two were confedered togither.

13 And king Solomon raysed a summe out of Israell, and the summe was thirtie thousande men:

14 Whom he sent to Libanon, ten thousand a moneth by course: so that when they had bene one moneth in Libanon, they aboade two monethes at home: and Adoniram was ouer the summe.

15 And Solomon had threescore and tenne thousande, that bare burdens, and foure score thousand Masons in the mountaynes, 16 Beside the Lorders, whome Solomon appoynted to ouersee the worke, euen three thousande, and three hundred, which ruled the people (and them) that wrought in the worke.

17 And the king commaunded them to bring great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones for the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomons Masons, and the Masons of Hiram dyd hewe them, and the stone squarers: and so they prepared both tymber and stones for the buylding of the house.

The.vi.Chapter.

1. The buylding of the temple, and the forme thereof. 12. The promise of the Lorde to Solomon.

1 AND it came to passe, that in the foure hundred and fourescore yeere, after the chyldren of Israell were come out of the lande of Egypt, and in the fourth yeere of the raygne of Solomon vppon Israel, and in the moneth "Zif, whiche is the seconde moneth, he beganne to buylde the house of the Lorde.

2 And the house, whiche kyng Solomon buylt for the Lorde, was three score cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hygh.

3 And he made a porche before the temple of the house, whiche was twentie cubites long, after the breadth of the house, and ten cubites broade, (euen) in the forefronte of the house.

4 And in the house he made "windowes, broade without, and narrowe within.

5 And by the wall of the house he made chambers round about (euen) in the walles of the house rounde aboute the temple and the quyer: and hee made chambers rounde aboute.

6 The neathermost chamber was fiue cubites broade, and the middle was sixe cubites broade, and the thirde was seuen cubites broad: for without in the wall of the house, he made resles round about, that (the beames of the chambers) should not be fastened in the walles of the house.

7 And the house was buylt of stone, made perfite already before it was brought thyther: so that there was neyther hammer, nor axe, nor any tole of yron heard in the house whyle it was in buylding.

8 The dore of the middle chamber was in the ryght side of the house: and men went vp with wynding steares into the myddle chamber, & out of the middle into the third.

9 And so he buylt the house, and finished it: and he roofed ỹ house baultly with beames of Cedar tymber.

10 And then hee buylte chambers to all the temple fiue cubits hygh, and they were ioyned to the house with beames of Cedar.

11 And the worde of the Lord came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning the house, which thou art in buylding, if thou wylt walk in myne ordinances, and execute my lawes, and keepe all my commandements to walke in them, then wyll I make good vnto thee my promise, whiche I promised Dauid thy father, 13 And I wyll dwell among the chyldren of Israell, and wyll not forsake my people Israel. 2.Re.7.b. Exo.25.b.

14 Solomon therefore buylt the house, and finished it. C

15 And seeled the walles of the house within with bordes of Cedar tree: euen from the pauement of the house vnto the roofe dyd he seele the walles of it within with Cedar tree: and borded the floore of the house with planckes of firre.

16 And hee buylded twentie cubites in the sides of the quyer of the temple, both floore and walles with bordes of Cedar: and dressed it within the secret place of the temple, euen in the place most holy.

17 But the house, that is the temple before it, was fourtie cubites (long.)

18 And the Cedar of the house within, was carued with knoppes, and grauen with floures: and al was Cedar timber, so that no stone was seene.

19 And the quyer that was within the temple, he prepared to sette there the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde.

20 And the quyer" before, was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubits in breadth, and twentie cubites in heyght: and he couered it with pure golde, and borded the aulter with Cedar. "or.within.

21 So Solomon couered the house within D with pure gold: & he made golden barres runne along the quyer, whiche he had couered with golde.

22 And the whole house hee ouerlayde with golde, vntyll he had ended it: also all the aulter, that was in the quyer, he ouerlayde with golde.

23 And within the quyer he made two Cherubims of "Oliue tree, ten cubites hygh. Exo.25.b. "or, Pinetree

24 Fyue cubites long was a wyng of the one Cherub, and fiue cubites long was a wyng of the other Cherub: so that from the vttermoste parte of one wyng, vnto the vttermost parte of the other, there were ten cubites.

25 And the other Cherub was tenne cubites hygh also: so that bothe the Cherubs were of one measure, and one sise:

26 For the heygth of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and so was it of the other.

27 And he put the Cherubs within the inner E house: and the Cherubs stretched out their wynges, so that the one wyng of the one, touched the one wall, and the one wyng of the other touched the other wall: and the other two wyngs of them touched one an other in the middest of the house. Exod.25.b.

28 And he ouerlayd the Cherubs with gold.

29 And in all the walles of the house round about, he made figures of carued and seeled worke: (as namely) pictures of Cherubs, and palme trees, and graue flowres, (both) within (in the quyer) and without (in the temple.)

30 And the flore of the house he couered with golde, (both) within (in the quyer) and (also) without (in the temple.)

31 And in the entryng of the quyer, he made two dores of Oliue tree: and bothe the vpper post, and the two side postes, were fiue square.

32 The two dores also were of Oliue tree: & he grued them with grauyng of Cherubs, and palme trees, and grauen flowres, and couered them with golde, and layde thynne plates of golde vpon the Cherubs and palme trees.

33 And so made he for the dore of the temple postes of Oliue tree foure square.

34 The two dores were of firre tree, and eyther dore with foldyng leaues.

35 And he grued thereon Cherubs, palme trees, & carued flowres: & couered the carued worke with golde finely wrought.

36 And he buylt the inner court with three rowes of hewed stone, and one row of Cedar wood.

37 In the fourth yeare was the fundation of the house of the Lorde layde, euen in the moneth "Zif.

38 And in the eleuenth yeare, in the moneth "Bul (which is the eighth moneth) was the house full finished throughout al the partes thereof, according to al the fashion of it: and so was he seuen yeares in buyldyng it.

The.vij.Chapter.

1. The buylding of the houses of Solomon.
15. The excellent workemanship of Hiram in the peeces, whiche he made for the temple.

1 BVt Solomon was buyldyng hys owne house thirtiene yeares, and finished it all.

2 And he buylt the house in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hyghe. And it stode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pillers, and Cedar beames were layde vpon the pillers.

3 And the rofe was Cedar aboue vpon the beames that lay on the pillers, euen fourtie and fiue beames in fiftiene rowes.

4 And there were wyndowes in three rowes, & the wyndowes were one agaynst another three folde.

5 And al the dores, with the side postes, & the vpper postes, were foure square, and had windowes one agaynst another three fold.

6 And he made a porche by the pillers (that bare vp the house) fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade: and the porche was before those, and the other pillers: for there was a thicke tree set before them.

7 Then he made a porche to sit and iudge in, euen a porche of iudgement, seeled with Cedar throughout al the pauements.

8 And his house wherein he dwelt, had another hall, more inwarde, than the porche, of lyke worke: and then Solomon made an house for Pharoes daughter (whome he had taken to wyfe) lyke vnto the fashion of the porche.

9 And all these were of the beste stones, hewed after a measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the fundation, vnto the (a) beames, that lay aboue, after the measure, and euen so on the out side towarde the great court.

10 And the fundation was layde vpon riche stones, and that very great stones, whereof some were ten cubites, and some eight cubites long.

11 And aboue were riche stones, squared after a certayne rule, & couered with Cedar.

12 And the great court rounde about, was with three rowes of hewed stones, and one rowe of Cedar planckes, after the maner of the inner court of the house of the Lord, and of the porche of the temple.

13 And kyng Solomon sent and fet one Hiram out of Tyre,

14 A widdowes sonne of the tribe of Nephthalim, his father beyng a man of Tyre: whiche Hiram was a craftesman in brasse, full of wisedome, vnderstandyng, and cunning to worke al maner of worke in brasse: and he came to king Solomon, & wrought al his worke.

15 For he cast two pyllers of brasse of eightiene cubites hygh a peece: and a string of twelue cubites did compasse eyther of them aboue.

16 And he made two pommels of moulten brasse, (after the fashion of a crowne,) to set on the toppes of the pyllers: the heygth of the one head peece conteyned fiue cubites, and the heygth of the other head peece conteyned fiue cubites also.

17 He made net worke, and wrythen worke, lyke chaynes, for the pommelles vpon the head peeces, that were on the toppe of the pyllers: euen seuen (rowes) vpon the one head peece, and seuen vpon the other.

18 And so he made the pyllers, and two rowes rowes of pomegranates rounde aboute in the one netwoꝛke to couer the pommels, that were vpon the top: and this he did also, foꝛ the other head peece.

19 And the pommels, that were on the top of the pyllers, were after Lillie woꝛke in the poꝛche foure cubites.

20 And the pommels vpon the two pyllers, hadde also aboue ouer againſt the middeſt within the netwoꝛke (pomegranates:) and vpon the ſeconde head peece, were there two hundꝛed pomegranates in two rowes rounde about.

D 21 And he ſet vp the pillers in the poꝛche of the temple: and when he had ſet vp the right pyller, he called the name thereof Jachin: and when he had ſet vp the left pyller, he called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And vpon the toppe of the pillers (was) Lillie woꝛke: and ſo was the woꝛkemanſhip of the pillers finiſhed.

23 And hee made a molten lauatoꝛie ten cubites wyde from bꝛim to bꝛim, rounde in compaſſe, and fiue cubites hygh: & a ſtring of thirtie cubites did compaſſe it about.

24 And vnder the bꝛimme of it there were knops round about, ten in one cubite: and they compaſſed the lauatoꝛie rounde about: and the knops were caſte with it in two rowes when it was caſt.

25 And it ſtode on twelue oxen, of whiche three loked towarde the Noꝛth, three towarde the Weſt, three towarde the South, and three towarde the Eaſt: and the lauatoꝛie ſtode vpon them, and all theyꝛ hinder partes were inwarde.

26 It was an hande bꝛeadth thicke, and the bꝛim was wꝛought lyke the bꝛim of a cup, with flowꝛes of Lillies, and it conteyned two thouſande battes.

E 27 And he made ten feete of bꝛaſſe, foure cubites long, and foure cubites bꝛoade a peece, and three cubites hygh.

28 And the woꝛke of the feete was on this maner: They had ſides, and the ſides were betweene the ledges.

29 And on the ſides, that were betweene the ledges, were Lions, Oxen, and Cherubs: and lykewiſe vpon the ledges, that were aboue: and beneath the Lions and Oxen, were certayne additions made of thinne woꝛke.

30 And vnder euery foote were foure bꝛaſen wheeles, and " bꝛoꝛdes of bꝛaſſe: and in the foure cozners thereof vnder the lauatoꝛie, were vnderſetters molten at the ſide of euery addition.

31 And the ſtalke of the lauatoꝛie was in the middle of it, and aboue one cubite: but the ſtalke therof was rounde after the woꝛke of the foote, a cubite and a halfe: and alſo vpon the ſtalke were grauings with theyꝛ bãdes, foure ſquare, and not rounde.

32 And vnder the ſides were foure wheeles, & the axeltrees ioyned faſte to the bottome, and the heygth of euery wheele, was a cubite and a halfe.

33 And the woꝛkemanſhyp of the wheeles was like the woꝛke of a charet wheele: and the axeltrees, the nauels, the ſpokes, & ſhafts were all molten.

34 And there were foure vnderſetters in the foure cozners of one foote, and the vnderſetters were of the very bottome it ſelfe.

35 And in the heygth of the bottome was there a rounde compaſſe of halfe a cubite hygh: and in that heygth of the bottome there pꝛoceeded bothe legges, and ſides out of the ſame.

36 Foꝛ in the boꝛdes of the legges, and on the ſides, he had grauen pictures of Cherubims, Lions, and palme trees, one by another rounde about.

37 Thus made he the tenne feete after this maner: and they had all one faſhion of caſting, one meaſure, and one ſize.

38 Then made he ten lauers of bꝛaſſe, one F lauer conteynyng fourtie bats: and euery lauer was foure cubites, and vpõ euery one of the ten feete, he put one lauer.

39 And he put fiue of thoſe feete on the right ſide of the houſe, and other fiue on the left: and he ſet the lauatoꝛie on the ryght ſide of the houſe Eaſtwarde, and towarde the South.

40 And Hiram made pottes, ſhouels: and baſons, and ſo finiſhed all the woꝛke that he made kyng Solomon foꝛ the houſe of the Loꝛde:

41 That is to ſay, two pillers, and two roũd head peeces, that were to be ſet on the tops of the two pillers:

42 And foure hundꝛed pomegranates foꝛ the G two netwoꝛkes, euen two rowes of pomegranates in one netwoꝛke to couer the two head peeces, that were to be ſet on the tops of the pyllers:

43 And the ten feete, and ten lauers on the feete:

44 The lauatoꝛie, & twelue oxen vnder it:

45 And pottes, ſhouels, and baſons: and all theſe veſſels, whiche Hiram made to kyng Solomon foꝛ the houſe of the Loꝛde, were of bꝛyght bꝛaſſe.

46 In the playne of Joꝛdane dyd the kyng caſt them (euen) in the thicke clay, betweene Socoh, and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon lefte all the veſſels (vnweighed) weighed) bycause they were so exceedyng many: neyther found they out the weyght of the brasse.

48 And so Solomon made all the vessels, that pertcyned vnto the house of the lozde, the golden aulter, and the golden table, whereon the shewe bread was:

49 And fiue candlestickes foz the right side, and fiue foz the left before the quyer, of pure gold, with flowzes, lampes, and snuffers of golde.

50 And bolles, flat peeces, basons, spones, and masours of pure golde: and hyndges made he of golde, both foz the dowzes of the quyer, the place moste holy, & foz the dowzes of the temple also.

2.Par.4.a. 51 And so was ended all the wowzke that kyng Solomon made foz the house of the Lozde: and Solomon bzought in the thyngs, whiche Dauid his father had dedicated, euen the syluer, golde, and vessels, and layde them vp among the treasures of the house of the Lozde.

4. The arke is borne into the temple. 10. A cloude filleth the temple. 15. The kyng blesseth the people.

A 1 THen Solomon gathered the elders of 2.Par.5.a. Israel, and all the heades of the tribes, and them that were captaynes among the fathers of the chyldzen of Israel, vnto him
2.Reg.6.d. in Hierusalem, that they might bzing vp the arke of the appoyntment of the Lozde out of the citie of Dauid, which is Sion.

2 And al the men of Israell assembled vnto kyng Solomon vnto the feast, that falleth in the moneth "Ethanim, which is the "September. seuenth moneth.

3 And all the elders of Israell were come, and the pziestes toke vp the arke.

4 And they bare the arke of the Lozde, the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels, that were in the tabernacle: those did the pziests and the Leuites beare.

5 And kyng Solomon, and al the congregation of Israell, that were assembled vnto him, and went with him before the arke, did offer sheepe and oxen, that could not be tolde, noz numbzed foz multitude.

6 And so the pziestes bzought the arke of the appoyntment of the Lozde vnto his place, euen into the quyer of the temple, and place moste holye, vnder the wyngs of the Cherubs:

B 7 Foz the Cherubs stretched out theyz Deut.10.a. wyngs ouer the place of the arke, and couered both it, and also the staues thereof on hygh vpon it.

8 And they dzewe out the staues, that the endes of them might appeare out of the holy place within the quyer: but they were not seene without: and there they haue bene vnto this day.

9 And there was nothyng in the arke (a) saue the two tables of stone, whiche Moses put there at Hozeb, in the whiche (tables) the Lozd made an appointment with the chyldzen of Israell, when he bzought them out of the lande of Egypt.

10 And it foztuned, that when the pziestes were come out of the holy place, the cloude filled the house of the Lozde, 11 That the pziestes coulde not stande and minister, bicause of the cloude: foz the glorie of the Lozde, had filled the house of the Lozde.

12 Then spake Solomon, The Lozd sayde, that he would dwell in the darke cloude.

13 I haue buylt thee an house to dwell in, an habitation foz thee, to abyde in fozeuer.

14 And the kyng turned his face, and blessed C all the congregation of Israell: and all the congregation of Israel stoode still.

15 And he sayde, Blessed be the Lozde God of Israel, whiche spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his 2.Par.
hande fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day, that I bzought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie of all the trybes of Israell to buylde an house, 2.Reg.
that my name might be therein: but I haue chosen Dauid to be ruler ouer my people of Israel.

17 And it was in the hart of Dauid my father, to buylde an house foz the name of the Lozde God of Israel:

18 And the Lozde sayde vnto Dauid my father, Whereas it was in thyne hart, to buylde an house vnto my name, thou dyddest well, that thou were so mynded:

19 Neuertheless, thou shalt not buylde the house: but thy sonne that shall come out of thy loynes, he shall buylde the house vnto my name.

20 And the Lozd hath made good his word, that he spake, and I am risen vp in the rowme of Dauid my father, and sit on the seate of Israel, as the Lozde promysed: and haue buylt an house foz the name of the Lozde God of Israell:

21 And I haue prepared therein a place foz D
the arke, wherein is the couenant of the Lozde, whiche he made with our fathers, when he bzought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 Solomon stoode before the aulter of the Lozde, in the sight of all the congregation of of Iſrael, and ſtretched out his handes towarde heauen, and ſayde, 23 Lorde God of Iſraell, there is no God lyke thee in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath: thou that keepeſt couenant and mercie for thy ſeruants, that walke before thee with all theyr hart.

24 Thou that haſte kept with thy ſeruaunt Dauid my father, that thou promiſedſt him: Thou ſpakeſt alſo with thy mouth, and haſte fulfilled it with thyne hande, as it is come to paſſe this day.

25 Therefore nowe, Lorde God of Iſraell, keepe with thy ſeruaunt Dauid my father, that thou promiſedſt him, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not be without a man in my ſight, to ſit on the ſeate of Iſrael: ſo that thy childrē take heede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou haſt walked in my ſight.

26 And now, O God of Iſrael, let thy worde be verified, which thou ſpakeſt vnto thy ſeruaunt Dauid my father.

27 Will God in deede dwell on the earth? Behold, the heauens and heauens of al heauens, are not able to conteyne thee: and howe ſhoulde then this houſe do it, that I haue buylded?

28 Haue thou therfore reſpect vnto the prayer of thy ſeruaunt, and to his ſupplication, O Lorde my God, to heare the crye and prayer, whiche thy ſeruaunt prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thyne eyes may be open towarde this houſe night and day, euen toward this place, of whiche thou haſte ſayde, My name ſhal be there: that thou mayſt hearken vnto the prayer, whiche thy ſeruaunt prayeth in this place,

30 And regarde thou the ſupplication of thy ſeruant, and of thy people Iſrael, when they pray in this place: and heare thou in heauen thy dwellyng place: and when thou heareſt, haue mercie.

31 If any man treſpaſſe againſt his neyghbour, and there goe an othe betweene them, and the one compel the other, & come, ſweareyng before thine aulter in this houſe:

32 Then hearken thou in heauen, and do, & iudge thy ſeruants, that thou condemne the vngodly, to bryng his way vpon his head: and iuſtifie the righteous, to giue him accordyng to his righteouſneſſe.

33 When thy people Iſraell be put to the worſe before the enimie, becauſe they ſhall haue ſinned againſt thee, and afterwarde turne againe to thee, and gyue knowledge vnto thy name, and pray, and make ſupplication vnto thee in this houſe:

34 Then heare thou in heauen, & be mercyfull vnto the ſinne of thy people Iſrael, and bryng them againe vnto the lande, whiche thou gaueſt vnto their fathers.

35 If heauen be ſhut vp, & there be no rayne, becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee: yet if they pray in this place, and giue knowledge vnto thy name, and turne from theyr ſinne, through thy ſcourgyng of them, 3.Reg.18.a.

36 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercyfull vnto the ſinnes of thy ſeruaunts, and of thy people Iſraell, that thou ſhewe them a good way to walke in, and gyue rayne vpon the lande, that thou haſte giuen to thy people to inherite.

37 If there be in the lande dearth, or peſtilence, drouth, blaſtyng, graſſehopper, or caterpiller: or if theyr enimie beſiege them in the lande of theyr cities, or whatſoeuer plague or ſickneſſe chaunce vnto them,

38 Then what prayers and ſupplications ſoeuer be made of any man, of al thy people Iſrael, whiche ſhall knowledge euery man the plague of his owne hart, and ſtretche forth his handes towarde this houſe: Eſai.56.c.

39 Heare thou then in heauen, euen in thy dwellyng place, and be mercyfull, and do, & giue euery man accordyng to his wayes, euen as thou, that onely knoweſt his harte (for thou onely knoweſt the harts of all the chyldren of men:)

40 That they may feare thee as long as they lyue in the lande, whiche thou gaueſt vnto our fathers.

41 And likewiſe if a ſtranger, that is not of thy people Iſrael, come out of a farre cōtrey for thy names ſake: Iohn.12.c.

42 (For they ſhall heare of thy great name, and of thy mightie hande, and of thy ſtretched out arme) and ſhall come, and pray in this houſe:

43 (Therfore) heare thou in heauē thy dwellyng place, and do al that the ſtranger calleth to thee for: that all nations of the earth may know thy name, and feare thee, as do thy people Iſraell: & that they may know, that thy name is called vpon in this houſe, whiche I haue buylded.

44 If thy people goe out to battell againſt theyr enimie, whyther ſo euer thou ſhalte ſende them, and ſhall pray vnto the Lorde, (towarde) the way of the citie whiche thou haſt choſen, and (towarde) the houſe that I haue buylt for thy name, Dan.6.c.

45 Heare thou in heauen theyr prayer, and ſupplication, * and iudge theyr cauſe.

46 If they ſinne againſt thee (for there is no man, that ſinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliuer them into the hande of their enimies, ſo that they carie them away away prysoners, vnto the land of theyr enimies, eyther farre or neare.

47 Yet if they turne againe vnto theyr harts in the land of them, that caryed them away captiues, and returne and pray vnto thee in the lande of theyr enimies, saying, We haue sinned, we haue done wickedly, and haue committed vngodlinesse:

48 And so turne agayne vnto thee with all theyr hart, and al theyr soule in the lande of theyr enimies, whiche led them away captiue, & pray vnto thee, (towarde) the way of theyr lande, which thou gauest vnto their fathers, and (towarde) the citie whiche thou hast chosen, and (towarde) the house, which I haue buylt for thy name:

Amos.9.d 49 Then heare thou theyr prayer and supplication in heauen thy dwelling place, and iudge theyr cause:

50 And be mercyfull vnto thy people, that haue sinned agaynst thee, and vnto al theyr iniquities, whereby they haue done wickedly agaynst thee, and get thou them the fauour of those, whiche ledde them away captiue, that they may haue compassion on them.

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of Egipt, euen frō the middest of the furnace of iron.

52 And let thine eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy seruant, and vnto the prayer of thy 1.Esd.1.d. people Israel, to hearken vnto them in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou diddest separate them from among all the nations of the earth to be thyne owne inheritance, as thou saydest by the hande of Moses thy seruant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O

55 And stoode, and blessed all the congregation of Israell with a loude voyce, saying,

56 Blessed be the Lord, that hath giuen rest vnto his people Israel, accordyng to al that he promised: there hath not failed one word
1.Reg.3.a. of all the good promise, whiche he promysed by the hande of Moses his seruaunt.

57 The Lorde our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, and forsake vs not, neyther leaue vs.

58 But that he may bowe our hartes vnto hym, that we may walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commaundements, his statutes, and his lawes, whiche he commaunded our fathers.

59 And these my wordes, whiche I haue prayed before the Lorde, be nyghe vnto the Lorde our God day and night, that he defend the cause of his seruaunt, and the cause of his people Israell, what thyng soeuer chaunce at any tyme:

60 That al nations of the earth may know, that the Lorde is God, and none but he.

61 Let your hart therefore be perfite with the Lorde our God, that yee walke in his statutes, and keepe his commaundements, as this day.

62 And the kyng, and all Israell with him, offered offerings before the Lorde.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace 2.Par.
offeryngs, whiche he offered vnto the Lorde (to wite) twentie and two thousande oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande sheepe: and so the kyng, and all the chyldren of Israell, dedicated the house of the Lorde.

64 The same day did the kyng halowe the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt offerings, meate offerings, & the fat of the peace offerings: bycause the brasen aulter, that was before the Lorde, was to little to receyue the burnt offerings, meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerynges.

65 And Solomon helde that same tyme an hygh feast, and all Israell with him, a very great congregation, euen from the entryng in of Hemath, vnto the ryuer of Egypt, be-

66 And the eygth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the kyng, and went vnto theyr tentes, ioyous, and with gladde harte, bycause of all the goodnesse, that the Lorde had done for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

The.ix.Chapter.

2. The Lorde appeareth the second tyme to Solomon. 11. Solomon giueth cities to Hiram. 20. The Chanaanites become tributaries. 26. He sendeth foorth shippes for golde.

1 AND when Solomon had finished the 2.Par.
buylding of the house of the Lorde, and the kyngs palace, and all that he had in his minde, and was appoynted to make:

2 The lord appeared to Solomon the secōd time, as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, I haue hearde thy prayer, and thy intercession, that thou hast made before me: for I haue ha-

lowed

lowed this house, whiche thou hast buylt to put my name there for euer: and mine eyes, and mine hart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, in pureneſſe of hart, and in ryghteouſneſſe, to doo all that I haue commaunded thee, and wilt keepe my ſtatutes, and my lawes:

5 Then will I ſtabliſhe the ſeate of thy kingdome vpō Iſrael for euer, as I promiſed to Dauid thy father, ſaying, Thou ſhalt not be without a mā vpō the ſeat of Iſrael.

6 But if ye, and your children turne away from me, and will not keepe my cōmaundements, and my ſtatutes, which I haue ſet before you, but goe and ſerue other goddes, and worſhip them:

7 Then will I weede Iſrael out of the lād, whiche I haue giuen them, and this house, whiche I haue halowed for my name, will I caſt out of my ſight, and Iſrael ſhal be a prouerbe, and a fable among all nations.

8 And this "house ſhal be taken away: ſo that euery one that paſſeth by it, ſhall be aſtonned, and ſhall hiſſe, and ſhal ſay, Why hath the Lorde done thus vnto this lande, and to this house?

9 And they ſhall anſweare, Becauſe they forſoke the Lorde their GOD, whiche brought their fathers out of the lande of Egypt, and haue taken holde vpon other goddes, and haue worſhipped them, and ſerued them: therefore hathe the Lorde brought vpon them all this euill.

10 And it fortuned, that at the end of twentie yeares, when Solomon had finiſhed the buyldyng of the two houſes, (that is to wyte) the house of the Lorde and the kings palace, 11 (And Hiram the kyng of Tyre brought Solomon timber of Cedar, and firre trees, and gold, and whatſoeuer he deſired) Then Solomon gaue Hiram twentie cities in the lande of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre, to ſee the cities, which Solomon had giuen him, and they pleaſed hym not.

13 And he ſayd, What cities are theſe whiche thou haſt gyuē me, my brother? And he called them the lande of barren vnto this day.

14 And Hiram ſent the kyng fire ſcore talents of golde.

15 (And this is the ſumme, which king Solomon rayſed for a tribute, when he buylded the house of the Lorde, and his owne houſe, and Millo, and the wal of Hieruſalem, and Hazor, and Megeddo, and Gazer.

16 For Pharao kyng of Egypt went vp, and toke Gazer, and burnt it with fire, and ſlue the Chanaanites, that dwelt in the citie, & gaue it for a preſent vnto his daughter, Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gazer, and Bethoron the neather,

18 And Baalath, and Thamar in the wilderneſſe in the lande:

19 And all the treaſure cities, that Solomon had, and cities for his charets, and cities for his horſemen, and all that Solomon deſired, and would buylde in Hieruſalem, in Libanon, and in all the lande of his dominion.

20 And all the people, that were left of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebuſites, whiche were not of the children of Iſrael, 21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the childre of Iſrael alſo were not able to deſtroy, thoſe did Solomon compel to bring tribute, vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Iſrael dyd Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of warre, his miniſters, his lordes, his captaynes and rulers of his charets, and his horſemen.

23 And theſe were the lordes that were ſet ouer Solomons worke, (euen) fiue hundred were they and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought the worke.

24 And Pharaoes daughter came vp out of the citie of Dauid vnto hyr house, whiche Solomon had buylt for hyr: and then did he alſo buylde Millo.

25 And thryſe a yeare dyd Solomon offer burnt offerynge, and peace offerynge vpon the aulter, whiche he buylt vnto the Lorde: and he burnt incenſe vpon the aulter, that was before the Lorde, and ſo he finiſhed the house.

26 And kyng Solomon made a nauie of ſhippes in Ezion Gaber, whiche is beſide Eloth, on the brynke of the redde ſea, in the lande of Edom.

27 And Hiram ſent by ſhippe alſo of his ſeruāts, that were ſhipmen, and had knowledge of the ſea, with the ſeruaunts of Solomon:

28 And they came to Ophir, & fet frō thence (2) fourt hundred and twentie talents of golde, and brought it to kyng Solomon.

2 And she came to Hierusalem with a very great traine, with Cammels, that bare swéete odours, and golde exceedyng much, and pretious stones: and she came to Solomon, and communed with him of al, that was in hyr hart.

3 And Solomon declared vnto hyr all hyr questions, so that there was not one thyng hid from the kyng, which he expounded not vnto hyr.

4 And the queene of Saba considered all Solomons wisedome, and the house that he had buylded,

5 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruants, the order of his ministers, and theyr apparell, and his drynke, and his burnt sacrifices, that he offered in the house of the Lorde: and she was astonned.

6 And she said vnto the king, It was a true woorde, that I heard in mine owne land of thy sayings and of thy wysedome.

7 Howbeit I beleeued it not, till I came and sawe it with myne eyes: and beholde, the one halfe was not tolde me, for thy wisedome & prosperitie exceedeth the fame whiche I heard of thee.

8 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy seruants, whiche stande euer before thee, and heare thy wisedome.

9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which loueth thee, to set thee on the state of Israell: (a) bycause the Lord loued Israell for euer, and made thee kyng to (b) do equitie and righteousnesse.

a. God loueth that people to whom he giueth a wyse ruler.
b. The office of a kyng.

10 And she gaue the kyng fyue score talents of golde, and of swéete odours exceedyng muche, and pretious stones: there came no more suche abundaunce of swéete odours, as the queene of Saba gaue to kyng Solomon.

3. Reg. 9. c. 11 The nauie also of the shippes of Hiram that carryed golde from Ophir) brought likewise great plentie of Almuge trees, and precious stones from Ophir.

12 And the king made of the Almuge trees, pyllers for the house of the Lorde, and for the kyngs palace, and made harpes and psalteries for singers: there came no moe suche Almuge trees, nor were any more seene vnto this day.

13 And king Solomon gaue vnto the queene of Saba, according to all hyr desires, what soeuer she asked, besides that, he gaue hyr of a free wyll with his owne hande: and so she returned vnto hyr owne countrey, both she and hyr seruants.

C 14 The weyght of golde that came to Solomon in one yeare, was fyue hundred three score and fyue talents of golde, 15 Besides that he had of marchants, and of the marchandise of the spyces, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the lordes of the countrey.

16 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: fyue hundred sicles of golde went to a target.

17 And he made three hundred shieldes of beaten golde: three pounde of golde went to one shielde, and the king put them in the house of the wood of Libanon. 3. Reg.

18 And the kyng made a great seat of Iuorie, and couered it with the best golde, 19 And the seate had fyue steppes, and the top of the seate was rounde behinde, and there were pommels on eyther side of the place of the seate, and two Lions stode beside the pommels.

20 And there stode twelue Lions on the steppes, fyue on a side: there was no lyke woorke seene in any kingdome.

21 And all kyng Solomons drynking vessels were of golde, & likewise all the vessels of the house of the wood of Libanon were of pure golde: and as for siluer, it was nothyng woorth in the dayes of Solomon: D Deu.

22 For the kyngs naule of shippes went on the sea vnto Tharsis with the naule of Hirams shippes: euen once in three yeares came the naule to Tharsis, and brought golde and siluer, and Elephants teeth, and Apes, and Pecockes.

23 And so kyng Solomon exceeded all the kyngs of the earth, bothe in ryches and in wysedome. 2. Par.

24 And al the woorld resorted to Solomon, to heare his wysedome which God had put in his hart:

25 And brought him euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, rayment, harnesse, and swéete odours, and horses, and mules, yeare by yeare.

26 And Solomon gathered together charets and horsemen: and he had a thousand and foure hundred charettes, and twelue thousande horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the kyng at Hierusalem.

27 And the kyng made siluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar as plenteous, as the wild figge trees, that grow abundantly in the fieldes. 2. Par.

28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kings marchãts receyued the linnen for a price.

29 A charet came vp out of Egypt for fyue hundred sicles of siluer, that is, one horse for for an hundred and fiftie: And euen so for all the kinges of the Hethites, and for all the kinges of Syria dyd they bryng them out through their handes.

The.xi. Chapter.

1. Solomon hath a thousande wyues and concubines, whiche bryng hym to idolatrie. 14. His God rayseth vp aduersaries agaynst him. 43. He dyeth.

1 BVt king Solomon loued manie outlandishe women, and the daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonites, and Hethites.

2 Where as yet concerning these nations, the Lorde sayde vnto the chyldren of Israell, Goe not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you, els wyll they turne your hearts after their gods: Neuertheless, Solomon claue vnto them in loue.

3 (a) And he had seuen hundred queenes, and three hundred concubines: and his wyues turned away his hart.

4 For it came to passe when Solomon was olde, his wyues turned his harte after other goddes: and his harte was not perfect with the Lorde his God, as was the hart of Dauid hys father.

5 For Solomon followed Astaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Milcom the abhomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon wrought wickednesse in ỹ sight of the Lord, and folowed not the Lord perfitely, as did Dauid his father.

7 For then did Solomon build an high place for Chamos the abhomination of Moab, in the hyll that is before Hierusalem, and vnto Moloch the abhomination of the children of Ammon.

8 (b) And likewise dyd he for all his outlandishe wiues, whiche burnt incense, and offered vnto their goddes.

9 And the Lord was angry with Solomon, bycause his hart was turned from the Lorde God of Israell, whiche had appeared vnto him twyce,

10 And had gyuen him a charge concerning this thing, that he shoulde not folowe other goddes: but he kept not that which the Lord commaunded him.

11 Wherfore the Lord sayd vnto Solomon, Forasmuche as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kepte myne appoyntment, and my statutes, which I commaunded thee, I wyll rent the kingdome from thee, and will gyue it to thy seruant.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy dayes I wil not do it, bicause of Dauid thy father: but will take it from the hande of thy sonne.

13 Howbeit, I wyll not take awaye all the kyngdome: but wyll gyue one (c) tribe to thy sonne, bicause of Dauid my seruaunte, and bicause of Hierusalem, whiche I haue chosen.

c. Bicause the tribes of Iuda and Beniamin had their possessiõs mixed, they are heere taken as one tribe.

14 And the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kings seede, which was in Edom.

15 For when Dauid was in Edom, and Ioab the captayne of the hoste was gone vp to burie them that were slayne, he smote all the men childzen in Edom: C

16 (For sixe monethes dyd Ioab remayne there, and all Israel, tyll he had destroyed all the men childzen of Edom.)

17 And this Hadad fledde, and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to come into Egypt, Hadad being yet a litle childe.

18 And they arose out of Madian, and came to Paran, and toke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypte vnto Pharao kyng of Egypte, whiche gaue him an house, and appoynted hym vittayles, and gaue him lande.

19 And Hadad gate great fauour in the sight of Pharao, so that he gaue him to wyfe the syster of hys owne wyfe, euen the syster of Thaphpenes the queene.

20 And the syster of Thaphpenes bare hym Genubath his sonne, whome Thaphpenes nourished in Pharaoes house: and Genubath was with Pharaoes household among the sonnes of Pharao.

21 And when Hadad hearde in Egypt, that D Dauid was layde to sleepe with hys fathers, and that Ioab the captayne of the host was dead also, he sayde to Pharao, Let mee departe, that I may goe to myne owne country.

22 Pharao sayde vnto him, What hast thou lacked heere with mee, that thou wouldest thus goe to thyne owne countrey? He answered, Nothing: Howbeit, let me goe.

23 And God stirred hym vp another aduersarie, one Rezon, the sonne of Eliada, which fledde from his lorde Hadad-ezer kyng of Zoba.

24 And he gathered men vnto him, and became captaine ouer the company, when Dauid slue them: and they went to Damasco, and dwelte there, and raygned in Damasco.

25 Therefore was he an aduersarie to Israel all the dayes of Solomon, and this was the mischiefe, in that Hadad did abhorre Israel, and raygned ouer Syria.

26 And Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, an Ephzathite of Zareda, (whose mother was called Zeruah, whiche was a widowe) and he Solomons seruant, lyfted vp his hand agaynst the king.

27 But this was the cause, that hee lyfted vp his hande against the king: Solomon built Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

ℵ 28 And this fellowe Jeroboam was a man of strengthe and courage: And Solomon seing the yong man, that he was able to dow the worke, made him ruler ouer al ỹ charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it chaunced at that season, that Jeroboam went out of Hierusalem, and the prophet Ahia the Silonite met him by the way, hauing a new mantel on him, and they two were alone in the fielde.

30 Ahia caught the newe mantel, that was on him, and rent it in twelue peeces, 31 And sayde to Jeroboam, Take thee tenne peeces: for thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdome out of the handes of Solomon, and wyll giue ten tribes to thee.

2.Par.7.c. 32 And hee shall haue one for my seruaunte Dauids sake, and for Hierusalem, the citie, whiche I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:

33 Bicause they haue forsaken mee, and haue worshipped Astaroth the god of the Zidonians, & Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, my statutes, & my lawes, as did Dauid his father.

ℶ 34 I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hande: but I will make him chiefe al his life long, for Dauid my seruantes sake, whome I chose: bicause hee kept my commaundements, and my statutes.

3.Re.20.c. Psal.132.b. 35 But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will giue it vnto thee, euen tenne tribes of it.

36 And vnto hys sonne wyll I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruaunte may haue a lyght alway before mee in Hierusalem, the citie, whiche I haue chosen mee to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, & thou shalt raygne according to all that thy soule desireth, and shalt be king ouer Israel.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I commaunde thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and dow that is ryght in my sighte, that thou keepe my statutes and my commandements, as Dauid my seruante did, then will I bee with thee, and buylde thee a sure house, as I buylt for my seruant Dauid, and wil giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I will for this (offence whiche Solomon hath committed) vexe the seede of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam, and Jeroboam arose, and fledde into Egypt, vnto Sisac king of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt, vntill the deathe of Solomon.

41 The rest of the wordes that concerne Solomon, and all that hee dyd, and his wisdome, are they not written in the booke of the wordes of Solomon? ℸ

42 The time that Solomon raigned in Hierusalem vpon all Israel, was fourtie yeeres.

43 And Solomon slepte with hys fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his sonne raygned in his steede.

The.xij.Chapter.

1. Rehoboam succeedeth Solomon. 8. He refuseth the counsell of the auncient. 20. Ieroboam raygneth ouer Israel. 21. God commandeth Rehoboam not to fyght. 28. Ieroboam maketh golden calues.

1 AND Rehoboam went to Sichem: for al Israel was come to Sichem, to make him king. 1.Par.10.a.

2 And when Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche was yet in Egypt, heard of it: (for he fled into Egypt from the presence of king Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt: 2.Par.10.b.

3 So they sent and called him) and Jeroboam, and al the congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying:

4 Thy father made our yoke greeuous, nowe therefore make thou the greeuous seruice of thy father, and his sore yoke, whiche he put vppon vs, lyghter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he sayde vnto them, Depart yet for the space of three dayes, and then come againe to mee. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam toke counsell with the olde men that stode before Solomon his father, whyle he yet lyued, and sayde, What counsell giue yee, that I may haue matter to answere this people?

7 And they sayde vnto him, (a) If thou be a seruant vnto this people this day, and folow their mindes, and answere them, and speake kinde wordes to them, they will be thy seruantes for euer. a. Or, wilt

8 But hee forsoke the counsell that the olde men hadde giuen him, and called vnto hys counsell, young men, that were growen vp vp with him, and wayted on him.

9 And hee sayde vnto them, What counsell giue yee, that we maye answere this people? for they haue communed with mee, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put vpon vs, lyghter.

10 (b) And the yong men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speake vnto this people, that haue sayde vnto thee, Thy father made our yoke heauy, but make thou it vs lyghter: Euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My little finger shall bee weyghtier than my father was in the loynes.

11 And nowe whereas my father dyd lade you, and put a greeuous yoke vppon you, I wyl make it heauyer: my father hath chastised you with roddes, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 And so Jeroboam, and al the people, came to Rehoboam the thirde daye, as the kyng had appoynted, saying, Come to me agayne the thirde day.

13 And the kyng answered the people churlishly, and left the old mens counsel that they gaue him:

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke greeuous, and I wyll make it more greenous: My father also chastyled you with roddes, but I wyll chastise you with scourges.

15 And the king harkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinance of God, that he might perfourme his saying, which the Lord spake by Ahia the Silonite, vnto Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat.

16 And so when all Israel saw, that the king regarded them not, the people aunsweared the kyng with these wordes, saying, What portion haue wee in Dauid? wee haue no inheritance in the sonne of Isai: To your tentes, O Israel, nowe see to thyne owne house Dauid. And so Israel departed vnto their tentes.

17 Howebeeit, ouer the chyldren of Israell, whiche dwelt in the cities of Juda, did Rehoboam raygne still.

18 The kyng Rehoboam sente Aduram the receyuer of the tribute, and al they of Israell stoned him to death: But king Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, and to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And they of Israel rebelled agaynste the house of Dauid vnto this day.

20 And when all Israel hearde, that Jeroboam was come agayne, they sent, and called hym vnto the multitude, and made hym kyng ouer all Israell: and there was no tribe, that followed the house of Dauid, but Juda onely.

21 And when Rehoboam was comme to Hierusalem, hee gathered all the house of Juda, with ỹ tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and fourescore thousande of those men, which were good warryers, to fight agaynst the house of Israell, and to bryng the kingdome agayne to Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon. 1. Par. 11. a. D

22 And the worde of God came vnto Semaia, the (c) man of God, saying, c. The prophete of God.

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon king of Juda, and vnto all the house of Juda, and Beniamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus sayeth the Lorde, Yee shall not goe vp, nor yet fighte agaynste your brethren the children of Israel: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is my doing. They harkened therefore to the worde of the Lorde, and returned to departe, according to the worde of the Lorde. Judg. 8. d.

25 Then Jeroboam built Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therin: and went from thence, and buylt Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam thought in hys hearte, Nowe shall the kyngdome returne to the house of Dauid.

27 (d) For if this people go vp, and do sacrifice in the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, then shall the hearte of this people turne againe vnto their Lorde Rehoboam king of Juda, and so shall they kill mee, and goe agayne to Rehoboam king of Juda. d. Worldly policie against Gods woorde.

28 Whereupon the kyng toke counsell, and made two calues of golde, and sayde vnto them, It is muche for you to goe vp to Hierusalem: Beholde, O Israel, these are thy goddes, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt. E Tob. 1. a. Eccle. 47. d. Exo. 32. d. Exo. 32. a.

29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to synne: for the people went (because of the one) as farre as Dan.

31 And he made an house of hill aulters, and made priestes of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leui.

32 And Jeroboam made a feaste, the fiftienth daye of the eyght moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Juda, and offered on the aulter: and so dyd hee in Bethel, to offer vnto the calues that he had made: and he put in Bethel the priestes of the hit aulters, whiche hee had made. Num. 3. a. 3. Re. 17. g.

33 And he went vp to the aulter, to burne incense, whiche he hadde made in Bethel in the fyftienth daye of the eygth moneth, euen in the moneth which he had imagined of his owne hart: and made a solemne feaste vnto the children of Israel, and offered vppon the aulter, and burnt incense.

The. xiij. Chapter.

1. Ieroboam is reprehended of the prophete. 4. His hand is dryed vp. 15. The prophet is seduced. 24. and is kylled of a Lion. 33. The obstinacie of Ieroboam.

2 And hee cryed agaynste the aulter in the worde of the Lorde, and sayde, O aulter, aulter, thus sayeth the Lorde, Beholde, a childe shall be borne vnto the house of Dauid, Josia by name: and vpon thee shall he offer the priestes of the hill aulters, that burnt incense vpon thee, and mens bones shall bee burnt vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a token the same time, saying, This is the token that the Lorde hath spoken it: Beholde, the aulter shal rent, and the asshes that are vpon it shall fall out.

4 And when the kyng hearde the saying of the man of God, whiche had cryed agaynste the aulter in Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the aulter, saying, Holde him: and his hande, whiche he put forth agaynst him, dryed vp, and he coulde not pull it in agayne to him.

5 The aulter also claue a sunder, and the asshes fel out from the aulter, according to the token, whiche the man of God had giuen by the worde of the Lorde.

Ephe. 8. b. Num. 21. b. Actes. 8. c.

6 And the king answered, and sayde vnto the man of God, Oh, pray vnto the Lorde thy God, and make intercession for mee, that my hande may be restored to mee agayne. And the man of God besought the Lord, and the kinges hande was restored agayne, and became as it was before.

B 7 And the king sayde vnto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayst dine, and I will giue thee a rewarde.

8 And the man of God sayd vnto the king, If thou wouldest giue mee halfe thyne house, I wil not goe in with thee, neither wil I eate breade, nor drinke water in this place.

9 For so was it charged mee throughe the worde of the Lorde, saying, Eate no breade, nor drinke water, nor turne agayne by the same way, that thou camest.

10 And so he went another way, and returned not by the way, that he came to Bethel.

11 And there dwelt an olde prophete in Bethel, and his sonnes came and tolde hym all the workes that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, and the wordes whiche he had spoken vnto the king, tolde they their father also.

12 And their father sayde vnto them, What way went he? And his sonnes shewed hym what waye the man of God went, whiche came from Juda.

13 And he sayde vnto his sonnes, Saddle mee the Asse. Whiche when they had sadled, he gate him vp thereon.

14 And went after the men of God, & founde him sitting vnder a tree, and hee sayde vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Juda? And he sayde, I am.

15 He sayde vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread.

16 Hee answered, I may not returne with thee, to goe in with thee: neyther wyll I eate bread, nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was sayde to me in the word of the Lorde, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne agayne to goe by the way that thou camest.

18 He sayde vnto him, I am a prophete also as well as thou, and an angel spake vnto me in the worde of the Lorde, saying, Bring him agayne with thee into thyne house, that he may eate bread, and drinke water. (And) he lyed vnto him.

19 And so he went agayne with him, and dyd eate bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And it fortuned, that as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lorde came vnto the prophete that brought him agayne:

21 And hee cryed vnto the man of God, that came from Juda, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Bicause thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lord, and hast not kept the commandement, whiche the Lorde thy God commaunded thee:

22 But camest backe agayne, and hast eaten bread, and dronke water in the place, concerning the which the Lorde did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke no water, thy carkasse shall not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And so it came to passe, that when hee had eaten bread, and dronken, hee sadled him the Asse, to witte, to the prophete, whome he had brought agayne.

24 And when he was gone, (b) a Lion mette him by the waye, and slue him, and his carkas was cast in the way, and the Asse stode therby, and the Lion stode by the corse also.

25 And men that passed by, sawe the carkasse cast in the waye, and the Lion standing by the the carkasse: and they came and told it in the towne, where the old prophete dwelt.

26 And when the prophete that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, he sayde, It is the man of God: He was disobedient vnto the worde of the Lorde, and therefore the Lorde hath deliuered him vnto the Lion, whiche hath rente him, and slayne him, according to the worde of the Lorde, which he spake vnto him.

27 And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Saddle me an asse. And they sadled him.

28 And he went, and founde his body cast in the way, and the Asse and the Lion stode by the corse, and the Lion had not eaten the carkasse, nor hurt the Asse.

29 And the prophete toke vp the bodie of the man of God, and layde it vpon the Asse, and brought it againe: and the old prophet came to the citie to lament, and to burie him.

30 And he layde his body in his owne graue, and then lamented ouer him, (saying) Alas my brother.

31 And when he had buryed him, hee spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am deade, see that yee burie mee in the sepulchre, wherein the man of God is buried, lay my bones beside his bones.

32 For the saying whiche hee cryed at the worde of the Lorde agaynste the aulter in Bethell, and against all the houses of hyghe places, whiche are in the cities of Samaria, shall come to passe.

33 Howbeit, for al that, Ieroboam conuerted not from his wicked way: but turned backe, and made of the lowest of the people priestes of the hygh places: and who so pleased him, he filled his hande, and he became priestе of the hygh places, 34 And this thing turned to sinne vnto the house of Ieroboam, euen to destroy him, and to bryng him to nought, from off the face of the earth.

The.xiiij.Chapter.

1. Ieroboam sendeth hys wyfe disguysed to Ahia the prophete, who declareth vnto hym the destruction of his house. 25. Iuda is punished by Sisac.

1 AT that tyme Abia the sonne of Ieroboam fell sicke.

2 And Ieroboam sayde vnto his wyfe, Up, I pray thee, and disguyse thy selfe, that thou be not knowen to be the wife of Ieroboam, and gette thee to Silo, for there is Ahia the prophete, which tolde mee, that I shoulde be king ouer this people.

3 And take with thee tenne loaues, and crackenelles, and a cruse of honye, and go to him, that hee may tell thee, what shall become of the childe.

4 And Ieroboams wife did so, and arose, and went to Silo, and came to the house of Ahia: but Ahia could not see, for his eyes were waxen dymme for age.

5 And the Lorde sayde vnto Ahia, Beholde the wyfe of Ieroboam commeth to aske a thing of thee for hir sonne, for he is sicke: but thus and thus shalt thou saye vnto hir. And when she came in, she faygned hir selfe to be another woman.

6 But when Ahia heard the sound of hir feete, as she came in at the dore, he sayde, Come in thou wyfe of Ieroboam, why faygnest thou thy selfe so to bee another? I am sent to thee (to shewe thee) heauy things.

8 I dyd rente the kyngdome awaye from the house of Dauid, and gaue it thee: Neuertheless, thou hast not beene as my seruaunt Dauid, whiche kept my commaundementes, and followed mee with all hys harte, to dw that onely, whiche was ryght in myne eyes:

9 But hast donne euill aboue all that were before thee: For thou hast gone, and made thee other goddes, and moulten images, to prouoke mee, and hast caste mee behinde thy backe.

10 Therefore beholde, I wyll bryng euyll vpon the house of Ieroboam, and wyll rote out from Ieroboam euen him, that pysseth agaynste the wall, and him that is in pryson and forsaken in Israel, and wyll take away the remnant of the house of Ieroboam, as a man taketh away dung, tyl he hath caryed out all. 1.Re.15.d.

11 Whosoeuer of Ieroboams house dye in the towne, him shall the dogges eate: and him that dyeth in the fielde, shall the foules of the ayre eate: for the Lorde hath sayde it. 3.Reg.16.

12 Up therefore, and get thee to thyne owne house: (Beholde) when thy foote entreth into the citie, the childe shall dye.

13 And al they of Israel shal mourne for him, and burie him: for he onely of Ieroboam shall come to the sepulchre, bycause in him there is found gwdnesse towarde the Lorde God of Israel, in the house of Ieroboam.

14 Moreouer, the Lorde shall stirre him vp a kyng ouer Israel, whiche shall destroye the house of Ieroboam in that day: But what is it nowe? C

15 For the Lord shal smite Israel, as when a reade is shaken in the water, & he shall weede Israel out of this good lande, which he gaue to their fathers, & shall scatter them beyonde [a] the ryuer, bicause they haue made them groues, and angred the Lorde.

[a] or, Euphrates.

16 And he shall giue Israel vp, bicause of the sinnes of Ieroboam, whiche dyd sinne, and made Israel to sinne.

17 And Ieroboams wife arose, and departed, and came to Thirza: and when shee came to the thresholde of the doore, the childe was deade.

18 And all Israel buryed him, and lamented him, according to the worde of the Lorde, whiche he spake by the hande of his seruant Ahia the prophete.

19 And the reste of the wordes that concerne Ieroboam, howe hee warred, and howe he raygned, beholde, they are wrytten in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 And the dayes which Ieroboam raigned, were two and twentie yeeres: And when he was layde aslepe with his fathers, Nadab his sonne raygned in his steede.

D 21 Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon raygned in Iuda: and Rehoboam was fourtie and one yeeres olde, when hee beganne to raygne, and hee raygned seuentie yeeres in Hierusalem, the citie whiche the Lorde dyd chose out of al the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: His mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite.

22 And Iuda wrought wyckednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and angred him in moe things, than their fathers did in their sinnes, whiche they sinned.

23 For they also made them high places, images, and groues on euery high hil, and vnder [a] euery thicke tree.

[a] or, greene.

24 And there was a stewes of male chyldren in the lande, and they dyd according to all the abhominations of the nations, whiche the Lorde caste out before the chyldren of Israel.

25 And it fortuned, that in the fifth yeere of king Rehoboam, Sisac king of Egypt came vp against Hierusalem:

26 And toke awaye the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kynges house, and spoyled all that was to be hadde: And he toke away all the shieldes of golde, which Solomon had made.

27 In whose steede kyng Rehoboam made brasen shields, and committed them vnto the handes (of the keeping) of the captaynes of the garde, whiche wayted at the doore of the kings house.

28 And when the kyng went into the house of the Lorde, they of the garde bare them, and broughte them agayne into the garde chamber.

29 The rest of the wordes that concerne Rehoboam, and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten (a) in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

30 And there was warre betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam all their lyues.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buryed beside his fathers in the citie of Dauid: his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite. And Abiam his sonne raygned in his steede.

The. xv. Chapter.

1. Abiam raygneth ouer Iuda. 9. Asa succeedeth in his roome. 16. The battell betweene Asa and Baasa. 24. Iehosaphat succeedeth Asa. 25. Nadab succeedeth Ieroboam. 28. Baasa killeth Nabath.

1 IN the eyghtienth yeere of kyng Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, raygned Abiam ouer Iuda.

2 Three yeeres raygned hee in Hierusalem, and hys mothers name was Maacha, the daughter of (a) Abisalom.

3 And he walked in all ý sinnes of his father, whiche he had donne before him, and hys hart was not perfite with the Lord his God, as the hart of Dauid his father.

4 Neuertheless, for Dauids sake dyd the Lorde his God giue him (b) a light in Hierusalem, that he sette vp his sonne after him, and stablished Hierusalem:

5 Bicause Dauid did that which was right in the sight of the Lorde, and turned from nothing that hee commaunded hym all the dayes of his lyfe, saue onely in the matter of Urias the Hethite.

6 And there was warre betwene Rehoboam and Ieroboam, as long as he lyued.

7 The rest of the wordes that concerne Abiam, & and all that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iuda? and there was warre betweene Abiam and Ieroboam.

8 And Abiam slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: and Asa his sonne raygned in his steede.

9 In the twentieth yeere of Ieroboam kyng of Israel, raygned Asa ouer Iuda.

10 Fourtie and one yeres raygned he in Hierusalem: and his mothers (c) name was Maacha, the daughter of Abisalom.

11 And Asa did (that seemed) right in the eyes of the Lorde, as did Dauid his father.

12 And

12 And he toke away the male stewes out of the lande, and put away all abhominable ydols, that his father had made.

13 (d) And he put downe Maacha his mother from bearing rule, bicause she had made an idol in a grone: and Asa destroyed hir idol, and burnt it by the broke Cedron.

14 But the hygh places were not put downe, (e) neuertheless Asaes hart was perfite with the Lorde all his dayes.

15 He brought in the holye vessels of hys father, and that hee had dedicate vnto the house of the Lorde, golde, and siluer, and iewels.

16 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasa king of Israel all their dayes.

17 And Baasa king of Israel wēt vp against Juda, and buylte Rama, so that he woulde let none go out or in to Asa king of Juda.

18 Then Asa toke all the syluer and golde that was lefte in the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kynges house, and deliuered them into the handes of his seruauntes, and kyng Asa sente them to Benhadad the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion king of Syria, that dwelt at Damasco, saying,

19 There is a bond betwene me and thee, betweene my father and thy father: and behold I haue sent vnto thee a present of syluer and golde, that thou come and breake the bonde, that thou haste with Baasa king of Israel, that he may depart from mee.

20 So Benhadad hearkened vnto king Asa, and sente the captaines of the hostes, whiche he had, agaynst the cities of Israel, and smote Hion, and Dan, and Abel, Beth, Maacah, and all (the region of) Ceneroth, with al the lande of Nepthali.

21 And when Baasa heard therof, he left building of Rama, and dwelt in Thirza.

22 Then kyng Asa " made a proclamation throughout al Juda, that none should be excused: And so they toke the stones of Ramah, and the tymber wherewith Baasa had buylded, and king Asa buylte with them the hyll of Beniamin and Mispah.

23 The remnant of all the wordes that concerne Asa, and all his myght, and all that he did, and the cities which he buylded, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda? Neuertheless, in his old age he was diseased in his feete.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buryed beside his fathers, in the citie of Dauid his father: & Ioshophat his sonne raigned in his steede.

25 And Nadab the sonne of Jeroboam beganne to raygne vpon Israell the seconde yeere of Asa king of Juda, and raigned vpon Israel two yeeres.

26 And he did euyll in the sight of the Lorde, walking in the way of his father, and in his sinne, wherwith he made Israel to sinne.

27 And Baasa the sonne of Ahia, whiche was of the house of Issachar, conspired agaynst him, and Baasa smote hym at Gibbethon, whiche is a citie of the Philistines, (for Nadab, and all Israell layde syege to Gibbethon.)

28 Euen in the third yeere of Asa king of Juda, dyd Baasa slay him, and raygned in hys steede.

29 And it fortuned, that when hee was kyng, he smote all the house of Jeroboam, and hee left him nought that breathed, vntyll he had put him cleane out, according vnto the saying of the Lorde, whiche he spake by his seruant Ahia the Selonite: 3. Re. 14. 8.

30 Bicause of the sinnes of Jeroboam, wherwith hee sinned, and made Israel to sinne, when hee with his prouocation angred the Lord God of Israel. E

31 The rest of the wordes that concerne Nadab, and all that he dyd, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasa king of Israel all their dayes.

33 So in the thirde yeere of Asa king of Juda, beganne Baasa the sonne of Ahia to raigne ouer all Israel in Thirza, twentye and foure yeeres.

34 And hee dyd that whiche is euyll in the sight of the Lorde, walking in the waye of Jeroboam, and in his sinne, wherewith he made Israel to sinne.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1. Of Baasa. 6. Ela. 9. Zimri. 31. Achab maryeth Iezabell. 34. Iericho is buylte agayne.

1 THen the word of the Lord came to Jehu the sonne of Hanani, agaynst Baasa, saying, A

2 Forasmuche as I exalted thee oute of the dust, and made thee captayne ouer my people Israel, and thou haste walked in the way of Jeroboam, and haste made my people Israel to synne, to anger mee with theyr sinnes:

3 Beholde, I will rote out the posteritie of Baasa, and the posteritie of his house: and wyll make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat.

4 That manne of Baasa, whyche dyeth in the cytie, hym shall the dogges eate: and that manne of hym, whiche dyeth in the 3. Re. 14. 11.

feeldes, shall the foules of the ayre eate.

5 The rest of the wordes that concerne Baasa, and what he dyd, and his power, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 And so Baasa slept with his fathers, and was buryed in Thirza, and Ela his sonne raygned in his steede.

B 7 And by the hande of the prophete Jehu the sonne of Hanani, came the word of the Lord agaynst Baasa, and agaynste his house, and agaynste all the wickednesse that hee dyd in the sight of the Lorde, in angring him with the worke of his owne hands, that he should be like the house of Jeroboam, and bicause he (a) killed him.

a. Meaning Nadab Ieroboams sonne.

8 The fyre and twentieth yeere of Asa king of Juda, began Ela the sonne of Baasa to raigne ouer Israel in Thirza, two yeeres.

9 And his seruante Zimri (which was captaine of halfe his charets) conspired againste him, as he was in Thirza drinking, and was drunken in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Thirza.

10 And Zimri came, and smote him, and kylled hym, in the seuen and twentieth yeere of Asa king of Juda, and raygned in his steede.

Exo. 21. b. 11 And it fortuned, that when hee was kyng, and sate on his seate, hee slue all the house of Baasa, not leaving thereof one to pysse agaynst a wall: Yea, hee slue his kinsfolkes, and freendes also.

12 And thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasa, according to the worde of the Lorde, which he spake against Baasa by the hande of Jehu the prophete.

13 For all the sinnes of Baasa, and sinnes of Ela his sonne, whiche they sinned, and made Israel to sinne, and to anger the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

C 14 The reste of the wordes that concerne Ela, and all that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the boke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the seuen and twentieth yeere of Asa kyng of Juda, dyd Zimri raygne seuen dayes in Thirza: and the people was then in the host besieging Gibbethon, a citie of the Philistines.

16 And the people in the host heard (one) say, Zimri hath conspired and slayne the king: Wherefore all they of Israell made Amri, the captayne of ỹ host, king ouer Israel that same day, euen in the host.

17 And Amri departed vp from Gibbethon, and all Israell with him, and they besieged Thirza.

18 And when Zimri saw, that the citie must needes bee taken, hee went into the palace of b the kings house, (b) and burnt himselfe, and the kings house with fire, and so dyed, 19 For his sinnes whiche he sinned, in doing that, which is euyll in the sight of the Lord, and in walking in the waye of Jeroboam, and in his sinnes which he did, and in that he made Israel to sinne.

20 The reste of the wordes that concerne Zimri, and the treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israell dyuided D into two partes: for halfe the people followed Thibni the sonne of Einath, making hym kyng: and the other halfe followed Amri.

22 But the people that folowed Amri, preuayled agaynste the people, that folowed Thibni the sonne of Einath: And so Thibni dyed, and Amri raygned.

23 In the one and thirtieth yeere of Asa king of Juda, beganne Amri to raygne ouer Israel twelue yeeres: fyue yeeres raygned he in Thirza.

24 Hee bought the hill " Schomron of one "as Schemar, for two talentes of siluer, and buylte in the hill, and called the name of the citie which he buylt, after the name of Schemar, whiche hadde beene owner of the hyll Schomron.

25 But Amri wrought that whiche is euil in the eyes of the Lorde, and did worse than al that were before him.

26 For he walked in al the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and in his synnes that made Israell to synne, to anger the Lorde God of Israel with their vanities.

27 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amri, and all that he did, and his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the boke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 And so Amri slepte with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, and Ahab his sonne raigned in his steede.

29 And in the eyghte and thyrtieth yeere of Asa kyng of Juda, beganne Ahab the sonne of Amri to raygne ouer Israell, and the same Ahab the sonne of Amri raygned ouer Israel in Samaria, twentie and two yeeres.

30 And Ahab the sonne of Amri did euyll in the sight of the Lorde, aboue all that were before him.

31 For (c) it seemed vnto him, but a lyghte c. Some it interpret vnely. thyng, to walke in the synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat: hee toke Iesabel also the daughter of Ethbaal kyng of the Sydonites to wife, and went and serued 4. Kin.

Baal

Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared vp an aulter for Baal, in the temple of Baal, whiche he hadde builded in Sethomron:

33 And Ahab made a groaue, and proceeded further in angring the Lorde God of Israell, than all the kings of Israell, that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel of Bethel buylde Iericho: he layde the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his yongest sonne Segub, according vnto the worde of the Lord, whiche he spake by Iosua the sonne of Nun.

The.xvij. Chapter.

1. Elias forewarneth of the famine to come. 4. He is fedde by rauens. 9. He is sente to Zarphath, where hee restoreth his hostesse sonne to life.

1 AND Elias the Thelbite, which was of the inhabiters of Gilead, sayde vnto Ahab, As the Lord God of Israell lyueth, before whome I stande, there shall be neyther deawe, nor rayne these yeeres, but according to my worde.

2 And the word of the Lorde came vnto him, saying.

3 Get thee hence, and turne thee eastwarde, and hide thy selfe in the broke Cherith, that is it, that lyeth before Iordane.

4 Thou shalte drinke of the riuer, and I haue commaunded the rauens to feede thee there.

5 And so he wente, and did according vnto the word of the Lord: for he went, and dwelt by the broke Cherith, that is before Iordane.

6 (a) And the rauens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and likewise bread and flesh in the euening: and he dranke of the broke.

7 And it chaunced after a whyle, that the broke dried vp, because there fell no rayne vpon the earth.

8 And the word of the Lord came vnto hym, saying,

9 Vp, and get thee to Zarphath, whiche is in Sidon, and dwell there: behold, I haue commaunded a widdowe there to sustayne thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarphath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, behold, the widdow was there gathering of stickes: and he called to hir, and sayd, Fetche me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessell, that I may drinke.

11 And as she was going to fetche it, he cried after hir, and sayd, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread also in thine hand.

12 She sayd, As the Lord thy God lyueth, I haue no bread ready, but euen an handfull of meale in a barrell, & a little oyle in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering two stickes for to goe in, and to dresse it for me and my son, that we may eate it, and die.

13 And Elias sayde vnto hir, Feare not, goe, and doe as thou hast sayde: but make me thereof a little cake fyrst of all, and bring it vnto me, and afterwarde make for thee and thy sonne.

14 For thus sayth the Lord God of Israell, ℭ The meale in the barrell shal not be walled, neyther shall the oyle in the cruse be minished, vntill the Lord haue sente rayne vppon the earth.

15 And she went, and did as Elias sayde: and she, and he, and hir house did eate a good space.

16 And the meale walled not out of the barrell, neyther was the oyle spente out of the cruse, according to the worde of the Lorde, which he spake by the hand of Elias.

17 And after these thynges, it happened, that the sonne of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sickenesse was so sore that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she sayde vnto Elias, What haue I to doe with thee, O thou man of God? Art thou come vnto me, to call my sinne againe to remembrance, to slay my sonne?

19 He sayd vnto hir, Giue me thy sonne. And he toke him out of hir lappe, and carried him vp into a loft, where he abode, and layd him vpon his owne bed.

20 And called vnto the Lorde, and sayde, O Lord my God, hast thou punished also thys widowe, with whome I dwell as a straunger, and hast slayne hir sonne?

21 And he stretched him selfe vpon the chylde three times, and called vnto the Lorde, and 4. Reg. 4. f. sayd, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let thys childes soule come into him againe.

22 And the Lorde heard the voyce of Elias, and the soule of the childe came into hym agayne, and he reuiued.

23 And Elias toke the boy, and brought him downe out of the chamber into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother: and Elias sayd, Behold, thy sonne liueth.

24 And the woman sayde vnto Elias, Now I know, that thou art a man of God, and that the worde of the Lorde in thy mouth is true.

The.xviij.Chapter.

1. Elias is sente to Ahab. 13. Obadia hydeth an hundred Prophetes. 40. Elias kylleth all Baals Prophetes. 45. Hee obteyneth rayne.

1 AFterprooes of many dayes, the woorde of the Lorde came to Elias in the thirde yeere, saying, Goe shew thy selfe vnto Ahab, and I will send rayne vpon the earth. Deut.11.b.

2 And Elias went to shewe hym selfe vnto Ahab: and there was a great famishment in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadia, whiche was the gouernour of his house: (and Obadia feared God greatly.

4 For when Jezabel destroyed the prophetes of the Lorde, Obadia toke an hundred prophetes, and hid them by fiftie and by fiftie in a caue, and prouided bread and water for them.)

5 And Ahab sayde vnto Obadia, goe into the lande, vnto all fountaynes of water, and vnto all brookes, if happily we may find grasse, to saue the Horses and Mules alyue, and that wee destroy not (some of) the beastes.

6 And so they diuided the land betweene thē to walke throughe it: Ahab wente one waye by hym selfe, and Obadia went another way by hym selfe.

7 And it chaunced, that as Obadia was in the way, beholde, Elias met him, and hee knewe hym, and fell on hys face, and sayde, Art not thou my Lord Elias?

8 And he answered him, I am he: Goe, and tell thy Lord, behold, Elias is here.

9 He sayde, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the hande of Ahab to slay me?

10 As the Lorde thy God liueth, there is no nation nor kingdome, whyther my Lorde hathe not sent to seeke thee: and when they sayde, He is not there: he toke an othe of the kingdome, and nation, when he found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Goe, and tell thy Lord, that Elias is here.

12 And as sone as I am gone from thee, the spirite of the Lord shal carrie thee into some place that I do not knowe: and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can not finde thee, he shall slay me: but I thy seruaunt feare the Lord from my youth vpward.

13 Was it not tolde my Lorde, what I dyd, when Jezabel slue the Prophetes of the Lord? how I hid an hundred men of the Lordes Prophetes, fiftie men in one caue, and fiftie in another, and prouided them of bread and water.

14 And thou sayest, Goe thou now, and shew thy Lorde, beholde, Elias is here: that hee may slay me.

15 And Elias sayd, As the Lord of hostes liueth, before whome I stande, I wyll shewe my selfe vnto him this day.

16 So Obadia went to meete Ahab, & tolde him: and Ahab went to meete Elias.

17 And it fortuned, that when Ahab sawe Elias, he sayde vnto him, Art thou he, that troubleth Israell?

18 He answered, It is not I, that haue troubled Israell, but (a) thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commandementes of the Lorde, and thou hast followed Baal.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israell vnto mount Carmel, and ỹ prophets of Baal four hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the (idolles) groues four hundred, which eate at Jezabels table.

20 So Ahab sent vnto all the children of Israell, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Elias came vnto all the people, and sayd, Howe long (b) halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lorde be God, followe hym: but if Baall bee hee, then goe after him. And the people answered him not one woorde.

22 Then said Elias vnto the people (agayne,) I onely remayne a prophete of the Lorde: but (c) Baals prophets are four hundred and fiftie.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two oxen, and lette them chose the one, and cut hym in peeces, and lay hym on wood, and put no fire vnder: and I will dresse the other ox, and lay him on wood, and wyll put no fire vnder.

24 And call ye on the name of your goddes: and I will call on the name of the Lorde: and then the God, that aunswereth by fyre, let hym be God. And all the people aunswered, and sayd, It is well spoken.

25 Elias sayde vnto the prophets of Baal, Chose you an ox, and dresse him firste, for yee are many, and call on the name of your goddes: but put no fyre vnder.

26 And they toke the one ox, that he dyd giue them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning to none, saying, O Baal heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor one to aunswere: and they leapt vpon the aulter that they had made.

27 And at none Elias mocked them, and sayde, Crye aloude, for he is a God, peraduenture venture he is talking, or occupied in folowyng vppon his enimies, or is in his iourney, or happyly he sleepeth, and must be awaked (with your crie.)

28 And they cryed alowde, and cut them selues, as their maner was, with knyues and lancers, til the bloud folowed on them.

29 And it chaunced, that when midday was passed, they prophesied vntyl the time of the euenyng sacrifice: but there was neyther voyce, nor one to answeare, nor any, that regarded them.

30 And Elias sayd vnto all the folke, Come to me. And all the people came to hym: and he repayred the aulter of the Lord, that was broken.

31 And Elias toke twelue stones, according to the number of the twelue tribes of the sonnes of Jacob, vnto whome the worde of the Lord came, saying, Israell shall be thy name.

32 And with the stones he made an aulter in the name of the Lorde: and he made a ditche about the aulter, as great as would conteyne two measures of seede.

33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the Oxe in peeces, and layde hym on the wood, and sayde, Fill foure barrels with water, and powre it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he sayd, Do so agayne. And they did so the second time. And he sayd againe. Do it the thirde time. And they did it the thyrde time:

35 And the water ranne rounde about the aulter, and hee filled the pitte with water also.

36 And it fortuned, that when they shoulde offer the euening sacrifice, Elias the prophete came, and sayde, Lord God of Abraham, of Isahac, and of Israell, it shall be knowen this day, that thou art the God in Israell, and (that) I (am) thy seruaunt, and that I haue done all these thynges at thy commaundement.

37 Heare me, O Lorde, heare me, that thys people may knowe, that thou art the Lorde God, and (that) thou hast turned theyr hart againe now at the last.

38 And the fire of the Lorde fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked vp the water that was in the pit.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces, and sayde, The Lord is God, the Lord is God.

40 And Elias sayde vnto them, Take the prophets of Baal, and let not one of them escape. And they toke them, and Elias brought them vnto the brooke Kison, (d) and slue them there.

d. Elias slue Baals prophets

41 And Elias sayde vnto Ahab, Get thee vp, eate and drinke: for there is a sound of much rayne.

42 And so Ahab wente vp, to eate and to drinke, and Elias wente vp to the toppe of Carmel, and he layd hym selfe flatte vppon the earthe, and put his face betweene hys knees, 43 And sayd to hys seruaunt, Goe vp, (I pray thee,) and loke towarde the way of the sea. And he went vp, and loked, and said, There is nothing. And againe he sayd, Goe againe seuen times.

44 And it fortuned, that at the seuenth time, he sayde, Beholde, ther ariseth a little cloude out of ỹ sea lyke a mans hand. He sayd, Go, and say vnto Ahab, Make fast (thy charet) and get thee downe, that the rayne stoppe thee not.

45 And it came to passe, that in the meane whyle the heauen was blacke with cloudes and winde, and there was a greate rayne: and Ahab gat vp, and came to Jezrahel.

46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elias, and he gyrded vp his loynes, and ran before Ahab, till he came to Jezrahel.

The.xix. Chapter.

1. Elias fleeing from Iezabell, is nourished by the angell of God. 15. He is commanded to annoynt Hazel, Iehu, and Elisa.

1 AND Ahab tolde Jezabel all that Elias had done, and how he had slayne all the prophets with the sworde.

2 Then Jezabel sent a messenger vnto Elias, saying, So and so let the goddes do to me, if I make not thy soule like one of theirs by to morow thys time. 3.Reg.2.b.

3 When he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba in Juda, and left his seruant there.

4 But he hym selfe wente a dayes iourney into the wildernesse, and came, & sate downe vnder a Juniper tree, and desired for hys soule, that he might die, and said, It is nowe enough, O Lord: take my soule, for I am not better than my fathers. Iona.4.c. Dan.12.

5 And as he lay and slept vnder the Juniper tree, behold, an angell touched him, and sayd vnto him, Up, and eate.

6 And when hee loked about hym, beholde there was a cake baken on the coales, and a vessell of water at his head: and he did eate and drinke, and layde him downe agayne to sleepe.

7 And the angell of the Lorde came againe the the second time, and touched him, and sayde. Up, and eate, for thou hast yet a great iourney.

8 And he arose, and did eate and drinke, and walked in the strength of that meate fortie dayes and fortie nightes, euen vnto Horeb the mount of God.

Exod.34.d. Math.4.d.

9 When he came thither vnto a caue, he lodged therein all night: and beholde, the word of the Lord came to him, and said vnto him. What doest thou here Elias?

10 And he answered, I haue bin ielous for the Lord God of hostes sake: for the children of Israell haue forsaken thy couenaunt, broken downe thyne aulters, and slayn thy prophets with the sworde: and I onely am left, and they seeke my life to take it away.

Rom.11.a. Eccle.48.a.

11 And he sayd, come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lord. And beholde, the Lord went by, and a mightie strong winde, that rent the mountaynes, and brake ỹ rockes before the Lorde, but the Lorde was not in the winde: and after the winde, came an earthquake, but the Lorde was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake came fyre, but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fyre, came a small still voyce.

13 And when Elias heard, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stode in the entring of the caue: and behold, there came a voyce vnto him, and said, What doest thou here Elias?

14 And he answered, I haue bin ielous for the Lord God of hostes sake, because ỹ children of Israell haue forsaken thy couenante, cast downe thyne aulters, and slayne thy prophets with the sworde: and I onely am left, and they seeke my life to take it away.

4.Reg.8.d. 4.Reg.9.b.

15 And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Goe, and turne thy way to the wildernesse vnto Damasco, and when thou commest there, annoynt Hazael king ouer Syria:

16 And Jehu sonne of Nimsi shalt thou annoynt kyng ouer Israell: and Elisa the sonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou annoynt to be prophet in thy rowme.

17 And it shall come to passe, that who so escapeth the sworde of Hazael, him shall Jehu slay: and if any man escape the sworde of Jehu, hym shall Elisa put to death.

18 And (thereto) I haue left me seuen thousand in Israell, of whiche neuer man (a) bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kissed hym with his mouth.

Rom.11.a. a. Wicked idolaters are not of God.

19 So he departed thence, and founde Elisa the sonne of Saphat plowing, and hauing twelue yoke of oxen before hym, and hym with the twelue: and Elias went by hym, and cast his mantle vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ranne after Elias, and sayde, Let me, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother: and then I will followe thee. He sayde vnto hym, Goe backe gayne: for what is it, that I haue done to thee?

21 And when hee wente backe agayne from him, he toke a couple of oxen, and slue them, and dressed the flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: and then he arose, and went after Elias, and ministred vnto him.

The.xx.Chapter.

1. Samaria is besieged. 13. The Lorde promiseth the victorie to Ahab by a Prophete. 34. The kyng of Israell made peace with Benhadad, and is reproued therefore by the Prophete.

1 AND Benhadad the king of Syria, gathered al his host together, hauing thirtie and two kinges with him, and horses, and charettes: and wente vp, and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And hee sente messengers to Ahab king of Israell into the citie, and sayde vnto hym, thus sayth Benhadad,

3 Thy syluer and thy golde is mine, and the fayrest of thy wiues, and of thy children be myne.

4 And the king of Israell answeared and sayd, My Lorde king, according to thy saying, I am thyne, and all that I haue.

5 And when the messengers came agayne, they sayd, thus sayth Benhadad: forasmuche as I haue sent vnto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer and thy golde, and thy wiues, and thy children:

6 I will therefore sende my seruauntes vnto thee to morrowe this time: and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruauntes, and what soeuer is pleasaunte in thyne eyes, they shall take it in their handes and bring it away.

7 Then the king of Israell sent for all the elders of the lande, and sayd, Take heede, I pray you, and see howe this felowe goeth about mischiefe: for he sente vnto me for my wiues, for my children, for my siluer, and for my golde: and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders, and all the people sayde, Hearken not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he sayd vnto the messengers of Benhadad, Tell my Lord the king, all that thou diddest sende for to thy seruaunte at the first tyme, that I will do: but this thyng I may not do. And the messengers departed, and and brought answeare agayne.

10 And Benhadad sente vnto him agayne, and sayde, Thus and thus doe the goddes vnto me, if the dust of Samaria be yenough for all the people, that folow me, to take euery man an handfull.

11 And the king of Israell answeared, & said, Tell hym, let not hym that putteth on hys harnesse boast hym selfe, as hee that putteth it off.

12 And it fortuned, that when Benhadad heard that tydings, as he was with the kings drinking within the pauilions, he sayde vnto hys seruauntes, Put youre selues in order. And they set them selues in aray agaynst the citie.

13 And behold, there came a prophet vnto Ahab king of Israell, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, Hast thou seene all this great multitude? behold, I wil deliuer it into thine hand thys day, and thou shalt know, that I am the Lorde.

¶ 14 And Ahab sayde, By whome? He sayde, Thus sayth the Lord, Euen by the seruants of the gouernours of the shyres. He sayd agayne, Who shall order the battayle? And he answeared, Thou.

15 Then he numbred the seruantes of the gouernours of the shyres, and they were two hundred and thirtie and two: and after them also he numbred all the people of the children of Israell (euen) seuen thousande.

16 And they went out at noone: but Benhadad did drinke til he was drunken in the pauilions, both he, and the kings: euen thirtie and two kings, that holpe him.

17 And the seruauntes of the gouernours of the shyres went out first, and Benhadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 He sayde, If they bee come out for peace, take them alyue: or if they bee come out to fight, take them yet alyue.

19 And so these yong men of the gouernours of the shyres came out of the citie, and the host after them:

20 And they slue euery one his enimie (that came in his way:) and the Syrians fled, and they of Israell folowed after them: & Benhadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse, with his horsemen.

D 21 And the king of Israell went out, & smote the horses & charets, and with a great slaughter slue he the Syrians.

22 (And there came a Prophete to the kyng of Israell, and sayde vnto him, Goe forthe, and play the man: be wise, and take heede, what thou doest: for when the yeere is gone about, the kyng of Syria wyll come vp against thee.)

23 And the seruauntes of the king of Syria sayd vnto hym, The goddes of the hylles are their goddes, and therefore they had the better of vs: but let vs fyght against them in the playne, and (for what ye will) we shall haue the better of them.

24 And thus do: Take the kings away euery man out of his place, and put dukes in their rowmes.

25 And doe thou number thee an host, lyke the host, that thou hast lost, suche horses, and suche charettes: and we will fight agaynste them in the playne, and thou shalt see vs get the better of them. And he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did euen so.

26 And it fortuned, that after the yeere was gone about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphec to fight against Israell.

27 And the children of Israell were numbred, and with their whole number wente they against them: and the children of Israell pitched before them lyke two little flockes of kiddes: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and sayde E vnto the king of Israell, thus sayth ỳ Lord, Because the Syrians haue sayde, the Lorde is but God of the hylles, and not God of the valleyes, therefore will I deliuer all thys great multitude into thine hand, and ye shal know, that I am the Lorde.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes: and it came to passe, that in the seuenth day the battayle was ioyned, and the chyldren of Israell slue of the Syrians an hundred thousande fotemen in one daye.

30 But the rest fled to Aphec into the citie, and there fell a wall vpon twentie and seauen thousand of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled, and came into the citie, from chamber to chamber.

31 And his seruauntes sayde vnto him, Behold, we haue heard saye, that the kings of the house of Israell are mercifull kings: we will therfore put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the king of Israell, if happily he will saue thy life.

32 And so they gyrded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the king of Israell, and sayde, Thy seruaunt Benhadad sayeth, I pray thee, let me lyue. He sayde, Is he yet alyue? he is my brother.

33 And the menne toke that woorde for good lucke, and hastily caught it out of his mouth

mouth, and sayd, Yea, thy brother (a) Benhadad. He sayde, Goe, bring him hyther. And Benhadad came out vnto him; and he caused him to come vp into the charet.

34 And he sayd vnto him, The cities, whyche my father toke from thy father, I wyll restore agayne, and thou shalt make streetes for thee in Damasco, as my father dyd in Samaria: and I will make an appoyntmẽt with thee, and send thee away. And so hee made an appoyntment with hym, and sente him away.

F 35 And there was a certayne man of the children of the prophets, whiche sayde vnto hys neyghbour in the worde of the Lord, Smite me, I praye thee. And the man woulde not smite him.

36 Then sayde he vnto hym, Bycause thou hast not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde: beholde, as sone as thou art departed from me, a Lion shall slay thee. And it came to passe, that as sone as hee was departed from hym, a Lion founde hym and 3.Reg.13.c. slue him.

37 Then he founde another man, and sayde, Smite me, I praye thee. And the manne smote him, so that in smiting hee wounded hym.

38 So the prophete wente forth, and wayted for the king by the way, and put him selfe out of knowledge with ashes, which he layd vpon his face.

39 And when the king came by, he cried vnto the kyng, and sayd, Thy seruaunt went out in the middes of the battayle, and beholde there wente away a man, whome another man brought vnto me, and sayd, Keepe thys man: and if he be misled, or lost, thy life shall goe for his, or els thou shalt pay a talent of syluer.

40 And as thy seruaunt had here and there to do, he was gone: and the king of Israel sayd vnto him, Euen so shall thy iudgement bee, as thou hast defined it thy selfe.

41 And he hasted, and toke the ashes away, from his face, and the king of Israell knewe him, that he was of the prophets.

G 42 And he sayde vnto hym, Thus sayeth the Lorde: bycause thou hast let goe out of thy hand a man, that is in my curse, thy life shall goe for hys lyfe, and thy people for hys people.

43 And the king of Israell went to his house wayward, and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

The.xxi.Chapter.

8. Iezabel commaundeth to kill Naboth for the vineyarde that hee refused to sell to Ahab. 19. Elias reproueth Ahab, and hee repenteth.

1 AFter these things, it chaunced, that Naboth the Iezraelite had a vineyarde in Iezrahel, hard by the palace of Ahab kyng of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Giue me thy vineyarde, that I maye make me a garden of herbes thereof, bycause it lieth so nigh my house: and I wyll giue thee for it a better vineyarde than it is: or rather if it please thee, I wil giue thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth sayde to Ahab, The Lorde forbid that from me, that I shoulde giue the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 And Ahab came into the house heauie and euill apayd, bycause of the worde which Naboth the Iezraelite had spoken to hym: for he had sayd, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he layd him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eate no bread.

5 But Iezabel his wife came to him, and sayde vnto him, Why is thy spirite so wayward, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he sayde vnto hir, For I spake vnto Naboth the Iezraelite, and sayde vnto him, Giue me thy vineyard for money: or els if it please thee, I will giue thee (another) vineyarde for it. And he answeared, I wyll not giue thee my vineyarde.

7 And Iezabel his wife sayde vnto him, (a) Doest thou nowe gouerne the kingdome of Israel? vp, and eate bread, and let thine hart at rest: I wil giue thee the vineyard of Naboth the Iezraelite.

8 And so she wrote a letter in Ahabs name, and sealed it with his seale, and sente the letter vnto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letter, saying, Proclayme a (b) fast, and set Naboth on hygh among the people:

10 And set two vnthryfts before him, to beare witnesse against him, saying, Thou diddest blaspheme God and the king: and then cary him out, and stone him to death.

11 And (c) the men of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours, whiche dwelt in hys citie, did as Iezabel had sent vnto them, and as it was written in the letter which she had sent vnto them.

12 They proclaymed a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people.

13 And there came in two men the children of Belial, and sate before hym: and the (two) vnthriftie persons witnessed against Naboth both in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God, and the king. And they caried him out of the citie, and stoned him with stones, that he dyed.

14 And then they sente to Jezabel, saying, Naboth is stoned to death.

15 And it foretuned, when Jezabel heard that Naboth was stoned to death, shee sayde to Ahab, Up, and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezraelite, which he denyed to giue for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but dead.

16 And when Ahab heard, that Naboth was dead, he stode vp to goe downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezraelite, and to take possession of it.

17 And the word of the Lord came vnto Elias the Thelbite, saying,

18 Up, and goe downe to meete Ahab kyng of Israel, which is in Samaria: beholde, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whyther he is gone downe to possesse it.

19 And therefore shalte thou saye vnto hym, thus sayeth the Lorde, Hast thou killed, and also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto hym, saying, thus sayeth the Lorde, In the place where dogges licked the bloud of Naboth, shal dogs licke euen thy bloud also.

20 And Ahab said to Elias, Hast thou found me, O thou mine enimie? He answeared, I haue found thee: for thou hast sold thy selfe to worke wickednesse in the syghte of the Lorde.

21 Beholde, I will bring euil vpon thee, and will make cleane riddance of thy posteritie, and will destroy from Ahab, (euen) him, that maketh water against the wall, and him that is shut vp, and left behind in Israel:

22 And will make thyne house lyke the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and lyke the house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia, for the prouocation, wherwith thou hast prouoked, and made Israell to synne.

23 And of Jezabel spake the Lorde, saying, The dogs shall eate Jezabel by the wall of Jezrahel.

24 And who so euer of Ahab dyeth in the towne him shall dogs eate: and who so dyeth in the fielde, hym shall the fowles of the ayre eate.

25 But there was none like Ahab, which did euen sell him selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, and that because Jezabel his wife pricked him forewarde.

26 He did exceeding abhominably in folowing foule idols, according to all things, as did the Ammorites whome the Lorde cast out before the children of Israell.

27 And it foretuned, that when Ahab hearde those wordes, he rent his clothes, and putte sackcloth about his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went "bare foote. Gen.37.g. "or. softly, in toke of mournyng.

28 And the word of the Lord came to Elias the Thelbite, saying, 29 Seest thou, how Ahab humbleth himselfe before me? because he so submitteth himselfe before me, I will not bring that euill in hys dayes: but in his sonnes dayes will I bring euill vpon his house.

The.xxij. Chapter.

2. Iehosaphat and Ahab fyghte agaynste the king of Syria. 15. Michea sheweth the kyng, what shall be the successe of their enterprise. 24. Zedekia the false prophete smiteth hym. 34. Ahab is slayne. 40. Ahazia his sonne succeedeth. 41. The raygne of Iehosaphat, 51. and Ioram his sonne.

1 AND they continued three yeeres without warre betwene Syria and Israel. A 2. Par.18.a.

2 And in the third yeere did Iehosaphat the king of Juda come downe to the kyng of Israell.

3 (And the king of Israel sayd vnto hys seruauntes, Knowe yee not, that Ramoth (in) Gilead is ours, and we sit still and take it not out of the hande of the king of Syria?)

4 And he sayd vnto Iehosaphat, Wilt thou come with me to battell againste Ramoth (in) Gilead? And Iehosaphat sayde vnto the king of Israell, I am as thou art: my people, as thy people: and my horses, as thy horses. 4. Reg.2.a

5 And Iehosaphat sayd vnto the king of Israell, (a) Aske counsell, I pray thee, at the word of the Lord to day. a. In all our enterprises we ought fyrst to aske counsell of God.

6 And then the king of Israell gathered the prophets together, vppon four hundred men, and sayde vnto them, Shall I goe agaynste Ramoth (in) Gilead to battayle, or shal I let it alone? And they sayde, Goe vp: for the Lorde shall deliuer it into the handes of the kyng. 3.Reg.18.c.

7 And Iehosaphat sayd Is there here neuer a prophet of the Lorde more, that we myghte inquire of hym? B

8 And the king of Israell sayd vnto Iehosaphat, There is yet one man (Michea the son of Jimla) by whome we may aske counsell of the Lord: but I hate him, for he doeth not prophesie good vnto me, but euil. And Iehosaphat sayd, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israell called a chamberlayne, and sayde, Fetch Michea the sonne of Jimla hyther at once.

10 And the king of Israell, and Iehosaphat the king of Juda sate, eyther of them in his in his seate, and their apparell on them, in a voyde place beside the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana made hornes of iron, and sayde, thus sayeth the Lorde, With these (hornes) shalte thou push the Syrians, vntill thou haue made an ende of them.

12 And all the prophetes prophecied euen so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the kings hande.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Michea, spake vnto him, saying, Beholde, the wordes of the Prophets speake good vnto the king with one mouth: Let thy worde therefore, I pray thee, be lyke the worde of euery one of them, to speake that, whych is good.

℄ 14 And Michea sayde, As the Lorde lyueth, what so euer the Lorde sayeth vnto me, (b) that will I speake.

b. The true prophet wyll speake no other, than that he hath learned of God.

15 And so he came to the king, and the kyng sayd vnto him, Michea, ought we to goe against Ramoth (in) Gilead to battayle, or to be still? He answered to him, (c) Goe, and prosper: the Lord shall deliuer it into ỹ hand of the king.

c. He speaketh this in derisiō

16 And the king sayde vnto him, So and so many times do I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing, but that whiche is true, in the name of the Lorde.

17 He sayde, I sawe all them of Israell scattered vpon the hilles, as sheepe that haue not a shepheard. And the Lord sayd, These haue no maister: let euery man returne to hys house in peace.

18 (And the king of Israell sayd vnto Iehosaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he woulde prophesie no good vnto me, but euil?)

19 And he sayd agayne, Heare thou therefore the word of the Lord. I sawe the Lorde sitte on his seate, and all the host of heauen stode about him on his right hande, and on hys left.

2. Par. 18. b. 20 And the Lord sayd, Who shall perswade Ahab, that he maye goe and fall at Ramoth (in) Gilead? And one sayd on this manner, and another on that.

D 21 And there came forth a certayne spirit, and stod before the Lord, and sayde, I will perswade hym. And the Lord sayde vnto hym, Wherewith?

22 And he sayde, I wyll goe out, and be a false spirite in the mouth of all hys prophetes. He sayd, Thou shalt perswade him, and preuayle: Goe forth then, and doe euen so.

23 Now therefore behold, the Lord hath put a lying spirite in the mouth of all these thy prophetes, and the Lorde hathe spoken euill toward thee.

24 But Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Michea on the cheeke, & sayd, Which went the spirite of the Lord fro me, to speake vnto thee?

25 And Michea sayd, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee.

26 And the king of Israell sayd, Take Michea, and carie him vnto Amon the gouernour of the citie, and vnto Joas the kynges sonne.

27 And say, Thus sayeth the king, Put thys felowe in the prison house, and feede hym with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntill I returne in peace.

28 And Michea sayde, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken ye people euery one of you. e

29 And so the king of Israell, and Iehosaphat the king of Juda, went vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead.

30 And the king of Israell sayd vnto Iehosaphat, I will change my apparel, and will enter into the battayle: but put thou on thine apparell. And the king of Israell changed hym selfe, and went to battayle.

31 But the king of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two captaynes, that had rule ouer his charets, saying, Fyght neyther with small nor with great, saue onely against the king of Israell.

32 And when the captaynes of the charettes sawe Iehosaphat, they sayde, Surely it is the king of Israell. And they turned to fyght against him: and Iehosaphat cryed.

33 And so it came to passe, that when the captaynes of the charettes sawe, that he was not the king of Israell, they turned backe from hym.

34 And a certayne man drewe a bowe ignorantly, and smote ỹ king of Israel betwene the ribbes and hys barnesse: wherefore he said vnto the driuer of his charets. Turne thy hande, and carie me out of the host: for I am hurt.

35 (And the battayle encreased that day: and f the king stode still in his charet against the Syrians) and dyed at euen: and the blood ranne out of the wound into the midde of the charet.

36 And ther went a proclamation thorough out the host about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery man, to his citie, and to his owne countrey.

37 So the king dyed, and was brought to Samaria,

Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one waſhed the charet in the poole of Samaria, & the dogs licked vp his bloud: & they waſhed his armour, according vnto the worde of the Lorde whiche he ſpake.

39 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Ahab, and al that he did, and the iuorie houſe which he made, & all the cities that he buylded, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

40 And ſo Ahab ſlept with his fathers, and Ahazia his ſonne raygned in his ſtede.

2.Chro.20.c. 41 Ieholaphat the ſonne of Aſa beganne to raygne vpon Iuda, in the fourth yeere of Ahab kyng of Iſrael.

42 And Ieholaphat was thirtie and fiue yeeres old, when he beganne to raygne, and raygned twentie and fiue yeeres in Hieruſalem: His mothers name was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi.

43 And he walked in al the waies of Aſa his father, and bowed not therefrom, but dyd that which was right in ỹ eies of the Lord: Neuertheleſſe, the hygh places were not taken out of the way: for the people offered & burnt incenſe yet in the hygh places.

44 And Ieholaphat made peace with the kyng of Iſrael.

2.Chro.25.k. 45 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Ieholaphat, and the might that he vſed, and howe he warred, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iuda?

46 And the remnant of the ſtewes of the males, which remayned in the dayes of his father Aſa, he put cleane out of the lande.

47 (d) There was then no kyng in Edom: the deputie was kyng.

d. In the tyme of this king, Idumea was ſubiect to Iuda, and was gouerned by whom they of Iuda appoynted.

48 And Ieholaphat made ſhippes in the ſea, to come through Tharſis to Ophir for golde: but they went not, for the ſhippes brake at Ezion Gaber.

49 Then ſayde Ahazia the ſonne of Ahab vnto Ieholaphat, Let my ſeruauntes goe with thy ſeruants in the ſhippes. But Ieholaphat woulde not.

50 And Ieholaphat dyd ſleepe with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: and Iehoram his ſonne raygned in his ſtede.

51 Ahazia the ſonne of Ahab begã to raigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria, the ſeuentienth yeere of Ieholaphat kyng of Iuda, and raygned two yeeres ouer Iſrael.

52 But he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother: and in the way of Ieroboã, the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſinne.

53 For he ſerued Baal, & worſhipped him, and prouoked the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto wrath, according to all that his father had done.

3 But the angel of the Lord ſpake to Elias the Thesbite, Aryſe, and goe vp agaynſt the the messengers of the kyng of Samaria, and say vnto them, Is there not a God in Israel, that ye goe to aske counsel of Beelzebub, the god of Ekrom?

4 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde, Thou shalt not come downe from the bedde, on whiche thou art gone vp, but shalt dye the death. And Elias departed.

5 And when the messengers turned backe agayne vnto him, he sayde vnto them, Why are ye now come agayne?

6 They answeared hym, There came a man vp against vs, and saide vnto vs, Goe, and turne agayne vnto the kyng that sent you, & say vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Is there not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquyre of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom? Therefore thou shalte not come downe from the bedde, on whiche thou arte gone vp, but shalt dye the death.

B 7 And he sayde vnto them, What manner of man was that, whiche came vp and met you, and tolde you these wordes?

8 And they answeared hym, It was an heary man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loynes. And he sayde, It is Elias the Thelbite.

Math.3.b.

9 Then the king sent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: which came to him (and beholde, he sate on the toppe of an hyll,) and he spake vnto him, Thou man of God, the kyng hath sayd, Come downe.

10 Elias answeared and sayde to the captayne ouer the fiftie: If I be a man of god, let fire come downe from heauen, and consume thee, and thy fiftie. (b) And there came fire from heauen, and consumed him, and his fiftie.

b. The threatnings of gods prophets are effectuall agaynst the wicked.

11 Agayne also he sent vnto him another captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie: And he spake and sayde vnto him, O man of God, thus hath the kyng sayde, Make haste, and come downe.

12 Elias answeared, and sayd vnto them, If I be a man of god, let fire come downe frō heauen, and cōsume thee, and thy fiftie. And there came fire of God from heauen, and consumed hym, and his fiftie.

13 And the kyng yet agayne sent the thirde captayne ouer fiftie, with his fiftie menne: And the thirde captayne ouer fiftie went vp, and came and fell on his knees before Elias, and besought hym, and sayde vnto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my lyfe, and the lyfe of the fiftie thy seruants be pretious in thy sight.

C 14 Beholde, there came fire downe frō heauen, and burnt vp the two former captaines ouer fiftie, with theyr fifties: therefore let my lyfe now be pretious in thy sight.

15 And the angell of the Lorde sayde vnto Elias, Goe downe with him, and (c) be not afraide of him. And he arose, & went downe with him vnto the kyng.

c. Ge. decree minde do the Lord.

16 And he sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde, For asmuch as thou hast sent messengers, to aske counsell of Beelzebub the god of Ekrom, as though there had bin no God in Israel, whose worde thou mightest seeke after: therefore thou shalt not come downe off the bedde, on whiche thou arte gone vp, but shalt die the death.

17 And so he dyed, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde, whiche Elias had spoken: and Iehoram (his brother) began to raygne in his steede, in the second yeare of Iehoram, the sonne of Iehosaphat kyng of Iuda, bycause he had no sonne.

18 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ahazia, what thinges he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kyngs of Israell?

The.ij.Chapter.

Gen. 5. Or, 6.

2 And Elias sayde vnto Elisa, Tarie here, I pray thee, for the Lorde hath sent me to Bethel. Elisa sayd vnto him, As the Lord liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And they came downe to Bethel:

3 (a) And the chyldren of the prophets, that were at Bethel, came out to Elisa, and said vnto him, Knowest thou not, how that the Lorde wyll take away thy mayster from thy head this day? He sayde, I know it also: holde you your peace.

a. The children of the prophets, the disciples of the prophets.

4 And Elias sayde vnto hym, Elisa, tarie here, I pray thee: for the Lorde hath sent me to Iericho. He sayde, As the Lorde liueth, & as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. And so they came to Iericho.

5 And the chyldren of the prophetes, that were at Iericho, came to Elisa, and sayde vnto him, Knowest thou not, that the Lord will take away thy mayster from thy head this day? He answeared, I know it also: holde ye your peace.

6 And Elias sayd vnto him, Tarie, I pray thee thee here: for the Lorde hath sente me to Jordane. He sayde, As the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wyll not leaue thee. And so they two went together.

ℬ 7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the prophets came, and stode on the other side a farre off: and they two stode by Jordane.

8 And Elias toke his mantell, and wrapt it together, and smote the waters: and they were diuided, part the one way, and parte the other, so that they two went ouer thorowe the drie lande.

9 And it fortuned, that as sone as they were ouer, Elias sayde vnto Elisa, Aske what I shall do for thee, yer I be taken away from thee. And Elisa sayde, I pray thee, let thy spirite be double vpon me.

10 And he sayde, Thou haste asked an harde thyng: neuertheless, if thou see me, when I am taken away from thee, thou shalt haue it so: if thou do not, it shall not be.

11 And it fortuned, that as they went walkyng and talking, beholde, there appeared a charet of fire, and horses of fyre, and parted them bothe a sunder: and Elias went vp through the whorle winde into(b) heauen.

(b) 1.48.a. A testimonie of the resurrection.

12 And Elisa sawe, and cryed, O my father, O my father, the charet of Israel, and the horseman thereof. And he sawe hym no more: and he toke his owne clothes, and rent them in two peeces.

13 He toke vp also the mantell of Elias that fell from hym, and went backe agayne, and stode by the side of Jordane.

℄ 14 And toke the mantell of Elias that fell from hym, and smote the waters, and he sayde, Where is the Lorde God of Elias, and he himselfe? And when he had smitten the waters, they parted this way and that way: and Elisa went ouer.

15 And when the chyldren of the prophetes which were at Jericho, sawe him frō a far, they sayde, The spirite of Elias doth rest on Elisa? And they came to meete hym, and fel to the grounde before hym, 16 And sayde vnto him, See, nowe there be with thy seruants fiftie strong mē, let them goe, we pray thee, and seeke thy maister: if happily the spirite of the Lorde haue taken hym vp, and caste him vpon some mountayne, or into some valley. And he sayd, Ye shall sende none.

17 And when they lay vpon him till he was ashamed, he sayde, Sende. They sent therefore fiftie mē, which sought him three dayes, but founde him not.

18 And when they came agayne to hym (whiche taried at Jericho) he sayde vnto them, Did I not say vnto you, that yee shoulde not goe?

19 And the men of the citie sayd vnto Elisa, Behold sir, ỹ dwelling of this citie is pleasant, as thou thy selfe seest: but the water is nought, and the grounde barren.

20 He said, Bring me a newe cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went vnto the spryng of the waters, and cast the salt in thither, and sayde, Thus sayth the Lorde, I haue healed these waters: there shall not come henceforth eyther death, or barrennesse.

22 So the waters were healed vnto this ℨ day, according to the saying of Elisa, which he spake.

23 And he went vp from thence vnto Bethel: And as he was goeyng vp the way, there came litle children out of the citie, and mocked him, and sayde vnto him, Goe vp thou balde head: goe vp thou balde head.

24 And he turned backe, ℭ looked on them, ℭ cursed them in the name of the Lord, ℭ there came two shee Beares out of the wood, and tare two and fourtie chyldren of them.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he turned agayne to Samaria.

The.iij.Chapter.

1. The raygne of Iehoram. 6. He and Iehosaphat goe to warre agaynst Moab, whiche rebelled. 12. Elisa reproueth him, 17. And giueth their host water. 24. The Moabites are ouercome. 27. Their kyng sacrificeth his sonne.

1 NOwe Iehoram the sonne of Ahab began to raygne vpon Israel in Samaria, the eyghtienth yeare of Iehosaphat king of Juda, and raygned twelue yeares. ℵ

2 And he wrought euil in the sight of the Lorde: but not lyke his father, and like his mother: for he put away the images of Baal, that his father had made.

3 Neuertheless, he cleaued vnto the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 And Mesa kyng of Moab was a lorde of sheepe, and rendered vnto the kyng of Israell an hundred thousande lambes, and an hundred thousande rammes with the woll.

5 But when Ahab was dead, it fortuned, that the kyng of Moab rebelled agaynst the kyng of Israell.

6 And king Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israell:

B 7 And went, and sent to Jehosaphat the king of Juda, saying, The kyng of Moab hath rebelled agaynst me, wilt thou come with me agaynst Moab in batayle? He answeared, I will come vp: for as I am, so art thou: and as my people be, so are thy people: and thy horses, as myne.

8 And he sayde, What way shall we goe vp? And he answeared, The way through the wildernesse of Edom.

9 And so the kyng of Israel toke his iourney, and the king of Juda, and the kyng of Edom: And when they had compassed the way seuen dayes, they had no water for the host, and for the cattell that folowed them.

10 And the kyng of Israell sayde, Alas, the Lorde hath called these three kyngs together, to deliuer them ouer into the hande of Moab.

3.Reg.22.a. 11 But Jehosaphat sayde, Is there not here a prophete of the Lorde, that we may enquyre of the Lorde by hym? And one of the kyng of Israels seruaunts answeared and sayde, Here is Elisa the sonne of Saphat, whiche powred water on the handes of Elias.

12 And Jehosaphat sayd, The worde of the Lorde is with him. And so the king of Israel, and Jehosaphat, & the king of Edom went downe to hym.

13 And Elisa sayde vnto the king of Israel, What haue I to dow with thee? Get thee to the prophetes of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto him, Oh nay: for the Lorde hath called these three kings together, to deliuer them into the hande of Moab.

C 14 And Elisa sayde, As the Lorde of hostes liueth, in whose sight I stande, and it were not that I regarde the presence of Jehosaphat the kyng of Juda, I woulde (a) not loke towarde thee, nor yet see thee.

a. God suffereth his worde to be declared to the wicked, bycause of the godly that are among them.

15 But nowe bryng me a minstrell. And when the minstrel playde, the hande of the Lorde came vpon him:

16 And he sayde, Thus sayethe the Lorde, Make this valley full of ditches:

17 For thus sayth the Lorde, Ye shal see neither winde, nor rayne, yet the valley shal be filled with water, that ye may drynke, both ye, and your beasts, and your cattell:

18 And this is yet but a small thing in the sight of the Lord, forasmuch as he wil giue ouer the Moabites also into your handes.

19 And ye shall smyte euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, and shall fell euery pleasant tree, and stoppe euery well of water, and marre euery good plat of grounde with stones.

20 And in the morning, when the meate offeryng was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard, that D the kyngs were come vp to fight agaynst them, they gathered all that was able to put on harnesse, and stode in the border of the lande:

22 And they were vp early in the morning, and the sunne shone vpon the water, that the Moabites sawe the water a farre off as redde as bloud.

23 And they sayde, This is the bloud of slaughter: the kings are slayne, & they haue smitten one another: Now therfore Moab get thee to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the host of Israell, the Israelites stode vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fledde before them: but they folowed vpon them, and smote Moab:

25 And they ouerthrewe the cities, and euery good parcel of land cast euery man his stone, and filled it, and they stopt all the welles of water, & felled all the good trees, onely in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit, they went about it with slinges, and smote it.

26 And when the kyng of Moab sawe, that the battel was too sore for him, he toke with him seuen hundred menne that drewe the swoorde, to haue gone through (euen) vnto the kyng of Edom: but they could not.

27 And then he toke his eldest sonne, that C should haue raigned in his steede, and offered him for a burnt offeryng vpon the wal: And there was (b) great indignatiō against Israel, and they departed from hym, and returned to their owne lande.

b. The Chaldees great ire of God.

The.iiij.Chapter.

4. God increaseth the oyle to the poore wydowe by Elisa. 12. He obteyneth for the Sunamite a sonne at Gods hand. 28. Who dying, 32. he rayseth him vp againe. 40. He maketh sweete the potage, 41. and multiplieth the loaues.

1 AND there cryed a certayne woman of I the wyues of the sonnes of the prophets vnto Elisa, saying, Thy seruaunt my husbande is dead, and thou knowest, that thy seruant did feare the Lorde: And the creditour is come to fetche my two sonnes to be his bondemen.

2 Elisa sayde vnto hyr, Tell me, what I shall dow for thee: What haste thou in thine house? She sayde, Thyne handmayde hath nothing nothyng at all in the houſe, ſaue a pitcher with oyle.

3 He ſayde vnto hyr, Goe, and borowe veſſels for thee (of them that are) without, (euen) of all thy neighbours, emptie veſſels, and that not a fewe:

4 And when thou arte come in, thou ſhalt ſhut the dore after thee, & after thy ſonnes, and powre out into (a) all thoſe veſſels: and ſet aſide that whiche is full.

God euer prouideth for them that truſt in him.

5 And ſo ſhe went from hym, and ſhut the dore after hyr, & after hyr ſonnes: And they brought to hyr, and ſhe powred out.

6 And it came to paſſe, that when the veſſels were ful, ſhe ſaid vnto hyr ſonne, Bring me yet a veſſell. And he ſayde vnto hyr, I haue no moe. And the oyle ceaſſed.

B 7 Then ſhe came, & tolde the man of God, and he ſayde, Goe, and ſell the oyle, and pay them, that thou art in debt vnto: but lyue thou and thy children of the reſt.

8 And it fell on a day, that Eliſa came to Sunem, where was a great woman, that toke him in for to eate bread: And ſo it came to paſſe, that from that tyme forth, (as oft as he came that way) he turned in thyther to eate bread.

9 And ſhe ſaide vnto hyr husband, Behold, I perceyue, that this is an holy man of God, which paſſeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, and let vs ſet hym there a bedde, and a table, and a ſtoole, and a candelſticke: that he may turne in thyther, when he commeth to vs.

11 And it fortuned on a day that he came thyther, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein, 12 And ſayde to Gehezi his ſeruaunt, Call this Sunamite. And when he called hyr, ſhe preſented hyr ſelfe before hym.

13 And againe he ſayde vnto him, Tell hyr, behold, thou haſt bene carefull for vs with al this care: (b) What ſhall we now do for thee? Wouldeſt thou be ſpoken for to the king, or to the captaine of the hoſt? She anſwered, I dwel amõg mine own people.

The ſeruants of God be not vnthankfull for benefites receyued.

C 14 And he ſayde againe, What is to be done for hyr? Gehezi anſwered, Verily ſhe hath no childe, and hir husbande is olde.

15 And he ſayde, Call hyr. And when he had called hyr, ſhe ſtoode in the dore.

Gen.18.b.

16 And he ſayde, At this tyme appoynted, according to the tyme of lyfe, thou ſhalte imbrace a ſonne. And ſhe ſayde, Oh nay my lord, thou man of God, do not lie vnto thyne handmayde.

17 And the wife conceiued, and bare a ſonne that ſame ſeaſon, that Eliſa had ſayde vnto hyr, according to the tyme of life.

18 And when the childe was growen, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father, and to the reapers, 19 And he ſayde vnto his father, My head, my head. And he ſayde to a lad, Carie hym to his mother.

20 And whē he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he ſate on hyr knees till noone, and then died.

21 And ſhe went vp, and layde him on the bedde of the man of God, & ſhut (the doore) vpon him, and went out, 22 And called vnto hyr husbande, and ſayde, Send with me, I pray thee, one of the yong men, and one of the aſſes: for I will runne to the man of God, and come agayne.

23 And he ſayde, Wherefore wilt thou goe D to him? ſeyng that to day is neyther newe moone, nor Sabboth day. And ſhe anſweared, Al ſhal be well.

24 Then ſhe ſadled an Aſſe, and ſaide to hyr ſeruant, Driue, and goe forwarde: ſtay not for me to get vp, except I bidde thee.

25 And ſo ſhe went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel: And it fortuned, that when the man of God ſawe hyr farre off, he ſayd to Gehezi his ſeruant, Behold, yonder is the Sunamite:

26 Runne therefore to meete hyr, and ſay vnto hyr, Is al wel with thee, and with thy husbande, and with the ladde? And ſhe anſweared, Al is wel.

27 And when ſhe came to the man of God vp to the hill, ſhe caught hym by the feete: But Gehezi went to hyr to thruſt hyr away. And the man of God ſayde, Let hyr alone, for hyr ſoule is vexed within hyr: and the Lorde hath hidde it from me, and hath not tolde it me.

28 Then ſhe ſayde, Did I deſire a ſonne of E my Lorde? did I not requyre thee, that thou ſhouldeſt not deceyue me?

29 Then he ſayde to Gehezi, Gyrde vp thy loynes, and take my ſtaffe in thyne hande, & goe thy way: If thou meete any man, (c) ſalute him not: And if any ſalute thee, anſweare him not agayne: And lay my ſtaffe vpon the face of the childe. 4. Reg. 9. a. Luke. 10. a. c. Make ſuch ſpeede, that nothing may let thee in the way. Luke. 10.

30 And the mother of the childe ſaide, As the Lord liueth, & as thy ſoule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And he arose, and followed hyr. 1. Reg. 28. b.

31 Gehezi went before them, and layde the ſtaffe vpon the face of the childe, but there was neyther voyce, nor any feeling: wherefore he went agayne to meete him, & tolde him, ſaying, The childe is not awaked.

32 And when Eliſa was come into the houſe, behold, the childe was dead, and laide vpon his bedde.

33 He went in therefore, and ſhutte the dore vpon them twayne, and prayed vnto the Lorde,

2.Reg.17.d. 34 And went vp, and lay vpon the lad, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vppon his eyes, and his handes vppon his hands: and when he ſo lay vpon the childe, the fleſhe of the chylde waxed warme.

35 And he went agayne, and walked once vp and downe in the houſe, and then went vp, and layde himſelfe vpon hym agayne: and then the chylde "or,ſneeſed. gaſped ſeuen times, and opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehezi, and ſayde, Call for this Sunamite. So he called hyr: whiche Luke.5.c. when ſhe was come in vnto him, he ſayde vnto hyr, Take thy ſonne.

F 37 Therfore ſhe went in, and fel at his feete, and bowed hyr ſelfe to the grounde, and toke vp hyr ſonne, and went out.

38 Eliſa came agayne to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the lande, and the chyldren of the prophets dwelt with him: And he ſayde vnto his ſeruaunt, Set a great pot on (the fire) and make pottage for the chyldren of the prophets.

39 And one went out into the field to gather herbes, and found a wilde vine, and gathered therof wilde gourdes his lappe ful, and came and ſhred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eate: and it fortuned, that when they taſted of the pottage, they cryed out, and ſayde, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eate therof.

41 But he ſayde, Bring meale. And he caſt it into the pot, and he ſayde, Fil for the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot.

G 42 There came a man from Baal Saliſa, and brought the man of God bread of the firſt fruites, euen twentie loaues of barly, and full eares of corne in the huſke: And he ſayde, Giue vnto the people that they may eate.

43 And his miniſter anſwered, Why ſhall I ſet this before an hundred men? He ſayde agayne, Giue it vnto the people, that they may eate: For thus ſayth the Lorde, They John.6.a. ſhall eate, and there ſhal be left ouer.

44 And ſo he ſet it before them, and they did eate, and left ouer, according to the worde of the Lorde.

The.v.Chapter.

1. Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leproſie. 16. Eliſa refuſeth his giftes. 27. Gehezi is ſtryken with leproſie, bycauſe he tooke money, and rayment of Naaman.

1 NAaman captayne of the hoſte of the kyng of Syria, was a great man, and honourable in the ſight of his mayſter, bycauſe that by him the Lorde had giuen health vnto Syria: He was alſo a mighty man, and expert in warre: (but he was) a lepre.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought out of the countrey of Iſrael a litle mayde, and ſhe was with Naamans wife.

3 And ſhe ſayd vnto hyr lady, Would God, my lorde were with the prophete, that is in Samaria: for he would deliuer him of his leproſie.

4 And he (a) went in, and tolde his lorde, (a) Ne ſaying, Thus and thus ſayd the mayde, that is of the lande of Iſrael.

5 And the king of Syria ſayde, Goe thy way thyther, and I will ſende a letter vnto the kyng of Iſrael. And he departed, and toke with him tenne talents of ſiluer, and ſixe thouſande peeces of golde, and tenne chaunges of rayments,

6 And brought the letter to the king of Iſrael, conteyning this tenour. Nowe, when this letter is come vnto thee, behold, I haue therwith ſent Naaman my ſeruant to thee, that thou mayeſt ridde him of his leproſie.

7 And it fortuned, that when the kyng of B Iſrael had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and ſayde, Am I God, that I ſhould ſlay, & Deu. make aliue? For he doth ſende to me, that I ſhoulde deliuer a man from his leproſie: Wherefore conſider, I pray you, & ſee how he ſeeketh a quarell againſt me.

8 Which when Eliſa the man of God had heard, how that the king of Iſrael had rent his clothes, he ſent to the king, ſaying, Wherefore haſte thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me: and he ſhal knowe, that there is a prophete in Iſrael.

9 And ſo Naaman came with his horſes, and with his charets, & ſtode at the dore of the houſe of Eliſa.

10 And Eliſa ſent a meſſenger vnto hym, ſaying, Goe and waſh thee in Iordane ſeuen times, and thy fleſhe ſhal come agayne to thee, and thou ſhalt be cleanſed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and ſayde, Beholde, I thought with my ſelfe, he woulde ſurely come out, and ſtande, and call on the name of the Lorde his God, and put his hande on the place, that he may heale the leproſie.

12 Are not Abana and Pharphar ryuers of Damaſco, Damasco, better than all the waters of Israell? If I washe me also in them, shall I not be cleansed? And so he turned him, and departed with displeasure.

13 And his seruaunts came, and communed with hym, and sayd, Father, if the prophete had bid thee to do some great thyng, oughtest thou not to haue done it? How muche rather than, when he sayth to thee, Washe, and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, and washed hym selfe seuen times in Iordane, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came agayne lyke vnto the flesshe of a litle chylde, and he was cleansed.

15 And he turned againe to the mā of God, he and all his company, and stode before him, and sayde, Behold, I know now, that there is no God in all the worlde, but in Israell: Now therfore, I pray thee, take a blessyng of thy seruant.

16 But he sayde, As the Lorde liueth, before whom I stande, I will receyue none: And when the other woulde haue constrayned him to receyue it, he would not.

17 And Naaman sayde, Shall there not be gyuen to thy seruant, as muche of this earth as two Mules may beare? For thy seruant will henceforth offer neyther burnt sacrifice, nor offeryng vnto any other God, saue vnto the Lorde.

18 But herein the Lorde be mercifull vnto thy seruant, that when my mayster goeth into the house of Rimmon for to worshipp there, and leaneth on my hand, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon, when I bowe downe, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercyfull vnto thy seruant by cause of this thyng.

19 Vnto whom he sayde, (a) Goe in peace. And when he was departed from him, as it were a furlong of grounde, 20 Gehezi the seruant of Elisa the man of God, sayd, Behold, my mayster hath spared Naaman this Syrian, that he woulde not receyue at his hande those things, that he offered. As the Lorde liueth, I will runne after hym, and take somewhat of him.

21 And so Gehezi folowed Naaman: And when Naaman sawe him runnyng after him, he lighted downe from the charet to meete hym, and sayde, Is all well?

22 He answeared, All is well: Behold, my maister hath sent me, saying, See, there be come to me euen nowe from mount Ephraim, two yong men of the chyldre of the prophets: Giue them, I pray thee, one talent of siluer, and two change of garments.

23 And Naaman sayde, With a good wyll, take two talents: And he constrayned him, and bounde two talents of siluer in two bagges, with two change of garments, and layde them vpon two of his seruants to beare them before hym.

24 And when he came to the lower place, he toke (them) from theyr hande, and bestowed (them) in the house, and he let the men goe, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stode before hys maister. And Elisa said vnto him, Whence commest thou Gehezi? He sayde, Thy seruant went no whyther.

26 But he sayde vnto hym, (b) Went not myne hart (with thee,) when the man turned agayne from his charet to meete thee? Is it now a tyme to receyue money, to receyue garments, olyue trees, vineyardes, sheepe, and oxen, men seruants, and mayde seruants?

27 (c) The leprosie therfore of Naaman shal cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy seede for euer. And he went out from his presence a leper, as white as snowe.

b. Was not I present with thee in spirite?

The. vi. Chapter.

Elisa maketh iron to swimme aboue the water. 8. He discloseth the king of Syrias counsel to the kyng of Israel. 13. The king of Syrias men sent to take Elisa, were kept fast in Samaria. 24. Samaria is besieged, and endureth extreme famine.

1 THe children of the prophetes sayde vnto Elisa, Behold, we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is to litle for vs:

2 Let vs goe, we pray thee, vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and builde vs a place to dwell in. And he answeared, Goe.

3 And one sayde, Be content, I pray thee, and come with thy seruaunts. And he answeared, I wyll come.

4 And so he went with thē: And when they came to Iordane, they cut downe wood.

5 But it fortuned, that as one was felling downe of a tree, the axe head fell into the water: and he cryed, and sayde, Alas mayster, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God sayd, Where fel it? And he shewed him the place: And he cut downe a sticke, and caste it in thyther, and immediatly the iron did swimme.

7 Therefore sayde he, Take it vp. And he stretched out his hande, and toke it vp.

8 But the kyng of Syria warred agaynst Israell, and toke counsell with his seruaunts, and sayde, In suche and suche a place ſhal be my campe.

9 And the man of God ſent vnto the kyng of Iſraell, ſaying, Beware that thou goe not ouer to ſuch a place, for there the Syrians are lurkyng.

10 Therefore the kyng of Iſraell ſent to the place, whiche the man of God tolde hym, and warned hym of, (a) and ſaued himſelfe from it, not once, nor twyſe.

a. God will diſcloſe the craftie counſel of the wicked.

11 And the hart of the kyng of Syria was troubled for this thyng: and he called for his ſeruaunts, and ſayde vnto them, Wyll ye not ſhewe me, whiche of our men (betrayeth me) to the kyng of Iſraell?

12 And one of hys ſeruaunts ſayd, None, my lorde, O kyng: But Eliſa the prophete, that is in Iſraell, telleth the king of Iſrael, yea euen the wordes, that thou ſpeakeſt in thy priuy chamber.

13 He ſayde, Goe, and ſpie, where he is, that I may ſende, and fetche him. And one told hym, ſaying, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

℄ 14 Therefore ſent he thyther horſes and charettes, and a mighty hoſt: and they came by night, and compaſſed the citie about.

15 And when the ſeruant of the mā of God roſe vp early to goe out, beholde, there was an hoſt round about the towne with horſes and charets: and his ſeruaunt ſayde vnto hym, Alas maiſter, what ſhall we do?

16 He anſweared, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are moe than they, that be with them.

2. Par. 22. a.

17 And Eliſa prayed, and ſayd, Lord, I beſeeche thee, open his eyes, that he may ſee. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he loked: and beholde, the mountayne was full of horſes, and charets of fire rounde about Eliſa.

18 And when they came downe to him, Eliſa prayed vnto the Lord, and ſayd, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindneſſe. And he ſmote them with blindneſſe, accordyng to the worde of Eliſa.

Gen. 19. c. Sapi. 19. c.

19 And Eliſa ſayde vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the towne: folowe me, & I will bryng you to the man whom ye ſeeke. But he ledde them to Samaria.

20 And it fortuned, that when they were come to Samaria, Eliſa ſayde, Lord, open their eyes, that they may ſee. And the lord opened their eyes, and they ſaw, and behold, they were in the middes of Samaria.

℈ 21 And the kyng of Iſrael ſayd vnto Eliſa, when he ſawe them, My father, ſhall I ſmite them? ſhal I ſmite them?

22 And he anſweared, Thou ſhalt not ſmite them: but ſmite thoſe that thou haſt taken with thyne owne ſwoorde, and with thyne owne bowe: But rather ſet bread and water before them, that they may eate & drinke, and goe to their maiſter.

23 And he prepared a great refection for the, and when they had eaten and dronken, he ſent them away, and they went to their maiſter. And ſo the ſouldiours of Syria came no more into the land of Iſraell.

24 After this it chaunced, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his hoſt, & went vp, and beſieged Samaria.

25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: & behold, they beſieged it, vntill an Aſſes head was ſold for fourefcore ſiluer pēce, and the fourth part of a (b) cabbe of Doues doung was ſolde for fiue peeces of ſiluer.

b. Ieruſalem was ſtrayt beſieged in the ſiege of Samaria.

26 And as the kyng of Iſraell was goyng vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, ſaying, Helpe me, my lorde, O king.

27 He ſayde, If the Lorde do not ſuccour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the C barne, or with the wineprelle?

28 And the king ſayde vnto hyr, What wilt thou? She anſwered, Yonder womā ſayde vnto me, Bring thy ſonne, y we may eate him to day, & we wil eate mine to morow.

29 And ſo we dreſſed my ſonne, and did eate him: And I ſayde to hyr the other day, Bryng thy ſonne, that we may eate hym: And ſhe hath hid hyr ſonne.

Leui. Deu. 28. 53. Thr. 4. 10.

30 And it came to paſſe, that when the kyng hearde the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vp on the wall, and the people loked, and behold, he had a ſackcloth vnder (c) vpon his fleſhe.

c. The people of god ſometyme to pleaſe with men in ceremonies when they will not.

31 Then he ſayde, God do ſo, and more alſo to me, if the head of Eliſa the ſonne of Saphat ſhall ſtande on hym this day.

32 But Eliſa ſate in his houſe (and the elders ſate by him) and the king ſent a man before him: but yer the meſſenger came to him, he ſaid to the elders, Haue ye not ſeene, howe that the ſonne of this murderer hath ſent to take away mine head? Be circūſpect, when the meſſenger commeth, and ſhut the doore, & holde him at the doore: Is not the ſounde of his maiſters feete behinde him?

2. King. 6.

33 While he yet talked with them, behold, y meſſenger came downe vnto him, and ſaid, Behold, this euil is of the Lorde: and what more ſhall I loke for of the Lorde?

The. vij. Chapter.

1. Eliſa prophecieth plentie of vittayle, and other things to Samaria. 6. The Syrians runne away, and haue no man folowyng them. 17. The prince that wouldenot beleeue the woorde of Eliſa, is troden to death.

1 Then

1 Then Eliſa ſayd, Heare ye the worde of the Lorde: To morowe by this time (ſhall) a buſhell of fine flowre (be ſolde) for a ſicle, and two buſhels of barley for a ſicle, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a certaine Lord (on whoſe hand the king leaned) anſwered the man of God, and ſayde, Beholde, if the Lorde woulde make Windowes in heauen, might thys ſaying come to paſſe? He ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee it with thine eyes, but ſhalt not eate thereof.

3 And there were foure leprous men at the entering in of the gate: & they ſayde one to another, Why ſit we here vntill we die?

4 If we ſay, we will enter into the citie, beholde, the dearth is in the citie, and we ſhall dye therein: and if we ſitte ſtill here, we die alſo. Nowe therefore come, and let vs fall vpon the hoſt of the Syrians: if they ſaue our liues we ſhall liue: if they kill vs, then are we dead.

5 And they roſe vp in the twylight, to goe to the hoſt of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vtmoſt part of the hoſt of Syria, beholde there was no man there.

6 For the Lorde had made the hoſt of the Syrians to heare a noyſe of charets, and a noyſe of horſes, and a noyſe of a great hoſt: inſomuch that they ſayd one to another, Lo, the king of Iſrael hath hyred againſt vs the kings of the Hethites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs.

7 Wherefore they aroſe, and fled in the twylight, and left their tents, their horſes, and their Aſſes, and the field which they had pitched, euen as it was, (a) and fledde for their lyues.

8 And when theſe lepers came to the edge of the hoſt, they went into a tent, and did eate, and drinke, and caried thence ſiluer, & golde, and rayment, and went and hid it: and came againe, and entered into an other tent, and caried thence alſo, and went and hid it.

9 Then ſayde one to another, Wee doe not well this day, for as muche as it is a daye to bring good tydings, and we holde oure peace. If we tarrie till the day light, ſome miſchiefe will come vpon vs. Nowe therefore come, that we may go and tel the kings houſholde.

10 And ſo they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and tolde them, ſaying, We came to the pauilions of the Syrians, and ſee there was no man there, neither voyce of man: but horſes and aſſes tyed and the tents were euen as they were wont to be.

11 And ſo the man called vnto the porters, and they tolde the kings houſe within.

12 And the king aroſe in the night, and ſayde vnto his ſeruants, (b) I wil ſhew you now, what the Syrians haue done vnto vs: they know that we be hungrie, and therefore are they gone out of the pauilions to hide themſelues in the fielde, ſaying, When they come out of the citie, we ſhal catch them aliue, and get into the citie.

b. He miſtruſted the Prophets wordes, and as one more politike than godly, caſt more perils than needed.

13 And one of his ſeruauntes anſwered, and ſayde, Let men take, I pray you, fiue of the horſes, that remaine and are left in the multitude: (beholde, they are euen as al the multitude of Iſrael, that are left in the citie: beholde (I ſay) they are euen as al the multitude of the Iſraelites, that are conſumed) and we will ſende, and ſee.

14 They toke therfore the horſes of two charets, and the king ſent after the hoſt of the Syrians, ſaying, Go and ſee. C

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, and loe, all the way was full of clothes, and veſſels, which the Syrians had caſt from them in their haſte: and the meſſengers returned, and tolde the king.

16 And the people went out, and ſpoyled the tents of the Syrians: and ſo it came to paſſe that a buſhel of fine flowre was ſolde for a ſicle, and two buſhelles of barley for a ſicle, according to the worde of the Lorde.

17 And the King appointed that Lorde (on whoſe hande he leaned) to be at the gate: and the people (c) trode vpō him in the gate, and he dyed, according to the worde of the man of God, which he ſayde, when the king came downe to him.

c. The faythleſſe derider of gods prophets puniſhed.

18 And ſo came the thing to paſſe, that the man of God had ſpoken to the king, ſaying, Two buſhels of barly for a ſicle, and a buſhel of fine flowre for another, ſhalbe to morow this time in the gate of Samaria. 3. Reg. 7. a.

19 Whereunto that Lorde anſwered the man of God, and ſayde, Yea, and if the lord made windowes in heauen, might it come to paſſe? And hee ſayde, Beholde, thou ſhalt ſee it with thine eyes, and ſhalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen ſo chaunced it vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

The. viij. Chapter.

1. Eliſa propheſieth vnto the Sunamite, the dearth of ſeuen yeares. 11. Hee propheſieth to Hazael that he ſhal be king of Syria. 15. Hazael raigneth after Benhadad. 16. Ioram raigneth ouer Iuda. 20. Edom falleth from Iuda. 29. Ohozia ſucceedeth Ioram.

A 1 Then spake Elisa vnto the woman
4. Reg. 7. a. (whose sonne hee had restored to lyfe againe) saying, Up, and goe thou and thine houshold, and sojourne wheresoeuer thou canst: for the Lorde hath called for a dearth, and the same shall come vpon the lande seuen yeares.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God, and went both she and hir houshold, and sojourned in the lande of the Philistines seuen yeares.

3 And at the seuen yeares ende, it fortuned, that the woman came agayne out of the lande of the Philistines, and went oute to call vpon the king for hir house, and for hir lande.

4 And the King talked with Gehezi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tell me I pray thee, all the great deedes, that Elisa hath done.

5 Hee tolde the King howe hee had restored a dead bodye to lyfe agayne: but in the meane time the woman, whose sonne he had rayled vp againe, cryed to the King for hir house, and for hir lande: and Gehezi sayde, My Lorde, O king, this is the woman, and this is hir sonne, whom Eliza rayled vp agayne.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she tolde him: and so the king deliuered hir a chamberlaine, saying, Restore thou vnto hir all that is hirs, and all the (a) fruites of the fielde, since the day that she left the lande, vnto this tyme.

a. The king caused that to be iustly restored, which was wrongfully holden from hir.

B 3. Reg. 19. c.

7 And Elisa came to Damasco: and Benhadad the king of Syria was sicke, and one told him, saying, The man of God is come hyther.

3. Reg. 14. a. 8 And the king sayde vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hande, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayst inquyre of the Lorde by him, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?

9 And so Hazaell went to meete him, and toke the present with him, and of euery good thing of Damasco, euen as much as foxtie Camelles coulde beare: and came and presented himselfe before hym, and sayde, Thy sonne Benhadad king of Syria, hath sent mee to thee, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?

10 And Elisa sayde vnto him, Goe, and say vnto him, Thou shalt (b) recouer: howbeeit the Lorde hath shewed me, that he shal surely die.

b. Meaning that he should not die of that disease, yet he should die by the hande of Hazael the messenger.

11 He looked vpon him stedfastly, vntyll hee was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael sayd, Why weepeth my lorde? He answered, For I know the euill things, that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israell: for their strong Cities shalt thou set on fyre, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the swoorde, and shalt dashe oute the braynes of their sucking children, and all to teare their women with childe.

13 But Hazael sayde, What, is thy seruant a dogge, that I should doe this great thing? And Elisa answered, The Lord hath shewed me, that thou shalt be king of Syria.

14 And so he departed from Elisa, and came to his maister: which sayde to him, What sayde Elisa to thee? He answered, He told me, that thou shouldest recouer.

15 And on the morowe it fortuned, that hee toke a thicke cloth, and dipt it in water, and (c) spread it on his face: and he dyed, and Hazael raigned in his stead.

16 The fifth yeare of Joram the sonne of Iahab king of Israel, Iehosaphat being also king of Juda, Joram the sonne of Iehosaphat king of Juda began to raigne.

17 Thirtie and two yeares old was he when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned eyght yeares in Hierusalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the kings of Israell, as they that were of the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wyfe, and hee did euyll in the syght of the Lorde.

19 And the Lorde would not destroy Juda, (and that) bycause of Dauid his seruant, as he promised him, to giue him alway a light among his children.

20 In those dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hande of Juda: for they made them a king of their owne.

21 So Joram went to Zair, he and all his charets with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in with the captaynes of his charets, and the people fled into their tentes.

22 But Edom rebelled, so that he would not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day: Then Libnah rebelled that same time.

23 The rest of the wordes, that concerne Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in ý booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

24 And Joram rested with his fathers, and was buryed beside his fathers in the Citie of Dauid: and Ahaziahu his sonne raigned in his steade.

25 In the twelfth yeare of Joram the sonne of Ahab king of Israell, did Ahaziahu the sonne of Joram king of Juda beginne to raigne.

26 Two and twentie yeares olde was Ahaziahu, when hee beganne to raigne, and he raigned raigned one yeare in Hierusalem: and hys mothers name was Athaliahu, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 But he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did euil in the sight of the Lorde, (euen) as did the house of Ahab: for he was the sonne in lawe of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Iozam the sonne of Ahab, to warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Iozam.

29 And king Iozam went backe againe to be healed in Iezrael of the woundes, which the Syrians had giuen him at Ramoth, when hee fought against Hazael king of Syria: and Ahaziahu the sonne of Iozam, king of Iuda, went downe to see Iozam, the sonne of Ahab in Iezrahel, bycause hee was sicke there.

The. ix. Chapter.

6. Iehu is made king of Israel. 24. And kylleth Ioram the king thereof, 27. and Ahaziah, otherwise called Ochozias the king of Iuda. 33. And causeth Iesabel to bee cast downe out of a window, and the dogges did eate hir

1 AND Elisa the prophete called one of the children of the prophetes, and sayd vnto him, Gyrde vp thy loynes, and take thys boxe of Oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth (in) Gilead.

2 And when thou commest thither, looke where is Iehu, the sonne of Iehosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi: and go to him, and make him rise vp from among his brethren, and carrie him to a secrete chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of Oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus sayth the Lorde, I haue annoynted thee to be king ouer Israel: and then open the doore, and flee without any tarying.

4 And so the seruaunt of the prophete gate him to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when hee came in, beholde, the Captaynes of the host were sitting togither: and hee sayde, I haue an errande to thee, O captayne.

6 And Iehu sayde, Vnto which of all vs? He sayd, To thee, O captaine. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of Israel, I haue (a) annoynted thee to be king ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Israel.

7 Thou shalt smyte the house of Ahab thy maister, that I may auenge the bloud of my seruauntes the Prophetes, and the bloud of all the seruants of the Lorde, of the hande of Iezabell:

8 For the whole house of Ahab shal be destroyed, and I will destroy from Ahab (euen) him, that maketh water against the wall, and him that is prisoned and forsaken in Israel: 3. Reg. 21. k.

9 And I will make the house of Ahab, like the house of Ieroboam, the sonne of Nabat, and lyke the house of Baasa, the sonne of Ahia.

10 And as for Iezabel, the dogges shall eate hir in the fielde of Iezrael: and there shall be none to burie hir. And hee opened the doore, and fledde. 4. Reg. 19. k.

11 Iehu came oute to the seruantes of hys Lorde, and one sayde vnto him, Is al well? Wherefore came this mad fellowe to thee? And hee sayde vnto them, Ye know what maner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They sayd vnto him againe, It is not so: tell vs. He sayde, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus sayeth the Lorde, I haue annoynted thee to be king ouer Israel.

13 Then they hasted and toke euery man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the stayres, and blewe with trumpets, saying, Iehu is king.

14 And so Iehu the sonne of Iehosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, conspired against Ioram: (Iozam kept Ramoth Gilead, hee and all Israel, bycause of Hazael king of Syria: ℭ

15 And king Iozam returned to be healed in Iezrahel of the woundes which the Syrians had giuen him when hee fought wyth Hazael king of Syria:) And Iehu sayde, If it be your myndes, then let no man depart, and escape out of the Citie, to goe and tell in Iezrael. 4. Re. 8. g.

16 So Iehu gate vp (into a Charet) and went to Iezrael, where Iozam lay: and Ahaziahu King of Iuda was come downe thither to see Iozam.

17 And the watchman, that stode on the towre in Iezrahel, spyed the companie of Iehu as he came, and sayde, I see a companie. And Iozam sayde, Take an horseman, and sende him to meete them, that hee maye aske, whether it be peace.

18 And so there went one on horsebacke, to meete him, and sayde, Thus sayth the king, Is it peace? And Iehu sayde, What hast thou to do with peace? Turne thee behinde me. And the watchman tolde saying, The messenger came to them, but hee commeth not againe.

19 Then he sent out another on horsebacke, which which came to them, and sayde, Thus sayth the king, Is it peace? Jehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne thee behinde me.

D 20 And the watcheman tolde, saying, Hee came to them also, and commeth not again: and the dryuing is lyke the dryuing of Jehu the sonne of Nimsi: for hee dryueth the charet as he were mad.

21 And Joram sayde, Make readie. And the charet was made readie. And Joram king of Israel, and Ahaziahu king of Juda, went out eyther of them in his charet against Jehu, and met him in the fielde of Naboth the Jezrahelite.

22 And it fortuned, that when Joram sawe Jehu, he sayd, Is it peace Jehu? He answered, What peace should there be, so long as the whoredomes of thy mother Jezabell, and hir witchcrafts are so great?

23 And Joram turned his hande, and fledde, and sayde to Ahaziahu, there is falshode, O Ahaziahu.

24 And Jehu toke a bow in his hande, and smote Joram betweene the armes, and the arrow went thorow his heart, and hee fell downe flat in his charet.

25 Then sayde Jehu to Bidkar a captayne, Take (him) and cast him in the plat of the ground of Naboth the Jezrahelite: for I remember, that when I and thou rode togither after Ahab his father: the Lord layd his heauie burthen vpon him:

26 I haue seene yesterday the bloud of Naboth, and the bloud of his sonnes, sayde the Lorde: and I will requite it thee in thys ground, sayth the Lord. Nowe therefore take (him) & cast him in the plat of ground, according to the worde of the Lorde.

E 27 But when Ahaziahu the King of Juda sawe this, hee fled by the way of the garden house: and Jehu followed after him, and sayde, Smyte him also in the charet, at the going vp to Gur by Jebleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and there dyed.

28 And his seruants caried him in a Charet to Hierusalem, and buried him there in hys Sepulchre with his fathers in the Citie of Dauid.

29 And in the eleuenth yeare of Joram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziahu to raigne ouer Juda.

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezrabel, Jezabel hearde of it, and paynted hir face, and tyred hir head, and looked out at a window.

b. As though she should say, treason can haue no good successe.

31 And as Jehu entred at the gate, she sayde, Had (b) Zimri peace, whiche slue his maister?

32 And he lifted vp his eyes to the wyndow, and sayde, Who is of my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he sayde, Throw hir downe. So they threw hir downe, and hir bloud dashed towarde the wall, and towarde the horses: and he trode hir vnder foote.

34 And when he was come in, he did eate and dzinke, and sayde, Go and visite, I pray you, yonder cursed creature, and bury hir: for she is a kings daughter.

35 And so when they came to burie hir, they founde no more of hir than the skul, and the feete, and the palmes of hir handes.

36 Wherefore they came againe, and tolde him, and he sayde, This is the worde of the Lorde, which he spake by the hande of hys seruant Elias the Thesbite saying, In the fielde of Jezrahell shall dogs eate the flesh of Jezabel.

37 And so the carkasse of Jezabel was euen as dung vpon the earth in the fielde of Jezrahel, so that no man might saye, This is Jezabel.

The. x. Chapter.

6. Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Ahab to be slayne. 13. And after that, fortie and two of Ahaziahs brethren. 25. He killeth also all the priestes of Baal. 35. After his death his sonne raigneth in his steade.

1 AHab had threescore and ten sonnes in Samaria: and Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, vnto the rulers of Jezrahel, to the elders, and to them, that brought vp Ahabs children, saying,

2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you, (ye that haue with you your masters sonnes, ye haue with you both charets and horses: a strong citie haue ye also, and harnesse,)

3 Loke whiche of your maisters sonnes is best and most meete: and set him on his fathers seat, and fight for your Lords house.

4 But they were exceedingly afrayde, and sayde, See, two kings were not able to stande before him: howe shall wee then be able to stande?

5 And hee that was gouernour of Ahabs house, and he that ruled the citie, the elders also, and the tutours, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy seruaunts, and wyll do all that thou shalt bid vs: wee will make no man king, therefore doe thou what seemeth good in thine eyes.

6 Then hee wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye bee myne, and wyll hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men

men that are your maiſters ſonnes, and come to mee to Jezrahel by to morow this tyme: (and the Kings ſonnes were three-ſcore and ten perſons, and they were wyth the great men of the Citie, which brought them vp.)

B 7 And when the letter came to them, they toke the kings children, and ſlue them, euen three-ſcore and tenne perſons, and layde their heades in baſkettes, and ſent them to him to Jezrahel.

8 And there came a meſſenger, & tolde him, ſaying, They haue brought the heads of the kings ſonnes. And he ſayde, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntil the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and ſtode, and ſayde to all the folke, Ye be righteous: behold, I conſpired againſt my maiſter and ſlue him: but who ſlue all theſe?

10 Learne here, that there ſhall fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lorde, which he ſpake, concerning the houſe of Ahab: for the Lorde hath brought to paſſe the things, that hee ſpake by the hande of his ſeruant Elias. 3. Reg. 21. k.

11 And ſo Jehu ſlue all that remayned of the houſe of Ahab in Jezrahel, and al that were great with him, and his kinſfolkes, and his Prieſtes, ſo that he let nothing of hym remaine.

C 12 And he aroſe and departed, and came to Samaria: and when Jehu was in the way of the houſe, where the ſhepheards did kéare their ſheepe, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziahu king of Juda, and ſayde, What are ye? They anſwered, The brethren of Ahaziahu are we, and go downe to ſalute the children of the King, and of the Queene.

14 And he ſayde, Take them aliue. Whom when they had taken aliue, they ſlue them at the well, which was beſide the houſe, where the ſheepe are ſhorne, euen two and fortie men, neyther left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he met with Jehonadab, the ſonne of Rechab comming againſt him, and hee bleſſed hym, and ſayde to hym, Is thyne heart right, as mine heart is true wyth thine? And Jehonadab anſwered, Yea, that it is. Then giue me thine hande. And when he had giuen him his hande, hee toke him vp to hym into the charet. 2. Reg. 25. a.

16 And ſayde, Come with mee, and ſee the zeale that I haue for the Lorde. And ſo they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he ſlue al that remayned vnto Ahab in Samaria, tyll hee had wyped him out, according to the ſaying of the Lorde, which hee ſpake to Elias.

18 And Jehu gathered al the people togither, and ſayd vnto them, Ahab ſerued (a) Baal a little: but Jehu ſhall ſerue him more. 2. Reg. 16. g.

a. Baal ſignifieth Aſtharoth, the Idol of the Sidonians.

19 Nowe therefore call vnto me al the Prophetes of Baal, all ſuch as ſerue him, and all his Prieſtes, and let none bee lacking: for I haue a great ſacrifice to doe to Baal: and therefore whoſoeuer is miſſed, he ſhall not liue. But Jehu did it for a ſubtiltie, to the intent that he might deſtroy the ſeruauntes of Baal.

20 And Jehu ſayd, Proclayme an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaymed it.

21 And Jehu ſent vnto all Iſrael, and all D the ſeruauntes of Baal, came, that there was not a man left behynde that came not: and they came into the houſe of Baal, and the houſe of Baal was ful from one ende to another.

22 And he ſayde vnto him that was the keeper of the veſtrie, Bring forth garments for all the ſeruants of Baal. And he brought them out garments.

23 And when Jehu went with Jehonadab, the ſonne of Rechab, into the houſe of Baal, he ſayd vnto the ſeruants of Baal, Searche, and looke, that there be here with you none of the ſeruants of the Lorde, but the ſeruants of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to offer ſacryfice, and burnt offering, Jehu appoynted foureſcore men without, and ſayde, If any of the men whome I haue brought vnder your handes eſcape, he that letteth him goe, ſhall die for him.

25 And it fortuned, that as ſoone as hee had made an ende of offering the burnt ſacrifice, Jehu ſayde to the men of warre, and to the captaynes, Goe in, and ſlay them: let none come oute. And they ſmote them with the edge of the ſworde: and the men of warre, and the captaines caſt them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal.

26 And fet the Images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the Image of Baal, and brake the houſe of Baal, and made a draft E houſe of it vnto this day.

28 And ſo Jehu deſtroyed Baal out of Iſrael.

29 But from the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, which made Iſrael to ſin, Jehu departed not from them, (neyther from) the golde calues that were in Bethel, and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Jehu, Becauſe thou

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the law of the Lord God of Iſrael with all his hart: for he departed not from the ſinnes of Ieroboam, which made Iſrael to ſinne.

4.Reg.8.c. 32 In thoſe dayes the Lorde beganne to cut Iſrael ſhort, and Hazael ſmote them in all the coaſtes of Iſrael.

33 From Iordane Eaſtwarde, euen all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manaſſes, from Aroer, (which is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead, and Baſan.

36 And the time that Iehu raigned vpon Iſrael in Samaria, is twentie & eight yeares.

4 And the ſeuenth yeare Iehoiada ſent, and fet the rulers ouer hundreds, with the Captaynes, and them of the garde, and toke them to him into the houſe of the Lorde, and made a bonde with them, and toke an othe of them in the houſe of the Lord, and ſhewed them the kings ſonne.

5 And he commaunded them, ſaying, This it is, that ye muſt doe: one thirde parte of you, whoſe duetie is to come in on the ſabboth day, ſhall keepe the watche of the kings houſe:

6 And another thirde parte ſhall keepe the gate of Sur: and another thirde part ſhall keepe the gate, which is behinde them of the gard: and ſo ſhall ye keepe the watch of the houſe of Meſſah.

10 And to the Captaynes ouer hundreds, did the Prieſt giue king Dauids ſpeares and ſhieldes that were in the temple.

11 And they of the garde ſtode, and euerie man had his weapon in his hande rounde about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left, along by the aulter and the temple.

12 And hee brought out the kings ſonne, and put the crowne vpon him, and deliuered him (a) the witneſſe, and made him king, and annoynted him: and they clapt their hands, and ſayd, God ſaue the king.

13 And when Athalia heard the noyſe of the running of the people, ſhe came to the people into the temple of the Lorde.

14 (b) And when ſhe looked, beholde, the king C

15 But Iehoiada the Prieſt commaunded the Captaynes of the hundreds, that had the rule of the hoſt, and ſayde vnto them, Haue hir forth of the ranges: and if any followe hir, kill him with the ſworde. For the prieſt had ſayd, She may not be ſlaine in the houſe of the Lorde.

16 And they layde handes on hir, tyll ſhee came into the way, by the whiche the horſes went into the kings palace, and there was ſhe ſlaine.

17 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene the 18 And all the people of the lande went into the houſe of Baal, & deſtroyed it: his aulters alſo, and his Images brake they downe luſtily, and ſlue Mathan the prieſt of Baal before the aulters: and the prieſt ſet watche ouer the houſe of the Lorde.

19 And toke the rulers ouer hundredes, the captaynes and them of the garde, and all the people of the lande: and they brought the king from the houſe of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde, to the kings palace: and he ſate him downe on the ſeate of the kings.

20 And all the people of the lande reioyced, and the Citie was in quiet: and they ſlue Athalia with the ſworde, beſide the kings palace.

The.xij. Chapter.

6. Iehoas maketh prouiſion for the repayring of the temple. 16. He ſtayeth the king of Syria by a preſent from comming againſt Hieruſalem. 20. He is killed by two of his ſeruants.

1 IN the ſeuenth yeare of Iehu, foꝛtie yeares raigned he in Hieruſalem: and his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beerſeba.

2 And hee did that whiche was good in the ſight of the Lorde, as long as (a) Iehoiada the prieſt enſoꝛmed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: foꝛ the people offered and burnt incenſe yet vpon the highe places.

4 And Iehoas ſayde to the prieſtes, All the ſiluer of the dedicate things that be brought to the houſe of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euerie man is ſet at, and al the money that euery man with a willing heart giueth, and bringeth into the houſe of the Lorde:

5 Let the prieſtes take it to them, euery man of his acquaintaunce, to repayre the broken places of the houſe, whereſoeuer any decaye is founde.

6 And ſo it came to paſſe, that vnto the three and twentieth yeare of king Iehoas, the prieſts had mended nothing that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then king Iehoas called foꝛ Iehoiada the prieſt, and the other prieſts and ſayde vnto them, Why repayre yee not the broken places of the temple? Nowe therefore ſee that ye receyue no moꝛe money of your acquayntance, except ye deliuer it to repayre the temple withall.

8 And the prieſtes conſented to receyue no moꝛe money of the people, except to repayre the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the prieſt toke a cheſt, and boꝛed a hole in the lydde of it, and ſet it beſide the aulter, on the right ſide as euerye man commeth into the temple of the Lord, and the prieſts that kept the veſſels, put therin all the money that was brought into the houſe of the Lorde.

10 And it foꝛtuned, that when they ſaw there was muche money in the cheſt, the kings ſcribe and the high prieſt came vp, and tolde the money that was founde in the houſe of the Lorde, and put it into a bagge. 4.Re. 22.8.

11 And they gaue the money ſealed into the handes of them that executed the woꝛke, and that had the ouerſight of the houſe of the Lorde: and they brought it out to the Carpenters and buylders that wrought vpon the houſe of the Lorde, 12 And to Maſons, and hewers of ſtone: and they brought timber and free ſtone, to repayre the decay in the houſe of the Lord, and to al that went out to mend the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made foꝛ the houſe of the Lorde bolles of ſiluer, inſtruments of muſicke, baſons, trumpets, oꝛ any veſſelles of golde, oꝛ veſſelles of ſiluer, of the money that was brought into the houſe of the Lorde.

14 But they gaue that to the woꝛkemen, C and repayred therewith the houſe of the Lorde.

15 Moꝛeouer they reckened not with the men into whoſe handes they deliuered that money to bee beſtowed on woꝛkmen: foꝛ they did their buſineſſe faythfully:

16 Howbeit, trelpaſſe money, and ſinne money, was not brought into the houſe of the Lorde, foꝛ it was the prieſts.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, and fought againſt Geth, and toke it: and Hazael ſet his face to go vp to Hieruſalem.

18 And Iehoas king of Iuda toke all the hallowed things that Ieholaphat, Iehoram, and Achaziahu his fathers kings of Iuda, had dedicate, and that he himſelfe had dedicated, and al the golde that was founde in the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and in the kings houſe, and ſent it to Hazael king of Syria, and ſo he departed from Hieruſalem.

19 The remnaunt of the woꝛdes that concerne Iehoas, and all that hee did, are they not not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

20 And his owne seruants arose, & wrought treason, and slue Ioas in the house Millo, when he came downe to Silla:

21 Iozachar the sonne of Semaath, and Iehozabad the sonne of Somer his seruaunts, smote him, and he dyed: and they buryed him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Amaziahu his sonne raigned in his steade.

The.xiij. Chapter.

1 IN the three and twentieth yeare of Ioas the sonne of Ahaziahu king of Juda, Iehoahas the sonne of Iehu began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria, seuentene yeares.

2 And hee wrought that which was euyll in the sight of the Lorde, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lorde was angrie with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael all their dayes.

4 And Iehoahas besought the Lorde, and the Lorde heard him: for he considered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Syria troubled them.

5 (And the Lorde gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they went out from vnder the subiection of the Syrians: and the chyldren of Israel dwelt in their tentes as before tyme.

6 Neuerthelesse, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam, which made Israel sinne, but walked in them: and there remayned an Idols grone styll also in Samaria.)

7 Neyther did he leaue of the people to Iehoahas but fiftie horsemen, tenne charettes, and tenne thousande fotemen: for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like threshed dust.

4.Re.8.b.

12 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that hee did, and his power wherewith they fought against Amaziahu king of Juda, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

14 When Elisa was fallen sicke, of the sicknesse whereof he dyed, Ioas the king of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept before him, and sayde, O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.

15 Elisa sayde vnto him, Take bowe and arrowes. And hee toke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And he sayde to the king of Israel, Put thine hande vpon the bowe. And he put his hande vpon it: and Elisa put his handes vpon the kings handes, 17 And sayd, open a window Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisa sayde, Shoote. And he shot: and hee sayde, The arrow of health of the Lorde, and the arrow of health against Syria: for thou shalt smyte Syria in Aphec, till thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And hee sayde, Take the arrowes. And hee toke them: and he sayde vnto the king of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thrice, and ceassed.

19 And the man of God was angrie with him, and sayde, Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe tymes, and then thou hadst smytten Syria till thou hadst made an ende of them: where now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

20 And so Elisa dyed, and they buryed him: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the lande (a) the same yeare.

21 And it chaunced, as some of them were burying a man, and spyed the souldiers, they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisa: and when the man was rolled downe, and touched the bones of Elisa, he reuiued, and stood vpon his feete.

22 But Hazael king of Syria vexed Israel all the dayes of Iehoahaz.

23 And

23 And the Lorde had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, by-cause of his appoyntment made with Abra-ham, Isahac, and Iacob, and would not de-stroy them, neyther cast he them from hym as yet.

24 So Hazael the king of Syria dyed, and Benhadad his sonne raigned in his steede.

25 And Iehoaz the sonne of Iehoahaz wente agayne, and toke out of the hand of Benha-dad the sonne of Hazael, the cities whyche he had taken away out of the hand of Iehoahaz his father, in warre: For three times did Jo-as beate him, and restored the cities vnto Is-rael agayne.

17 The thirtie and ninth yeere of Azaria king of Juda, beganne Menahem the ſonne of Gadi to raigne vpon Iſraell ten yeeres in Samaria.

18 And he did euill in the ſight of the Lord, and turned not away all hys dayes from the ſinne of Jeroboam, the ſonne of Nabat which made Iſraell to ſynne.

19 And Phul the king of Aſſyria, came vpon the land: and Menahem gaue Phul a thouſand talents of ſyluer, that his hand myght be with him, and ſtabliſhe the kingdome in his hande.

20 And Menahem made a pꝛoclamation foꝛ the money in Iſraell, that all men of ſubſtaunce substance, should giue the king of Assyria fiftiene sicles of siluer a peece: and so the kyng of Assyria turned backe againe, and tarried not there in the lande.

21 The rest of the wordes that cõcerne Menahem, and all that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of ỹ kings of Israell?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pecahia his sonne did raigne in his steede.

23 In the fiftieth yeere of Azaria king of Juda, beganne Pecahia the sonne of Menahem to raigne ouer Israell in Samaria two yeeres.

24 And did that which was euill in the sight of the Lord, and left not off from the synnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, whyche made Israel synne.

25 But Pecah ỹ sonne of Remaliahu, which was a captayne of hys, conspired agaynste him, and smote him in Samaria, euen in the place of the kinges house, with Argob and Aria, and with him were fiftie men of the Gileadites: and he kylled hym, and raigned in his rowme.

26 The rest of the wordes that concerne Pecahia, and all that he did, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israell.

27 In the two and fiftieth yeere of Azaria king of Juda, began Pecah the son of Remaliahu to raygne ouer Israell in Samaria twentie yeeres:

28 And did euil in the syght of the Lorde, and turned not away from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat that made Israell to synne.

29 In the dayes of Pecah king of Israell, came Thiglath Pelesar king of Assyria, and toke Jion, Abel. Beth maacha, Janaoth, Kedes, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and all the lande of Nephthali, and carried them away to Assyria.

30 And Hosea the sonne of Ela, conspyred treason against Pecah the sonne of Remaliahu, and smote him, and slue him, and raigned in his steede in the twentieth yeere of Jotham the sonne of Uzziath.

31 The rest of the wordes that concerne Pecah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israell.

32 The seconde yeere of Pecah, the sonne of Remaliahu king of Israell, began Jotham the son of Uzziath king of Juda to raigne.

33 Five and twentie yeeres olde was he whē he began to raigne, and he raigned sixtiene yeeres in Hierusalem: hys mothers name was Jerusa, the daughter of Zadoc.

34 And he did that which is right in ỹ syghte of the Lord: euen accoyding to all as dyd his father Uzziath, so did he.

35 But the high places were not put away, F for the people offered and burnt incense still in the high places: he built the higher doze of the house of the Lorde.

36 The rest of the wordes that concerne Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

37 (In those days the Lorde beganne to send into Juda, Rezin the king of Syria, & Pecah the sonne of Remaliahu.)

38 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father, and Ahaz his son raigned in his steede.

of Remaliahu (king of Israel,) (a) Ahaz the sonne of Jotham king of Juda began to raigne.

a. A wicked sonne of a godly father.

2 Twentie yeeres olde was he when he was made king, and raigned sixtiene yeeres in Hierusalem, and did not that whiche was right in the eyes of the Lorde his God, lyke Dauid his father.

3 But walked in the way of the kinges of Israell, yea, and made hys sonnes to goe thzough the fyze, after the abhominations of the heathen, whome the Lord cast out before the childzen of Israell. Deu.18.b.

4 And hee offered and burnt incense in the hygh places, and on the hilles, and vnder euery thicke tree.

5 Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pecah son of Remaliahu king of Israell, came vp to Hierusalem, to fyght: And they fought against Ahaz, but could not ouercome hym. Esay.7.a.

6 At the same time Rezin king of Syria, brought Elath againe to Syria, and rid the Iewes thence: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt therein vnto this day. 4.Reg.14.k.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Thiglath Pelesar king of Assyria, saying, I am thy seruaunte, and thy sonne, come vp and deliuer me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israell, which ryse vp against me. B

b. Neglecting Gods help, he spoyled the temple of God, to procure mans help.

8 (b) And Ahaz toke the syluer and golde that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent a reward to the king of Assyria.

Esay.8.b. 9 And the king of Assyria consented vnto hym: For the king of Assyria went vp against Damascon, and when he had taken it, he carried the people away to Kir, and slue Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went to Damascon, to meete Thiglath Pelesar king of Assyria: and when king Ahaz sawe an aulter that was at Damascon, he sent Uria the priest, the paterne of the aulter, and the fashion of it, and all the workmanship therof.

c. There is no prince so wicked, but he shall synde flatterers and false ministers to serue hys turne.

11 And Uria the priest made an aulter in (c) all poynters like to the paterne which king Ahaz had sente from Damascon, euen so dyd Uria the priest make it, agaynst king Ahaz came from Damascon.

12 And so when the king was come frō Damascon, he sawe the aulter: and the king went to it, and offered theron.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering, and hys meate offering, and powred his drinke offering, and sprinkeled the bloud of his peace offering vpon the aulter,

¶ 14 And the brasen aulter whiche was before the Lorde, and set it without the temple, betweene the aulter and the temple of the Lorde, and put it on the North syde of the aulter.

15 And king Ahaz commaunded Uria the priest and sayde, Vppon the great aulter, set on fyre in the morning the burnt offering, and in the euen the meate offering, and the kings burnt sacrifice, and his meate offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meate offering, and their drinke offerings, and powre thereby all the bloud of the burnt offering, and all the bloud of the sacrifice: and the brasen aulter, will I come and see.

16 And Uria the priest did, according to all things as king Ahaz commaunded him.

3.Reg.7.d. 17 And king Ahaz brake the sydes of the bottomes, and toke the lauer from off them, and toke downe the lauatorie from off the brasen Oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones.

18 And the vayle for the Sabboth that they had made in the house, and the kings entrie without, turned he to the house of the Lorde, for feare of the king of Assyria.

19 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ahaz what he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried wyth hys fathers in the citie of David, and Hezekia his sonne raigned in hys stede.

The.xvij.Chapter.

4. Hosea king of Israell is taken. 6. And he and all his realme brought to the Assyrians, 18. for their idolatrie. 24. Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwelt in Samaria. 29. Euery one woorshipped the God of hys nation, 35. contrarye to the commaundemente of God.

1 IN the twelfth yeere of Ahaz king of Juda, beganne Hosea the sonne of Ela to raigne in Samaria vpon Israel nine yeeres:

2 And did that whiche was euil in the syghte of the Lorde, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 And Salmanasar king of Assyria came vp against him, and Hosea became his seruaunt, and gaue him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria founde treason in Hosea: for he had sent messegers to So, king of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the king of Assyria frō yeere to yeere: and therfore the king of Assyria shut hym vp, and bound him in the prison house.

5 And then the king of Assyria came vp throughout all the land, and gate vp against Samaria and besieged it three yeeres.

6 In the ninth yeere of Hosea, the king of Assyria toke Samaria, and carried Israell away vnto Assyria, and put them in Hala, and in Habor, by the riuer of Goza, and in the cities of the (a) Medes.

7 For it came to passe, that the children of Israell sinned against the Lord their GOD, which had brought them out of the lande of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharao king of Egypt, and feared other goddes.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen whome the Lord cast out before the children of Israell, and (in the ceremonies) which the kings of Israel had made.

9 And the children of Israell went about to hyde those thinges that were not well from the Lord their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, both in the towres where they kept watch, and also in the strong townes:

10 And they made thē images and groues, in euery high hill, and vnder euery thicke tree.

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whome the Lorde carried awaye before them, and wrought wicked thynges to anger the LORD withall:

12 For they serued moste vile idols, whereof the Lorde had sayde vnto them, Ye shall do no

do no such thing.

13 And the Lorde testified in Israell and in Juda, by all the Prophetes, and by all the Seers, saying, Turne from your wicked wayes, and keepe my commaundementes and my statutes, according to all the lawe which I commanded your fathers, & whiche I sent to you by my seruants the prophetes.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not heare, but rather hardned their neckes, like to the stubbernesse of their (b) fathers, that dyd not beleeue in the Lord their God.

15 For they refused his statutes, and hys appoyntment, that he made with their fathers, and the witnesses wherewith he witnessed vnto them, and they followed vanitie, and became vayne, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concerning whome the Lorde had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 But they left all the commaundements of the Lord their God, and made them images of metal, euen two calues, and (made) idoll groues, and worshipped all the (c) host of heauen, and serued Baal.

17 And they sacrificed their sonnes and theyr daughters in fyre, and vsed witchcrafts, and enchauntments, euen selling themselues to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, and to anger hym.

18 And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and put them out of his sighte, that there was left but the tribe of Juda only.

19 Neuertheless, Juda also kept not the cõmaundements of the Lorde their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Israel, whych they made.

20 And the Lord cast off all the seede of Israell, and vexed them, and deliuered them into the handes of spoylers, vntill he had cast them out of hys syght.

21 For he (d) cut off Israell from the house of Dauid, and made them a king, euen Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat? And Ieroboam drewe Israell away, that they shoulde not follow the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.

22 For the children of Israell walked in all the sinnes of Ieroboam which he did, and departed not therefrom.

23 Vntill the Lorde put Israel away out of his sight, as he had sayde by all his seruants the prophetes: and so was Israell carryed away out of their owne lande to Assyria, euen vnto this day.

24 And the kyng of Assyria brought menne from Babylon, from (e) Cutha, from Aua, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in steede of the chyldren of Israell: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the Cities thereof.

25 And it fortuned, that at the beginnyng of their dwellyng there, they feared not the Lorde, and the Lorde sente Lyons among them, whiche slue them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations whiche thou hast translated and put in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent Lyons vpon them, and behold, they slay them, bycause they knowe not the manner of worshipping the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Assyria commaunded, saying, Carrie thither one of ỳ priests whom ye brought thence, and let him goe and dwel there, and teache them the fashion howe to serue the God of the country.

28 And then one of the Priests whome they had carried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should feare the Lorde.

29 Howbeit euery nation made them Gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the high places, which the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Asima, 31 The Auites made Nibbaz and Tharthak: and the Sepharuites burnt their children in fyre for Adramelech, and Anamalech, ỳ gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lorde, and made them priestes of the basest of them, which sacrifised for thẽ in the houses of ỳ high places.

33 And so (f) they feared the Lord, and serued their owne goddes, after the manner of the people whome they caried thence.

34 And vnto this daye, they do after the olde manner: and neyther feare God, neyther doe after their ordinances and customes, and after the law and commaundement which the Lorde commaunded the children of Jacob, whome he called Israel.

35 And the Lorde made an appoyntmente with them, and charged them, saying, Feare none other Goddes, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lord whyche brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power, and a stretched out arme, him feare, and to him bowe, and to him do sacrifice.

37 The statutes, ordinances, lawe and commaundemente whiche he wrought for you, see that ye be diligent to doe for euermore,

f. We can not worship God and idols.

Gene.32.c. Jud.6.b. Jere.10.a.

and feare not any other goddes.

38 And the appoyntmente that I haue made with you, see ye forget not, and feare none other goddes.

39 But the Lorde youre God ye shall feare, and he shall deliuer you out of the handes of all your enimies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but dyd after their old custome.

41 And so these nations feared the Lord, and serued their images also, like as did theyr children, and their childers children: euen as did their fathers, so do they vnto this day.

The.xviij. Chapter.
